

Biblia: das ist:

Die gantze Heilige
Schrift: Deutsch
Nuffs neu zugericht.

D. Mart. Luth.

Begnadet mit Rurfürlicher zu Sachsen Freiheit.

Gedruckt zu Wittenberg/ Durch Hans Luffe.

M.D.XLV.

Luther Bible 1545 (English)

Text of the unrevised Luther Bible 1545

DeepL English Translation

The Apocrypha were not included as in Luther's Bible. Chapter headings etc. were included per orthodox Lutheran Bibles.

Table of Books of the Bible

Old Testament

1 Moses (Genesis)

2 Moses (Exodus)

3 Moses (Leviticus)

4 Moses (Numbers)

5 Moses (Deuteronomy)

Josua (Joshua)

Richter (Judges)

Ruth

1 Samuel

2 Samuel

1 Konige (1 Kings)

2 Konige (2 Kings)

1 Chronik (1 Chronicles)

2 Chronik (2 Chronicles)

Esra (Ezra)

Nehemia

Esther

Hiob (Job)

Psalmen (Psalms)

Spruche (Proverbs)

Prediger (Ecclesiastes)

Hohelied (Song of Songs)

Jesaja (Isaiah)

Jeremia (Jeremiah)

Klagelieder (Lamentations)

Hesekiel (Ezekiel)
Daniel
Hosea
Joel
Amos Obadja (Obadiah)
Jona (Jonah)
Micha (Micah)
Nahum
Habakuk (Habakkuk)
Zephanja (Zephaniah)
Haggai
Sacharja (Zechariah)
Maleachi (Malachi)

New Testament
Matthaus (Matthew)
Markus (Mark)
Lukas (Luke)
Johannes (John)
Apostelgeschichte (Acts)
Romer (Romans)
1 Korinther (1 Corinthians)
2 Korinther (2 Corinthians)
Galater (Galatians)
Epheser (Ephesians)
Philipper (Philippians)
Kolosser (Colossians)
1 Thessalonicher (1 Thess.)
2 Thessalonicher (2 Thess.)
1 Timotheus (1 Timothy)
2 Timotheus (2 Timothy)
Titus (Titus)
Philemon (Philemon)
Hebraer (Hebrews)
Jakobus (James)
1 Petrus (1 Peter)

2 Petrus (2 Peter)
1 Johannes (1 John)
2 Johannes (2 John)
3 Johannes (3 John)
Judas (Jude)
Offenbarung (Revelation)

The first book of Moses (Genesis)

Chapter 1

Creation of the world.

1. In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth.
2. And the earth was desolate and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep; and the Spirit of God was hovering upon the face of the waters.
3. And God said, Let there be light. And there was light.
4. And God saw that the light was good. Then God separated the light from the darkness.
5. And called the light Day, and the darkness Night. And the evening and the morning became the first day.
6. And God said, Let there be a firmament between the waters, and let there be a difference between the waters.
7. And God made the stronghold, and separated the waters that were under the stronghold from the waters that were above the stronghold. And it came to pass thus.
8. And God called the firmament heaven. And the evening and the morning became another day.
9. And God said, Let the waters under heaven be gathered together into divers places, that they may be seen that are dry. And it came to pass thus.
10. And God called the dry land Earth, and the gathering of the waters He called Sea. And God saw that it was good.

11. And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, and herb yielding seed, and fruitful trees; that every man may bring forth fruit after his kind, and have his own seed with him in the earth.

And it came to pass thus.

12. And the earth brought forth grass, and herbage that had her seed, every one after his kind, and trees that bare fruit, and had their own seed by themselves, every one after his kind. And God saw that it was good.

13. And the evening and the morning were the third day.

14. And God said, There shall be lights in the firmament of heaven, dividing day from night, and giving signs, times, days, and years;

15. And be lights in the firmament of heaven, that they may shine upon the earth. And it came to pass thus.

16. And God made two great lights, a great light to rule the day, and a small light to rule the night, and stars also.

17. And God set them in the firmament of heaven, to shine upon the earth.

18. And they ruled the day and the night, and separated the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good.

19. And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

20. And God said, Let the waters be filled with beasts of the air, and with living creatures, and with fowl that fly upon the earth under the firmament of heaven.

21. And God created great whales, and every living creature, and every beast that creepeth upon the waters after his kind, and every feathered fowl after his kind. And God saw that it was good.

22. And GOD blessed them, and said: Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters of the sea; and let the fowl multiply upon the earth.

23. And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

24. And God said, Let the earth bring forth living creatures, every one after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth, every one after his kind. And it came to pass thus.

25. And God made the beasts of the earth after their kind, and the cattle after their kind, and all the creeping things of the earth after their kind. And God saw, that it was good.

26. And God said, Let us make man in our image, like unto us, having dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

27. And God created man in his image, in the image of God created he him; and created them male and female.

28. And God blessed them, and said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

29. And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb that creepeth upon the face of the whole earth, and every fruitful tree, and every tree that creepeth, for your meat, 30. And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every creeping thing that hath life upon the earth, to eat every green herb. And it came to pass thus.

31. And God looked on all that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning became the sixth day.

(Genesis)

Chapter 2

Of the Sabbath, the essential pieces of man. Garden of Paradise. God's Commandment. Marriage.

1. So the heavens and the earth were finished with all their host.

2. And so on the seventh day God finished his works which he had made, and rested on the seventh day from all his works which he had made;

3. And blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it, because he had rested in it from all his works which God created and made.

4. So the heavens and the earth were created at the time that God the Lord made the earth and the heavens.

5. And every tree of the field, which was not before in the earth, and every herb of the field, which grew not before. For God the LORD had not yet caused it to rain upon the earth, neither was there any man to till the ground.

6. But a mist came up from the earth, and wetted all the land.

7. And God the LORD made man of a crock of earth, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life. And so man became a living soul.

8. And God the LORD planted a garden in Eden eastward, and put therein the man whom he had made.

9. And God the LORD caused to grow up out of the earth every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; and the tree of life in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

10. And there went out of Eden a river to water the garden, and there it divided itself into four principal waters.

11. The name of the first is Pison, which hath a fever throughout all the land of Hevilah, and there is found gold.

12. And the gold of the land is precious, and there is found bedellion, and the precious stone onyx.

13. And the other water is called Gihon, which goeth round about all the land of the Moors.

14. The third water is called Hiddekel, the flood of Assyria. The fourth water is Phrath.

15. And God the LORD took the man, and put him in the garden of Eden, to build it, and to keep it.

16. And God the LORD commanded the man, saying, Thou shalt eat of every tree of the garden; 17. But of the tree of knowledge, of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it. For in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.

18. And God the LORD said. It is not good that a man should be alone; I will make him a helpmeet to be with him.

19. For when God the LORD had made of the earth all manner of beasts of the field, and all manner of fowls of the air, he brought them unto man to see what he should call them: for as man shall call all manner of living creatures, so shall they be called.

20. And man gave his name to every beast, and to every fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field: but there was found no helper for man to go about him.

21. And God the LORD cast a deep sleep upon the man, and he slept. And he took one of his ribs, and closed up the place with flesh.

22. And God the LORD made a woman of the rib which he took from man, and brought her unto him.

23. And the man said, Surely this is bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh. She shall be called a woman, because she is taken from a man.

24. Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh.

25. And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

(Genesis)

Chapter 3

Adam and Eve sin. Their punishment. Promise of the Messiah.

1. And the serpent was more cunning than all the beasts of the field, which God the LORD had made, and said unto the woman, Yea, God should have said: Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden.

2. Then said the woman unto the serpent: We eat from the fruit of the trees in the garden; 3. But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Eat not of it, neither touch it, lest ye die.

4. And the serpent said unto the woman: You shall by no means die of death; 5. But God knoweth that in the day ye eat thereof, then shall your eyes be opened, and ye shall be as God, and shall know what is good and what is evil.

6. And the woman saw that the tree was good to eat of, and that it was pleasant to the sight, and that it was a goodly tree, because it made men wise: and she took of the fruit, and did eat, and gave to her husband also, and he did eat.

7. And both their eyes were opened, and they perceived that they were naked; and they put fig leaves together, and made them aprons.

8. And they heard the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden, when the day was cool.

And Adam hid himself and his wife from the presence of the LORD God under the trees of the garden.

9. And God the LORD called Adam, and said unto him, Where art thou?

10. And he said: I heard thy voice in the garden, and was afraid, because I was naked: therefore I hid myself.

11. And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou not eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat thereof?

12. And Adam said, The woman whom thou hast joined unto me gave me of the tree, and I did eat.

13. Then said God the LORD unto the woman: Why hast thou done this? And the woman said, The serpent so deceived me, that I did eat.

14. And God the LORD said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this thing, be thou accursed above all cattle, and above all beasts of the field. Thou shalt walk upon thy belly, and shalt eat earth all thy days.

15. And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed. The same shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

16. And unto the woman he said, I will cause thee much pain, when thou art with child; thou shalt bring forth children with pain: and thy will shall be subject unto thy husband, and he shall be thy lord.

17. And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it; cursed be the field for thy sake; with sorrow shalt thou feed thereon all the days of thy life.

18. Thorns and thistles shall he bear unto thee; and thou shalt eat the herb of the field.

19. In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat thy bread, until thou return unto the ground from whence thou wast taken. For thou art earth, and shalt become earth.

20. And Adam called his wife's name Heva; because she is the mother of all the living.

21. And God the LORD made Adam and his wife skirts of skins, and put them on them, 22. And God the LORD said, Behold, Adam is become as we are, and knoweth good and evil.

But now lest he put forth his hand, and break also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever:

23. Then God the LORD sent him forth out of the garden of Eden, to build the field from whence he was taken,

24. And he cast out Adam, and pitched before the garden of Eden the cherub with a naked edge of the sword, to keep the way unto the tree of life.

(Genesis)

Chapter 4

Cain's fratricide. His descendants.

1. And Adam knew Heva his wife, and she conceived, and bare Cain, and said: I have the man, the LORD.

2. And she went on, and bare Habel his brother. And Habel became a shepherd, and Cain became a husbandman.

3. And it came to pass after certain days, that Cain offered of the fruit of the field unto the LORD;

4. And Habel also brought of the firstlings of his flock, and of their fat. And the LORD looked graciously onabel and his sacrifices;

5. But he looked not graciously upon Cain and upon his offering. And Cain was sore displeased, and his countenance was changed.

6. And the LORD said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth, and why is thy countenance disguised?

7. Is it not so? if thou be godly, thou art pleasant: but if thou be not godly, sin lieth at the door.
But let it not have its way, but rule over it.

8. And Cain spake unto Habel his brother. And it came to pass, as they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Habel his brother, and slew him.

9. And the LORD said unto Cain, Where is thy brother Habel? And he said: I know not; shall I be my brother's keeper?

10. And he said, What hast thou done? The voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the earth.

11. And now be thou accursed upon the earth, which hath opened her mouth, and received thy brother's blood at thy hands.

12. When thou shalt build the field, he shall not give thee away his substance. Thou shalt be unstable and fugitive upon the earth.

13. And Cain said unto the LORD, My sin is greater than this, that it should be forgiven me.

14. Behold, thou hast driven me out of the land this day; and thou hast hid me from thy face; and I shall be a wanderer and a fugitive upon the earth. So it shall come to pass, that whosoever findeth me shall slay me.

15. And the LORD said unto him, Nay; but whosoever slayeth Cain shall be sevenfold smoked.

And the LORD made a sign unto Cain, that whosoever found him might not slay him.

16. So Cain departed from the presence of the LORD, and dwelt in the land of Nod on the east side of Eden.

17. And Cain knew his wife, and she conceived, and bare Hanoah. And he built a city, and called it Hanoah, after the name of his son.

18. And Hanoch begat Irad, and Irad begat Mahujael, and Mahujael begat Methusael, and Methusael begat Lamech.
19. And Lamech took two wives; the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah.
20. And Adah bare Jabal; from whom came they that dwelt in tents, and drew cattle.
21. And his brother's name was Jubal: from him came the fiddlers and pipers.
22. And Zillah also bare, that is, to Tubalcain, the master of all manner of brass and ironwork.
- And the sister of Tubalcain was Naema.
23. And Lamech said unto his wives, Adah and Zillah, Wives of Lamech, hear my words, and know what I say; I have slain a man for a wound, and a young man for a bruise.
24. Cain shall be smelled seven times, but Lamech seventy and seven times.
25. And Adam knew his wife, and she bare a son, and called his name Seth: for God hath given me, said she, another seed for Habel, whom Cain slew.
26. And Seth also begat a son, and called his name Enos. And at that time they began to preach the name of the LORD.

(Genesis)

Chapter 5

Genealogical register of the patriarchs from Adam down to Noah.

1. This is the book of the generation of man. When God created man, He made him in the likeness of God.
2. And made them male and female; and blessed them, and called their name man at the time that they were made.
3. And Adam was an hundred and thirty years old, and begat a son in his own image, and called his name Seth;
4. And after that he lived eight hundred years, and begat sons and daughters; 5. And all his days were nine hundred and thirty years, and he died.
6. Seth was one hundred and five years old and begat Enos;
7. And after that he lived eight hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters; 8. And all his days were nine hundred and twelve years, and he died.

9. Enos was ninety years old and witnessed Kenan;
10. And after that he lived eight hundred and fifteen years, and begat sons and daughters; 11. And all his days were nine hundred and five years, and he died.
12. Kenan was seventy years old and begat Mahalaleel;
13. And after that he lived eight hundred and forty years, and begat sons and daughters; 14. And all his days were nine hundred and ten years, and he died.
15. Mahalaleel was sixty-five years old and witnessed to Jared;
16. And after that he lived eight hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters; 17. And all his days were eight hundred and ninety and five years, and he died.
18. Jared was one hundred and sixty-two years old, and begat Enoch;
19. And after that he lived eight hundred years, and begat sons and daughters; 20. And all his days were nine hundred and threescore and two years, and he died.
21. Enoch was sixty and five years old, and begat Methuselah.
22. And after he begat Methuselah, he abode in a godly life three hundred years, and begat sons and daughters;
23. And all his days were three hundred threescore and five years.
24. And while he led a godly life, God took him away, and was seen no more.
25. Methuselah was an hundred and eighty and seven years old, and begat Lamech; 26. And after that he lived seven hundred and eighty and two years, and begat sons and daughters;
27. And all his days were nine hundred and threescore and nine years: and he died.
28. Lamech was an hundred and eighty-two years old, and begat a son.
29. And called his name Noah, saying, He shall comfort us in our labour and our toil upon the earth, which the LORD hath cursed.
30. After that he lived five hundred and ninety and five years, and begat sons and daughters; 31. And all his days were seven hundred and seventy and seven years: and he died.
32. Noah was five hundred years old, and begat Shem, Ham, and Japheth.
(Genesis)

Chapter 6

Announcement of the Flood. Building of the ark or the box.

1. And when men began to multiply on the earth, and to beget daughters unto them, 2. And the children of God looked on the daughters of men, and saw that they were fair, and took them wives whom they would.
3. Then said the LORD, Men will not be punished by my spirit any more: for they are flesh. And I will give them yet an hundred and twenty years.
4. There were also tyrants in the earth in those days: for when the children of God slept with the daughters of men, and begat them children, they became mighty men in the world, and mighty men of renown.
5. And when the LORD saw that the wickedness of men was great upon the earth, and that all the thoughts and actions of their heart were evil for ever,
6. And it grieved him that he had made man upon the earth, and it grieved him in his heart, 7. And said: And I will destroy them which I have created from off the face of the earth, from man unto cattle, and unto creeping things, and unto the fowls of the air: for it repenteth me that I have made them.
8. But Noah found grace in the sight of the LORD.
9. This is the generation of Noah: Noah was a godly man, and without change, and lived a godly life in his days.
10. And begat three sons, Shem, Ham, Japheth.
11. But the earth was corrupt in the sight of God, and full of iniquity.
12. Then God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt: for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.
13. And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me, because the earth is full of their iniquity: and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth.
14. Make thee a chest of fir wood, and make chambers therein, and pitch them within and without.
15. And make it so: three hundred cubits shall be the length thereof, fifty cubits the breadth thereof, and thirty cubits the height thereof.
16. thou shalt make a window in the top thereof, a cubit in height. And the door shall be in the midst of the side thereof. And it shall have three bottoms, one at the bottom, the other in the middle, and the third in the height.

17. For, behold, I will bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is a living breath under heaven. And all that is upon the earth shall perish.

18. But with thee will I establish a covenant; and thou shalt go into the coffer with thy sons, and with thy wife, and with thy sons' wives.

19. And thou shalt put in the coffer every beast of all flesh, every pair of them, male and female, that they may live with thee.

20. Of the birds after their kind, and of the cattle after their kind, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind; of them all a pair shall go in unto thee, that they may live.

21. And thou shalt take unto thee all manner of meat that is eaten; and thou shalt gather it unto thee, and it shall be meat for thee and for them.

22. And Noah did all that God commanded him.

(Genesis)

Chapter 7

The Flood is breaking.

1. And the LORD said unto Noah, Get thee into the chest, thou, and all thy house: for I have seen thee righteous before me at this time.

2. Of all the clean cattle take thee seven and seven, the male and his female: and of the unclean cattle a pair each, the male and his female.

3. The same of the birds of the air, seven and seven, the male and his female; that seed may live upon the face of all the earth.

4. For yet more than seven days will I cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights, and will destroy from off the face of the earth every living thing that I have made.

5. And Noah did according to all that the LORD commanded him.

6. And he was six hundred years old when the waters of the flood came upon the earth.

7. And he went into the coffer with his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives, before the waters of the flood.

8. Of the clean cattle, and of the unclean, and of the fowl, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

9. And they went in unto him by pairs, male and female, as the LORD commanded him.

10. And when the seven days were expired, the waters of the flood came upon the earth.

11. In the six hundredth year of the age of Noah, in the seventeenth day of the second month, which is the day that all the fountains of the great deep broke open, and opened the windows of heaven,

12. And there came rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

13. And the same day Noah went into the box with Shem, and Ham, and Japheth his sons, and his wife, and his sons' three wives;

14. And every beast after his kind, and every cattle after his kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, and every flying thing, and every winged thing.

15. All these things went unto Noah into the coffer with couples, of all flesh, because there was a living spirit within.

16. And these were men and women of all flesh: and they went in, as God had commanded him.

And the LORD shut the door behind him.

17. And the flood came upon the earth forty days; and the waters rose up, and lifted up the chest, and carried it up above the earth.

18. So the waters overflowed, and waxed exceeding great upon the earth, that the cistern ran upon the waters.

19. And the waters prevailed, and increased so much upon the earth, that all the high mountains under the whole heaven were covered.

20. Fifteen cubits high went the waters over the mountains that were covered.

21. Then perished all flesh that creepeth upon the earth, of birds, and of cattle, and of beasts, and of all that moveth upon the earth, and of all men.

22. Every living thing that had a living breath in the dry land died.

23. So all that was upon the face of the earth was destroyed, from man unto cattle, and unto creeping things, and to the fowls of the air: all these were destroyed from off the earth. But Noah remained, and all that was with him in the box.

24. And the waters stood upon the earth an hundred and fifty days.

(Genesis)

Chapter 8

The Flood is coming to an end.

1. Then God remembered Noah, and all the beasts and all the cattle that were with him in the box, and caused the wind to come upon the earth, and the waters fell.
2. And the fountains of the deep were stopped up, and the windows of heaven; and the rain from heaven was withholden.
3. And the waters departed from the earth continually, and abated after the space of an hundred and fifty days.
4. On the seventeenth day of the seventh moon the caste settled upon mount Ararat.
5. And the waters passed away, and abated, until the tenth moon. On the first day of the tenth moon the tops of the mountains peeped out.
6. And it came to pass after forty days, that Noah opened the window of the box which he had made,
7. And he sent forth a raven, which flew to and fro, until the waters were dried up upon the earth.
8. And afterward he sent forth a dove, that he might know whether the waters were fallen upon the earth.
9. But when the dove found not where her foot could rest, she came again unto him into the coffer: for the waters were yet upon the whole face of the earth. And he put forth his hand, and took it unto him into the coffer.
10. And he tarried yet another seven days, and sent again a dove flying out of the box.
11. And she came to him about the time of supper, and, behold, she had broken an olive leaf, and bare it in her mouth. Then Noah heard that the waters were fallen upon the earth.
12. And he tarried yet other seven days, and sent forth a dove, which came not again to him.
13. In the six hundred and first year of Noah's age, in the first day of the first month, the waters of the earth dried up. Then Noah took the roof off the box, and saw that the ground was dry.
14. So the earth was wholly dry on the twenty and seventh day of the second month.
15. Then God spake unto Noah, saying:

16. Get thee out of the coffer, thou, and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons' wives with thee.

17. Every beast that is with thee, of every flesh, of every fowl, and of every cattle, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, come out with thee; and be ye fruitful and multiply upon the earth.

18. So Noah went forth with his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives;

19. And every beast, and every creeping thing, and every fowl, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, came out of the box, every one to his own kind.

20. And Noah built an altar unto the LORD, and took of all clean cattle, and of all clean fowls, and offered burnt offerings upon the altar.

21. And the LORD smelled the sweet savour, and said in his heart, I will curse the earth no more for man's sake: for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth. And I will smite no more every living thing, as I have done.

22. As long as the earth standeth, seed and harvest, frost and heat, summer and winter, day and night shall not cease.

(Genesis)

Chapter 9

God confirms his covenant through the rainbow.

1. And God blessed Noah and his sons, saying, Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth.

2. Let your fear and dread be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every fowl of the air, and upon every creeping thing that moveth upon the earth; and let every fish of the sea be delivered into your hand.

3. Every thing that moveth and liveth, that shall be your meat: as the green herb have I given you all of it.

4. But eat not the flesh which is yet alive in his blood.

5. For I will also avenge the blood of your bodies, and will avenge it upon all beasts; and I will avenge the life of man upon every man that is his brother.

6. Whosoever sheddeth man's blood, his blood also shall be shed by man: for God hath made man in his own image.

7. Be fruitful, and multiply, and be active on the earth, and be multiplied.

8. and God said to Noah and to his sons with him:

9. Behold, I establish a covenant with you, and with your seed after you.

10. And with every living creature that is with you, of the fowl, and of the cattle, and of every beast that is with you upon the earth, of every beast that is gone out of the casket, whatsoever is upon the earth.

11. And establish my covenant with you, that henceforth all flesh shall no more be destroyed with the waters of the flood; neither shall there any more come a flood to destroy the earth.

12. And God said, This is the sign of the covenant which I have made between me and you, and every living creature with you for ever:

13. I have set my bow in the clouds, and it shall be for a sign of the covenant between me and the earth.

14. And it shall come to pass, when I bring clouds upon the earth, that my bow shall be seen in the clouds.

15. Then will I remember my covenant between me and you, and every living thing that is in all flesh, that there come no more floods to destroy all flesh.

16. Therefore shall my bow be in the clouds, that I may look upon it, and remember the everlasting covenant between GOD and every living beast in all flesh that is upon the earth.

17. God also said the same thing to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant that I have established between Me and all flesh on earth.

18. The sons of Noah, which went out of the coffer, are these: Shem, Ham, Japheth. But Ham is the father of Canaan.

19. These are the three sons of Noah, of whom all the land is occupied.

20. And Noah began, and became a husbandman, and planted vineyards.

21. And when he had drunk the wine, he was drunken, and lay uncovered in the tabernacle.

22. And when Ham the father of Canaan saw his father's shame, he told his two brethren without.

23. And Shem and Japheth took a garment, and put it upon both their shoulders, and went backward, and covered their father's shame: and their faces were turned away, that they might not see their father's shame.

24. And Noah awoke from his wine, and learned what his little son had done unto him, 25. And he said, Cursed be Canaan, and be a servant of all the servants of his brethren.

26. And he said, Blessed be GOD, the LORD of Shem; and let Canaan be his servant.

27. And God shall spread out Japheth, and make him to dwell in the tents of Shem: and Canaan shall be his servant.

28. And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years, 29. And all his days were nine hundred and fifty years, and he died.

(Genesis)

Chapter 10

Sex and descendants of the sons of Noah.

1. This is the generation of the children of Noah: Shem, Ham, Japheth. And they begat children after the flood.

2. the children of Japheth are these: Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Thubal, Mesech and Thiras.

3. but the children of Gomer are these: Askenas, Riphath and Thogarma.

4. the children of Javan are these: Elisa, Tharsis, Kittim and Dodanim.

5. Of these are spread abroad the isles of the heathen in their countries, every one according to his language, kindred, and people.

6. The children of Ham are these: Chus, Mizraim, Put, and Canaan.

7. But the children of Chus are these. Seba, Hevila, Sabtha, Raema and Sabtecha. But the children of Raema are these: Sheba and Dedan.

8. And Chus begat Nimrod. And he began to be a mighty lord in the earth, 9. And was a mighty hunter before the LORD. Therefore they say, This is a mighty hunter before the LORD, as Nimrod.

10. And the beginning of his kingdom was at Babylon, and at Erech, and at Akkad, and at Calne, in the land of Sinear.

11. Afterward came Assyria out of the land, and built Nineveh, and Rehoboth-Ir, and Kalah, 12. Resen between Nineveh and Kalah. This is a great city.

13. Mizraim begat Ludim, Anamim, Leabim, Naphthuhim,

14. Pathrusim and Kasluhim. From thence come the Philistim and Kaphthorim.

15. And Canaan begat Zidon his first son, and Heth,

16. Jebusi, Emori, Girgasi,
17. Hivi, Arki, Sini,
18. Arvadi, and Zemari, and Hamathi. Therefore the families of the Canaanites are spread out.
19. And their border was from Zidon, through Gerar, unto Gaza, unto Sodom, and unto Gomorrha, and unto Adama, and unto Zeboim, and unto Lasa.
20. These are the children of Ham in their generations, tongues, countries, and people.
21. And Shem, the greater brother of Japheth, begat children also, who is the father of all the children of Eber.
22. And these are his children; Elam, Asshur, Arphachad, Lud, and Aram.
23. And the children of Aram are these: Uz, Hut, Gether, and Mas.
24. And Arphachad begat Salah, and Salah begat Eber.
25. And Eber begat two sons. One was called Peleg, because in his days the world was divided: and his brother's name was Jaketan.
26. And Jaketan begat Almodad, Saleph, Hazarmaveth, Jarah,
27. Hadoram, Usal, Dikela,
28. Obal, Abimael, Seba,
29. Ophir, Hevila and Jobab. These are all the children of Jaketan.
30. And their dwelling was from Mesa even unto Sephar, unto the mountain eastward.
31. These are the children of Shem in their generations, tongues, countries, and people.
32. Now these are the seed of the children of Noah in their generations and in their people. Of whom are spread abroad the people of the earth after the flood.

(Genesis)

Chapter 11

Tower of Babel. Confusion of languages. Sexes of Sem.

1. And all the world had one tongue and language.
2. And they went eastward, and found a plain land in the land of Shinar, and dwelt there,
3. And said one to another, Come, let us make bricks, and let us burn them. And they took brick for stone, and clay for lime.

4. And they said: Come, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven, that we may make us a name: for we may be scattered abroad.
5. And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower which the children of men were building.
6. And the LORD said, Behold, there is one people and one language among them all, and they have begun to do this thing; they will not cease from all that they have undertaken to do.
7. Come, let us go down, and confound their language there, that none may hear another's speech.
8. So the LORD scattered them abroad, and they ceased from building the city.
9. Therefore her name is called Babylon, because there the LORD had confounded the language of all the earth, and scattered them abroad in all countries.
10. These are the generations of Shem: Shem was an hundred years old, and begat Arphaxad two years after the flood;
11. And after that he lived five hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.
12. Arphachad was thirty and five years old, and begat Salah;
13. And after that he lived four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.
14. Salah was thirty years old and begat Eber;
15. And after that he lived four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.
16. Eber was thirty-four years old and begat Peleg;
17. And after that he lived four hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters.
18. Peleg was thirty years old and begat Regu;
19. And after that he lived two hundred and nine years, and begat sons and daughters.
20. Regu was thirty-two years old and witnessed Serug;
21. And after that he lived two hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters.
22. Serug was thirty years old and begat Nahor;
23. And after that he lived two hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

24. Nahor was twenty and nine years old, and begat Tharah;
25. And afterward he lived an hundred and nineteen years, and begat sons and daughters.
26. Tharah was seventy years old, and begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran.
27. These are the families of Tarah: Tharah begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran. But Haran begat Lot.
28. And Haran died before Tarah his father in his fatherland at Ur in Chaldea.
29. And Abram and Nahor took wives. And Abram's wife's name was Sarai; and Nahor's wife's name was Milcah, the daughter of Haran, which was the father of Milcah and of Jiskah.
30. But Sarai was barren, and had no child.
31. And Tarah took Abram his son, and Lot his son Haran's son, and Sarai his wife, his son Abram's wife, and brought them from Ur of Chaldea, to go into the land of Canaan: and they came to Haran, and dwelt there.
32. And Tarah was two hundred and five years old, and died in Haran.
(Genesis)

Chapter 12

Abram is called and goes to Egypt.

1. And the LORD said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land which I will shew thee.
2. And I will make thee a great nation, and will bless thee, and make thee a great name, and thou shalt be a blessing.
3. I will bless them that bless thee, and curse them that curse thee: and in thee shall all kindreds of the earth be blessed.
4. And Abram went out, as the LORD had said unto him; and Lot went with him. And Abram was seventy and five years old when he went out of Haran.
5. So Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gotten, and the souls that they had begotten in Haran, and departed to go into the land of Canaan. And when they were come into that same land,
6. And Abram passed through unto the place of Shechem, and unto the grove of More. For the Canaanites dwelt in the land at that time.

7. And the LORD appeared unto Abram, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land. And there he built an altar unto the LORD, which appeared unto him.

8. And afterward he departed from thence unto a mountain that was toward the east of the city of Bethel, and pitched his tent, that he might have Bethel toward the west, and Ai toward the east: and there he built an altar unto the LORD, and preached of the name of the LORD.

9. And afterward Abram departed, and went out toward the south.

10. And there came a plague into the land. And Abram went down into Egypt, to abstain there as a stranger: for the plague was great in the land.

11. And when he was come nigh unto Egypt, he said unto Sarai his wife, Behold, I know that thou art a fair woman in countenance.

12. And when the Egyptians shall see thee, they shall say, This is his wife: and they shall slay me, and keep thee.

13. Say, I pray thee, that thou art my sister, that I may be the better for thy sake, and that my soul may abide in life for thy sake.

14. And when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians saw the woman, that she was almost fair.

15. And Pharaoh's princes saw her, and praised her before him. And she was brought into Pharaoh's house.

16. And he did good unto Abram for their sakes. And he had sheep, and oxen, and asses, and menservants, and maidservants, and asses, and camels.

17. But the LORD afflicted Pharaoh with great plagues, and his house because of Sarai Abram's wife.

18. And Pharaoh called Abram unto him, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this thing unto me? Why didst thou not tell me that she was thy wife?

19. Wherefore saidst thou then that she was thy sister? because I would take her to me to wife.

And now, behold,
There's your wife. Take her and go.

20. And Pharaoh commanded his men to go over him, and his wife, and all that he had.

(Genesis)

Chapter 13

Abram divorces Lot, his cousin.

1. So Abram went up out of Egypt with his wife, and with all that he had, and Lot also with him, toward the south.
2. And Abram was very rich in cattle, and in silver, and in gold.
3. And he went on from south to Bethel, to the place where his tent was first, between Bethel and Ai,
4. To the very place where he had made the altar before. And there he preached the name of the Lord.
5. And Lot, which went with Abram, had also flocks, and herds, and tents.
6. And the land could not bear that they should dwell together: for their substance was great, and they could not dwell together.
7. And there was always strife between the shepherds over Abram's cattle, and between the shepherds over Lot's cattle. And the Canaanites and the Perizzites dwelt in the land at that time.
8. And Abram said unto Lot, Let there be no strife between me and thee, neither between my shepherds and thy shepherds: for we are brethren.
9. Is not all the land open to thee? Be gone from me, my love. If thou wilt go to the left, I will go to the right; or if thou wilt go to the right, I will go to the left.
10. Then Lot lifted up his eyes, and looked upon all the coasts of Jordan. For before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrha, it was full of water, until they come to Zoar, as the garden of the LORD, even as the land of Egypt.
11. And Lot shewed him all the coasts of Jordan, and departed toward the east. So one brother separated himself from another.
12. And Abram dwelt in the land of Canaan, and Lot in the cities of the same country, and set his tents in Sodom.
13. But the people of Sodom were wicked, and sinned greatly against the LORD.
14. And it came to pass, when Lot was departed from Abram, that the LORD said unto Abram, Lift up thine eyes, and look from the place where thou dwellest toward the north, toward the south, toward the east, and toward the west.

15. For all the land which thou seest I will give thee, and thy seed for ever.

16. And I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth. If a man can number the dust of the earth, he shall number thy seed also.

17. Arise therefore, and go through the land, through the length and breadth thereof: for unto thee will I give it.

18. So Abram lifted up his tents, and came and dwelt in the grove of Mamre, which is in Hebron, and built there an altar unto the LORD.

(Genesis)

Chapter 14

Abram saves Lot; is blessed by Melchizedek.

1. And it came to pass in the days of Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Elassar, and Kedor-laomor king of Elam, and Thideal king of the Gentiles;

2. And they made war with Bera king of Sodom, and with Birsa king of Gomorrha, and with Shineab king of Adamah, and with Shemeber king of Zeboim, and with the king of Bela, whose name is Zoar.

3. These came all together into the valley of Siddim, where now is the salt sea.

4. For they had been twelve years under king Kedor-laomor, and in the thirteenth year they had departed from him.

5. Therefore came Kedor-laomor, and the kings that were with him, in the fourteenth year, and smote the giants of Ashtaroth-carnaim, and the Susim of Ham, and the Emim in the field of Kiriathaim.

6. And the Horites in mount Seir, unto the breadth of Pharan, which is upon the wilderness.

7. And afterward they turned, and came to the spring of Mishpat, that is, Kadesh, and smote all the land of the Amalekites, and the Amorites that dwelt in Hazezonthamar.

8. And the king of Sodom, and the king of Gomorrha, and the king of Adamah, and the king of Zeboim, and the king of Bela, which is called Zoar, went out, and prepared themselves to fight in the valley of Siddim.

9. With Kedor-laomor king of Elam, and with Tideal king of the Gentiles, and with Amraphel king of Shinar, and with Arioch king of Elassar, four kings with five.

10. And the valley of Siddim had many clay pits. And the king of Sodom and Gomorrha were put to flight there, and laid low: and they that remained fled unto the mountains.

11. And they took all the substance of Sodom and Gomorrha, and all the meat, and departed.

12. And they took Lot Abram's brother's son with them, and his substance; for he dwelt in Sodom: and they departed.

13. And there came one that escaped, and told Abram the foreigner that dwelt in the grove of Mamre the Amorite, which was a brother to Escol and Aner. These were in league with Abram.

14. And when Abram heard that his brother was taken, he armed his servants, three hundred and eighteen that were born in his house, and pursued after them unto Dan; 15. And he divided himself, and fell upon them by night with his servants, and smote them, and chased them unto Hobah, which is on the left hand of the city of Damascus, 16. And he brought again all the goods, and Lot his brother with his goods, and the women, and the people.

17. And when he was come again from the battle of Kedor-laomor, and of the kings with him, the king of Sodom went out to meet him into the field that is called the king's valley.

18. But Melchizedek king of Salem brought forth bread and wine. And he was a priest of GOD Most High.

19. And he blessed him, and said, Blessed art thou, Abram, unto the most high God, which owneth heaven and earth,

20. And blessed be God Most High, which hath delivered thine enemies into thine hand. And unto the same Abram gave tithes of all things.

21. And the king of Sodom said unto Abram, Give me the people, and keep the goods.

22. And Abram said unto the king of Sodom, I lift up my hands unto the LORD, the most high God, which possesseth heaven and earth,

23. That I will not take of all that is thine, one thread, nor one shoestring, lest thou say that thou hast made Abram rich.

24. Except that which the young men have eaten, and the men Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre, which went with me, let them take their part.

(Genesis)

Chapter 15

Abram's faith and righteousness are praised.

1. And it came to pass after these things, that the word of the LORD came unto Abram in his vision, saying, Fear not, Abram: I am thy shield, and thy very great reward.
2. And Abram said, O Lord, what wilt thou give me? I go thither without children: and my steward hath a son, this Eliezer of Damascus.
3. And Abram said again, Thou gavest me no seed: and, behold, the son of my seed shall be mine heir.
4. And, behold, the LORD said unto him, He shall not be thine heir, but he that shall come out of thy womb shall be thine heir.
5. And he commanded him to go out, and said, Look toward heaven, and number the stars; canst thou number them? And said unto him, So shall thy seed be.
6. Abram believed the LORD, and he counted it to him for righteousness.
7. And he said unto him, I am the LORD that brought thee out of Chaldea from Ur, to give thee this land to possess.
8. And Abram said, O Lord, how shall I know that I possess it?
9. And he said unto him, Bring me a heifer of three years old, and a she goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtledove, and a young pigeon.
10. And he brought him all these things, and divided them in the midst, and put one part over against another; but he divided not the birds.
11. And the fowls fell upon the ashes: but Abram shooed them away.
12. And when the sun was down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and, behold, terror and great darkness fell upon him.
13. And he said unto Abram, Know thou that thy seed shall be strangers in a land that is not theirs: and there they shall be compelled to serve, and shall be afflicted four hundred years.
14. But I will judge the people, whom they shall serve. And afterward they shall go forth with great substance.
15. And thou shalt return unto thy fathers in peace, and be buried in a good old age.
16. And they shall come again after four generations: for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet ended.
17. And when the sun was down and dark, behold, a furnace smoked, and a flame of fire passed between the pieces.

18. In that day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, Unto thy seed will I give this land, from the waters of Egypt even unto the great river Phrath: 19. The Kenites, the Kinites, the Kadmonites, 20. The Hittites, the Perizzites, the giants, 21. The Amorites, the Canaanites, the Gergesites, the Jebusites.

(Genesis)

Chapter 16

Hagar gives birth to Ishmael.

1. Sarai Abram's wife bare him nothing. But she had an Egyptian maid, whose name was Hagar.

2. And she said unto Abram, Behold, the LORD hath shut me up, that I cannot bring forth. Lay thee by my handmaid, that I may build me of her. And Abram obeyed the voice of Sarai.

3. And Sarai Abram's wife took Hagar her Egyptian maid, and gave her to Abram her husband to wife, after they had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan.

4. And he lay with Hagar, and she conceived. And when she saw that she was with child, she esteemed her wife little against her.

5. And Sarai said unto Abram, Thou hast done wrong unto me. I have put my handmaid by thee; but now that she hath conceived, I am wicked against her. Let the LORD be judge between me and thee.

6. And Abram said unto Sarai, Behold, thy handmaid is under thy power; do with her as it pleaseth thee. And when she would have humbled Sarai, she fled from her.

7. But the angel of the LORD found them by a well of water in the wilderness, even by the well of the way of Sur.

8. And he said unto her, Hagar, Sarai's handmaid, whence comest thou, and whither wilt thou go? She said: I have fled from my wife Sarai.

9. And the angel of the LORD said unto her, Return unto thy wife, and humble thyself under her hand.

10. And the angel of the LORD said unto her: I will so multiply thy seed, that it shall not be numbered for multitude.

11. And the angel of the LORD said unto her, Behold, thou art with child, and shalt bring forth a son, and shalt call his name Ishmael: because the LORD hath heard thy affliction.

12. He shall be a fierce man, his hand against every man, and every man's hand against him: and he shall dwell against all his brethren.

13. And she called the name of the LORD, which spake unto her, Thou God seest me. For she said, Surely here have I seen him that looked on me afterward.

14. Therefore she called the well a well of the Living One that looked upon me; which well is between Kadesh and Bared.

15. And Hagar bare Abram a son: and Abram called the name of the son that Hagar bare him Ishmael.

16. And Abram was eighty and six years old when Hagar bare him Ishmael.

(Genesis)

Chapter 17

Isaac's promise is confirmed with circumcision.

1. Now when Abram was ninety and nine years old, the LORD appeared unto him, and said unto him, I am the Almighty God; walk before me and be pious!

2. And I will make my covenant between me and thee, and will multiply thee almost greatly.

3. And Abram fell on his face. And God continued to speak to him, saying: 4. Behold, I am, and have my covenant with thee, and thou shalt be a father of many nations.

5. Therefore thou shalt no more be called Abram, but Abraham shall thy name be: for I have made thee the father of many nations.

6. And I will make thee almost very fruitful, and will make nations of thee; and kings also shall come of thee.

7. And I will establish my covenant between me and thee, and thy seed after thee, in their generations; and it shall be an everlasting covenant, that I may be thy God, and thy seed after thee.

8. And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger within, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession: and I will be their God.

9. And God said unto Abraham, Keep now my covenant, thou, and thy seed after thee, with their seed.

10. Now this is my covenant, which ye shall keep between me and you, and thy seed after thee: every male among you shall be circumcised.

11. And ye shall circumcise the foreskin of your flesh. This shall be a sign of the covenant between me and you.

12. Every kid that is eight days old ye shall circumcise among your seed; and likewise all that are born of your seed, or that are bought of all strangers that are not of your seed.

13. So shall my covenant be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

14. And if a kid be not circumcised in the foreskin of his flesh, his soul shall be cut off from among his people, because he hath not kept my covenant.

15. And God said again unto Abraham, Thou shalt no more call thy wife Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name.

16. For I will bless her, and of her will I give thee a son: for I will bless her, and nations shall be of her, and kings over many people.

17. And Abraham fell on his face, and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall there be born unto me a hundred years old a child, and shall Sarah bear ninety years old?

18. And Abraham said unto God, Oh that Ishmael should live before thee!

19. And God said, Yea, Sarah, thy wife shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name Isaac: for with him will I establish mine everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him.

20. For this also have I heard thee concerning Ishmael. Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and multiply him almost exceedingly. He shall beget twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation.

21. But I will establish my covenant with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear thee at this time in the next year.

22. And he ceased to speak unto him, and God departed from Abraham.

23. And Abraham took Ishmael his son, and all the servants that were born in his house, and all that were bought, and all that were man's name in his house, and circumcised the foreskin in their flesh that very day, as God had told him.

24. And Abraham was ninety and nine years old when he circumcised the foreskin of his flesh.

25. And Ishmael his son was thirteen years old when his flesh was circumcised.

26. And in one day were they all circumcised, Abraham, Ishmael his son, 27. And that which was man's name in his house, born at home, and bought of strangers: all were circumcised with him.

(Genesis)

Chapter 18

Abraham is promised Isaac again and the destruction of Sodom is revealed.

1. And the LORD appeared unto him in the grove of Mamre, sitting at the door of his tent, when the day was hottest.

2. And when he lifted up his eyes, and looked, behold, three men stood against him. And when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the door of his tabernacle, and stooped down to the ground.

3. And said, Lord, if I have found grace in thine eyes, pass not over before thy servant.

4. And they shall bring you a little water, and wash your feet; and lean ye under the tree.

5. And I will bring you a morsel of bread, and ye shall refresh your hearts; and afterward ye shall depart. For therefore came ye to your servant. They said: Do as thou hast said.

6. And Abraham hasted into the tabernacle unto Sarah, and said, Make haste, and mix three measures of fine flour, and knead, and bake cakes.

7. And he ran unto the oxen, and fetched a goodly calf, and gave it to the lad, and he made haste, and prepared it.

8. And he took butter, and milk, and of the calf which he had prepared, and set it before them, and stood before them under the tree, and they did eat.

9. And they said unto him, Where is Sarah thy wife? And he said, Within the tabernacle.

10. And he said, I will come again unto thee, if I live: behold, Sarah thy wife shall have a son.

And Sarah heard it behind him, behind the door of the tabernacle.

11. And they were both Abraham and Sarah old and well stricken in years; so that Sarah was no more after the manner of women.

12. Therefore she laughed with herself, and said, Now that I am old, shall I yet cherish lust, and my lord also is old?

13. And the LORD said unto Abraham, Why laughed Sarah, saying, Thinkest thou that I shall yet bear, when I am old?

14. Is there any thing impossible to the LORD? At this time will I come again unto thee, and if I live, Sarah shall have a son.

15. And Sarah denied it, and said: I laughed not: for she was afraid. And he said, It is not so; thou hast laughed.

16. And the men arose from thence, and turned toward Sodom: and Abraham went with them to lead them.

17. And the LORD said, How can I hide from Abraham what I do?

18. Because he shall become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him?

19. For I know that he will command his children, and his household after him, to keep the way of the LORD, and to do that which is right and good: that the LORD may bring upon Abraham that which he hath promised him.

20. And the LORD said, There is a cry in Sodom and Gomorrha, which is great, and their sins are almost grievous.

21. Therefore will I go down, and see whether they have done all according to the cry that is come before me; or whether it be not so, that I may know.

22. And the men turned their faces, and went to Sodom: but Abraham stood still before the LORD.

23. And stood by him, and said, Wilt thou then kill the righteous with the wicked?

24. There may be fifty righteous men in the city: wilt thou destroy them, and not forgive the place, because of fifty righteous men that are therein?

25. Far be it from thee, that thou shouldest do this thing, and kill the righteous with the wicked, that the righteous should be as the wicked: far be it from thee, that judgest all the earth. Thou wilt not judge thus.

26. And the LORD said, If I find fifty righteous men in the city of Sodom, then I will forgive all the places for their sakes.

27. And Abraham answered and said, Ah, behold, I have made myself to speak unto the LORD, though I be earth and ashes.

28. There might be five less than fifty righteous within: wilt thou then destroy the whole city for the sake of the five? And he said, If I find forty and five within, I will not destroy them.

29. And he continued to speak unto him, saying, There may be found forty within. And he said: I will not hurt them because of the forty.
30. And Abraham said, Be not angry, O LORD, that I speak any more. There may be found thirty in it. And he said, If I find thirty within, I will not hurt them.
31. And he said, Behold, I have refrained from speaking with the LORD. One might like to find twenty within. And he answered: I will not destroy them for the sake of twenty.
32. And he said, Be not angry, O Lord, that I speak but once more. There may be ten in it. And he said: I will not destroy them for the sake of the ten.
33. And the LORD departed after he had talked with Abraham: and Abraham returned unto his place.

(Genesis)

Chapter 19

Destruction of Sodom. Lot's salvation and fall.

1. The two angels came to Sodom in the evening. And Lot sat in Sodom under the gate. And when he saw them, he stood up to meet them, and bowed himself with his face to the ground.
2. And said, Behold, Lord, come in unto thy servant's house, and tarry overnight, and wash thy costly feet, and rise early in the morning, and go your way. But they said: Nay, but we will tarry in the street overnight.
3. Then he almost compelled them; and they returned unto him, and came into his house. And he made them a feast, and baked unleavened cakes; and they did eat.
4. But before they lay down, the people of the city of Sodom came and compassed the house, young and old, all the people from every quarter,
5. And they called for Lot, and said unto him, Where are the men that are come unto thee this night? Bring them out unto us, that we may know them.
6. Lot went out unto them at the door, and shut the door behind him.
7. Saying, Ah, brethren, do not be so wicked.
8. Behold, I have two daughters, which have not yet known a man: them will I bring forth among you, and do unto them as ye please: but do nothing unto these men: for therefore are they entered under the shadow of my roof.

9. And they said: Come hither. And they said: Thou art the only stranger here, and wilt thou reign? Well, we will afflict thee more abundantly than they. And they pressed hard upon the man Lot. And they came running up, and sought to break open the door, 10. And the men went out, and drew Lot in unto them into the house, and shut the door.

11. And the men that were at the door of the house were smitten with blindness, both small and great, until they were wearied, and could not find the door.

12. And the men said unto Lot, Hast thou yet here a husband, and sons, and daughters? and whosoever thou hast in the city, bring him out of this place.

13. For we will destroy this place, because the cry of it is great before the LORD: he hath sent us to destroy it.

14. And Lot went out, and spake unto his sons in oath, which should take his daughters: Arise, get you out of this place: for the LORD will destroy this city. But it was ridiculous unto them.

15. And when the morning arose, the angels made haste unto Lot, saying: Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters which are present, lest thou also perish in the iniquity of this city.

16. And when he was departed, the men took him by the hand, and his wife, and his two daughters; because the LORD spared him, and brought him out, and left him without the city.

17. And when they had brought him forth, he said, Save thy soul, and look not behind thee; neither stand thou in all this place. Save thee in the mount, that thou perish not.

18. But Lot said unto them: Oh no, Lord!

19. Behold, because thy servant hath found grace in thine eyes, magnify thy mercy, which thou hast done unto me, in preserving my soul alive. I cannot save myself on the mountain; I may meet with an accident, and die.

20. Behold, there is a city near, whither I may flee, and it is small, and there will I save myself: yet it is small, that my soul may live.

21. And he said unto him, Behold, I have looked upon thee also in this piece, that I turn not back the city, of which thou hast spoken.

22. Haste thee there, and deliver thee: for I can do nothing till thou come in. Therefore this city is called Zoar.

23. And the sun was risen on the earth, when Lot came into Zoar.

24. And the LORD rained down brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven upon Sodom and Gomorrha.

25. And he turned back the cities, and all the country, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which was grown in the country.

26. And his wife looked behind him, and was turned into a pillar of salt.

27. And Abraham rose up early in the morning unto the place where he stood before the LORD, 28. And he turned his face toward Sodom and Gomorrha, and toward all the country of the region, and looked; and, behold, there went up a smoke from the country, as smoke from a furnace.

29. For when God destroyed the cities of the region, he remembered Abraham, and brought Lot out of the cities, which he turned back, wherein Lot dwelt.

30. And Lot departed from Zoar, and abode in the mount with his two daughters: for he feared to abide in Zoar: so he abode in a cave with his two daughters.

31. And the eldest said unto the youngest, Our father is old, and there is no man left on earth to put us to sleep after the manner of all the earth.

32. Come then, and let us give our father wine to drink, and let us sleep with him, that we may receive seed of our father.

33. So they gave their father wine to drink that night. And the first went in, and lay with her father: and he knew it not when she lay, nor when she arose.

34. And in the morning the eldest said unto the youngest, Behold, I lay with my father yesterday.

Let us give him wine to drink this night also, that thou mayest go in and lie :with him, that we may receive seed of our father:

35. So they also gave their father wine to drink that night. And the youngest arose, and lay with him: and he knew it not when she lay, nor when she arose.

36. So the two daughters of Lot became pregnant by their father.

37. And the eldest bare a son, and called his name Moab. From him came the Moabites unto this day.

38. And the youngest bare a son also, and called his name the child Ammi. From him came the children of Ammon unto this day.

(Genesis)

Chapter 20

Sarah is taken from Abraham by Abimelech and given back with profit.

1. And Abraham departed from thence into the south country, and dwelt between Kadesh and Shur, and was a stranger in Gerar.

2. And he spake of Sarah his wife: It is my sister. Then Abimelech king of Gerar sent for her and took her.

3. And God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said unto him, Behold, thou art dead because of the woman which thou hast taken: for she is a man's wife.

4. And Abimelech touched them not, and said, Lord, wilt thou slay even a righteous people?

5. Hath he not said unto me, She is my sister? And she also said, He is my brother. Have I done this with a simple heart and innocent hands?

6. And God said unto him in a dream, I also know that thou hast done this thing with a simple heart. Therefore I also have kept thee from sinning against me, and have not confessed unto thee that thou hast touched them.

7. Now therefore restore the man his wife; for he is a prophet, and let him pray for thee, and thou shalt live. But if thou restore her not, know that thou shalt surely die, and all that is thine.

8. And Abimelech rose up early in the morning, and called unto all his servants, and told them all these things in their ears. And the people were sore afraid.

9. And Abimelech called Abraham also, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this thing unto us? and what have I sinned against thee, that thou hast brought this great sin upon me and upon my kingdom? Thou hast dealt with me, not as one ought to deal.

10. And Abimelech said again unto Abraham, What sawest thou that thou hast done this thing?

11. And Abraham said: I thought, much light is no fear of God in these places, and will slay me for my wife's sake.

12. She also is truly my sister; for she is my father's daughter, but not my mother's daughter; and she is become my wife.

13. And it came to pass, when God had sent me away out of my father's house, that I said unto her, Have mercy upon me, that whithersoever we come, thou mayest say of me, I am thy brother.

14. And Abimelech took sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and maidservants, and gave them unto Abraham: and he gave him Sarah his wife again.

15. And said, Behold, my land is open unto thee; dwell where it pleaseth thee.

16. And he said unto Sarah, Behold, I have given thy brother a thousand pieces of silver: behold, this shall be a covering of thine eyes in the sight of all that are with thee, and of all that are with thee. And this was their punishment.

17. And Abraham prayed unto God, and God healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his handmaids, that they should bring forth children.

18. For the LORD had shut up all the mothers of the house of Abimelech before, because of Sarah Abraham's wife.

(Genesis)

Chapter 21

Isaac's birth. Expulsion of Ishmael. Abraham's covenant with Abimelech.

1. And the LORD sought Sarah home, as he had spoken, and did unto her as he had spoken.

2. And Sarah conceived, and bare Abraham a son in his old age about the time which God had spoken unto him.

3. And Abraham called his son's name, which was born unto him, Isaac, whom Sarah bare unto him,

4. And circumcised him on the eighth day, as God had commanded him.

5. An hundred years old was Abraham, when Isaac his son was born unto him.

6. And Sarah said, God hath prepared a laughter for me: for he that shall hear it shall laugh at me.

7. And said, Who shall say of Abraham, that Sarah bare children, and that she bare him a son in his old age?

8. And the child grew, and was weaned. And Abraham made a great feast in the day that Isaac was weaned.

9. And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she bare unto Abraham, that he was a mockers,

10. And said unto Abraham, Cast out this maid with her son: for this maid's son shall not inherit with Isaac my son.

11. The word pleased Abraham very evil for his son's sake.

12. And God said unto him, Let not the lad and the maid offend thee.

All that Sarah hath said unto thee, obey it. For in Isaac shall the seed be called unto thee.

13. I will also make the son of the maid a people, because he is thy seed.

14. And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread, and a bottle of water, and put it upon Hagar's shoulder, and the lad with her, and let her out. And she went and wandered in the wilderness by Beer-saba.

15. And when the water was out of the bottle, she cast the lad under a tree.

16. And she went and sat down over against him afar off, a bow shot's distance: for she said: I cannot watch the death of the boy. And she sat over against him, and lifted up her voice, and wept.

17. And God heard the voice of the lad. And the angel of God called out of heaven unto Hagar, and said unto her, What is the matter, Hagar? Fear not: for God hath heard the voice of the lad as he lieth.

18. Arise, take the lad, and lead him by thy hand: for I will make him a great nation.

19. And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. So she went and filled the bottle with water and watered the boy.

20. And God was with the lad; and he grew and dwelt in the wilderness, and became a good shot; 21. And dwelt in the wilderness of Pharan.

And his mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

22. At that time Abimelech and Phichol the captain of his host spake unto Abraham, saying, God is with thee in all that thou doest.

23. Now therefore swear unto me by GOD, that thou wilt not shew unfaithfulness unto me, nor unto my children, nor unto my nephews; but that thou wilt shew the mercy which I have shewed thee unto me, and to the land wherein thou art a stranger within.

24. And Abraham said, I will swear.

25. And Abraham punished Abimelech because of the well of water, which Abimelech's servants had taken by force.

26. And Abimelech said, I knew not who did this thing, neither didst thou tell me; neither did I hear it but to day.

27. And Abraham took sheep and oxen, and gave them unto Abimelech; and they made a covenant together.

28. And Abraham set apart seven lambs.

29. And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What mean these seven lambs which thou hast set forth?

30. And he said, Seven lambs shalt thou take of my hand, that they may be a witness unto me, that I have digged this well.

31. Therefore the name of the place is called Bersaba, because they sware there together.

32. And they made the covenant at Beer-saba. And Abimelech and Phichol the captain of his host arose, and went again into the land of the Philistines.

33. And Abraham planted trees at Beer-saba, and preached there of the name of the LORD God, the everlasting God.

34. And he was a stranger in the land of the Philistines a long time.

(Genesis)

Chapter 22

Sacrifice of Isaac. Promise of Christ.

1. After these things God tempted Abraham, and said unto him, Abraham. And he answered, Here am I.

2. And he said, Take Isaac thy only son, whom thou lovest, and go into the land of Moriah, and offer him there for a burnt offering upon a mountain which I will tell thee.

3. And Abraham arose early in the morning, and girded up his ass, and took with him two lads, and Isaac his son, and split wood for a burnt offering, and arose, and went unto the place where God had told him.

4. On the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off.

5. And he said unto his lads: Stay ye here with the ass; I and the lad will go thither: and when we have worshipped, we will come again unto you.

6. And Abraham took the wood for a burnt offering, and laid it upon Isaac his son: and he took the fire and the knife in his hand, and they went both of them together.

7. And Isaac said unto Abraham his father, My fathers. And Abraham said, Here am I, my son.
And he said, Behold, here is fire and wood; but where is the sheep for the burnt offering?

8. And Abraham said, My son, God shall provide him a sheep for a burnt offering. And they went both of them together.

9. And when they came to the place which God had told him, Abraham built there an altar, and laid the wood thereon, and bound Isaac his son, and laid him upon the altar upon the wood.

10. And he put forth his hand, and took hold of the knife, to slay his son.

11. And the angel of the LORD called unto him from heaven, saying, Abraham, Abraham. And he answered, Here am I.

12. And he said, Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither hurt him. For now I know that thou fearest God, and hast not spared thy only begotten son for my sake.

13. And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw a ram hanging behind him in the hedge with his horns: and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered it for a burnt offering in his son's stead.

14. And Abraham called the name of the place, The LORD seeth. Wherefore it is said unto this day, In the mount where the LORD looketh.

15. And the angel of the LORD called unto Abraham again from heaven.

16. And said: I have sworn by myself, saith the LORD, because thou hast done these things, and hast not spared thy only begotten Son,

17. And I will bless thy seed, and multiply it as the stars of heaven, and as the sand upon the seashore: and thy seed shall possess the gates of his enemies.

18. And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, because thou hast hearkened unto my voice.

19. So Abraham returned unto his lads, and they arose, and went together to Beer-saba, and dwelt there.

20. And it came to pass after these things, that Abraham was told, Behold, Milka has also given birth to your brother Nahor,

21. Namely, Uz the firstborn, and Bus his brother, and Kemuel, from whom the Syrians came, 22. And Chesed, and Haso, and Pildas, and Jedlaph, and Bethuel.

23. And Bethuel begat Rebekah. These eight Milcah bare unto Nahor Abraham's brother.

24. And his concubine also, whose name was Rehuma, bare Theba, and Gaham, and Thahaz, and Maachah.

(Genesis)

Chapter 23

Sara's death and burial.

1. sara was one hundred and twenty-seven years old

2. And she died in the capital city, which is called Hebron, in the land of Canaan. Then came Abraham to lament and weep over her.

3. And afterward he arose from his dead body, and spake unto the children of Heth, saying: 4. I am a stranger and a sojourner with you: give me an inheritance with you, that I may bury my dead which is before me.

5. And the children of Heth answered Abraham, and said unto him: 6. Hear us, O Lord! Thou art a prince of God among us: bury thy dead in our most holy graves: let no man among us forbid thee that thou bury not thy dead in his grave.

7. And Abraham arose, and bowed himself to the people of the land, even to the children of Heth.

8. And he spake unto them, saying, If it please you that I should bury my dead which is before me, hear me, and pray for me against Ephron the son of Zoar,

9. That he will give me his twofold cave, which he hath at the end of his field; and he will give it me for money, as much as it is worth, among you for an inheritance.

10. For Ephron dwelt among the children of Heth. Then Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham, and the children of Heth listened before all that went in and out of the gate of his city, and said:

11. Nay, my lord, but hear me. I give thee the field, and the cave that is therein; and I give it thee in the sight of the children of my people, to bury thy dead.

12. And Abraham bowed himself before the people of the land.

13. And he spake unto Ephron, and the people of the land hearkened unto him, saying, If thou wilt let me have him, I pray thee, take of me the money of the field which I give thee, and I will bury my dead there.

14. And Ephron answered Abraham, and said unto him:

15, My lord, hear me! The field is worth four hundred shekels of silver: but what is that between me and thee? Only bury thy dead.

16. And Abraham hearkened unto Ephron, and weighed unto him the money, which he had said that the children of Heth heard, even four hundred shekels of silver, which was common in buying.

17. So Ephron's field, wherein is the twofold cave, over against Mamre, was confirmed unto Abraham for his own possession, with the cave therein, and with all the trees that are in the field round about,

18. And the children of Heth looked on, and all that went in and out of the gate of his city.

19. And afterward Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field, which is twofold, over against Mamre, that is, Hebron, in the land of Canaan.

20. And the field was confirmed, and the cave that was therein, unto Abraham for an inheritance from the children of Heth.

(Genesis)

Chapter 24

Isaac marries Rebekah.

1. Abraham was old and in a good state of health, and the LORD had blessed him in every way.

2. And he said unto the eldest of his servants of his house, which had the charge of all his goods, Put thy hand under my thigh.

3. And swear unto me by the LORD God of heaven and earth, that thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell;

4. But that thou go to my fatherland, and to my friendship, and take unto thee a wife for my son Isaac.

5. And the servant said, How if the woman will not follow me into this land? shall I then bring again thy son into that land whence thou camest?

6. And Abraham said unto him, Take heed lest thou bring my son thither again.

7. The LORD God of heaven, which took me from my father's house, and from my country, and spake unto me, and sware unto me, saying, This land will I give unto thy seed; and he shall send his angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife unto my son there.

8. But if the woman will not follow thee, thou shalt be quit of this oath. Alone bring not my son thither again.

9. And the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and swore unto him.

10. So the servant took ten camels of his master's camels, and went, having with him all his master's goods: and he arose, and went to Mesopotamia unto the city of Nahor.

11. And he made the camels lie down without the city by a well of water in the evening, when the women went out to draw water,

12. And said, O LORD God of my master Abraham, meet me this day, and do mercy unto my master Abraham.

13. Behold, I stand here by the well of water; and the daughters of the people of this city shall come forth to draw water.

14. And if a damsel come, and I say unto her, Incline thy pitcher, and let me drink; and she shall say: Drink, and I will water thy camels also, that she may be she which thou hast given to Isaac thy servant, and that I may know by this that thou hast shewed mercy on my lord.

15. And before he had finished speaking, behold, Rebekah the daughter of Bethuel came out, which was the son of Milcah, which was the wife of Nahor Abraham's brother, bearing a pitcher upon her shoulder.

16. And she was a very fair damsel in appearance, and yet a virgin, and no man knew her. And she went down to the well, and filled the pitcher, and went up.

17. And the servant ran to meet her, and said, Let me drink a little water out of thy pitcher.

18. And she said, Drink, my lord. And hastening, she let down the pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink.

19. And when she had given him drink, she said: I will give thy camels drink also, until they be all drunken.

20. And he hasted, and poured out the pitcher into the trough, and ran to draw water at the well, and drew water for all his camels.

21. And the man marvelled at them, and held his peace, until he knew whether the LORD had given grace unto his journey, or not.

22. And when the camels had all drunk, he took a golden clasp of the weight of half a shekel, and two bracelets on their hands of the weight of ten shekels of gold, 23. And said, My daughter, to whom belongest thou? Tell me, I pray thee. Have we room to dwell in thy father's house?

24. And she said unto him, I am the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah, whom she bare unto Nahor.

25. And said unto him, There is plenty of straw and fodder with us, and room enough to lodge.

26. And the man bowed himself, and worshipped the LORD.

27. And said, Blessed be the LORD God of my master Abraham, which hath not left his mercy and his truth in my master: for the LORD hath led me the way to my master's brother's house.

28. And the damsel ran and told all these things in her mother's house.

29. And Rebekah had a brother, whose name was Laban: and Laban ran unto the man that was without by the well.

30. And when he saw the bracelets and armlets on his sister's hands, and heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, Thus said the man unto me, he came unto the man, and, behold, he stood by the camels by the well.

31. And he said, Come in, thou blessed of the LORD. Why standest thou without? I have cleared the house, and have made room for the camels also.

32. So he brought the man into the house, and unharnessed the camels, and gave them straw and provender and water to wash his feet, and the men that were with him, 33. And set food before him. But he said, I will not eat till I have first advertised my cause. They answered: Tell me!

34. He said: I am Abraham's servant.

35. And the LORD hath blessed my lord abundantly, and waxed great; and hath given him sheep, and oxen, and silver, and gold, and menservants, and maidservants, and camels, and asses.

36. And Sarah my lord's wife bare a son unto my lord in his old age; and unto him gave he all that he had.

37. And my lord hath taken an oath of me, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell,

38. But go to my father's house, and to my family, and there take a wife for my son.

39. And I said unto my lord, How if the woman will not follow me?

40. And he said unto me, The LORD, before whom I walk, will send his angel with thee, and give grace unto thy journey, that thou mayest take a wife unto my son of my friendship, and of my father's house.

41. Then shalt thou be acquitted of my oath, when thou comest to my friendship: if they give thee not, thou shalt be acquitted of my oath.

42. So I came to the well this day, and said, O LORD God of my master Abraham, thou hast given grace unto my journey, wherefore I journeyed,

43. Behold, I stand here by the well of water. And if a virgin come forth to draw, and I say unto her, Give me a little water to drink out of thy pitcher,

44. And she shall say, Drink thou, and I will draw thy camels also, that she may be the wife which the LORD my lord hath given to his son.

45. And before I had spoken these words in mine heart, behold, Rebekah cometh forth with a pitcher upon her shoulder, and goeth down to the well, and draweth. And I said unto her, Give me to drink.

46. And she took the pitcher from her shoulder in haste, and said, Drink, and I will water thy camels also. So I drank, and she watered the camels also.

47. And I asked her, saying, Whose daughter art thou? And she answered: I am Bethuel's daughter, the son of Nahor, whom Milcah bare unto him. And I put a clasp upon her forehead, and bracelets upon her hands;

48. And I bowed myself, and worshipped the LORD, and praised the LORD God of my master Abraham, which led me in the right way to take my master's brother's son's daughter.

49. If ye then be they which will shew kindness and faithfulness unto my lord, tell me; but if not, tell me, that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left.

50. Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said: This is from the LORD: therefore we can speak nothing against thee, either evil or good.

51. There is Rebekah before thee; take her, and go, that she may be thy master's wife, as the LORD hath said.

52. When Abraham's servant heard these words, he bowed himself to the LORD to the ground.

53. And he brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and garments, and gave them unto Rebekah: and to her brother and to her mother he gave spices.

54. And he did eat and drink, he and the men that were with him, and tarried there all night. And in the morning he arose, and said, Let me go to my lord.

55. But her brother and her mother said: Let the damsel abide with us a day or ten, and after that thou shalt depart.

56. Then said he unto them: Stop me not, for the LORD hath given grace unto my journey. Let me go, that I may go unto my lord.

57. And they said, Let us call the damsel, and ask what she saith.

58. And they called unto Rebekah, and said unto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she said, Yea, I will go with him.

59. So they sent Rebekah their sister away with her nurse, and Abraham's servant and his men.

60. And they blessed Rebekah, and said unto her, Thou art our sister; increase in many thousands of thousands, and let thy seed possess the gates of his enemies.

61. So Rebekah arose with her damsels, and they sat upon the camels, and went after the man.

And the servant took Rebekah, and went.

62. And Isaac came from the well of the living and the seeing (for he dwelt in the land toward the south)

63. And he went out to pray in the field about even, and lifted up his eyes, and saw camels coming.

64. And Rebekah lifted up her eyes, and saw Isaac; and she fell down from the camel.

65. And he said unto the servant, Who is this man that cometh to meet us in the field? And the servant said, This is my lord. And she took her cloak, and covered herself.

66. And the servant told Isaac all the things which he had set forth.

675. And Isaac brought her into Sarah his mother's tent, and took Rebekah, and she became his wife, and loved her. So Isaac was comforted concerning his mother.

(Genesis)

Chapter 25

Abraham's other marriage. Ishmael's and Isaac's sons.

1. And Abraham took again a wife, whose name was Keturah.
2. And she bare him Simran, and Jaksan, Medan, and Midian, Jezbak, and Shuah.
3. And Jaksan begat Seba and Dedan. And the children of Dedan were: Assurim, Letusim, and Leumim.
4. The sons of Midian were: Ephah, Ephher, Hanoah, Abida, and Eldaa. These are all the children of Keturah.
5. And Abraham gave all his substance unto Isaac.
6. But unto the children which he had of the concubines he gave gifts, and sent them away from Isaac his son, because he was yet alive, toward the east.
7. Now this is the age of Abraham, that he lived an hundred and seventy and five years.
8. And he departed, and died in a quiet old age, being old and full of life; and was gathered unto his people.
9. And his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the twofold cave of the field of Ephron the son of Zoar the Hittite, which is toward Mamre,
10. In the field which Abraham bought of the sons of Heth. There Abraham is buried with Sarah his wife.
11. And after the death of Abraham, God blessed Isaac his son. And he dwelt by the well of the living and the seeing.
12. This is the seed of Ishmael the son of Abraham, whom Hagar the handmaid of Sarah out of Egypt bare unto him;
13. And these are the names of the children. Ishmael, of whom their families are called: The firstborn son of Ishmael, Nebajoth; Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,
14. Misma, Duma, Masa,
15. hadar, theme, jetur, naphis and kedma.
16. These are the children of Ishmael with their names in their courts and cities, twelve princes over their people.
17. And this is the age of Ishmael, an hundred thirty and seven years: and he departed, and died, and was gathered unto his people.
18. And they dwelt from Havilah even unto Sur over against Egypt, when they go into Assyria.
- And he fell before all his brethren.
19. This is the seed of Isaac, Abraham's son: Abraham begat Isaac.

20. And Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah to wife, the daughter of Bethuel the Syrian, of Mesopotamia, Laban the Syrian's sister.

21. And Isaac besought the LORD for his wife, because she was barren. And the LORD made supplication, and Rebekah his wife conceived.

22. And the children thrust themselves together in her womb. And she said: Since it was so, why did I conceive? And she went to inquire of the LORD.

23. And the LORD said unto her, Two nations are in thy womb, and two manner of people shall be separated out of thy womb: and the one people shall be superior unto the other, and the greater shall serve the lesser.

24. And when the time was come for her to be delivered, behold, there were twins in her womb.

25. The first that came out was reddish, all smoke like fur: and they called his name Esau.

26. And afterward came out his brother, which held the heel of Esau with his hand; and they called his name Jacob. Sixty years old was Isaac when they were born.

27. And when the lads were grown up, Esau became a hunter and a husbandman, and Jacob a godly man, and abode in the tents.

28. And Isaac loved Esau, and loved to eat of his pasture: but Rebekah loved Jacob.

29. And Jacob cooked a dish. And Esau came out of the field, and was weary.

30. And said unto Jacob, Let me taste of the red judgment; for I am weary. Therefore is his name called Edom.

31. And Jacob said, Sell me this day thy firstborn.

32. And Esau said, Behold, I must die; what then shall the firstborn be to me?

33. And Jacob said, Swear unto me this day. And he sware unto him, and so sold Jacob his firstborn.

34. And thou gavest him bread, and the dish of lentils; and he did eat and drink; and rose up, and departed. So Esau despised his firstborn.

(Genesis)

Chapter 26

Isaac's wanderings, dwelling, and repugnance.

1. And there came a plague into the land above that which was in Abraham's days. And Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines unto Gerar.

2. And the LORD appeared unto him, and said, Go not down into Egypt, but tarry in the land which I tell thee.

3. Be a stranger in this land, and I will be with thee, and bless thee; For unto thee and unto thy seed will I give all these lands, and will confirm my oath which I swore unto Abraham thy father,

4. And I will multiply thy seed as the stars of heaven, and will give unto thy seed all these countries. And by thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, 5. Because Abraham obeyed my voice, and kept my statutes, and my commandments, and my judgments, and my laws.

6. So Isaac dwelt at Gerar.

7. And when the men of the same place asked of his wife, he said, She is my sister. For he feared to say, She is my wife: they would slay me for Rebekah's sake: for she was fair of face.

8. And it came to pass, when he had been there a while, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked through the window, and perceived that Isaac was jesting with Rebekah his wife.

9. And Abimelech called unto Isaac, and said, Behold, she is thy wife. How hast thou then said, She is my sister? And Isaac said unto him, I thought that I might die for her sake.

10. And Abimelech said, Why hast thou done this thing unto us? It were easy for one of the people to lie with thy wife, and so thou hadst brought guilt upon us.

11. And Abimelech commanded all the people, saying, Whosoever toucheth this man, or his wife, shall surely be put to death.

12. And Isaac sowed in the land, and reaped an hundredfold in that year: for the LORD blessed him.

13. And he became a great man, and went and increased until he was almost great, 14. Because he had much substance of cattle, both small and great, and a great household.

Therefore the Philistines envied him.

15. And they stopped up all the wells which his father's servants had digged in the days of Abraham his father, and filled them with earth,

16. And Abimelech said unto him, Depart from us: for thou art become too mighty for us.

17. And Isaac departed, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there.

18. And he digged again the wells of water, which they digged in the days of Abraham his father, which the Philistines stopped up after Abraham's death, and called them by the same names that his father had called them.

19. And Isaac's servants digged in the valley, and found there a well of living water.

20. But the shepherds of Gerar quarreled with the shepherds of Isaac, saying: The water is ours.

And he called the name of the well Esek, because they had wronged him there.

21. And they digged another well, and they quarreled over it: therefore it was called Sitnah.

22. And he departed thence, and digged another well, and they quarreled not: therefore he called his name Rehoboth, saying, Now hath the LORD made room for us, and caused us to grow in the land.

23. And afterward he departed from thence unto Beer-saba.

24. And the LORD appeared unto him that night, and said: I am thy father Abraham's God. Fear not, for I am with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed for my servant Abraham's sake.

25. And he built an altar there, and preached of the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there; and his servants digged a well there.

26. And Abimelech went unto him from Gerar, and Ahusath his friend, and Phichol his captain of the host.

27. But Isaac said unto them: Why come ye to me? Ye hate me, and have driven me from you.

28. And they said: We see with eyes that see, that the LORD is with thee. Therefore we said: Let there be an oath between us and thee, and let us make a covenant with thee, 29. That thou do us no hurt, even as we have not touched thee, and as we have done thee nothing but good, and let thee go in peace. But thou art now the blessed of the LORD.

30. And he made them a feast, and they did eat and drink.

31. And they arose early in the morning, and swore one to another: and Isaac let them go, and they departed from him in peace.

32. And the same day came Isaac's servants, and told him of the well which they had digged, and said unto him, We have found water.

33. And he called his name Sheba: therefore the name of the city is called Beer-saba unto this day.

34. And when Esau was forty years old, he took to wife Judith the daughter of Beri the Hittite, and Basmath the daughter of Elon the Hittite.

35. And they made both Isaac and Rebekah vain of heart.

(Genesis)

Chapter 27

Jacob is blessed by his father, antagonized by Esau.

1. And it came to pass, when Isaac was old, and his eyes were dim, that he called Esau his elder son, and said unto him, My son. And he answered and said unto him, Here am I.

2. And he said, Behold, I am waxed old, and know not when I shall die.

3. Now therefore take thy stuff, thy quiver, and thy bow, and go into the field, and fetch me a venison.

4. And make me meat such as I delight in, and bring it in to me to eat, that my soul may bless thee before I die.

5. And Rebekah heard these words, which Isaac spake unto Esau his son. And Esau went out into the field to hunt venison, and to bring it home.

6. And Rebekah said unto Jacob her son, Behold, I have heard thy father speak unto Esau thy brother, saying:

7. Bring me a venison, and make me a meal, that I may eat, and bless thee before the LORD, before I die.

8. Hear therefore, my son, my voice, what I call thee.

9. Go to the flock, and fetch me two good kids, that I may make thy father a dinner of them, as he is pleased.

10. This thou shalt bring in unto thy father, that he may eat, and bless thee before his death.

11. And Jacob said unto Rebekah his mother, Behold, my brother Esau is smoky, and I am smooth;

12. Then peradventure my father would understand me, and be esteemed before him, as if I would deceive him, and bring upon me a curse, and not a blessing.

13. And his mother said unto him, The curse be upon me, my son: only obey my voice, and go and fetch me.

14. And he went and fetched, and brought unto his mother. Then his mother made a meal, as his father liked,

15. And she took Esau her elder son's precious garments, which she had in her house, and put them on Jacob her younger son;

16. And she put the skins of the goats about his hands, and about his neck, where he was smooth.

17. And she gave the meat with bread, as she had made it, into Jacob's hand her son.

18. And he went in unto his father, and said, My father. And he said, Here am I. Who art thou, my son?

19. And Jacob said unto his father, I am Esau thy firstborn son: I have done as thou hast said unto me. Arise, sit down, and eat of my venison, that thy soul may bless me.

20. And Isaac said unto his son, Son, how hast thou found so soon? And he said, The LORD thy God hath brought it unto me.

21. And Isaac said unto Jacob, Come near, my son, that I may know thee, whether thou be my son Esau, or not.

22. So Jacob came to Isaac his father; and when he had understood him, he said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are Esau's hands.

23. And he knew him not, because his hands were smoky, as Esau's brother's hands; and he blessed him.

24. And he said unto him, Art thou my son Esau? And he answered, Yea, I am.

25. And he said, Bring me hither, my son, to eat of thy venison, that my soul may bless thee. And he brought it unto him, and he did eat: and he brought him wine also, and he drank.

26. And Isaac his father said unto him, Come hither, and kiss me, my son.

27. And he came near, and kissed him. Then he smelled the smell of his garments; and blessed him, saying, Behold, the smell of my son is as the smell of the field which the LORD hath blessed.

28. May God give you abundance of the dew of the sky and the fatness of the earth and grain and wine.

29. Nations shall serve thee, and people shall fall at thy feet. Be a lord over thy brethren, and thy mother's children must fall under thy feet. Cursed be he that curseth thee; blessed be he that blesseth thee.

30. And it came to pass, when Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was hardly gone out from Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came from his hunting.

31. And he made a supper also, and carried it in unto his father, and said unto him, Arise, my father, and eat of thy son's venison, that thy soul may bless me.

32. And Isaac his father answered him, Who art thou? And he said: I am Esau, thy firstborn son: 33. And Isaac was sore amazed at the measure, and said, Who? where is the hunter that brought me, and I did eat of all before thou camest, and have blessed him? He also shall remain blessed.

34. And when Esau heard this saying of his father, he cried with a loud voice, and was exceeding sorrowful: and he said unto his father, Bless me also, my father.

35. And he said, Thy brother is come with guile, and hath taken away thy blessing.

36. And he said, His name is Jacob; for he hath twice trampled me under foot. He hath taken my firstborn, and, behold, he taketh away my blessing. And he said, Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me?

37. And Isaac answered and said unto him, I have made him lord over thee, and all his brethren have I made servants unto him; with corn and wine have I provided him: what shall I do now unto thee, my son?

38. And Esau said unto his father, Hast thou but one blessing, my father? bless me also, my father. And he lifted up his voice, and wept.

39. And Isaac his father answered and said unto him, Behold, thou shalt have a fat habitation upon the earth, and of the dew of heaven from above.

40. Thou shalt feed upon thy sword, and shalt serve thy brother. And it shall come to pass, that thou shalt also be a lord, and shalt break his yoke from off thy neck.

41. And Esau was grieved with Jacob for the blessing, that his father had blessed him: and Esau said in his heart: The time will soon come for my father to be afflicted; for I will slay my brother Jacob.

42. And these words of Esau her elder son were told Rebekah: and she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said unto him, Behold, Esau thy brother doth threaten thee to slay thee.

43. And now hear my voice, my son, Arise, and flee unto Laban my brother in Haran, 44. And tarry with him a while, till thy brother's wrath be turned, 45. And until his wrath be turned against thee from thee, and thou forget what thou hast done unto him, then will I send for thee, and take thee hence. Why should I be deprived of you both for a day?

46. And Rebekah said unto Isaac, I am afraid to live before the daughters of Heth. If Jacob take a wife of the daughters of Heth, which are as the daughters of this land, what shall my life be?

(Genesis)

Chapter 28

Jacob sees the ladder to heaven on his journey.

1. And Isaac called unto Jacob his son, and blessed him; and commanded him, and said unto him, Take not a wife of the daughters of Canaan;

2. But arise, go into Mesopotamia to Bethuel thy mother's father's house, and take thee a wife there of the daughters of Laban thy mother's brother.

3. But the Almighty God bless thee, and make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, that thou mayest be a multitude of nations;

4. And give thee the blessing of Abraham, unto thee, and to thy seed with thee, to possess the land which thou art a stranger in, which God gave unto Abraham.

5. So Isaac made Jacob to go to Mesopotamia to Laban the son of Bethuel in Syria, the brother of Rebekah his mother and Esau's mother.

6. And when Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob, and sent him away to Mesopotamia, to take him a wife there, and that he had blessed him, he commanded him, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan,

7. And that Jacob obeyed his father and his mother, and went into Mesopotamia, 8. Saw also that Isaac his father was not pleased to see the daughters of Canaan: 9. And he went unto Ishmael, and took Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael the son of Abraham, the sister of Nebajoth, to wife over the wives which he had before.

10. But Jacob departed from Beer-saba, and journeyed to Haran.

11. And he came to a place where he lodged for the night, because the sun was down. And he took a stone of the place, and laid it for his head, and lay down in that place to sleep.

12. And he dreamed, and, behold, a ladder stood upon the earth, and the top thereof touched heaven: and, behold, the angels of God ascended and descended thereon.

13. And the LORD stood on the top, and said: I am the LORD thy father Abraham's God, and Isaac's God. And the land where thou liest I will give unto thee and to thy seed.

14. And thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt be spread abroad toward the even, and toward the morning, and toward the north, and toward the south: and in thee and in thy seed shall all kindreds of the earth be blessed.

15. And, behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee whithersoever thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land. For I will not leave thee, till I have done all that I have spoken unto thee.

16. And Jacob awoke from his sleep, and said, Surely the LORD is in this place, and I knew it not.

17. And was afraid, and said, How holy is this place! Here is nothing but God's house, and here is the gate of heaven.

18. And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone which he had laid for his head, and set it up for a mark, and poured oil upon it.

19. And the name of the place was Bethel: for the name of the city before was Lus.

20. And Jacob made a vow, saying, So God will be with me, and keep me in the way that I go, and give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on,

21. And bring me home to my Father in peace: so shall the LORD be my God, 22. And this stone, which I have set up for a pillar, shall be a house of God: and all that thou shalt give me I will tithe unto thee.

(Genesis)

Chapter 29

Jacob acquires two wives through his fourteen years of service.

1. Then Jacob lifted up his feet, and went into the east country, 2. And he looked, and, behold, there was a well in the field; and, behold, three flocks of sheep lay by it; for of the well they used to water the flocks: and there was a great stone before the hole of the well.

3. And they gathered all the flocks there, and rolled the stone from the well's hole, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again before the hole in his place.

4. And Jacob said unto them: Dear brothers, where are you from? They answered: We are of Haran.

5. And he said unto them: Do ye also know Laban the son of Nahor? They answered: We know him well.

6. And he said, Is he also well? And they answered: He is well: and, behold, his daughter Rachel cometh with the sheep.

7. And he said, It is yet high day, and it is not yet time to drive in the cattle: water the sheep, and go and feed them.

8. And they answered: We cannot till all the flocks be gathered together, and we roll the stone from the well's hole, and so water the sheep.

9. While he yet talked with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep: for she kept the sheep.

10. And when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the flock of Laban his mother's brother, he came and rolled the stone from the well's hole, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother.

11. And kissed Rachel, and wept aloud.

12. And told her that he was her father's brother, and the son of Rebecca. And she ran and told her father.

13. And when Laban heard of Jacob his sister's son, he ran to meet him, and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him into his house. And he told Laban all these things.

14. And Laban said unto him, Come, thou art my bone and my flesh. And now that he had been with him for a moon..,

15. And Laban said unto Jacob, Though thou be my brother, shouldest thou serve me for nought? Tell me, what shall be thy reward?

16. And Laban had two daughters: the name of the eldest was Leah, and the name of the youngest Rachel.

17; But Leah had a wicked face; Rachel was fair and beautiful.

18. And Jacob loved Rachel, and said: I will serve thee seven years for Rachel thy youngest daughter.

19. And Laban said, It is better that I give them unto thee, than to another: tarry with me.

20. So Jacob served for Rachel seven years; and it seemed unto him as if they were single days, so loved he her.

21. And Jacob said unto Laban, Give me now my wife: for the time is here for me to come in.

22. Then Laban invited all the people of the place, and made a marriage feast.

23. And it came to pass in the evening, that he took Leah his daughter, and brought her in unto him; and he lay with her.

24. And Laban gave Zilpah his maid to his daughter Leah to be his handmaid.

25. And in the morning, behold, it was Leah. And he said unto Laban, Why hast thou done this unto me? Have I not served thee for Rachel? Wherefore then hast thou deceived me?

26. And Laban said, It is not the custom in our country to give out the youngest before the oldest.

27. Endure the week with this, and I will give thee this also for the service which thou shalt serve with me another seven years.

28. So Jacob did, and endured the week. Then Laban gave him Rachel his daughter to wife.

29. And he gave to Rachel his daughter Bilhah his maid to be his handmaid.

30. And he lay with Rachel, and loved Rachel better than Leah, and served with him the rest of the seven years.

31. And when the LORD saw that Leah was worthless, he made her fruitful, and Rachel barren.

32. And Leah conceived, and bare a son, and called his name Reuben, saying, The LORD hath looked upon my affliction; now shall my husband love me.

33. And she conceived again, and bare a son, and said, The LORD hath heard that I am worthless, and hath given me this also. And he called his name Simeon.

34. And again she conceived, and bare a son, and said, Now shall my husband return unto me; for I have borne him three sons. Therefore she called his name Levi.

35. And the fourth time she conceived, and bare a son, and said, Now will I give thanks unto the LORD. Therefore she called his name Judah. And she ceased from bearing children.

(Genesis)

Chapter 30

Jacob's children and wealth

1. And when Rachel saw that she bare Jacob nothing, she envied her sister, and said unto Jacob, Make me children. If not, then I die.

2. And Jacob was very wroth with Rachel, and said, Surely I am not God, which will not give thee the fruit of thy womb.

3. And she said, Behold, Bilhah my maid; lie with her, that she may bear upon my bosom, and that I may be edified by her.

4. And she gave him Bilhah her maid to wife: and Jacob lay with her.

5. So Bilhah conceived, and bare Jacob a son.

6. And Rachel said, God hath judged my cause, and hath heard my voice, and hath given me a son. Therefore she called his name Dan.

7. And again Bilhah Rachel's handmaid conceived, and bare Jacob the second son.

8. And Rachel said, God hath dealt with me and with my sister, and I will deal with her. And she called his name Naphtali.

9. And when Leah saw that she had left childbearing, she took Zilpah her maid, and gave her to Jacob to wife.

10. So Zilpah Leah's handmaid bare Jacob a son.

11. And Leah said, Raptly. And called his name Gad.

12. And after these things Zilpah Leah's handmaid bare Jacob his other son.

13. And Leah said, Blessed be I; for the daughters shall call me blessed. And she called his name Asser.

14. And Reuben went out in the time of wheat harvest, and found dudahim in the field, and brought them home unto his mother Leah. And Rachel said unto Leah, Give me a portion of thy son's dudahim.

15. And she said, Hast thou not had enough that thou hast taken my husband from me, and wilt thou take my son's dudahim also? And Rachel said, Well, let him sleep with thee this night for thy son's dudahim.

16. And it came to pass, when Jacob was come out of the field at even, that Leah went out to meet him, and said, Thou shalt lie with me: for I have bought thee for my son's dudahim.

And he slept with her that night.

17. And God heard Leah, and she conceived, and bare Jacob the fifth son.

18. And said, God hath rewarded me, because I have given my handmaid unto my husband. And he called his name Issachar.

19. And again Leah conceived, and bare Jacob the sixth son;

20. And said, God hath well counseled me: now shall my husband dwell with me again, because I have born him six sons. And called his name Zebulun.

21. And after that she bare a daughter, and called her name Dinah.

22. And the LORD remembered Rachel, and hearkened unto her, and made her fruitful.

23. And she conceived, and bare a son, and said, God hath taken away my reproach from me.

24. And he called his name Joseph, and said, The LORD give me another son.

25. And it came to pass, when Rachel had born Joseph, that Jacob said unto Laban, Let me go, I pray thee, to my place, and to my land.

26. Give me my wives and my children, because I have served thee, that I may go: for thou hast known my service, as I have served thee.

27. And Laban said unto him, Let me find grace in thine eyes. I feel that the LORD blesses me for thy sake.

28. voice the reward which I shall give thee.

29. And he said unto him, Thou knowest how I have served thee, and what cattle thou hast had under me.

30. Thou hadst little before I came; but now it is spread abroad, and the LORD hath blessed thee by my foot. And now, when shall I also feed my house?

31. And he said, What shall I give thee then? And Jacob said, Thou shalt not give me any thing by any means: but if thou wilt do unto me as I say, I will feed and feed thy flock again.

32. I will pass through all thy flock this day, and will separate all the spotted sheep, and all the multicolored sheep, and all the black sheep among the lambs, and the multicolored goats, and the spotted goats. And whatsoever falleth multicolored and spotted shall be my reward.

33. And my righteousness shall testify unto me to day, or to morrow, when it cometh to pass, that I shall take my reward of thee: so that whatsoever is not spotted, or variegated, or black, among the lambs and goats, it shall be a stolen thing with me.

34. And Laban said, Behold, it is as thou hast said.

35. And he separated the goats that were white, and the coloured goats, and all the spotted goats, and all the coloured goats that were white, and all that were black among the lambs, and put them in the hand of his children.

36. And he made a space of three days' journey between him and Jacob. So Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flock.

37. And Jacob took staves of green poplar trees, and of hazel trees, and of chestnut trees, and peeled white stripes thereon; and the white of the staves was bare, 38. And he put the staves which he had shewed in the watering troughs before the flocks that were to come to drink, that they might receive when they came to drink.

39. So the flocks received over the staves, and brought forth sprightly, spotted, and variegated.

40. And Jacob separated the lambs, and put the separate flock with the spotted and black in Laban's flock, and made him a separate flock, and put it not with Laban's flock.

41. And when the course of the flock of the spring was, he put these staves in the gutters before the eyes of the flock, that they might receive above the staves.

42. But in the lateling's course he put them not in. So were the latelings of Laban, but the earlylings of Jacob.

43. Therefore the man was exceedingly rich, having many flocks, and maidservants, and menservants, and camels, and asses.

(Genesis)

Chapter 31

Jacob flees with his wife and child from his father-in-law Laban.

1. And the words of the children of Laban came before him, saying: Jacob hath brought all our father's goods unto him, and of our father's goods hath he gotten such riches.
2. And Jacob looked upon the face of Laban; and, behold, it was not against him, as it was yesterday, and as it was before yesterday.
3. And the LORD said unto Jacob, Return unto thy fathers' country, and to thy friendship; and I will be with thee.
4. And Jacob sent, and called Rachel and Leah into the field with his flock.
5. And he said unto them: I see your father's face, that it is not against me, as it was yesterday, and as it was yesterday: but the God of my father is with me.
6. And ye know that with all my strength I have served your Father.
7. And he hath deceived me, and hath changed my wages ten times: but God hath not suffered him to hurt me.
8. And when he said, The multicolored ones shall be thy reward; then the whole flock bare multicolored. And when he said, The light ones shall be thy reward, then the whole flock bare the light ones.
9. So God took your father's goods from him and gave them to me.
10. For when the time of the running was come, I lifted up mine eyes, and saw in a dream, and, behold, the goats leaped upon the herd, bright and spotted and multicoloured.
11. And the angel of God said unto me in a dream, Jacob. And I answered: Here I am.
12. And he said, Lift up thine eyes, and, behold, the goats leap upon the herd, which is full of spittle, and of spot, and of multitude: for I have seen all that Laban doeth unto thee.
13. I am the God of Bethel, because thou hast anointed the stone, and hast vowed a vow unto me there. Now arise, depart out of this land, and return unto the land of thy friendship.
14. And Rachel and Leah answered and said unto him, Surely we have no part nor inheritance left in our father's house.
15. Yet hath he kept us as strangers: for he hath sold us, and eaten up our wages.
16. Therefore hath God delivered unto our Father his riches unto us, and unto our children: All things therefore whatsoever God hath said unto thee, do.

17. So Jacob arose, and loaded his children and his wives upon camels.
18. And he carried away all his cattle, and all his substance, which he had gotten in Mesopotamia, to come unto Isaac his father unto the land of Canaan.
19. And Laban went to shear his flock: and Rachel stole her father's idols.
20. So Jacob stole the heart of Laban of Syria, because he told him not that he fled.
21. So he fled, and all that were his arose, and passed over the waters, and went to mount Gilead.
22. And it was told Laban the third day, that Jacob fled.
23. And he took his brethren, and pursued after him seven days' journey, and met him in mount Gilead.
24. But God came to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and said unto him: Beware that thou speak not to Jacob otherwise than kindly.
25. And Laban drew nigh unto Jacob. And Jacob pitched his tent in the mount: and Laban and his brethren pitched their tent in the mount Gilead.
26. And Laban said unto Jacob, What hast thou done, that thou hast stolen my heart, and carried away my daughters, when they were taken by the sword?
27. Why hast thou fled secretly, and stolen away, and not told me, that I might have led thee with joy, with singing, with timbrels and harps?
28. And hast thou not made me kiss my children and my daughters? Well, thou hast done foolishly.
29. And I would have so much power with the help of God, that I could do you evil: but your father's God said unto me yesterday, Beware that thou speak not unto Jacob otherwise than kindly.
30. And because thou wouldest go, and didst long for thy father's house, why didst thou steal my gods from me?
31. And Jacob answered and said unto Laban, I was afraid, and thought that thou wouldest pluck thy daughters from me.
32. But with whom thou shalt find thy gods, let him die here before our brethren. Seek thine own with me, and receive it. But Jacob did not know that she had stolen Rachel.
33. And Laban went into the tabernacle of Jacob, and into the tabernacle of Leah, and into the tabernacle of Rachel, and into the tabernacle of Jacob, and into the tabernacle of Leah, and into the tabernacle of Rachel, and into the two maidservants, and found them not.

34. And Rachel took the idols, and put them under the camels' bedding, and sat upon them. And Laban searched the whole tabernacle, and found nothing.

35. And she said unto her father, My lord, be not angry: for I cannot rise up against thee; for I am after the manner of women. So he found not the idols, as almost he sought.

36. And Jacob was wroth, and rebuked Laban, and said unto him, What have I wronged, or sinned, that thou art so hot against me?

37. thou hast touched all my goods. What hast thou found of thy household? Set it before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may judge between us.

38. These twenty years have I been with thee; thy sheep and thy goats have not been barren; the rams of thy flock have I never eaten.

39. What the beasts tore, I brought not unto thee; I had to pay for it: thou requiredst it of my hand, it was stolen from me by day or by night.

40. I languished in the day for heat, and in the night for frost, and no sleep came into mine eyes.

41. So I have served in thy house these twenty years, fourteen for thy daughters, and six for thy flock; and thou hast changed my wages tenfold.

42. If the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the fear of Isaac, had not been on my side, you would have left me empty. But God looked upon my affliction and trouble, and punished thee yesterday.

43. And Laban answered and said unto Jacob, The daughters are my daughters, and the children are my children, and the flocks are my flocks; and all that thou seest is mine: what can I do unto my daughters this day, or unto their children which they have born?

44. Come now therefore, and let us make a covenant, I and thou, which shall be a testimony between me and thee.

45. And Jacob took a stone, and set it up for a mark.

46: And said unto his brethren: Pick up stones. And they took stones, and made a heap, and did eat in the same heap.

47. And Laban called his name Jegar-sahaduthah: but Jacob called his name Gilead.

48. And Laban said, Let the multitude be a witness this day between me and thee (therefore is it called Gilead).

49. And be a wait, for he said, The LORD look between me and thee, when we come one from another,

50. Wherefore thou hast offended my daughters, or taken other wives over my daughters. There is no man here with us: but, behold, God is a witness between me and thee.

51. And Laban said again unto Jacob, Behold, this is the multitude, and this is the mark which I have set up between me and thee.

52. Let this heap be a witness, and let the mark also be a witness, where I pass over unto thee, or thou pass over unto me this heap, and mark to hurt.

53. The God of Abraham, and the God of Nahor, and the God of their fathers, be judge between us.

54. And Jacob sware unto him by the fear of Isaac his father. And Jacob sacrificed in the mount, and invited his brethren to eat. And when they had eaten, they tarried in the mount overnight.

55. And Laban rose up early in the morning, and kissed his children and his daughters, and blessed them; and he departed, and returned unto his place.

Ch. 32. v.1. But Jacob went his way; and the angels of God met him.

2. And when he saw them, he said, They are the armies of God: and he called the name of that place Mahanaim.

(Genesis)

Chapter 32

Jacob's Fear. Prayer and struggle.

3. And Jacob sent messengers before him unto Esau his brother, unto the land of Seir, in the coasts of Edom.

4. And he commanded them, saying, Thus say ye unto my lord Esau, Thy servant Jacob saith unto thee, I have been with Laban a long time without.

5. And I have oxen, and asses, and sheep, and menservants, and maidservants: and I have sent forth word unto thee, my lord, that I may find grace in thy sight.

6. And the messengers came again to Jacob, and said: We came to thy brother Esau; and he also cometh to meet thee with four hundred men.

7. And Jacob was sore afraid, and his heart was troubled: and he divided the people that were with him, and the flocks, and the herds, and the camels, into two armies.

8. And he said, If Esau come upon the one host, and smite it, the remnant shall escape.

9. And Jacob said, O God of Abraham my father, and O God of Isaac my father, O LORD, thou hast said unto me: Return unto thy land, and to thy friendship, and I will do thee good: 10. I am lowly in all thy mercy, and in all thy faithfulness, which thou hast done unto thy servant: for I had not this staff when I passed over this Jordan, and now am I become two armies.

11. Deliver me from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I am afraid of him, lest he come and smite me, the mothers with the children.

12. Thou hast said, I will do thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered before the multitude.

13. And he tarried there that night, and took of that which he had present present unto his brother Esau:

14. Two hundred goats, twenty rams, two hundred sheep, twenty rams.

15. And thirty lactating camels with their colts, and forty cows, and ten bullocks, and twenty asses with ten colts;

16. And he put them under the hand of his servants, one flock by one, and said unto them: Go before me, and leave space between one flock and another.

17. And he commanded the first, saying, When Esau my brother meeteth thee, and asketh thee, To whom belongest thou? and whither wilt thou go? and what is it that thou dost set before thee?

18. And thou shalt say, It belongeth unto Jacob thy servant, which sendeth a present unto Esau his master, and goeth after us.

19. So he commanded the second and the third, and all that went after the flocks, saying, As I have said unto you, so say unto Esau, when ye meet him,

20. And say ye also, Behold, thy servant Jacob is behind us. For he thought, I will make an atonement for him with the present that goeth before me: afterward I will see him, peradventure he will accept me.

21. So the present went before him, but he tarried that night with the host.

22. And he arose in the night, and took his two wives, and his two maids, and his eleven children, and went unto the fords of Jabbok,

23. And he took them, and led them over the water, that what he had might pass over; 24. And he abode alone. Then a man wrestled with him until the dawn.

25. And when he saw that he overcame him not, he touched the joint of his thigh; and the joint of his thigh was dislocated above the wrestling with him.

26. And he said, Let me go, for the dawn is breaking. But he answered: I will not leave thee, for thou blessest me.

27. And he said, What is thy name? And he answered, Jacob.

28. And he said, Thou shalt no more be called Jacob, but Israel. For thou hast fought with God, and with men, and hast prevailed.

29. And Jacob asked him, saying, Tell me, what is thy name? And he said, Why askest thou my name? And he blessed him there.

30. And Jacob called the name of the place Pniel: for I have seen God face to face, and my soul is recovered.

31. And when he was come over before Pniel, the sun rose upon him; and he limped on his thigh.

32. Therefore the children of Israel eat no sinew in the joint of the thigh unto this day: because the sinew was touched in the joint of Jacob's thigh.

(Genesis)

Chapter 33

Reconciliation of Jacob with Esau.

1. And Jacob lifted up his eyes, and saw Esau his brother coming with four hundred men. And he divided his children unto Leah, and unto Rachel, and unto both his handmaids.

2. And he put the handmaids and their children in the first place, and Leah and her children after her, and Rachel and Joseph last.

3. And went before them, and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came to his brother.

4. And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck, and kissed him: and they wept.

5. And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the women with the children, and said, Who are these with thee? And he said, They are the children which God hath given unto thy servant.

6. And the handmaids came near with their children, and bowed themselves to him.

7. And Leah came near with her children, and bowed themselves to him. And afterward Joseph and Rachel came near, and bowed themselves to him.

8. And he said, What wilt thou have with all this host that I have met? And he said, That I may find grace in the sight of my lord.

9. And Esau said: I have enough, my brother; keep what you have.

10. And Jacob said, Alas not! If I have found grace in thy sight, take my gift out of my hand: for I have seen thy face, as I saw the face of God: and let it please thee of me.

11. But receive from me the blessing which I have bestowed upon thee: for God hath bestowed it upon me, and I have enough. So he compelled him to take it.

12. And he said, Let us depart, and travel: I will go with thee.

13. And he said unto him, My lord, thou knowest that I have tender children with me, and cattle and suckling cows: if they should overdo it one day, all the flock would die unto me.

14. Let my lord go before his servant. I will go by and by, and after that the cattle and the children shall go, until I come to my lord in Seir.

15. And Esau said, I will leave with thee some of the people that are with me. And he said, What need is there? Only let me find grace in the sight of my lord.

16. So Esau went his way again that day to Seir.

17. And Jacob went to Shukoth, and built him an house, and made tents for his cattle: therefore the name of the place is Shukoth.

18. After this Jacob went against Salem, unto the city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, (after he was come out of Mesopotamia,) and pitched before the city.

19. And he bought a piece of ground of the sons of Hemor the father of Shechem for an hundred pence; and there he pitched his tent.

20. And there he prepared an altar, and called upon the name of the strong God of Israel.

(Genesis)

Chapter 34

The weakening of Dina causes a bloodbath.

1. And Dinah the daughter of Leah, whom she bare unto Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the land.
2. And when Shechem the son of Hemor the Hivite, which was lord of the land, saw them, he took them, and slept with them, and weakened them.
3. And his heart was set on her, and he loved the damsel, and spake kindly unto her.
4. And Shechem said unto Hemor his father, Take me the damsel to wife.
5. And Jacob heard that Dinah his daughter was defiled; and his sons were with the cattle in the field: and Jacob held his peace until they came.
6. Then went out Hemor the father of Shechem unto Jacob to speak with him.
7. And the sons of Jacob came out of the field. And when they heard it, the men were grieved, and were very wroth, because he had committed folly against Israel, and had put Jacob's daughter to sleep: for it was not to be so.
8. And Hemor spake unto them, saying, My son Shechem's heart desireth your daughter: rather, give her to him to wife.
9. Make friends with us; give us your daughters, and take you our daughters.
10. And dwell with us. The land shall be open unto you: dwell ye therein, and woo, and win.
11. And Shechem said unto her father and brethren: Let me find grace in your sight: whatsoever ye shall say unto me, that will I give.
12. Ask ye of me a present and an oblation, and I will give it as ye desire: give me only the damsel to wife.
13. And Jacob's sons answered Shechem and Hemor his father deceitfully, because Dinah their sister was defiled,
14. And they said unto them: We cannot do this, that we should give our sister to an uncircumcised man; for that would be a shame to us.
15. But then we will be at your command, that ye may be like unto us, and that every male among you may be circumcised.

16. Then will we give our daughters unto you, and your daughters shall take unto us, and we will dwell with you, and be a nation.

17. But if ye will not consent to be circumcised, we will take our daughter, and depart.

18. The speech pleased Hemor and his son well.

19. And the young man refrained not from doing these things: for he had delight in the daughter of Jacob. And he was magnified above all that were in his father's house.

20. And they came, Hemor and Sichern his son, under the gate of the city, and spake unto the inhabitants of the city, saying:

21. These men are peaceable with us, and will dwell in the land, and court: now therefore the land is wide enough for them: we will take their daughters to us to wife, and give them our daughters.

22. But then will they be willing to dwell with us, and become one people with us, where we circumcise all the males among us, even as they are circumcised.

23. Their cattle, and their goods, and all that they have, shall be ours, if we will but that they dwell with us.

24. And they obeyed Hemor, and Sichern his son, all that went in and out of the gate of his city, and circumcised every male that went in and out of his city.

25. And it came to pass on the third day, when it pained them, that the two sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brethren, took every man his sword, and went into the city in a rage, and slew all the males.

26. And they slew Hemor also, and Sichern his son, with the edge of the sword: and they took Dinah their sister out of the house of Shechem, and departed.

27. And the sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and spoiled the city, because they had defiled their sister,

28. And they took their sheep, and their oxen, and their asses, and all that was in the city, and in the field,

29. And all their goods, and all their children, and their wives, they took captive, and spoiled all that was in the houses.

30. And Jacob said unto Simeon and Levi, Ye have brought me evil, that I stink before the inhabitants of this land, the Canaanites and the Perizzites: and I am a small company. When they come together against me, they will strike me. And I shall be destroyed, I and my house.

31. And they answered, Shall they then deal with our sister as with a harlot?

(Genesis)

Chapter 35

Rachel dies in childbirth.

1. And God said unto Jacob, Arise, go to Bethel, and dwell there; and make there an altar unto God, which appeared unto thee, when thou fledst from thy brother Esau.

2. And Jacob said unto his household, and to all that were with him: Put away the strange gods that are among you, and cleanse yourselves, and change your garments.

3. And let us arise, and go to Bethel, that I may make there an altar unto God, which heard me in the time of my affliction, and was with me in the way which I went.

4. And they gave him all the strange gods that were under their hands, and their earrings; and he buried them under an oak that stood by Shechem.

5. And they went out. And the fear of God came upon the cities that were round about them, that they pursued not after the sons of Jacob.

6. So Jacob came to Luz in the land of Canaan, which is called Bethel, and all the people that were with him,

7. And he built there an altar, and called the name of the place Elbethel: because there God was revealed unto him, when he fled from his brother.

8. And Deborah, Rebekah's nurse, died, and was buried under Bethel, under the oak tree, and was called the Lamentation oak.

9. And God appeared unto Jacob again after he was come out of Mesopotamia, and blessed him.

10. And he said unto him, Thou shalt be called Jacob; but thou shalt no more be called Jacob, but Israel shalt thou be called. And so they called him Israel.

11. And God said unto him, I am the Almighty God: be fruitful, and multiply: nations and multitudes shall come of thee, and kings shall come out of thy loins.

12; And the land which I gave unto Abraham and Isaac will I give thee, and will give it unto thy seed after thee.

13. So God departed from him, from the place where he had spoken with him.

14. And Jacob set up a stone mark in the place where he had spoken unto him, and poured drink offerings upon it, and poured oil upon it.

15. And Jacob called the name of the place where God spake unto him Bethel.

16. And they departed from Bethel. And there was a little way from Ephrath, where Rachel bare.

17. And she was sore at the birth. And when she was so sore in childbirth, the wailing mother said unto her: Fear not, for this son you shall have also.

18. And when her soul was gone out to die, she called his name Benoni: but his father called his name Benjamin.

19. So Rachel died, and was buried by the way of Ephrath, which is now called Bethlehem.

20. And Jacob set up a mark over her sepulchre: the same is the sepulchre of Rachel unto this day.

21. And Israel went out, and pitched a tent beyond the tower of Eder.

22. And it came to pass, while Israel dwelt in the land, that Reuben went and slept with Bilhah his father's concubine: and it came to pass before Israel. And Jacob had twelve sons.

23. And the sons of Leah were these: Reuben the firstborn son of Jacob, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun.

24. And the sons of Rachel were: Joseph and Benjamin.

25. The sons of Bilhah Rachel's handmaid: Dan and Naphtali.

26. The sons of Zilpah, Leah's handmaid: Gad and Asher. These are the sons of Jacob, which were born unto him in Mesopotamia.

27. And Jacob came to Isaac his father to Mamre, to the capital which is called Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac were strangers.

28. And Isaac was an hundred and eighty years old.

29. And he departed, and died, and was gathered unto his people, old and full of life. And his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

(Genesis)

Chapter 36

Genealogical register of Esau.

1. This is the family of Esau, which is called Edom.

2. And Esau took wives of the daughters of Canaan; Adah the daughter of Elon the Hittite, and Ahalibamah the daughter of Ana, the nephew of Zibeon the Hivite; 3. And Basmath, Ishmael's daughter, Nebajoth's sister.

4. And Adah bare Eliphaz to Esau; but Basmath bare Reguel.

5. And Ahalibamah bare Jehus, and Jaelam, and Korah. These are the sons of Esau, which were born unto him in the land of Canaan.

6. And Esau took his wives, and his sons, and his daughters, and all the souls of his house, and his substance, and all his cattle, with all the goods which he had gotten in the land of Canaan, and went into a land of Jacob his brother.

7. For their substance was so great, that they could not dwell together: and the land wherein they were strangers could not bear them for the multitude of their cattle.

8. So Esau dwelt in mount Seir. And Esau is the Edom.

9. This is the family of Esau, from whom the Edomites came, in mount Seir.

10. And these are the names of the sons of Esau: Eliphaz the son of Adah, Esau's wife; Reguel the son of Basmath, Esau's wife.

11. And the sons of Eliphaz were these: Theman, Omar, Zepho, Gaetham, and Kenaz.

12. And Timmah was the concubine of Eliphaz the son of Esau, which bare him Amalek. These are the children of Adah Esau's wife.

13. And the children of Reguel are these: Nahath, Serah, Samma, Missa. These are the children of Basmath, Esau's wife.

14. And the sons of Ahalibamah, Esau's wife, the daughter of Ana, the nephew of Zibeon, which she bare unto Esau, are these; Jehus, and Jaelam, and Korah.

15. These are the princes of the sons of Esau: The sons of Eliphaz the firstborn of Esau were these; the prince Theman, the prince Omar, the prince Zepho, the prince Kenaz, 16. The prince Korah, the prince Gaetham, the prince Amalek. These are the princes of Eliphaz, in the land of Edom, and are the children of Adah.

17. And these are the sons of Reguel the son of Esau; Nahath the prince, Zerah the prince, Samma the prince, Missa the prince. These are the princes of Reguel in the land of Edom, and are the children of Basmath Esau's wife.

18. These are the sons of Ahalibamah, Esau's wife: the prince of Jehu, the prince of Jaelam, the prince of Korah. These are the princes of Ahalibamah the daughter of Ana, Esau's wife.
19. These are the children of Esau, and their princes. He is the Edom.
20. And the sons of Seir the Horite, which dwelt in the land, are these: Lothan, Shobal, Zibeon, Ana, Dison, Ezer, and Disan.
21. These are the princes of the Horites, children of Seir, in the land of Edom.
22. And the sons of Lothan were these: Hori and Heman; and Lothan's sister's name was Thimnah.
23. And the children of Sobal were these: Alwan, Manahath, Ebal, Sepho and Onam.
24. the children of Zibeon were: Aja and Ana. This is Ana, who invented mule horses in the desert as he tended his father Zibeon's donkey.
25. And the sons of Anah were: Dison and Ahalibamah, which is the daughter of Anah.
26. And the children of Dison were: Hemdan, Esban, Jethran and Charan.
27. the children of ezer were: Bilhan, Sawan and Akan
28. the children of Disan were: Uz and Man.
29. These are the princes of the Horites: the prince Lothan, the prince Shobal, the prince Zibeon, the prince Ana,
30. The prince Dison, the prince Ezer, the prince Disan. These are the princes of the Horites, which reigned in the land of Seir.
31. And the kings that reigned in the land of Edom before the children of Israel had kings are these:
32. Bela was king in Edom, the son of Beor: and the name of his city was Dinhabah.
33. And when Bela was dead, Jobab the son of Zerah of Bazrah reigned in his stead.
34. And it came to pass, when Jobab was dead, that Husham the king of the Themanites reigned in his stead.
35. And when Husham was dead, Hadad the son of Bedad reigned in his stead, who smote the Midianites in the field of Moab: and the name of his city was Avith.
36. And when Hadad was dead, Samla reigned from Masrek.

37. And when Samla was dead, Saul reigned over Rehoboth by the river.

38. And when Saul was dead, Baal Hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his stead.

39. And when Baal Hanan the son of Achbor was dead, Hadar reigned in his stead; and the name of his city was Pagu; and his wife's name was Mehetabeel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mesahab.

40. So the princes of Esau are called by their families, and by their places, and by their names: the lord Thimna, the lord Alwa, the lord Jetheth,

41. The prince Ahalibama, the prince Ela, the prince Pinon,

42. The prince Kenas, the prince Theman, the prince Mibzar,

43. Magdiel the prince, Jram the prince. These are the princes of Edom, as they dwelt in their inheritance. And Esau is the father of the Edomites.

(Genesis)

Chapter 37

Joseph is sold out of envy by his brothers.

1. And Jacob dwelt in the land where his father was a stranger in the land of Canaan.

2. And these are the generations of Jacob: Joseph was seventeen years old when he became a shepherd of cattle with his brethren: and the lad was with the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah his father's wives, and brought them before their father, where there was an evil cry against them.

3. And Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he begat him in his old age: and he made him a coat of many colours.

4. When therefore his brethren saw that their father loved him better than all his brethren, they were enemies to him and could not speak a kind word to him.

5. And once Joseph had a dream, and told it unto his brethren; and they became more hostile unto him.

6. For he said unto them: Hear, I pray thee, what I have dreamed.

7. And it came to pass, that we bound sheaves in the field, and my sheaf rose up, and stood, and your sheaves round about bowed down against my sheaf.

8. And his brethren said unto him, Shall thou be our king, and reign over us? And they became more hostile to him because of his dream and his speech.

9. And he had another dream, and told it his brethren, saying, Behold, I have had another dream.

The sun and the moon and the eleven stars were bowing down before me.

10. And when it was told his father and his brethren, his father rebuked him, saying unto him, What dream is this that thou hast dreamed? Shall I and thy mother and thy brethren come and worship thee?

11. And his brethren envied him. But his father kept these words.

12. And his brethren went to feed their father's cattle in Shechem, 13.

And Israel said unto Joseph, Dost not thy brethren keep the cattle in Shechem? Come, and I will send thee unto them. And he said, Here am I.

14. And he said, Go and see whether it be well with thy brethren, and with the cattle; and tell me again how it is. And he sent him out of the valley of Hebron to go to Shechem.

15. And when a man found him going astray in the field, he asked him, saying, Whom seekest thou?

16. And he answered: I seek my brethren; rather, tell me where they shepherd.

17. And the man said, They are departed thence: for I heard them say, Let us go to Dothan. So Joseph followed his brethren, and found them at Dothan.

18. And when they saw him afar off, before he came nigh unto them, they smote to kill him, 19. And they said one to another, Behold, the dreamer cometh.

20. Come now therefore, and let us slay him, and cast him into a pit, and say that an evil beast hath devoured him; and it shall be seen what his dreams are.

21. And when Reuben heard it, he would have delivered him out of their hands, saying, Let us not kill him.

22. And again, Reuben said unto them: Shed not blood, but cast him into the pit that is in the wilderness, and lay not your hand upon him. And he would deliver him out of their hand, that he might bring him again unto his father.

23. And when Joseph was come to his brethren, they stripped him of his coat, with the coat of many colours that he had on;
24. And they took him, and cast him into a pit: but that pit was empty, and there was no water in it.
25. And they sat down to eat. And they lifted up their eyes, and saw a company of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead with their camels, bearing spices, and balm, and myrrh; and they went down into Egypt.
26. And Judah said unto his brethren: What profit is it that we slay our brother, and hide his blood?
27. Come, and let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, that our hands be not offended against him: for he is our brother, our flesh and blood. And they obeyed him.
28. And when the Midianites the merchants passed by, they drew him out of the pit, and sold him to the Ishmaelites for twenty shekels of silver; and they brought him into Egypt.
29. And when Reuben was come again to the pit, he found not Joseph therein, he tore his dress
30. And he came again to his brethren, and said, The lad is not there; where shall I go?
31. And they took Joseph's skirt, and slew a kid, and dipped the skirt in the blood.
32. And they sent the coat of many colours, and brought it to their father, saying, This we have found; see whether it be thy son's coat or not.
33. And he knew him, and said, It is my son's skirt; an evil beast hath devoured it, a ravening beast hath torn Joseph in pieces.
34. And Jacob rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his loins, and mourned for his son a long time.
35. And all his sons and his daughters came up to comfort him: but he would not be comforted, and said: I will go down with sorrow into the pit to my son. And his father wept over him.
36. But the Midianites sold him in Egypt unto Potiphar, Pharaoh's chamberlain and steward.

(Genesis)

Chapter 38

Judah's incest with Tamar.

1. And it came to pass about that time, that Judah went down from his brethren, and joined himself to a man of Odollam, whose name was Hira.

2. And Judah saw there the daughter of a Canaanite man, whose name was Shuah; and he took her. And when he had put her to sleep,

3. And she conceived, and bare a son, and called his name Ger.

4. And she conceived, and bare a son, and called his name Onan.

5. And she bare a son, and called his name Shelah: and he was at Cheshib when she bare him.

6. And Judah gave unto Ger his first son a wife, whose name was Tamar.

7. But he was wicked in the sight of the LORD; therefore the Lord slew him.

8. And Judah said unto Onan, Lie with thy brother's wife, and take her in marriage, and raise up seed unto thy brother.

9. And when Onan knew that the seed should not be his own, if he lay with his brother's wife, he let it fall to the ground, and destroyed it, that he should not give seed unto his brother.

10. This was evil in the sight of the LORD, which he did; and he slew him also.

11. And Judah said unto Tamar his wife, Remain a widow in thy father's house, until Shelah my son be grown up. For he said, Peradventure he will die like his brethren. So Tamar went and stayed in her father's house.

12. And it came to pass, when many days were expired, that Shuah's daughter Judah's wife died.

And it came to pass, when Judah had mourned, that he went up to shear his sheep to Timnath, with Hira of Odollam his shepherd.

13. And it was told Tamar, saying, Behold, thy brother in law goeth up to Timnath to shear his sheep.

14. And she put off the widow's garments which she had on, and covered herself with a mantle, and sat down at the door of the way to Timnath: for she saw that Shelah was grown, and that she was not given to him to wife.

15. And when Judah saw her, he thought that she was a harlot, because she hid her face.

16. And he came to her by the way, and said, Let me lie with thee. For he knew not that she was his cord. And she said, What wilt thou give me, that thou mayest lie with me?

17. And he said: I will send thee a kid of the flock. And she said, Give me a pledge, till thou send it me.

18. And he said, What pledge wilt thou that I give thee? And she answered, Thy ring, and thy cord, and thy staff, which thou hast in thine hands: and he gave it her, and lay with her: and she conceived by him.

19. And she arose, and went, and put off her cloak, and put on her widow's garments.

20. And Judah sent the goat by his shepherd from Odollam, to fetch the pledge again of the woman: and he found her not.

21. And he asked the men of that place, saying, Where is the harlot that sat by the way side?

They answered: There was no harlot there.

22. And he came again to Judah, and said: I have not found her: and the men of that place say that there was no harlot there.

23. And Judah said, She hath it unto her, she cannot reproach us: for I sent the goat, and thou hast not found her.

24. For three months Judah was told, Thy daughter Tamar hath whored; and, behold, she is with child in whoredom. And Judah said, Bring her forth, that she may be burned.

25. And when they brought her forth, she sent unto her brother in law, saying, Of the man that this is, I am with child. And she said, Knowest thou whose is this ring, and whose is this cord, and whose is this staff?

26. And Judah perceived it, and said, She is more righteous than I: for I gave her not to Shelah my son. But he slept no more with her.

27. And when she should have given birth, twins were conceived in her womb.

28. And when she had given birth, one hand came out. And the mother of sorrow took it, and tied a thread round it, and said, This shall be the first that cometh out.

29. And when he drew in his hand again, his brother came out; and she said, Why hast thou for thy sake torn such a breach? And they called him Perez.

30. And afterward came out his brother, which had the red thread about his hand. And they called him Serah.

(Genesis)

Chapter 39

Joseph's ministry, chastity and prison.

1. Joseph was brought down into Egypt: and Potiphar, an Egyptian man, Pharaoh's chamberlain and steward, bought him of the Ishmaelites, which brought him down.

2. And the LORD was with Joseph, that he might be a happy man: and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian.

3. And his lord saw that the LORD was with him: for whatsoever he did, the LORD prospered through him,

4. So that he found grace in the sight of his lord, and became his servant. And he set him over his house, and all that he had he put under his hands.

5. And from the time that he had set him over his house, and over all his goods, the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; and the blessing of the LORD was upon all that he had, both at home, and in the field.

6. Therefore he left all that he had in Joseph's hands, and took no thing for himself, because he had it, save that he did eat and drink. And Joseph was fair and comely in countenance.

7. And it came to pass after this, that his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph, and said, Sleep with me.

8. But he refused, and said unto her, Behold, my lord taketh nothing for himself in my sight, that is in the house: and all that he hath he hath put under my hands; 9. And he hath nothing so great in the house, which he hath hid from me, except thee, because thou art his wife. How then shall I do such great evil, and sin against God?

10. And she spake such words against Joseph daily. But he hearkened not unto her, that he slept nigh unto her, nor was about her.

11. And it came to pass one day, that Joseph went into the house to do his business, and there was none of the servants of the house with him.

12. And she caught him by his garment, and said, Sleep with me. But he left the garment in her hand, and fled, and ran out of the house.

13. And when she saw that he left his garment in her hand, she fled out, 14. And she called unto the servants that were in the house, and said unto them, Behold, he hath brought in the man of Egypt to put us to shame. And he came in unto me, and would have slept with me: but I cried with a loud voice.

15. And when he heard that I made a noise and cried out, he left his garment with me, and fled, and ran out.

16. And she laid his garment by his side, until his lord came home, 17. And he spake unto him the same words, saying, The same ebramite servant, whom thou hast brought in unto us, came in unto me, and wouldest have put me to shame.

18. And when I cried out, he left his garment with me, and fled out.

19. And when his lord heard the words of his wife, which she spake unto him, saying, Thus hath thy servant done unto me, he was very wroth.

20. And his lord took him, and put him in the prison, where the king's prisoners were within; and he lay there in the prison.

21. But the LORD was with him, and showed him mercy, and gave him favour in the sight of the officer over the prison,

22. That he had put under his hand all the prisoners that were in the prison, that all things which were done should be done by him.

23. For the keeper of the prison took no part in any thing: for the LORD was with Joseph, and whatsoever he did, the LORD gave it good fortune.

(Genesis)

Chapter 40

Joseph lays out the prisoners' dreams.

1. And it came to pass afterward, that the king's tavern keeper in Egypt, and the baker, sinned against their master the king of Egypt.

2. And Pharaoh was wroth with his two officers, with the officer over the taverns, and with the officer over the bakers,

3. And he put them in the keeper's house, in the prison, where Joseph was a prisoner.

4. And the captain of the guard set Joseph over them to minister unto them: and they sat in prison some days.

5. And both of them, the king of Egypt's minister and baker, dreamed a dream in one night, every man his own dream: and every man's dream had his own meaning.

6. And when Joseph came in unto them in the morning, he saw that they were sad, 7. And he asked them, saying, Why are ye sad to-day? 8. They answered: We have dreamed it, and have no man to interpret it unto us. And Joseph said, To interpret belongeth unto God; but tell me. 9. And the chief porter told Joseph his dream, and said unto him, I dreamed that there was a vine before me, 10. Which had three branches; and it sprouted, and grew, and blossomed, and the grapes thereof were ripe; 11. And I had Pharaoh's cup in mine hand, and took the berries, and crushed them in the cup, and gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand. 12. And Joseph said unto him, This is his interpretation: three branches are three days. 13. For three days Pharaoh shall lift up thy head, and set thee again in thy service, and thou shalt put the cup into his hand after the former manner, when thou wast his minister. 14. But remember me, if it please thee, and have mercy upon me, that thou mayest remember Pharaoh, that he may bring me out of this house. 15. For I was stolen out of the land of the Eberians by stealth: neither have I done any thing here, that they have set me up. 16. And when the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said unto Joseph, I also dreamed that I had three white baskets upon my head, 17. And in the topmost basket all manner of baked meat unto Pharaoh: and the birds did eat out of the basket upon my head. 18. And Joseph answered and said, This is his interpretation: three baskets are three days. 19. And after three days Pharaoh shall lift up thy head, and hang thee on the gallows; and the birds shall eat thy flesh from thee. 20. And it came to pass on the third day, that Pharaoh celebrated his jubilee, and made a feast to all his servants, and raised up the head of the chief paster, and the head of the chief baker among his servants; 21. And he set the chief tumbler again in his tumbler office, to give the cup in Pharaoh's hand; 22. But the chief baker he hanged, as Joseph had signified unto them. 23. But the chief tavern keeper remembered not Joseph, but forgot his. (Genesis)

Chapter 41

Joseph is raised to princely majesty by interpretation of Pharaoh's dreams.

1. And after two years Pharaoh had a dream, as he stood by the waters.

2. And I saw seven fat cows coming up out of the water, walking by the pasture in the grass.

3. And after these he saw other seven kine come up out of the water, ugly and lean: and they stood by the kine upon the bank by the water.

4. And the ugly and lean ones did eat the seven fair fat cows. Then Pharaoh awoke.

5. And he fell asleep again, and dreamed again, and saw seven ears of corn growing out of one stalk, full and thick.

6. And afterward he saw seven ears of thin and scorched corn spring up.

7. And the seven lean ears swallowed up the seven thick and full ears. Then Pharaoh awoke and realized it was a dream.

8. And when it was morning, his spirit was troubled, and sent and called all the diviners of Egypt, and all the wise men, and told them his dreams. But there was none that could interpret them unto Pharaoh.

9. And the chief host spake unto Pharaoh, saying: I remember my sin this day.

10. And Pharaoh was wroth with his servants, and put me in prison with the chief baker in the house of the captain of the guard,

11. Then dreamed we both in one night, every man his dream, the interpretation of which concerned him.

12. And there was with us a young man of the sons of Egypt, the chamberlain's servant, and we told him. And he interpreted our dreams unto us, every man according to his dream.

13. And as he signified unto us, so it is done: for I am restored to my office, and he is hanged.

14. And Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and sent him out of the hole in haste. And he was clothed, and put on other garments, and came in unto Pharaoh.

15. And Pharaoh said unto him, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it: but I have heard thee say, When thou hearest a dream, thou canst interpret it.

16. And Joseph answered Pharaoh, and said, This is not with me: surely God will prophesy good things unto Pharaoh.

17. And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I dreamed that I stood by the waters on the shore.

18. And when I was come up out of the water, I saw seven fat cows of great beauty, walking by the pasture in the grass.

19. And after them I saw other seven scrawny cows come out, very ugly and lean. I have not seen such ugly ones in all the land of Egypt.

20. And the seven lean and ugly cows did eat upon the seven first fat cows.

21. And when they had eaten them up, it was not known in them that they had eaten them; and they were as ugly as before. Then I awoke.

22. And once in my dream I saw seven ears of corn growing on one stalk, full and thick.

23. And afterward there went up seven dry ears of corn, thin and scorched.

24. And the seven thin ears swallowed up the seven thick ears. And I have told it unto the diviners, but they cannot interpret it unto me.

25. And Joseph said unto Pharaoh, Both Pharaoh's dreams are one. For God tells Pharaoh what He intends to do.

26. The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good ears of corn are also the seven years. It is the same dream.

27. The seven lean and ugly kine that came up after them are seven years: and the seven lean and scorched ears of corn are seven years of costly time.

28. Now this is that I said unto Pharaoh, that God would shew Pharaoh what he would do.

29. Behold, seven years of plenty shall come upon all the land of Egypt.

30. And after them shall come seven years of trouble, and all the abundance of the land of Egypt shall be forgotten: and the trouble shall consume the land,

31. That nothing shall be known of the fulness in the land before the precious time that cometh after: for it shall be almost heavy.

32. And that Pharaoh dreamed the second time signifieth that God will surely and speedily do this thing.

33. Now Pharaoh looketh for a man of understanding and wisdom, whom he shall set over the land of Egypt,

34. And he shall appoint officers in the land, and take the fifth in the land of Egypt in the seven years of plenty;

35. And gather all the food of the good years that shall come, and heap up corn in Pharaoh's granaries for a store in the cities, and keep it,

36. That food may be found ordained for the land in the seven costly years that shall come upon the land of Egypt, that the land be not destroyed for hunger.

37. And the speech pleased Pharaoh well, and all his servants.

38. And Pharaoh said unto his servants: How can we find such a man in whom is the Spirit of God?

39. And said unto Joseph, Because God hath made all these things known unto thee, there is none so understanding and wise as thou.

40. Thou shalt be over my house, and unto thy word shall all my people obey: of the king's throne alone will I be higher than thou.

41. And Pharaoh said again unto Joseph, Behold, I have set thee over all the land of Egypt.

42. And he took his ring from his hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand, and clothed him in white silk, and put a chain of gold upon his neck.

43. And he made him ride in his other chariot, and proclaimed before him: He is the father of the land. And he set him over all the land of Egypt.

44. And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I am Pharaoh: without thy will shall no man lift up his hand or his foot in all the land of Egypt.

45. And called him the secret council. And he gave him a wife, Asnath the daughter of Potipherah the priest of On. So Joseph went forth to see the land of Egypt.

46. And he was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt: and he departed from Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt.

47. And the land did so the seven rich years;

48. And they gathered all the meat of the seven years that were in the land of Egypt, and put it into the cities. And whatsoever food was growing in the field of any city round about, that they put therein.

49. So Joseph heaped up the corn, as much as the sand of the sea, so that he ceased to count it; for it could not be counted.

50. And unto Joseph were born two sons before the precious time came, which Asnath the daughter of Potipherah the priest bare unto him.

51. And he called the first Manasseh: for God, said he, hath made me forget all my calamities, and all my father's house.

22. And the other he called Ephraim: for God, said he, hath made me to grow in the land of my affliction.

53. And when the seven years of plenty were expired in the land of Egypt, 54. And the seven years of trouble began to come, when Joseph had spoken of them. And there was a famine in all the land: but there was bread in all the land of Egypt.

55. And when all the land of Egypt was also famished, the people cried unto Pharaoh for bread.

And Pharaoh said unto all the Egyptians, Go unto Joseph; whatsoever he saith unto you, do.

56. And it came to pass, when there was a famine throughout all the land, that Joseph opened cornhouses every where, and sold unto the Egyptians. For the longer the famine continued, the greater was the famine in the land.

57. And all the countries of Egypt came to buy of Joseph: for the famine was great in all the countries.

(Genesis)

Chapter 42

Journey of the sons of Jacob into Egypt, without Benjamin.

1. And when Jacob saw that corn was sold in Egypt, he said unto his sons: Why do you look around so long?

2. Behold, I hear that there is corn in Egypt: go down and buy us corn, that we may live, and not die.

3. So ten of Joseph's brethren went down to buy corn in Egypt.

4. But Benjamin Joseph's brother would not let Jacob go with his brethren: for he said, An accident may befall him.

5. So the children of Israel came to buy corn, and others with them: for it was dear in the land of Canaan.

6. But Joseph was the ruler of the land, and sold corn unto all the people of the land. And when his brethren came unto him, they fell down to the earth upon their faces before him.

7. And he looked upon them, and knew them; and stood strange against them, and spake hard unto them, and said unto them: Whence come ye? And they said: Out of the land of Canaan, to buy meat.

8. But though he knew them, yet knew they him not.

9. And Joseph remembered the dreams which he had dreamed of them, and said unto them: Ye are spies, and are come to see where the land is open.

10. And they said unto him, Nay, my lord; thy servants are come to buy meat.

11. We are all the sons of one man; we are upright; and thy servants have never been spies.

12. And he said unto them: Nay, but ye are come to see where the land is open.

13. And they said unto him, We thy servants are twelve brethren, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and the youngest is yet with our father; but the one is no more.

14. And Joseph said unto them: This is it that I said unto you: Ye are spies.

15. By this I will try you: by the life of Pharaoh ye shall not come hence, except your youngest brother come hither.

16. Send one of you to fetch your brother, and ye shall be taken captive. So will I try your words, whether ye deal in truth, or not. For if not, by the life of Pharaoh ye are spies.

17. And he kept them together three days.

18. And the third day he said unto them: If ye would live, do so: for I fear GOD.

19. If ye be upright, let one of your brethren lie bound in your prison: but go ye, bring home that which ye have bought for hunger,

20. And bring your youngest brother unto me, and I will believe your words, that ye die not. And they did so.

21. And they said among themselves: This we did unto our brother, that we saw the anguish of his soul, when he besought us, and we would not hearken unto him: therefore is this tribulation come upon us.

22. And Reuben answered them, and said, Did I not tell you, saying, Sin not against the lad, and ye would not hear? Now his blood is required.

23. And they knew not that Joseph understood: for he spake unto them through an interpreter.

24. And he turned from them, and wept. And when he turned again unto them, and spake unto them, he took of them Simeon, and bound him before their eyes;

25. And Joseph commanded that they should fill their sacks with corn, and return their money, every man into his sack, and victuals for the way. And they did so unto them.

26. And they loaded their merchandise upon their asses, and departed thence.

27. And when a man had opened his sack to feed his ass in the inn, he perceived his money that was in the top of the sack.

28. And he said unto his brethren: My money is restored unto me; behold, it is in my sack. Then their hearts fell from them, and they were afraid among themselves, and said: Why hath God done this unto us?

29. And when they were come home to Jacob their father into the land of Canaan, they told him all that they had met with, saying:

30. The man that is master in the land spake hard unto us, and took us for spies of the land.

31. And when we answered him: We are honest, and have never been spies, 32. But twelve brethren the sons of our father: one is left, and the youngest is yet with our father in the land of Canaan:

33. And the LORD said unto us in the land, By this I will know whether ye are upright: leave one of your brethren with me, and take the necessities of your house, and go; 34. And bring your youngest brother unto me, and I will know that ye are not spies, but that ye are upright: and I will give you your brother also, and ye shall go forth into the land.

35. And when they had poured out the sacks, they found every man his little bundle of money in his sack. And when they saw that they were bundles of their money, they were afraid, they and their father.

36. And Jacob their father said unto them: Ye rob me of my children: Joseph is no more, Simeon is no more, Benjamin will ye take away; it is all gone over me.

37. And Reuben answered his father, and said, If I bring him not again unto thee, slay my two sons: only deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him again unto thee.

38. And he said, My son shall not go down with you, because his brother is dead, and he is left alone: if any accident should befall him in the way as ye go up, ye would bring my gray hairs into the pit with sorrow of heart.

(Genesis)

Chapter 43

Journey of the sons of Jacob to Egypt with Benjamin.

1. but the dearth pressed the land.
2. And when they had eaten up all the corn that they had brought out of Egypt, their father said unto them: Go again, and buy us a little meat.
3. Then Judah answered him, and said: And the man bound us hard, and said: Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.
4. If then thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go down and buy food for thee; 5. But if thou send him not, we will not go down. For the man said unto us, Ye shall not see my face, but your brother shall be with you.
6. And Israel said, Why have ye done so evil unto me, as to tell the man how ye have another brother?
7. And they answered: The man inquired so closely of us and of our friendship, saying, Is your father yet alive? Have ye also any brother? Then we told him as he asked us. How could we know just now that he would say: Bring your brother down with you?
8. And Judah said unto Israel his father, Let the lad go with me, that we may arise and journey, and live, and not die, both we, and thou, and our little ones.
9. I will be surety for him; thou shalt require him at my hand. If I bring him not again unto thee, and set him before thine eyes, I will bear the iniquity all the days of my life.
10. For if we had not gone away, we should have returned twice.
11. And Israel their father said unto them: If it be so, do it, and take of the best fruits of the land into your sacks, and bring down gifts unto the man, a little balm, and honey, and spices, and myrrh, and dates, and almonds.
12. Take ye also other money with you; and the money that is returned unto you above in your sacks, bring ye also again with you. Perhaps there has been a mistake.
13. Therefore take your brother, arise, and come again to the man.

14. But may God Almighty have mercy upon you in the sight of the man, that he leave you your other brother and Benjamin. But I am like one who is deprived of his children.

15. And they took these presents and the money double with them, and Benjamin, and rose up, and went into Egypt, and stood before Joseph.

16. And Joseph saw them with Benjamin, and said unto his steward, Bring these men home, and slay, and prepare: for they shall eat with me at noon.

17. And the man did as Joseph had told him, and brought the men into Joseph's house.

18. And they were afraid when they were brought into Joseph's house, and said: We are brought in for the money which we found in our sacks aforetime, that he may bring it upon us, and execute judgment upon us, that he may take us for his own servants, and our asses with him.

19. Therefore they came to Joseph's steward, and spake unto him at the door of the house.

20. And said: My lord, we came down a little while ago to buy food.

21. And when we were come into the inn, and had opened our sacks, behold, every man's money was in the top of his sack with full weight: therefore we brought it again with us, 22. have also brought down other money with us to buy meat: but we know not who hath put our money into our sacks.

23. And he said, Be at ease, fear not. Your God and your father's God hath given you treasure in your sacks. Your money is become mine. And he brought Simeon out unto them.

24. And he brought them into Joseph's house, and gave them water to wash their feet, and fed their asses.

25. And they made ready the present until Joseph came at noon: for they had heard that they should eat bread there.

26. And when Joseph was come into the house, they brought him home the present in their hands, and fell down to the ground before him.

27. And he greeted them kindly, and said, Is your father well, the old man, of whom ye told me?

is he yet alive?

28. And they answered: Thy servant our father is well, and yet liveth. And they bowed themselves, and fell down before him.

29. And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said: Is this your youngest brother, since you told me of him? And he said, God be gracious unto thee, my son.

30. And Joseph made haste, because his heart burned against his brother, and sought where he wept; and went into his chamber, and wept there.

31. And when he had washed his face, he went out, and held himself, and said, Put on bread.

32. And they charged him specially, and them also specially, and the Egyptians also specially that did eat with him. For the Egyptians must not eat bread with the Ebrams, for it is an abomination in their sight.

33. And they set them against him, the firstborn according to his firstborn, and the youngest according to his youth. And they wondered among themselves.

34. And they set meat before them of his table: but Benjamin had five times more than the rest.

And they drank, and were drunken with him.

(Genesis)

Chapter 44

Joseph's brothers are being hard-pressed.

1. And Joseph commanded his steward, saying, Fill the men's sacks with meat, as much as they may carry, and put every man's money in the top of his sack.

2. And put my silver cup in the top of the young man's sack with the money for the corn. And he did as Joseph had said unto him.

3. And it came to pass in the morning, when it was light, that they sent the men away with their asses.

4. And when they were gone out of the city, and were not far off, Joseph said unto his steward, Go, pursue after the men, and when thou seest them, speak unto them: Why have ye requited good with evil?

5. Is not this that my lord drinketh of, and that he may know? Ye have done evil.

6. And when he had taken hold of them, he spake unto them these words.

7. And they said unto him, Why saith my lord these words? Far be it from thy servants to do such a thing.

8. Behold, the money that we found in the top of our sacks we have brought again unto thee out of the land of Canaan. How then should we have stolen silver or gold out of the house of thy lord?

9. With whomsoever he be found among thy servants, let him be put to death: and we also will be my lord's servants.

10. And he said, Yea, it shall be as ye have spoken. With whomsoever he be found, let him be my servant: but ye shall be free.

11. And they hasted, and laid every man his sackcloth upon the earth, and opened every man his sackcloth.

12. And he searched, and began at the greatest unto the last: and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

13. And they rent their clothes, and loaded every man upon his ass, and returned into the city.

14. And Judah went with his brethren into Joseph's house, because he was yet there: and they fell down to the ground before him.

15. And Joseph said unto them: How have ye been able to do this? Know ye not that such a man as I am might guess?

16. And Judah said, What shall we say unto my lord, or how shall we speak, and what shall we justify ourselves? God hath found the iniquity of thy servants. Behold, we and he with whom the cup is found are my lord's servants.

17. And he said, Far be it from me to do this thing. The man with whom the cup is found shall be my servant: but go ye up in peace unto your father.

18. And Judah came to him, and said, My lord, let thy servant speak a word in thine ears, my lord; and let not thine anger be kindled against thy servant: for thou art as Pharaoh.

19. And my lord asked his servants, saying, Have ye also a father, or a brother?

20. Then answered we: We have a father that is old, and a young lad born in his old age; and his brother is dead, and he is left alone of his mother, and his father loveth him.

21. Then saidst thou unto thy servants: Bring him down unto me, and I will shew him mercy.

22. And we said unto my lord, The lad cannot come from his father: if he came from him, he would die.

23. Then saidst thou unto thy servants: Where your youngest brother cometh not hither with you, ye shall see my face no more.

24. Then we went up unto thy servant my father, and told him my lord's speech.

25. And our father said, Go again, and buy us a little meat.

26. And we said: We cannot go down, except our youngest brother be with us, and we will go down: for we cannot see the man's face, where our youngest brother is not with us.

27. And thy servant my father said unto us, Ye know that my wife hath borne me two sons.

28. One went out from me, and was said to be torn: and have not seen him hitherto.

29. If ye also take this man from me, and an accident befall him, then shall ye bring down my gray hairs with sorrow into the pit.

30. Now if I came home to thy servant my father, and the lad were not with us, because his soul clave unto this soul,

31. And it shall come to pass, when he seeth that the lad is not there, that he shall die: then shall we thy servants bring the gray hairs of thy servant, our father, into the pit with sorrow of heart:

32. For I thy servant became surety for the lad against my father, saying, If I bring him not again unto thee, I will bear the iniquity all my life.

33. Therefore let thy servant abide here in the lad's stead, the servant of my lord; and let the lad go up with his brethren.

34. For how shall I go up to my father, if the lad be not with me? I would have to see the wretchedness that would meet my father.

(Genesis)

Chapter 45

Joseph makes himself known to his brothers.

1. And Joseph could no longer refrain himself from all that stood about him: and he cried, Let every man go out from me. And there stood no man with him, when Joseph confessed with his brethren.

2. And he cried with a loud voice, and the Egyptians and Pharaoh's servants heard it.

3. And said unto his brethren: I am Joseph. Is my father yet alive? And his brethren could not answer him; so they were afraid before his face.

4. And he said unto his brethren: Come near me. And they came near. And he said, I am Joseph your brother, whom ye sold in Egypt.

5. And now be not grieved, neither think that I am angry because ye have sold me hither: for for your life's sake God hath sent me before you.

6. For these are two years, that it is dear in the land; and there are yet five years, that there shall be no plowing nor reaping.

7. But God hath sent me before you, to preserve you in the earth, and to save your lives by a great salvation.

8. And now, ye sent me not hither, but God, who hath made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord over all his house, and a ruler in all the land of Egypt.

9. Make haste therefore, and go up to my father, and say unto him, Joseph thy son saith unto thee, God hath made me lord of all the land of Egypt: come down unto me, tarry not.

10. Thou shalt dwell in the land of Goshen, and shalt be nigh unto me, thou, and thy children, and thy children's children, and thy cattle great and small, and all that thou hast.

11. I will provide for thee there: for there are yet five years of tribulation: lest thou perish with thy house, and with all that thou hast.

12. Behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that I speak unto you by word of mouth.

13. Declare unto my Father all my glory in Egypt, and all that ye have seen; make haste, and come down hither with my Father.

14. And he fell on the neck of Benjamin his brother, and wept: and Benjamin also wept on his neck.

15. And he kissed all his brethren, and wept over them. Afterward his brethren talked with him.

16. And when the cry came into Pharaoh's house, that Joseph's brethren were come, it pleased Pharaoh well, and all his servants.

17. And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Tell thy brethren: Do thus unto him, load your beasts, go, 18. And when ye are come into the land of Canaan, take your father and your household, and come unto me; and I will give you goods in the land of Egypt, and ye shall eat the marrow of the land.

19. And give them charge: Do so unto him, take unto you out of the land of Egypt chariots for your children and your wives, and lead your father, and come.
20. And see not your household goods: for the goods of all the land of Egypt shall be yours.
21. And the children of Israel did so. And Joseph gave them chariots according to Pharaoh's commandment, and victuals for the way.
22. And gave unto them all, every one, one ceremonial garment; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and five ceremonial garments.
23. And he sent unto his father ten asses laden with goods out of Egypt, and ten asses laden with corn and bread and meat for his father's journey.
24. So he left his brethren, and they went, and said unto them: Quarrel not in the way.
25. So they went up from Egypt, and came into the land of Canaan unto Jacob their father.
26. And they told him, saying: Joseph is yet alive, and is a ruler in all the land of Egypt. But his heart thought much otherwise, because he believed them not.
27. And they told him all the words of Joseph, which he had spoken unto them. And when he saw the chariots which Joseph had sent him to bring him, the spirit of Jacob their father was quickened.
28. And Israel said: I am satisfied that my son Joseph is yet alive; I will go and see him before I die.

(Genesis)

Chapter 46

Jacob's journey to Egypt to his son Joseph.

1. And Israel went with all that he had. And when he was come to Beer-saba, he offered sacrifices unto the God of Isaac his father.
2. And God said unto him in the night in his vision, Jacob, Jacob. And he said, Here am I.
3. And he said: I am GOD, the GOD of thy father; fear not to go down into Egypt, for there will I make thee a great nation.
4. I will go down with thee into Egypt, and will bring thee up also: and Joseph shall put his hands upon thine eyes.

5. And Jacob arose from Beer-saba; and the children of Israel brought Jacob their father, and their little ones, and their wives, in the chariots which Pharaoh had sent to bring him.
6. And they took their cattle and their substance, which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and came into Egypt, Jacob and all his seed with him.
7. His children, and his children's children with him, his daughters, and his children's daughters, and all his seed, brought he with him into Egypt.
8. These are the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt: Jacob and his sons. The firstborn of Jacob's son, Reuben.
9. the children of Reuben: Hanoch, Pallu Hezron and Charmi.
10. The sons of Simeon; Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Saul the son of the Canaanitish woman.
11. the children of Levi: Gerson, Kahath, and Meran.
12. The sons of Judah; Ger, and Onan, and Shelah, and Perez, and Zerah. And Ger and Onan died in the land of Canaan. And the sons of Perez; Hezron, and Hamul.
13. the children of Issachar: Thola, Phua, Job and Simron.
14. And the sons of Zebulun; Zered, and Elon, and Jahleel.
15. These are the sons of Leah, which she bare unto Jacob in Mesopotamia, with Dinah his daughter: all these, sons and daughters, make thirty and three souls.
16. the children of Gad: Ziphion, Haggi, Suni, Ezbon, Eri, Modi and Areli.
17. And the sons of Asher; Jemnah, and Jesua, and Jesui, and Briah, and Serah their sister. But the children of Briah: Heber and Malchiel.
18. These are the sons of Zilpah, which Laban gave to Leah his daughter, and bare Jacob these sixteen souls.
19. The children of Rachel Jacob's wife; Joseph and Benjamin.
20. And unto Joseph were born in the land of Egypt Manasseh and Ephraim, which bare him Asnath the daughter of Potipherah the priest of On.
21. And the sons of Benjamin; Bela, and Becher, and Asbel, and Gera, and Naaman, and Ehi, and Ros, and Muppim, and Huppim, and Ard.
22. These are the sons of Rachel, which were born unto Jacob; all fourteen souls.
23. the children of Dan: Husim.

24. And the sons of Naphtali; Jahzeel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Sillem.
25. These are the sons of Bilhah, which Laban gave to Rachel his daughter, and bare Jacob the seven souls.
26. All the souls that came with Jacob into Egypt, which were of his loins, (except the wives of his children,) were all together threescore and six souls.
27. And the sons of Joseph, which were born in Egypt, were two souls: so that all the souls of the house of Jacob, which came into Egypt, were threescore and ten.
28. And he sent Judah before him to Joseph, to instruct him to go to Goshen. And they came into the land of Goshen.
29. And Joseph harnessed his chariot, and went up to meet his father Israel at Goshen. And when he saw him, he fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a long time.
30. And Israel said unto Joseph, I will gladly die now, after I have seen thy face, that thou art yet alive.
31. And Joseph said unto his brethren, and to his father's house, I will go up, and tell Pharaoh, and say unto him: My brethren and my father's house are come unto me out of the land of Canaan.
32. And are pastors of cattle: for they are men that handle cattle: their cattle, both small and great, and all that they have, they have brought with them.
33. And when Pharaoh shall call you, and say, What is your meat?
34. And ye shall say, Thy servants are cattle-keepers from our youth even until now, both we and our fathers; that ye may dwell in the land of Goshen. For the shepherding of cattle is an abomination to the Egyptians.

(Genesis)

Chapter 47

Jacob dwelleth in the land of Goshen. The famine is great in Egypt.

1. And Joseph came and told Pharaoh, and said, My father and my brethren, and their cattle, both small and great, and all that they have, are come out of the land of Canaan: and, behold, they are in the land of Goshen.
2. And he took five of his youngest brethren, and set them before Pharaoh.

3. And Pharaoh said unto his brethren: What is your food? And they answered: Thy servants are shepherds of cattle, we and our fathers.

4. And they said unto Pharaoh, We are come to dwell with you in the land: for thy servants have no pasture for their cattle, because the famine oppresseth the land of Canaan: now therefore let thy servants dwell in the land of Goshen.

5. And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, It is thy father, and thy brethren, which are come unto thee; 6. The land of Egypt is open unto thee: let them dwell in the best part of the land, let them dwell in the land of Goshen: and if thou knowest that there be men of valour among them, set them over my cattle.

7. And Joseph brought in Jacob his father also, and set him before Pharaoh. And Jacob blessed Pharaoh.

8. And Pharaoh said unto Jacob, How old art thou?

9. And Jacob said unto Pharaoh, The days of my pilgrimage are an hundred and thirty years: the days of my life are few and evil, and are not as the days of my fathers in their pilgrimage.

10. And Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from him.

11. And Joseph made his father and his brethren to dwell, and gave them an estate in the land of Egypt, in the best part of the land, even in the land of Raemeses, as Pharaoh commanded.

12. And he fed his father, and his brethren, and all his father's house, every one after he had children.

13. And there was no bread in all the earth: for the famine was so sore, that the land of Egypt and Canaan fainted from the famine.

14. And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in Egypt and in Canaan for the corn which they bought: and Joseph put all the money into Pharaoh's house.

15. And it came to pass, when there was a scarcity of money in the land of Egypt and in Canaan, that all the Egyptians came to Joseph, saying, Make us bread. Why sufferest thou us to die before thee, because we are without money?

16. And Joseph said, Bring forth your cattle, and I will give you for the cattle, because ye are without money.

17. And they brought Joseph their cattle, and he gave them bread for their horses, and for their sheep, and for their oxen, and for their asses. So he fed them with bread all the year round for all their cattle.

18. And when the year was expired, they came to him the next year, and said unto him, We will not hide it from our lord, that not only the money, but all the cattle also, are gone to our lord, and there is nothing left before our lord, but our bodies and our field.

19. Why wilt thou suffer us to die before thee, and our field? Buy us and our land for bread, that we and our land may be servants unto Pharaoh: give us seed, that we may live, and not die, and that the field be not desolate.

20. So Joseph bought all Egypt of Pharaoh. For the Egyptians sold every man his field, because the famine was too great for them. And the land was Pharaoh's own.

21. And he divided the people into cities, from one place of Egypt even unto another.

22. Except the priests' field, which he bought not: for it was decreed of Pharaoh for the priests, that they should feed upon that which he had given them: therefore they could not sell their field.

23. And Joseph said unto the people, Behold, I have bought you this day, and your field unto Pharaoh: behold, ye have seed, and sow the field.

24. And of the corn ye shall give the fifth part unto Pharaoh: four parts shall be yours to sow the field, for your meat, and for your house, and for your children.

25. And they said: Only let us live, and find grace in the sight of thee our Lord: we will gladly be servants unto Pharaoh.

26. So Joseph made them a law unto this day concerning the field of Egypt, to give the fifth to Pharaoh; except the field of the priests, which was not Pharaoh's own.

27. So Israel dwelt in Egypt, in the land of Goshen, and possessed it, and grew and multiplied greatly.

28. And Jacob lived seventeen years in the land of Egypt: and all his days were an hundred and forty and seven years,

29. And when the time was come for Israel to die, he called Joseph his son, and said unto him, If I have found grace in thy sight, put thy hand under my thigh, that thou mayest love and keep me, and bury me not in Egypt;

30. But I will lie with my fathers, and thou shalt bring me out of Egypt, and bury me in their buryingplace. And he said: I will do as thou hast said.

31. And he said, Swear unto me. And he sware unto him. And Israel bowed himself on the bed to the heads.

(Genesis)

Chapter 48

Jacob's testament because of Ephraim and Manasseh

1. And afterward Joseph was told, Behold, thy father is sick. And he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim.

2. And it was told Jacob, saying, Behold, thy son Joseph cometh unto thee. And Israel made himself strong, and sat down in the bed.

3. And said unto Joseph, The Almighty God appeared unto me in Luz, in the land of Canaan, and blessed me.

4. And he said unto me, Behold, I will cause thee to grow, and multiply thee, and make thee a multitude of people: and I will give this land unto thy seed after thee for an everlasting possession.

5. Now therefore thy two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, which were born unto thee in the land of Egypt, before I came in unto thee, shall be mine, even as Reuben and Simeon.

6. And they which thou begettest after them shall be thine, and shall be called as their brethren in their inheritance.

7. And it came to pass, when I was come out of Mesopotamia, that Rachel died to me in the land of Canaan by the way of Ephrath, which was yet a highway: and I buried her there by the way of Ephrath, which is now called Bethlehem.

8. And Israel saw the sons of Joseph, and said, Who are these?

9. And Joseph said unto his father, They are my sons, which God hath given me here. And he said, Bring them hither unto me, that I may bless them.

10. For the eyes of Israel were dim with age, and could not well see. And he brought them unto him. And he kissed them, and embraced them.

11. And said unto Joseph, Behold, I have seen thy face, which I thought not of: and, lo, God hath made me to see thy seed also.

12. And Joseph took them from his bosom, and bowed himself to the earth toward his face.

13. And Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand against Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand against Israel's right hand, and brought them unto him.

14. And Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it upon the head of Ephraim the youngest, and his left hand upon the head of Manasseh: and he did so with his hands, knowing that Manasseh was the firstborn.

15. And he blessed Joseph, and said, God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, God, who hath nourished me all my life unto this day,

16. The angel that delivered me from all evil, bless the children, that they may be called by my name, and by the name of my fathers, Abraham and Isaac; that they may grow and multiply upon the earth.

17. And when Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand upon Ephraim's head, it displeased him: and Joseph took hold of his father's hand, and turned it from Ephraim's head unto Manasseh's head,

18. And said unto him, Not so, my father: this is the firstborn, lay thy right hand upon his head.

19. But his father refused, and said: I know well, my son, I know well. This also shall be a nation, and shall be great: but his youngest brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall be a great nation.

20. So he blessed them that day, and said, Whosoever shall bless any man in Israel, let him say, God set thee as Ephraim and Manasseh. And he set Ephraim before Manasseh.

21. And Israel said unto Joseph, Behold, I die; and God shall be with you, and shall bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

22. I have given thee a piece of land beside thy brethren, which I took out of the hand of the Amorites with my sword and with my bow.

(Genesis)

Chapter 49

Jacob's prophecy and farewell.

1. And Jacob called his sons, and said, Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you what shall befall you in the days to come.

2. Come ye in multitude, and give ear, ye children of Jacob, and hear your father Israel.

3. Reuben, my first son, thou art my strength, and my first power, the chief in sacrifice, and the chief in the kingdom.

4. He passed away as the waters. Thou shalt not be chief; For thou hast gone up to thy father's bed; There thou hast defiled my bed with the going up.

5. The brothers Simeon and Levi their swords are murderous weapons.

6. Let not my soul enter into their council, neither let my glory be in their church: for in their anger they have slain the man, and in their wantonness they have corrupted the ox.

7. Cursed be their wrath, because it is fierce; and their fury, because it is vexatious. I will divide them in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel.

8. Judah, thou art he: thy brethren shall praise thee. Thy hand shall be upon the neck of thine enemies; Thy father's children shall bow down to thee.

9. Judah is a young lion. Thou art come up, my son, by great victories. He hath bowed down and lain down like a lion, and like a lioness: who will rise up against him?

10. The sceptre shall not be taken away from Judah, nor a master from his feet, until the coming of the hero: and the nations shall cleave unto him.

11. He shall bind his colt to the vine, and the son of his ass to the noble branches. He shall wash his garment in wine, and his mantle in the blood of the vine.

12. His eyes are redder than wine, and his teeth whiter than milk.

13. Zebulun shall dwell at the fords of the sea, and at the fords of the ships, and shall abide at Sidon.

14. Issachar shall be a legged ass, and shall lie down between the borders.

15. And he saw the rest that it was good, and the land that it was pleasant: but he straitened his shoulders to bear, and became an interest-bearing servant.

16. Dan shall be a judge among his people, as another generation in Israel.

17. Dan shall become a serpent in the way, and an adder in the stile, and shall bite the horse in the heel, and his rider shall fall back.

18. O Lord, I wait for thy salvation!

19. Gad, armed, shall lead the army, and shall lead it about again.

20. From Asher cometh his fat bread, and he shall do favor to the kings.

21. naphthali is a fast stag and gives beautiful speech.

22. Joseph shall grow, he shall grow as at a spring. The daughters come forth in regiment.

23. And though the archers anger him, and war against him, and persecute him, 24. Yet his bow remaineth firm, and the arms of his hands strong, by the hands of the mighty one in Jacob. Out of them are come shepherds and stones in Israel.

25. From thy Father's God thou art helped, and from the Almighty thou art blessed with blessings above from heaven, with blessings from beneath, with blessings in breasts and in bellies.

26. The blessings of thy father are greater than the blessings of my forefathers, according to the desire of the high ones of the world: and they shall come upon the head of Joseph, and upon the crown of Nazir among his brethren.

27. Benjamin is a ravening wolf: in the morning he shall devour the prey, but in the evening he shall divide the spoil.

28. These are the twelve tribes of Israel, all of them: and this is what their father spake unto them, when he blessed them, every one with a blessing.

29. And he commanded them, and said unto them: I am gathered unto my people: bury me with my fathers in the cave of the field of Ephron the Hittite,

30. In the twofold cave that is toward Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought, and the field, of Ephron the Hittite, for an inheritance.

31. And there they buried Abraham, and Sarah his wife. And there they buried Isaac, and Rebekah his wife. There also have I buried Leah, 32.. In the field, and in the cave, which is bought of the children of Heth.

33. And when Jacob had made an end of commanding his children, he put his feet together upon the bed, and passed away, and was gathered unto his people. Chap.

Chap. 50, v.1. Then Joseph fell on his father's face, and wept over him, and kissed him.

(Genesis)

Chapter 50

Jacob is buried. Joseph dies.

2. And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to anoint his father. And the physicians anointed Israel,

3. Until forty days were expired: for so long were the days of anointing. And the Egyptians wept over him seventy days.

4. And when the days of suffering were ended, Joseph spake unto Pharaoh's servants, saying, If I have found grace in your sight, speak unto Pharaoh, and say:

5. My father hath taken an oath of me, saying, Behold, I die; bury me in my grave, which I have digged for myself in the land of Canaan. Now therefore I will go up, and bury my father, and come again.

6. And Pharaoh said, Go up, bury thy father, as thou swarest unto him.

7. So Joseph went up to bury his father. And there went up with him all Pharaoh's servants, and the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt, 8. And all Joseph's household, and his brethren, and his father's household. Only their children, and their flocks, and their herds, left they in the land of Goshen.

9. And they also went up with him chariots and horsemen, and were almost a great host.

10. And when they were come to the threshingfloor of Atad, which is on the other side Jordan, they mourned a very great and bitter lamentation: and he mourned for his father seven days.

11. And when the people of the land, the Canaanites, saw the lamentation at the threshingfloor of Atad, they said: The Egyptians have a great lamentation there. Wherefore the place of the Egyptians is called Lamentation, which is on the other side Jordan.

12. And his children did as he commanded them,

13. And they brought him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the twofold cave of the field, which Abraham had bought with the field for the inheritance of Ephron the Hittite over against Mamre.

14. And when they had buried him, Joseph went again into Egypt with his brethren, and with all that went up with him to bury his father.

15. And Joseph's brethren were afraid, because their father was dead, and said: Joseph will be angry with us, and will repay us for all the evil we have done him.

16. Therefore they said unto him, Thy father commanded before his death, saying: 17. And ye shall say unto Joseph, Forgive thy brethren their iniquity, and their sin, because they have done so evil unto thee.

Forgive now, O my beloved, the iniquity of us the servants of thy father's God. But Joseph wept when they spake these things unto him.

18. And his brethren went and fell down before him, and said, Behold, we are thy servants.

19. And Joseph said unto them: Fear not, for I am under GOD.

20. Ye thought to do evil unto me: but God thought to do it well, to do as it is now in the day, to preserve much people.

21. Fear not therefore; I will provide for you, and for your children. And he comforted them, and spake kindly unto them.

22. So Joseph dwelt in Egypt with his father's house, and lived an hundred and ten years.

23. And he saw the children of Ephraim unto the third generation. And likewise the children of Machir the son of Manasseh begat children in Joseph's bosom.

24. And Joseph said unto his brethren: I die, and GOD will visit you and bring you out of this land into the land which He swore to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

25. Therefore he took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, When God shall visit you, carry away my bones from thence.

26. So Joseph died when he was an hundred and ten years old. And they anointed him, and laid him in an ark in Egypt.

Text of the unrevised Luther Bible 1545:

DeepL English Translation

[Processed by BackToLuther. German text published here.]

The second book of Moses (Exodus) ^

Chapter 1

The children of Israel's servitude and tribulation in Egypt.

1. These are the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt with Jacob; every man entered in with his household:

2. Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah,

3. Isashar, Zebulun, Benjamin,

4. Dan, Naphtali, Gad, Asser

5. And of all the souls that came out of the loins of Jacob there were seventy. And Joseph was before in Egypt.

6. Now when Joseph was dead, and all his brethren, and all that were alive at that time, 7. And the children of Israel begat children, and multiplied; and they multiplied exceedingly, and the land was full of them.

8. And there arose a new king in Egypt, which knew not Joseph;

9. And said unto his people, Behold, the people of the children of Israel are many and more than we.

10. Well, let us restrain them with stratagems, that there be not so many of them. For if there be a war, they will join themselves to our enemies, and fight against us, and go forth to the land.

11. And they set officers over them, to oppress them with heavy service: for they built for Pharaoh the cities of Pithon and Raemeses for treasuries.

12. But the more they oppressed the people, the more they multiplied and spread abroad. And they held the children of Israel as an abomination.

13. And the Egyptians compelled the children of Israel to service with ruthlessness.

14. And made their lives grievous with hard labour in the clay and bricks, and with all manner of mirth in the field, and with all manner of work, which they laid upon them with unmercifulness.

15. And the king of Egypt spake unto the women of Egypt, whose name was Siphra, and the name of the other Puah:

16. If ye help the women of Egypt, and see in the throne that it is a son, slay him: but if it be a daughter, let her live.

17. But the wombs feared GOD, and did not as the king of Egypt had said unto them, but let the children live.

18. Then the king of Egypt called unto the mothers of sorrow, and said unto them: Why do ye this, that ye suffer the children to live?

19. And the women said unto Pharaoh, The women of Egypt are not like the women of Egypt: for they are hard women: before the mother of sorrow cometh to them, they have given birth.

20. Therefore God did good unto the worshippers. And the people multiplied and became very many.

21. And because the women feared God, he built them houses.

22. And Pharaoh commanded all his people, saying, Every son that is born cast into the water, and every daughter let live.

(Exodus)

Chapter 2

Moses' birth, upbringing, escape, and marriage.

1. And there went a man of the house of Levi, and took a daughter of Levi.
2. And the woman conceived, and bare a son. And when she saw that it was a fine child, she hid him three months.
3. And when she could hide him no longer, she made a little box of reed, and glued it together with clay and pitch, and put the child therein, and laid him in the reeds by the riverside.
4. But his sister stood afar off, to know how he was.
5. And Pharaoh's daughter went down to bathe in the water, and her maidens walked by the brink of the water. And when she saw the box in the reeds, she sent her maid to fetch it.
6. And when she had opened it, she saw the child; and, behold, the babe wept. And she mourned, and said, There is one of the children of Egypt.
7. And his sister said unto Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call one of the women of Egypt that suckle, that she may suckle thy young child?
8. And Pharaoh's daughter said unto her, Go thy way. And the damsel went and called the mother of the child.
9. And Pharaoh's daughter said unto her, Take the young child, and suckle it, and I will reward thee. And the woman took the child, and suckled it.
10. And when the child was grown, she brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son; and she called his name Moses; for she said: I drew him out of the water.
11. In those days, when Moses was grown up, he went out unto his brethren, and saw their burden, and perceived that an Egyptian smote one of his brethren the children of Egypt.
12. And he turned to and fro, and when he saw that there was no man, he slew the Egyptian, and buried him in the sand.
13. And the next day he went out, and saw two men of the Jews quarrelling together: and he said unto the unjust man: Why smitest thou thy neighbour?
14. And he said, Who made thee ruler or judge over us? wilt thou slay me also, as thou slewest the Egyptian? And Moses was afraid, and said, How is this thing spoken?

15. And it came to pass before Pharaoh, that he sought Moses to slay him. And Moses fled from Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian, and dwelt by a well.
16. And the priest that was in Midian had seven daughters, which came to draw water, and filled the gutters to water their father's sheep.
17. And the shepherds came, and thrust them away. But Moses arose, and helped them, and watered their sheep.
18. And when they were come to Reguel their father, he said, How came ye so soon this day?
19. And they said: An Egyptian man delivered us from the shepherds, and drew us, and watered the sheep.
20. And he said unto his daughters: Where is he? Why have ye left the man, that ye invited him not to eat with us?
21. And Moses consented to abide with the man. And he gave unto Moses his daughter Ziporah.
22. And she bare a son, and called his name Gershom: for he said: I am become a stranger in a strange land. (And she bare another son, and he called his name Eliezer, and said, The God of my father is my helper, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Pharaoh.)
23. And after a long time the king died in Egypt. And the children of Israel groaned over their work, and cried out; and their crying over their work came before God.
24. And God heard their lamentations, and remembered His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.
25. And he looked, and took care of them.

(Exodus)

Chapter 3

Moses is called to lead the children of Israel out of Egypt.

1. Now Moses was tending the sheep of Jethro his brother-in-law the priest of Midian, and he drove the sheep behind him into the wilderness, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God.
2. And the angel of the LORD appeared unto him in a fiery flame out of the bush. And he saw that the bush burned with fire, and was not consumed.
3. And he said: I will go and see this great vision, why the bush burneth not.

4. And when the LORD saw that he went to see, God called unto him out of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses. And he answered, Here am I.

5. And he said, Come not near. Put off thy shoes from off thy feet: for the place where thou standest up is a holy land.

6. And he said, I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses covered his face, because he feared to look upon God.

7. And the LORD said: I have seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry against them that do them wrong; I have known their sorrow.

8. And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them out of this land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey, unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

9. Because the cry of the children of Israel is come before me, and I have seen their fear, as they feared the Egyptians,

10. So go now, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, to bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt.

11. And Moses said unto God, Who am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?

12. He said: I will be with thee. And this shall be a sign unto thee, that I have sent thee: When thou hast brought forth my people out of Egypt, then ye shall sacrifice unto God in this mountain.

13. And Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and speak unto them: The GOOD of your fathers hath sent me unto you, and they shall say unto me: What is his name? what shall I say to them?

14. And God said unto Moses, I will be who I will be. And said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I will be he that sent me unto you.

15. And God said unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you. This is my name for ever, that I may be remembered for ever.

16. Go therefore, gather together the elders of Israel, and say unto them: The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of Jacob, hath appeared unto me, saying, I have visited you, and have seen that which is done unto you in Egypt.

17. And I said, I will bring you out of the affliction of Egypt into the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, into the land that floweth with milk and honey.

18. And when they hear thy voice, then thou and the elders of Israel shall go in unto the king of Egypt, and say unto him, The LORD God of Egypt hath called us. Now therefore let us go three days' journey into the wilderness, to sacrifice unto the LORD our God.

19. But I know that the king of Egypt will not let you go without a strong hand.

20. For I will stretch out my hand, and smite Egypt with all manner of wonders which I will do within. After that he will let you go.

21. And I will give grace unto this people in the sight of the Egyptians; and when ye go forth, ye shall not go forth empty;

22. But every woman shall require of her neighbour and of her household vessels of silver and of gold, and raiment; and ye shall put them upon your sons and upon your daughters, and shall take them of the Egyptians.

(Exodus)

Chapter 4

Moses is strengthened in his profession with the gift of performing miracles.

1. And Moses answered and said, Behold, they will not believe me, nor hear my voice, but will say, The LORD hath not appeared unto thee.

2. And the LORD said unto him, What is this that thou hast in thine hand? And he said, A staff.

3. And he said, Cast him from thee unto the earth. And he cast him from him; and he became a serpent. And Moses fled from before it.

4. And the LORD said unto him, Put forth thy hand, and catch it by the tail. And he put forth his hand, and held it: and it became a rod in his hand.

5. Therefore shall they believe that the LORD God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of Jacob, hath appeared unto thee.

6. And the LORD said unto him, Put thine hand into thy bosom. And he put it into his bosom, and drew it out: and, behold, it was leprous as snow.

7. And he said, Put her again into the bosom. And he put them again into his bosom, and drew them out: and, behold, they were again as his other flesh.

8. If therefore they believe thee not, nor hear thy voice at one sign, yet shall they believe thy voice at the other sign.

9. And if they will not believe these two signs, nor hear thy voice, then take the water out of the river, and pour it upon the dry land; and the same water which thou hast taken out of the river shall become blood upon the dry land.

10. And Moses said unto the LORD, O my LORD, I have not been well spoken ever since thou spakest unto thy servant: for I am slow of speech, and slow of tongue.

11. And the LORD said unto him, Who made man's mouth, or who made him dumb, or deaf, or seeing, or blind? Have not I done it, the LORD?

12. Go thy way therefore: I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say.

13. And Moses said, My Lord, send whom thou wilt send.

14. And the LORD was very wroth with Moses, and said, Know I not that Aaron thy brother, of the tribe of Levi, is eloquent? And, behold, he shall go out to meet thee, and when he seeth thee, he shall rejoice with his heart.

15. And thou shalt speak unto him, and put the words in his mouth. And I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and teach you; what ye shall do.

16. And he shall speak unto the people for thee; he shall be thy mouth, and thou shalt be his God.

17. And take this rod in thine hand, that thou mayest do signs.

18. And Moses went, and came again to Jethro his brother in law, and said unto him, Let me go, I pray thee, that I may return unto my brethren which are in Egypt, and see whether they be yet alive. And Jethro said unto him, Go in peace.

19. And the LORD said unto him in Midian, Go, return into Egypt: for the people are dead which sought thy life.

20. So Moses took his wife and his sons, and led them on an ass, and returned into the land of Egypt; and he took the rod of God in his hand.

21. And the LORD said unto Moses, See thou return into Egypt, and do all the wonders in Pharaoh's sight, which I have delivered into thine hand: and I will harden his heart, that he will not let the people go.

22. And thou shalt say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Israel is my firstborn son; 23. And I command thee that thou send my son away, and that he serve me. If thou refuse, I will slay thy firstborn son.

24. And when he was come to the inn, the LORD met him, and would have killed him.

25. And Zipora took a stone, and circumcised the foreskin of her son, and touched his feet, and said, Thou art a bridegroom of blood unto me.

26. And he departed from him. And she said blood bridegroom for circumcision's sake.

27. And the LORD said unto Aaron, Go out to meet Moses in the wilderness. And he went and met him in the mount of God, and kissed him.

28. And Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD which he had sent him, and all the signs which he commanded him.

29. And they went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel.

30. And Aaron spake all the words which the LORD spake unto Moses, and did the signs before the people.

31. And the people believed. And when they heard that the LORD had visited the children of Israel, and had looked upon their affliction, they bowed themselves, and worshipped.

(Exodus)

Chapter 5

Moses is despised by Pharaoh and the people are even more frightened.

1. And Moses and Aaron went in, and said unto Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Let my people go, that they may feast in the wilderness.

2. And Pharaoh said, Who is the LORD, whose voice I must hear, and let Israel go? I know not of the LORD, neither will I let Israel go.

3. And they said, God the Eberian hath called us: now therefore let us go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice unto the LORD our God, lest pestilence or sword befall us.

4. And the king of Egypt said unto them: Thou, Moses, and Aaron, why will ye set the people free from their work? Go to your service.

5. And Pharaoh said, Behold, the people are already too many in the land, and ye will yet call them to feast from their service.

6. Therefore Pharaoh commanded the same day the captains of the people, and their officers, saying:

7. No more shall ye gather straw unto the people, and give them to burn brick, as heretofore: let them go and gather straw themselves;

8. And the number of the bricks which they have made hitherto shall ye lay up for them, and shall not diminish: for they go idle, therefore they cry, and say: We will go and sacrifice unto our God.

9. Press the people with labour, that they may work, and not turn aside to false speech.

10. And the reeves of the people and their officers went out, and said unto the people, Thus saith Pharaoh, They will not give you straw.

11. Go ye yourselves, gather you straw where ye may find it: but of your labour nothing shall be diminished.

12. And the people scattered themselves throughout all the land of Egypt, to gather stubble, that they might have straw.

13. And the reeves drove them, and said: Fulfil your day's work, as when ye had straw.

14. And the officers of the children of Israel, whom Pharaoh's princes had set over them, were smitten, and it was said unto them, Why have ye not done your appointed day's work this day, nor yesterday, as ye did before?

15. And the officers of the children of Israel went in, and cried unto Pharaoh, Wherefore wilt thou go thus with thy servants?

16. They shall not give straw unto thy servants, neither shall they make the bricks that are appointed for us: and, behold, thy servants are smitten, and thy people must be sinners.

17. And Pharaoh said: Ye are idle, idle ye are: therefore say ye, We will go and sacrifice unto the LORD.

18. Go ye therefore, and indulge yourselves. They shall not give you straw, but the number of the bricks ye shall give.

19. And the officers of the children of Israel saw that it was worse, because it was said, Ye shall not diminish any of the day's work of the bricks.

20. And when they departed from Pharaoh, they met Moses and Aaron, and stood against them.

21. And they said unto them: The LORD look upon you, and judge it, that ye have made our smell to stink before Pharaoh and his servants, and have put the sword into their hands to slay us.

22. And Moses came again unto the LORD, and said, O LORD, why doest thou this evil unto this people? Why hast thou sent me hither?

23. For since I went in unto Pharaoh to speak unto him in thy name, he hath afflicted the people more severely; and thou hast not delivered thy people.

Ch. 6, v. 1: And the LORD said unto Moses, Now shalt thou see what I will do unto Pharaoh: for by a strong hand he must let them go, he must drive them out of his land by a strong hand.

(Exodus)

Chapter 6

Moses gets a new command from God; describes his birth record.

2. And God spake unto Moses, and said unto him, I am the LORD,

3. And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, to be their Almighty God: but my name, O LORD, was not manifested unto them.

4. Also I have established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they were strangers.

5. And I have heard the lamentation of the children of Israel, which the Egyptians have afflicted with indulgence; and I have remembered my covenant.

6. Therefore say unto the children of Israel, I am the LORD, and will bring you out from your burdens in Egypt, and will deliver you from your afflictions, and will redeem you with an outstretched arm, and with great judgments;

7. And I will receive you for a people, and will be your God, and ye shall know that I am the LORD your God, which have brought you up out of the burdens of Egypt.

8. And have brought you into the land which I have lifted up mine hand to give unto Abraham, and to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it you for an inheritance, even I the LORD.

9. Moses told these things unto the children of Israel: but they hearkened not unto him for groaning, and for fear, and for hard labour.

10. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

11. Go in and speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, that he let the children of Israel out of his land.

12. And Moses spake before the LORD, saying, Behold, the children of Israel hear me not: how then shall Pharaoh hear me? For I am of uncircumcised lips.

13. So the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, and commanded them the children of Israel, and Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt.

14. These are the heads of every generation of the fathers. The children of Reuben, the first son of Israel, are these: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, Charmi. These are the families of Reuben.

15. The sons of Simeon are these: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Saul the son of the Canaanite woman: these are the families of Simeon.

16. These are the names of the sons of Levi in their families; Gershon, Kohath, Merari. But Levi was an hundred and thirty and seven years old.

17. The children of Gershon are these: Libni and Simeï in their generations.

18. The sons of Kohath are these: Amram, Jezear, Hebron, Uzziel. And Kohath was an hundred thirty and three years old.

19. the children of Merari are these: Maheli and Musi. These are the families of Levi in their tribes.

20. And Amram took Jochebed his wife, and she bare him Aaron and Moses. And Amram was an hundred thirty and seven years old.

21. The children of Jezear are these: Korah, Nepheg, Sichri.

22. The children of Uzziel are these: Misael, Elzaphan, Sithri.

23. And Aaron took to wife Eliseba the daughter of Amminadab, Nahasson's sister: and she bare him Nadab, and Abihu, and Eleazar, and Ithamar.

24. The sons of Korah are these: Assir, Elkanah, Abiasaph. These are the families of the Korahites.

25. And Eleazar Aaron's son took of the daughters of Putiel a wife, and she bare him Phinehas.

These are the heads of the fathers of the families of the Levites.

26. This is Aaron and Moses, unto whom the LORD said, Bring forth the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt with their armies.

27. These are they which spake unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt, even Moses and Aaron.

28. And the LORD spake unto Moses that day in the land of Egypt.

29. And said unto him, I am the LORD: speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I speak unto thee.

30. And he answered before the LORD, Behold, I am of uncircumcised lips: how then will Pharaoh hear me?

(Exodus)

Chapter 7

Turning water into blood.

1. And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, I have set thee a god over Pharaoh; and Aaron thy brother shall be thy prophet.

2. Thou shalt speak all that I command thee: but Aaron thy brother shall speak it before Pharaoh, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land.

3. But I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and will shew my signs and wonders in the land of Egypt.

4. And Pharaoh shall not hear you, that I may shew my hand in Egypt, and bring my host, my people, the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great judgments.

5. And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I stretch out mine hand upon Egypt, and take away the children of Israel from them.

6. And Moses and Aaron did as the LORD commanded them.

7. And Moses was fourscore years old, and Aaron eighty and three years old, when they spake unto Pharaoh.

8. And the LORD said unto Moses and Aaron:

9. When Pharaoh shall say unto you: Prove your wonders, then thou shalt say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and cast it before Pharaoh, that it may become a serpent.

10. And Moses and Aaron went in unto Pharaoh, and did as the LORD commanded them. And Aaron cast his rod before Pharaoh, and before his servants; and it became a serpent.

11. Then Pharaoh called for the wise men and the magicians. And the Egyptian magicians also did so with their summoning.

12. And every man cast his rod from him, and serpents came out of him: but Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods.

13. So Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and hearkened not unto them, as the LORD had said.

14. And the LORD said unto Moses, Pharaoh's heart is hard; he refuseth to let the people go.

15. Go unto Pharaoh to morrow. Behold, he shall go unto the waters: stand thou against him by the riverside, and take in thine hand the rod that became a serpent, 16. And say unto him, The LORD God of the Eberians hath sent me unto thee, saying, Leave my people, that they may serve me in the wilderness. But thou hast not hearkened hitherto.

17. Therefore thus saith the LORD; By this shalt thou know that I am the LORD. Behold, with the rod that is in mine hand will I smite the waters that are in the river, and they shall be turned into blood,

18. And the fishes shall die in the river, and the river shall stink, and the Egyptians shall be disgusted to drink of the water of the river.

19. And the LORD said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and stretch forth thine hand upon the waters of Egypt, upon their brooks, and upon their rivers, and upon their lakes, and upon all the rivers of water, that they may become blood, and be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood and in vessels of stone.

20. And Moses and Aaron did as the LORD commanded them, and took up the staff, and smote the waters that were in the river before Pharaoh and his servants. And all the water that was in the river was turned into blood.

21. And the fish died in the river, and the river stank, that the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river: and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

22. And the Egyptian magicians also did so with their conjurings. So Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and hearkened not unto them, as the LORD had said.

23. And Pharaoh turned himself, and went home, and took it not to heart.

24. But all the Egyptians digged for water round about the river to drink: for of the water of the river they could not drink.

25. And it continued seven days, that the LORD smote the river.

(Exodus)

Chapter 8

Egypt is plagued with frogs, lice and vermin.

1. And the LORD said unto Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Suffer my people to serve me.

2. If thou refuse, behold, I will plague all thy border with frogs, 3. And the river shall swarm with frogs: they shall creep up, and come into thine house, and into thy chamber, and into thy bed, and into the houses of thy servants, and among thy people, and into thy ovens, and into thy doughs;

4. And the frogs shall crawl upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon all thy servants.

5. And the LORD said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch forth thine hand with thy rod over the rivers, and over the streams, and over the lakes, and let frogs come upon the land of Egypt.

6. And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and frogs came up, and covered the land of Egypt.

7. And the magicians also did so with their conjurings, and caused frogs to come upon the land of Egypt.

8. Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, Entreat the LORD for me, that he take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will let the people sacrifice unto the LORD.

9. And Moses said, Have thou the honour before me, and tell me when I shall pray for thee, and for thy servants, and for thy people, that the frogs may be driven from thee, and from thy house, and be left alone in the river.

10. And he said, To morrow. And he said, As thou hast said. That thou mayest know that there is none like the LORD our God,

11. Then shall the frogs be taken from thee, and from thy house, and from thy servants, and from thy people, and shall be left alone in the river.

12. So Moses and Aaron went from Pharaoh. And Moses cried unto the LORD for the frogs, as he had promised Pharaoh.

13. And the LORD did as Moses had said: and the frogs died in the houses, and in the courts, and in the fields.

14. And they heaped them together, here a heap, and there a heap: and the land stank of them.

15. And when Pharaoh saw that he had caught his breath, his heart was hardened, and hearkened not unto them, as the LORD had said.

16. And the LORD said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch forth thy rod, and smite the dust of the earth, that there may be lice in all the land of Egypt.

17. And they did so, and Aaron put forth his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth: and there were lice upon the men, and upon the cattle; and all the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

18. The magicians also did so with their conjurings, that they might bring forth lice; but they could not. And the lice were both on men and on cattle.

19. And the magicians said unto Pharaoh, This is the finger of God. But Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and hearkened not unto them, as the LORD had said.

20. And the LORD said unto Moses, Arise early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, (behold, he shall go to the waters,) and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Leave my people to serve me;

21. If not, behold, I will bring all manner of vermin upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and upon thy house; and all the houses of Egypt, and the field, and all that is therein, shall be filled with vermin.

22. And I will do a special thing in that day unto the land of Goshen, when my people shall abstain, that there be no vermin there: that thou mayest know that I am the LORD in all the earth.

23. And I will set a redemption between my people and thy people: to morrow shall the sign be.

24. And the LORD did so, and there came much vermin into Pharaoh's house, and into the houses of his servants, and over all the land of Egypt: and the land was destroyed with vermin.

25. And Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, Go, sacrifice unto your God here in the land.

26. And Moses said, It is not meet that we should do so: for we would offer the abominations of the Egyptians unto our God the LORD: behold, if we should offer the abominations of the Egyptians before their eyes, would they not stone us?

27. Three days' journey will we go into the wilderness, and sacrifice unto the LORD our God, as he hath said unto us.

28. And Pharaoh said: I will suffer you to sacrifice unto the LORD your God in the wilderness; only that ye go not farther, and pray for me.

29. And Moses said, Behold, when I come forth from thee, I will pray the LORD, and this beast shall be taken away from Pharaoh, and from his servants, and from his people, to morrow in the day: but deceive me no more, that thou leave not the people to sacrifice unto the LORD.

30. And Moses went out from Pharaoh, and besought the LORD.

31. And the LORD did as Moses had said, and took away the beasts from Pharaoh, and from his servants, and from his people, that there remained not one.

32. But Pharaoh hardened his heart also the same time, and let not the people.

(Exodus)

Chapter 9

Pestilence. Black pox. Hail.

1. And the LORD said unto Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD
God of the Ebramites, Let my people serve me.

2. where you refuse to do so and continue to hold them back,

3. Behold, the hand of the LORD shall be upon thy cattle of the field, upon horses, upon asses, upon camels, upon oxen, upon sheep, with an almost grievous pestilence.

4. And the LORD shall make a difference between the cattle of the children of Israel and the cattle of the Egyptians, that none of them which the children of Israel have shall die.

5. And the LORD appointed a time, saying, To morrow the LORD will do these things in the earth.

6. And the LORD did so in the morning; and all the cattle of the Egyptians died, but not one of the cattle of the children of Israel died.

7. And Pharaoh sent after, and, behold, there died not one of the cattle of Israel. But Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he would not let the people go.

8. And the LORD said unto Moses and Aaron, Take your fists full of soot out of the furnace, and let Moses cast it up to heaven before Pharaoh,

9. And there shall be dusts in all the land of Egypt, and evil sores shall come up in all the land of Egypt, both on men and beasts.

10. And they took soot out of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh; and Moses sprinkled it toward heaven. And there came up evil black poxes, both on men and beasts, 11. So that the magicians could not stand before Moses for the evil palsies: for there were evil palsies in the magicians as well as in all the Egyptians.

12. But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, that he would not hear them: as the LORD said unto Moses.

13. And the LORD said unto Moses, Arise early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD GOD the Eberian, Let my people serve me.

14. And this time will I send all my plagues upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people; and thou shalt know that there is none like me in all the earth.

15. For now will I stretch out mine hand, and smite thee and thy people with pestilence, and thou shalt be destroyed from off the face of the earth.

16. For this cause have I raised thee up, that my power might appear in thee, and that my name might be declared in all the earth.

17. Thou hast yet trampled my people under thee, and wilt not leave them.

18. Behold, to morrow about this time I will rain a very great hail, such as hath not been in Egypt since the time it was founded, until now.

19. And now send, and keep thy cattle, and all that thou hast in the field. For every man and beast that is found in the field, and is not gathered into the houses, when the hail cometh upon them, shall die.

20. And he that feared the word of the LORD among the servants of Pharaoh sent away his servants and his cattle into the houses.

21. But whose hearts turned not to the word of the LORD, they left their servants and their cattle in the field.

22. And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch forth thine hand toward heaven, that it may rain upon all the land of Egypt, upon men, and upon cattle, and upon every herb of the field in the land of Egypt.

23. So Moses stretched forth his rod toward heaven, and the LORD thundered and hanged with fire upon the earth. So the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt, 24. That hail and fire lead among themselves, so cruel, that the like thereof had never been in all the land of Egypt, since time men were therein.

25; And the hail smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast, and smote every herb of the field, and brake every tree of the field.

26. Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, there was no hail.

27. And Pharaoh sent, and called Moses and Aaron, and said unto them: I have sinned this time: the LORD is righteous, but I and my people are wicked.

28. But pray ye the LORD, and let the thunders and hailings of God cease; and I will send you away, and ye shall dwell here no longer.

29. And Moses said unto him, When I come out of the city, I will stretch forth my hands unto the LORD, and the thunder shall cease, and there shall be no more hail; that thou mayest know that the earth is the LORD's.

30. But I know that thou and thy servants fear not yet God the LORD.

31. So the flax and the barley were smitten: for the barley had shot, and the flax had gathered knots.

32. But the wheat and the rye were not smitten, because the corn was late.

33. And Moses went out from Pharaoh unto the city, and spread abroad his hands against the LORD: and the thunder and the hail ceased, and the rain fell no more upon the earth.

34. And when Pharaoh saw that the rain, and the thunder, and the hail ceased, he sinned further, and hardened his heart, he and his servants.

35. So Pharaoh's heart was hardened, because he would not let the children of Israel go, as the LORD had spoken by Moses.

(Exodus)

Chapter 10

Locusts and darkness.

1. And the LORD said unto Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh: for I have hardened his heart, and the heart of his servants, to do these signs of mine among them,

2. And that thou mayest declare in the ears of thy children, and of thy children's children, what I have wrought in Egypt, and how I have shewed my signs among them; that ye may know that I am the LORD.

3. So Moses and Aaron went in unto Pharaoh, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD GOD the Eberian; How long wilt thou refuse to humble thyself before me, that thou wilt suffer my people to serve me?

4. If thou refuse to let my people go, behold, tomorrow I will send locusts in every place, 5. And they shall cover the land, that the land may not be seen: and they shall devour that is left you, and deliver you from the hail; and they shall devour all your green trees of the field; 6. And they shall fill thy house, and the houses of all thy servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians, such as thy fathers and thy fathers' fathers have not seen since they were upon the earth until this day. And he turned, and went out from Pharaoh.

7. And Pharaoh's servants said unto him, How long shall we be afflicted with this? Let the people go, that they may serve the LORD their God. Wilt thou know first that Egypt is fallen?

8. And Moses and Aaron were brought again unto Pharaoh, and he said unto them: Go and serve the LORD your God. But which are they that should go?

9. And Moses said, We will go with young and old, with sons and daughters, with flocks and herds: for we have a feast of the LORD.

10. And he said unto them: Awe yes, the LORD be with you! Shall I let you and your children go with them? Behold, if ye intend no evil.

11. Not so; but go ye men, and serve the LORD: for this also have ye sought. And they were thrust out of Pharaoh.

12. And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch forth thine hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come upon the land of Egypt, and eat up all the herbs of the land, and all that remaineth unto the hail.

13. And Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt. And the LORD drove an east wind into the land all that day and all that night: and in the morning the east wind brought the locusts.

14. And they came over all the land of Egypt, and settled in all the places of Egypt, so much so, that there never was any like it before, neither shall be any like it henceforth.

15. For they covered the land, and darkened it. And they devoured all the herbage of the land, and all the fruit of the trees that remained after the hail; and there was no green thing left in the trees, nor in the herbage of the field, in all the land of Egypt.

16. And Pharaoh hasted, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said: I have sinned against the LORD your God, and against you.

17. Forgive me my sin this time also, and pray the LORD your God, that he would take away this death only from me.

18. And he went out from Pharaoh, and besought the LORD.

19. And the LORD turned a very strong west wind, and took up the locusts, and cast them into the Red sea, that there remained not one in all the coasts of Egypt.

20. But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, that he would not let the children of Israel go.

21. And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch forth thine hand toward heaven, that it may be dark in the land of Egypt, that it may be taken.

22. And Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven: and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days,

23. So that no man saw another, nor arose from the place where he was three days. And all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings.

24. And Pharaoh called unto Moses, and said, Go, serve the LORD: leave your flocks and your herds, and let your little children go with you.

25. And Moses said, Thou must also give us sacrifices and burnt offerings, which we may do unto our God the LORD.

26. Our cattle shall go with us, and not a hoof shall remain behind: for of ours shall we take to the service of our God the LORD. For we know not wherewith we shall serve the LORD, until we come thither.

27. But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, because he would not let them go.

28. And Pharaoh said unto him, Depart from me, and take heed that thou come no more before mine eyes: for in the day that thou comest before mine eyes thou shalt surely die.

29. And Moses answered, As thou hast said, I will not come again before thine eyes.

(Exodus)

Chapter 11

Exodus from Egypt commanded.

1. And the LORD said unto Moses, I will bring one more plague upon Pharaoh and upon Egypt, and after that he will send you away; and he will not only send all things away, but he will also send you away.

2. Say therefore before the people, Let every man require of his neighbour, and every woman of her neighbour, vessels of silver and of gold.

3. For the LORD will give the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians. And Moses was a very great man in the land of Egypt before the servants of Pharaoh, and before the people.

4. And Moses said, Thus saith the LORD, I will go out into the land of Egypt at midnight; 5. And all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sitteth upon his throne unto the firstborn of the maid that is behind the mill, and all the firstborn among the cattle.

6. And there shall be a great cry in all the land of Egypt, such as never was, nor ever shall be; 7. And there shall not be a sound among all the children of Israel, both of man and beast; that ye may know how the LORD divideth Egypt from Israel.

8. Then shall all these thy servants come down unto me, and fall at my feet, saying, Get thee out, thou, and all the people that are under thee. After that I will go forth, And he departed from Pharaoh with fierce anger.

9. And the LORD said unto Moses, Pharaoh hearken not unto you, that many wonders may be done in the land of Egypt.

10. And Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh: but the LORD hardened his heart, because he would not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

(Exodus)

Chapter 12

(Epistle on Maundy Thursday.)

Foundation of the Easter Lamb. Strangulation of the firstborn. The beginning of the Exodus.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt: 2. This moon shall be with you the first moon: and from it ye shall lift up the moons of the year.
3. Speak unto all the congregation of Israel, saying, On the tenth day of this month take ye every man a lamb, where there is a father of the house, one lamb for each house.
4. And if there be not enough of them in one house for a lamb, let him take it, and his neighbour that is next unto his house, until they be so many that they may eat the lamb.
5. And ye shall take one lamb without blemish, a male, and of the first year old: of the lambs and of the kids ye shall take it.
6. And ye shall keep it until the fourteenth day of the month. And every company of all Israel shall slay it between the evenings.
7. And thou shalt take the blood thereof, and put it upon the two posts of the door, and upon the topmost threshold of the houses, where they eat it within.
8. And ye shall eat flesh that night roasted with fire, and unleavened bread; and ye shall eat it with bitter salts.
9. Ye shall not eat it raw, neither shall ye boil it with water; but ye shall roast it with fire, the head thereof, with the thighs thereof, and the inwards thereof.
10. And ye shall leave none of it until the morning: but if any remain until the morning, ye shall burn it with fire.
11. And thus shall ye eat it: Ye shall be girded about your loins, and your shoes shall be upon your feet, and your staffs in your hands: and ye shall eat it as they that pass over: for it is the LORD'S passover.
12. For I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast. And I will execute my punishment upon all the gods of Egypt, I the LORD.
13. And the blood shall be your sign in the houses wherein ye are, that, when I see the blood, I may pass over before you, and the plague shall not befall you, which shall destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt.
14. And ye shall have this day in remembrance, and ye shall keep it a feast unto the LORD, ye, and all your generations, for an everlasting manner.
15. Seven days ye shall eat unleavened bread: ye shall cease from leavened bread in your houses the first day. He that eateth leavened bread from the first day even unto the seventh day, his soul shall be cut off from Israel.

16. The first day shall be holy, that ye come together: and the seventh day also shall be holy, that ye come together. Ye shall do no work within, save that which pertaineth unto meat for all souls: ye shall do the same only for yourselves.

17. And keep the unleavened bread: for in the same day I brought forth your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore ye shall keep this day, and all your generations for an everlasting time.

18. On the fourteenth day of the first month at even ye shall eat unleavened bread until the twenty and first day of the month at even,

19. That no leavened bread be found in your houses seven days. For whosoever eateth leavened bread, his soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a stranger or a native of the land.

20. Wherefore eat no leavened bread, but unleavened bread throughout all your dwellings.

21. And Moses called for all the elders of Israel, and said unto them: Read, and take sheep every man for his household, and slay the passover.

22. And take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood of the laver, and touch the lintel and the two posts with it. And let no man go out at the door of his house until the morning.

23. For the LORD will go about and afflict the Egyptians. And when he seeth the blood upon the threshold, and upon the two posts, he shall pass over at the door, and shall not suffer the destroyer to come into your houses to afflict you.

24. Therefore keep this manner for thyself and for thy children for ever.

25. And when ye are come into the land which the LORD shall give you, as he hath spoken, keep this service.

26. And when your children shall say unto you, What service have ye?

27. And ye shall say, It is the passover offering of the LORD, which passed over before the children of Israel in Egypt, when he afflicted the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. Then the people bowed down and stooped.

28. And the children of Israel went and did as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron.

29. And at midnight the LORD smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive that was in prison, and all the firstborn of cattle.

30. And Pharaoh arose, and all his servants that night, and all the Egyptians: and there was a great cry in Egypt; for there was not a house without a dead man within.

31. And he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Arise, go out from among my people, ye and the children of Israel; go, serve the LORD, as ye have said.

32. Take also with you your flocks and your herds, as ye have said; go ye also, and bless me.

33. And the Egyptians pressed upon the people, and drove them out of the land with haste: for they said: We are all of us dead.

34. And the people took the raw dough, before it was leavened, for their meat, bound in their garments, upon their shoulders.

35. And the children of Israel had done as Moses had said, and had required of the Egyptians silver and gold vessels and garments.

36. For this the LORD had given the people grace in the sight of the Egyptians, that they should lend unto them: and they took it from the Egyptians.

37. So the children of Israel went out from Raemeses to Sukhoth, six hundred thousand men on foot without the children.

38. And there went with them also much common people, and sheep, and oxen, and almost many cattle.

39. And they baked unleavened cakes of the uncooked dough which they brought out of Egypt: for it was not leavened, because they were thrust out of Egypt; and they could not forgive, neither had they prepared any meat for them.

40. And the time that the children of Israel dwelt in Egypt was four hundred and thirty years.

41. And when they were come to an end, all the host of the LORD went out of the land of Egypt in one day.

42. Therefore this night is kept unto the LORD, because he brought them up out of the land of Egypt: and the children of Israel shall keep it unto the LORD, they and their seed.

43. And the LORD said unto Moses and Aaron, This is the manner of keeping the passover: No stranger shall eat thereof.
44. But he that is a hired servant, let him be circumcised, and then let him eat thereof.
45. A householder and a hireling shall not eat thereof.
46. It shall be eaten in one house: ye shall carry none of the flesh thereof out of the house; neither shall ye break a bone in it.
47. All the congregation of Israel shall do this thing.
48. And if a stranger sojourn with thee, and keep the passover unto the LORD, let him circumcise all that is male; and let him come near to do it, and be as a native of the land: for no uncircumcised man shall eat thereof.
49. One law to the native, and to the stranger that sojourneth among you.
50. And all the children of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron.
51. So the LORD brought forth the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt with their armies in one day.

(Exodus)

Chapter 13

Sanctification of the firstborn. The progress of the exodus.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:
2. Sanctify unto me all the firstborn, which breaketh every mother, among the children of Israel, both of men and of cattle: for they are mine.
3. And Moses said unto the people, Remember this day, in the which ye came out of Egypt out of the house of bondage, that the LORD brought you forth from hence with a mighty hand: therefore shalt thou not eat leaven.
4. this day ye went out in the moon of Abib.
5. Now therefore, when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which he swore unto thy fathers to give thee, a land flowing with milk and honey within, then thou shalt keep this service in this moon.
6. Seven days shalt thou eat bread unleavened: and on the seventh day is the feast of the LORD.

7. Therefore thou shalt eat bread unleavened seven days, that no leaven be seen among thee, nor leavened bread in all thy places.

8. And ye shall say unto your sons in that day, We keep this thing because of the thing which the LORD did unto us, when we came out of Egypt.

9. Therefore it shall be a sign in thine hand, and a memorial in thine eyes, that the law of the LORD may be in thy mouth, that the LORD hath brought thee forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

10. Therefore keep this way in his time yearly.

11. When therefore the LORD hath brought thee into the land of the Canaanites, as he sware unto thee and unto thy fathers, and hath given it thee,

12. Then shalt thou set apart unto the LORD all that breaketh the mother, and the firstborn of cattle that are male.

13. The firstborn of the ass shalt thou loose with one sheep: but if thou loose it not, break his neck. But all the firstborn of thy children thou shalt redeem.

14. And if thy child ask thee to day, or to morrow, What is this? thou shalt say unto him, The LORD hath brought us with a mighty hand out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

15. For when Pharaoh was hardy to let us go, the LORD smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of men unto the firstborn of cattle. Therefore I offer unto the LORD all the firstborn of the mother that is a male, and the firstborn of my children I redeem.

16. And this shall be a sign in thine hand, and a memorial in thine eyes, that the LORD hath brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

17. Now when Pharaoh had left the people, God did not lead them by the road through the land of the Philistines, which was nearest; for God thought that it would repent the people when they saw the battle, and they would return to Egypt.

18. Therefore he led the people by the way of the wilderness by the Red sea. And the children of Israel went armed out of the land of Egypt.

19. And Moses took with him the bones of Joseph. For he had taken an oath from the children of Israel, saying: God shall visit you: bring my bones hence with you.

20. So they departed from Shukoth, and pitched in Etham, which is before the wilderness.

21. And the LORD went before them in a pillar of cloud by day to lead them in the way, and in a pillar of fire by night to give them light to go by day and by night.

22. The pillar of cloud departed not from the people by day, nor the pillar of fire by night.

(Exodus)

Chapter 14

The consummation of the exodus. The Egyptian downfall in the Red Sea.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

2. Speak unto the children of Israel, and say, That they turn about, and pitch toward the valley of Hiroth, between Migdol and the sea, toward Baalzephon, and pitch there over against the sea.

3. For Pharaoh shall say of the children of Israel, They are lost in the land; the wilderness hath determined them.

4. And I will harden his heart, and he shall cleave unto them: and I will put glory in Pharaoh, and in all his might; and the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD. And they did so.

5. And when it was told the king of Egypt that the people were fled, his heart was changed, and his servants against the people, and said: Why have We done this, that We have left Israel, that they served us not?

6. And he harnessed his chariot, and took his people with him.

7. And he took six hundred choice chariots, and all the chariots that were in Egypt, and the captains of all his host.

8. For the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, because he followed after the children of Israel. But the children of Israel were gone out by a high hand.

9. And the Egyptians pursued after them, and overtook them, with horses, and chariots, and horsemen, and all Pharaoh's host, in the valley of Hiroth, against Baalzephon.

10. And when Pharaoh was come nigh unto them, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and, behold, the Egyptians went after them: and they were sore afraid, and cried unto the LORD.

11. And they said unto Moses, Were there not graves in Egypt, that thou shouldest bring us away to die in the wilderness? Why hast thou done this thing, to bring us out of Egypt?
12. Is not this that we said unto thee in Egypt, Cease, and let us serve the Egyptians? For it were better for us to serve the Egyptians, than to die in the wilderness.
13. And Moses said unto the people, Fear not: stand ye firm, and see what salvation the LORD will do for you this day. For these Egyptians, whom ye see this day, ye shall see no more for ever.
14. The LORD shall fight for you, and ye shall be quiet.
15. And the LORD said unto Moses, Why cryest thou unto me? Tell the children of Israel to go.
16. And thou shalt lift up thy rod, and stretch forth thine hand over the sea, and divide it, that the children of Israel may go in through the midst of it upon dry land.
17. Behold, I will harden the heart of the Egyptians, and they shall follow you. And I will put glory in Pharaoh, and in all his might, in his chariots, and in his horsemen.
18. And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I have put glory in Pharaoh, and in his chariots, and in his horsemen.
19. And the angel of God, which went before the host of Israel, rose up, and stood behind them: and the pillar of the cloud was removed out of their sight, and stood behind them.
20. And he came between the host of Egypt and the host of Israel. And there was a dark cloud, and it lightened the night, so that they could not come together all that night, both they and they.
21. And it came to pass, when Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, that the LORD caused it to pass away with a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea dry; and the waters were parted from one another.
22. And the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon dry land: and the waters were for walls unto them on the right hand and on the left.
23. And the Egyptians followed, and went in after them, all Pharaoh's horses, and chariots, and horsemen, into the midst of the sea.

24. And it came to pass, when the morning watch was come, that the LORD looked upon the host of Egypt out of the pillar of fire and out of the cloud, and made a terror in their host; 25. And thrust out the wheels of their chariots, and overthrew them with impetuosity. And the Egyptians said, Let us flee from Israel. The LORD fighteth for them against the Egyptians.

26. And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch forth thine hand over the sea, that the waters may fall again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen.

27. And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea; and the sea returned into his river before the morning, and the Egyptians fled to meet him. So the LORD plunged them into the midst of the sea,

28. And the waters returned, and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all Pharaoh's forces that followed them into the sea, that there remained not one of them.

29. But the children of Israel went dry through the midst of the sea: and the waters were for walls unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

30. So the LORD saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians. And they saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea shore,

31. And the great hand which the LORD had shewed unto the Egyptians. And the people feared the LORD, and believed him, and Moses his servant.

(Exodus)

Chapter 15

Canticle of Moses. Bitter water made sweet.

1. Then Moses and the children of Israel sang this song unto the LORD, saying: I will sing unto the LORD: for he hath done a marvellous thing, he hath cast horse and chariot into the sea.

2. The LORD is my strength, and my praise, and my salvation. This is my God, I will praise him: he is my father's God, I will exalt him.

3. the LORD is the right man of war. HErr is his name.

4. Pharaoh's chariots and his might did he cast into the sea; his chosen captains sank in the Red sea.

5. The deep covered them, they fell to the bottom like the stones.

6. O LORD, thy right hand doeth great wonders: O LORD, thy right hand hath broken in pieces the enemies.

7. And with thy great glory thou hast overthrown thine adversaries: for when thou didst vent thine anger, it consumed them like stubble.

8. By thy blowing the waters were opened, and the floods were heaped up: the deep welled up in the midst of the sea.

9. The enemy thought: I will pursue after them, and catch, and deal out the spoil, and cool my courage upon them; I will draw out my sword, and my hand shall destroy them.

10. And thou didst blow thy wind, and the sea covered them, and they sank like lead in the mighty waters.

11. O LORD, who is like unto thee among the gods? Who is like unto thee, that is mighty, and holy, and terrible, and praiseworthy, and working miracles?

12. When thou didst stretch forth thy right hand, it swallowed up the earth.

13. By thy mercy hast thou led thy people whom thou hast redeemed, and hast brought them by thy strength unto thy holy habitation.

14. And when the nations heard it, they trembled: and fear came upon the Philistines; 15. Then the princes of Edom were afraid; trembling came upon the mighty men of Moab; all the inhabitants of Canaan became cowardly.

16. Let terror and fear fall upon them by thy great arm, that they may be stilled as stones, until thy people come through, O LORD, until the people come through whom thou hast purchased.

17. Bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of thine inheritance, which thou, O LORD, hast made thee to dwell in, in thy sanctuary, O LORD, which thy hand hath prepared.

18. The LORD shall be king for ever and ever.

19. For Pharaoh went into the sea with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen: and the LORD brought down the sea upon them. And the children of Israel passed through the midst of the sea dry.

20. And Miriam the prophetess, Aaron's sister, took a timbrel in her hand; and all the women followed her out with timbrels in the round dance.

21. And Miriam sang unto them: Let us sing unto the LORD: for he hath done a marvellous thing, both man and horse hath he cast into the sea.

22. And Moses sent the children of Israel forth from the Red sea unto the wilderness of Sur. And they wandered three days in the wilderness, and found no water.

23. And they came to Mara; but they could not drink of the water of Mara, because it was almost bitter. Therefore they called the name of the place Mara.

24. And the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drink?

25. And he cried unto the LORD, and the LORD showed him a tree, and he put it into the water, and it became sweet. And there he set them a law and a statute, and tried them.

26. And he said, If thou wilt obey the voice of the LORD thy God, and do that which is right in his sight, and receive his commandments in thine ears, and keep all his statutes, then I will not put upon thee any of the diseases which I have put upon Egypt: for I am the LORD thy physician.

(Exodus)

Chapter 16

The quails and the manna are given.

27. And they came to Elim, where were twelve wells of water, and seventy palm trees: and they pitched there by the waters.

Ch. 16, v. 1: And they departed from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Israel came into the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after they came out of Egypt.

2. And all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness.

3. And they said: Would to God that we had died in Egypt by the hand of the LORD, sitting by the fleshpots, and having an abundance of bread to eat! For therefore have ye brought us out into this wilderness, to cause all this congregation to die of hunger.

4. And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, I will rain bread from heaven upon you, and the people shall go forth, and gather every day that they have need of, that I may try them, whether they walk in my law, or not.

5. And on the sixth day they shall send themselves to bring in twofold, neither shall they gather any more daily.

6. And Moses and Aaron said unto all the children of Israel, At even ye shall know that the LORD hath brought you up out of the land of Egypt,

7. And in the morning ye shall see the glory of the LORD: for he hath heard your murmuring against the LORD. What are we, that ye murmur against us?

8. And Moses said, The LORD will give you meat to eat at even, and in the morning he will give you bread in abundance: because the LORD hath heard your murmurings, which ye have murmured against him. For what are we? Your murmuring is not against us, but against the LORD.

9. And Moses said unto Aaron, Say unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, Come near before the LORD: for he hath heard your murmurings.

10. And when Aaron spake thus unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, they turned toward the wilderness: and, behold, the glory of the LORD appeared in a cloud.

11. And the LORD said unto Moses:

12. I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel. Say unto them: Ye shall eat flesh between the evenings, and be satisfied with bread in the morning; and ye shall know that I am the LORD your God.

13. And in the evening quails came up, and covered the host. And in the morning the dew was round about the host.

14. And when the dew was gone, behold, it lay in the wilderness round and small, like the hoarfrost of the land.

15. And when the children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, This is Man: for they knew not what it was. And Moses said unto them: It is the bread which the LORD hath given you to eat.

16. Now this is the thing which the LORD commanded: Let every man gather together as much as he may eat for himself, and let him take a gomor upon every man's head, according to the number of the souls that are in his tent.

17. And the children of Israel did so, and gathered, the one much, and the other little.

18. But when it was measured by the measure of Gomor, he that had gathered much was not found above, neither he that had gathered little was found below: but every man had gathered as much as he might eat for himself.

19. And Moses said unto them: Let no man leave any of these things until to morrow.

20. But they hearkened not unto Moses. And some of them left it until the morning: and worms grew in it, and it stank. And Moses was wroth with them.

21. And they gathered them together every morning, as much as every man might eat for himself. But when the sun shone hot, it melted.

22. And on the sixth day they gathered bread by twain, two gomor by one. And all the rulers of the congregation came in, and told Moses.

23. And he said unto them: This is it that the LORD hath said: To morrow is the sabbath of the holy rest of the LORD: bake that which ye will bake, and boil that which ye will boil: but that which is left over let it remain, that it may be kept until to morrow.

24. And they left it until the morning, as Moses commanded: and it stank not, neither was there any worm in it.

25. And Moses said, Eat this to day: for to day is the sabbath of the LORD: ye shall not find it to day in the field.

26. Six days ye shall glean: but the seventh day is the sabbath: therein shall it not be.

27. But on the seventh day some of the people went out to gather, and found nothing.

28. Then said the LORD unto Moses, How long refuse ye to keep my commandments and my statutes?

29. Behold, the LORD hath given you the sabbath day: therefore he giveth you bread on the sixth day of two days. Let every man therefore abide in his own, and let no man go out of his place on the seventh day.

30. So the people of the seventh day feasted.

31. And the house of Israel called it Man: and it was as coriander seed, and white, and had a savour like bread with honey.

32. And Moses said, This is that the LORD commanded: Fill up a gomor of it, to keep for your seed, that the bread may be seen, wherewith I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth out of the land of Egypt.

33. And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a pitcher, and put a gomor full of man in it, and leave it before the LORD to be kept for your seed.

34. As the LORD commanded Moses, so let Aaron keep it there before the testimony.

35. And the children of Israel did eat Man forty years, until they came unto the land where they were to dwell; even unto the border of the land of Canaan did they eat Man.

36. And a gomor is the tenth part of an ephah.

(Exodus)

Chapter 17

The children of Israel are watered from a rock, overcome the Amalekites.

1. And all the congregation of the children of Israel went out of the wilderness of Sin their days' journey, as the LORD commanded them, and pitched in Raphidim. And the people had no water to drink.

2. And they quarreled with Moses, and said: Pray us water, that we may drink. And Moses said unto them: Why do ye quarrel with me? Why tempt ye the LORD?

3. And when the people thirsted there for water, they murmured against Moses, and said: Why hast thou brought us up out of Egypt, that thou hast caused us and our children and our cattle to die of thirst?

4. And Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, How shall I do with the people? It lacketh not far, they shall stone me yet.

5. And the LORD said unto him, Go before the people, and take with thee certain elders of Israel; and take thy rod in thine hand, that thou mayest smite the waters, and go.

6. Behold, I will stand there before thee upon a rock in Horeb; and thou shalt smite the rock, and water shall run out, and the people shall drink. And Moses did so before the elders of Israel.

7. And the place was called Massa and Meribah, because of the strife of the children of Israel, and because they had tempted the LORD, saying: Is the LORD among us, or not?

8. And Amalek came and fought against Israel in Raphidim.

9. And Moses said unto Joshua, Choose us men, go forth, and fight against Amalek: to morrow I will stand upon the top of the hill, and have the rod of God in mine hand.

10. And Joshua did as Moses told him, to fight against Amalek. And Moses, and Aaron, and Hur, went up to the top of the hill.

11. And when Moses held up his hands, Israel prevailed: but when he put down his hands, Amalek prevailed.

12. But Moses' hands were heavy: therefore they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat upon it. And Aaron and Hur held up his hands, one on each side. So his hands remained stiff until the sun went down.

13. And Joshua smote Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

14. And the LORD said unto Moses, Write this in a book for a memorial, and command it in the ears of Joshua: for I will cut him off from under heaven, and he shall be remembered no more.

15. And Moses built an altar, and called his name, The LORD Nissi.

16. For he said, It is a sign by the throne of the LORD, that the LORD will fight against Amalek from child to child.

(Exodus)

Chapter 18

Jethro gives Moses some good advice.

1. And Jethro the priest of Midian, Moses' father in law, heard all that God had done for Moses and for Israel his people, how that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt, 2. And he took Zipora, Moses' wife, whom he had sent back,

3. And her two sons; the name of the one was Gershom: for he said: I am become a sojourner in a strange land;

4. And the other Eliezer: for he said, The God of my father hath been my help, and hath delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh.

5. And Jethro Moses' brother, and his sons, and his wife, came unto him into the wilderness, unto the mountain of God, where he was encamped,

6. And he said unto Moses, I, Jethro thy brother in law, am come unto thee, and thy wife, and her two sons with her.

7. And Moses went out to meet him, and bowed himself to him, and kissed him. And when they had saluted one another, they went into the tabernacle.

8. Then Moses told his brother-in-law all that the LORD had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, and all the trouble that they had met with in the way, and that the LORD had delivered them.

9. And Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness that the LORD had done unto Israel, in delivering them out of the hand of Egypt.

10. And Jethro said, Blessed be the LORD, which hath delivered you out of the hand of Egypt, and out of the hand of Pharaoh, who knoweth how to deliver his people out of the hand of Egypt.

11. Now I know that the LORD is greater than all gods, because they have magnified themselves against them.

12. And Jethro Moses' attendant took burnt offerings, and offered unto God. And Aaron and all the elders of Israel came to eat bread with Moses' servant before God.

13. And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses sat down to judge the people: and the people stood about Moses from the morning even unto the evening.

14. And when his brother saw all that he did with the people, he said, What is this that thou doest with the people? Why sittest thou alone, and all the people stand about thee from the morning even unto the evening?

15. And Moses said unto him, The people come unto me, and ask counsel of GOD.

16. For where they have business, they come unto me, that I may judge between every man and his neighbour, and shew them the judgments of God, and his statutes.

17. And his brother's servant said unto him, It is not good that thou shouldest do this thing.

18. Thou hast wearied thyself, and the people also that are with thee. The business is too heavy for thee; thou canst not do it alone.

19. But obey my voice; I will counsel thee, and God shall be with thee. Care thou for the people before God, and bring the business before God;

20. And establish unto them statutes and judgments, that thou mayest teach them the way wherein they shall walk, and the works which they shall do.

21. And look among all the people for men of integrity, who fear God, and are truthful, and are enemies to covetousness: and set them over a thousand, and over an hundred, and over fifty, and over ten,

22. That they may judge the people at all times: but if there be any great matter, let them bring it unto thee, and let them judge all small matters. So it shall be easier for thee, and they shall bear with thee.

23. if you do this, you will be able to accomplish what God has given you, and all these people will be able to come to their place with peace.
24. And Moses obeyed his brother's word, and did according to all that he said, 25. And righteous men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, some over a thousand, and some over an hundred, and some over fifty, and some over ten.
26. To judge the people always, and to bring unto Moses the things that were grievous, and to judge the small things.
27. So Moses sent his brother in law into his own land.

(Exodus)

Chapter 19

Preparation to hear the law of God.

1. In the third moon after the children of Israel came out of the land of Egypt, they came that day into the wilderness of Sinai.
2. For they came out from Raphidim, and went into the wilderness of Sinai: and they pitched in the wilderness there toward the mountain.
3. And Moses went up unto God. And the LORD called unto him from the mount, and said, Thus shalt thou say unto the house of Jacob, and proclaim unto the children of Israel: 4. Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I bare you on eagles' wings, and brought you unto me.

5. If ye will therefore obey my voice, and keep my covenant, ye shall be my possession before all nations: for all the earth is mine.

6. And ye shall be unto me a priestly kingdom, and an holy nation.

These are the words which thou shalt say unto the children of Israel.

7. And Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before them all these words which the LORD had commanded.

8. And all the people answered at once, and said: All that the LORD hath spoken will we do.

And Moses told the people's words again unto the LORD.

9. And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, I will come unto thee in a thick cloud, that this people may hear my words which I speak unto thee, and believe thee for ever. And Moses declared unto the LORD the words of the people.

10. And the LORD said unto Moses, Go unto the people, and sanctify them to day and to morrow, that they may wash their clothes.

11. And be ready for the third day. For on the third day the LORD shall come down before all the people unto mount Sinai.

12. And make an enclosure round about for the people, and say unto them: Beware that ye go not up into the mountain, nor touch the end thereof: for whosoever toucheth the mountain shall surely surely die.

13. No hand shall touch him, but he shall be stoned, or shot with a projectile; whether it be beast or man, he shall not live. But when it shall sound for a long time, then they shall go to the mountain.

14. And Moses came down from the mount unto the people, and sanctified them, and they washed their clothes.

15. And he said unto them, Be ready for the third day, and let no man draw nigh unto his wife.

16. And it came to pass, when the third day was come, and the morning was come, that there arose thunderings and lightnings, and a great cloud upon the mount, and the sound of a very great trumpet. And all the people that were in the camp were afraid.

17. And Moses brought the people forth out of the camp to meet God: and they came down unto the mountain.

18. And all mount Sinai smoked, because the LORD came down upon the mount with fire: and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mount shook exceedingly.

19. And the sound of the trumpet increased. Moses spoke, and God answered him loudly.

20. And it came to pass, when the LORD was come down to mount Sinai, to the top of it, that he called Moses to the top of the mountain: and Moses went up.

21. And the LORD said unto him, Go down, and witness unto the people, that they come not down to the LORD, that they may see, and many fall from among them.

22. And let the priests that come near unto the LORD sanctify themselves, that the LORD smite them not.

23. And Moses said unto the LORD, The people cannot go up into mount Sinai: for thou hast testified unto us, saying, Make an enclosure about the mount, and sanctify it.

24. And the LORD said unto him, Go thy way, go down; thou and Aaron with thee shall go up: but the priests and the people shall not go up, to go up unto the LORD, lest he break them in pieces.

25. And Moses went down unto the people, and told them.

(Exodus)

Chapter 20

Moses receives the holy ten commandments of God.

1. And God spoke all these words:

2. I am the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

3. Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

4. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness, either of them that are in heaven above, or of them that are in the earth beneath, or of them that are in the water under the earth.

5. Worship them not, neither serve them. For I, the LORD thy God, am a zealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation that hate me, 6. And do mercy to many thousands that love me, and keep my commandments.

7. Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain: for the LORD will not suffer him to go unpunished that taketh his name in vain.

8. Remember the sabbath day, and keep it holy.

9. Six days shalt thou labour, and shalt feed all thy substance; 10. But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God. Thou shalt do no work there, neither thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates.

11. For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all that is therein, and rested the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

12. Thou shalt honour thy father and thy mother, that thou mayest live long in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

13, thou shalt not kill.

14. thou shalt not commit adultery.

15. Thou shalt not steal.

16. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

17. Lust not after thy neighbour's house. Let not thy neighbour's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that thy neighbour hath, be thy delight.

18. And all the people saw thunder and lightning, and the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking. And when they saw these things, they fled, and stood afar off; 19. And they said unto Moses, Speak thou unto us, and we will obey: and let not God speak unto us, lest we die. 20. And Moses said unto the people, Fear not: for God is come to try you, and that his fear may be before you, that ye sin not. 21. So the people stood afar off: but Moses went in unto the darkness, because God was within. 22. And the LORD said unto him, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, Ye have seen that I have spoken unto you from heaven. 23. Therefore shall ye make nothing beside me; silver and gold gods shall ye not make. 24. Make me an altar of earth, whereon thou shalt offer thy burnt offering, and thy peace offerings, and thy sheep, and thy oxen. For in the place where I will make a memorial of my name, there will I come unto thee, and bless thee. 25. And if thou wilt make me an altar of stone, thou shalt not build it of hewn stones: for whithersoever thou passest thy knife over it, thou shalt pollute it. 26. Neither shalt thou go up by steps unto mine altar, lest thy shame be uncovered before him.

(Exodus)

Chapter 21

Order of the servants. Item, about murderers and manslayers.

1. These are the statutes which thou shalt present unto them:
2. If thou buy a servant of the children of Israel, he shall serve thee six years: in the seventh year he shall go forth free.
3. If he come without a wife, he shall go forth without a wife. But if he come with a wife, his wife shall go out with him.
4. And if his lord have given him a wife, and have begotten sons or daughters, then the wife and the children shall be his lord's: but he shall go forth without a wife.
5. And the servant saith, I love my lord, and my wife, and my child; I will not go free, 6. Then let his lord bring him before the gods, and hold him to the door, or to the post, and pierce his ear with an awl; and let him be his servant for ever.
7. If a man sell his daughter to be a maid, she shall not go out as the servants.

8. But if she please not her lord, and will not help her to marriage, then he shall give her in marriage. But he hath no power to sell her among a strange people, because he hath spurned her.
9. But if he entrust her unto his son, he shall do daughter's right unto her.
10. But if he give him another, he shall not break off her food, nor her covering, nor her matrimony.
11. If he do not these three, she shall go out free without ransom.
12. Whosoever smiteth a man to death shall surely be put to death.
13. And if he have not pursued him, but God hath caused him to fall into his hands, I will appoint thee a place whither he shall flee.
14. But if any man do wickedly to his neighbour, and slay him with guile, thou shalt take him from mine altar, and put him to death.
15. Whosoever shall smite his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.
16. Whosoever stealeth a man, and selleth him to be found with him, he shall surely be put to death.
17. Whosoever curseth father or mother shall surely be put to death.
18. When men quarrel together, and one smiteth another with a stone, or with his fist, he dieth not, but lieth in bed:
19. If he come up, and go out with his staff, he that smote him shall be guiltless, but he shall not pay him that which he hath omitted, neither give him the physician's fee.
20. Whosoever shall smite his manservant or his maidservant with a rod, that he die under his hands, he shall be punished for it.
21. But if he tarry a day or two, he shall not be punished for it: for it is his money.
22. If a man be wicked, and hurt a woman with child, that her fruit be taken away, and no hurt be done unto her; then he shall be punished for money, as much as the woman's husband shall lay upon him; and he shall give it according to the knowledge of the teidings.
23. But if it come to her hurt, he shall let go soul for soul,
24. an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a hand for a hand, a foot for a foot, Twenty-five. Burn after burn, wound after wound, bump after bump.
26. If any man smite his servant or his handmaid in the eye, and destroy it, he shall let them go free about the eye.

27. Likewise, if he knock out a tooth of his manservant, or of his maidservant, he shall let them go free for the tooth.
28. If an ox thrust a man or a woman, and he die, then the ox shall be stoned, and his flesh shall not be eaten: then the master of the ox shall be guiltless.
29. And if the ox be a stallion before, and it be told his master, and he keep him not, and kill any man or woman thereby, then the ox shall be stoned, and his master shall die.
30. But if any money be laid upon him, he shall give to redeem his life whatsoever shall be laid upon him.
31. And the same shall be done unto him, if he thrust a son or a daughter.
32. And if he thrust a manservant or a maidservant, he shall give thirty shekels of silver unto their master, and the ox shall be stoned.
33. If any man dig a pit, or dig a pit, and cover it not, and an ox or an ass fall therein,
34. Then the lord of the pit shall pay the other again with money: and the carcase shall be his.
35. And if any man's ox kill another ox, and it die, then they shall sell the living ox, and divide the money, and divide the carcase also.
36. And if it be known that the ox was a stallion before, and his master keep him not, then he shall recompense one ox for another, and have the carcase.

(Exodus)

Chapter 22

Punishment of theft and other sins,

1. If any man steal an ox or a sheep, and kill it, or sell it, he shall restore five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep.
2. If a thief be taken to break in, and be beaten to death, let no judgment of blood be passed upon him.
3. But when the sun is risen upon him, then shall the judgment of blood be let go. But a thief shall make restitution. If he have nothing, let him be sold for his theft.
4. And if the theft be found with him alive, whether it be ox, ass, or sheep, he shall restore it double.
5. If a man hurt a field or vineyard, and let his cattle hurt another man's field, he shall make restitution of the best of his field or vineyard.

6. If a fire come out, and take the thorns, and burn the sheaves, or the corn that is yet standing, or the field, he that kindled the fire shall make restitution.

7. If a man keep money or goods for his neighbour, and it be stolen out of his house, and the thief be found, he shall give it again double.

8. But if the thief be not found, then the landlord shall be brought before the gods, whether he have not laid his hand upon his neighbour's goods.

9. If a man owe another any trespass, whether it be oxen, or asses, or sheep, or raiment, or any thing that is lost, both their things shall come before the gods. Whom the gods condemn, he shall restore it to his neighbor in two parts.

10. If a man keep an ass, or an ox, or a sheep, or any beast, for his neighbour, and it die, or be hurt, or be driven away from him, that no man see it,

11. Then they shall take an oath with the LORD, whether he lay not his hand upon his neighbour's goods; and the lord of the manor shall accept it, that he pay not.

12. But if a thief steal it from him, he shall pay it unto his lord.

13. But if it be torn, he shall bring testimony of it, and not pay.

14. If any man borrow it of his neighbour, and be hurt, or die, that his lord be not with him, he shall pay it.

15. But if his lord be with him, then he shall not pay it, if he hath paid it for his money.

16. If any man persuade a virgin that is not yet betrothed, and put her to sleep, he shall give her her morning gift, and have her to wife.

17. And if her father refuse to give her unto him, then he shall weigh the money that is due unto a virgin for a morning gift.

18. Thou shalt not suffer the sorceresses to live.

19. Whosoever shall put any beast to sleep shall surely be put to death.

20. Whosoever sacrificeth unto gods, but unto the LORD only, let him be accursed, 21. Thou shalt not oppress the strangers, neither shalt thou oppress them: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

22. Ye shall not offend widows and fatherless.

23. If thou shalt offend them, they shall cry unto me, and I will hear their cry; 24. Then shall my wrath be kindled, and I will slay you with the sword, and your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.

25. When thou lendest money unto my people, which are poor with thee, thou shalt not press him to any hurt, neither shalt thou lay usury upon him.

26. If thou take a garment of thy neighbour for a pledge, thou shalt restore it unto him before the sun go down.

27. For his garment is the covering of his skin, wherein he sleepeth. But if he shall cry unto me, I will hear him: for I am merciful.

28. Thou shalt not curse the gods, neither shalt thou blaspheme the ruler of thy people.

29. Thy abundance and thy tears shalt thou not pardon. Thy first son shalt thou give me.

30. So shalt thou do also unto thy bullock and thy sheep. Seven days let it be with its mother, and on the eighth day give it to me.

31. Ye shall be holy men before me: therefore ye shall not eat flesh torn of beasts in the field, but ye shall cast it to the dogs.

(Exodus)

Chapter 23

Of festivals and holidays.

1. Thou shalt not believe a false accusation, that thou hast assisted an ungodly man, and hast been a false witness.

2. Thou shalt not follow the multitude to evil, nor answer in judgment, to turn aside from the multitude.

3. Thou shalt not adorn the lowly in his cause.

4. If thou meet thine enemy's ox or ass, and he err, thou shalt bring him again.

5. When thou seest the ass that hateth thee lying under his burden, take heed, and leave him not; but willingly forfeit thine own, for his sake.

6. Thou shalt not bend the law of thy poor in his cause.

7. Be thou far from falsehood. Thou shalt not slay the innocent and the righteous: for I will not suffer the wicked to be right.

8. Thou shalt not take gifts: for gifts blind the seeing, and pervert the things of the righteous.

9. Ye shall not oppress the stranger: for ye know the heart of the stranger, because ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

10. Six years shalt thou sow thy land, and gather in the fruit thereof.
11. In the seventh year thou shalt let it lie, and let the poor of thy people eat thereof: and what remaineth, let the wild beasts of the field eat it. And thou shalt do likewise unto thy vineyard, and unto thy oliveyard.
12. Six days shalt thou do thy work; but on the seventh day thou shalt feast, that thine ox and thine ass may rest, and that thy maid's son and thy stranger may be refreshed.
13. All things whatsoever I have said unto you, keep them. And the names of other gods ye shall not remember, neither shall they be heard out of your mouths.
14. Three times in the year ye shall keep me a feast.
15. Namely, the feast of unleavened bread shalt thou keep, to eat bread unleavened seven days, as I commanded thee, about the time of the month Abib: for in that thou camest out of Egypt.
But appear not empty before me.
16. And the feast of the first harvest of the fruit which thou hast sown in the field. And the feast of ingathering at the end of the year, when thou hast gathered thy work out of the field.
17. Three times in the year shall all thy likenesses appear before the LORD sovereign.
18. Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice beside the leaven, neither shall the fat of my feast remain until to morrow.
19. The firstling of the firstfruits of thy field shalt thou bring into the house of the LORD thy God. And thou shalt not boil the kid, because he is with his mother's milk.
20. Behold, I send an angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared.
21. Therefore beware of his face, and obey his voice, and provoke him not: for he will not forgive your transgression, and my name is in him.
22. But if thou shalt hear his voice, and do all that I shall say unto thee, then I will be an enemy unto thine enemies, and an adversary unto thine adversaries.
23. And it shall come to pass, when my angel goeth before thee, and bringeth thee unto the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, that I will destroy them,

24. Thou shalt not worship their gods, nor serve them, nor do as they do: but thou shalt overthrow their idols, and break them in pieces.
25. But serve the LORD your God, and he will bless your bread and your water, and I will remove all sickness from you.
26. And there shall be no evil nor barren thing in thy land, and I will make thee old.
27. I will send my terror before thee, and will make all the people afraid whither thou goest; and I will put all thine enemies to flight.
28. I will send hornets before thee, which shall chase out the Hivites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, before thee.
29. I will not cast them out from before thee for a year, lest the land be desolate, and the wild beasts multiply against thee.
30. One by one will I cast them out before thee, until thou increase, and possess the land.
31. And I will set thy border upon the Red sea, and upon the Philistine sea, and upon the wilderness unto the waters thereof. And I will deliver into thine hand the inhabitants of the land, and thou shalt drive them out before thee.
32. Thou shalt not make a covenant with them, or with their gods, 53. But let them not dwell in thy land, lest they deceive thee against me. For where thou servest their gods, it shall be an offence unto thee.

(Exodus)

Chapter 24

Moses climbs Mount Sinai again after confirming the covenant.

1. And unto Moses he said, Come up unto the LORD, thou, and Aaron, and Nadab, and Abihu, and the seventy elders of Israel, and worship afar off.
2. But Moses alone draweth nigh unto the LORD, and let not them draw nigh; neither let the people come up with him.
3. And Moses came and told the people all the words of the LORD, and all the judgments. And all the people answered with one voice, and said: All the words which the LORD hath spoken will we do.
4. And Moses wrote all the words of the LORD, and rose up early in the morning, and built an altar in the nether parts of the mount, with twelve pillars after the twelve tribes of Israel.
5. And he sent young men of the children of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, and peace offerings unto the LORD of farrows.

6. And Moses took half of the blood, and put it in a vat, and sprinkled the other half upon the altar.

7. And he took the book of the covenant, and read it in the ears of the people. And when they had said: All things whatsoever the LORD hath spoken, we will do and obey, 8. And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it upon the people, and said, Behold, this is the blood of the covenant which the LORD hath made with you concerning all these words.

9. And Moses, and Aaron, and Nadab, and Abihu, and the seventy elders of Israel, went up.

10. And they saw the God of Israel. Under his feet it was like a beautiful sapphire, and like the form of heaven when it is clear.

11. And he left not his hand upon the same princes of Israel. And when they had seen God, they did eat and drink.

12. And the LORD said unto Moses, Come up unto me into the mount, and dwell there, and I will give thee tables of stone, and statutes, and commandments, which I have written, which thou shalt teach them.

13. And Moses arose, and Joshua his servant, and went up into the mount of God.

14. And he said unto the elders, Tarry here until we come again unto you. Behold, Aaron and Hur are with you: if any man have a matter, let him come before them.

15. And when Moses was come up into the mount, a cloud covered the mountain.

16. And the glory of the LORD dwelt in mount Sinai, and covered it with the cloud six days; and called Moses out of the cloud the seventh day.

17. And the vision of the glory of the LORD was as a consuming fire upon the top of the mountain before the children of Israel.

18. And Moses went up into the midst of the cloud, and ascended into the mount, and abode in the mount forty days and forty nights.

(Exodus)

Chapter 25

Voluntary offerings to the tabernacle.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

2. Tell the children of Israel, that they give me an heave offering; and take the same of every one that giveth it willingly.

3. And this is the heave offering which ye shall take of them, gold, and silver, and brass, 4. Yellow silk, scarlet, rose red, white silk, goat hair, 5. reddish ram skins, badger skins, pine wood, 6. oil for the lamp, spices for the ointment, and good incense, 7. onyx stones and stones set for the ephod and for the shield. 8. And they shall make me a sanctuary, that I may dwell among them. 9. As I will shew thee a pattern of the tabernacle, and all the vessels thereof, so shall ye do. 10. Make an ark of pine wood. The length shall be three cubits and a half, the breadth a cubit and a half, and the height a cubit and a half. 11. And thou shalt overlay them with fine gold, within and without; and shalt make a crown of gold round about. 12. And cast four golden prongs, and put them on the four corners thereof; and there shall be two prongs on the one side, and two prongs on the other side. 13. And make staves of pine wood, and overlay them with gold. 14. And put them in the rings by the sides of the ark, that they may be carried; 15. And they shall abide in the rakes, and not be put forth. 16. And ye shall put in the ark the testimony which I will give thee. 17. Thou shalt also make a mercy seat of fine gold: the length thereof shall be three cubits and an half, and the breadth thereof one cubit and a half. 18. And thou shalt make two cherubims of strong gold for the two ends of the mercy seat, 19. That one cherub should be at this end, and the other at the other end; and so two cherubims should be at the ends of the mercy seat. 20. And the cherubims shall spread forth wings above, and cover the mercy seat with their wings, and every one's face shall be over against the other; and their faces shall look toward the mercy seat. 21. And thou shalt put the mercy seat upon the top of the ark, and put in the ark the testimony which I will give thee. 22. Of the place will I testify unto thee, and speak unto thee, even of the mercy seat between the two cherubims, which is upon the ark of the testimony, all that I will command thee unto the children of Israel. 23. Thou shalt also make a table of pine wood; the length thereof shall be two cubits, and the breadth thereof a cubit, and the height thereof a cubit and a half.

24. And thou shalt overlay it with fine gold, and make a garland of gold round about it.
25. And a border round about, the breadth of a hand, and a wreath of gold round about the border.
26. And thou shalt put four rings of gold upon the four places of the four feet thereof.
27. The rings shall be hard under the ledge, to put staves in it, and to bear the table; 28. And thou shalt make the staves of pine wood, and overlay them with gold, to bear the table therewith.
29. Thou shalt also make his bowls, and his cups, and his pots, and his basons, of fine gold, to pour out and to pour in.
30. And thou shalt set shewbread upon the table before me at all times.
31. Thou shalt also make a candlestick of fine dense gold; upon it shall be the shaft with tubes, and bowls, and knops, and flowers.
32. And six tubes shall go out of the candlestick on every side, three tubes on every side.
33. And every tube shall have three open bowls, and knops, and flowers: these are the six tubes of the candlestick.
34. And the shaft of the candlestick shall have four open bowls with knobs and flowers.
35. and one knob under each of two tubes, of which six go out of the candlestick.
36. For both their knobs and their pipes shall come out of him, all of them thick gold.
37. And thou shalt make seven lamps upon the top, and they shall shine one against another, 38. and light snuffers and snuffers of fine gold.
39. Of a talent of fine gold shalt thou make this, with all this instrument.
40. And see that thou make it after their image, which thou sawest in the mount.

(Exodus)

Chapter 26

Building of the tabernacle.

1. The tabernacle shalt thou make of ten curtains, of white silk, and of yellow silk, and of scarlet, and of russet. And thou shalt make cherubims thereon artificially.

2. The length of a carpet shall be twenty and eight cubits, and the breadth four cubits: and all the ten shall be equal.
3. And there shall be five joined together, one to another.
4. And thou shalt make loops of yellow silk in every place of the carpet, where they shall be joined together; and two and two shall be joined together in their places, 5. Fifty loops upon each carpet, that one may bind the other together.
6. And thou shalt make fifty sheaves of gold to bind the curtains together, one to another, that it may be a tabernacle.
7. Thou shalt also make a covering of goats' hair for a tabernacle over the tabernacle of eleven carpents.
8. The length of a carpet shall be thirty cubits, and the breadth four cubits: and every eleven shall be of the same size.
9. Five shalt thou put together, and six shalt thou put together: and thou shalt make the sixth carpet two in the front of the tabernacle.
10. And thou shalt make fifty loops upon every carpet, in their places, to be joined together at the ends thereof.
11. And thou shalt make fifty brasen haves, and put the haves in the loops, that the tabernacle may be joined together, and become one tabernacle.
12. But the overhang of the carpets of the tabernacle shalt thou leave half of them overhanging the tabernacle,
13. A cubit on either side, that the rest may be on the sides of the tabernacle, and cover it on either side.
14. Over this covering thou shalt make a covering of red ram skins, and over it a covering of badger skins.
15. Thou shalt also make boards for the tabernacle of pine wood, which shall stand.
16. The length of the board shall be ten cubits, and the breadth thereof a cubit and a half.
17. Every board shall have two tenons, that it may be set one against another. So shalt thou make all the boards of the tabernacle.
18. twenty shall be their number at noon.
19. And they shall have forty silver feet underneath, two feet under every board, by the two pins thereof.
20. So on the other side, toward the midnight, shall be twenty boards.
21. And forty silver feet, two feet under each board.

22. And at the back of the tabernacle toward the even thou shalt make six boards.

23. for this purpose two boards at the back of the two corners of the apartment, 24. That each of the two may be joined together with his place-board from beneath, and be joined together at the top of the head with a clamp,

25. Eight boards with their silver feet: sixteen boards shall be under each board, two under each board.

26. And thou shalt make bars of pine wood, five for the boards upon one side of the tabernacle.

27. and five to the boards on the other side of the tabernacle, and five to the boards at the back of the tabernacle toward the evening.

28. And thou shalt put through the bars in the midst of the boards, and gather them together from place to place.

29. And thou shalt overlay the boards with gold, and make the rings thereof of gold, and put the bars therein.

30. And the bars thou shalt overlay with gold. And thou shalt set up the tabernacle after the manner that thou sawest in the mount.

31. And thou shalt make a vail of yellow silk, and scarlet, and scarlet, and twined white silk; and thou shalt make cherubims artificially thereon.

32. And thou shalt hang it upon four pillars of pine wood overlaid with gold, having gold knobs, and four silver feet.

33. And thou shalt fasten the curtain with thongs, and set the ark of the testimony within the curtain, that it may be a difference unto you between the holy place and the most holy.

34. And thou shalt put the mercy seat upon the ark of the testimony in the most holy place.

35. And set the table over against the curtain, and the candlestick over against the table, toward the midst of the tabernacle, that the table may stand toward the north.

36. And thou shalt make a cloth in the door of the tabernacle, of yellow silk, and of scarlet, and of twined white silk.

37. And thou shalt make of the same cloth five pillars of pine wood overlaid with gold, with crowns of gold: and thou shalt cast them five feet of brass.

(Exodus)

Chapter 27

Of the altar of burnt offering, the court, and the holy oil.

1. And thou shalt make an altar of pine wood, five cubits long and five cubits broad, and it shall be square, and three cubits high.
2. Horns shalt thou make upon the four corners thereof, and shalt overlay it with brass.
3. Make also ashpans, and shovels, and basons, and crucibles, and coalpans: all the vessels thereof shalt thou make of brass.
4. Thou shalt also make a fence of brass as a net, and four rings of brass in the four places thereof.
5. And thou shalt make it from under the altar, and the lattice shall reach unto the midst of the altar.
6. And thou shalt also make staves for the altar of pine wood overlaid with brass.
7. And thou shalt put the staves in the rings, and the staves shall be on both sides of the altar, to bear it up.
8. And thou shalt make it of boards, that it may be hollow within, as it was shewed thee in the mount.
9. Thou shalt also make the tabernacle a court, a cloak of twined white silk, on one side an hundred cubits long, toward the south,
10. And twenty pillars upon twenty brass feet, and their knobs with their hoops of silver.
11. And there shall be a cloak about the north, an hundred cubits long; twenty pillars upon twenty feet of brass, and their pommels with their hoops of silver.
12. But toward the even the breadth of the court shall have a cape fifty cubits long, ten pillars upon ten feet.
13. And toward the east the breadth of the court shall be fifty cubits,
14. So that the cloak had fifteen cubits on one side, and three pillars on three feet,
15. And fifteen cubits on the other side, and three pillars upon three feet.
16. And in the gate of the court shall be a cloth twenty cubits broad, woven of yellow silk, and scarlet, and rose, and twined white silk, with four pillars upon their four feet.
17. All the pillars round about the court shall have silver hoops, and silver knobs, and brazen feet.

18. And the length of the court shall be an hundred cubits, and the breadth fifty cubits, and the height five cubits, of twined white silk: and the feet thereof shall be brass.

19. And all the vessels of the tabernacle for all the service thereof, and all the nails thereof, and all the nails of the court, shall be brass.

20. Give unto the children of Israel, that they may bring unto thee the pure oil of the olive tree, poured out for a candle, to be put always in the lamps above.

21. In the tabernacle of the congregation, beside the vail that hangeth before the testimony. And Aaron and his sons shall prepare them, both morning and evening, before the LORD. This shall be for you a perpetual ordinance unto your seed among the children of Israel.

(Exodus)

Chapter 28

Priestly garments of Aaron and his sons.

1. And thou shalt take Aaron thy brother and his sons unto thee out of the children of Israel, to be my priest, even Aaron and his sons, Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

2. And thou shalt make unto Aaron thy brother holy garments, that shall be glorious and comely.

3. And thou shalt speak unto all that are of a wise heart, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, to make Aaron's garments for his consecration, that he may be my priest.

4. And these are the garments which they shall make: the shield, the ephod, the silk skirt, the skirt, the hat, and the girdle. And they shall make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, and for his sons, that he may be my priest.

5. And they shall take gold, and yellow silk, and scarlet, and scarlet, and white silk.

6. And they shall make the ephod of gold, and of yellow silk, and of scarlet, and of scarlet, and of twined white silk, artificially,

7. that it be joined together at both armpits, and bound together at both sides.

8. And the girdle thereof shall be of the same art and work, of gold, and of yellow silk, and of scarlet, and of scarlet, and of twined white silk.

9. And thou shalt take two onyx stones, and grave upon them the names of the children of Israel, 10. On every six names, according to the order of their age.

11. This shalt thou do by the stonecutters, which dig seals, that they may be set about with gold.

12. And thou shalt put them upon the shoulders of the ephod, and they shall be stones for a memorial unto the children of Israel: and Aaron shall bear their names upon his two shoulders before the LORD for a memorial.

13. And thou shalt make bracelets of gold.

14. And two chains of fine gold, having two ends, but the links hanging one within the other; and thou shalt put them upon the clasps.

15. And thou shalt make the tabernacle after the fashion of the ephod, of gold, and of yellow silk, and of scarlet, and of scarlet, and of twined white silk.

16. Foursquare shall it be, and twofold; the length thereof shall be a handbreadth, and the breadth thereof a handbreadth.

17. And thou shalt fill it with four courses of stones. The first tier shall be a sardius, a topaz, an emerald;

18. the other a ruby, sapphire, demant;

19. the third a lyncury, agate, amethyst;

20. The fourth shall be turquoise, onyx, and jasper. They shall be set in gold in all ranks.

21. And they shall stand after the twelve names of the children of Israel, dug by the stonecutter, every one of his name, after the twelve tribes.

22. And thou shalt make chains for the shield, having two ends, and the links thereof hanging together, of fine gold,

23. And two rings of gold upon the small shield; and thou shalt put the two rings upon the two corners of the small shield.

24. And put the two chains of gold in the same two rings at the two corners of the shield.

25. And the two ends of the two chains thou shalt put in two bands, and fasten them upon the shoulders of the ephod one over against the other.

26. And thou shalt make two other rings of gold, and put them upon the other two corners of the shield in his place, within the ephod.

27. And thou shalt make two rings of gold, and fasten them one to another at the two corners of the lower part of the ephod, where the ephod is joined together, on the upper part of the ephod, artificially.

28. And the shield shall be fastened with fine rings unto the rings of the ephod with a yellow cord, that it may lie hard upon the ephod which is made artificially, and that the shield may not come loose from the ephod.

29. So Aaron shall bear the names of the children of Israel in the small charge upon his heart, when he prayeth in the holy place, for a memorial before the LORD at all times.

30. And thou shalt put light and judgment in the charge, that they may be upon Aaron's heart, when he goeth in before the LORD, and bear the charge of the children of Israel upon his heart before the LORD continually.

31. Thou shalt also make the silk skirt under the ephod, all of yellow silk.

32. And there shall be a hole in the midst thereof above, and a border folded about the hole, that it be not rent.

33. And at the bottom of the border thereof thou shalt make pomegranates of yellow silk, scarlet round about, and scarlet round about, and between them golden bells round about, 34. That there should be a golden bowl, and after that a pomegranate, and a golden bowl, and again a pomegranate, round about the hem of the same silk skirt.

35. And Aaron shall wear it when he ministereth, that the sound thereof may be heard, when he goeth out and cometh in unto the holy place before the LORD, that he die not.

36. Thou shalt also make a forehead plate of fine gold, and dig it out, as one diggeth out seals: the holiness of the LORD.

37. And thou shalt fasten it with a yellow cord in the front of the hat,

38. Upon Aaron's forehead, that Aaron should bear the iniquity of the holy things, which the children of Israel sanctify in all the gifts of their sanctification: and it shall be in his forehead continually, to make an atonement for them before the LORD.

39. And thou shalt make a skirt of white silk, and a hat of white silk, and a girdle of embroidery.

40. And unto the sons of Aaron shalt thou make skirts, and girdles, and bonnets, glorious and comely.

41. And thou shalt put them on Aaron thy brother, and on his sons, and shalt anoint them, and fill their hands, and consecrate them, that they may be my priests.

42. And thou shalt make them low garments of linen, to cover the flesh of the shame, from the loins even unto the thighs.

43. And Aaron and his sons shall wear them, when they go into the tabernacle of the congregation, or when they come near unto the altar, to minister in the sanctuary, that they ask not their iniquity, and die. This shall be to him and to his seed after him a perpetual manner.

(Exodus)

Chapter 29

Inauguration and sacrifice of the priests.

1. This also shalt thou do unto them, that they may be ordained priests unto me: Take a young bullock, and two rams without change,

2. Unleavened bread, and unleavened cakes mingled with oil, and unleavened cakes anointed with oil. Of wheat flour shalt thou make all these things;

3. And thou shalt put it in a basket, and bring it in the basket with the bullock and the two rams.

4. And thou shalt bring Aaron and his sons unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and wash them with water;

5. And thou shalt take the garments, and put on Aaron the skirt, and the silk skirt, and the ephod, and the buckler for the ephod; and thou shalt gird him upon the ephod without.

6. And put the hat upon his head, and the holy crown upon his hat.

7. And thou shalt take the anointing oil, and pour it upon his head, and anoint him.

8. And thou shalt bring his sons also, and put on them the skirt; 9. And thou shalt gird both Aaron and them with girdles, and put on their bonnets, that they may have the priesthood for ever. And thou shalt fill Aaron's hands, and his sons' hands.

10. And they shall bring the bullock before the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands upon the bullock's head.

11. And thou shalt kill the bullock before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.
12. And thou shalt take his blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar with thy finger, and pour out all the blood upon the floor of the altar.
13. And thou shalt take all the fat that is upon the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and burn them upon the altar.
14. But the flesh of the bullock, and the hide thereof, and the dung thereof, shalt thou burn with fire without the camp: for it is a sin offering.
15. But the one ram shalt thou take, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands upon his head.
16. Then thou shalt slay him, and take of his blood, and sprinkle it upon the altar round about.
17. And thou shalt cut the ram in pieces, and wash his inwards, and his thighs; and shalt put them upon his pieces, and upon his head.
18. And burn the whole ram upon the altar: for it is a burnt offering unto the LORD, a sweet savour, a fire of the LORD.
19. And the other ram shalt thou take, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands upon his head.
20. And thou shalt slay him, and take of his blood, and put it upon the right earbud of Aaron, and upon the right earbud of his sons, and upon the thumb of their right hand, and upon the great toe of their right foot; and thou shalt sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.
21. And thou shalt take the blood upon the altar, and the anointing oil, and sprinkle it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon their garments; and he and his garments, and his sons, and their garments, shall be consecrated.
22. And thou shalt take the fat of the ram, the tail, and the fat of the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys with the fat over them, and the right shoulder; for it is a ram of plenty.
23. And one loaf, and one cake of oil, and one cake of the basket of unleavened bread, which is before the LORD.
24. And put it all into the hands of Aaron and his sons, and weave it unto the LORD.

25. Afterward take it from their hands, and burn it upon the altar for a burnt offering, for a sweet savour before the LORD: for it is the fire of the LORD.
26. And thou shalt take the breast of the ram of Aaron's fullness, and shalt weave it before the LORD. This shall be thy portion.
27. And thou shalt sanctify the wave breast and the heave shoulder, which are woven and hewed of the ram of the fullness of Aaron, and of his sons.
28. And Aaron's offering, and his sons' offerings, shall be for ever of the children of Israel: for it is a heave offering. And the heave offerings shall be of the LORD from the children of Israel in their peace offerings and their heave sacrifices.
29. But the holy garments of Aaron shall be for his sons after him, to anoint them in them, and to fill their hands.
30. And whosoever of his sons shall become priests in his stead, he shall put them on seven days, and go into the tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the holy place.
31. And thou shalt take the ram of the stuffing, and boil the flesh thereof in a holy place.
32. And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the same ram, and the bread that is in the basket, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.
33. For atonement is made therewith, to fill their hands, that they may be sanctified. No other shall eat it, for it is holy.
34. And if any of the flesh of the stuffing, or of the bread, remain unto the morning, thou shalt burn it with fire, and not eat it: for it is holy.
35. And thou shalt do therefore unto Aaron and unto his sons all that I have commanded thee.
- Seven days shalt thou fill their hands
36. And thou shalt kill a bullock daily for a sin offering, to make an atonement for him. And thou shalt sanctify the altar, when thou makest atonement for it; and thou shalt anoint it, that it may be consecrated.
37. Seven days shalt thou make an atonement for the altar, and consecrate it, that it may be an altar, the most holy. He that toucheth the altar shall be consecrated.

38. And this shalt thou do unto the altar. Two lambs of the first year shalt thou offer upon it every day,
39. One lamb in the morning, the other between evenings.
40. And to one lamb a tithe of fine flour, mingled with four parts of one hin of crushed oil, and four parts of one hin of wine for a drink offering.
41. And thou shalt do with the other lamb between the evenings, as thou didst with the meat offering and the drink offering of the morning, for a sweet savour, a fire unto the LORD.
42. This is the daily burnt offering unto your seed at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the LORD, where I will testify unto you, and speak unto you.
43. There will I be known unto the children of Israel, and will be sanctified in my glory.
44. And I will sanctify the tabernacle of the congregation with the altar, and consecrate Aaron and his sons to be priests unto me.
45. And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and be their God, 46. That they may know that I am the LORD their God, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell among them, I the LORD their God.

(Exodus)

Chapter 30

Of the altar of incense, the tax imposed, hand-grip, anointing oil, and incense.

1. Thou shalt also make an altar of incense of pine wood,
2. a rush long and broad, equal to four cubits, and two cubits high with its horns.
3. And thou shalt overlay it with fine gold, the roof thereof, and the walls thereof round about, and the horns thereof. And thou shalt make a garland of gold round about it.
4. And two rings of gold under the wreath on either side, to put staves therein, and to bear it therewith.
5. The staves also shalt thou make of pine wood, and overlay them with gold.
6. And thou shalt set it before the vail that hangeth before the ark of the testimony, and before the mercy seat that is upon the testimony, from whence I will testify unto thee.

7. And Aaron shall burn thereon good incense every morning, when he dresseth the lamps.

8. And likewise, when he lighteth the lamps between the evenings, he shall burn incense. This shall be the daily incense before the LORD unto your seed.

9. Ye shall put no strange incense thereon, neither shall ye offer burnt offering, nor meat offering, nor drink offering thereon.

10. And Aaron shall make an atonement upon his horns once in the year with the blood of the sin offering to make an atonement. And this atonement shall be made yearly among your seed: for it is most holy unto the LORD.

11. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

12. When thou shalt number the heads of the children of Israel, let every man make an atonement for his soul unto the LORD, that no plague befall them when they are numbered.

13. And every one that is numbered shall give half a shekel, according to the shekel of the sanctuary (a shekel is twenty gerahs). This half a shekel shall be the heave offering of the LORD.

14. He that is twenty years old and upward in number shall offer such a heave offering unto the LORD.

15. The rich shall not give more, neither shall the poor give less than half a shekel, which shall be given to the LORD to make an atonement for their souls.

16. And thou shalt take such money of atonement of the children of Israel, and put it by the service of the tabernacle of the congregation, that it may be a memorial unto the children of Israel before the LORD, to make an atonement for their souls.

17. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

18. Thou shalt also make a brasen handstand with a brasen foot to wash in; and thou shalt set it between the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, and put water therein, 19. And Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet in it, 20. When they go into the tabernacle of the congregation, or unto the altar, to minister with incense, a fire of the LORD,

21. That they die not. This shall be a perpetual manner unto him, and to his seed in their generations.

22. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying.

23. Take unto thee the best spices, the most precious myrrh, five hundred (sekels); and tinamet, half as much, two hundred and fifty; and calamus, also two hundred and fifty, 24. And cassia, five hundred, according to the sekel of the sanctuary, and oil of the olive tree a hin, 25. And make a holy anointing oil according to the apothecary's art. 26. And thou shalt anoint therewith the tabernacle of the congregation, and the ark of the testimony, 27. The table with all his vessels, the candlestick with his vessels, the altar of incense, 28. The altar of burnt offering, and all the vessels thereof, and the censer with the foot thereof. 29. And thou shalt consecrate them, that they may be the most holy: for he that toucheth them shall be consecrated. 30. Aaron also and his sons shalt thou anoint, and ordain them priests unto me. 31. And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying: This oil shall be unto me a holy ointment among your seed. 32. It shall not be poured into the body of man, neither shall ye make any like it: for it is holy, therefore it shall be holy unto you. 33. Whosoever maketh any of these things, or giveth any of them unto another, he shall be cut off from among his people. 34. And the LORD said unto Moses, Take thee spices, and balm, and staves, and galban, and pure frankincense, one as much as another, 35. And make incense of it, blended according to the apothecary's art, that it may be pure and holy. 36. And thou shalt put it to powder, and shalt put it before the testimony in the tabernacle of the congregation, from whence I will testify unto thee. This shall be unto you the most holy thing. 37. And ye shall not make the like incense unto you, but it shall be holy unto thee unto the LORD. 38. And whosoever shall make any of them to burn incense therewith shall be cut off from among his people.

(Exodus)

Chapter 31

Appointment of the foremen. Sabbath observance. Tablets of the law.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:
2. Behold, I have called by name Bezaleel the son of Us, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, 3. And I have filled him with the Spirit of God, with wisdom, and understanding, and knowledge, and with all manner of work,

4. to work artificially on gold, silver, ore,

5. to cut and set stone artificially, and to timber artificially, to make all manner of work.

6. And, behold, I have given unto him Ahaliab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan; and I have put wisdom in the heart of all wise men, that they should do all that I have commanded thee:

7. The tabernacle of the congregation, the ark of the testimony, the mercy seat upon it, and all the vessels of the tabernacle,

8. The table and the vessels thereof, the fine candlestick and all the vessels thereof, the altar of incense,

9. The altar of burnt offering, and all the vessels thereof, and the censer with the foot thereof, 10. The garments of the priesthood, and the holy garments of Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister priestly,

11. The anointing oil and the incense of spices for the sanctuary. All that I have commanded thee, they shall do;

12. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

13. Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Keep my sabbath day: for it is a sign between me and you unto your seed, that ye may know that I am the LORD which sanctifieth you.

14. Therefore keep my sabbath day: for it shall be holy unto you. He that profanes it shall be put to death: for whosoever doeth any work therein, his soul shall be cut off from among his people.

15. Six days shall a man labour: but the seventh day is the sabbath, the holy rest of the LORD.

Whosoever doeth any work on the sabbath day shall surely be put to death.

16. Therefore the children of Israel shall keep the sabbath, to keep it also unto their seed for an everlasting covenant.

17. He is an everlasting sign between me and the children of Israel. For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth: but in the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed.

18. And when the LORD had spoken unto Moses in mount Sinai, he gave him two tables of the testimony, which were of stone, written with the finger of God.

(Exodus)

Chapter 32

Idolatry with the cast calf.

1. And when the people saw that Moses delayed to come out of the mount, they gathered themselves together against Aaron, and said unto him, Arise, and make us gods to go before us. For we know not what befell this man Moses, which brought us up out of the land of Egypt.

2. And Aaron said unto them: Tear off the earrings of gold from the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me.

3. And all the people plucked off their earrings of gold from their ears, and brought them unto Aaron.

4. And he took it from their hands, and drew it out with a stylus, and made a cast calf. And they said: These are thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

5. And when Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it, and proclaimed, saying, To morrow is the feast of the LORD.

6. And they arose early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings.

And afterward the people sat down to eat and to drink, and they ceased to play.

7. And the LORD said unto Moses, Go down, get thee down: for thy people, which thou broughtest up out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves.

8. They went quickly out of the way which I commanded them. And they made them a cast calf, and worshipped it, and sacrificed unto it, saying, These are thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

9. And the LORD said unto Moses, I see that they are a stiff-necked people.

10. And now let my wrath be kindled against them, and devour them, and I will make thee a great nation.

11. And Moses besought the LORD his God, saying, O LORD, why will thy wrath be kindled against thy people, whom thou hast brought out of the land of Egypt with great strength and with a mighty hand?
12. Why should the Egyptians say, saying: He hath brought them out to their evil, to slay them in the mountains, and to destroy them from off the face of the earth? Turn away the fury of thine anger, and be merciful to the wickedness of thy people.
13. Remember thy servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, to whom thou swarest by thyself, and promisedst unto them: I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven; and all the land which I have promised I will give unto your seed, and they shall possess it for ever.
14. So the LORD repented of the evil which he was about to do unto his people.
15. And Moses turned, and came down from the mount, having in his hand two tables of the testimony written on both sides.
16. And God had made them Himself, and had dug the writing therein Himself.
17. And it came to pass, when Joshua heard the cry of the people, that they shouted, that he said unto Moses, There is a shout in the camp, as in the battle.
18. And he answered, It is not a cry one against another, of them that are subject, and of them that are under: but I hear a cry of a singing.
19. And when he was come nigh unto the camp, and saw the calf and the round dance, he was enraged with wrath, and cast the tables out of his hand, and brake them in pieces at the bottom of the mountain.
20. And he took the calf which they had made, and burnt it with fire, and ground it to powder, and sprinkled it upon the waters, and gave it to the children of Israel to drink.
21. And said unto Aaron, What have the people done unto thee, that thou hast committed so great a sin?
22. And Aaron said, My lord let not his anger be kindled. Thou knowest that this people is wicked.
23. And they said unto me, Make us gods to go before us: for we know not the way of this man Moses, which brought us up out of the land of Egypt.
24. And I said unto them: He that hath gold, let him pluck it off, and give it me. And I cast it into the fire; and out of it came the calf.

25. And it came to pass, when Moses saw that the people were loosed, (for Aaron had loosed them with a gossip, that he might bring them to nought,) that the people were loosed, 26. And he entered into the gate of the camp, and said, Come unto me, ye that belong to the LORD. And all the children of Levi were gathered unto him.

27. And he said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Gird every man his sword upon his loins, and pass through from gate to gate in the lay, and slay every man his brother, and his friend, and his neighbour.

28. And the children of Levi did as Moses had said unto them, and they fell that day of the people three thousand men.

29; And Moses said, Fill your hands this day with the LORD, every man with his son, and with his brother; that a blessing may be upon you this day.

30. And Moses said unto the people in the morning, Ye have sinned a great sin: now will I go up unto the LORD, and see if I may make reconciliation for your sin.

31. And when Moses returned unto the LORD, he said, Alas, the people have sinned a great sin, and have made them gods of gold.

32. Now therefore forgive them their sin. If not, blot me also out of thy book which thou hast written.

33. And the LORD said unto Moses, What? I will blot out of my book him that sinneth against me.

34. Go therefore, and lead the people, whither I have said unto thee. Behold, my angel shall go before thee. I will punish their sin when my time comes to punish them.

35. So the LORD punished the people, because they had made the calf which Aaron had made.

(Exodus)

Chapter 33

Moses prays for the people and desires to see the glory of the Lord.

1. And the LORD said unto Moses, Get thee hence, thou, and the people which thou hast brought out of the land of Egypt, unto the land which I sware unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, Unto thy seed will I give it.

2. And I will send an angel before thee, and will cast out the Canaanites, and the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites; 3. Into the land where milk and honey flow within. I will not go up with thee: for thou art a stiffnecked people. I would devour thee by the way.

4. And when the people heard this wicked speech, they suffered affliction, and no man wore his ornaments upon him.

5. And the LORD said unto Moses, Say unto the children of Israel, Ye are a stiffnecked people. I will come upon thee suddenly, and will destroy thee. And now put away thy ornaments from thee, that I may know what I shall do unto thee.

6. So the children of Israel put off their ornaments from before mount Horeb.

7. And Moses took the tabernacle, and pitched it without, before the camp, and called it a tabernacle of the congregation. And whosoever would inquire of the LORD must go out unto the tabernacle of the congregation before the camp.

8. And it came to pass, when Moses went out unto the tabernacle, that all the people arose, and entered every man into his tent, and watched him until he came into the tabernacle.

9. And it came to pass, when Moses was come into the tabernacle, that the pillar of cloud descended, and stood in the door of the tabernacle, and talked with Moses.

10. And all the people saw the pillar of cloud standing in the door of the tabernacle; and they arose, and bowed themselves every man in the door of his tabernacle.

11. And the LORD spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. And when he returned to the camp, Joshua his servant the son of Nun, the young man, departed not out of the tabernacle.

12. And Moses said unto the LORD, Behold, thou sayest unto me, Bring up the people, and let me not know whom thou wilt send with me, when thou hast said: I know thee by name, and thou hast found grace in mine eyes.

13. If then I have found grace in thine eyes, let me know thy way, that I may know thee, and find grace in thine eyes. And behold, this people is thy people.

14. And he said, Let my face go, and I will guide thee.

15. And he said unto him, If thy face go not, bring us not up thence.

16. For how shall it be known that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight, except thou walk with us? that I and thy people may be glorified before all the people that are upon the face of the earth.

17. And the LORD said unto Moses, What thou hast spoken now will I do: for thou hast found grace in mine eyes, and I know thee by name.

18. And he said, Let me see thy glory.

19. And he said: I will make all my goodness pass before thy face, and will cause the name of the LORD to be preached before thee. And to whom I am gracious, I am gracious: and on whom I have mercy, I have mercy.

20. And he said, Thou canst not see my face: for no man shall live that seeth me.

21. And the LORD said again, Behold, there is a place with me, and thou shalt stand upon the rock.

22. And it shall come to pass, when my glory is past, that I will leave thee in the cleft of the rock, and my hand shall be upon thee until I pass by.

23. And if I put away my hand from thee, thou shalt look behind me: but my face cannot be seen.

(Exodus)

Chapter 34

New Tablets of the Law. Covenant of God. Moses' shining face.

1. And the LORD said unto Moses, Hew thee two tables of stone, like unto the first, that I may write upon them the words which were in the first tables which thou didst break.

2. And be ready in the morning to go up early unto mount Sinai, and there to meet me in the top of the mountain.

3. And let no man go up with thee, that no man be seen round about all the mountain: neither let sheep nor ox feed against this mountain.

4. And Moses cut two tables of stone, as the first were, and rose up early in the morning, and went up into mount Sinai, as the LORD commanded him, and took the two tables of stone in his hand.

5. And the LORD came down in a cloud, and stood there with him, and preached the name of the LORD.

6. And when the LORD was passed over before his face, he cried, O LORD God, merciful, and gracious, and patient, and of great mercy and faithfulness;

7. Who showest mercy to a thousand generations, and forgivest iniquity, and transgression, and sin; before whom no man is innocent: who visitest the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, unto the third and fourth generation.

8. And Moses made haste, and bowed himself to the earth, and worshipped him, 9. And said, If I, O LORD, have found grace in thine eyes, let the LORD go with us: for they are a stiffnecked people, that thou wilt have mercy on us for our iniquity and for our sin, and let us be thine inheritance.

10. And he said, Behold, I will make a covenant before all thy people, and will do wonders such as are not made in all countries, nor among all people: and all the people that are among thee shall see the work of the LORD: for wonderful shall be the work that I will do in thee.

11. Keep that which I command thee this day. Behold, I will drive out before thee the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

12. Beware lest thou make a league with the inhabitants of the land, when thou comest in, lest they be a nuisance unto thee among you;

13. But thou shalt overthrow their altars, and break down their idols, and cut off their groves.

14. For thou shalt worship no other god. For the LORD is called a zealot, because he is a zealous God.

15. That, when thou makest a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they go whoring after their gods, and sacrifice unto their gods, they may not invite thee, and thou mayest eat of their sacrifice;

16. And thou shalt take thy sons their daughters to be wives, and they shall whore after their gods, and make thy sons also to whore after their gods.

17. Thou shalt not make thee cast gods.

18. The feast of unleavened bread shalt thou keep. Seven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, as I commanded thee, about the time of the moon Abib: for in the moon Abib thou camest out of Egypt.

19. Every thing that first breaketh his mother is mine: that which shall be male in thy cattle which breaketh his mother, whether it be ox or sheep.

20. But the firstling of the ass shalt thou loose with a sheep. And if thou loose it not, then break his neck. All the firstborn of thy sons thou shalt redeem. And let no man appear before me empty.

21. Six days shalt thou labour: on the seventh day shalt thou feast, both plowing and reaping: 22. The feast of weeks shalt thou keep with the firstfruits of the wheat harvest, and the feast of ingathering when the year is ended.

23. Three times in the year shall all the names of the men appear before the LORD, the LORD God of Israel.

24. When I cast out the heathen from before thee, and enlarge thy border, then shall no man desire thy land, while thou goest up three times in the year to appear before the LORD thy God.

25. Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice upon the leavened bread: and the sacrifice of the passover shall remain until the morning.

26. The firstling of the firstfruits of thy field shalt thou bring into the house of the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not boil the kid while it is still at its mother's milk.

27. And the LORD said unto Moses, Write these words: for according to these words have I made a covenant with thee, and with Israel.

28. And he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights, eating one loaf, and drinking no water. And he wrote upon the tables this covenant, the ten words.

29. And Moses came down from mount Sinai with the two tables of the testimony in his hand, and knew not that the skin of his face shone because he had spoken unto him.

30. And when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw that the skin of his face shone, they feared to come near unto him.

31. And Moses called unto them, and they turned unto him, both Aaron, and all the rulers of the congregation: and he spake unto them.

32. And afterward all the children of Israel drew nigh unto him. And he commanded them all that the LORD had spoken unto him in mount Sinai.

33. And when he spake all these things unto them, he put a covering upon his face.

34. And when he went in before the LORD to speak with him, he took off the covering, until he came out again. And when he came forth, and spake unto the children of Israel, as he was commanded,

35. Then the children of Israel looked upon his face, as the skin of his countenance shone: so he put the covering again upon his face, until he went in again to speak with him.

(Exodus)

Chapter 35

Sabbath rest. Voluntary tax. Occupation of the workmasters.

1. And Moses gathered together all the congregation of the children of Israel, and said unto them: This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded that ye should do: 2. Six days ye shall labour: but the seventh day ye shall keep holy, a sabbath of rest unto the LORD.

Whosoever worketh therein shall die.

3. Ye shall not kindle fire on the sabbath day in all your dwellings.

4. And Moses said unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, This is that the LORD hath commanded:

5. Offer ye among yourselves an heave offering unto the LORD, that every man may willingly offer the heave offering of the LORD, gold, silver, brass,

6. Yellow silk, scarlet, rose, white silk and goat hair,

7. reddish ram fur, badger fur and pine wood,

8. oil for a lamp, and spices for an ointment, and for good incense, 9. onyx and stones set for the ephod and for the shield.

10. And whosoever he be of you that hath understanding, let him come and do that which the LORD hath commanded:

11. Namely, the tabernacle, with the hut thereof, and the ceiling thereof, and the rafters thereof, and the boards thereof, and the pillars thereof, and the feet thereof; 12. The ark with its poles, the mercy seat and curtain;

13. The table with his staves, and all his vessels, and the shewbread; 14. The candlestick to shine, and the vessels thereof, and the lamps thereof, and the oil to light; 15. The altar of incense with the staves thereof, and the ointment, and the spices for the incense, and the cloth that is before the door of the tabernacle;

16. And the altar of burnt offering, with the brasen grate thereof, and the staves thereof, and all the vessels thereof; and the censer with the foot thereof;

17. The cloak of the court with its pillars and feet, and the cloth of the gate of the court; 18. the nails of the tabernacle and of the court with their pillars 19. The garments of the ministry for the service of the holy things, the holy garments of Aaron the priest, with the garments of his sons for the priesthood.

20. And all the congregation of the children of Israel went out from Moses.

21. And all they that gladly and willingly gave came and brought the heave offering unto the LORD for the work of the tabernacle of the congregation, and for all his service, and for the holy garments.

22. And both man and woman, whosoever would, brought harness, and earrings, and rings, and buckles, and all manner of vessels of gold. And every man brought gold for a garment unto the LORD.

23. And whosoever found with him yellow silk, and scarlet, and scarlet, and white silk, and goats' hair, and reddish rams' skins, and badgers' skins, brought them.

24. And whosoever lifted up silver and brass brought it for an offering unto the LORD. And whosoever found pine wood with him brought it for all manner of work of worship.

25. And they that were wise wives wrought with their hands, and brought forth their work of yellow silk, and scarlet, and rose-coloured, and white silk.

26. And the women that were able and willing to do this work wrought goats' hair.

27. And the princes brought onyx, and stones set for their ephods, and for their shields.

28. And spices, and oil for lights, and for ointment, and for good incense.

29. So the children of Israel brought willingly, both man and woman, to do all the work which the LORD commanded by Moses to be done.

30. And Moses said unto the children of Israel, Behold, the LORD hath called by name Bezaleel the son of Us, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah,

31. And hath filled him with the Spirit of God, that he should be wise, and understanding, and able to do all manner of work,
32. to work artificially on gold, silver, and ore,
33. to cut and set precious stone, to carpenter wood, to make all manner of artificial work.
34. And he taught him his heart, and Ahaliab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan.
35. He hath filled their hearts with wisdom to make all manner of work, to cut, to work, and to embroider with yellow silk, and scarlet, and purple, and white silk, and with weaving, to make all manner of work, and to invent workmanship.

(Exodus)

Chapter 36

The pieces of the shrine are being made.

1. Then Bezaleel, and Ahaliab, and all the wise men, to whom the LORD had given wisdom and understanding to know how to do all manner of work, laboured for the service of the sanctuary, according to all that the LORD had commanded.
2. And Moses called unto Bezaleel, and unto Ahaliab, and unto all the wise men, unto whom the LORD had given wisdom in their hearts, even unto all them that offered themselves willingly, and went to work in the work.
3. And they took unto them of Moses all the offerings which the children of Israel brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, to make it. For every morning they brought their willing offerings unto him.
4. Then came all the wise men that wrought in the work of the sanctuary, every man of his work that they wrought,
5. And they said unto Moses, The people bring too much, more than is needful for the work of this service, which the LORD commanded to be done.
6. And Moses commanded that they should cry throughout the camp, saying, No man shall lift up the sanctuary any more. And the people ceased from bringing.
7. For there was enough of the thing for every work that was to be done, and yet was left.

8. So all the wise men among the workmen made the tabernacle, ten carpets of twined white silk, yellow silk, scarlet, rosy, cherubims, artificial.

9. The length of a carpet was twenty and eight cubits, and the breadth four cubits; and they were all of one measure.

10. And he fastened five curtains together, one to another.

11. And he made yellow loops in the place of every carpet, where they were joined together.

12. Fifty loops each to a carpet, that one might take hold of another.

13. And he made fifty coils of gold, and joined the rugs together with the coils, one to another, to make a tabernacle.

14. And he made eleven carpets of goats' hair for the tabernacle, 15. Thirty cubits long and four cubits wide, all in one measure.

16. And he put five of them together in one part, and six together in the other part.

17. And he made fifty loops upon every carpet in the place, to bind them together.

18. And he made every one fifty pieces of brass, that the tabernacle might be joined together into one.

19. And he made a covering over the tabernacle of red rams' skins, and over them a covering of badgers' skins.

20. And made boards for the tabernacle of pine wood to stand upon,

21. Each ten cubits long, and a cubit and a half broad,

22. And on every one two tenons, to set one against another. So he made all the boards for a dwelling,

23. that the same boards were twenty about noon;

24. And he made forty silver feet under them, and under every board two feet upon the two tenons thereof.

25. And on the other side of the tabernacle, about midnight, he made twenty boards.

26. With forty silver feet, under every board two feet.

27. But at the back of the tabernacle toward the evening he made six boards, 28. and two others at the back at the two corners of the apartment, 29. That each of them should be joined together with his place board from beneath, and be joined together at the top of the head with a clamp,

30. That the boards might be eight, and sixteen silver feet, under every one two feet.

31. And he made bars of pine wood, five for the boards upon the one side of the tabernacle.

32. and five on the other side, and five behind, towards the evening.

33. And he made the bars to thrust them through the midst of the boards from end to end.

34. And he overlaid the boards with gold, and made the bars thereof of gold, and overlaid the bars with gold.

35. And he made the curtain with the cherubims upon it of yellow silk, and scarlet, and scarlet, and twined white silk, artificially.

36. And he made for them four pillars of pine wood, and overlaid them with gold, and their heads with gold, and cast four silver feet for them.

37. And made a cloth in the door of the tabernacle; of yellow silk, scarlet, and rose-red, and twined white silk embroidered,

38. And five pillars thereof with their heads, and overlaid their heads and rims with gold; and five brass feet thereon.

(Exodus)

Chapter 37

Of some utensils of the sanctuary.

1. And Bezaleel made the ark of pine wood, three cubits and a half long, and a cubit and a half broad, and high,

2. And he overlaid her with fine gold within and without, and made her a garland of gold round about.

3. And he poured four golden prongs upon the four corners thereof, two on each side.

4. And he made staves of pine wood, and overlaid them with gold.

5. And he put them in the rings by the sides of the ark, to be carried.

6. And he made the mercy seat of fine gold, three cubits and a half long, and a cubit and a half broad.

7. And made two cherubims of strong gold at the two ends of the mercy seat, 8. One cherub at this end, the other at that end.

9. And the cherubims spread forth their wings from above, and covered the mercy seat therewith: and their faces were turned toward one another, and looked upon the mercy seat.

10. And he made the table of pine wood, two cubits long, and a cubit broad, and a cubit and a half high.

11. And he overlaid him with fine gold, and made him a garland of gold round about.
12. And he made him a border round about, the breadth of a hand: and he made a garland of gold round about the border.
13. And he poured out four golden rings, and put them in the four places of his four feet.
14. hard on the ledge, that the staves might be in, to bear the table.
15. And he made the staves of pine wood, and overlaid them with gold, to bear the table therewith.
16. And he made also of fine gold vessels for the table, bowls, and cups, and pots, and dishes, to pour out and to pour in.
17. And he made the candlestick of fine and thick gold. And the shaft thereof was with tubes, and with bowls, and with knops, and with flowers.
18. Six tubes went out on his sides, on every side three tubes.
19. Three bowls were on every reed with knobs and flowers.
20. And on the candlestick were four bowls with knobs and flowers, 21. One knob under every two tubes, so that six tubes came out of it, 22. And the knobs thereof, and the tubes thereof, and all were of thick and fine gold.
23. And he made the seven lamps with their lanterns and their snuffers of fine gold.
24. Of a talent of fine gold made he him, and all his vessels.
25. He made also the altar of incense of pine wood, a cubit long and broad, foursquare, and two cubits high, with his horns.
26. And he overlaid it with fine gold, and the roof thereof, and the walls thereof round about, and the horns thereof. And he made him a garland round about of gold.
27. And two golden rings under the wreath on either side, to put staves in it, and to bear it therewith.
28. And he made the staves of pine wood, and overlaid them with gold.
29. And made the holy ointment and incense of pure spices after the apothecary's craft.

(Exodus)

Chapter 38

Considerable sum of applied gold, silver and ore.

1. And he made the altar of burnt offering of pine wood, five cubits long and broad, foursquare, and three cubits high.
2. And made four horns to go out of it, upon the four corners thereof; and overlaid it with brass.
3. And he made all manner of vessels for the altar, ashtrays, and shovels, and basons, and crucibles, and charcoal pans, all of brass.
4. And he made upon the altar a lattice of brass round about, like a net, from the bottom even unto the half of the altar.
5. And he poured out four prongs into the four places of the fence of brass for staves.
6. These he made of pine wood, and overlaid them with brass.
7. And he put them in the rings on the sides of the altar, to bear it up therewith: and he made it hollow within.
8. And he made the handstand of brass, and the foot thereof also of brass, against the women that ministered at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.
9. And he made a court toward the south, with a cloak an hundred cubits long, of twined white silk,
10. With their twenty pillars and twenty feet of brass, but their knobs and hoops of silver; 11. Of the same about the north an hundred cubits, with twenty pillars and twenty feet of brass, but their knobs and hoops of silver;
12. And toward the even fifty cubits, having ten pillars and ten feet, and their knobs and their hoops of silver: and the king's sons were of the king's house:
13. And toward the east fifty cubits,
14. Fifteen cubits on each side of the gate at the court, each with three pillars and three feet, 15. And on the other side fifteen cubits: so that there were as many on the one side of the gate of the court as on the other side, with three pillars and three feet, 16. And all the cloaks of the court were of twined white silk.
17. And the feet of the pillars of brass, and their knobs and their rims of silver; so that their heads were overlaid with silver: but their rims were silver upon all the pillars of the court.
18. And he made the cloth in the gate of the court embroidered, of yellow silk, and scarlet, and rose, and twined white silk, twenty cubits long, and five cubits high, according to the measure of the cloaks of the court;

19. And four pillars, and four feet of brass, and their knobs of silver, and their heads overlaid, and their rims of silver.

20. And all the nails of the tabernacle, and of the court round about, shall be of brass: 21. Now this is the summa of the tabernacle of the testimony, which is told, as Moses said, for the service of the Levites under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest, 22. Which Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made, according to all that the LORD commanded Moses;

23. And with him Ahaliab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, a master in cutting, and in working, and in embroidering, with yellow silk, scarlet, and scarlet, and white silk.

24. All the gold that is wrought in all this work of the sanctuary, which was given to be wrought, is twenty and nine talents, seven hundred and thirty sekels after the shekel of the sanctuary.

25. And the silver that came out of the congregation was an hundred talents, a thousand seven hundred and seventy and five shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary.

26. As many a head as were half a shekel, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, of all that were numbered from twenty years old and upward, six hundred thousand three thousand five hundred and fifty.

27. And out of the hundred talents of silver they cast the feet of the sanctuary, and the feet of the vail, an hundred feet out of an hundred talents, a talent for each foot.

28. And of the thousand seven hundred and seventy and five shekels were made the thorns of the pillars, and overlaid their heads, and their ripeness.

29. And the sheaf of brass was seventy talents, two thousand and four hundred shekels.

30. Of these were made the feet of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the brasen altar, and the brasen grate thereof, and all the vessels of the altar, 31. And the feet of the court round about, and the feet of the gate of the court, and all the nails of the tabernacle, and all the nails of the court round about.

(Exodus)

Chapter 39

Priestly garb.

1. And of the yellow silk, and of the scarlet, and of the scarlet, they made Aaron garments to minister in the sanctuary, as the LORD commanded Moses.
2. And he made the ephod of gold, and of yellow silk, and of scarlet, and of scarlet, and of twined white silk.
3. And he beat the gold, and cut it into thread, that it might be fashioned among the yellow silk, and the scarlet, and the scarlet, and the white silk,
4. That they should be joined together in both armpits, and bound together in both sides.
5. And his girdle was of the same art and work of gold, and of yellow silk, and of scarlet, and of scarlet, and of twined white silk, as the LORD commanded Moses.
6. And they made two onyx stones set round about with gold, dug by the stonecutters, with the names of the children of Israel,
7. And he fastened them upon the shoulders of the ephod, that they might be stones for a memorial to the children of Israel, as the LORD commanded Moses.
8. And they made the shield according to the art and work of the ephod of gold, and of yellow silk, and of scarlet, and of scarlet, and of twined white silk,
9. That it was foursquare, and twofold, the length of a hand, and the breadth thereof.
10. And they filled it with four courses of stones. The first tier was a sardius, topaz and emerald; 11. the other a ruby, sapphire, and demond;
12. the third a lyncurer, agate and amethyst;
13. The fourth, turquoise, onyx, and jasper, set about with gold in all the ranks.
14. And the stones were cut according to the twelve names of the children of Israel, by the stonecutters, every man by his name, according to the twelve tribes.
15. And they made on the shield chains with two ends of fine gold.
16. And two gold clasps, and two gold rings: and they put the two rings upon the two corners of the shield.

17. And they put the two chains of gold in the two rings upon the corners of the shield.

18. And they put the two ends of the chains upon the two clasps, and fastened them upon the corners of the ephod one against another.

19. And they made two other rings of gold, and put them upon the other two corners of the shield in the place where it was: and the shield was clasped upon the ephod.

20. And they made two other rings of gold, and put them over against each other in the two corners of the lower part of the ephod, where the ephod is joined together at the bottom, 21. That the shield with the rings thereof should be bound unto the rings of the ephod with a yellow cord, that it should cleave unto the ephod, and not be loosed from the ephod, as the LORD commanded Moses.

22. And he made the robe of silk for his ephod, wrought wholly of yellow silk, 23. And the top of his hole in the midst thereof, and a border folded round about the hole, that it should not break.

24. And they made on his hem pomegranates of yellow silk, and scarlet, and scarlet, and twined white silk.

25. And they made bells of fine gold, and put them among the pomegranates round about, in the border of the silk skirt,

26. A pomegranate and a cuff round about and round about the hem, to minister therein, as the LORD commanded Moses.

27. And they made also the skirts of white silk for Aaron and for his sons, 28. And the hat of white silk, and the fine bonnets of white silk, and the low garments of twined white linen.

29. And the embroidered girdle of twined white silk, and yellow silk, scarlet, and scarlet, as the LORD commanded Moses.

30. They made also the headpiece, which is the holy crown, of fine gold, and digged writing therein: The holiness of the LORD.

31. And they tied a yellow cord upon it, to fasten it to the hat from above, as the LORD commanded Moses.

32. So all the work of the tabernacle of the congregation was finished. And the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses,

33. And they brought the tabernacle unto Moses, the tabernacle, and all the vessels thereof, the cloak, and the boards, and the bars, and the pillars, and the feet; 34. The covering of reddish ram skins, the covering of badger skins, and the curtain; 35. The ark of the testimony with its bars; the mercy seat;

36. The table, and all the vessels thereof, and the shewbread;
37. The beautiful candlestick prepared with the lamps, and all the vessels thereof, and oil for the candlesticks;
38. The golden altar, and the ointment, and good incense, and the cloth of the door of the tabernacle;
39. And the brasen altar, and the brasen lattice thereof, and the staves thereof, and all the vessels thereof, and the handstand thereof, and the foot thereof;
40. The cloaks of the court, with the pillars thereof, and the feet thereof; the cloth of the gate of the court, with the cords thereof, and the nails thereof, and all the vessels thereof, for the service of the tabernacle of the congregation;
40. The garments of Aaron the priest to minister in the sanctuary, and the garments of his sons to minister in the priest's office.
42. All things, as the LORD commanded Moses, did the children of Israel unto all this service.
43. And Moses looked on all this work, and, behold, they had done it as the LORD commanded.

And he blessed them.

(Exodus)

Chapter 40

Tabernacle erected and dedicated.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:
2. Thou shalt set up the tabernacle of the congregation in the first day of the first month.
3. And thou shalt set the ark of the testimony therein, and hang the vail before the ark.
4. And thou shalt offer the table, and prepare it, and set the candlestick, and put the lamps thereon.
5. And thou shalt set the golden altar of incense before the ark of the testimony, and hang up the cloth in the door of the tabernacle.
6. And thou shalt set the altar of burnt offering without at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

7. And the handstand between the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, and put water therein;
8. and set the court round about, and hang up the cloth in the door of the court.
9. And thou shalt take the ointment, and anoint the tabernacle, and all that is therein, and shalt consecrate it with all the vessels thereof, that it may be holy.
10. And thou shalt anoint the altar of burnt offering with all the vessels thereof, and consecrate it to be most holy.
11. Thou shalt also anoint and consecrate the palm of his hand, and his foot.
12. And thou shalt bring Aaron and his sons unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and wash them with water;
13. And put on Aaron the holy garments, and anoint him, and consecrate him, that he may be my priest;
14. And bring his sons also, and put on them the narrow skirts;
15. And anoint them, as thou didst anoint their father, that they should be my priests. And the anointing shall be unto them for an everlasting priesthood unto their seed.
16. And Moses did according to all that the LORD commanded him.
17. So the tabernacle was set up in the second year, on the first day of the first moon.
18. And when Moses had set them up, he set the feet, and the boards, and the bars, and set up the pillars.
19. And he spread the tabernacle for a dwelling, and put the covering of the tabernacle upon it, as the LORD commanded him.
20. And he took the testimony, and put it in the ark, and put the staves upon the ark, and put the mercy seat upon the top of the ark.
21. And he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and hanged the vail before the ark of the testimony, as the LORD commanded him.
22. And he set the table in the tabernacle of the congregation, in the corner of the tabernacle northward, without the vail.
23. And he prepared bread thereon before the LORD, as the LORD commanded him.
24. And he set the candlestick over against the table in the corner of the tabernacle toward the south.

25. And he put lamps thereon before the LORD, as the LORD commanded him.
26. And he set the golden altar within, before the vail.
27. And he burned incense thereon with good incense, as the LORD commanded him.
28. And he hanged the cloth in the door of the tabernacle.
29. And he set the altar of burnt offering before the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered thereon burnt offerings and meat offerings, as the LORD commanded him.
30. And he set the handstand between the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, and put water therein to wash.
31. And Moses, and Aaron, and his sons, washed their hands and their feet thereof.
32. For they must wash when they enter into the tabernacle of the congregation, or when they come near unto the altar, as the LORD commanded him.
33. And he set up the court round about the tabernacle, and round about the altar, and put up the curtain in the gate of the court. So Moses finished all the work.
34. Then a cloud covered the tabernacle of the congregation, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.
35. And Moses could not enter into the tabernacle of the congregation, because the cloud abode upon it, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.
36. And when the cloud was lifted up from off the tabernacle, the children of Israel went as often as they journeyed.
37. And if the cloud be not lifted up, they went not away, until the day that it was lifted up.
38. For the cloud of the LORD was upon the tabernacle by day, and was fiery by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, while they journeyed.

Text of the unrevised Luther Bible 1545:

DeepL English Translation

[Processed by BackToLuther. German text published here.]

The third book of Moses (Leviticus) ^

Chapter 1

Law of Burnt Offerings.

1. And the LORD called Moses, and spake unto him of the tabernacle of the congregation, and said:
2. Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them: Whosoever of you will offer an offering unto the LORD, let him do it of the cattle, of the herds, and of the flocks.
3. And if he offer a burnt offering of oxen, then he shall offer a male without change at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, that it may be acceptable unto the LORD from him, 4. And lay his hand upon the head of the burnt offering, and it shall be acceptable unto him, and make an atonement for him.
5. And he shall kill the young ox before the LORD: and the sons of Aaron the priests shall bring the blood, and sprinkle it round about upon the altar that is before the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.
6. And the skin of the burnt offering shall be flayed, and it shall be cut in pieces.
7. And the sons of Aaron the priest shall make a fire upon the altar, and put wood upon it; 8. And they shall put the pieces, even the head, and the fat, upon the wood that is upon thy fire upon the altar.
9. And the inwards and the thighs shall be washed in water, and the priest shall burn them upon the altar for a burnt offering. This is a fire for a sweet savour unto the LORD.
10. But if he offer a burnt offering of sheep or goats, he shall offer a male without change.
11. And he shall slay it at the side of the altar northward before the LORD. And the priests, Aaron's sons, shall sprinkle his blood upon the altar round about.
12. And it shall be cut in pieces. And the priest shall lay the head and the fat upon the wood and fire that is upon the altar.
13. And the inwards and the thighs shall be washed in water. And the priest shall offer them all, and burn them upon the altar for a burnt offering. This is a fire for a sweet savour unto the LORD.
14. And if he offer a burnt offering of birds unto the LORD, let him offer it of turtledoves, or of young pigeons.
15. And the priest shall bring it unto the altar, and pinch off his head, that it may be burned upon the altar, and bleed his blood upon the wall of the altar.

16. And his crop with his feathers shall be cast beside the altar toward the east upon the ash heap.

17. And he shall cleave his wings, but not break them. And so shall the priest burn it upon the altar, upon the wood that is upon the fire, for a burnt offering. This is a fire for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

(Leviticus)

Chapter 2

Law of the grain offering

1. If a soul will offer a meat offering unto the LORD, it shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil thereon, and put incense thereon.

2. And they shall bring them unto the priests, Aaron's sons. And the priest shall take an handful of the fine flour, and of the oil, and all the incense, and burn them for a memorial upon the altar. This is a fire for a sweet aroma to the LORD.

3. And the rest of the meat offering shall be Aaron's and his sons'. This shall be the most holy of the fires of the LORD.

4. And if he will not make a meat offering of the things baken in the oven, then he shall take cakes of fine flour unleavened with oil, and unleavened cakes spread with oil.

5. And if thy meat offering be any of the baked things that are in the pan, it shall be of unleavened breadcrumbs mingled with oil.

6. And thou shalt cut it in pieces, and pour oil upon it, and it shall be a meat offering.

7. And if thy meat offering be somewhat roasted upon the grate, then thou shalt make it of fine flour with oil.

8. And thou shalt bring the meat offering, which thou shalt make of such things unto the LORD, unto the priest, and he shall bring it unto the altar.

9. And lift up the meat offering thereof for a memorial, and burn it upon the altar. This is a fire for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

10. And the rest shall be Aaron's, and his sons'. This shall be the most holy of the fires of the LORD.

11. All the meat offerings which ye shall offer unto the LORD shall ye make without leaven: for no leaven, nor honey, shall be kindled under it unto the LORD for a fire.

12. But for the firstfruits ye shall bring them unto the LORD: but upon no altar shall they be for a sweet savour.

13. All thy meat offerings shalt thou salt, and thy meat offering shall never be without salt of the covenant of thy God: for in all thine offering thou shalt offer salt.

14. And if thou wilt offer a meat offering unto the LORD of the firstfruits, thou shalt pound the sangs, which are dried in the fire, and offer the meat offering of thy firstfruits; 15. And thou shalt put oil thereon, and put frankincense thereon, and it shall be a meat offering. 16. And the priest shall burn of the crushed meat, and of the oil, with all the incense, for a memorial. This is a fire unto the LORD.

(Leviticus)

Chapter 3

Law of Thanksgiving Sacrifices.

1. And if his oblation be a peace offering of oxen, or of cattle, he shall offer it before the LORD without change.

2. And he shall lay his hand upon the head thereof, and slay it at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. And the priests, Aaron's sons, shall sprinkle the blood round about upon the altar.

3. And he shall offer of the peace offerings unto the LORD all the fat of the entrails.

4. And the kidneys, with the fat that is on them, by the loins; and the caul about the liver, by the kidneys torn off.

5. And Aaron's sons shall burn it upon the altar for a burnt offering, upon the wood that is upon the fire. This is a fire for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

6. But if he offer a peace offering of small cattle unto the LORD, whether it be a lamb or a sheep, it shall be without change.

7. If it be a lamb, he shall bring it before the LORD.

8. And he shall lay his hand upon the head thereof, and slay it before the tabernacle of the congregation. And the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle his blood upon the altar round about.

9. And he shall offer of the peace offerings unto the LORD for a burnt offering, the fat thereof, the whole of the tail taken off the back, and all the fat of the inwards, 10. The two kidneys, with the fat that is upon them, by the loins; and the caul about the liver, by the kidneys torn off.

11. And the priest shall burn it upon the altar for meat of fire unto the LORD.

12. But if his offering be a goat, and he bring it before the LORD, 13. And he shall lay his hand upon their heads, and slay them before the tabernacle of the congregation. And the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.

14. And he shall offer of it an offering unto the LORD, the fat of the entrails, 15. the kidneys with the fat on them, at the loins, and the caul over the liver, torn off at the kidneys.

16. And the priest shall burn it upon the altar for meat of the fire, for a sweet savour. All the fat is the LORD's.

17. This shall be a statute for ever unto your seed in all your dwellings, that ye eat neither fat nor blood.

(Leviticus)

Chapter 4

Law of sin offerings.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

2. Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a soul sin by mistake against any commandment of the LORD, which he ought not to do,

3. For if a priest that is anointed sin, and offend the people, he shall bring a young bullock without change for a sin offering unto the LORD for his sin which he hath sinned.

4. And he shall bring the bullock unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the LORD, and lay his hand upon the head thereof, and slay it before the LORD.

5. And the priest that is anointed shall take the blood of the bullock, and bring it into the tabernacle of the congregation.

6. And he shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD, before the veil in the holy place.

7. And he shall put the blood thereof upon the horns of the altar of incense that is before the LORD in the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall pour all the blood upon the bottom of the altar of burnt offering that is before the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8. And all the fat of the sin offering shall he lift up, even the fat of the inwards, 9. the two kidneys, with the fat that is on them, at the loins, and the caul above the liver, torn off at the kidneys,

10. As he lifteth it up from the bullock in the sacrifice of peace offerings, and burneth it upon the altar of burnt offering.
 11. And the hide of the bullock with all the flesh, and the head, and the legs, and the bowels, and the dung,
 12. And he shall carry them all out of the camp unto a clean place, where they shall cast the ashes, and burn them upon the wood with fire.
 13. If there were a whole congregation in Israel, and the deed were hid from their eyes, that they had done any thing contrary to the commandment of the LORD, which they ought not to do, and so were in debt,
 14. And afterward they shall remember their sin which they have sinned: and they shall offer a young bullock for a sin offering, and set it at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.
 15. And the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands upon his head before the LORD, and slay the bullock before the LORD.
 16. And the priest that is anointed shall bring the blood of the bullock into the tabernacle of the congregation.
 17. And he shall dip his finger therein, and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD, before the veil.
 18. And he shall put the blood upon the horns of the altar that is before the LORD in the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall pour out all the rest of the blood at the bottom of the altar of burnt offering that is before the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.
 19. And he shall take up all his fat, and burn it upon the altar.
 20. And he shall do unto the bullock as he did unto the bullock of the sin offering. And if the priest make an atonement for them, it shall be forgiven them.
 21. And he shall bring the bullock out of the camp, and burn it as he burned the first bullock.
- This shall be the sin offering of the congregation.
22. But if a prince sin, and do any thing against the commandment of the LORD his God, which he ought not to do, and sin, he is guilty,
 23. And if he remember his sin which he hath committed, he shall offer for a sacrifice a kid of the goats without change;

24. And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the goat, and slay it in the place where they slay the burnt offerings before the LORD. This is a sin offering.

25. Then the priest shall take the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour out the other blood at the bottom of the altar of burnt offering.

26. And all the fat thereof shall he burn upon the altar, as the fat of the peace offerings. And if the priest make an atonement for his sin, it shall be forgiven him.

27. And if a soul of the common people sin, and do any thing contrary to the commandments of the LORD, which he ought not to do, and so be in debt,

28. And if she remember her sin which she hath committed, she shall bring a kid of the goats for an offering without change for the sin which she hath committed; 29. And she shall lay her hand upon the head of the sin offering, and slay it in the place of the burnt offering.

30. And the priest shall take the blood with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all the blood at the bottom of the altar.

31. And all the fat thereof shall he take away, as he took away the fat of the peace offerings, and burn it upon the altar for a sweet savour unto the LORD. And if the priest make an atonement for her, it shall be forgiven her.

32. But if he bring a sheep for a sin offering, let him bring that which is one without change, 33. And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering, and slay it for a sin offering in the place where the burnt offering is slain.

34. And the priest shall take of the blood with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all the blood at the bottom of the altar.

35. And he shall pluck off all his fat, as he plucked off the fat of the sheep of the sacrifice of peace offerings, and shall burn it upon the altar for a fire unto the LORD. And if the priest make an atonement for his sin which he hath committed, it shall be forgiven him.

(Leviticus)

Chapter 5

Law front guilt offering.

1. If a soul sin, that he hear a curse, and he be a witness, or have seen, or known, and not confessed, he is guilty of iniquity.
2. Or if a soul touch any unclean thing, whether it be the carcase of any unclean beast, or cattle, or vermin, and know it not, he is unclean, and is in debt.
3. Or if he touch an unclean person, in what uncleanness a man may become unclean, and know it not, and know it, he is guilty.
4. Or if a soul swear that it shall escape out of his mouth to do harm or to do good (as a man's oath may escape him before he thinketh it), and he knoweth it, he hath sinned against one.
5. And it shall come to pass, when he is guilty of one thing, that he shall know that he hath sinned in it,
6. Then shall he bring unto the LORD of the flock one ewe lamb, or one kid of the goats, for a sin offering, for the trespass of his sin which he hath trespassed against: and the priest shall make an atonement for his sin.
7. But if he be not able to bring one sheep, let him bring unto the LORD for his iniquity which he hath done two turtledoves, or two young pigeons; the first for a sin offering, and the second for a burnt offering.
8. And bring them unto the priest. And he shall make the first a sin offering, and pinch off her head behind her neck, and not break it off.
9. And sprinkle the blood of the sin offering upon the side of the altar, and let the rest of the blood be bled out at the bottom of the altar. This is the sin offering.
10. And the other shall he offer for a burnt offering according to his own law. And if the priest make an atonement for his sin which he hath committed, it shall be forgiven him.
11. And if he be not able to offer two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, let him offer for his sin a tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering. But he shall not put oil thereon, neither shall he put incense thereon: for it is a sin offering.
12. And he shall bring it unto the priest. And the priest shall take an handful thereof for a memorial, and burn it upon the altar for a fire unto the LORD. This is a sin offering.
13. And the priest shall make an atonement for his sin which he hath committed, and it shall be forgiven him. And it shall be to the priest as a meat offering.

14. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

15. If a soul trespass against that which is consecrated unto the LORD, and trespass against that which is consecrated unto the LORD, he shall bring his trespass offering unto the LORD, a ram without issue of the flock, of the value of two shekels of silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, for a trespass offering.

16. And whatsoever he hath sinned against the consecrated, he shall restore, and give the fifth part thereof; and he shall give it unto the priest, and he shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering, and it shall be forgiven him.

17. If a soul sin, and do contrary to any commandment of the LORD, which he ought not to do, and have not known it, he is guilty of iniquity.

18. And he shall bring a ram of the flock without change, worthy of a trespass offering, unto the priest, and he shall make an atonement for him for his ignorance which he hath done, and knew it not: and it shall be forgiven him.

19. This is the trespass offering, which he hath offered unto the LORD.

Ch. 6, v. 1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

2. If a soul sin, and trespass against the LORD, and deny unto his neighbour that which he hath commanded him, or that which is done unto him faithfully, or that which he hath taken by violence, or brought unto him unjustly,

3. Or that is lost, and denieth it with a false oath, as it is one wherein a man sinneth against his neighbour:

4. If therefore he sin, and be in debt, he shall restore that which he hath taken by violence, or that which he hath taken unjustly, or that which he hath been commanded, or that which he hath found,

5. Or whereof he hath sworn falsely; he shall restore all that wholly, and give the fifth part thereof unto him that hath made it, in the day that he offereth his trespass offering.

6. But for his trespass he shall bring unto the LORD unto the priest one ram of the flock without change, worthy of a trespass offering.

7. And the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD: and it shall be forgiven him according to all that he hath done, wherein he is in debt.

(Leviticus)

Chapter 6

Of the burnt offering, the meat offering, and the sin offering.

8. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

9. Give Aaron and his sons, and say, This is the law of the burnt offering. The burnt offering shall burn upon the altar all night until the morning. And the fire of the altar alone shall burn upon it.

10. And the priest shall put on his linen garment, and the linen vail upon his body; and he shall take up the ashes which the fire of the burnt offering hath made upon the altar, and shall cast them beside the altar.

11. And he shall put off his garments afterward, and put on other garments, and carry out the ashes out of the camp unto a clean place.

12. The fire upon the altar shall burn, and never go out: and the priest shall burn wood upon it every morning, and prepare the burnt offering upon it, and burn thereon the fat of the peace offerings.

13. The fire shall burn upon the altar for ever, and shall never be quenched.

14. And this is the law of the meat offering, which Aaron's sons shall offer upon the altar before the LORD.

15. And one shall lift up his handful of fine flour of the meat offering, and of the oil, and all the frankincense that is upon the meat offering, and burn it upon the altar for a sweet savour, a memorial unto the LORD.

16. And the remainder shall Aaron and his sons eat; and they shall eat it unleavened in the holy place, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation.

17. They shall not bake it with leaven: for it is their portion, which I have given them of my sacrifice. It shall be unto them the most holy, even as the sin offering, and as the trespass offering.

18. That which is male among the sons of Aaron shall eat it. This shall be a perpetual statute unto your seed in the sacrifices of the LORD: no man shall touch them, except he be consecrated.

19. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

20. This shall be the offering of Aaron and of his sons, which they shall offer unto the LORD in the day of his anointing; the tenth part of the ephah of fine flour of the daily meat offering, half of the morning, and half of the evening.

21. In a pan with oil shalt thou make it, and offer it roasted; and baked in pieces shalt thou offer it for a sweet savour unto the LORD.
22. And the priest that is anointed among his sons in his stead shall do so. This is a perpetual statute unto the LORD: it shall be burned wholly.
23. For all the meat offering of a priest shall be wholly burnt, and not eaten.
24. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:
25. Saw Aaron and his sons, and said, This is the law of the sin offering: In the place where thou slakest the burnt offering thou shalt also slay the sin offering before the LORD: this is the most holy place.
26. And the priest that offereth the sin offering shall eat it in the holy place, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation.
27. Let no man touch his flesh, except he be sanctified. And whosoever shall sprinkle a garment of his blood shall wash the sprinkled spot in the holy place.
28. And the pot wherein it is boiled shall be broken. And if it be an iron pot, then it shall be scoured, and it shall be rinsed in water.
29. Those that are male among the priests shall eat thereof: for it is the most holy.
30. But all the sin offering, whose blood is brought into the tabernacle of the congregation to make an atonement in the holy place, shall not be eaten, but shall be burnt with fire.

(Leviticus)

Chapter 7

Of the guilt offering and the thanksgiving offering.

1. And this is the law of the trespass offering: and this is the most holy.
2. In the place where the burnt offering is killed shall the trespass offering be killed, and the blood thereof shall be sprinkled upon the altar.
3. And all the fat thereof shall be offered, the tail, and the fat of the bowels, 4. the two kidneys, with the fat attached, at the loins, and the caul above the liver, torn off at the kidneys.
5. And the priest shall burn it upon the altar for a fire unto the LORD. This is a trespass offering.
6. And the male of the priests shall eat thereof in the holy place: for it is the most holy.

7. As the sin offering, so shall the trespass offering be: both of them shall be one law, and shall be the priest's atonement.
8. Whosoever priest offereth any burnt offering shall have the skin of the burnt offering which he hath offered.
9. And every meat offering that is baked in the oven, or on the grate, or in the pan, shall be the priest's that offereth it.
10. And every meat offering that is mingled with oil, or that is dry, shall be of all Aaron's sons, one as well as another.
11. And this is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which is offered unto the LORD.
12. If they will offer a sacrifice of praise, they shall offer unleavened cakes mingled with oil, and unleavened cakes spread with oil, and toasted cakes mingled with oil.
13. And they shall offer this sacrifice upon a cake of leavened bread for the sacrifice of his peace offerings.
14. And he shall offer one of them all for an heave offering unto the LORD: and he shall be the priest that sprinkleth the blood of the sacrifice of peace offerings.
15. And the flesh of the sacrifice of praise in his peace offerings shall be eaten the same day that it is offered, and nothing shall be left over until the morning.
16. And if it be a vow, or a freewill offering, it shall be eaten the same day that it is offered: but if any remain unto the next day, it shall be eaten.
17. But that which remaineth of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burnt with fire.
18. And if any man eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings the third day, he that offered it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be imputed unto him, but it shall be an abomination: and whosoever eateth thereof shall be guilty of iniquity.
19. And the flesh that toucheth any unclean thing shall not be eaten, but shall be burned with fire.
He that is clean in body shall eat of the flesh.
20. And whatsoever soul shall eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which pertain unto the LORD, that uncleanness shall be upon him, and he shall be cut off from among his people.

21. And if any soul touch any unclean thing, whether it be unclean man, or beast, or any unclean thing that is abominable, and eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which pertain unto the LORD, it shall be cut off from among its people.

22. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

23. Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Ye shall eat no fat of oxen, or of lambs, or of goats.

24. But the fat of the carcase, and that which is torn of the beast, shall be for all your use, but ye shall not eat it.

25. For whosoever eateth the fat of the cattle that are offered unto the LORD, the same soul shall be cut off from among his people.

26. Neither shall ye eat blood, either of cattle, or of fowls, where ye dwell.

27. If any soul eat any blood, it shall be cut off from among its people.

28. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

29. Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Whosoever shall offer a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD, let him bring also that which pertaineth unto the LORD for a sacrifice of peace offerings.

30. And he shall bring it with his hand for an offering unto the LORD: he shall bring the fat of the breast with the breast, and it shall be a wave before the LORD.

31. And the priest shall burn the fat upon the altar: and the breast shall be Aaron's and his sons'.

32. And the right shoulder shall they give unto the priest for a heave offering of their peace offerings.

33. And whichever of Aaron's sons shall offer the blood of the peace offerings, and the fat thereof, the right shoulder shall be his portion.

34. For the wave breast and the heave shoulder have I taken of the children of Israel out of their peace offerings, and have given them unto Aaron the priest and to his sons for a perpetual statute.

35. This is the anointing of Aaron and his sons of the sacrifices of the LORD, in the day that they were delivered to be priests unto the LORD,

36. For the LORD commanded in the day that he anointed them, that it should be given him of the children of Israel for an everlasting statute unto all their seed.

37. And this is the law of the burnt offering, and of the meat offering, and of the sin offering, and of the trespass offering, and of the meat offering, and of the peace offerings.

38. Which the LORD commanded Moses in mount Sinai, in the day that he commanded him the children of Israel to offer their sacrifices unto the LORD in the wilderness of Sinai.

(Leviticus)

Chapter 8

Inauguration of the priests.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

2. Take Aaron and his sons with him, and their garments, and the anointing oil, and a bullock for a sin offering, and two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread.

3. And gather all the congregation together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4. And Moses did as the LORD commanded him, and gathered the congregation together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

5. And said unto them: This is that the LORD hath commanded to be done.

6. And he took Aaron and his sons, and washed them with water.

7. And he put on him the linen skirt, and girded him with the girdle, and put on him the silk skirt, and put on him the ephod, and girded him over the ephod.

8. And he put the small shield upon him, and in the small shield light and judgment.

9. And he put his hat upon his head, and put upon the top of his head the golden leaf of the crown of holiness, as the LORD commanded Moses.

10. And Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle, and all that was therein, and consecrated it.

11. And he sprinkled therewith seven times upon the altar, and anointed the altar with all his vessels, and the palm with his foot, to consecrate it.

12. And he poured the anointing oil upon Aaron's head, and anointed him to consecrate him.

13. And he brought Aaron's sons, and put on them coats of linen, and girded them with the girdle, and put on them bonnets, as the LORD commanded him.

14. And he brought a bullock for a sin offering. And Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon his head.

15. And they slew it. And Moses took the blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about with his finger, and defiled the altar, and poured the blood upon the base of the altar, and sanctified it, to make an atonement for it.

16. And he took all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys with the fat upon them, and burnt them upon the altar.

17. But the bullock with his hide, and his flesh, and his dung, he burnt with fire without the camp, as the LORD commanded him.

18. And he brought a ram for a burnt offering. And Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon his head.

19. And they slew him. And Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about, 20. And he cut the ram in pieces, and set on fire the head, and the pieces, and the stump.

21. And he washed the inwards and the legs with water, and burnt the whole ram upon the altar.

This was a burnt offering for a sweet savour, a fire unto the LORD, as the LORD commanded him.

22. And he brought the other ram of the passover. And Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon his head.

23. And they slaughtered him. And Moses took his blood, and put it upon the cartilage of Aaron's right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

24. And he brought Aaron's sons, and put the blood upon the cartilage of their right ear, and upon the thumb of their right hand, and upon the great toe of their right foot, and sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.

25. And he took the fat, and the tail, and all the fat that was upon the bowels, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys with the fat upon them, and the right shoulder.

26. And he took of the basket of unleavened bread before the LORD one cake of unleavened bread, and one cake of oiled bread, and one patty; and laid it upon the fat, and upon the right shoulder.

27. And he gave all these things into the hands of Aaron and his sons, and waved them for a wave before the LORD.

28. And they took it all again from their hands, and burnt it upon the altar, upon the burnt offering: for it is a sacrifice made by fire for a sweet savour, a fire unto the LORD.

29. And Moses took the breast, and wove a wave before the LORD of the ram of the sacrifice of the filling. And it became a portion unto Moses, as the LORD commanded him.

30. And Moses took the anointing oil and the blood upon the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon their garments; and consecrated Aaron, and his garments, and his sons, and their garments with him.

31. And he said unto Aaron and to his sons: Boil the flesh at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and eat it there, and the bread that is in the basket of the passover, as I am commanded, saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it.

32. And that which remaineth of the flesh and of the bread ye shall burn with fire.

33. And ye shall not go out from the door of the tabernacle of the congregation seven days, until the days of your filling be fulfilled: for seven days are your hands filled, 34. As it was done this day. The LORD hath commanded it to be done, that ye might be reconciled.

35. And ye shall tarry at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation day and night seven days; and ye shall wait upon the watch of the LORD, that ye die not: for so I am commanded.

36. And Aaron and his sons did according to all that the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

(Leviticus)

Chapter 9

Aaron's first sacrifice is consumed by fire.

1. And it came to pass on the eighth day, that Moses called unto Aaron, and to his sons, and to the elders of Israel.

2. And he said unto Aaron, Take thee a young calf for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, both without change, and bring them before the LORD.

3. And speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Take a kid of the goats for a sin offering, and a calf and a sheep, both of them of the first year, and without change, for a burnt offering; 4. And an ox and a ram for a peace offering, to offer before the LORD; and a meat offering mingled with oil. For this day shall the LORD appear unto you.

5. And they took that which Moses commanded at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

And all the congregation came near, and stood before the LORD.

6. And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded that ye should do, and the glory of the LORD shall appear unto you.

7. And Moses said unto Aaron, Come near unto the altar, and offer thy sin offering, and thy burnt offering, and make an atonement for thyself, and for the people: and afterward make an offering of the people, and make an atonement for them also, as the LORD commanded.

8. And Aaron came unto the altar, and slew the calf for his sin offering.

9. And his sons brought the blood unto him, and he dipped his finger in the blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the bottom of the altar.

10. But the fat, and the kidneys, and the caul of the liver of the sin offering, he burnt upon the altar, as the LORD commanded Moses.

11. And the flesh and the skin burnt he with fire without the camp.

12. And afterward he slew the burnt offering; and Aaron's sons brought the blood unto him, and he sprinkled it round about upon the altar.

13. And they brought the burnt offering unto him in pieces, and the head; and he burnt it upon the altar.

14. And he washed the inwards and the legs, and burnt them upon the burnt offering that was upon the altar.

15. And afterward he brought the sacrifice of the people, and took the goat, the sin offering of the people, and slew it, and made it a sin offering like unto the first.

16. And he brought the burnt offering, and did him his due.

17. And he brought the meat offering, and took his handful, and burnt it upon the altar, beside the burnt offering of the morning.

18. And afterward he slew the bullock and the ram for the peace offerings of the people. And his sons brought him the blood; and he sprinkled it round about upon the altar.

19. And the fat of the bullock, and the fat of the ram, and the tail, and the fat of the inwards, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver,

20. And they put all this fat upon the breast: and he burnt the fat upon the altar.

21. But the breast and the right shoulder Aaron waved for a wave before the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

22. And Aaron lifted up his hand unto the people, and blessed them: and when he had made the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, he came down.

23. And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out again, and blessed the people. And the glory of the LORD shone unto all the people.

24. For the fire came out from the LORD, and consumed the burnt offering and the fat upon the altar. And when all the people saw it, they rejoiced, and fell on their faces.

(Leviticus)

Chapter 10

Nadab and Abihu killed by fire.

1. And the sons of Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, took every man his bowl, and put fire therein, and put incense thereon, and brought the strange fire before the LORD, which he commanded them not.

2. And there went out a fire from the LORD, and consumed them, and they died before the LORD.

3. And Moses said unto Aaron, This is it that the LORD hath said: I will be sanctified in them that come nigh unto me, and I will be glorified in the sight of all the people. And Aaron held his peace.

4. And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel, Aaron's cousins, and said unto them: Come near, and carry your brethren out of the sanctuary before the camp.

5. And they came and carried them out with their linen skirts before the camp, as Moses had said.

6. And Moses said unto Aaron and to his sons Eleazar and Ithamar, Ye shall not bow your heads, neither rend your garments, lest ye die, and wrath come upon all the congregation. Let your brethren of all the house of Israel weep for this burning which the LORD hath done.

7. But go not out from the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, that ye die. For the anointing oil of the LORD is upon you. And they did as Moses said.

8. And the LORD spake unto Aaron, saying:

9. Thou, and thy sons with thee, shalt drink wine, and strong drink, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, that ye die not. This shall be a perpetual statute unto all your seed,

10. That ye may discern between holy and unholy, between unclean and clean, 11. And that ye teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the LORD spake unto you by Moses.

12. And Moses spake unto Aaron, and unto the remnant of his sons, Eleazar and Ithamar, saying, Take ye that remaineth of the meat offering of the LORD'S sacrifices, and eat it unleavened at the altar: for it is the most holy.

13. And ye shall eat it in the holy place: for it is thy right, and thy sons' right, in the sacrifices of the LORD: for so I am commanded.

14. But the wave breast and the heave shoulder shalt thou eat, thou, and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee, in a clean place: for such a right is given thee and thy children in the sacrifices of peace offerings of the children of Israel.

15. For the shoulder of the heave, and the breast of the wave, are brought for the sacrifices of the fat, to be waved for a wave before the LORD: therefore it is thine, and thy children's, for an everlasting statute, as the LORD hath commanded.

16. And Moses sought the goat of the sin offering, and found it burnt. And he was wroth with Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's sons, which were left, and said:

17. Why have ye not eaten the sin offering in the holy place? for it is the most holy, and he hath given it you to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make reconciliation for them before the LORD.

18. Behold, his blood is not entered into the holy place. Ye shall have eaten it in the holy place, as I am commanded.

19. And Aaron said unto Moses, Behold, this day they have offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD; and it is so with me, as thou seest: and shall I eat of the sin offering this day? Shall this please the LORD?

20. And it came to pass, when Moses heard it, that he put it to him.

(Leviticus)

Chapter 11

Of the difference between clean and unclean animals.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, and said unto them:

2. Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, These are the beasts which ye shall eat of all the beasts of the earth.

3. Every thing that divideth the hoof, and cheweth the cud among the beasts, that shall ye eat.

4. But whatsoever cheweth the cud, and hath claws, and divideth them not, as the camel, that is unclean unto you, and ye shall not eat it.

5. Rabbits chew the cud, but they divide not the hoof: therefore they are unclean.

6. The hare also cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof: therefore is he unclean unto you.

7. And a swine divideth the hoof, but cheweth not the cud: therefore it shall be unclean unto you.

8. Of this flesh shall ye not eat, neither shall ye touch their carcase: for they are unclean unto you.

9. These things shall ye eat of them that are in the waters: every thing that hath raft feathers and scales in the waters, in the sea, and in the brooks, shall ye eat.

10. And every thing that hath not the feather of a raft, and the scale of a fish, in the sea, and in the brooks, and in all that moveth in the waters, and in all that liveth in the waters, shall be a reproach unto you,

11. That ye eat not of their flesh, and shun their carcase.

12. For every thing that hath not raft feathers and scales in the waters ye shall shun.

13. And this shall ye shun among the birds, that ye eat it not: the eagle, the hawk, the fishhawk, 14. the vulture, the harrier, and that which is of his kind,

15. and all ravens with their kind,

16. the ostrich, the night owl, the cuckoo, the sparrowhawk with its kind, 17. the little owl, the swan, the hoo-hoo,

18. the bat, the bittern,

19. the stork, the heron, the heron with his kind, the hoopoe and the swallow.

20. Every thing also that moveth among the birds, and walketh upon four feet, let it be a reproach unto you.

21. But this shall ye eat of birds, which move, and walk upon four feet, and leap not upon the earth with two legs.

22. Of these ye shall eat: Arbe with his kind, and Shelaam with his kind, and Hargol with his kind, and Hagab with her kind.

23. And every one that hath four feet among the birds shall be a reproach unto you, 24. And ye shall count them unclean. He that toucheth such carcase shall be unclean until the even.

25. And whosoever shall bear one of these carcasses shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even.

26. Therefore every beast that hath hoofs, and divideth them not, neither cheweth the cud, shall be unclean unto you: whosoever toucheth it shall be unclean.

27. And every one that prayeth upon taps among the beasts that walk upon four feet shall be unclean unto you: whosoever toucheth any of their carcase shall be unclean until the even.

28. And he that beareth their carcase shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: for such are unclean unto you.

29. These also shall be unclean unto you among the beasts that creep upon the earth; the weasel, the mouse, the toad, every one with his kind;

30. the hedgehog, the newt, the lizard, the slow worm and the mole.

31. They are unclean unto you among all creatures: whosoever toucheth their carcase shall be unclean until the even.

32. And every dead carcase that falleth upon it shall be unclean, whether it be any vessel of wood, or raiment, or skin, or sackcloth: and every vessel that is made with it shall be put into the water, and shall be unclean until the even: then it shall be clean.

33. All earthen vessels, if any of these carcasses fall therein, all that is therein shall be unclean; and ye shall break it.

34. All meat that is eaten, if such water be put therein, is unclean: and all drink that is drunk, in any such vessel, is unclean.

35. And every thing upon which such a carcase falleth shall be unclean, whether it be a furnace or a caldron, it shall be broken: for it is unclean, and shall be unclean unto you.

36. But the fountains, and the wells, and the ponds, are clean. But whosoever toucheth their carcase is unclean.

37. Though such a carcase fall upon seed which is sown, yet is it clean.

38. But if water be poured upon the seed, and such a carcase fall upon it afterward, it shall be unclean unto you.

39. If any beast die which ye may eat, whosoever toucheth the carcase shall be unclean until the even.

40. Whosoever eateth of such carcase shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even. And whosoever eateth such carcase shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even.

41. That which creepeth upon the earth shall be a reproach unto you, and it shall not be eaten.

42. And every thing that creepeth upon the belly, and every thing that walketh upon four feet, or upon more than four feet, among all that creep upon the earth, shall ye not eat: for it shall be a reproach unto you.

43. Make not your soul an abomination, neither defile yourselves in them, that ye should defile yourselves.

44. For I am the LORD your God. Therefore sanctify yourselves, that ye be holy: for I am holy: and defile not your souls in any creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

45. For I am the LORD that brought you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God. Therefore ye shall be holy; for I am holy.

46. This is the law of beasts, and of fowls, and of every creeping thing that creepeth in the water, and of every beast that creepeth upon the earth,

47. That ye might discern what is unclean and what is clean, and what beast to eat, and what beast not to eat.

(Leviticus)

Chapter 12

Order of the Kindbetterinnen.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

2. Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a woman be smitten, and bring forth a kid, she shall be unclean seven days, as long as she suffereth her sickness.
3. And on the eighth day he shall circumcise the flesh of his foreskin.
4. And she shall abide in the blood of her purification thirty and three days. No holy thing shall she touch, neither shall she come into the sanctuary, until the days of her purification be ended.
5. And if she bear a damsel, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as long as she suffereth her sickness; and she shall abide sixty and six days in the blood of her cleansing.
6. And it shall come to pass, when the days of her purification are expired for the son, or for the daughter, that she shall bring a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtledove, for a sin offering, unto the priest, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.
7. He shall offer her before the LORD, and make an atonement for her; and she shall be clean from her issue of blood. This is the law for her that bringeth forth a child or a maid.
8. And if her hand be not able to take one sheep, then she shall take two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, the one for a burnt offering, and the other for a sin offering: and the priest shall make an atonement for her, and she shall be clean.

(Leviticus)

Chapter 13

Marks of leprosy on the people and clothes.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying:
 2. And if a man's flesh be sore in the skin of his flesh, or become scabrous, or white with pus, as if a leprosy were in the skin of his flesh, he shall be brought unto Aaron the priest, or unto one of his sons among the priests.
 3. And if the priest see the mark in the skin of the flesh, and the hairs be turned white, and the appearance of the place be deeper than the other skin of his flesh, it is surely leprosy.
- Therefore the priest shall examine him and pronounce him unclean.

4. And if there be any pus-white in the skin of his flesh, and the appearance be not deeper than the other skin of the flesh, and the hairs be not turned white, then the priest shall shut him up seven days.

5. And on the seventh day he looked. Is it that the mark remains as he saw it before, and has not eaten further at the skin,

6. And the priest shall shut him up again seven days. And when he shall examine him the seventh time in the seventh day, and find that the plague is gone, and that it hath not spread upon the skin, then he shall pronounce him clean: for it is scab. And he shall wash his clothes, and he shall be clean.

7. But if the scab continue to eat in the skin, after it is seen of the priest, and is pronounced clean, and is seen of the priest another time;

8. And when the priest seeth that the scab hath eaten in the skin, he shall pronounce him unclean: for it is a leprosy.

9. If there be a plague of leprosy in a man, he shall be brought unto the priest.

10. When he looketh, and findeth that white is risen in the skin, and the hair is turned white, and raw flesh is in the sore,

11. It is surely an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh. Therefore the priest shall judge him unclean, and not shut him up: for he is unclean already.

12. And if the leprosy flourish in the skin, and cover the whole skin, from the head even unto the feet, all that may be before the priest's eyes;

13. And when the priest shall examine him, and find that the leprosy hath covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce him clean, because it is all turned white in him: for he is clean.

14. But if raw flesh be there in the daytime, when it is seen, it is unclean.

15. And if the priest examine the raw flesh, he shall pronounce him unclean: for he is unclean, and leprosy is surely there.

16. And if the raw flesh turn again, and be turned white, then he shall come unto the priest.

17. And if the priest examine, and find that the plague be turned white, he shall pronounce him clean: for he is clean.

18. If a gland be in the flesh of a man's skin, and heal again,

19. after that in the same place any thing shall appear white, or reddish pus-white, it shall be seen of the priest.

20. And if the priest see that the appearance be deeper than the skin, and that the hair be turned white; then he shall pronounce him unclean: for it is a plague of leprosy that is come out of the gland.

21. And if the priest see, and find that the hair is not white, and is not deeper than the other skin, and be gone, then he shall shut him up seven days.

22. If it eat any more in the skin, then he shall judge him unclean: for it is surely a plague of leprosy.

23. But if the white of the pus remain, and eat no more, it is the scar of the gland; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

24. When a man burneth his skin by the fire, and the brand is reddish, or white, 25. And if the priest examine him, and find the hair of the brand turned white, and the appearance thereof deeper than the skin thereof; then leprosy is surely of the brand.

Therefore the priest shall pronounce him unclean: for it is a plague of leprosy.

26. And if the priest see, and find that the hair of the brand is not changed into white, and is not deeper than the other skin, and be gone with it, he shall shut him up seven days.

27. And on the seventh day he shall examine him. And if it have eaten any more of the skin, then he shall pronounce him unclean: for it is a leprosy.

28. And if it be confessed in the burn, and be not eaten up in the skin, and be gone, then it is a sore of the burn. And the priest shall judge him clean: for it is a scar of the brand.

29. When a man or woman is shamed on the head or beard,

30. And if the priest examine the plague, and find that the appearance thereof is deeper than the other skin, and that the hair thereof is golden and thin, then he shall pronounce him unclean: for it is a leprous scall of the head, or of the beard.

31. And if the priest see that the scall is not deeper than the skin, and that the hair is not corrupt, he shall shut it up seven days.

32. And when he looketh on the seventh day, and findeth that the scab hath not eaten any more, neither is there any hair of gold, neither is the appearance of the scab deeper than the skin thereof,

33. And he shall cover himself, but he shall not cover the bark. And the priest shall shut him up again seven days.

34. And if he examine him on the seventh day, and find that the scab hath not spread in the skin, and that the appearance be not deeper than the other skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean; and he shall wash his clothes, because he is clean.

35. but the grind continues to eat at the skin after it is spoken clean, 36. And if the priest examine, and find that the scab hath eaten upon the skin, he shall inquire no more whether the hair be golden: for he is unclean.

37. And if the scab stand still before the eyes, and the hair of the scab come up there, then the scab is healed, and he is clean. Therefore the priest shall pronounce him clean.

38. If a man or woman have any pus white in the skin of their flesh, 39. And the priest saw there that the white of the pus was gone out, which was a white scab in the skin, and he was clean.

40. If the hair of a man's head fall out, and he be bald, he is clean.

41. If they fall out of the front of his head, and become bald, he is clean.

42. But if there be a white or a reddish mark on his bald head, or if he be bald, then there be leprosy on his bald head, or on his bald head.

43. Therefore the priest shall examine him. If he finds a white or reddish mark on his bald head or on his bald head, he shall see it, as if it were a leprosy on the skin, 44. And he shall be a leper, and unclean: and the priest shall pronounce him unclean, because of that plague upon his head.

45. Whosoever therefore is a leper, his clothes shall be rent, and his head bare, and his lips covered with veils; and he shall be called unclean in all things: 46. And as long as the mark is upon him, he shall be unclean, dwelling alone, and his habitation shall be without the camp.

47. If a leper's garment be marked, whether it be woollen or linen, 48. in the yard or in the concord, whether it be linen or wool, or in a skin, or in anything made of skins;

49. And if the plague be pale, or reddish, in the garment, or in the skin, or in the woof, or in the woof, or in any thing made of skins, it is surely a plague of leprosy: therefore the priest shall see it.

50. And when he seeth the mark, he shall shut it up seven days.

51. And if he see on the seventh day that the plague hath eaten away at the garment, or at the woof, or at the concord, or at the skin, or at any thing that is made of skins, it is a plague of leprosy, and is unclean.

52. And he shall burn the garment, or the woof, or the concord, whether it be woollen, or linen, or any skin that hath such a plague in it: for it is a plague of leprosy: and he shall burn it with fire.

53. And the priest shall see that the plague hath not spread upon the garment, or upon the woof, or upon the concord, or upon all manner of skins,

54. And he shall command that it be washed, wherein the plague is: and he shall shut it up seven days more.

55. And if the priest shall see, after the plague is washed, that the plague is not changed in his sight, neither hath it eaten any more: it is unclean, and thou shalt burn it with fire: for it is eaten deep, and hath made it scabby.

56. And if the priest see that the plague be gone after he hath washed it, then he shall pluck it off the garment, or off the skin, or off the woof, or off the concord.

57. And if it be yet seen in the garment, or in the woof, or in the concord, or in any thing of the skin, it is a stain; and thou shalt burn it with fire, wherein is such a stain.

58. But the garment, or the woof, or the concord, or any skin that is washed, and hath the stain left upon it, let it be washed again, and it shall be clean.

59. This is the law concerning the marks of leprosy upon garments, whether they be woollen or linen, upon the woof, and upon the concord, and upon all manner of furs, to speak clean or unclean.

(Leviticus)

Chapter 14

Cleansing the leprosy.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

2. This is the law concerning the leper, when he shall be cleansed. He shall come to the priest, 3. And the priest shall come out of the camp, and see how the plague of leprosy is healed in the leper;

4. And he shall command him that is to be cleansed to take two live fowls that are clean, and cedar wood, and the wool of brass, and hyssop.

5. And he shall command that one bird be slain in an earthen vessel by running water.
6. And he shall take the living bird, and the cedar wood, and the wool of raisin, and the hyssop, and dip it in the blood of the slain bird, by the running water.
7. And sprinkle upon him that is to be cleansed from leprosy seven times; and so cleanse him, and let the living bird fly into the open field.
8. And he that is cleansed shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and bathe himself in water; and he shall be clean. After that he shall go into the camp: but he shall tarry out of his tent seven days.
9. And on the seventh day he shall shave off all the hair of his head, and of his beard, and of his eyebrows, and all his hair shall be shaven off: and he shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and he shall be clean.
10. And on the eighth day he shall take two lambs without change, and one ewe lamb of the first year without change, and three tenths of fine flour for a meat offering mingled with oil, and one log of oil.
11. And the priest shall present the same cleansed, and these things, before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.
12. And he shall take one lamb, and offer it for a trespass offering with the log oil, and shall wave it before the LORD;
13. And afterward they shall kill the lamb, when they kill the sin offering and the burnt offering, even in the holy place: for as the sin offering is, so is the trespass offering of the priest: for it is the most holy.
14. And the priest shall take of the blood of the trespass offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.
15. And afterward he shall take of the oil out of the log, and pour it into his (the priest's) left hand,
16. And he shall dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and sprinkle the oil with his finger seven times before the LORD.
17. And the rest of the oil that is in his hand shall he put upon the cartilage of the right ear of him that is cleansed, and upon his right thumb, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the blood of the trespass offering.

18. And the rest of the oil that is in his hand shall he put upon the head of him that is cleansed, and make an atonement for him before the LORD.

19. And he shall make a sin offering, and make an atonement for him that is clean for his uncleanness; and afterward he shall kill the burnt offering.

20. And he shall offer it upon the altar with the meat offering, and make an atonement for him; and he shall be clean.

21. But if he be poor, and have not so much as this in his hand, let him take a lamb for a trespass offering, to make an atonement for him; and a tithe of fine flour mingled with oil, for a meat offering, and a log of oil.

22. And two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, which he may purchase with his hand: the one shall be a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering;

23. And on the eighth day of his cleansing bring them unto the priest at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the LORD.

24. And the priest shall take the lamb for a trespass offering, and the log of oil, and shall wave it all before the LORD;

25. And he shall kill the lamb of the trespass offering, and take of the blood of the same trespass offering, and put it upon the cartilage of his right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot;

26. And pour the oil into his (the priest's) left hand.

27. And with his right finger shall he sprinkle the oil that is in his left hand seven times before the LORD.

28. And the rest of the blood that is in his hand shall he put upon the cartilage of his right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the blood of the trespass offering.

29. And the rest of the oil that is in his hand shall he put upon the head of him that is cleansed, to make an atonement for him before the LORD,

30. and afterward out of the one turtledove, or young pigeon, as his hand hath pleased to acquire, 31. One sin offering, and the other a burnt offering with the meat offering. And the priest shall make an atonement for him that is clean before the LORD.

32. Let this be the law for the leper, who cannot acquire with his hand what belongs to his cleansing.

33. And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying:

34. And it shall come to pass, when ye are come into the land of Canaan, which I will give you for a possession, that there shall be a plague of leprosy in the house of your possession, 35. And he that is of the house shall come and tell the priest, saying: It looketh upon me as if a plague were upon my house.

36. And the priest shall command them to make an end of the house, before the priest go in to see the plague, lest all that is in the house be unclean: and afterward the priest shall go in to see the house.

37. And if he look upon the plague, and find that there be yellow or reddish dimples in the wall of the house, and that the appearance thereof be deeper than the wall, 38. Then he shall go out at the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days.

39. And when he cometh again the seventh day, and seeth that the plague hath eaten upon the wall of the house,

40. And he shall break out the stones that have the mark therein, and cast them out of the city into an unclean place.

41. And the house shall be scraped round about on the inner side, and the glue that is scraped shall be cast out of the city into an unclean place.

42. And take other stones, and put them in their place, and take other glue, and cast it upon the house.

43. And it shall come to pass, when the plague is come again, and shall break out upon the house, after that the stones are taken out, and the house is cast in another way, 44. Then the priest shall go in. And when he seeth that the plague hath eaten in the house, it is surely a leprosy that eateth in the house, and is unclean.

45. Therefore they shall break down the house, both the stone and the timber, and all the glue that is upon the house, and shall bring it out of the city into an unclean place.

46. And whosoever entereth into the house while it is shut up shall be unclean until the even.

47. And whosoever lieth within, or eateth within, shall wash his clothes.

48. And if the priest, when he is come in, seeth that the plague hath not spread abroad in the house, after that the house is cast down, then he shall cleanse it: for the plague is healed.

49. And he shall take for a sin offering for the house two birds, and cedar wood, and wool of the color of rose, and hyssop.

50. And kill the one bird in an earthen vessel by running water.

51. And he shall take the cedar wood, and the wool of the color of the rose, and the hyssop, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird by the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times.

52. And he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar wood, and with hyssop, and with wool of the color of raisins.

53. And he shall let the living bird fly out of the city into the open field, and make an atonement for the house, and it shall be clean.

54. This is the law concerning all manner of leprosy and scabies: 55.

About the leprosy of the garments and the houses,

56. About the bumps, gnats and pus white,

57. That it may be known whether a thing is unclean or clean: this is the law of leprosy.

(Leviticus)

Chapter 15

Man's and woman's persons afflicted with unclean flux, how to cleanse them.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying:

2. Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them: If a man have a flow in his flesh, the same is unclean.

3. But then he is unclean by this river, if his flesh be festered or clogged by the river.

4. Every bed whereon he lieth, and every thing whereon he sitteth, shall be unclean.

5. And whosoever toucheth his bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

6. And whosoever sitteth down after he hath sat shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be until the even.

7. Whosoever toucheth his flesh shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

8. If he cast his spittle upon him that is clean, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

9. And the saddle upon which he rideth shall be unclean.

10. And whosoever toucheth any thing that is under him shall be unclean until the even. And whosoever weareth any of these things shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

11. And whomsoever he toucheth before he wash his hands, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

12. If he touch an earthen vessel, it shall be broken: but the wooden vessel shall be washed with water.

13. And if he be clean from his river, then he shall number seven days after he is clean: and he shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in running water, and be clean.

14. And on the eighth day he shall take two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and bring them before the LORD unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and give them unto the priest.

15. And the priest shall make of the one a sin offering, and of the other a burnt offering, and make an atonement for him before the LORD for his river.

16. If a man's seed escape him in his sleep, he shall bathe all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the even.

17. And the garment and all the skin that is spotted with the seed shall he wash with water, and be unclean until the even.

18. A woman with whom such a one lieth shall bathe herself in water, and be unclean until the even.

19. If a woman of her womb have a flow of blood, she shall be put away seven days: whosoever toucheth her shall be unclean until the even.

20. And all that she lieth upon, while it is her season, shall be unclean: and that she sitteth upon shall be unclean.

21. And whosoever toucheth their camp shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

22. And whosoever toucheth any thing that she hath sat upon shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

23. And whosoever toucheth any thing that is in their bed, or where they sat, or where they lied, or where they stood, shall be unclean until the even.

24. And if a man lie with her, and her time come upon him; he shall be unclean seven days; and the bed whereon he lay shall be unclean.

25. And if a woman have her issue of blood a long time, not only in her ordinary time, but also above her ordinary time, she shall be unclean all the days of her issue: as in the time of her issue, so shall she be unclean here also.

26. Every bed whereon she lieth, all the days of her flow, shall be as the bed of her separation.

And all that she sitteth upon shall be unclean, like unto the uncleanness of her separation.

27. Whosoever toucheth any thing shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

28. And if she be clean from her river, then she shall number seven days; after that she shall be clean.

29. And on the eighth day she shall take two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and bring them unto the priest unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

30. And the priest shall make one a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering, and make an atonement for them before the LORD for the river of their uncleanness.

31. Thus shall ye warn the children of Israel against their uncleanness, that they die not in their uncleanness, when they defile my tabernacle which is among you.

32. This is the law concerning him that hath a river, and the seed thereof escapeth from him in his sleep, and he is defiled thereby,

33. And over her that hath the flow of blood, and over him that hath the flow of blood, whether it be man or woman, and if a man lie with an unclean woman.

(Leviticus)

Chapter 16

Annual Atonement.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, after that the two sons of Aaron were dead, when they sacrificed before the LORD.

2. And he said, Tell Aaron thy brother, that he go not all his days into the inner sanctuary behind the vail that is before the mercy seat that is upon the ark, that he die not: for I will appear in a cloud upon the mercy seat.

3. But with these shall he go in, with a young bullock for a sin offering, and with a ram for a burnt offering.

4. And he shall put on the holy linen garment, and have linen lowcloth upon his flesh, and shall gird himself with a linen girdle, and have on his linen hat: for these are the holy garments: and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and put them on.

5. And he shall take of the congregation of the children of Israel two kids of the goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering.

6. And Aaron shall bring the bullock, his sin offering, and make an atonement for himself, and for his house;

7. And afterward take the two goats, and set them before the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8. And he shall cast lots for the two rams, one lot for the LORD, and the other lot for the kid.

9. And he shall offer the goat, upon which the LORD'S lot shall fall, for a sin offering.

10. But the goat, upon which the lot of the unborn goat shall fall, he shall present alive before the LORD, to make an atonement for him: and he shall send the unborn goat into the wilderness.

11. And he shall bring the bullock of his sin offering, and make an atonement for himself and for his house, and shall kill it.

12. And he shall take a vial of fire from off the altar that is before the LORD, and a handful of pounded incense, and put it behind the vail;

13. And put the incense upon the fire before the LORD, that the mist of the incense may cover the mercy seat, which is upon the testimony, that he die not.

14. And he shall take the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it with his finger before the mercy seat: seven times shall he sprinkle of the blood with his finger before the mercy seat.

15. And afterward he shall kill the goat, the sin offering of the people, and bring in the blood thereof behind the vail, and shall do with the blood thereof as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it before the mercy seat;

16. And he shall make an atonement for the sanctuary from the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and from their transgression in all their sins. So shall he do unto the tabernacle of the congregation: for they are unclean that are round about.

17. No man shall be in the tabernacle of the congregation, when he goeth in to make an atonement in the holy place, until he come out: and he shall make an atonement for himself, and for his house, and for all the congregation of Israel.

18. And when he goeth forth unto the altar which is before the LORD, he shall make an atonement for it, and take the blood of the bullock, and the blood of the goat, and put them round about upon the horns of the altar.

19. And he shall sprinkle of the blood thereof with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and sanctify it from the uncleanness of the children of Israel.

20. And when he hath made an atonement for the sanctuary, and for the tabernacle of the congregation, and for the altar, he shall bring the live goat.

21. Then Aaron shall lay both his hands upon his head, and confess upon him all the iniquity of the children of Israel, and all their transgression in all their sins; and he shall lay them upon the head of the goat, and cause him to run into the wilderness by a man that is present, 22. That the goat may carry all their iniquities upon him into a wilderness, and leave him in the wilderness.

23. And Aaron shall go into the tabernacle of the congregation, and put off the linen garments which he put on when he entered into the holy place, and shall leave them there.

24. And he shall bathe his flesh in water in the holy place, and put on his own garments, and go forth, and offer his burnt offering, and the burnt offering of the people, and make an atonement for himself, and for the people,

25. And burn the fat of the sin offering upon the altar.

26. And he that hath brought forth the kid shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and come into the camp.

27. And the bullock of the sin offering, and the goat of the sin offering, which is brought into the sanctuary to make an atonement for the blood thereof, shall be brought forth without the camp, and burnt with fire, both their skin, and their flesh, and their dung.

28. And he that burneth them shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and come into the camp afterward.

29. This also shall be a perpetual statute unto you: On the tenth day of the seventh month ye shall mortify your bodies, and do no work, whether it be native or alien among you.

30. For in this day is your atonement made, that ye should be cleansed; from all your sins ye are cleansed before the LORD.

31. Therefore it shall be unto you the greatest sabbath, and ye shall humble your bodies. An everlasting right be this!

32. And the priest whom he hath ordained, and whose hand he hath filled to be a priest in his father's stead, shall make reconciliation; and he shall put on the linen garments, even the holy garments.

33. And he shall make an atonement for the holy sanctuary, and for the tabernacle of the congregation, and for the altar, and for the priests, and for all the people of the congregation.

34. This shall be a statute for ever unto you, to make reconciliation for the children of Israel from all their sins once in a year: and Moses did as the LORD commanded him.

(Leviticus)

Chapter 17

Place of sacrifice determined blood forbidden to eat.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

2. Speak unto Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and say unto them: This is that the LORD hath commanded:

3. Whosoever of the house of Israel shall kill an ox, or a lamb, or a kid, in the camp, or without the camp.

4. And bringeth it not unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to be offered unto the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD: he shall be guilty of blood, as he that shed blood: and such a man shall be cut off from among his people.

5. Therefore the children of Israel shall bring their sacrifices, which they offer in the open field, unto the LORD, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest, and there shall they offer their peace offerings unto the LORD.

6. And the priest shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar of the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and burn the fat for a sweet savour unto the LORD; 7. And they shall no more offer their sacrifices unto the devils of the field, with whom they commit fornication. This shall be a perpetual statute unto them in their generations.

8. Therefore thou shalt say unto them, What man there is of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that are among you, that offereth a sacrifice or a burnt offering?

9. And bringeth it not unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, that he may do it unto the LORD: he shall be cut off from among his people.

10. And whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, that eateth any blood, against him will I set my face, and will cut him off from among his people.

11. For the life of the body is in the blood: and I have given it unto you for an altar, to make reconciliation for your souls. For the blood is the propitiation for life.

12. Therefore I said unto the children of Israel, No soul among you shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger that sojourneth among you.

13. And whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the stranger that sojourneth among you, that catcheth any beast or fowl to hunt, which is eaten, he shall shed the blood thereof, and cover it with earth.

14. For the life of the body is in his blood all the days of his life: and I said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall eat no flesh's blood. For the life of the body is in his blood. He that eateth it shall be cut off.

15. And whatsoever soul eateth a carcase, or that which is torn of the beast, whether he be a native or a stranger, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even; and he shall be clean.

16. If he wash not his clothes, nor bathe himself, he shall be guilty of his iniquity.

(Leviticus)

Chapter 18

Forbidden degrees of blood friendship in marriage.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

2. Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them: I am the LORD your God.
3. Ye shall not do after the manner of the land of Egypt, wherein ye dwelt, nor after the manner of the land of Canaan, whither I will bring you: neither shall ye do after their manner.
4. But after one righteousness shall ye do, and my statutes shall ye keep, to walk therein: for I am the LORD your God.
5. Therefore shall ye keep my statutes, and my judgments. For every man that doeth them shall live thereby: for I am the LORD.
6. Let no man put himself to his near kinswoman to bare her shame: for I am the LORD.
7. Thou shalt not put thy father's shame, nor thy mother's shame: it is thy mother, therefore shalt thou not put her shame.
8. Thou shalt not put thy father's wife to shame: for it is thy father's shame.
9. Thou shalt not put thy sister to shame, which is thy father's daughter, or thy mother's daughter, born at home, or born without.
10. Thou shalt not blush thy son's shame, nor thy daughter's shame: for it is thine own shame.
11. Thou shalt not put to shame the daughter of thy father's wife, which is born unto thy father, and is thy sister.
12. Thou shalt not put thy father's sister to shame: for she is thy father's near kinswoman.
13. Thou shalt not put thy mother's sister to shame: for she is thy mother's near kinswoman.
14. Thou shalt not put thy father's brother to shame, to take his wife: for she is thy cousin.
15. Thou shalt not bare thy cord: for it is thy son's wife: therefore thou shalt not bare her shame.
16. Thou shalt not put thy brother's wife to shame: for she is thy brother's shame.
17. Thou shalt not uncover thy wife's shame, nor her daughter's shame, nor take her son's daughter, nor her daughter's daughter, to uncover her shame: for it is her near kinswoman, and is a vice.
18. Neither shalt thou take thy wife's sister beside her, to uncover her shame, because she is yet alive.

19. Thou shalt not go unto the woman, because she hath her disease, to bare her shame in her uncleanness.
20. Neither shalt thou lie with thy neighbour's wife to pollute her, that thou mayest defile thyself with her.
21. Neither shalt thou give thy seed to be burned unto Molech, that thou profane not the name of thy God: for I am the LORD.
22. Thou shalt not lie with boys as with a woman: for it is an abomination.
23. Neither shalt thou lie with any beast, to defile thyself with it. And no woman shall lie with any beast: for it is an abomination.
24. Ye shall not defile yourselves in these things: for in all these things have the heathen defiled themselves, whom I will cast out before you,
25. And the land is polluted thereby. And I will seek their iniquity against them, and the land shall vomit out her inhabitants.
26. Therefore keep my statutes and my judgments, and do none of these abominations, neither the native nor the stranger among you;
27. For all such abominations have the people of this land done, which were before you, and have defiled the land;
28. Lest the land also spue you out, when ye defile it, as it spued out the heathen that were before you.
29. For they that do these abominations shall have their souls cut off from among their people.
30. Wherefore keep my statutes, that ye do not after the abominable customs which were before you, that ye be not defiled therewith: for I am the LORD your God.

(Leviticus)

Chapter 19

Interpretation of the ten commandments and other laws.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:
2. Speak unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, and say unto them: Ye shall be holy: for I am holy, the LORD your God.
3. Every man shall fear his mother and his father. Keep my feast days: for I am the LORD your God.
4. Ye shall not turn unto idols, neither shall ye make unto yourselves molten gods: for I am the LORD your God.
5. And if ye will offer peace offerings unto the LORD, ye shall offer such things as may please him.

6. But ye shall eat it the same day that ye offer it, and the next day: and whatsoever remaineth the third day shall be burnt with fire.
7. But if any man eat thereof the third day, he is an abomination, and shall not be accepted.
8. And the same eater shall bear his iniquity, because he hath profaned the sanctuary of the LORD: and that soul shall be cut off from among his people.
9. When thou reapest thy land, thou shalt not cut it off at the ends round about, neither shalt thou gather it all up accurately.
10. Neither shalt thou glean thy vineyard accurately, nor gather up the fallen grapes: but thou shalt leave it unto the poor and to the stranger: for I am the LORD your God.
11. Ye shall not steal, nor lie, nor deal falsely, one with another.
12. Ye shall not swear falsely by my name, nor profane the name of thy God: for I am the LORD.
13. Thou shalt not wrong thy neighbour, neither shalt thou rob him. The wages of the hired servant shall not remain with thee until the morning.
14. Thou shalt not curse the deaf. Thou shalt not offend the blind: for thou shalt fear thy God: for I am the LORD.
15. Ye shall not deal unjustly in judgment, neither shall ye prefer the lowly, nor honour the great: but thou shalt judge thy neighbour aright.
16. Thou shalt not be a slanderer among thy people. Neither shalt thou stand against thy neighbour's blood: for I am the LORD.
17. Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart; but thou shalt punish thy neighbour, that thou bear not his iniquity.
18. Thou shalt not be revengeful, nor bear wrath against the children of thy people. Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself: for I am the LORD.
19. My statutes shall ye keep, that thou suffer not thy cattle to tamper with other beasts, nor sow thy field with seed of divers kinds; neither shall any garment come upon thee mingled with wool and linen.
20. If a man lie with a woman, and put her to sleep, which is a bondmaid, and is spurned of her husband, but is not redeemed, neither hath she obtained liberty: that shall be punished; but they shall not die, because she was not free.
21. And he shall bring a ram for a trespass offering unto the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation for his trespass.

22. And the priest shall make an atonement for him with the trespass offering before the LORD for the sin which he hath committed: and God shall be gracious unto him for his sin which he hath committed.

23. When ye come into the land, and plant every tree that is eaten thereof, then ye shall circumcise the foreskin thereof, and the fruit thereof. And ye shall keep them uncircumcised three years, that ye eat them not.

24. And in the fourth year all the fruits thereof shall be holy, and glorified unto the LORD.

25. And in the fifth year ye shall eat the fruit, and gather it: for I am the LORD your God.

26. Ye shall eat nothing with blood. Ye shall not hearken unto the cry of birds, neither shall ye choose days.

27. Ye shall not cut off the hair of your head round about, neither shave off your beard.

28. Ye shall not pluck any mark upon your body for the dead, neither shall ye pluck any letter upon you: for I am the LORD.

29. Thou shalt not keep thy daughter in whoredom, lest the land commit whoredom, and be full of vice.

30. Keep my feast, and fear my sanctuary: for I am the LORD.

31. Ye shall not turn unto soothsayers, neither inquire of sorcerers of signs, lest ye be defiled in them: for I am the LORD your God.

32. Thou shalt rise up before a gray head, and honour the aged: for thou shalt fear thy God: for I am the LORD.

33. If a stranger sojourn with thee in your land, ye shall not oppress him.

34. He shall dwell with you as a native among you, and you shall love him as yourself: for ye also were strangers in the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

35. Ye shall not deal unequally in judgment with the cubit, with weight, with measure.

36. Right scales, right pounds, right bushels, right pitchers, shall be with you: for I am the LORD your God, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt,

37. That ye keep all my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them: for I am the LORD.

(Leviticus)

Chapter 20

Punishments of different sins.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:
2. Say unto the children of Israel, Whosoever he be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn in Israel, that giveth his seed unto Molech, he shall surely be put to death: the people of the land shall stone him.
3. And I will set my face against such a man, and will cut him off from among his people, because he hath given his seed to the Molech, and hath defiled my sanctuary, and profaned my holy name.
4. And where the people of the land shall see by the fingers of the man that gave his seed unto Molech, that they kill him not,
5. Then will I set my face against that man, and against his seed, and will cut him off, and all that have followed him with the Molech, from among their people.
6. And if a soul turn unto the diviners and to the interpreters of signs to follow them, then will I set my face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people.
7. Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be ye holy: for I am the LORD your God.
8. And keep my statutes, and do them: for I am the LORD that sanctifieth you.
9. Whosoever curseth his father or his mother shall surely be put to death. His blood be upon him, because he hath cursed his father or his mother.
10. Whosoever committeth adultery with any man's wife shall surely be put to death, both he that committeth adultery, and he that committeth adultery with his neighbour's wife.
11. If a man lie with his father's wife, and have uncovered his father's shame, they shall both surely be put to death. Their blood be upon them.
12. If any man sleep by his cord, they shall both be put to death: for they have committed a shame. Their blood be upon them!
13. If any man sleep with a boy, as with a woman, they have done an abomination, and shall both be put to death. Their blood be upon them!

14. If a man take a wife, and her mother with her, he hath committed a trespass: he shall be burned with fire, and they with him, that there be no trespass among you.

15. If a man lie with cattle, he shall surely be put to death; and the cattle shall be strangled.

16. And if a woman shall come near unto any beast, to have dealings with it, thou shalt kill them, and the beast also; they shall surely be put to death. Their blood shall be upon them.

17. If a man take his sister, his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter, and look upon her shame, and she upon his shame, it is an incest: they shall be cut off from among their people: for he hath uncovered his sister's shame. He shall bear his iniquity.

18. If a man lie with a woman in the time of her sickness, and uncover her shame, and uncover her fountain, and she uncover the fountain of her blood; both of them shall be cut off from among their people.

19. The shame of thy mother's sister, and the shame of thy father's sister, shalt thou not uncover: for such a one hath uncovered his near kinswoman, and they shall bear their iniquity.

20. If a man lie with his father's brother's wife, he hath disgraced his father's wife: they shall bear their sin: without children they shall die.

21. If a man take his brother's wife, it is a shameful thing: they shall be without children, because he hath blotted out his brother's shame.

22. Now therefore keep all my statutes and my judgments, and do them; lest the land whereunto I bring you to dwell should spue you out.

23. And walk not in the statutes of the heathen, which I will cast out before you. For all these things have they done, and I have abhorred them.

24. But unto you I say, Ye shall inherit that land: for I will give you a land for an inheritance, flowing with milk and honey. I am the LORD your God, which have separated you from the people,

25. That ye also separate the one cattle from the unclean, and unclean fowls from the clean; and that ye defile not your souls in cattle, and in fowls, and in all that creep upon the earth, which I have separated unto you to be unclean.

26. Therefore ye shall be holy unto me: for I the LORD am holy, which have separated you from the nations, that ye should be mine.

27. If any man or woman be a soothsayer, or an interpreter of signs, they shall surely be put to death; they shall be stoned. Their blood be upon them!

(Leviticus)

Chapter 21

How a priest should behave.

1. And the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto the priests, Aaron's sons, and say unto them: A priest shall not defile himself in any dead body of his people,
2. without his blood friend, who is nearest to him, as his mother, his father, his son, his daughter, his brother
3. And his sister, which is a virgin, and is yet with him, and hath not been a man's wife; in her may he defile himself.
4. Otherwise he shall not defile himself against any that are of his people, that he may defile himself.
5. Neither shall they make a plate upon their head, nor shave off their beard, nor put a plague upon their flesh.
6. They shall be holy unto their God, and shall not profane the name of their God. For they offer the sacrifice of the LORD, the bread of their God: therefore shall they be holy.
7. They shall not take a harlot, nor an infirm woman, nor one that is put away by her husband: for he is holy unto his God.
8. Therefore thou shalt keep him holy, because he offereth the bread of thy God: he shall be holy unto thee, because I am holy, the LORD that sanctifieth you.
9. If a priest's daughter begin to fornicate, she shall be burned with fire: for she hath defiled her father.
10. Whatsoever high priest there be of his brethren, upon whose head the anointing oil is poured, and his hand is filled to clothe him with the garments, he shall not uncover his head, neither shall he cut his garments;
11. And he shall not come unto any dead person, neither shall he defile himself against his father, nor against his mother.
12. He shall not go out of the sanctuary, lest he profane the sanctuary of his God: for the holy crown, the anointing oil of his God, is upon him. I am the LORD.
13. And he shall take a virgin to wife.

14. But he shall not take a widow, nor an outcast, nor an infirm, nor a harlot, but a virgin of his people to wife,
15. Lest he profane his seed among his people: for I am the LORD that sanctifieth him.
16. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:
17. Speak unto Aaron, saying, If there be any blemish in any of thy seed among your generations, let him not come near to offer the bread of his God.
18. For let no man in whom there is a defect come forward. Let him be blind, let him be lame, let him have a strange nose, let him have a strange limb,
19. or who is infirm in one foot or hand,
20. or is humpbacked, or has fur on his eye, or is shy, or is grindproof, or is shabby, or is broken.
21. Whosoever therefore of Aaron the priest's seed hath a defect in him, let him not come near to offer the sacrifices of the LORD: for he hath a defect, therefore let him not come near to offer the loaves of his God.
22. But he shall eat the bread of his God, both of the holy, and of the most holy.
23. But he shall not come nigh unto the vail, neither shall he come nigh unto the altar: for the fault is in him, that he profane not my sanctuary: for I am the LORD that sanctifieth it.
24. And Moses spake these things unto Aaron, and unto his sons, and unto all the children of Israel.

(Leviticus)

Chapter 22

Of the victim's nature.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:
2. Tell Aaron and his sons to abstain from the holy things of the children of Israel, which they hallow unto me, and not to profane my holy name: for I am the LORD.
3. Say therefore unto them concerning their seed: Whosoever of your seed shall come near unto the holy things, which the children of Israel sanctify unto the LORD, and shall defile himself against them, his soul shall be cut off from my face: for I am the LORD.

4. Whosoever is leprous of the seed of Aaron, or hath an issue, he shall not eat of the holy things, until he be clean. For whosoever toucheth an unclean body, or whose seed escapeth in his sleep,
5. And whosoever toucheth any thing that is unclean to him, or any man that is unclean to him, and all that defileth him:
6. Whosoever toucheth the soul of one shall be unclean until the even: he shall not eat of the holy things, but shall first bathe his body in water.
7. And when the sun is down, and he is clean, then may he eat thereof: for it is his food.
8. A carcase, and that which is torn of wild beasts, shall he not eat; lest he be defiled thereby: for I am the LORD.
9. Therefore let them keep my statutes, lest they bring sin upon themselves, and die by it, when they profane themselves: for I am the LORD that sanctifieth them.
10. No other shall eat of the holy things, neither the priest's household, nor the hireling.
11. And if the priest buy a soul for his money, he may eat of it: and whatsoever is born unto him in his house may eat of his bread.
12. And if the priest's daughter be a stranger's wife, she shall not eat of the holy heave.
13. And if she be a widow, or cast out, and have no seed, and come again to her father's house, then she shall eat of her father's bread, as when she was a maid. But no stranger shall eat thereof.
14. And whosoever eateth of the holy things shall add the fifth part unto it, and give it unto the priest with the holy things,
15. That they profane not the holy things of the children of Israel, which they set apart unto the LORD,
16. That they be not laden with iniquity and guilt, when they eat their holy things: for I am the LORD that sanctifieth them.
17. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:
18. Speak unto Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel, saying, Whatsoever Israelite or stranger that is in Israel will offer his oblation, whether it be of their vows, or of their own free will, to offer a burnt offering acceptable unto the LORD from among you, 19. This shall be a male, and without change, of cattle, or of lambs, or of kids.

20. Ye shall not sacrifice any thing that hath blemish: for it shall not be acceptable unto you.

21. And whosoever shall offer a peace offering unto the LORD, a special vow, or a freewill offering, of oxen or sheep, it shall be without change, that it may be acceptable; it shall have no blemish.

22. If it be blind, or infirm, or beaten, or scrawny, or ashen, or ashamed, ye shall not offer it unto the LORD, neither shall ye offer any sacrifice of it upon the altar of the LORD.

23. An ox or a sheep, which hath uncommon members, or changeable members, thou mayest offer of thy own free will; but it may not be acceptable for a vow.

24. Neither shalt thou offer unto the LORD any thing that is bruised, or torn, or rent, or wounded; neither shalt thou do it in your land.

25. Neither shalt thou offer any of these of the hand of a stranger beside the bread of your God: for it is not fit, neither is it wanting: therefore it shall not be acceptable unto you.

26. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

27. When an ox, or a lamb, or a goat, is born, it shall be with its mother seven days; and on the eighth day and after that it may be offered unto the LORD, and it shall be accepted.

28. Whether it be an ox or a lamb, it shall not be killed with his young in one day.

29. But if ye will offer a sacrifice of praise unto the LORD, that shall be acceptable unto you, 30. Then shall ye eat it that day, and shall keep nothing over till the morning: for I am the LORD.

31. Therefore keep my commandments, and do them: for I am the LORD.

32. That ye profane not my holy name, and that I be sanctified among the children of Israel: for I am the LORD that sanctifieth you,

33. Who brought you up out of the land of Egypt, that I might be your God, I the LORD.

(Leviticus)

Chapter 23.

Order of the noblest festivals.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

2. Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them: These are the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall call holy, and my feasts, when ye come together.
3. Six days shalt thou labour: but the seventh day is the great holy sabbath, when ye come together. No work shall ye do within: for it is the sabbath of the LORD in all your dwellings.
4. Now these are the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall call holy feasts, when ye come together: 5. On the fourteenth day of the first month between evenings is the LORD'S passover.
6. And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread unto the LORD: there ye shall eat bread unleavened seven days.
7. The first day shall be called holy among you, when ye come together: ye shall do no service there.
8. And offer unto the LORD seven days. The seventh day also shall be called holy, when ye come together; neither shall ye do any service there.
9. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:
10. Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them: When ye come into the land which I will give you, and ye shall reap it, then ye shall bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest unto the priest.
11. And the sheaf shall be woven before the LORD, that it may be acceptable unto you: and the priest shall do it on the morrow after the sabbath.
12. And ye shall offer a burnt offering unto the LORD in the day that your sheaf is woven, of a lamb that is without change, and of the first year,
13. And the meat offering, two tithes of fine flour mingled with oil, for an offering made to the LORD of a sweet savour; and the drink offering, a fourth part of an hin of wine.
14. And ye shall eat no new bread, nor sing, nor eat corn before, until the day that ye offer sacrifice unto your God. This shall be a statute unto your seed in all your dwellings.
15. And afterward ye shall count from the second day of the sabbath, when ye brought the sheaf, seven whole sabbaths;
16. Until the second day of the seventh sabbath, even fifty days, ye shall number them, and offer new meat offerings unto the LORD.

17. And ye shall offer out of all your dwellings two loaves of two tithes of fine flour, leavened and baked, for the firstfruits unto the LORD.

18. And ye shall bring beside your bread seven lambs of the first year without change, and a young bullock, and two rams. This shall be the LORD'S burnt offering, and his meat offering, and his drink offering: it is an offering of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

19. And ye shall offer one kid of the goats for a sin offering, and two lambs of the first year for a peace offering.

20. And the priest shall wave it, and the bread of the firstfruits, before the LORD, and the two lambs: and it shall be holy unto the LORD, and of the priest.

21. And ye shall proclaim this day, for it shall be called holy among you, when ye come together; ye shall do no service. A perpetual statute shall it be among your seed in all your dwellings.

22. But when ye reap your land, ye shall not cut it even in the field, neither shall ye gather it all up accurately, but ye shall leave it for the poor and for strangers. I am the LORD your God.

23. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

24. Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, In the first day of the seventh month ye shall keep the holy sabbath of blowing in remembrance, when ye come together.

25. Then ye shall do no service, and ye shall sacrifice unto the LORD.

26. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

27. The tenth day of this seventh month is the day of atonement. And it shall be called holy unto you, that ye come together, and mortify your bodies, and offer them unto the LORD.

28. And ye shall do no work in this day: for it is the day of atonement, that ye may be reconciled before the LORD your God.

29. For whosoever shall not mortify his body in that day shall be cut off from among his people.

30. And whosoever shall do any work this day, him will I destroy from among his people.

31. Therefore ye shall do no work. This shall be a perpetual statute unto your seed in all your dwellings.

32. It is your great sabbath, that ye should mortify your bodies. On the ninth day of the month, at evening, you shall keep this Sabbath from evening until evening again.

33. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

34. Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, In the fifteenth day of this seventh month is the feast of tabernacles seven days unto the LORD.

35. The first day shall be called holy, that ye come together: ye shall do no work of service.

36. Seven days ye shall sacrifice unto the LORD. The eighth day also shall be called holy, that ye should come together, and offer your sacrifice unto the LORD: for it is the day of meeting: ye shall do no work of service.

37. These are the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall keep holy, to come together, and to offer sacrifices unto the LORD, burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and drink offerings, and other sacrifices, every one according to his day,

38. Without which the sabbath of the LORD, and your gifts, and your vows, and your freewill offerings, which ye give unto the LORD.

39. Now therefore on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when ye have brought in the revenue of the land, ye shall keep the feast of the LORD seven days. On the first day it is the sabbath, and on the eighth day it is also the sabbath.

40. And ye shall take fruit of goodly trees the first day, and branches of palm trees, and may of thick trees, and pastures of brooks; and ye shall rejoice before the LORD your God seven days.

41. And ye shall keep the feast of the year unto the LORD seven days. This shall be a perpetual statute unto your seed, that they may keep the feast in the seventh month.

42. Seven days ye shall dwell in tabernacles: he that is a native of Israel shall dwell in tabernacles,

43. That your seed may know how I made the children of Israel dwell in tents, when I brought them up out of the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

44. And Moses told the children of Israel such feasts of the LORD.

(Leviticus)

Chapter 24

From the candlestick shewbread. Punishment of blasphemers and manslayers.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

2. Command the children of Israel, that they bring unto thee all the oil of the trees cast for lights, and that it be put into the lamps above every day,
3. Without the vail of the testimony in the tabernacle of the congregation. And Aaron shall prepare it before the LORD evening and morning daily. And this shall be a statute for ever unto your seed.
4. And he shall set the lamps upon the fine candlestick before the LORD daily.
5. And thou shalt take breadcrumbs, and bake twelve cakes thereof; two tithes shall be in one cake.
6. And thou shalt lay them six by six upon a bed upon a fine table before the LORD.
7. And thou shalt put upon them pure incense, that they may be for a memorial bread made by fire unto the LORD.
8. All the sabbaths for and for shall he prepare them before the LORD, of the children of Israel, for an everlasting covenant.
9. And it shall be Aaron's, and his sons', that they shall eat of them in the holy place: for this is his holy of holies of the offerings of the LORD for an everlasting statute.
10. And there went out of the children of Israel the son of an Israelitish woman, the son of an Egyptian man, and quarreled with an Israelitish man in the camp.
11. And blasphemed the name, and cursed. Then they brought him unto Moses, (but his mother's name was Selomith, a daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan,)
12. And put him in prison, until they had a clear answer at the mouth of the LORD.
13. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:
14. Bring out the curser from before the camp, and let all that heard him lay their hands upon his head, and let all the congregation stone him.
15. And say unto the children of Israel, Whosoever curseth his God, let him bear his sin.
16. Whosoever blasphemeth the name of the LORD shall surely be put to death: all the congregation shall stone him. As the stranger, so shall the native be: if he blaspheme the name, he shall die.
17. Whosoever slayeth any man shall surely be put to death.

18. And whosoever killeth any beast, he shall pay for it body for body.
19. And whosoever shall hurt his neighbour, it shall be done to him according to all that he hath done:
20. A pity for a pity, an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth: as he hath hurt a man, so shall it be done unto him again.
21. So that whosoever slayeth cattle shall pay for it: but whosoever slayeth a man shall die.
22. There shall be judgment one among you, both for the stranger and for the native: for I am the LORD your God.
23. And Moses told the children of Israel; and they brought out the curser before the camp, and stoned him. So the children of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses.

(Leviticus)

Chapter 25

Celebration and Jubilee.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses in mount Sinai, saying:
2. Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them: When ye come into the land which I will give you, then shall the land keep her feast unto the LORD,
3. That thou sow thy field six years, and prune thy vineyard six years, and gather in the fruit thereof.
4. But in the seventh year the land shall keep her great feast unto the LORD, in the which thou shalt not sow thy field, nor prune thy vineyard.
5. But that which groweth of itself after thy harvest thou shalt not reap: and the grapes which grow without thy labour thou shalt not gather, because it is a solemn year of the land.
6. But ye shall keep the feast of the land, that thou mayest eat thereof, thy manservant, thy maidservant, thy hired servant, thy household, and thy stranger that sojourneth with thee, 7. Thy cattle and the beasts of thy land. All the fruits shall be food.
8. And thou shalt number the seven solemnities, and seven years shall be numbered seven times: and the seven solemnities shall be forty and nine years.
9. Then shalt thou sound a trumpet throughout all your land in the tenth day of the seventh month, even in the day of atonement.
10. And ye shall keep holy the fiftieth year, and ye shall call it a year of restitution in the land unto all that dwell therein: for it is your year of restitution, and every man shall be restored unto his possession and to his family among you.

11. For the fiftieth year is your year of rejoicing: ye shall not sow, neither shall ye reap that which groweth of itself; neither shall ye gather that which groweth without labour in the vineyard.

12. For the year of jubilee shall be holy among you. But ye shall eat that which the field yieldeth.

13. This is the year of jubilee, when every man shall come again to his own.

14. Now therefore, if thou sell any thing unto thy neighbour, or buy any thing of him, let no man take advantage of his brother,

15. But according to the number of the year of jubilee thou shalt buy it of him: and the years that follow shall he sell unto thee.

16. According to the multitude of years thou shalt increase the purchase, and according to the fewness of years thou shalt contend for the purchase: for he shall sell it unto thee according to his bearing.

17. Now therefore let no man take advantage of his neighbour, but fear your God: for I am the LORD your God.

18. Therefore do according to my statutes, and keep my judgments, that ye may do them; that ye may dwell safely in the land.

19. For the land shall yield her fruit unto you, that ye may have enough to eat, and dwell safely therein.

20. And if thou say, What shall we eat in the seventh year? for we sow not, neither gather we in corn:

21. Then will I command my blessing upon you in the sixth year, and he shall make three years'

corn,

22. That ye sow in the eighth year, and eat of the old corn until the ninth year; that ye eat of the old, until there be new corn again.

23. Therefore ye shall not sell the land for ever: for the land is mine, and ye are strangers and sojourners before me.

24. And ye shall give the land to be redeemed in all your land.

25. If thy brother be poor, and sell thee his goods, and his neighbour come to him to redeem them, he shall redeem them that his brother hath sold.

26. But if a man have no loosener, and he be able to do so much with his hand, that he looseneth it in part,

27. And it shall be reckoned from the year that he sold it, and the rest of the years shall be restored unto the seller, that he may recover his goods.

28. And if his hand be not able to find so much as shall be restored unto him, then that which he hath sold shall be in the hand of the buyer until the year of jubilee; and in that year it shall go out, and he shall recover his possession.

29. He that selleth a house within the wall of the city shall have a whole year to redeem it; and that shall be the time wherein he may redeem it.

30. And if he redeem it not before the whole year be expired, then the buyer shall keep it for ever, and his seed, and shall not go out in the year of jubile.

31. And if it be a house in the village, and there be no wall about it, it shall be counted as the field of the land, and shall be let go, and shall go out in the year of jubile.

32. The cities of the Levites, and the houses of the cities, where their substance is, shall be redeemed for ever.

33. And whosoever shall redeem any thing of the Levites shall leave it in the year of jubile, whether it be house or city which he possessed: for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel.

34. But the field before their cities shall not be sold: for it is their possession for ever.

35. If thy brother be poor, and diminish beside thee, then thou shalt receive him as a stranger, or as a sojourner, that he may live beside thee.

36. And thou shalt not take usury of him, nor overcharge him: but thou shalt fear thy God, that thy brother may live beside thee.

37. For thou shalt not give him thy money for usury, neither shalt thou give him thy meat for ransom.

38. For I am the LORD your God, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, to be your God.

39. If thy brother be poor beside thee, and sell himself unto thee, thou shalt not suffer him to serve thee as a bondman,

40. But as a hired servant and a sojourner shall he be with thee, and shall serve thee until the year of jubile.

41. Then he shall go forth from thee, and his children with him; and he shall return unto his seed, and to his fathers' substance.

42. For they are my servants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt: therefore they shall not be sold in bondage.

43. And thou shalt not rule over them with severity, but shalt fear thy God.

44. But if thou wilt have bondmen and bondmaids, thou shalt buy them of the heathen that are round about thee,

45. Of the sojourners that are strangers among you, and of their seed which they beget among you in your land, the same shall ye have for your own.

46. And ye shall possess them, and your children after you, for a possession by and by; and ye shall make them bond servants. But over your brethren the children of Israel shall not rule one against another with severity.

47. If any stranger or sojourner increase with thee, and thy brother be poor beside him, and sell himself to the stranger or sojourner with thee, or to any of his tribe, 48. Then he shall have a right to be redeemed after he hath sold, and some one of his brethren may redeem him,

49. or his cousin, or his cousin's son, or else his next of kin of his family; or if his own hand acquire so much, he shall be loosed.

50. And he shall reckon with his buyer from the year that he sold himself unto the year of jubilee; and the money shall be reckoned according to the number of the years of his selling; and his daily wages shall be reckoned in all that time.

51. If there be yet many years before the year of jubilee, he shall give the more to be redeemed after that he is bought.

22. But if there be few years left until the year of jubilee, then he shall give again after that time for his ransom, and shall add his daily wages from year to year.

53. And thou shalt not let rigour rule over him in thine eyes.

54. And if he be not loosed in this way, then he shall go out in the year of jubile, and his children with him.

55. For the children of Israel are my servants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

Chap. 6, v. 1. Ye shall not make unto yourselves any graven image, neither shall ye set up for yourselves any pillar, nor set any graven image in your land, to worship before it: for I am the LORD your God.

2. Keep my sabbaths, and fear my sanctuary. I am the LORD.

(Leviticus)

Chapter 26

Threatened curse and promised blessing.

3. Will ye walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them, 4. Then will I give you rain in his season, and the land shall yield her increase, and the trees of the field their fruit.

5. And the threshing time shall be unto the vintage, and the vintage shall be unto the sowing time. And ye shall have bread in abundance, and shall dwell safely in your land.

6. I will give peace in your land, and ye shall sleep, and none shall affright you. I will put away the evil beasts out of your land, and no sword shall pass through your land.

7. Ye shall pursue your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword.

8. Five of you shall chase an hundred, and an hundred of you shall chase ten thousand: for your enemies shall fall before you on the sword.

9. And I will turn unto you, and will cause you to grow and multiply, and will keep my covenant with you.

10. And ye shall eat of the fire, and when the new cometh, ye shall put away the fire.

11. I will make my dwelling among you, and my soul shall not reject you.

12. And I will walk among you, and be your God; and ye shall be my people.

13. For I am the LORD your God, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt, that ye should not be their bondmen: and I have broken your yoke, and made you to walk upright.

14. But if ye will not obey me, and do all these commandments,

15. And ye shall despise my statutes, and your souls shall reject my judgments, and ye shall not do all my commandments, and ye shall forsake my covenant,

16. And I will do this also unto you: I will afflict you with terror, and with pestilence, and with fever; and your faces shall fall, and your bodies faint: ye shall sow your seed in vain, and your enemies shall devour it.

17. And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be smitten before your enemies; and they that hate you shall have dominion over you; and ye shall flee, when no man chaseth you.

18. But if ye obey me not yet above these things, I will punish you seven times more for your sin,

19. And I will break your pride and stiffneckedness; and I will make your heaven as iron, and your earth as brass.

20. And your toil and your labour shall be lost, that your land yield not her increase, and the trees of the land yield not their fruit.

21. And if ye walk contrary unto me, and will not hearken unto me, then will I make it seven times more to smite you for your sin.

22. And I will send wild beasts among you, and they shall devour your children, and rend your cattle, and make you few: and your streets shall be desolate.

23. But will ye not yet be chastened with these things, and walk contrary unto me?

24. I will also walk contrary unto you, and will smite you seven times more for your sin.

25. And I will bring upon you a sword of vengeance, to avenge my covenant. And though ye gather yourselves into your cities, yet will I send pestilence among you, and will deliver you into the hands of your enemies.

26. Then will I destroy your store of bread, and ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and your bread shall be weighed by weight; and when ye eat, ye shall not be satisfied.

27. But if by this ye will not yet obey me, and walk contrary unto me,

28. Then will I also walk contrary unto you in wrath, and will punish you seven times more for your sin,

29. That ye should eat the flesh of your sons and of your daughters.

30. And I will destroy your high places, and cut off your images; and I will cast your dead bodies upon your idols: and my soul shall be disgusted with you.

31. And I will make your cities desolate, and break down the churches of your sanctuary; and I will not smell your sweet savour.

32. So will I make the land desolate, and your enemies that dwell therein shall be astonished at it.

33. And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out the sword after you, and your land shall be desolate, and your cities desolate.

34. Then shall the land let him have his feast, while it lieth waste, and ye are in the land of the enemy: yea, then shall the land feast, and let him have his feast, 35. As long as it lay desolate, because it could not celebrate, when ye should celebrate it, when ye dwelt therein.

36. And to them that remain of you will I make a cowardly heart in the land of their enemies, and they shall chase a sounding leaf; and they shall flee from it as from a sword, and fall when no man chaseth them.

37. And ye shall fall one upon another as before the sword, and yet none shall chase them: and ye shall not rise up against your enemies.

38. And ye shall perish among the heathen, and the land of your enemies shall devour you.

39. But they that remain of you shall languish in their iniquity in the land of the enemy; they shall also languish in the iniquity of their fathers.

40. Then shall they confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, because they have sinned against me, and walked contrary unto me.

41. Therefore will I also walk contrary unto them, and will drive them out into the land of their enemies. Then their uncircumcised hearts will be humbled, and they will accept the punishment of their iniquity.

42. And I will remember my covenant with Jacob, and my covenant with Isaac, and my covenant with Abraham, and I will remember the land,

43. Which is forsaken of them, and hath suffered his feast to fall upon him, because it lieth desolate with them, and they have suffered them the punishment of their iniquity, because they have despised my judgments, and their souls have been disgusted with my statutes.

44. Though they be already in the land of the enemy, yet have I not rejected them, neither am I disgusted with them, that they should cease, and that my covenant with them should be no more: for I am the LORD their God.

45. And I will remember my first covenant against them, when I brought them up out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the heathen, that I should be their God, I the LORD.

46. These are the statutes, and judgments, and laws, which the LORD set between him and the children of Israel in mount Sinai by the hand of Moses.

(Leviticus)

Chapter 27

Of vows and tithes.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

2. Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them: If any man vow a special vow unto the LORD, that he will value his body,

3. And this shall be the estimation: A man's image, twenty years old unto the sixtieth year, shalt thou value at fifty shekels of silver after the shekel of the sanctuary; 4. a female image at thirty sekels.

5. From five years old even unto twenty years old shalt thou value him twenty shekels, if it be a man's image; but if it be a woman's image, ten shekels.

6. From one month even unto five years old shalt thou value him at five shekels of silver, if he be a man; and if he be a woman, at three shekels of silver.

7. And if he be threescore years old and above, then thou shalt value him fifteen shekels, if he be a man; and if he be a woman, ten shekels.

8. But if he be too poor for such an estimation, then he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall estimate him: and he shall estimate him according as his hand can purchase him that hath vowed.

9. But if it be cattle, which may be offered unto the LORD: All that is given unto the LORD is holy.

10. They shall not change, neither shall they change the good for the bad, or the bad for the good.

But if a man change one beast for another, they shall both be holy unto the LORD.

11. And if the beast be unclean, that it be not offered unto the LORD, then it shall be presented before the priest.

12. And the priest shall estimate it, whether it be good or bad: and it shall be in the priest's estimation.

13. But if any man will redeem it, he shall give the fifth over the valuation.

14. If a man sanctify his house to be holy unto the LORD, the priest shall esteem it good or bad: and after that the priest esteemeth it, it shall remain.

15. And if he that sanctified it will redeem it, then he shall add unto it the fifth part of the money of which it is estimated, and it shall be so.

16. If any man sanctify a piece of ground of his inheritance unto the LORD, it shall be counted according to his bearing. If he bring in a homor of barley, he shall be counted for fifty shekels of silver.

17. And if he sanctify his field from the year of jubile, it shall be counted according to his dignity.

18. And if he sanctify him after the year of jubile, then the priest shall reckon him according to the years that remain in the year of jubile, and after that he shall reckon him less; 19. And if he that sanctified it will redeem the field, he shall give the fifth part of the money of the price thereof, and it shall be his.

20. But if he will not redeem it, but sell it to another, he shall redeem it no more, 21. But the same field, when it goeth forth in the year of jubile, shall be holy unto the LORD, as an exiled field; and shall be the priest's inheritance.

22. And if a man sanctify unto the LORD a field which he hath bought, and it be not his inheritance,

23. Then the priest shall reckon him according to his worth until the year of jubilee: and he shall give such a reckoning in that day, that he may be holy unto the LORD.

24. But in the year of jubile it shall return unto him of whom he bought it, that it may be his inheritance in the land.

25. All dignity shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary. And one shekel is twenty gerahs.

26. The firstborn of cattle, which is the LORD's, shall no man sanctify unto the LORD, whether it be an ox or a sheep: for it is the LORD's.

27. And if there be any unclean thing in the beast, then he shall redeem it according to his dignity, and pass over the fifth part. If he will not redeem it, let him sell it according to his dignity.

28. No man shall sell, nor redeem, any thing that is bidden unto the LORD, of all that is his, whether it be cattle or herdsmen: for all that is bidden is most holy unto the LORD.

29. Neither shall any man that is banished be loosed, but he shall die the death.

30. All the tithes of the land, both of the seed of the land, and of the fruit of the trees, are the LORD'S, and shall be holy unto the LORD.

31. But if any man will loose his tithes, he shall give the fifth over.

32. And all the tithes of oxen and sheep, and that which goeth under the rod, are a holy tithe unto the LORD.

33. Neither shall it be asked whether it be good or bad; neither shall it be changed. But if any man change it, both shall be holy, and shall not be redeemed.

34. These are the commandments which the LORD commanded the children of Israel in mount Sinai.

Text of the unrevised Luther Bible 1545:

DeepL English Translation

[Processed by BackToLuther. German text published here.]

The fourth book of Moses (Numbers) ^

Chapter 1

Number of contending men in Israel.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the tabernacle of the congregation, in the first day of the second month of the second year, when they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying:

2. Take the sum of all the congregation of the children of Israel after their families, and after their fathers' houses, and after their names: all that are male, from head to head; 3. From twenty years old and upward, all that are able to go forth to war in Israel: and thou shalt number them according to their armies, thou and Aaron.

4. And ye shall take unto you one captain of the family for his father's house.

5. And these are the names of the captains that shall stand by you: Of Reuben be Elizur the son of Setreur.

6. Of Simeon be Selumiel the son of Zuri-saddai.

7. Of Judah shall Nahesson the son of Amminadab be.

8. Of Issachar, Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

9. Of Zebulun be Eliab the son of Helon.
10. Of the sons of Joseph; Of Ephraim, Elishama the son of Ammihud.
Of Manasseh, Gamliel the son of Pedazur.
11. Of Benjamin, Abidan the son of Gideoni.
12. Of Dan, Ahiezer the son of Ammi-saddai.
13. Of Asher, Pagiel the son of Ochran.
14. Of Gad, Eliasaph the son of Deuel.
15. Of Naphtali be Ahira the son of Enan.
16. These are the chief of the congregation, the captains of the tribes of their fathers, which were heads and princes in Israel.
17. And Moses and Aaron took them, as they are called by name,
18. And they gathered all the congregation together on the first day of the second month, and numbered them according to their birth, and according to their families, and their fathers' houses, and their names, from twenty years old and upward, from head to head, 19. As the LORD commanded Moses, and numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.
20. The children of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel, by their birth, by their families, by their fathers' houses, and by their names, from head to head, all the males from twenty years old and upward, that were able to go forth to war,
21. Numbered of the tribe of Reuben were forty and six thousand and five hundred.
22. Of the sons of Simeon, by their birth, by their generations, by the house of their fathers, by their number, and by their names, from head to head, all the males from twenty years old and upward, that were able to go forth to war,
23. Numbered of the tribe of Simeon were fifty and nine thousand and three hundred.
24. The children of Gad, by their birth, by their generations, by their fathers' houses, and by their names, from twenty years old and upward, that were fit to go forth to war, 25. Forty and five thousand six hundred and fifty were numbered of the tribe of Gad.
26. The children of Judah, by their birth, by their generations, by the house of their fathers, and by their names, from twenty years old and upward, that were able to go forth to war, 27. There were numbered of the tribe of Judah seventy and four thousand and six hundred.

28. The children of Issachar, by their birth, by their families, by their fathers' houses, and by their names, from twenty years old and upward, that were fit to go forth to war, 29. And were numbered of the tribe of Issachar fifty and four thousand and four hundred.

30. The sons of Zebulun, by their birth, by their generations, by their fathers' houses, and by their names, from twenty years old and upward, that were fit to go forth to war, 31. Numbered of the tribe of Sebulon were fifty and seven thousand and four hundred.

32. The sons of Joseph of Ephraim, by their birth, by their families, by their fathers' houses, and by their names, from twenty years old and upward, that were fit to go forth to war, 33. And there were numbered of the tribe of Ephraim forty thousand and five hundred.

34. The children of Manasseh, by their birth, by their families, by their fathers' houses, and by their names, from twenty years old and upward, that were fit to go forth into the army, 35. And were numbered of the tribe of Manasseh thirty and two thousand and two hundred.

36. The children of Benjamin, by their birth, by their generations, by their fathers' houses, and by their names, from twenty years old and upward, that were fit to go forth to war, 37. Numbered of the tribe of Benjamin were thirty and five thousand and four hundred.

38. The children of Dan, according to their birth, their generations, their fathers' houses, and their names, from twenty years old and upward, that were fit to go forth to war, 39. Numbered of the tribe of Dan were threescore and two thousand and seven hundred.

40. The children of Asher, by their birth, by their generations, by their fathers' houses, and by their names, from twenty years old and upward, that were fit to go forth to war, 41. And there were numbered of the tribe of Asher forty and one thousand and five hundred.

42. The children of Naphtali, by their birth, by their generations, by their fathers' houses, and by their names, from twenty years old and upward, that were fit to go forth to war, 43. Numbered of the tribe of Naphtali were fifty and three thousand and four hundred.

44. These are they which Moses and Aaron numbered, with the twelve princes of Israel, of whom one was over the house of their fathers.

45. And the sum of the children of Israel after their fathers' houses, from twenty years old and upward, which were fit to go into the army in Israel,
46. Whose was six times an hundred thousand, and three thousand five hundred and fifty.
47. But the Levites, after the house of their fathers, were not numbered among them.
48. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:
49. The tribe of Levi shalt thou not number, nor take the sum of them among the children of Israel,
50. But thou shalt set them by the tabernacle of the testimony, and by all the vessels, and by all that pertain unto them. And they shall bear the tabernacle, and all the vessels; and they shall keep it, and pitch round about the tabernacle.
51. And when it is to go, the Levites shall take down the tabernacle. And when the host is encamped, they shall pitch the tabernacle. And if a stranger make himself a stranger, he shall die.
52. And the children of Israel shall pitch every man in his camp, and with the band of his host.
53. But the Levites shall encamp round about the tabernacle of the testimony, lest wrath come upon the congregation of the children of Israel: therefore the Levites of the guard shall wait at the tabernacle of the testimony.
54. And the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses.

(Numbers)

Chapter 2

Order of the camps among the people of Israel.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying:
2. And the children of Israel shall encamp before the tabernacle of the congregation round about, every man under his banner, and under his mark, according to the house of their fathers.
3. And it shall come to pass in the morning, that Judah shall encamp with her armour and her host; and Naheshon the son of Amminadab shall be their captain;
4. And the host thereof in the sum of seventy and four thousand and six hundred.

5. And the tribe of Issachar shall encamp beside him; and Nethaneel the son of Zuar shall be their captain;

6. And his host of the sum of fifty and four thousand and four hundred.

7. And the tribe of Zebulun; Eliab the son of Helon was their captain; 8. His host of the sum of fifty and seven thousand and four hundred.

9. And all that are numbered of the camp of Judah shall be an hundred and fourscore and six thousand, and four hundred that are numbered of their host: and they shall go forth in the front.

10. And about noon shall lie the tent and panoply of Reuben with their host; their captain Elizur the son of Setreur;

11. And his host, by the sum of them, forty and six thousand and five hundred.

12. And next unto him shall encamp the tribe of Simeon: Selumiel the son of Zuri-saddai shall be their captain;

13. And the host thereof in the sum of fifty and nine thousand three hundred.

14. And the tribe of Gad; Eliasaph the son of Reguel was their captain;

15. And the host thereof in the sum of forty and five thousand six hundred and fifty.

16. And all that are in the camp of Reuben shall be an hundred and fifty and one thousand and four hundred and fifty, which are of their host: and the rest shall be in the going forth.

17. And afterward the tabernacle of the congregation shall go with the camp of the Levites in the midst of the camps: and as they encamp, so shall they go, every man in his place, under his banner.

18. And it shall come to pass at even, that the tent and the tabernacle of Ephraim shall lie with their host: and Elishama the son of Ammihud shall be their captain; 19. And his host by the sum of forty thousand and five hundred.

20. And next unto him shall encamp the tribe of Manasseh; Gamliel the son of Pedezur shall be their captain;

21. His host of the sum of thirty and two thousand and two hundred.

22. And the tribe of Benjamin; Abidan the son of Gideoni, their captain;

23. And his host was thirty and five thousand and four hundred.

24. And all that are numbered of the camp of Ephraim shall be an hundred and eight thousand and one hundred, which are of his host: and they shall be the third in going forth.

25. And it shall come to pass at midnight, that the tent and the tabernacle of Dan shall lie with their host; and Ahiezer the son of Ammi-saddai shall be their captain; 26. His host, the sum of them, threescore and two thousand and seven hundred.
27. And next unto him shall encamp the tribe of Asher; and their captain shall be Pagel the son of Ochran;
28. His army, by the sum of forty and one thousand and five hundred.
29. And the tribe of Naphtali; Ahira the son of Enan, their captain; 30. And his host of the sum of fifty and three thousand and four hundred.
31. And all that are numbered of the camp of Dan shall be an hundred fifty and seven thousand and six hundred: and they shall be the last to come forth with their garments.
32. This is the sum of the children of Israel, according to their fathers' houses, and according to their camps, with their armies, six hundred thousand and three thousand five hundred and fifty.
33. But the Levites were not numbered in the sum of the children of Israel, as the LORD commanded Moses.
34. And the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, and encamped under their coats, and went forth every man after his kindred after the house of their fathers.

(Numbers)

Chapter 3

Counting of the Levites and their office. The ransom of the firstborn.

1. This is the generation of Aaron and Moses, in the days when the LORD spake unto Moses in mount Sinai.
2. And these are the names of the sons of Aaron: Nadab the firstborn, and after him Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.
3. These are the names of the sons of Aaron, which were anointed priests, and had their hands filled for the priesthood.
4. But Nadab and Abihu died before the LORD, when they offered strange fire before the LORD in the wilderness of Sinai; and they had no sons. And Eleazar and Ithamar kept the priest's office under Aaron their father.
5. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

6. Bring the tribe of Levi, and set them before Aaron the priest, to minister unto him.

7. And his guard, and the guard of all the congregation, shall wait before the tabernacle of the congregation, and minister in the service of the tabernacle;

8. And wait all the vessels of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the children of Israel, to minister in the service of the tabernacle.

9. And thou shalt assign the Levites unto Aaron and to his sons for a present from the children of Israel.

10. And Aaron and his sons shalt thou set to keep their priesthood. Wherever a stranger comes, he shall die.

11. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

12. Behold, I have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel for all the firstborn that break the mother among the children of Israel: so the Levites shall be mine.

13. For the firstborn are mine, from the time that I smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt; and I sanctified unto myself all the firstborn in Israel, from man to beast, that they should be mine, I the LORD.

14. And the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying:

15. Number the sons of Levi according to their fathers' houses, and according to their families, every male of a month old and upward.

16. So Moses numbered them according to the word of the LORD, as he commanded.

17. And these were the sons of Levi by name: Gerson, Kahath, Merari.

18. And the names of the sons of Gershon in their generations were: Libni and Shimei.

19. And the sons of Kohath in their generations were: Amram, Jezehar, Hebron and Uzziel.

20. The children of Merari in their generations were: Maheli and Musi. These are the families of Levi after the house of their fathers.

21. These are the families of Gershon: the Libnites and the Simites.

22. The sum of the number of them was seven thousand and five hundred, every male of a month old and upward.

23. And the same family of the Gershonites shall pitch behind the tabernacle toward the west.

24. Let Eliasaph the son of Lael be their chief.

25. And they shall wait upon the tabernacle of the congregation, even upon the tabernacle, and upon the tabernacle, and upon the covering thereof, and upon the covering of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation,

26. And the covering of the court, and the covering of the door of the court, which is about the tabernacle, and about the altar, and the cords thereof, and all that pertaineth unto the service thereof.

27. These are the families of Kohath: the Amramites, the Jezeharites, the Hebronites, and the Usielites,

28. And the males, of the age of one month and upward, numbering eight thousand and six hundred, that waited on the guard of the sanctuary.

29. And they shall pitch by the side of the tabernacle toward the south.

30. And let their chief be Elizaphan the son of Uzziel.

31. And they shall keep the ark, and the table, and the candlestick, and the altar, and all the vessels of the sanctuary, whereon they minister, and the cloth, and all that pertaineth unto the service thereof.

32. But the chief of all the chief of the Levites shall be Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest over them that are appointed to keep the charge of the sanctuary.

33. These are the families of Merari: the Mahelites and the Musites, 34. Which were in number six thousand and two hundred, every male of the age of a month and upward.

35. And Zuriel the son of Abihail shall be their captain. And they shall pitch by the side of the tabernacle northward.

36. And their charge shall be to keep the boards, and the bars, and the pillars, and the feet of the tabernacle, and all the vessels thereof, and all the service thereof, 37. And the pillars round about the court with the feet, and the nails, and the cords.

38. And before the tabernacle, and before the tent of the congregation toward the east, Moses, and Aaron, and his sons, shall encamp, to keep the sanctuary, and the children of Israel. And if a stranger come hither, he shall die,

39. All the Levites that were numbered of Moses and Aaron by their families, according to the word of the LORD, even all the males, of the age of one month and upward, were twenty and two thousand.

40. And the LORD said unto Moses, Number every firstborn male of the children of Israel, from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names.

41. And thou shalt set apart the Levites unto me the LORD for all the firstborn of the children of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites for all the firstborn of the cattle of the children of Israel, 42. And Moses numbered all the firstborn of the children of Israel, as the LORD commanded him;

43. And the number of the names of all the firstborn that were male, of the age of one month and upward, was found in the sum of them twenty and two thousand two hundred and threescore and three.

44. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

45. Take the Levites for all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites for their cattle; that the Levites may be mine, the LORD'S.

46. But the ransom of the two hundred and seventy and three overlength firstborn of the children of Israel above the Levites' number

47. You shall take five shekels from head to head, according to the shekel of the sanctuary (twenty gerahs is a shekel),

48. And thou shalt give the same money that is above their number unto Aaron and to his sons.

49. And Moses took the ransom, which was above the number of the Levites, 50. Of the firstborn of the children of Israel, a thousand three hundred and threescore and five shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, 51. And gave it unto Aaron and to his sons according to the word of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

(Numbers)

Chapter 4

Special office administration and number of Levites.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying:
2. Take the summa of the sons of Kohath out of the sons of Levi, according to their families, and according to their fathers' houses,

3. From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, all that are fit for the army, to do the work of the tabernacle of the congregation.
4. And this shall be the service of the children of Kohath in the tabernacle of the congregation, which is the most holy:
5. And it shall come to pass, when the host is come up, that Aaron and his sons shall go in, and take down the vail, and wrap the ark of the testimony in it;
6. and on it do the blanket of badger skins and on top of it spread a whole yellow dekke and put its rods to it;
7. And over the show-table also spread a yellow cover, and put therein the bowls, and the spoons, and the basons, and the pitchers, to pour out, and to pour in. And the daily bread shall lie therewith.
8. And they shall spread over it a covering of scarlet, and cover it with a covering of badgers' skins, and put his staves thereon.
9. And they shall take a yellow cover, and wrap therein the candlestick of light, and the lamps thereof, with their snuffers, and their cups, and all the vessels of oil that pertain unto the ministry.
10. And they shall put a covering of badgers' skins about all these, and put them upon staves.
11. And they shall spread a yellow covering over the golden altar, and cover it with a covering of badgers' skins, and put the staves thereof.
12. And they shall take all the vessels that they make in the sanctuary, and put yellow coverings over them, and cover them with a covering of badgers' skins, and put them upon poles.
13. They shall also sweep the ashes from off the altar, and spread a scarlet covering over them, 14. And they shall put all his vessels thereon, to set them upon it: And they shall spread over it a covering of badgers' skins, and put his staves thereon.
15. And it shall come to pass, when Aaron and his sons have made an end, and have covered the sanctuary, and all the vessels thereof, when the host riseth up, that the children of Kohath shall go in to bear it, and shall not touch the sanctuary, lest they die. These are the burdens of the children of Kohath upon the tabernacle of the congregation.
16. And Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall have the charge of the oil for light, and of the spices for incense, and of the continual meat offering, and of the anointing oil; and he shall appoint all the tabernacle, and all that is therein, in the sanctuary, and in the vessels thereof.

17. And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying:

18. Ye shall not suffer the tribe of the tribe of the Kohathites to perish among the Levites; 19. But this shall ye do unto them, that they live, and die not, where they touch the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in, and set every man his charge and his burden.

20. And they shall not go in to see the sanctuary uncovered, lest they die.

21. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

22. Take the summa of the children of Gershon also according to their fathers' house, and. Sex, 23. From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, and ordain them all that are able for the host, that they may minister in the tabernacle of the congregation.

24. And this shall be the office of the family of the Gershonites, to create and to bear: 25. And they shall bear the carpets of the tabernacle, and of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the covering thereof, and the covering of badgers' skins that is above, and the covering of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

26. And the cloaks of the court, and the covering of the door of the gate of the court, which is round about the tabernacle and the altar, and their cords, and all the vessels of their service, and all that pertaineth unto their service.

27. According to the word of Aaron and his sons shall all the service of the children of Gershon be, all that they shall bear, and all that they shall do: and ye shall see that they bear all their burden.

28. This shall be the service of the family of the children of the Gershonites in the tabernacle of the congregation: and their guard shall be under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

29. The children of Meran also shalt thou set in order according to their families and their fathers,

30. From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, all that are fit for the army, to minister in the tabernacle of the congregation.

31. And upon this burden shall they wait after all their service in the tabernacle of the congregation, to bear the boards of the tabernacle, and the bars, and the pillars, and the feet, 32. And the pillars of the court round about, and the feet, and the nails, and the cords, with all the instruments thereof, according to all their service: every man shall ye appoint to keep his part of the burden of the instruments.

33. This is the service of the families of the children of Meran, all that they shall make in the tabernacle of the congregation under the hand of Ithamar the priest, Aaron's son.

34. And Moses and Aaron, and the captains of the congregation, numbered the children of the Kohathites according to their families, and according to their fathers' houses, 35. From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, all that were fit for the army to minister in the tabernacle of the congregation.

36. And the sum was two thousand seven hundred and fifty:

37. This is the sum of the families of the Kohathites, all of whom were in the tabernacle of the congregation, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the word of the LORD by Moses.

38. And the sons of Gershon were numbered in their families, and in their fathers' houses, 39. From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, all that were fit for the army, to minister in the tabernacle of the congregation.

40. And the sum was two thousand six hundred and thirty.

41. This is the sum of the families of the children of Gershon, all of whom were in the tabernacle of the congregation, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the word of the LORD.

42. And the children of Meran were numbered according to their families, and according to their fathers' houses,

43. From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, all that were fit for the army, to minister in the tabernacle of the congregation.

44. And the sum was three thousand and two hundred.

45. This is the sum of the families of the children of Meran, which Moses and Aaron numbered according to the word of the LORD by Moses.

46. The sum of all the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the captains of Israel numbered according to their families and their fathers' houses,

47. From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, all that came in to work, every man his office, and to bear the burden of the tabernacle of the congregation, 48. Was eight thousand five hundred and eighty,

49. Who were numbered according to the word of the LORD by Moses, every man according to his service, and according to his burden, as the LORD commanded Moses.

(Numbers)

Chapter 5

Purification of the camp. Atonement and sacrifice of zeal.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

2. Command the children of Israel, that they put out of the camp every leper, and every one that hath the issue of pus, and that is defiled in the dead.

3. Both man and wife shall put them out of the camp, that they defile not their camps, where I dwell among them.

4. And the children of Israel did so, and brought them forth without the camp, as the LORD spake unto Moses.

5. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

6. Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them: If a man or woman commit any sin against a man, and sin against the LORD, the soul hath iniquity upon it;

7. And they shall confess their sin which they have committed, and shall make reconciliation for their trespass with the principal sum, and shall add unto it the fifth part, and give it unto him for whom they trespassed.

8. And if there be none to whom it be paid, then it shall be given unto the LORD for the priest over the ram of atonement, to make an atonement for him.

9. Likewise shall all the heave of all that the children of Israel sanctify and offer unto the priest be.

10. And whoso sanctifieth any thing shall be his: and whoso giveth any thing to the priest shall be his:

11. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

12. Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them: If any man's wife shall go astray, and sin against him,

13. And if any man put her to sleep in the flesh, and it were hid from the man's eyes, and it were hid that she was defiled, he cannot persuade her, because she is not comprehended within, 14. And the spirit of jealousy kindleth him to be jealous for his wife, whether she be unclean, or whether she be not unclean:

15. Then he shall bring them unto the priest, and offer a sacrifice over them, the tenth of an ephah of barley flour; and he shall not pour oil upon it, neither put incense thereon. For it is a sacrifice of jealousy, and an offering for iniquity.

16. Then shall the priest bring them, and set them before the LORD, 17. And take the holy water in an earthen vessel, and put dust from the floor of the tabernacle into the water,

18. And he shall set the woman before the LORD, and uncover her head, and put the trespass offering, which is a sacrifice of jealousy, upon her hand. And the priest shall have bitter accursed water in his hand;

19. And he shall adjure the woman, and say unto her, If no man have laid thee to sleep, and if thou hast not gone astray from thy husband, to defile thyself, these bitter cursed waters shall not hurt thee.

20. But where thou hast gone astray from thy husband, that thou art unclean, and any man hath slept with thee beside thy husband,

21. Then the priest shall adjure the woman with such a curse, and shall say unto her, The LORD make thee a curse and an oath among thy people, that the LORD may make thy thigh to fail, and thy belly to swell.

22. Now therefore let the accursed water enter into thy womb, that thy belly may swell, and thy thigh faint. And the woman shall say, Amen, amen.

23. So the priest shall write these curses upon a piece of paper, and wash them away with bitter water;

24. And he shall give the woman to drink of the bitter accursed water. And when the accursed bitter water is gone into her,

25. And the priest shall take of their hand the jealousy offering, and shall wave it for a meat offering before the LORD, and offer it upon the altar, even it:

26. And he shall take an handful of the meat offering for her sin offering, and burn it upon the altar, and afterward he shall give the woman water to drink.

27. And when she hath drunk the water, if she be unclean, and have sinned against her husband, then the accursed water shall enter into her, and be bitter unto her, and her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall fail: and the woman shall be a curse among her people.

28. But if such a woman be not defiled, but clean, it shall not hurt her to conceive.

29. This is the law of zeal, when a woman departeth from her husband, and is defiled, 10. Or if a man's zeal be kindled, and he be jealous for his wife, to set her before the LORD: and the priest shall do all things unto her according to this law.

31. And the man shall be innocent of iniquity: but the woman shall bear her iniquity.

(Numbers)

Chapter 6

Law of the Nazarene or betrothed. Form to bless the people.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

2. Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them: If any man or woman vow a special vow unto the LORD, to abstain,

3. He shall abstain from wine, and from strong drink; neither shall he drink wine vinegar, or strong drink vinegar; neither shall he drink any thing made of grapes; neither shall he eat fresh grapes, nor dry grapes,

4. So long as his vow continueth: neither shall he eat any thing that is made of the vine, neither kernels nor husks.

5. While the time of his vow continueth, there shall no razor pass over his head, until the time be expired which he hath vowed unto the LORD: for he is holy, and shall let the hair of his head grow free.

6. All the time that he hath vowed unto the LORD, he shall not go unto any dead person.

7. Neither shall he defile himself in the death of his father, or of his mother, or of his brother, or of his sister: for the vow of his God is upon his head.

8. And all the time of his vow he shall be holy unto the LORD.

9. And if any man die suddenly before him, the head of his vow is defiled: therefore he shall give his head in vain in the day of his cleansing, that is, on the seventh day.

10. And on the eighth day he shall bring two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, unto the priest, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

11. And the priest shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, and make an atonement for him that sinneth against a dead person, and shall sanctify his head that day,

12. To keep the time of his vow unto the LORD. And he shall bring a lamb of the first year for a trespass offering. But the former days shall be for nought, because his vow is defiled.

13. This is the law of the betrothed: when the time of his vow is expired, he shall be brought unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

14. And he shall bring his offering unto the LORD, a lamb of the first year without change for a burnt offering, and a sheep of the first year without change for a sin offering, and a ram without change for a peace offering.

15. And a basket of unleavened cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, and unleavened cakes spread with oil, and their meat offering and their drink offering.

16. And the priest shall bring it before the LORD, and shall make his sin offering and his burnt offering.

17. And he shall offer the ram for a peace offering unto the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread; and he shall offer his meat offering and his drink offering.

18. And he shall give the head of his vow unto his betrothed at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and he shall take the head of his vow, and cast it upon the fire that is under the sacrifice of peace offerings.

19. And he shall take the boiled kid of the ram, and an unleavened cake out of the basket, and an unleavened cake, and put it upon his hands, after he hath shorn his vows, 20. And he shall weave it before the LORD. This is holy unto the priest, and to the priest's breast, and to the priest's shoulder. After that the betrothed may drink wine.

21. This is the law of the betrothed, who voweth his offering unto the LORD by reason of his vow, beside what he is able; as he hath vowed, so shall he do according to the law of his vow.

22. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

23. Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, saying, Thus shall ye say unto the children of Israel, when ye bless them:

24. May the Lord bless you and keep you.

25. The LORD make his face to shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee.

26. The LORD lift up his countenance upon thee, and peace be unto thee.

27. For ye shall put my name upon the children of Israel, that I may bless them.

(Numbers)

Chapter 7

Sacrifices and gifts of the princes for the dedication of the tabernacle.

1. And when Moses had set up the tabernacle, he anointed it, and sanctified it with all the vessels thereof, and anointed and sanctified the altar with all the vessels thereof, 2. Then the princes of Israel, which were heads of the houses of their fathers, offered sacrifices: for they were chief among the tribes, and were chief among them that were numbered.

3. And they brought their sacrifices before the LORD, six covered chariots, and twelve oxen, a chariot for every two princes, and an ox for every one: and they brought them before the tabernacle.

4. And the LORD said unto Moses:

5. Take it of them, that it may minister in the tabernacle of the congregation, and give it unto the Levites, every man according to his service.

6: And Moses took the chariots and the oxen, and gave them unto the Levites.

7. Two chariots and four oxen gave he to the children of Gershon according to their service.

8. And four chariots and eight oxen gave he to the children of Meran according to their service, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

9. But unto the children of Kohath he gave nothing: because they had a holy charge upon them, and they bare it upon their shoulders.

10. And the princes offered for the dedication of the altar in the day that it was dedicated, and offered their gifts before the altar.

11. And the LORD said unto Moses, Let every prince bring his offering in his day for the dedication of the altar.

12. On the first day Nahesson the son of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah, offered his offering.

13. And his offering was a silver bowl, the value of an hundred and thirty shekels, and a silver dish, the value of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil, for a meat offering;

14. And a spoon of gold, worth ten shekels of gold, full of incense, 15. A bullock of the oxen, and a ram, and a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering, 16. A male goat for a sin offering,

17. And for a peace offering two oxen, and five rams, and five kids of the goats, and five lambs of the first year. This is the offering of Naheshon son of Amminadab.

18. And the next day Nethaneel the son of Zuar, the prince of Issachar, offered sacrifice.

19. His offering was a silver bowl, the value of an hundred and thirty shekels, and a silver bowl, the value of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both full of fine flour mingled with oil, for a meat offering;

20. And a spoon of gold, worth ten shekels of gold, full of incense, 21. A fair one of the oxen, a ram, a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering, 22. A kid of the goats for a sin offering.

23. And for a peace offering two oxen, and five rams, and five kids of the goats, and five lambs of the first year. This is the offering of Nethaneel son of Zuar.

24. And the third day the prince of the children of Zebulun, Eliab the son of Helon.

25. His offering was a silver bowl, the value of an hundred and thirty shekels, and a silver bowl, the value of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both full of fine flour mingled with oil, for a meat offering,

26. A golden spoon, worth ten shekels of gold, full of incense, 27. A bullock out of the oxen, a ram; a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering, 28. a male goat for a sin offering

29. And for a peace offering two oxen, and five rams, and five kids of the goats, and five lambs of the first year. This is the offering of Eliab son of Helon.

30. On the fourth day the prince of the children of rest, Elizur the son of Setur.

31. And his offering was a silver bowl, the value of an hundred and thirty shekels, and a silver dish, the value of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil, for a meat offering,

32. A golden spoon, worth ten shekels of gold, full of incense,

33. A fair one of the oxen, a ram, a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering, 34. a male goat for a sin offering

35. And for a peace offering two oxen, and five rams, and five rams, and five lambs of the first year. This is the offering of Elisher the son of Shedeur.

36. And on the fifth day the prince of the children of Simeon, Selumiel the son of Zuri-saddai.

37. His offering was a silver bowl, worth an hundred and thirty shekels, and a silver bowl, worth seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both full of fine flour mingled with oil, for a meat offering,

38. A golden spoon, worth ten shekels of gold, full of incense,

39. A bullock with the oxen, and a ram, and a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering, 40. A male goat for a sin offering.

41. And for a fellowship offering two oxen, five rams, five rams, and five lambs of the first year.

This is the offering of Selumiel son of Zuri-saddai.

42. On the sixth day the prince of the children of Gad, Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

43. His offering was a silver bowl, worth an hundred and thirty shekels, and a silver bowl, worth seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both full of fine flour mingled with oil, for a meat offering,

44. A golden spoon, worth ten shekels of gold, full of incense,

45. A bullock of the oxen, a ram, a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering, 46. A kid of the goats for a sin offering.

47. And for a peace offering two oxen, five rams, five kids of the goats, lambs five years old.

This is the offering of Eliasaph son of Deguel.

48. On the seventh day the prince of the children of Ephraim, Elishama the son of Ammihud.

49. And his offering was a silver bowl, the value of an hundred and thirty shekels, and a silver bowl, the value of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil, for a meat offering,

50. A golden spoon, worth ten shekels of gold, full of incense,

51.. A bullock of the oxen, a ram, a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering, 52. a male goat for a sin offering

53. And for a fellowship offering, two oxen, five rams, five rams, five lambs. This is the offering of Elishama son of Ammihud.

54. And on the eighth day the prince of the children of Manasseh, Gamliel the son of Pedazur.

55. His offering was a silver bowl, worth an hundred and thirty shekels, and a silver bowl, worth seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil, for a meat offering,

56. A golden spoon, worth ten shekels of gold, full of incense,

57. A fair one of the oxen, a ram, a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering, 58. a he-goat for a sin offering

59. And for a fellowship offering, two oxen, five rams, five rams, lambs five years old. This is the offering of Gamliel son of Pedazur.

60. On the ninth day the prince of the children of Benjamin, Abidan the son of Gideoni.

61. His offering was a silver bowl, the value of an hundred and thirty shekels, and a silver bowl, the value of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both full of fine flour mingled with oil, for a meat offering,

62. a golden spoon, worth ten shekels of gold, full of incense,

63. a bullock of the oxen, a ram, a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering, 64. a he-goat for a sin offering

65. And for a fellowship offering, two oxen, five rams, five rams, five lambs. This is the offering of Abidan son of Gideoni.

66. On the tenth day the prince of the children of Dan, Ahi-Ezer the son of Ammi-Saddai.

67. His offering was a silver bowl, worth an hundred and thirty shekels, and a silver bowl, worth seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both full of fine flour mingled with oil, for a meat offering, 68. A golden spoon, worth ten shekels of gold, full of incense, 69. A bullock of the oxen, a ram, a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering, 70. a he-goat for a sin offering 71. And for a fellowship offering, two oxen, five rams, five rams, five lambs of the first year.

This is the offering of Ahi-Ezer son of Ammi-Saddai.

72. On the eleventh day the prince of the children of Asher, Pagiel the son of Ochrán.

73. And his offering was a silver bowl, the value of an hundred and thirty shekels, and a silver dish, the value of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil, for a meat offering,

74. A golden spoon, worth ten shekels of gold, full of incense, 75. a fair one of the oxen, a ram, a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering, 76. a he-goat for a sin offering

77. And for a peace offering, two oxen, five rams, five kids of the goats, lambs five years old.

This is the offering of Pagiel son of Ochrán.

78. On the twelfth day the prince of the children of Naphtali, Ahira the son of Enán.

79. His offering was a silver bowl, the value of an hundred and thirty shekels; a silver bowl, the value of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both full of fine flour mingled with oil, for a meat offering,

80. A golden spoon, worth ten shekels of gold, full of incense, 81. A bullock of the oxen, a ram, a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering, 82. A he-goat for a sin offering

83. And for the peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five kids of the goats, lambs five years old.

This is the offering of Ahira son of Enán.

84, This is the dedication of the altar at the time that it was dedicated; and the princes of Israel offered these twelve silver bowls, twelve silver dishes, twelve golden spoons, 85. So that every bowl had an hundred and thirty shekels of silver, and every bowl seventy shekels: that the sum of all the silver of the vessel was two thousand and four hundred shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary.

86. And of the twelve spoons of gold full of incense, every one had ten shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary: and the sum of the gold of the spoons was an hundred and twenty shekels.

87. And the sum of the oxen for the burnt offering was twelve bullocks, and twelve rams, and twelve lambs of the first year with their meat offering, and twelve kids of the goats for a sin offering.

88. And the sum of the oxen for the sacrifice of peace offerings was twenty and four bullocks, and threescore rams, and threescore goats, and threescore lambs of the first year. This is the dedication of the altar, when it was consecrated.

89. And it came to pass, when Moses went into the tabernacle of the congregation to speak with him, that he heard the voice speaking with him from the mercy seat, which was in the laver of the testimony, between the two cherubims; and from thence it was spoken with him.
(Numbers)

Chapter 8

Initiation of the Levites.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

2. Speak unto Aaron, and say unto him, When thou settest up the lamps, thou shalt set them so that all the seven shall shine before the candlestick.

3. And Aaron did so. And he set the lamps to shine before the candlestick, as the LORD commanded Moses.

4. And the candlestick was of pure gold, both the shaft thereof, and the flowers thereof: according to the vision which the LORD shewed Moses, so made he the candlestick.

5. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

6. Take the Levites from among the children of Israel, and cleanse them.

7. And thus shalt thou do unto them, that thou mayest cleanse them: thou shalt sprinkle water of sin upon them, and shalt shave all their hair clean, and wash their clothes, and they shall be clean.

8. Then they shall take a young bullock, and his meat offering shall be fine flour mingled with oil: and another young bullock shalt thou take for a sin offering, 9. And thou shalt bring the Levites before the tabernacle of the congregation, and gather all the congregation of the children of Israel.

10. And bring the Levites before the LORD: and the children of Israel shall lay their hands upon the Levites.

11. And Aaron shall weave the Levites before the LORD out of the children of Israel, that they may minister in the office of the LORD.

12. And the Levites shall lay their hands upon the head of the bullocks; and one shall be made a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering, unto the LORD, to make an atonement for the Levites.

13. And thou shalt set the Levites before Aaron and his sons, and weave before the LORD.

14. And thou shalt separate them from the children of Israel, that they may be mine.

15. And afterward they shall go in to minister in the tabernacle of the congregation. So shalt thou cleanse them, and weave them.

16. For they are my gift from the children of Israel, and I have taken them for all that break their mother, even for the firstborn of all the children.

17. For all the firstborn among the children of Israel are mine, both of man and beast, from the time that I smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, and sanctified them unto me, 18. And he took the Levites for all the firstborn of the children of Israel.

19. And he gave them for a present unto Aaron and to his sons of the children of Israel, to minister in the service of the children of Israel in the tabernacle of the congregation, to make an atonement for the children of Israel; lest there be a plague among the children of Israel, when they came near unto the sanctuary.

20. And Moses and Aaron, and all the congregation of the children of Israel, did with the Levites all things, as the LORD commanded Moses.

21. And the Levites purified themselves, and washed their clothes; and Aaron wove them before the LORD, and made an atonement for them, that they might be clean.

22. And afterward they went in to do their service in the tabernacle of the congregation before Aaron and his sons. As the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did unto them.

23. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

24. This is the due of the Levites: From twenty and five years old and upward they are fit for the host, and for the service of the tabernacle of the congregation.

25. But from the fiftieth year they shall be loosed from the service of the ministry, and shall serve no more,

26. But wait for the service of their brethren in the tabernacle of the congregation: but they shall not minister. So shalt thou do with the Levites, that every man may keep his watch.

(Numbers)

Chapter 9

Of the Passover; sign to encamp or depart.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai in the second year after they came forth out of the land of Egypt, in the first month, saying:

2. Let the children of Israel keep the passover in his season,

3. on the fourteenth day of this month between evenings; in his time they shall keep it according to all his statutes and judgments.

4. And Moses spake unto the children of Israel to keep the passover.

5. And they kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month between the evenings in the wilderness of Sinai: according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

6. And there were certain men unclean over a dead man, that they could not keep the passover that day. And they came before Moses and Aaron that day.

7. And they said unto him, We are unclean above a dead man: why should we be less, that we should not bring our offering unto the LORD in his time among the children of Israel?

8. And Moses said unto them: Wait, I will hear what the LORD gives you.

9. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

10. Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If any man be unclean over a dead body, or far from you in the field, or among your friends, he shall keep the passover unto the LORD; 11. But yet in the other month, on the fourteenth day between evenings, and he shall eat it beside unleavened bread and salts.

12. And they shall leave no part of it until to morrow, neither shall they break a bone of it: they shall keep it after all the manner of the passover.

13. And whosoever is clean, and is not above the field, and standeth by to keep the passover, his soul shall be cut off from among his people, because he brought not his offering unto the LORD in his season: he shall bear his sin.

14. And if a stranger sojourn among you, he also shall keep the passover unto the LORD, and shall keep it according to the statutes and judgments of the passover. This statute shall be unto you, as unto the stranger, as unto the inhabitant of the land.

15. And the day that the tabernacle was set up, a cloud covered it upon the tabernacle of the testimony: and there was a figure of fire over the tabernacle from even unto the morning.

16. So it was continually, that the cloud covered them, and in the night the form of fire.

17. And when the cloud was lifted up from the tabernacle, the children of Israel departed: and in the place where the cloud abode the children of Israel pitched.

18. According to the word of the LORD went the children of Israel, and according to his word pitched they. As long as the cloud remained upon the tabernacle, they lay still.

19. And when the cloud departed many days upon the tabernacle, the children of Israel waited for the watch of the LORD, and departed not.

20. And it came to pass, when the cloud was upon the tabernacle a number of days, that they encamped according to the word of the LORD, and went according to the word of the LORD.

21. When the cloud was from evening till morning, and was lifted up, then they went: or when it was lifted up by day, or by night, then they also went.

22. And it came to pass, if she tarried in the tabernacle a fortnight, or a month, or so long, that the children of Israel lay down, and went not: and when she arose, they went.

23. For after the mouth of the LORD they lay, and after the mouth of the LORD they went, to wait for the LORD'S tabernacle, according to the word of the LORD by Moses.

(Numbers)

Chapter 10

Use of the drums. The journeys of the Israelites.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:
2. Make thee two trumpets of strong silver, that thou mayest use them to call the congregation, and when the army shall set out.
3. And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt blow with both of them, that all the congregation shall be gathered unto thee at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.
4. If a man blow but one ill, then shall the princes and the rulers of the thousands of Israel be gathered unto thee.
5. And it shall come to pass, when ye have sounded the trumpet, that the camps which lie toward the east shall break forth.
6. And when ye have sounded the trumpet the second time, then shall the camps arise that lie toward the south. For when they shall journey, then ye shall sound the trumpet.
7. But when the congregation is to be gathered together, ye shall blow evil, and not sound the trumpet.
8. And the sons of Aaron the priests shall blow with the trumpets: and your statute shall be unto your seed for ever.
9. When ye go to battle in your land against your enemies that offend you, then ye shall beat with the trumpets, that ye may be remembered before the LORD your God, and be delivered from your enemies.
10. In like manner, when ye rejoice in your feasts, and in your new moons, ye shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over your peace offerings; and it shall be for a memorial unto you before your God. I am the LORD your God.
11. On the twentieth day of the second month of the second year the cloud was lifted up from the tabernacle of the testimony.
12. And the children of Israel arose, and went out of the wilderness of Sinai: and the cloud abode in the wilderness of Paran.
13. And the first arose after the word of the LORD by Moses.
14. Namely, the band of the camp of the children of Judah went first with their host: and over their host was Nahesson the son of Amminadab.
15. And over the host of the tribe of the children of Issachar was Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

16. And over the host of the tribe of the children of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon.

17. And the tabernacle was taken down, and the children of Gershon and Meran went and carried the tabernacle.

18. And Danakh drew the standard of the camp of Reuben with their host: and over their host was Elizur the son of Sether.

19. And over the host of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Selumiel the son of Zuri-saddai.

20. And Eliasaph the son of Deuel over the host of the tribe of the children of Gad.

21. And the Kohathites also went, and carried the sanctuary: and they set up the tabernacle, until they came after.

22. And afterward the band of the camp of the children of Ephraim went forth with their host: and over their host was Elishama the son of Ammihud.

23. And Gamliel the son of Pedazur over the host of the tribe of the children of Manasseh.

24. And Abidan the son of Gideon over the host of the tribe of the children of Benjamin.

25. And afterward the band of the camp of the children of Dan went up with their host: and so the camps were all up. And Ahi-Ezer the son of Ammi-saddai was over their host.

26. And Pagiel the son of Ochran over the host of the tribe of the children of Asher.

27. And Ahjrah the son of Enan over the host of the tribe of the children of Naphtali.

28. So the children of Israel went with their host.

29. And Moses said unto Hobab the son of Regeuel his brother in law, of Midian, We go unto the place of which the LORD hath said: I will give it you: now therefore come with us, and we will do the best we can with you: for the LORD hath promised good things unto Israel.

30. And he answered: I will not go with you, but to my own land to my friendship.

31. And he said, Dearly beloved, forsake us not: for thou knowest where we shall pitch in the wilderness, and shalt be our eye.

32. And when thou shalt testify with us, what good thing the LORD doeth unto us, that will we do unto thee.

33. So they departed from the mount of the LORD three days' journey: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD went before them the three days' journey, to shew them where they should rest.

34. And the cloud of the LORD was upon them by day, when they went out of the camp.

35. And when the ark was drawn, Moses said, Arise, O LORD, and let thine enemies be scattered, and let them that hate thee flee before thee.

36. And when she rested, he said, Come again, O LORD, unto the multitude of the thousands of Israel.

(Numbers)

Chapter 11

The lustful people are punished.

1. And when the people were impatient, they rebelled in the ears of the LORD. And when the LORD heard it, his anger was kindled, and the fire of the LORD was kindled among them, and consumed the uttermost camps.

2. And the people cried unto Moses: and Moses besought the LORD, and the fire ceased.

3. And the name of the place was called Tabeera, because the fire of the LORD was kindled among them.

4. For the common people among them were lascivious, and sat and wept with the children of Israel, saying: Who will give us flesh to eat? We remember the fish which we did eat in Egypt for nought, and the gourds, and the arrows, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlic.

6. But now our soul is dim; for our eyes see nothing but man.

7. But it was man as coriander seed, and to look upon as Bedellion.

8. And the people ran to and fro, and gathered it, and beat it with mills, and ground it in mortars, and boiled it in pots, and made it cakes of ashes: and it had a savour like the savour of oil.

9. And when the dew fell upon the camps by night, the man fell upon it.

10. And when Moses heard the people weeping among their families, every man in the door of his tent, the wrath of the LORD was kindled, and Moses was afraid.

11. And Moses said unto the LORD, Why grievest thou thy servant, and why findest not grace in thy sight, that thou layest the burden of all this people upon me?

12. Have I now conceived or born all the people, that thou mayest say unto me, Carry them in thine arms (as a nurse beareth a child) unto the land which thou swarest unto their fathers?

13. Whence shall I take meat, that I may give unto all this people? They weep before me, and say: Give us flesh, that we may eat.

14. I am not able to bear the people all things by myself, for they are too heavy for me.

15. And if thou wilt do so unto me, slay me rather; if I have found other grace in thine eyes, that I see not my evil.

16. And the LORD said unto Moses, Gather me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom thou knowest to be the elders of the people, and the officers thereof, and take them before the tabernacle of the congregation, and set them there before thee,

17. Then will I come down, and speak with thee there, and take of thy spirit that is upon thee, and put it upon them, and they shall bear the burden of the people with thee, that thou bear it not alone.

18. And thou shalt say unto the people, Sanctify yourselves to morrow, that ye eat flesh. For your weeping is come into the ears of the LORD, which say, Who shall give us flesh to eat, because it was well with us in Egypt? Therefore the LORD will give you flesh to eat, 19. Not one day, nor two, nor five, nor ten, nor twenty days,

20. But for a month, until it go out at your nostrils, and be loathsome unto you, because ye rejected the LORD that is among you, and wept before him, saying, Why came we out of Egypt?

21. And Moses said, Six hundred thousand footmen are he among whom I am, and thou sayest, I will give you flesh, and ye shall eat for a month.

22. Shall sheep and oxen be slain, that there may be enough for them? Or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together, that they may have enough?

23. And the LORD said unto Moses, Is the hand of the LORD shortened? But now shalt thou see whether my words be good unto thee, or not.

24. And Moses went out, and told the people the word of the LORD, and gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people, and set them round about the tabernacle.

25. And the LORD came down in a cloud, and communed with him, and took the spirit that was upon him, and put it upon the seventy oldest men. And when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied, and ceased not.

26. And there were yet two men left in the camp, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: and the spirit rested upon them: for they also were written, but went not out unto the tabernacle, and prophesied in the camp.

27. And a lad ran and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad prophesy in the camp.

28. And Joshua the son of Nun answered Moses' servant, whom he had chosen, and said, My lord Moses, forbid them.

29. But Moses said unto him, Art thou the zealot for me? Would to God that all the people of the LORD prophesied, and that the LORD would give his Spirit upon them!

30. So Moses gathered himself to the camp, and the elders of Israel.

31. And the wind went out from the LORD, and sent quails from the sea, and scattered them upon the camp, here for a day's journey, and there for a day's journey round about the camp, two cubits above the earth.

32. And the people arose all that day, and all that night, and all the next day, and gathered quails: and he that gathered least gathered ten homers, and hanged them round about the camp.

33. And while the flesh was yet under their teeth, and before it was up, the wrath of the LORD was kindled against the people, and smote them with a very great plague.

34. Wherefore the name of that place is called the grave of lust, because there they buried the lewd people.

35. And the people went out from the graves of pleasure unto Hazeroth, and dwelt in Hazeroth.

(Numbers)

Chapter 12

The grumbling Miriam becomes leprous.

1. And Miriam and Aaron spake against Moses because of his wife, the Moor which he had taken, because he had taken a Moor to wife,

2. And said: Doth the LORD speak by Moses only? speaketh he not also through us? And the LORD heard it.

3. But Moses was a very afflicted man above all men upon the earth.

4. And suddenly the LORD said unto Moses, and unto Aaron, and unto Miriam, Come out, ye three, unto the tabernacle of the congregation. And they went out, all three of them.

5. And the LORD came down in a pillar of cloud, and stood in the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam: and they went out.

6. And he said, Hear my words. If any of you be a prophet of the LORD, I will make myself known unto him in a vision, or speak unto him in a dream.

7. But not so my servant Moses, who is faithful in all mine house.

8. I speak unto him by word of mouth; and he beholdeth the LORD in his own likeness, and not by words of darkness, nor by parables. Why then were ye not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?

9. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them, and they turned away.

10. And the cloud departed from the tabernacle. And, behold, Miriam was leprous as the snow.

And Aaron turned unto Miriam, and, behold, she was leprous,

11. And said unto Moses, Ah, my lord, let not sin remain upon us, that we have done foolishly, and have sinned,

12. That this be not as a dead thing that cometh out of his mother's womb; it hath already eaten up the half of her flesh.

13. And Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, O God, heal them.

14. And the LORD said unto Moses, If her father had spit in her face, should not she be ashamed seven days? Let her be shut up out of the camp seven days, and afterward let her be taken up again.

15. So Miriam was shut up out of the camp seven days. And the people departed not again, till Miriam were taken up.

Ch. 13. v. 1. Dananch the people departed from Hazeroth, and encamped in the wilderness of Paran.

(Numbers)

Chapter 13.

Of spies of the land of Canaan.

2. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

3. Send out men to search the land of Canaan, which I will give unto the children of Israel, out of every tribe of their fathers a choice man.

4. Moses sent them out of the wilderness of Paran, according to the word of the LORD, all of whom were chief men among the children of Israel.

5. And their names were Shammua the son of Zakur, of the tribe of Reuben; 6. Shaphat the son of Hori, of the tribe of Simeon.

7. Caleb the son of Jephunneh, of the tribe of Judah;

8. Igeal the son of Joseph, of the tribe of Issachar;

9. Hosea the son of Nun, of the tribe of Ephraim;

10. Palti the son of Raphu, of the tribe of Benjamin;

11. Gadiel the son of Sodi, of the tribe of Zebulun;

12. Gaddi the son of Susi, of the tribe of Joseph of Manasseh;

13. Ammiel the son of Gemalli, of the tribe of Dan;

14. Sethur the son of Michael, of the tribe of Asher;

15. Nahebi the son of Vaphsi, of the tribe of Naphtali;

16. Guel the son of Machi, of the tribe of Gad.

17. These are the names of the men whom Moses sent to search out the land. But Hosea the son of Nun, Moses called Joshua.

18. And when they sent Moses to search out the land of Canaan, he said unto them: Go up to the south, and go into the mountains;

19. And consider the land as it is, and the people that dwell therein, whether they be strong or weak, few or many;

20. And what manner of country they dwell in, whether it be good or bad; and what manner of cities they dwell in, whether they dwell in tents, or in fortresses; 21. And what manner of land it is, whether it be fat or lean, and whether there be trees therein, or not. Be of good cheer, and take of the fruits of the land. Now it was just about the time of the first grapes.

22. And they went up, and searched the country from the wilderness of Zin unto Rehob, where they go to Hamath.

23. And they went up toward the south, and came unto Hebron; where was Ahiman, and Shesai, and Talmi, the children of Enak: but Hebron was seven years built before Zoan in Egypt.

24. And they came unto brook Escol, and cut down there a branch with a bunch of grapes, and carried them two on a stick, and pomegranates and figs.

25. The name of the place is called Brook Eshcol, because of the grapes which the children of Israel cut down there.

26. And they returned, when they had searched the land, after forty days, 27. And they went and came to Moses and Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel, into the wilderness of Paran unto Kadesh, and told them again, and all the congregation, how it was, and let them see the fruits of the land.

28. And told them, saying: We are come into the land whither ye sent us, where milk and honey flow within, and this is the fruit thereof;

29. Without much people dwelling therein, and very great and strong cities: and they saw the children of Enak there.

30. And the Amalekites dwell in the south country, and the Hittites, and the Jebusites, and the Amorites, dwell in the mountains: and the Canaanites dwell by the sea, and round about Jordan.

31. And Caleb quieted the people against Moses, and said, Let us go up, and possess the land; for we may overtake it.

32. But the men that went up with him said: We are not able to go up against the people, because they are too strong for us.

33. And they made an evil cry among the children of Israel for the land which they had explored, saying: The land, through which we went to explore, eateth up the inhabitants thereof; and all the people that we saw therein are men of great length.

34. And we saw giants there, the children of Enak, of the giants: and we were as grasshoppers before our eyes, and so were we before their eyes.

(Numbers)

Chapter 14

The grumbling people are defeated.

1. And all the congregation rose up, and cried, and the people wept all night.

2. And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron: and all the congregation said unto them: Oh that we had died in the land of Egypt, or had died in this wilderness!

3. Doth the LORD bring us into this land, that our wives should fall by the sword, and our children be a prey? Is it not better for us to return to Egypt?

4. And one said unto another: Let us raise up a captain, and go again into Egypt.

5. And Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the congregation of the children of Israel.

6. And Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, which had also searched the land, rent their clothes.

7. And they said unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, To search the land which we have passed through is very good.

8. If the LORD be gracious unto us, he will bring us into the same land, and give us a land flowing with milk and honey.

9. Fall not away from the LORD, neither be afraid of the people of this land: for we will eat them as bread. Their protection is gone from them: but the LORD is with us. Fear them not.

10. And all the people said that they should be stoned. Then the glory of the LORD appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation unto all the children of Israel.

11. And the LORD said unto Moses, How long will the people blaspheme me, and how long will they not believe on me by all the signs which I have done among them?

12. Then will I smite them with pestilence, and destroy them, and make thee a greater and mightier nation than this.

13. And Moses said unto the LORD, Thus shall the Egyptians hear: for thou hast brought this people out of the midst of them by thy strength.

14. And it shall be said unto the inhabitants of this land, which have heard that thou, O LORD, art among this people, that thou art seen face to face, and thy cloud is upon them, and thou, O LORD, goest before them in a pillar of cloud by day, and in a pillar of fire by night;

15. And if thou shouldest slay this people as a man, the heathen that hear such a cry from thee shall say, saying:

16. The LORD could not bring the people into the land which he sware unto them: therefore he slew them in the wilderness.

17. Now therefore let the power of the LORD be great, as thou hast said, saying:

18. The LORD is patient, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and leaving none unpunished, but visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation.

19. Now therefore, according to thy great mercy, be gracious unto the iniquity of this people, as thou hast graciously forgiven this people out of Egypt unto this day.

20. And the LORD said: I have forgiven, as thou hast said.

21. But as truly as I live, so shall all the earth be filled with the glory of the LORD.

22. For all the men that have seen my glory, and my signs, which I did in Egypt, and in the wilderness, and have tempted me ten times, and have not obeyed my voice, 23. Whose eyes shall not see the land which I swear unto their fathers, neither shall any see it; he that blasphemed me.

24. But my servant Caleb, because another spirit is with him, and he hath followed me faithfully, him will I bring into the land whither he came, and his seed shall possess it, 25. And the Amalekites and the Canaanites, which dwell in the valley. Tomorrow turn ye, and go into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea.

26. And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying:

27. How long will this wicked company murmur against me? For I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they have murmured against me.

28. Say therefore unto them, As I live, saith the LORD, I will do unto you as ye have said in mine ears.

29. Your bodies shall perish in this wilderness, and all ye that are numbered twenty years and upward, which have murmured against me,

30. Ye shall not come into the land, whereon I have lifted up mine hand to let you dwell therein, without Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

31. Your children, of whom ye said, They shall be a spoil; them will I bring in, that they may know the land which ye have rejected.

32. But ye and your bodies shall perish in this wilderness.

33. And your children shall be shepherds in the wilderness forty years, and shall bear your whoredoms, until your bodies be all in the wilderness.

34. According to the number of the forty days wherein ye have searched the land, every day shall be a year, to bear your iniquity forty years, that ye may know what it is, when I take away my hand.

35. I the LORD have said, and I will do it unto all this wicked company, which have rebelled against me. In this wilderness shall they all be, and there shall they die.

36. So all the men which Moses sent to search the land died in the plague before the LORD, and returned, and made all the congregation murmur against it,
37. That they might make a noise unto the land, that it was evil.
38. But Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, remained alive out of the men that went to search the land.
39. And Moses spake these words unto all the children of Israel. Then the people mourned greatly,
40. And they rose up early in the morning, and went up into the height of the mountains, and said: Here are we, and will go up unto the place which the LORD hath spoken of: for we have sinned.
41. And Moses said, Wherefore then do ye transgress the word of the LORD? Ye shall not prosper.
42. Go not up, for the LORD is not among you: lest ye be smitten before your enemies.
43. For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and ye shall fall by the sword, because ye have turned from the LORD: and the LORD shall not be with you.
44. But they were unwilling to go up to the top of the mountain. But the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and Moses, came not out of the camp.
45. And the Amalekites and the Canaanites that dwelt in the mount came down, and smote them, and brake them in pieces, even unto Horma.

(Numbers)

Chapter 15

Desecration of the Sabbath is punished.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:
2. Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them: When ye come into the land of your habitation, which I will give you,
3. And ye shall offer sacrifices unto the LORD, whether burnt offerings, or sacrifices made by special vows, or freewill offerings, or your feast offerings, that ye may make a sweet savour unto the LORD, either of oxen, or of sheep:
4. Whosoever therefore shall offer his offering unto the LORD shall offer the meat offering, a tithe of fine flour mingled with oil, a fourth part of the hin,

5. And wine for a drink offering, and a fourth part of the hin for a burnt offering, or for a sacrifice of a lamb.

6. And when a ram is offered, thou shalt offer for a meat offering two tenths of fine flour mingled with oil, the third part of the hin,

7. And wine for a drink offering, even the third part of the hin. This thou shalt offer for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

8. But if thou wilt offer an ox for a burnt offering, or for a special vow offering, or for a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD,

9. Then shalt thou offer for the bark a meat offering, three tenths of fine flour mingled with oil, half an hin,

10. And wine for a drink offering, even half an hin. This is an offering made unto the LORD for a sweet savour.

11. So shalt thou do with an ox, and with a ram, and with a sheep, and with lambs, and with kids.

12. After this shall be the number of these sacrifices: after this shall be the number of the meat offering and of the drink offering.

13. He that is a native of the land shall do this thing, to offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD for a sweet savour.

14. And if a stranger sojourn with you, or be among you with your friends, and offer an offering made sweet unto the LORD, let him do as they do.

15. Let it be a statute unto all the congregation, both to you, and to the stranger. And it shall be a statute for ever unto your seed, that the stranger shall be as ye are before the LORD.

16. One law, one justice, shall be for you, and for the stranger that sojourneth with you.

17. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

18. Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them: When ye come into the land whither I will bring you,

19. That ye may eat of the bread of the land, ye shall give an heave unto the LORD; 20. For of the firstfruits of your dough ye shall give a cake for a heave; as the heave of the barn, 21. So shall ye also give unto the LORD the firstfruits of your dough for an heave unto your seed.

22. And if ye through ignorance of these commandments do any thing not, which the LORD spake unto Moses,

23. And all that the LORD commanded you by Moses from the day that he began to command your seed;

24. And if the congregation do any thing ignorantly, then all the congregation shall offer a young bullock of the herd for a burnt offering, for a sweet savour unto the LORD, with his meat offering, and his drink offering, as it is meet, and a kid of the goats for a sin offering.

25. And the priest shall make an atonement for all the congregation of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them: for it is ignorance.

And they shall bring their offering for a sacrifice unto the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD for their ignorance.

26. And it shall be forgiven all the congregation of the children of Israel, and also the stranger that sojourneth among you, because all the people are in such ignorance.

27. And if any soul sin through ignorance, he shall bring a she-goat of the first year for a sin offering;

28. And the priest shall make an atonement for such an ignorant soul with the sin offering for ignorance before the LORD, to make an atonement for it: and it shall be forgiven her.

29. And it shall be a law which ye shall do for ignorance, both to the native of the children of Israel, and to the stranger that sojourneth among you.

30. But if any soul do any thing iniquitously, whether he be a native or a stranger, he hath reproached the LORD. Such a soul shall be cut off from among his people.

31. For she hath despised the word of the LORD, and hath forsaken his commandment: she shall be cut off evil: the iniquity is hers.

32. And when the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man reading wood on the sabbath day.

33. And they that found him reading wood brought him to Moses and Aaron, and to all the congregation.

34. And they put him in prison: for it was not plain what should be done with him.

35. And the LORD said unto Moses, The man shall surely die, and all the congregation shall stone him with stones without the camp.

36. And all the congregation brought him out unto the camp, and stoned him to death, as the LORD commanded Moses.

37. And the LORD said unto Moses:

38. Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, That they make them lappets upon the tails of their garments among all your seed, and put yellow laces upon the lappets upon the tails.

39. And let the little lappets be for you, that ye may look upon them, and remember all the commandments of the LORD, and do them, that ye judge not according to your heart, nor fornicate according to your eyes.

40. Therefore shall ye remember and do all my commandments, and be holy unto your God.

41. I the LORD your God, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God; I the LORD your God.

(Numbers)

Chapter 16

God takes vengeance on the rebellious mob.

1. And Korah the son of Jezehar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, with Dathan, and Abiram the sons of Eliab, and On the son of Peleth, the sons of Reuben, 2. They rebelled against Moses, and certain men of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty of the chief of the congregation, captains of the council, and honest men.

3. And they gathered themselves together against Moses and Aaron, and said unto them: Ye do too much! For all the congregation everywhere are holy, and the LORD is among them: wherefore exalt ye yourselves above the congregation of the LORD?

4. And when Moses heard it, he fell on his face.

5. And he said unto Korah, and unto all his company, To morrow the LORD will shew who is his, who is holy, and who shall offer unto him: whom he shall choose, he shall offer unto him.

6. This do: Take ye pans, Korah, and all his company,

7. And put fire therein, and put incense thereon before the LORD in the morning. Whom the LORD shall choose, let him be holy. Ye do too much, O children of Levi.

8. And Moses said unto Korah, Hear now, ye children of Levi.

9. Is it not enough for you, that the God of Israel hath separated you from the congregation of Israel, that ye should sacrifice unto him, to minister in the service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to come before the congregation to minister unto them?

10. He hath taken thee and all thy brethren the children of Levi unto himself with thee; and now ye also seek the priesthood.

11. Thou and all thy company make a rebellion against the LORD. What is Aaron, that ye murmur against him?

12. And Moses sent and called Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab. But they said: We will not come up.

13. Is it not enough that thou hast brought us out of the land that floweth with milk and honey, that thou hast slain us in the wilderness? And thou hast to reign over us?

14. How goodly hast thou brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, and hast given us fields and vineyards for an inheritance! Wilt thou pluck out the eyes of the people also? We will not come up.

15. And Moses was very wroth, and said unto the LORD, Turn not unto their meat offering. I have not taken an ass from them, neither have I ever harmed any of them.

16. And he said unto Korah, Thou and all thy company shall be before the LORD to morrow; thou, and they, and Aaron.

17. And take every man his pan, and put incense thereon, and come near before the LORD every man with his pan, even two hundred and fifty pans.

18. And every man took his pan, and put fire therein, and put incense thereon, and stood at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation; and Moses and Aaron also.

19. And Korah gathered all the congregation together against them unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. And the glory of the LORD appeared before all the congregation.

20. And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying: 21. Separate yourselves from this congregation, that I may destroy them suddenly.

22. And they fell on their faces, and said: O God, who art a God of the spirits of all flesh, if one man have sinned, wilt thou therefore rage against all the congregation?

23. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

24. Speak unto the congregation, saying, Depart ye round about from the tabernacle of Korah, and from the tabernacle of Dathan, and from the tabernacle of Abiram.

25. And Moses arose, and went to Dathan and Abiram; and the elders of Israel followed him.

26. And he spake unto the congregation, saying, Depart from the tabernacles of these ungodly men, and touch nothing that is theirs, lest peradventure ye perish in any of their sins.

27. And they went up from the tabernacle of Korah, and Dathan, and Abiram. And Dathan and Abiram came out, and stood at the door of their tents with their wives, and their sons, and their children.

28. And Moses said, By this ye shall know that the LORD hath sent me to do all these works, and not of mine own heart:

29. If they die as all men die, or are afflicted as all men are afflicted, the LORD hath not sent me.

30. But if the LORD make a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up with all that they have, that they may go down alive into hell; then ye shall know that these men have blasphemed the LORD.

31. And when he had uttered all these words, the earth rent beneath them; 32. And she opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the people that were with Korah, and all their substance.

33. And they went down alive into hell with all that they had, and the earth covered them, and they perished out of the congregation.

34. And all Israel that were round about them fled from their cry: for they said: Lest the earth swallow us up also!

35. And the fire went out from the LORD, and devoured the two hundred and fifty men that offered the incense.

36. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

37. Speak unto Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, that he take up the pans out of the fire, and scatter the fire to and fro.

38. For the pans of such sinners are sanctified by their souls, to be beaten into broad plates, and to hang the altar therewith: for they are offered before the LORD, and sanctified, and shall be for a sign unto the children of Israel.

39. And Eleazar the priest took the brasen pans which the burnt offering had offered, and smote them into plates to hang upon the altar,

40. In remembrance of the children of Israel, lest any stranger come near, which is not of the seed of Aaron, to offer incense before the LORD, lest he be like Korah and his band, as the LORD spake unto him by the hand of Moses.

41. And the next morning all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron, saying: Ye have killed the LORD'S people.

42. And when the congregation was gathered together against Moses and Aaron, they turned unto the tabernacle of the congregation. And, behold, the cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD appeared.

43. And Moses and Aaron went in unto the tabernacle of the congregation.

44. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

45. Arise out of this congregation, and I will destroy them suddenly. And they fell on their faces.

46. And Moses said unto Aaron, Take the pan, and put fire therein from the altar, and put incense thereon, and go in haste unto the congregation, and make an atonement for them: for the fury is gone out from the LORD, and the plague is begun.

47. And Aaron took as Moses had said unto him, and ran into the midst of the congregation, (and, behold, the plague was begun among the people,) and burned incense, and made an atonement for the people.

48. And stood between the dead and the living. And the plague was stayed.

49. And of them that died in the plague there were fourteen thousand and seven hundred, beside them that died with Korah.

50. And Aaron came again unto Moses unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the plague was stayed.

(Numbers)

Chapter 17

Aaron's priesthood is confirmed by the greening rod.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

2. Speak unto the children of Israel, and take of them twelve staves, of every ruler of his father's house one, and write every man's name upon his staff.

3. But the name of Aaron shalt thou write upon the rod of Levi. For there shall be a rod for the head of every house of their fathers.

4. And put them in the tabernacle of the congregation before the testimony, when I testify unto you.
5. And whomsoever I shall choose, the rod thereof shall be green, to silence the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against you.
6. And Moses spake unto the children of Israel; and all their princes gave him twelve staves, every prince a staff, after the house of their fathers: and the staff of Aaron was also among their staves.
7. And Moses laid the staves before the LORD in the tabernacle of the testimony.
8. And it came to pass in the morning, when Moses went into the tabernacle of the testimony, that he found the rod of Aaron the house of Levi green, and the blossom sprung up, and bearing almonds.
9. And Moses brought forth all the staves of the LORD before all the children of Israel, that they might see them: and every man took his staff.
10. And the LORD said unto Moses, Bring Aaron's rod again before the testimony, that it may be kept for a sign unto the disobedient children, that their murmuring may cease from me, that they die not.
11. Moses did as the LORD commanded him.
12. And the children of Israel said unto Moses, Behold, we perish, and perish: we are all destroyed, and perish.
13. He that cometh nigh unto the tabernacle of the LORD dieth. Shall we perish?

(Numbers)

Chapter 18

Office and maintenance of the priests and Levites.

1. And the LORD said unto Aaron, Thou and thy sons, and thy father's house with thee, shall bear the iniquity of the sanctuary: and thou and thy sons with thee shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood.
2. But thy brethren of the tribe of Levi thy father shalt thou take unto thee, to be with thee, and to minister unto thee: and thou and thy sons with thee before the tabernacle of the testimony.
3. And they shall wait upon thy service, and upon the service of all the tabernacle. But they shall not come near unto the vessels of the sanctuary, nor near unto the altar, lest both they and ye die,

4. But they shall be with thee, to minister in the tabernacle of the congregation in all the service of the tabernacle. And no stranger shall join himself unto you.
5. Now therefore wait for the service of the sanctuary, and for the service of the altar, that there be no more fierceness upon the children of Israel.
6. For, behold, I have taken your brethren the Levites from among the children of Israel, and have given them unto you for a present unto the LORD, to minister in the tabernacle of the congregation.
7. But thou, and thy sons with thee, shall keep your priesthood, to minister in all the business of the altar, and within the vail: for your priesthood I give you for a ministry, a gift. If a stranger comes here, he shall die.
8. And the LORD said unto Aaron, Behold, I have given thee my heave offerings of all that the children of Israel sanctify, for thy priestly office, and unto thy sons for a perpetual statute.
9. This shalt thou have of the most holy things, which they offer: All their offerings, with all their meat offering, and with all their sin offering, and with all their trespass offering, which they give unto me, the -shall be the most holy unto thee, and to thy sons.
10. In the most holy place shalt thou eat it. That which is male shall eat thereof: for it shall be holy unto thee.
11. I have also given the heave offering of their offering of all the wave offerings of the children of Israel unto thee, and to thy sons, and to thy daughters, with thee for a perpetual statute: he that is clean in thine house shall eat thereof.
12. All the best oil, and all the best wine, and the best corn of their firstfruits, which they give unto the LORD, have I given thee.
13. The first fruit of all that is in their land, which they bring unto the LORD, shall be thine: he that is clean in thine house shall eat thereof.
14. All that is bound in Israel shall be thine.
15. All that his mother breaketh of all flesh, which they bring unto the LORD, whether it be man or beast, shall be thine: but let the first fruit of man be loosed, and let the first fruit of unclean beast also be loosed.
16. And they shall redeem it when it is a month old: and thou shalt redeem it for money, for five shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs.

17. But the firstfruits of an ox, or of a lamb, or of a goat, shalt thou not redeem: for they are holy: their blood shalt thou sprinkle upon the altar, and their fat shalt thou burn for an offering of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

18. Their flesh shall be thine, even as the wave breast and the right shoulder are thine.

19. All the heave offerings, which the children of Israel sanctify unto the LORD, have I given thee, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and thee, for a perpetual statute. This shall be an everlasting covenant before the LORD, to thee, and to thy seed with thee.

20. And the LORD said unto Aaron, Thou shalt have no possession in their land, neither shalt thou have any part among them: for I am thy part, and thine inheritance among the children of Israel.

21. And unto the children of Levi have I given all the tithes of Israel for an inheritance, for their service which they do unto me in the tabernacle of the congregation, 22. That the children of Israel come not near unto the tabernacle of the congregation, to bring sin upon themselves, and to die;

23. But the Levites shall keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they shall bear the iniquity thereof for a perpetual statute among your seed. And they shall have no inheritance among the children of Israel.

24. For the tithes of the children of Israel, which they give unto the LORD, have I given unto the Levites for an inheritance: therefore have I said unto them, that they should have no inheritance among the children of Israel.

25. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

26. Speak unto the Levites, and say unto them: When ye take the tenth of the children of Israel, which I have given you of them for your inheritance, then ye shall offer of it a heave offering unto the LORD, a tenth of the tenth.

27. And ye shall regard your heave offering as the grain out of the barn, and the wine out of the winepress.

28. And ye also shall give the heave offering unto the LORD of all your tithes, which ye take of the children of Israel, to give the heave offering of the LORD unto Aaron the priest.

29. Of all that is given unto you ye shall offer of every heave offering unto the LORD, of all that is sanctified of it.

30. And say unto them: If ye therefore gather the best thereof, it shall be counted unto the Levites as the revenue of the barn, and as the revenue of the winepress.

31. And ye shall eat it in every place, ye and your children: for it is your reward for your service in the tabernacle of the congregation.

32. So ye shall not sin in it, if ye take the best part of it; neither shall ye profane the holy things of the children of Israel, nor die.

(Numbers)

Chapter 19

Of the reddish cow and the blasting water.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying:

2. This manner shall be a law, which the LORD commanded, saying, Tell the children of Israel, that they bring unto thee a red heifer without change, wherein is no blemish, and upon which no yoke hath ever come.

3. And give them unto Eleazar the priest, and he shall bring them forth before the camp, and slay them there before him:

4. And Eleazar the priest shall take the blood of them with his finger, and sprinkle it over against the tabernacle of the congregation seven times,

5. And let the heifer be burned before him, both her hide and her flesh, and her blood with her dung.

6. And the priest shall take cedar wood, and hyssop, and the wool of the scarlet, and cast them upon the heifer that burneth,

7. And he shall wash his clothes, and bathe his body in water, and go into the camp, and be unclean until the even.

8. And he that burneth them shall wash his clothes in water, and bathe his body in water, and be unclean until the even.

9. And a clean man shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and cast them out of the camp into a clean place, and there they shall be reserved for the congregation of the children of Israel for a water of sprinkling: for it is a sin offering.

10. And he that gathereth up the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even. This shall be a statute for ever unto the children of Israel, and to the strangers that sojourn among you.

11. Whosoever therefore toucheth any dead person shall be unclean seven days.

12. He shall hereby make himself clean on the third day, and on the seventh day, and shall be clean: and if he make himself clean not on the third day, and on the seventh day, he shall not be clean.

13. And if any man touch any dead person, and would not be cleansed, he defileth the tabernacle of the LORD: and that soul shall be cut off from Israel. Because the water of sprinkling is not sprinkled on him, he is unclean until he is cleansed by it.

14. This is the law, when a man dieth in the tabernacle: He that prayeth in the tabernacle; and all that is in the tabernacle shall be unclean seven days.

15. And every open vessel that hath no cover, nor ribbon, is unclean.

16. And whosoever toucheth in the field a man slain with the sword, or a dead man, or a man's bone, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.

17. They shall therefore take for the unclean person the ashes of this burnt sin offering, and put running water upon them in a vessel.

18. And a clean man shall take hyssop, and dip it in water, and sprinkle it upon the tabernacle, and upon all the vessels, and upon all the souls that are therein; even upon him that hath touched the bones of the dead, or the slain, or the dead, or the grave.

19. And the clean person shall sprinkle the unclean on the third day, and on the seventh day shall he sprinkle him, and on the seventh day shall he cleanse him: and he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be clean at even.

20. And whosoever shall be unclean, and shall not purify himself, his soul shall be cut off from among the congregation: for he hath defiled the sanctuary of the LORD, and hath not sprinkled sprinkling water upon him: therefore is he unclean.

21. And this shall be a perpetual statute unto them. And he that hath sprinkled with the water of separation shall wash his clothes. And whosoever toucheth the water of sprinkling shall be unclean until the even.

22. And all that he toucheth shall be unclean: and whatsoever soul he toucheth shall be unclean until the even.

(Numbers)

Chapter 20

Water from the rock. Miriam and Aaron die.

1. And the children of Israel came with all the congregation into the wilderness of Zin in the first month: and the people lay in Kadesh. And Miriam died there, and was buried there.
2. And the congregation had no water, and gathered themselves together against Moses and Aaron.
3. And the people disputed with Moses, and said: Oh that we had perished, when our brethren perished before the LORD!
4. Why have ye brought the congregation of the LORD into this wilderness, that we should die here with our cattle?
5. And why have ye brought us out of Egypt into this evil place, where there is no sowing, where there are neither figs, nor vines, nor pomegranates, and there is no water to drink?
6. And Moses and Aaron went from the congregation unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and fell on their faces: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto them.
7. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:
8. Take the rod, and gather the congregation together, thou, and Aaron thy brother, and speak unto the rock before their eyes; and it shall give them water. So shalt thou bring them water out of the rock, and water the congregation, and their cattle.
9. And Moses took the rod before the LORD, as he commanded him.
10. And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock, and said unto them: Hear, ye rebellious, shall we also bring you water out of this rock?
11. And Moses lifted up his hand, and smote the rock twice with the rod. And there came out much water, and the congregation drank, and their cattle.
12. And the LORD said unto Moses and Aaron, Because ye believed not on me, to sanctify me before the children of Israel, ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I will give them.
13. This is the water of reproach, whereof the children of Israel disputed with the LORD, and he was sanctified in them.

14. And Moses sent word from Kadesh unto the king of Edom, saying, Thus saith thy brother Israel, Thou knowest all the trouble that hath come upon us;

15. Because our fathers went down into Egypt, and we dwelt in Egypt a long time, and the Egyptians dealt evil with us and with our fathers;

16. And we cried unto the LORD, and he heard our voice, and sent an angel, and brought us out of Egypt. And, behold, we are in Kadesh, in the city of thy borders.

17. Let us pass through thy land. We will not pass through the fields, nor through the vineyards, neither will we drink water out of the wells: we will go by the way of the land, turning neither to the right hand nor to the left, until we come through thy border.

18. And the Edomites said unto them: Thou shalt not pass through me, or I will come against thee with the sword.

19. And the children of Israel said unto him, We will go by the way of the highway, and if we drink of thy water, we and our cattle, we will pay for it: we will go by nothing, but by foot.

20. And he said, Thou shalt not pass through. And the Edomites went out to meet them with a mighty people and a strong hand.

21. So the Edomites refused to grant Israel to pass through their border. And Israel departed from them.

22. And the children of Israel departed from Kadesh, and came with all the congregation to Hor by the mountains.

23. And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron in Hor by the mountains of the border of the land of Edom, saying:

24. Let Aaron be gathered unto his people: for he shall not come into the land which I have given unto the children of Israel, because ye have disobeyed my mouth at the water of the Hader.

25. And take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them unto Hor by the mountains.

26. And Aaron shall put off his garments, and put them on Eleazar his son. And Aaron shall gather himself there, and die.

27. And Moses did as the LORD commanded him, and went up to Hor in the mount before all the congregation.

28. And Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and put them on Eleazar his son. And Aaron died there on the top of the mountain. And Moses and Eleazar came down from the mount.

29. And when all the congregation saw that Aaron was gone, they mourned for him thirty days, all the house of Israel.

(Numbers)

Chapter 21

The bite of fiery serpents healed after seeing the brazen serpent.

1. And when the Canaanite king Arad, which dwelt southward, heard that Israel was come in by the way of the spies, he fought against Israel, and carried away some captives.

2. And Israel vowed a vow unto the LORD, saying, If thou wilt deliver this people into mine hand, I will utterly destroy their cities.

3. And the LORD hearkened unto the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites, and utterly destroyed them and their cities, and called the name of the place Horma.

4. And they departed from Hor by the mountains, by the way of the Red sea, to go about the land of Edom. And the people were sore distressed in the way.

5. And he spake against God, and against Moses, saying, Why hast thou brought us up out of Egypt, that we should die in the wilderness? For there is neither bread nor water here, and our souls are disgusted with this meagre meat.

6. And the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that a great multitude died in Israel.

7. And they came unto Moses, and said: We have sinned in that we have spoken against the LORD, and against thee. Ask the LORD to take away the serpents from us. Moses asked for the people.

8. And the LORD said unto Moses, Make thee a serpent of brass, and set it up for a sign: whosoever is bitten, and beholdeth it, he shall live.

9. And Moses made a serpent of brass, and set it up for a sign: and if a serpent bit any man, he looked upon the serpent of brass, and lived.

10. And the children of Israel went out, and pitched in Oboth.

11. And they departed from Oboth, and pitched in Ijim, by mount Abarim, in the wilderness over against Moab, toward the rising of the sun.

12. And they departed thence, and pitched by the brook Sared.

13. And they removed from thence, and pitched on this side Arnon, which is in the wilderness, and cometh out from the border of the Amorites. For Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.

14. Therefore the book speaketh of the strife of the LORD: the Vaheb in Supha, and the brooks of the Arnon.

15. And the fountain of the rivers, which reacheth unto the city of Ar, and is the border of Moab.

16. And from thence they went unto the well. This is the well, whereof the LORD said unto Moses, Gather the people together, and I will give them water.

17. And Israel sang this song, and sang round about the well:

18. This is the well which the princes have digged: the nobles of the people have digged it by the teacher and by their staffs. And from this wilderness they went to Mathana; 19. And from Mathaniah to Nahaliel; and from Nahaliel to Bamoth; 20. And from Bamoth unto the valley that lieth in the field of Moab, unto the high mountain Pisgah, which looketh toward the wilderness.

21. And Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, saying:

22. Let me pass through thy land: we will not go into the fields, nor into the vineyards, neither will we drink of the water of the well: we will go by the way of the land, until we come through thy border.

23. But Sihon would not suffer the children of Israel to pass through his border, but gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wilderness: and when he was come to Jahaz, he fought against Israel.

24. And Israel smote him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land from Arnon even unto Jabbok, and unto the children of Ammon: for the borders of the children of Ammon were fixed.

25. So Israel took all these cities, and dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all their daughters.

26. For Heshbon the city was Sihon king of the Amorites: and he had fought before with the king of Moab, and had taken all his land unto him, even unto Arnon.

27. Therefore they say in the proverb, Come to Heshbon, that they may build and establish the city of Sihon;

28. For fire is come out of Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon, which hath devoured Ar the Moabite, and the inhabitants of Arnon the high place.

29. Woe unto thee, Moab, for the people of Kamos are lost: they have put their sons to flight, and have carried away their daughters captive to Sihon king of the Amorites.

30. Her glory is destroyed from Heshbon unto Dibon; she is destroyed unto Nophah, which goeth unto Medbah.

31. So Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites.

32. And Moses sent out spies unto Jaesher; and they took their daughters, and took the Amorites that were within;

33. And they turned, and went up by the way of Bashan. And Og king of Bashan went out to meet them, he and all his people, to fight in Edrei.

34. And the LORD said unto Moses, Fear him not: for I have delivered him into thine hand, and the land, and the people; and thou shalt do unto him as thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon.

35. And they smote him, and his sons, and all his people, until there was none left: and they possessed the land.

Ch. 22. v. 1. After this the children of Israel went and encamped in the plains of Moab, on the other side Jordan, against Jericho.

(Numbers)

Chapter 22

Balaam shall curse the Israelites. His donkey talks.

2. And Balak the son of Zipor saw all that Israel had done unto the Amorites, 3. And the Moabites feared greatly because of the greatness of the people: and the Moabites were afraid of the children of Israel,

4. And they said unto the elders of the Midianites, Now shall this company break up that which is round about us, as an ox breaketh up herbage in the field. And Balak the son of Zipor was king of Moab at that time.

5. And he sent messengers unto Balaam the son of Beor unto Pethor, which dwelt by the river in the land of the children of his people, to demand of him, saying, Behold, a nation is come up out of Egypt, which covereth the face of the earth, and lieth against me.

6. Come now therefore, and curse me the people: for they are too mighty for me, if I smite them, and drive them out of the land: for I know that whom thou blessest is blessed, and whom thou cursest is cursed.

7. And the elders of Moab went with the elders of Midian, and had the reward of divination in their hands: and they came in unto Balaam, and told him the words of Balak.

8. And he said unto them: Stay here overnight, and I will tell you again what the LORD will tell me. So the princes of Moab abode with Balaam.

9. And God came to Balaam, and said, Who are the people that are with thee?

10. And Balaam said unto God, Balak the son of Zipor king of Moab hath sent unto me: 11. Behold, a nation is come out of Egypt, and covereth the face of the earth: now therefore come and curse them, that I may fight with them, and drive them out.

12. And God said unto Balaam, Go not with them; neither curse the people: for they are blessed.

13. And Balaam rose up in the morning, and said unto the princes of Balak, Go to your own land: for the LORD will not suffer me to go with you.

14. And the princes of Moab arose, and came to Balak, and said: Balaam refuseth to go with us.

15. Then Balak sent greater and more glorious princes than these.

16. And they came to Balaam, and said unto him, Thus saith Balak the son of Zipor unto thee, My son, forbear not to come unto me;

17. For I will highly honour thee, and what thou sayest unto me I will do. Dear one, come and curse me to this people!

18. And Balaam answered and said unto the servants of Balak, If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, yet could I not pass over the word of the LORD my God, to do small things or great.

19. Now therefore tarry ye here this night, that I may know what the LORD will say unto me next.

20. And God came to Balaam by night, and said unto him, If the men be come to call thee, arise, and go with them: but whatsoever I shall say unto thee, that thou shalt do.

21. And Balaam arose in the morning, and saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Moab.

22. But the wrath of God was kindled, and he went. And the angel of the LORD stood in the way to oppose him. And he rode upon his ass, and two lads were with him.

23. And the ass saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and a mere sword in his hand.

And the ass turned out of the way, and went into the field: and Balaam smote her, that she should go into the way.

24. And the angel of the LORD stood in the way of the vineyards, where were walls on either side.

25. And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she pressed against the wall, and fastened Balaam's foot against the wall; and he smote her yet more.

26. And the angel of the LORD went on, and stood in a strait place, where there was no turning to the right hand or to the left.

27. And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she fell upon her knees under Balaam. And the wrath of Balaam was kindled, and he smote the ass with the staff.

28. And the LORD opened the ass's mouth, and she said unto Balaam, What have I done unto thee, that thou hast smitten me these three times?

29. And Balaam said unto the ass, Thou mockest me. Oh that I had a sword in my hand, I would slay thee!

30. And the ass said unto Balaam, Am I not thine ass, upon which thou hast ridden in thy days unto this day? And have I ever cared to do so unto thee? And he said, No.

31. And the LORD opened Balaam's eyes, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and a mere sword in his hand; and he bowed down and stooped with his face.

32. And the angel of the LORD said unto him, Wherefore hast thou smitten thine ass thrice?

Behold, I am gone out to resist thee: for the way is turned back before me.

33. And the ass saw me, and departed from me three times: otherwise, if she had not departed from me, even now would I have slain thee, and kept the ass alive.

34. And Balaam said unto the angel of the LORD, I have sinned: for I knew not that thou stoodest in the way against me: and now, if it please thee not, I will return.

35. And the angel of the LORD said unto him, Go with the men; but speak no other thing than that which I shall speak unto thee. So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

36. And when Balak heard that Balaam was come, he went out to meet him unto the city of Moab, which is in the border of Arnon, which is in the uttermost border.

37. And said unto him, Did not I send unto thee, and require thee? Why then didst thou not come unto me? Thinkest thou that I cannot honour thee?

38. And Balaam said unto him, Behold, I am come unto thee; but how can I speak otherwise?

For that which God puts in my mouth I must speak.

39. So Balaam went with Balak, and came into the city of the streets.

40. And Balak offered oxen and sheep, and sent for Balaam, and for the princes that were with him.

(Numbers)

Chapter 23

Balaam's curse turned into a blessing.

41. And it came to pass in the morning, that Balak took Balaam, and brought him up to the top of Baal, that he might see from thence unto the end of the people.

1. And Balaam said unto Balak, Build me here seven altars, and make me seven bullocks and seven rams.

2. And Balak did as Balaam told him: and Balak and Balaam offered upon one altar a bullock and a ram.

3. And Balaam said unto Balak, Stand by thy burnt offering; and I will go, if peradventure the LORD meet me, to tell thee what he sheweth me. And he went in haste.

4. And God met Balaam; and he said unto him, Seven altars have I prepared, and I have offered upon every altar a bullock and a ram.

5. And the LORD put the word in Balaam's mouth, and said, Go again unto Balak, and speak thus.

6. And when he was come again, behold, he stood by his burnt offering with all the princes of Moab.

7. And he began to speak, saying, Balak king of Moab hath sent for me out of Syria, from the mountains toward the east, saying, Come, curse me Jacob. Come, rebuke Israel.

8. How shall I curse him whom God curseth not? How shall I rebuke him whom the LORD rebukeeth not?

9. For from the height of the rocks I see him, and from the hills I behold him. Behold, the people shall dwell specially, and shall not be reckoned among the heathen.

10. Who can number the dust of Jacob, and the number of the fourth part of Israel? Let my soul die the death of the righteous, and let my end be like that end!

11. And Balak said unto Balaam, What doest thou unto me? I sent for thee to curse mine enemies: and, behold, thou blessest.

12. And he answered and said, Must I not keep and speak that which the LORD put in my mouth?

13. And Balak said unto him, Come thou with me unto another place, from thence thou shalt see his end, and yet shalt not see it altogether; and curse me there.

14. And he brought him unto an open place in the high place of Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered upon every altar a bullock and a ram.

15. And he said unto Balak, Stand by thy burnt offering, and I will wait there.

16. And the LORD met Balaam, and put the word in his mouth, and said, Go again unto Balak, and speak thus.

17. And when he was come again, behold, he stood by his burnt offering with the princes of Moab. And Balak said unto him, What hath the LORD said?

18. And he began to speak, saying, Arise, Balak, and hear. Hear what I say, thou son of Zipor.

19. God is not a man, that he should lie; nor the son of man, that he should repent. Should he say something and not do it? Should he speak something and not keep it?

20. Behold, I am brought to bless; I bless, and cannot turn.

21. There is no toil in Jacob, nor work in Israel. The LORD his God is with him, and the trumpet of the king is under him.

22; God brought them out of Egypt; his joy is like that of a unicorn.

23. For there is no magician in Jacob, neither is there a soothsayer in Israel. In his time it shall be said of Jacob, and of Israel, what wonders God doeth.

24. Behold, the people shall rise up like a young lion, and shall be lifted up like a lion; they shall not lie down until they eat the spoil, and drink the blood of the slain.

25. And Balak said unto Balaam, Thou shalt neither curse him, nor bless him.

26. And Balaam answered and said unto Balak, Did I not tell thee that whatsoever the LORD would speak, that would I do?

27. And Balak said unto him, Come now, and I will bring thee unto another place, if it please God that thou curse them there.

28. And he brought him to the top of mount Peor, which looketh toward the wilderness.

29. And Balaam said unto Balak, Build me here seven altars, and make me seven bullocks and seven rams.

30. And Balak did as Balaam said, and offered upon one altar a bullock and a ram.

(Numbers)

Chapter 24

Balaam's prophecy of the star from Jacob.

1. And when Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he went not after the sorcerers, as he went before, but straightway set his face toward the wilderness, 2. And he lifted up his eyes, and saw Israel lying according to their tribes. And the Spirit of God came upon him.

3. And he began his saying, saying, Balaam the son of Beor saith; the man whose eyes are opened saith;

4. It is said by the hearer of divine speech, who sees the revelation of the Almighty, whose eyes are opened when he kneels down:

5. How excellent are thy tents, O Jacob, and thy dwellings, O Israel!

6. How the rivers are spread abroad, as the gardens by the waters, as the tabernacles which the LORD planteth, as the cedars by the waters.

7. Water shall flow out of his bucket, and his seed shall become great waters: his king shall be exalted above Agag, and his kingdom shall be exalted.

8. God hath brought him out of Egypt: his joy is as the joy of a unicorn. He shall devour the heathen, his persecutors, and shall bruise their bones, and shall bruise them with his arrows.

9. He hath laid himself down like a lion, and like a young lion: who will rise up against him?

Blessed is he that blesseth thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee!

10. And Balak was wroth in anger against Balaam, and smote his hands together, and said unto him, I charged thee to curse mine enemies: and, behold, thou hast now blessed them thrice.

11. And now lift thee up into thy place. I thought to honour thee, but the LORD hath denied thee honour.

12. Balaam answered him, Did I not also say unto thy messengers, which thou sentest unto me, saying:

13. If Balak had given me his house full of silver and gold, could I not, in the sight of the LORD, choose to do evil or to do good according to my heart? but what the LORD would speak, that would I speak also?

14. And now, behold, if I go unto my people, come, and I will counsel thee what this people shall do unto thy people in the latter days.

15. And he began his saying, saying, Balaam the son of Beor saith; the man whose eyes are opened saith;

16. He that heareth divine words, and hath knowledge of the most High, and seeth the revelation of the Almighty, and his eyes are opened when he kneels down:

17. I will see him, but not now; I will behold him, but not from near.

There shall arise a star out of Jacob, and a sceptre out of Israel, and shall smite the princes of Moab, and destroy all the children of Seth.

18. Edom shall he take, and Seir shall be subject unto his enemies: but Israel shall have victory.

19. Out of Jacob shall the ruler come, and shall destroy that is left of the cities.

20. And when he saw the Amalekites, he began his saying, Amalek, the first of the heathen: but at the last thou shalt surely perish.

21. And when he saw the Kenites, he began to speak, saying, Thy dwelling is strong, and thou hast laid thy nest in a rock.

22. But, O Kam, thou shalt be burned when Assyria shall carry thee away captive.

23. And he lifted up his saying again, and said, Ah, who shall live when God shall do these things?

24. And ships out of Chittim shall destroy Assyria and Eber: he also shall perish.

25. And Balaam arose, and went, and returned unto his place: and Balak went his way.

(Numbers)

Chapter 25

Idolatry and fornication will be severely punished.

1. And Israel dwelt in Shittim: and the people began to fornicate with the daughters of Moab, 2. Which invited the people to the sacrifice of their gods. And the people did eat, and worshipped their gods.

3. And Israel clave unto Baal Peor. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, 4. And Moses said, Take all the rulers of the people, and hang them in the sun unto the LORD, that the fierce anger of the LORD may be turned from Israel.

5. And Moses said unto the judges of Israel, Slay every man his men that have cleaved unto Baal-peor.

6. And, behold, a man of the children of Israel came and brought among his brethren a Midianitish woman, and made Moses to see, and all the congregation of the children of Israel weeping at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

7. And when the son of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest saw it, he arose out of the congregation, and took a spear in his hand,

8. And he went after the man of Israel into the whore's corner, and pierced them both, the man of Israel and the woman, through their bellies. And the plague ceased from the children of Israel.

9. And there were killed in the plague twenty and four thousand.

10. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

11. Phinehas the son of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest hath turned away mine anger from the children of Israel by his zeal for me, that I should not destroy the children of Israel in my zeal.

12. Therefore say, Behold, I give him my covenant of peace;

13. And he shall have, and his seed after him, the covenant of an everlasting priesthood, because he hath labored for his God, and hath made an atonement for the children of Israel.

14. And the name of the Israelitish man that was slain with the Midianitish woman was Zimri the son of Salu, a ruler in the house of the father of the Simeonites.

15. And the name of the Midianitish woman that was slain was Casbi, the daughter of Zur, who was a prince of one family of the Midianites.

16. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

17. Harm the Midianites, and smite them;

18. For they have wronged you with their deceit, which they set before you by Peor, and by their sister Casbi the daughter of the prince of Midian, which was slain in the day of the plague for Peor's sake, and the plague came after.

(Numbers)

Chapter 26

The Jewish people are counted anew.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses and Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest: 2. Take the sum of all the congregation of the children of Israel from twenty years old and upward, according to their fathers' houses, all that are able to go forth to war in Israel.

3. And Moses spake unto them with Eleazar the priest in the plains of Moab by Jordan over against Jericho,

4. Who were twenty years old and upward, as the LORD commanded Moses, and the children of Israel which came out of Egypt.

5. Reuben, the firstborn of Israel. And the sons of Reuben were: Hanoch, from whom came the family of the Hanochites; Pallu, from whom came the family of the Palluites;

6. Hezron, from whom is the family of the Hezronites; Charmi, from whom is the family of the Charmites.

7. These are the families of Reuben; and their number was forty and three thousand seven hundred and thirty.

8. But the children of Pallu were Eliab;

9. And the sons of Eliab were Nemuel, and Dathan, and Abiram. These are Dathan and Abiram, the chief of the congregation, which rebelled against Moses and Aaron in the company of Korah, when they rebelled against the LORD,

10. And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up with Korah, when the congregation died; when the fire devoured two hundred and fifty men, and became a sign.

11. But the children of Korah died not.

12. The sons of Simeon in their families were: Nemuel, whence cometh the family of the Nemuelites; Jamin, whence cometh the family of the Jaminites; Jachin, whence cometh the family of the Jachinites;

13. Serah, from whence cometh the family of the Zerahites: Saul, from whence cometh the family of the Saulites.

14. These are the families of Simeon: twenty and two thousand and two hundred.

15. The children of Gad in their families were: Ziphon, whence cometh the family of the Ziphonites; Haggi, whence cometh the family of the Haggites; Suni, whence cometh the family of the Sunites;

16. Osni, from whence cometh the family of the Osnites; Eri, from whence cometh the family of the Erites;

17. Arod, from whence cometh the family of the Arodites; Ariel, from whence cometh the family of the Arielites.

18. These are the families of the children of Gad, in their number forty thousand and five hundred.

19. The sons of Judah; Ger and Onan, both of whom died in the land of Canaan.

20. And the children of Judah were of their families; Shelah, from whence came the family of the Selanites; Perez, from whence came the family of the Perezites; Zerah, from whence came the family of the Zerahites.

21. But the sons of Perez were: Hezron, whence cometh the family of the Hezronites; Hamul, whence cometh the family of the Hamulites.

22. These are the families of Judah, in their number threescore and six thousand and five hundred.

23. The children of Issachar in their families were: Thola, from whence comes the family of the Tholaites; Phuva, from whence comes the family of the Phuvanites; 24. Jashub, from whence cometh the family of the Jashubites; Shimron, from whence cometh the family of the Shimronites.

25. These are the families of Issachar, threescore and four thousand and three hundred.

26. The sons of Zebulun in their families were: Zered, whence cometh the family of the Zeredites; Elon, whence cometh the family of the Elonites; Jaheleel, whence cometh the family of the Jaheleelites.

27. These are the families of Zebulun, threescore thousand and five hundred in number.

28. And the sons of Joseph in their families were: Manasseh and Ephraim.

29. And the sons of Manasseh were: Machir, whence cometh the family of the Machirites: Machir begat Gilead, whence cometh the family of the Gileadites.

30. Now these are the children of Gilead: Hieser, from whence comes the family of the Hieserites; Helek, from whence comes the family of the Helekites; 31. Asriel, from whence cometh the family of the Asrielites: and from whence cometh the family of the Shechemites; 32. Smida, whence cometh the family of the Smidaites: Hephher, whence cometh the family of the Hephherites.

33. And Zelaphehad was the son of Hephher, and had no sons, but daughters: and their names were Mahela, and Noah, and Hagla, and Milcah, and Tirzah.

34. These are the families of Manasseh, fifty and two thousand and seven hundred in number.

35. The children of Ephraim in their families were: Suthelah, from whence came the family of the Suthelahites; Becher, from whence came the family of the Becherites; Thahan, from whence came the family of the Thahanites.

36. And the children of Suthelah were: Eran, whence cometh the family of the Eranites.

37. These are the families of the children of Ephraim, in their number thirty and two thousand and five hundred. These are the sons of Joseph in their generations.

38. The children of Benjamin in their families were: Bela, whence cometh the family of the Belaites; Asbel, whence cometh the family of the Asbelites; Ahiram, whence cometh the family of the Ahiramites; 39. Supham, from whence cometh the family of the Suphamites; Hupham, from whence cometh the family of the Huphamites.

40. And the children of Bela were: Ard and Naaman, whence came the families of the Ardites and Naamanites.

41. These are the sons of Benjamin in their families, numbering forty and five thousand and six hundred.

42. The children of Dan in their families were: Suham, from whence comes the family of the Suhamites.

43. These are the families of Dan in their generations, and were all the number of them threescore and four thousand and four hundred.

44. The children of Asher in their families were: Jemna, from whence cometh the family of the Jemnites; Jeswi, from whence cometh the family of the Jezvites; Briah, from whence cometh the family of the Brites.

45. But the sons of Briah were: Heber, whence cometh the family of the Hebrews; Melchiel, whence cometh the family of the Melchielites.

46. And the name of the daughter of Asher was Sarah.

47. These are the families of the children of Asher, in their number fifty and three thousand and four hundred.

48. The children of Naphtali in their families were: Jaheziel, whence came the family of the Jahezielites; Guni, whence came the family of the Gunites;

49. Jezer, from whence cometh the family of the Jezerites; Sillem, from whence cometh the family of the Sillemites.

50. These are the families of Naphtali, in their number forty and five thousand and four hundred.

51. This is the sum of the children of Israel, six times an hundred thousand, one thousand seven hundred and thirty.

52. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

53. Unto these shalt thou divide the land for an inheritance according to the number of the names.

54. Many shalt thou give much for an inheritance, and few shalt thou give little: to every one shalt thou give according to his number.

55. But the land shall be divided by lot: according to the names of the tribes of their fathers shall they take inheritance.

56. For by lot shalt thou divide their inheritance between the many and the few.

57. And this is the summa of the Levites in their families: Gershon, therefore the family of the Gershonites; Kohath, therefore the family of the Kohathites; Meran, therefore the family of the Merarites.

58. These are the families of Levi; the family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Mahelites, the family of the Musites, the family of the Korahites. Kohath begat Amram.

59. And Amram's wife's name was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, which was born unto him in Egypt: and she bare unto Amram Aaron, and Moses, and Miriam her sister.

60. And unto Aaron was born Nadab, and Abihu, and Eleazar, and Ithamar.

61. And Nadab and Abihu died, when they offered strange fire before the LORD.

62. And the sum of them was twenty and three thousand, every male from a month old and upward. For they were not numbered among the children of Israel: for there was no inheritance given them among the children of Israel.

63. This is the sum of the children of Israel, which Moses and Eleazar the priest numbered in the plains of Moab by Jordan over against Jericho;

64. Of whom there was none of the number, when Moses and Aaron the priest numbered the children of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai.

65. For the LORD had told them that they should die in the wilderness. And there was none left but Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun,

(Numbers)

Chapter 27

Law of hereditary estates. Joshua appointed prince of the people in Moses' stead.

1. And the daughters of Zelaphehad the son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph, named Mahela, Noah, Hagla, Milcah, and Tirzah, came near.

2. And they stood before Moses, and before Eleazar the priest, and before the princes, and all the congregation, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and said: 3. Our father died in the wilderness, and was not with the congregation that rebelled against the LORD in the company of Korah, but died in his sin, and had no sons.

4. Why then should our father's name perish among his seed, though he have no son? Pray us also a good among our father's brethren.

5. Moses brought their cause before the LORD.

6. And the LORD said unto him:

7. The daughters of Zelaphehad have spoken right: thou shalt give them an inheritance among their father's brethren, and shalt give their father's inheritance unto them.

8. And say unto the children of Israel, If a man die, and have no sons, ye shall give his inheritance unto his daughter.

9. If he have no daughter, ye shall give her unto his brethren.

10. If he have no brethren, ye shall give it unto his kinsmen.

11. If he have no kinsmen, ye shall give it unto his kinsmen that are next of kin unto him, that they may take it. This shall be a law and a statute unto the children of Israel, as the LORD commanded Moses.

12. And the LORD said unto Moses, Get you up into this mountain Abarim, and possess the land which I will give unto the children of Israel.

13. And when thou hast seen it, thou shalt gather thyself unto thy people, as Aaron thy brother was gathered,

14. Because ye disobeyed my word in the wilderness of Zin over the strife of the congregation, when ye sanctified me by the water before them. This is the water of the Haad in Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin.

15. And Moses spake unto the LORD, saying:

16. Let the LORD God, who is over all living flesh, set a man over the congregation, 17. Who goeth out from before them, and leadeth them in and out, that the congregation of the Lord be not as sheep without a shepherd.

18. And the LORD said unto Moses, Take thee Joshua the son of Nun, which is a man in whom is the Spirit, and lay thine hands upon him;

19. And set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation, and minister unto him in their sight;

20. And put thy glory upon him, that all the congregation of the children of Israel may obey him.

21. And he shall stand before Eleazar the priest, and he shall ask counsel for him by the way of light before the LORD. After the mouth of the priest shall he go out, and they shall come in, he, and all the children of Israel with him, and all the congregation.

22. And Moses, as the LORD commanded him, took Joshua, and set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation;

23. And he laid his hand upon him, and commanded him, as the LORD spake unto Moses.

(Numbers)

Chapter 28

Law of multiple victims repeated.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

2. Give unto the children of Israel, and say unto them: The sacrifices of my bread, which is my sacrifice of sweet savour, shall ye keep in his seasons, to offer unto me.

3. And say unto them: These are the sacrifices which ye shall offer unto the LORD: lambs of the first year without change, two every day for a continual burnt offering; 4. One lamb of the morning, the other between evenings;

5. And a tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil that is poured out, a fourth part of the hin.

6. This is a daily burnt offering, which ye offered at mount Sinai for a sweet savour, a fire unto the LORD.

7. And the drink offering thereof, a quarter of the hin for each lamb. And in the sanctuary shall the wine of the drink offering be offered unto the LORD.

8. And the other lamb shalt thou make between the evenings, as the meat offering of the morning, and the drink offering thereof for a sacrifice of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

9. And on the sabbath day two lambs of the first year without change, and two tenths of fine flour for a meat offering mingled with oil, and his drink offering.

10. This is the burnt offering of every sabbath above the daily burnt offering, with his drink offering.

11. And on the first day of your months ye shall offer a burnt offering unto the LORD; two young bullocks, one ram, seven lambs of the first year without change; 12. And three tenths of fine flour for a meat offering mingled with oil for a bullock, and two tenths of fine flour for a meat offering mingled with oil for a ram; 13. And a tenth of fine flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil, for a lamb. This is the burnt offering of the sweet savour, an offering made unto the LORD.

14. And their drink offering shall be half an hin of wine for a bullock, and a third part for a ram, and a fourth part for a lamb. This is the burnt offering of every month of the year.

15. And they shall offer a kid of the goats for a sin offering unto the LORD, upon the daily burnt offering, and upon his drink offering.

16. And on the fourteenth day of the first month is the passover to the LORD.

17. And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast. Seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten.

18. The first day shall be called holy, that ye come together: ye shall do no service within.

19. And ye shall offer burnt offerings unto the LORD; two young bullocks, and one ram, and seven lambs of the first year without change,

20. And their meat offering: three tenths of fine flour mingled with oil for a bullock, and two tenths for a ram;

21. And a tithe on each of the seven lambs;

22. And one goat for a sin offering, that ye may be reconciled.

23. And ye shall do this in the morning upon the burnt offering, which is a daily burnt offering.

24. After this manner ye shall offer bread every day seven days, for an offering of a sweet savour unto the LORD, above the daily burnt offering, and his drink offering.

25. And the seventh day shall be called holy unto you, that ye come together: ye shall do no service within.

26. And the day of the firstfruits, when ye offer the new meat offering unto the LORD, when your weeks are expired, shall be called holy, that ye come together: ye shall do no work within.

27. And ye shall offer burnt offerings for a sweet savour unto the LORD; two young bullocks, and one ram, and seven lambs of the first year,

28. And their meat offering: three tenths of fine flour mingled with oil for a bullock, and two tenths for a ram;

29. And a tithe each to a lamb of the seven lambs;

30. And a kid of the goats to make atonement for you.

31. This shall ye do for the daily burnt offering with his meat offering. Without change it shall be, with their drink offerings.

(Numbers)

Chapter 29

Other victims.

1. And the first day of the seventh month shall be called holy unto you, that ye come together: ye shall do no service within. It is your day of drumming.
2. And ye shall offer burnt offerings for a sweet savour unto the LORD; a young bullock, and a ram, and seven lambs of the first year without change;
3. And their meat offering: three tenths of fine flour mingled with oil for the bullock, and two tenths for the ram.
4. And a tithe on every lamb of the seven lambs;
5. Even a kid of the goats for a sin offering, to make atonement for you,
6. Over the burnt offering of the moon, and over his meat offering, and over the daily burnt offering, with his meat offering, and with their drink offering, according to their right for a sweet savour. This is an offering unto the LORD.
7. The tenth day of this seventh month shall also be called holy unto you, that ye come together; and ye shall mortify your bodies, and do no work within,
8. But offer burnt offerings unto the LORD for a sweet savour; a young bullock, and a ram, and seven lambs of the first year without change,
9. With their meat offerings, three tenths of fine flour mingled with oil for the bullock, and two tenths for the ram.
10. And a tithe each to one of the seven lambs;
11. And one kid of the goats for a sin offering over against the sin offering of atonement, and the daily burnt offering with his meat offering, and with their drink offering.
12. The fifteenth day of the seventh month shall be called holy unto you, that ye come together.
Ye shall do no service within: ye shall keep the feast of the LORD seven days.
13. And ye shall offer burnt offerings for a sacrifice of a sweet savour unto the LORD; thirteen young bullocks, and two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without change,
14. And their meat offering: three tenths of fine flour mingled with oil for one of the thirteen bullocks, and two tenths for one of the two rams.
15. and a tithe each to one of the fourteen lambs;

16. And one kid of the goats for a sin offering for the daily burnt offering, with his meat offering, and his drink offering.

17. And the next day twelve young bullocks, and two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without issue,

18. With their meat offering and their drink offering unto the bullocks, and to the rams, and to the lambs, in their number, according to the law;

19. And one kid of the goats for a sin offering over the daily burnt offering, with his meat offering, and with their drink offering.

20. And on the third day eleven bullocks, and two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without issue,

21. With their meat offerings and their drink offerings unto the bullocks, and to the rams, and to the lambs, in their number, according to the law;

22. And one kid of the goats for a sin offering for the daily burnt offering, with his meat offering, and his drink offering.

23. And on the fourth day ten bullocks, and two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without issue,

24. With their meat offerings and their drink offerings, with the bullocks, and with the rams, and with the lambs, in their number, according to the law; 25. And one kid of the goats for a sin offering for the daily burnt offering, with his meat offering, and his drink offering.

26. And on the fifth day nine bullocks, and two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without issue,

27. And their meat offerings, and their drink offerings, and their bullocks, and their rams, and their lambs, in their number, according to the law;

28. And one goat for a sin offering for the daily burnt offering, with his meat offering, and his drink offering.

29. And on the sixth day eight bullocks, and two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without issue,

30. And their meat offering, and their drink offering, and their bullock, and their rams, and their lambs, according to their number, according to the law; and a goat for a sin offering over 31. And the daily burnt offering, with his meat offering, and his drink offering.

32. And on the seventh day seven bullocks, and two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without issue,

33. And their meat offerings, and their drink offerings, and their bullocks, and their rams, and their lambs, in their number, according to the law;

34. And a goat for a sin offering over the daily burnt offering with his meat offering and his drink offering.

35. On the eighth day shall be the day of the assembly: ye shall do no service within.

36. And ye shall offer burnt offerings for a sacrifice of a sweet savour unto the LORD; a bullock, and a ram, and seven lambs of the first year without change,

37. And their meat offerings, and their drink offerings, and their bullocks, and their rams, and their lambs, in their number, according to the law;

38. And one goat for a sin offering over the daily burnt offering with his meat offering and his drink offering.

39. These things shall ye do unto the LORD in your feasts, except that which ye vow and freely offer for burnt offerings, and for meat offerings, and for drink offerings, and for peace offerings.

Ch. 30. v. 1. And Moses told the children of Israel all things whatsoever the LORD commanded him.

(Numbers)

Chapter 30

Of vows, how they connect or don't connect.

2. And Moses spake unto the princes of the tribes of the children of Israel, saying, This is that the LORD hath commanded:

3. If any man vow a vow unto the LORD, or swear an oath to bind up his soul, he shall not weaken his word, but shall do according to all that proceeded out of his mouth.

4. When a woman voweth a vow unto the LORD, and is joined together, because she is in her father's house, and in the magdalities;

5. And her vow and her covenant, which she hath made over her soul, shall come before her father, and he shall hold his peace: so shall all her vow be, and all her covenant, which she hath bound herself over her soul.

6. But if her father forbid her in the daytime, when he heareth it, there is no vow nor covenant, whereof she hath bound herself over her soul: and the LORD will be gracious unto her, because her father hath forbidden her.

7. But if she have a husband, and have a vow upon her, or if she escape out of her lips a covenant upon her soul;

8. And the man heareth it, and is silent that day: so is her vow and covenant, which she hath bound herself to for her soul.

9. And if her husband repent in the day when he heareth it, then her vow that she hath upon her is loosed, and the covenant that is gone out of her lips upon her soul: and the LORD will be gracious unto her.

10. The vow of a widow and an outcast: all that she bindeth herself about her soul shall be upon her.

11. If a man's servants pledge or bind themselves with an oath concerning his soul; 12. And the master of the house heareth it, and holdeth his peace, and forbeareth it not: so all the same vow, and all that he hath joined himself to, shall be for his soul.

13. But if the master of the house loose it in the day when he heareth it, it shall not be counted that which proceeded out of his lips, which he hath vowed, or that which he hath joined himself unto his soul: for the master of the house hath loosed it; and the LORD will be gracious unto him.

14. And all the vows and oaths to bind, to mortify the body, the master of the house may strengthen or weaken, so:

15. And when he shall hold his peace from day to day, he shall confirm all his vows and covenants that are upon him, because he held his peace in the day that he heard it.

16. But if he weaken it after he hath heard it, he shall bear the iniquity.

17. These are the statutes which the LORD commanded Moses between husband and wife, between father and daughter; because she is yet a maid in her father's house.

(Numbers)

Chapter 31

Israel receives victory and great spoils against the Midianites.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

2. Avenge the children of Israel upon the Midianites, and afterward gather thyself unto thy people.
3. And Moses spake unto the people, saying, Prepare ye a host among you against the Midianites, to avenge the LORD upon the Midianites;
4. Out of every tribe a thousand, that ye may send into the army out of all the tribes of Israel.
5. And they took of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand armed for an army.
6. And Moses sent them into the army with Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the holy garments and the hall trumpets into his hand.
7. And they led the host against the Midianites, as the LORD commanded Moses, and slew all the males.
8. And they slew the kings of Midian with their slain, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, the five kings of Midian. Balaam the son of Beor also they slew with the sword.
9. And the children of Israel took captive the wives of the Midianites, and their children; all their cattle, and all their substance, and all their goods, did they spoil.
10. And burnt with fire all their cities of their habitation, and all their castles.
11. And they took all the spoil, and all that was to be taken, both men and cattle, 12. And they brought them unto Moses, and unto Eleazar the priest, and unto the congregation of the children of Israel, even the captives, and the cattle that were taken, and the spoil, unto the camp that is in the plains of Moab, which are by Jordan over against Jericho.
13. And Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went out to meet them before the camp.
14. And Moses was wroth with the captains of the host, which were captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, which were of the host, and of the battle, 15. And said unto them: Why have ye let all the women live?
16. Behold, did not the children of Israel, by the counsel of Balaam, turn away to sin against the LORD above Peor, and a plague befell the congregation of the LORD?
17. Slay therefore all that are male among the children, and all the women which men have known, and which have been with them;

18. But every child that is a woman, and hath not known nor been with men, let him live unto you.

19. And ye shall lie down without the camp seven days, all ye that have slain, or touched them that were slain; and ye shall repent yourselves the third day, and the seventh day, with them that are taken captives.

20. And all garments, and all vessels of skins, and all furs, and all vessels of oil, shall ye uncover.

21. And Eleazar the priest said unto the people of war that were at war, This is the law which the LORD commanded Moses:

22. gold, silver, ore, iron, tin and lead

23. And all that suffereth fire ye shall pass through the fire, and purify it, that it may be purged with the water of separation. But all that suffereth not fire ye shall pass through water.

24. And ye shall wash your clothes the seventh day, and be clean: afterward ye shall come into the camp.

25. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

26. Take the sum of the spoil of the captives, both of men and cattle, thou, and Eleazar the priest, and the chief fathers of the congregation,

27. And give half to them that went out to the army, and did the battle, and the other half to the congregation.

28. And thou shalt raise up unto the LORD of the men of war that are gone out to the army one soul every five hundred, both of men, and of oxen, and of asses, and of sheep.

29. Of their half shalt thou take, and give unto Eleazar the priest to heave unto the LORD.

30. And of the half of the children of Israel thou shalt take of every fifty a piece of goods, both of men, and of oxen, and of asses, and of sheep, and of all cattle, and shalt give them unto the Levites, which keep the charge of the tabernacle of the LORD.

31. And Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses.

32. And the rest of the spoil which the people of war had taken were six hundred and five and fifty thousand sheep,

33. Seventy-two thousand head of cattle,

34. Sixty-one thousand asses

35. And of the women that were not known to men, nor that were with them, thirty and two thousand souls.

36. And the half that belonged to them that went forth into the army were in number three hundred and thirty and seven thousand and five hundred sheep.

37. Of which there were unto the LORD six hundred and seventy and five sheep.

38. And there were thirty and six thousand oxen, of which seventy and two were given unto the LORD.

39. Item, thirty thousand and five hundred asses; of which one~ and sixty were given to the LORD.

40. Item, souls of men, sixteen thousand souls; of which thirty and two were given unto the LORD.

41. And Moses gave the heave of the LORD unto Eleazar the priest, as the LORD commanded him.

42. But the other half, which Moses allotted unto the children of Israel of the men of war 43. namely, half of the congregation in charge, was also three hundred times, and thirty and seven thousand five hundred sheep,

44. Thirty-six thousand head of cattle,

45. thirty thousand and five hundred asses

46. and sixteen thousand souls of men.

47. And Moses took of this half of the children of Israel a piece of fifty, both of cattle and of men, and gave them unto the Levites that kept the guard at the tabernacle of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

48. And the captains of thousands of the people of war, that is, of thousands and hundreds, came unto Moses.

49. And they said unto him, Thy servants have taken the sum of the men of war that were under our hands, and there lacketh not one.

50. Wherefore we bring unto the LORD gifts, every man's vessels of gold, chains, bracelets, rings, earrings, and clasps, that our souls may be reconciled unto the LORD.

51. And Moses took of them, and Eleazar the priest, the gold of all the vessels.

52. And all the gold that they brought unto the LORD was sixteen thousand and seven hundred and fifty shekels of the captains of thousands and hundreds.

53. For the men of war had spoiled every man for himself.

54. And Moses with Eleazar the priest took the gold of the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the tabernacle of the congregation for a memorial of the children of Israel before the LORD.
(Numbers)

Chapter 32

A beginning is made to the possession of the land of Canaan.

1. And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had much cattle, and looked upon the land of Jaesher and Gilead for a convenient place for their cattle;

2. And they came and spake unto Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and to the princes of the congregation:

3. The land of Ataroth, Dibon, Jaeser, Nimrah, Heshbon, Eleale, Zebam, Nebo, and Beon, 4. Which the LORD hath smitten before the congregation of Israel, it is convenient for cattle: and we thy servants have cattle.

5. And they said, If we have found grace in thy sight, let this land be given unto thy servants, and let us not pass over Jordan.

6. And Moses said unto them: Your brethren shall go to battle, and ye will tarry here?

7. Why do ye harden the hearts of the children of Israel, that they go not over into the land which the LORD shall give them?

8. So did your fathers, when I sent them forth from Kadeshbarnea, to see the land; 9. And when they were come up to the brook Eshcol, and saw the land, they made the heart of the children of Israel to turn, that they would not enter into the land which the LORD would give them.

10. And the anger of the LORD was kindled at that time, and he sware, and said: 11. For these men which came out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall not see the land which I sware unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, because they followed me not faithfully;

12. Except Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite, and Joshua the son of Nun: for they followed the LORD faithfully.

13. So the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until there was an end of all the generation that had done evil in the sight of the LORD.

14. And, behold, ye are come up in the place of your fathers, that there should be more sinners, and that ye should provoke the anger and wrath of the LORD against Israel.

15. For wheresoever ye turn from him, he will also longer leave them in the wilderness, and ye shall destroy all this people.

16. And they came near, and said: We will build flocks here for our cattle, and cities for our children;

17. And we will prepare ourselves before the children of Israel, until we bring them into their place. Our children shall dwell in the cities that are shut up, because of the inhabitants of the land.

18. We will not return until the children of Israel take every man his inheritance.

19. For we will not inherit with them on the other side Jordan: but our inheritance shall fall unto us on this side Jordan toward the east.

20. And Moses said unto them: If ye will do this thing, to prepare yourselves to battle before the LORD,

21. Then pass over Jordan before the LORD, he that is armed among you, until he cast out his enemies from before his face,

22. And the land shall be subdued before the LORD: afterward ye shall return, and be blameless before the LORD, and before Israel; and ye shall inherit this land before the LORD.

23. But if ye will not do so, behold, ye shall sin against the LORD, and shall know your sin when it findeth you.

24. Now therefore build ye cities for your children, and hedges for your cattle, and do according to all that ye have spoken.

25. And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben said unto Moses, Thy servants shall do as my lord hath commanded.

26. Our children, our wives, our goods, and all our cattle, shall be in the cities of Gilead; 27. And we thy servants will all go armed to battle before the LORD, as my lord hath spoken.

28. And Moses commanded Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, on that occasion.

29: And he said unto them: When the children of Gad and the children of Reuben pass over Jordan with you, all armed for war before the LORD, and the land is subject unto you, then give them the land of Gilead for their possession.

30. And if they draw not with you, then they shall inherit with you in the land of Canaan.
31. And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered and said: As the LORD spake unto thy servants, so will we do.
32. We will go armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, and possess our inheritance on this side Jordan.
33. And Moses gave unto the children of Gad, and unto the children of Reuben, and unto the half tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land and the cities throughout all the coasts thereof.
34. And the children of Gad built Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer, 35. Atroth, Sophan, Jaeser, Jegabeha,
36. Beth-Nimrah and Beth Haran, closed cities and sheepfolds.
37. And the children of Reuben built Heshbon, Eleale, Kiriathaim, 38. Nebo, Baal-meon, and changed the names thereof, and Sibamah; and gave names to the cities which they built.
39. And the children of Machir the son of Manasseh went into Gilead, and took it, and drove out the Amorites that were therein.
40. And Moses gave Gilead unto Machir the son of Manasseh; and he dwelt therein.
41. And Jair the son of Manasseh went and took their villages, and called their name Havoth-jair.
42. And Nobah went and took Knath with her daughters, and called them Nobah after his name.

(Numbers)

Chapter 33

Register of the journeys and encampments of the people of Israel.

1. These are the journeys of the children of Israel, which came forth out of the land of Egypt after their host by Moses and Aaron.
2. And Moses described their journey, how they went, according to the commandment of the LORD: for these are the journeys of their journey.
3. And they departed from Raemeses on the fifteenth day of the first month, the second day of Pascha, by a high hand, that all the Egyptians might see,
4. And they buried the very firstborn, which the LORD had smitten among them: for the LORD also had executed judgments upon their gods.

5. And when they departed from Raemses, they encamped in Sukthoth.
6. And they departed from Shukoth, and encamped in Etham, which is at the end of the wilderness.
7. And they departed from Etham, and dwelt in the valley of Hiroth, which is over against Baalzephon, and encamped against Migdol.
8. And they departed from Hiroth, and went through the midst of the sea into the wilderness: and they journeyed three days in the wilderness of Etham, and pitched in Tin Marah.
9. And they departed from Marah, and came to Elim, wherein were twelve wells of water, and seventy palm trees: and they pitched there.
10. And they departed from Elim, and pitched by the Red sea.
11. And they departed from the Red sea, and pitched in the wilderness of Sin.
12. And they departed from the wilderness of Sin, and pitched in Daphkah.
13. And they departed from Daphkah, and encamped in Alus.
14. And they departed from Alus, and pitched in Raphidim: there the people had no water to drink.
15. And they departed from Raphidim, and encamped in the wilderness of Sinai.
16. And they departed from Sinai, and pitched in the graves of pleasure.
17. And they departed from the graves of pleasure, and pitched in Hazeroth.
18. And they departed from Hazeroth, and pitched in Rithma.
19. And they departed from Rithma, and encamped in Rimon-parez.
20. And they departed from Rimon-parez, and encamped at Libnah.
21. And they departed from Libnah, and encamped at Rissa.
22. And they departed from Rissa, and encamped at Kehelatha.
23. And they departed from Kehelatha, and encamped in mount Sapher.
24. And they departed from mount Sapher, and encamped in Haradah.
25. And they departed from Harada, and encamped in Makeheloth.
26. And they departed from Makeheloth, and encamped in Tahath.
27. And they departed from Tahath, and encamped in Tarah.
28. And they departed from Tarah, and pitched in Mithkah.
29. And they departed from Mithkah, and encamped at Hazmonah.

30. And they departed from Hasmona, and encamped at Moseroth.
31. And they departed from Moseroth, and encamped at Bne-jakan.
32. And they departed from Bne-jakan, and encamped in Horgidgad.
33. And they departed from Horgidgad, and encamped at Jathbatha.
34. And they departed from Jathbatha, and encamped in Abrona.
35. And they departed from Abrona, and encamped in Ezeon-gaber.
36. And they departed from Ezeon-gaber, and pitched in the wilderness of Zin, which is Kadesh.
37. And they departed from Kadesh, and pitched in mount Hor, in the border of the land of Edom.
38. And Aaron the priest went up into mount Hor, according to the commandment of the LORD, and died there in the fortieth year of the exodus of the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt, in the first day of the fifth month,
39. When he was an hundred and twenty and three years old.
40. And Arad king of the Canaanites, which dwelt in the south of the land of Canaan, heard that the children of Israel were come.
41. And they went out from the mountain, and pitched in Zalmona.
42. And they departed from Zalmona, and encamped in Phunon.
43. And they departed from Phunon, and encamped in Oboth.
44. And they departed from Oboth, and pitched in Jgim, by mount Abarim, in the border of Moab.
45. And they departed from Jgim, and encamped at Dibon-gad.
46. And they departed from Dibon-gad, and encamped in Almon-diblathaim.
47. And they departed from Almon-diblathaim, and pitched in the mountains of Abarim against Nebo.
48. And they departed from mount Abarim, and pitched in the plains of Moab by Jordan toward Jericho.
49. And they encamped by Jordan from Beth-jesimoth unto the breadth of Shittim, the coasts of Moab.
50. And the LORD spake unto Moses in the plains of Moab by Jordan against Jericho, saying: 51. Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them: When ye are gone over Jordan into the land of Canaan.
22. Then ye shall drive out all the inhabitants from before your face, and destroy all their pillars, and all their graven images, and destroy all their high places,

53. So that ye may possess the land, and dwell therein: for unto you have I given the land to possess it.

54. And ye shall divide the land by lot among your families. And unto them whose is much ye shall divide the more, and unto them whose is little ye shall divide the less. And as the lot shall fall upon every one there, so shall he have it, according to the tribes of their fathers.

55. But if ye will not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before your face, then they that remain of you shall become thorns in your eyes, and thorns in your sides, and shall throng you in the land wherein ye dwell within.

56. So it shall come to pass, that I will do unto you even as I thought to do unto them.

(Numbers)

Chapter 34

Boundaries of the Promised Land, how and by which to distribute it.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

2. Give unto the children of Israel, and say unto them: When ye come into the land of Canaan, the land that shall fall unto you for an inheritance in the land of Canaan shall be the border thereof.

3. And the south border shall begin at the wilderness of Zin, which is by Edom: and your border shall be on the south side from the end of the salt sea, which is on the east side, 4. And the border of it shall be from the south up to Akrabbim, and shall pass through Zinnah; and the end thereof shall be from the south unto Kadeshbarnea, and shall pass by the village of Adar, and shall pass through Azmon;

5. And it shall be from Azmon unto the river of Egypt, and the end thereof shall be by the sea.

6. But the border toward the west shall be this; even the great sea. Let this be your border toward the west.

7. The border toward the north shall be this: Ye shall measure from the great sea unto mount Hor;

8. And measure from mount Hor unto Hamath: and the going out thereof shall be the border of Zedadah;

9. And the border of it shall be at Siphron, and the end thereof shall be at the village of Enan. Let this be your border toward the north.

10. And ye shall measure the border eastward from the village of Enan unto Sepham; 11. And the border shall go down from Sepham unto Riblah unto Am from the east: and afterward it shall go down and be turned unto the sides of the sea of Cinereth toward the east, 12. And come down to Jordan, and let the salt sea be the end thereof. This shall be your land, and the border thereof round about.

13. And Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying, This is the land which ye shall divide among you by lot, which the LORD commanded to be given unto the nine tribes, and to the half tribe.

14. For the tribe of the children of Reuben, of the house of their father, and the tribe of the children of Gad, of the house of their father, and the half tribe of Manasseh, were partakers unto her.

15. So the two tribes and the half tribe have their inheritance there since Jordan toward Jericho, toward the east.

16. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

17. These are the names of the men that shall divide the land among you: Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son

18. And ye shall take the princes of every tribe to divide the land.

19. And these are the names of the men: Caleb the son of Jephunneh, of the tribe of Judah; 20. And Shemuel the son of Ammihud, of the tribe of Simeon;

21. Elidad the son of Chislon, of the tribe of Benjamin;

22. Buki the son of Jagli, prince of the tribe of the children of Dan;

23. Haniel the son of Ephod, prince of the tribe of the children of Manasseh of the children of Joseph;

24. And Kemuel the son of Siphtan, prince of the tribe of the children of Ephraim;

25. Elizaphan the son of Parnach, prince of the tribe of the children of Zebulun;

26. Paltiel the son of Asan, prince of the tribe of the children of Issachar;

27. Ahihud the son of Selomi, prince of the tribe of the children of Asher;

28. Pedahel the son of Ammihud prince of the tribe of the children of Naphtali.

29. These are they whom the LORD commanded to divide an inheritance unto the children of Israel in the land of Canaan.

(Numbers)

Chapter 35

Of the cities of the Levites, free cities, and manslaughter.

1. And the LORD spake unto Moses in the plains of Moab by Jordan against Jericho, saying: 2. Give unto the children of Israel, that they may give unto the Levites cities of their inheritance, where they may dwell;

3. And the suburbs round about the cities shall ye give unto the Levites also, that they may dwell in the cities, and have in the suburbs their cattle, and their goods, and all manner of beasts.

4. And the breadth of the suburbs, which they shall give unto the Levites, shall be a thousand cubits round about, beside the wall of the city.

5. And ye shall measure the outward part of the city from the east corner two thousand cubits, and from the south corner two thousand cubits, and from the west corner two thousand cubits, and from the north corner two thousand cubits: and the city shall be in the middle. These are the suburbs thereof.

6. And of the cities which ye shall give unto the Levites, ye shall give six cities of refuge; and whosoever hath committed manslaughter shall go in there. And over them ye shall give forty and two cities,

7. And all the cities which ye shall give unto the Levites shall be forty and eight with their suburbs.

8. And ye shall give the more of them that have much among the children of Israel, and the less of them that have little: every man according to his inheritance that is allotted unto him shall give cities unto the Levites.

9. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying:

10. Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye are come over Jordan into the land of Canaan,

11. Choose ye cities, that they may be cities of refuge: let him flee thither that committeth unawares manslaughter.

12. And there shall be among you such cities of refuge from the avenger of blood, that he that hath committed manslaughter shall not die, until he be tried before the congregation.

13. And of the cities which ye shall give shall be six free cities.

14. Three shall ye give on this side Jordan, and three in the land of Canaan.

15. These are the six cities of refuge, both of the children of Israel, and of the strangers, and of the householders that are among you; that whosoever hath committed manslaughter may flee thither unawares.

16. Whosoever shall smite any man with an iron, that he die, he is a manslayer, and shall surely be put to death.

17. If he cast a stone at him, that any man might be killed, and die of it, he is a manslayer, and shall surely be put to death.

18. But if he smite him with a wood, that he may smite a man to death, he is a manslayer, and shall surely be put to death.

19. The avenger of blood shall put to death the manslayer: as he hath smitten, so shall he be put to death again.

20. If he cast him out of hatred, or cast any thing upon him by guile, that he die, 21. Or if he smite him with his hand through enmity, that he die: he that smote him shall surely die: for he is a manslayer: the avenger of blood shall put him to death.

22. But if he thrust him about without enmity, or cast any thing upon him unawares, 23. Or any stone, whereof a man may die, and hath not seen it, cast upon him, that he die; and he is not his enemy, neither hath he willed him any evil:

24. Then shall the congregation judge between him that smote, and the avenger of blood in this judgment.

25. And the congregation shall deliver the slayer out of the hand of the avenger of blood, and shall restore him to the city of refuge whither he fled, and there shall he dwell, until the high priest die, whom he hath anointed with the holy oil.

26. And the manslayer shall go forth out of his city of refuge, whither he is fled, 27. And if the avenger of blood find him out of the bounds of his free city, and smite him dead, he shall not be guilty of blood.

28. For he was to remain in his free city until the death of the high priest, and after the death of the high priest to come again to the land of his inheritance.

29. And it shall be a statute unto you in your generations, whither ye dwell.

30. The manslayer shall be put to death after the mouth of two witnesses. A witness shall not answer a soul to death.

31. And ye shall take no reconciliation upon the soul of the manslayer: for he is guilty of death, and he shall surely die.

32. And ye shall not make reconciliation for him that is fled to the city of refuge, that he may come again to dwell in the land, until the priest die.

33. And profane not the land wherein ye dwell. For he that is guilty of blood defileth the land: and the land cannot be reconciled by the blood that is shed therein, except by the blood of him that shed it.

34. Defile not the land wherein ye dwell, wherein I also dwell: for I am the LORD that dwelleth among the children of Israel.

(Numbers)

Chapter 36

By unequal marriages the inheritance parts are not to be distorted.

1. And the chief fathers of the families of the children of Gilead, the son of Machir, who was the son of Manasseh, of the family of the children of Joseph, came near, and spake before Moses, and before the princes of the chief fathers of the children of Israel.

2. And they said: O Lord, the LORD commanded that the land should be given for an inheritance by lot unto the children of Israel: and thou, my lord, hast commanded by the LORD that the inheritance of Zelaphehad our brother should be given unto his daughters.

3. If any of the tribes of the children of Israel take them to be wives, the inheritance of our father shall be less; and as much as they have shall be added unto the inheritance of the tribe whither they come: so shall the lot of our inheritance be less.

4. And it shall come to pass, when the year of jubile of the children of Israel is come, that their inheritance shall be added unto the inheritance of the tribe where they are: so shall the inheritance of our father be less, as much as they have.

5. And Moses commanded the children of Israel according to the commandment of the LORD, saying, The tribe of the children of Joseph hath spoken right.

6. This is the word which the LORD giveth unto the daughters of Zelaphehad, saying, Let them go free as they please, only that they may go free among the family of their father's tribe, 7. Lest the inheritance of the children of Israel fall from tribe to tribe: for every one of the children of Israel shall cleave to the inheritance of the tribe of his father.

8. And every daughter that hath an inheritance among the tribes of the children of Israel shall marry one of the seed of her father's tribe, that every one of the children of Israel may inherit his father's inheritance,

9. And let not the inheritance of one tribe fall upon another: but let every man cleave to his inheritance among the tribes of the children of Israel.

10. As the LORD commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelaphehad,

11. Mahela, Thirza, Hagla, Milka, and Noa, and freed the children of their cousins, 12. Of the seed of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph. So their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father.

13. These are the commandments and the statutes, which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses unto the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by Jordan toward Jericho.

Text of the unrevised Luther Bible 1545:

DeepL English Translation

[Processed by BackToLuther. German text published here.]

The fifth book of Moses (Deuteronomy) ^

Chapter 1

God's good deeds. Israel's ingratitude.

1. These are the words which Moses spake unto all Israel on the other side Jordan in the wilderness, in the plains over against the Red sea, between Paran and Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Disahab,

2. Eleven days' journey from Horeb by the way of mount Seir unto Kadeshbarnea.

3. And it came to pass in the fortieth year, in the first day of the eleventh month, that Moses spake unto the children of Israel all things, as the LORD commanded him unto them, 4. After he had smitten Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, which dwelt at Ashtaroth, and at Edrei.

5. Beyond Jordan in the land of Moab Moses began to interpret this law, saying: 6. The LORD our God spake unto us in mount Horeb, saying: Ye have been long enough in this mountain;

7. Turn ye, and go, and come unto the mountains of the Amorites, and unto all their neighbours in the land, upon the mountains, and in the valleys, toward the south, and toward the fords of the sea in the land of Canaan, and unto mount Lebanon, unto the great river Phrath.

8. Behold, I have given you the land which is before you; go in and possess it, which the LORD sware unto your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give unto them, and to their seed after them.

9. Then said I unto you at that time: I cannot bear you alone;

10. For the LORD your God hath multiplied you, that ye should be this day as the multitude of the stars of heaven.

11. The LORD God of your fathers make you many thousands more, and bless you, as he hath spoken unto you.

12. How can I alone bear such toil and burden and strife from you?

13. Provide you wise men, and understanding, and experience, among your tribes; and I will set them over you for heads.

14. Then answered ye me, and said, This is a good thing, which thou sayest thou wilt do.

15. Then I took the heads of your tribes, wise and experienced men, and set them over you for heads, over thousands, over hundreds, over fifties, and over tens, and officers among your tribes;

16. And commanded your judges at that time, saying, Interrogate your brethren, and judge rightly between every man and his brother, and the stranger.

17. No person shall ye regard in judgment, but hear the small as well as the great, and shun no man's person. For the office of judgment is God's. But if any matter be too hard for you, let it come unto me, that I may hear it.

18. So I commanded you at that time all things whatsoever ye should do.

19. And we departed from Horeb, and went through all the wilderness, which is great and terrible, as ye have seen, by the way of the mount of the Amorites, as the LORD our God commanded us, and came unto Kadeshbarnea.

20. Then said I unto you: Ye are come unto the mountain of the Amorites, which the LORD our God shall give us.

21. Behold the land before thee, which the LORD thy God hath given thee: go up and possess it, as the LORD thy fathers' God hath said unto thee. Fear not, nor be dismayed.

22. Then came ye all unto me, and said, Let us send men before us, and let them search out the land for us, and tell us again by what way we shall go in, and the cities where we shall come in.

23. And it pleased me well, and I took from among you twelve men, one of every tribe.

24. And when they departed, and went up into the mountains, and came to the brook Eshcol, they beheld it.

25. And they took the fruit of the land, and brought it down unto us, and told us again, saying: The land is good, which the LORD our God hath given us.

26. But ye would not go up, and became disobedient to the mouth of the LORD your God; 27. And they murmured in their tents, saying, The LORD is displeased with us: therefore he brought us up out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites to be destroyed.

28. Whither shall we go up? Our brethren have made our hearts despondent, saying, The people are greater and higher than we; The cities are great, and walled up to heaven; Moreover we have seen the children of Enakim there.

29. And I said unto you, Be not dismayed, neither be afraid of them.

30. The LORD your God goeth before you, and will fight for you, as he did with you in Egypt before your eyes.

31. And in the wilderness, when thou sawest how the LORD thy God bare thee, as a man beareth his son, through all the way wherein ye walked, until ye came unto this place.

32. But that was nothing to you, that ye believed on the LORD your God, 33. Who went before you to shew you the place where ye should lie down by night in the fire, to shew you the way wherein ye should walk, and by day in the cloud.

34. And when the LORD heard your cry, he was wroth, and sware, and said: 35. None of this evil generation shall see the good land, which I sware to give unto their fathers, 36. Without Caleb the son of Jephunneh, he shall see it: and unto him will I give the land whereon he hath trodden, and unto his children, because he hath faithfully followed the LORD.

37. The LORD also was wroth with me for your sakes, and said, Neither shalt thou come in.

38. But Joshua the son of Nun, which is thy servant, let him come in. Strengthen him: for he shall divide the inheritance unto Israel.

39. And your children, of whom ye said they would be a spoil, and your sons, which this day know neither good nor evil, let them come in: unto them will I give it, and they shall possess it.

40. And ye shall turn, and go into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea.

41. And ye answered and said unto me, We have sinned against the LORD; we will go up and fight, as the LORD our God hath commanded us. And ye armed yourselves every man with his armour, and stood by him to go up into the mountains,

42. Saith the LORD unto me, Tell them that they go not up, neither fight: for I am not among you: lest ye be smitten before your enemies.

43. When I told you these things, ye hearkened not, and became disobedient to the mouth of the LORD, and were presumptuous, and went up into the mountains.

44. And the Amorites that dwelt in the mountains went out to meet you, and chased you as bees do, and smote you in Seir unto Horma.

45. And when ye wept again before the LORD, the LORD would not hear your voice, nor incline his ears unto you.

46. So ye abode in Kadesh a long time.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 2

Of the victory against the Amorites.

1. Then we turned, and went out into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea, as the LORD said unto me, and compassed mount Seir a long time.

2. And the LORD said unto me:

3. Ye have now compassed this mountain enough; turn ye toward the midnight.

4. And give unto the people, saying, Ye shall pass through the border of your brethren the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir; and they shall be afraid of you. But keep yourselves with diligence,

5. And ye shall not fight against them: for I will not give you a foot of their land: for I have given mount Seir unto the children of Esau for a possession.

6. Food ye shall buy of them for money, that ye may eat; and water ye shall buy of them for money, that ye may drink.

7. For the LORD thy God hath blessed thee in all the works of thine hands. He hath taken to heart thy journeying through this great wilderness: and forty years the LORD thy God hath been with thee, that thou hast lacked nothing.

8. And it came to pass, when we had passed through our brethren the children of Esau, which dwelt in mount Seir, by the way of the plains of Elath and Ezeon-gaber, that we turned, and passed through the way of the wilderness of Moab.

9. And the LORD said unto me, Thou shalt not offend Moab, neither shalt thou make war against Moab: for I will not give thee any possession of their land; for I have given Ar unto the children of Lot for a possession.

10. The Emim dwelt therein of old: they were a great, strong, and high people, like the Enakim.

11. They also were accounted giants, as Enakim: and the Moabites also call them Emim.

12. And the Horites dwelt in Seir in old time: and the children of Esau cast them out, and destroyed them from among them, and dwelt in their stead, as Israel did unto the land of their possession, which the LORD gave them.

13. Now therefore arise, and pass through the brook Sared. And we passed through.

14. And the time that we journeyed from Kadesh-barnea, until we came by the river Sared, was thirty and eight years: that all the men of war might die in the camp, as the LORD had sworn unto them.

15. And the hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them out of the camp, until they were consumed.

16. And when all the men of war were ended, they died among the people, 17. The LORD spake unto min, saying:

18. Thou shalt pass through the border of Moab this day by Ar;

19. And thou shalt come near against the children of Ammon. Thou shalt not offend them, neither shalt thou make war against them: for I will not give thee of the land of the children of Ammon to possess it; for I have given it unto the children of Lot to possess it.

20. It is also esteemed the land of giants, and giants dwelt therein in time past: and the Ammonites call them Shammesumim.

21. They were a great, strong, and high people, like the Enakims: and the LORD destroyed them from before them, and gave them possession of them, to dwell in their stead, 22. As he did unto Km Esau, which dwell in mount Sein, when he destroyed the Horites from before them, and made them possess them, to dwell in their stead unto this day. 23. And the Caphtorims went out of Caphtor, and destroyed the Avims that dwelt in Hazerim unto Gaza, and dwelt there in their stead. 24. Arise, go forth, and pass over the brook that is by Arnon. Behold, I have delivered into thy hand Sihon king of the Amorites at Heshbon, and his land. Begin to take, and fight against him. 25. This day will I set forth, that all nations under heaven shall fear and be afraid of thee: and when they hear of thee, they shall be afraid and grieved for thy coming. 26. Then I sent messengers out of the wilderness from the east to Sihon king of Heshbon with words of peace, saying: 27. I will pass through thy land, and where the highway goeth, I will go: I will not turn aside to the right hand, nor to the left. 28. Thou shalt sell me meat for money, that I may eat; and thou shalt give me water for money, that I may drink: but I will go through on foot; 29. As the children of Esau, which dwell in his land, and the Moabites, which dwell in An, have done unto me; until I come over Jordan into the land which the LORD our God giveth us. 30. But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass: for the LORD thy God hardened his spirit, and hardened his heart, that he might deliver him into thy hand, as it is in the day. 31. And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have begun to give Sihon and his land before thee; begin to possess and possess his land. 32. And Sihon went out to meet us, and all his people, to battle at Jahaz. 33. But the LORD our God gave him up before us, that we should smite him with his children, and with all his people. 34. And we took all his cities at that time, and utterly destroyed all his cities, both men, and women, and children, and left none over. 35. Without the cattle we robbed for ourselves, and the spoil of the cities we gained, 36. From Aroer, which is on the bank of the river near Arnon, and from the city that is by the water, even unto Gilead. There was no city that could keep itself from us: the LORD our God gave us all things before us.

37. Without the land of the children of Ammon thou camest not, nor unto all that was by the brook Jabbok, nor unto the cities of the mountains, nor unto all that the LORD our God had forbidden us.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 3

Victory against Og king of Bashan.

1. And we turned, and went up the way to Bashan. And Og king of Bashan went out to meet us, and all his people, to fight at Edrei.

2. And the LORD said unto me, Fear him not: for I have delivered him into thy hand, and all his people with his land; and thou shalt do unto him as thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which sat at Heshbon.

3. So the LORD our God delivered into our hand Og king of Bashan, and all his people, and we smote him, until there was nothing left for him.

4. And we took all his cities at that time, and there was not a city that we took not from him; threescore cities, all the region of Argob, in the kingdom of Ogs in Bashan.

5. All these cities were strong, with high walls, gates, and bars, without other very many spots without walls.

6. And we utterly destroyed them, as we did Sihon king of Heshbon. And we utterly destroyed all the cities, both men, and women, and children.

7. But all the cattle and spoil of the cities we stole for ourselves.

8. So at that time we took the land out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites that were on the other side Jordan, from the river of Arnon unto mount Hermon, 9. Whom the Zidonians call Sirion, but the Amorites call him Senir; 10. Cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, unto Salcah and Edrei, the cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

11. For Og king of Bashan alone was left of the giants. Behold, his bed of iron is here in Rabbath of the children of Ammon, nine cubits long, and four cubits broad, according to a man's elbow.

12. And we took the land at that time from Aroer, which is by the river of Arnon. And I gave half the mountains of Gilead with their cities unto the Reubenites and Gadites.

13. And the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan of the kingdom of Og, gave I unto the half tribe of Manasseh, and all the region of Argob unto all Bashan; that is, the land of the giants.

14. And Jair the son of Manasseh took all the region of Argob unto the border of Gessuri and Maachathi; and called Bashan by his name Havoth-jair unto this day.

15. And to Machir I gave Gilead.

16. And to the Reubenites and Gadites I gave a portion of Gilead unto the brook that is by Arnon in the midst of the brook, which is the border, and unto the brook Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon;

17. And the plain, and Jordan, which is the border, from Cinnereth even unto the sea of the plain, which is the salt sea, under mount Pisgah eastward.

18. And he commanded you at that time, saying, The LORD your God hath given you this land to possess: go ye therefore armed before your brethren the children of Israel, which are valiant;

19. Without your wives, and your children, and your cattle (for I know that ye have much cattle), let them abide in your cities which I have given you;

20. Until the LORD also bring your brethren to rest, as he did unto you, that they also may possess the land which the LORD your God shall give them beyond Jordan: then shall ye return unto your possession, which I have given you.

21. And I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, Thine eyes have seen all that the LORD your God hath done unto these two kings. So shall the LORD do unto all the kingdoms that thou shalt go.

22. Fear them not: for the LORD your God fighteth for you.

23. And I besought the LORD at that time, saying:

24. O LORD, O LORD, thou hast set forth thy glory and thy mighty hand to thy servant. For where is there a God in heaven and in the ends, that can be like unto thy works and like unto thy might?

25. Let me go and see the good land beyond Jordan, this good mountain, and Lebanon.

26. But the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and hearkened not unto me, but said unto me, Let it be no more; say no more of this unto me.

27. Go up to the top of mount Pisgah, and lift up thine eyes toward the even, and toward the north, and toward the south, and toward the east, and see with thine eyes: for thou shalt not go over this Jordan.

28. And give Joshua charge, that he may be confident and undaunted: for he shall pass over Jordan before the people, and shall divide unto them the land which thou shalt see.

29. So we stayed in the valley against the house of Peor.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 4

Exhortation to obedience of the law.

1. And now hear, O Israel, the commandments and the statutes which I teach you to do them, that ye may live, and come in and possess the land which the LORD your fathers' God giveth you.

2. Ye shall not add unto the things which I command you, neither shall ye take away from them, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you.

3. Your eyes have seen what the LORD hath done against Baal-peor: for all they that followed Baal-peor have destroyed the LORD your God from among you.

4. But ye that cleave unto the LORD your God, live all ye this day.

5. Behold, I have taught you statutes and judgments, as the LORD my God commanded me, that ye should do so in the land whither ye are come to possess it.

6. Keep it therefore, and do it. For this shall be your wisdom and understanding among all nations, when they shall hear all these commandments, that they shall say, Yea, what wise and understanding men are these, and a glorious people!

7. For where is there so glorious a people, to whom gods draw nigh, as the LORD our God, as often as we call upon him?

8. And where is there such a glorious people, having such righteous customs and commandments, as all this law which I set before you this day?

9. Take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul well, that thou forget not the things which thine eyes have seen, and that they come not out of thine heart all thy days. And thou shalt make known unto thy children, and unto thy children's children.

10. The day that thou stoodest before the LORD thy God in mount Horeb, when the LORD said unto thee, Gather me the people together, that they may hear my words, and learn to fear me all the days of their life upon the earth, and teach their children.

11. And ye came near, and sat down by the mountain: and the mountain burned even to the midst of heaven; and there was darkness, and cloud, and gloom.

12. And the LORD spake unto you out of the midst of the fire. The voice of his words ye heard; but ye saw no likeness without the voice.

13. And he told you his covenant, which he commanded you to do, even the ten words, and wrote them upon two tables of stone.

14. And the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, and to do them in the land whither ye go to possess it.

15. Take heed therefore unto your souls: for ye saw no likeness of the day that the LORD spake unto you out of the fire of mount Horeb,

16. Lest ye corrupt yourselves, and make unto yourselves any graven image, like unto a man, or like unto a woman

17. or cattle on ends, or bird below the sky,

18. or worms on the land, or fish in the water under the end.

19. Lest thou lift up thine eyes unto heaven, and see the sun, and the moon, and the stars, all the host of heaven, and fall down, and worship them, and serve them, which the LORD thy God hath ordained for all nations under the whole heaven.

20. And the LORD received you, and brought you out of the iron furnace, that is, out of Egypt, to be his people of inheritance, as it is in this day.

21. And the LORD was so wroth with me because of your doings, that he sware that I should not pass over Jordan, neither come into the good land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance,

22. But I shall die in this land, and shall not pass over Jordan. But ye shall pass over, and possess such good land.

23. Take heed therefore unto yourselves, that ye forget not the covenant of the LORD your God, which he hath made with you, and that ye make not images of divers likenesses, as the LORD thy God hath commanded.

24. For the LORD thy God is a consuming fire, and a fierce God.

25. When ye therefore beget children, and children's children, and dwell in the land, and corrupt yourselves, and make you images of divers likenesses, then ye do evil in the sight of the LORD your God, and provoke him to anger,

26. I call heaven and the end to witness against you this day, that ye shall soon perish from off the land whither ye go up Jordan to possess it: ye shall not long abide therein, but shall be destroyed.

27. And the LORD shall scatter you among the nations, and ye shall be left a small multitude among the heathen, whither the LORD shall drive you.

28. There shalt thou serve gods which are the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.

29. But if thou shalt seek the LORD thy God there, thou shalt find him where thou shalt seek him with all thine heart and with all thy soul.

30. When thou shalt be troubled, and all these things shall befall thee in the last days, then shalt thou turn unto the LORD thy God, and obey his voice.

31. For the LORD thy God is a merciful God: he will not leave thee, nor destroy thee, nor forget the covenant which he sware unto thy fathers.

32. Then inquire of the former times that were before thee, from the day that God created man upon the earth, from one end of heaven to the other, whether such a great thing hath ever been done, or the like thereof ever heard,

33. That a people have heard the voice of God speaking out of the fire, as thou hast heard, and yet live?

34. Or whether God tempted to go in and take a people from the midst of a people by temptation, by signs, by wonders, by strife, and by a mighty hand, and by an outstretched arm, and by very terrible deeds, as all these things the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

35. Thou hast seen, that thou mayest know that the LORD alone is GOD, and none more.

36. From heaven he hath made thee to hear his voice, to chasten thee; and upon earth he hath shewed thee his great fire, and his words thou hast heard out of the fire, 37. Because he loved thy fathers, and their seed after them, and brought thee out of Egypt with his great power,

38. To drive out from before thee great nations, and stronger than thou, and to bring thee in, to give thee the land for an inheritance, as it is this day.

39. Know therefore this day, and take it to thine heart, that the LORD is one God in heaven above, and in earth beneath, and none more;

40. To keep his statutes and his commandments, which I command thee this day: and it shall be well with thee, and with thy children after thee, that thy days may be long in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for ever.

41. And Moses separated three cities on the other side Jordan toward the rising of the sun, 42. And he that killeth his neighbour unawares, and hath not been his enemy before, shall flee thither, and live in the cities:

43. Bezer in the wilderness of the plain among the Reubenites; and Ramoth in Gilead among the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan among the Manassites.

44. This is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel.

45. This is the testimony, and the commandment, and the statutes, which Moses spake unto the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt,

46. On the other side Jordan, in the valley over against the house of Peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who sat in Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel smote when they came out of Egypt,

47. And they took his land, and the land of Og king of Bashan, of the two kings of the Amorites, which were on the other side Jordan toward the sunrising,

48. From Aroer, which is on the bank of the river by Arnon, unto mount Sion, which is Hermon, 49. And all the plain beyond Jordan, toward the rising of the sun, unto the sea in the plain, under mount Pisgah.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 5

Repetition of the ten commandments of God.

1. And Moses called all Israel, and said unto them: Hear, O Israel, the commandments and the statutes which I speak in your ears this day, and learn them, and keep them, and do them.

2. The LORD our God hath made a covenant with us in Horeb.

3. And hath not made this covenant with our fathers, but with us, who are here this day, and are all alive.
4. He spake unto us face to face out of the fire that was in the mount.
5. I stood between the LORD and you at that time, and told you the word of the LORD: for ye were afraid of the fire, and went not up into the mountain. And he said: 6. I am the LORD thy God, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.
7. Thou shalt have no other gods before me.
8. Thou shalt not make thee any graven image, neither in heaven above, nor in the earth beneath, nor in the water under the earth.
9. Thou shalt not worship them, nor serve them. For I am the LORD thy God, a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children of the third and fourth generation, which hate me,
10. And show mercy in many thousands who love me and keep my commandments.
11. Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain: for the LORD will not suffer him to go unpunished that taketh his name in vain.
12. The sabbath day shalt thou keep holy, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee.
13. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work.
14. But on the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not do any work, neither thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thine ox, nor thine ass, nor all thy cattle, nor the stranger that is within thy gates; that thy manservant and thy maidservant may rest, as thou hast rested.
15. For thou shalt remember that thou also wast a servant in the land of Egypt, and that the LORD thy God brought thee out from thence with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm.
Therefore the LORD thy God hath commanded thee to keep the sabbath day.
16. Thou shalt honour thy father and thy mother, as the LORD thy God commanded thee, that thou mayest live long, and that it may go well with thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.
17. Thou shalt not kill.
18. thou shalt not commit adultery
19. thou shalt not steal.

20. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

21. Lust not after thy neighbour's wife. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, his field, his manservant, his maidservant, his ox, his ass, nor any thing that is his.

22. These are the words which the LORD spake unto all your congregation in the mount out of the fire, and out of the cloud, and out of the darkness, with a loud voice, and did nothing: and he wrote them upon two tables of stone, and gave them unto me.

23. And when ye heard the voice out of the darkness, and the mountain burning with fire, ye came unto me, all the chief of your tribes, and your elders,

24. And said, Behold, the LORD our God hath made us to see his glory and his majesty; and we have heard his voice out of the fire: this day have we seen that God speaketh unto men, and they live.

25. And now why should we die, that this great fire should consume us? If we hear the voice of the LORD our God any more, we must die.

26. For what is all flesh, that it may hear the voice of the living God speaking out of the fire, as we do, and live?

27. Come near, and hear all that the LORD our God saith, and tell us. Whatsoever the LORD our God shall speak unto thee, that will we hear and do.

28. And when the LORD heard your words which ye spake unto me, he said unto me, I have heard the words of this people, which they spake unto thee: all that they have spoken is good.

29. Oh that they had such a heart to fear me, and to keep all my commandments all the days of their life, that it might be well with them, and with their children for ever!

30. Go and tell them: Go home to your tents.

31. And thou shalt stand here before me, and I will speak unto thee all the statutes, and all the commandments, and all the judgments, which thou shalt teach them, that they may do them in the land which I shall give them to possess.

32. Keep therefore that ye do according to all that the LORD your God hath commanded you, and turn not aside to the right hand, nor to the left,

33. But walk in all the ways which the LORD your God hath commanded you, that ye may live, and that it may be well with you, and that ye may live long in the land which ye shall inherit.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 6

Explanation of the first commandment, of the love of God.

1. Now these are the statutes, and the commandments, and the judgments, which the LORD your God hath commanded, that ye should learn them, and do them, in the land whither ye go to possess it.
2. That thou fear the LORD thy God, and keep all his statutes and his commandments, which I command thee, thou, and thy children, and thy children's children, all the days of your life, that ye may live long.
3. Israel, hear thou, and keep thee, that thou mayest prosper, and be greatly multiplied; as the LORD God of thy fathers hath spoken unto thee, a land flowing with milk and honey within.
4. Hear, O Israel, the LORD our God is one LORD.
5. And thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.
6. And these words, which I command thee this day, shalt thou lay to thine heart.
7. And thou shalt teach them unto thy children, and speak of them when thou sittest in thine house, or when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, or when thou risest up.
8. And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be a memorial unto thee before thine eyes.
9. And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house, and upon the gates thereof.
10. Now therefore, when the LORD thy God shall bring thee into the land which he swore unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give thee great cities and fine cities, which thou hast not built,
11. And houses full of goods, which thou hast not filled; and wells digged, which thou hast not digged; and vineyards and oliveyards, which thou hast not planted, that thou mayest eat and be full:
12. Take heed to thyself, lest thou forget the LORD, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage,
13. But fear the LORD thy God, and serve him, and swear by his name.

14. And thou shalt not go after other gods, of the nations that are round about you; 15. For the LORD thy God is a fierce God among thee: lest the wrath of the LORD thy God be kindled against thee, and destroy thee from off the earth.

16. Ye shall not tempt the LORD your God, as ye tempted him at Massa, 17. But keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and his testimonies, and his statutes which he hath commanded,

18. To do that which is right and good in the sight of the LORD, that it may go well with thee, and that thou mayest enter in and possess the good land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers,

19. To drive out all thine enemies from before thee, as the LORD hath said.

20. If thy son therefore shall ask thee to day, or to morrow, saying, What are these testimonies, and commandments, and statutes, which the LORD our God hath commanded you?

21. Then shalt thou say unto thy son, We were servants of Pharaoh in Egypt, and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand;

22. And the LORD wrought great and evil signs and wonders in Egypt, and in Pharaoh, and in all his house, in our sight;

23. And he led us away from thence, that he might bring us in, and give us the land which he sware unto our fathers;

24. And the LORD commanded us to do all these statutes, that we should fear the LORD our God, that it might go well with us all the days of our life, as it is this day.

25. And it shall be our righteousness before the LORD our God, if we keep and do all these commandments, as he hath commanded us.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 7

Friendship with the heathen and their idolatry forbidden.

1. When the LORD thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it, and shalt cut off many nations from before thee, the Hittites, and the Girgothites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and stronger than thou;

2. And if the LORD thy God give them before thee to smite them, then thou shalt banish them, that thou make no covenant with them, nor shew them favour.

3. And thou shalt not make friends with them. Your daughters you shall not give to their sons, and their daughters you shall not take from your sons; 4. For they shall make your sons to offend me, to serve other gods: and the wrath of the LORD shall be kindled against you, and shall soon destroy you.

5. But so shall ye do unto them: You shall tear down their altars, break their pillars, cut down their groves, and burn their idols with fire.

6. For thou art a holy people unto God thy Lord. God thy Lord hath chosen thee a people of possession out of all the nations that are upon the earth.

7. The LORD hath not accepted you, neither chosen you to be more than all nations: for thou art the least of all nations;

8. But because he loved you, and kept his oath which he swore unto your fathers, he brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you from the house of bondage, out of the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

9. Know therefore that the LORD thy God is a God, a faithful God, keeping covenant and mercy with them that love him, and keeping his commandments to a thousand generations, 10. And he hateth them that hate him before his face to destroy them, and is not slow to recompense them before his face that hate him.

11. Keep therefore the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which I command thee this day, to do them.

12. And if ye shall hear these statutes, and keep them, and do them; then shall the LORD thy God also keep the covenant and the mercy which he swore unto thy fathers, 13. And he will love thee, and bless thee, and multiply thee, and bless the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy land, thy corn, and thy wine, and thy oil, the fruit of thy kine, and the fruit of thy sheep, in the land which he swore unto thy fathers to give thee.

14. Blessed shalt thou be above all nations. There shall be none barren among thee, Nor among thy cattle.

15. The LORD will put away from thee all sickness, and will not put upon thee any evil plague of the Egyptians, which thou hast known; and will put it upon all thy haters.

16. Thou shalt devour all the nations which the LORD thy God giveth thee. Thou shalt not spare them, nor serve their gods: for it shall be a snare unto thee.

17. But wilt thou say in thine heart, This people is more than I am: how can I drive them out?

18. Be not afraid of them. Remember what the LORD thy God hath done to Pharaoh and to all the Egyptians.

19. By great temptation, which thou sawest with thine eyes, and by signs and wonders, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, that the LORD thy GOD might bring thee out. So shall the LORD thy God do unto all nations, of whom thou art afraid.

20. And the LORD thy God shall send a hornet among them, until they that are left be destroyed, and hide themselves from thee.

21. Be not afraid of them: for the LORD thy God is among thee, the great and terrible God.

22. He, the LORD thy God, shall cut off these people from before thee one by one. Thou canst not destroy them in haste, lest the beasts of the field multiply against thee.

23. The LORD thy God shall give them up before thee, and shall smite them with a great slaughter, until he destroy them.

24. And thou shalt deliver their kings into thy hand, and shalt destroy their name under heaven.

No man shall withstand thee, till thou destroy them.

25. The graven images of their gods shalt thou burn with fire; thou shalt not covet any of the silver or gold that is therein, neither shalt thou take it unto thee, lest thou be consumed therein: for it is an abomination unto the LORD thy God.

26. Thou shalt not therefore bring the abomination into thine house, lest thou be utterly destroyed, as it is: but thou shalt be loathsome and abominable unto it, because it is utterly destroyed.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 8

The people are exhorted not to forget the good deeds of God.

1. All the commandments which I command thee this day shall ye keep, and do them; that ye may live, and be multiplied, and come in, and possess the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers.
2. And remember all the way wherein the LORD thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to try thee, that it might be known what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments or not.
3. He humbled thee, and caused thee to hunger, and fed thee with man, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread alone, but by all that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD.
4. Thy garments are not old upon thee, neither are thy feet swollen these forty years.
5. Know thou then in thine heart, that the LORD thy God hath drawn thee, as a man draweth his son.
6. Keep therefore the commandments of the LORD thy God, that thou walk in his ways, and fear him.
7. For the LORD thy God leadeth thee into a good land, a land that hath rivers, and fountains, and lakes within, that flow in the mountains, and in the meadows; 8. A land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig trees, and pomegranates, in the midst thereof; a land of olive trees, and honey in the midst thereof;
9. A land where thou hast bread enough to eat, where thou lackest nothing: a land whose stones are iron, where thou hewest brass out of the mountains.
10. And when thou hast eaten and art full, that thou mayest praise the LORD thy God for the good land which he hath given thee.
11. Take heed therefore that thou forget not the LORD thy God, lest thou keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his judgments, which I command thee this day; 12. That when thou hast eaten, and art full, and hast built goodly houses, and dwelt therein, 13. And thy oxen, and thy sheep, and thy silver, and thy gold, and all that thou hast, shall multiply,
14. Then let not thine heart be lifted up, and forget the LORD thy God, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage,

15. And he led thee through the great and cruel wilderness, where were fiery serpents, and scorpions, and drought, and no water: and he caused water to pass out of the hard rock unto thee,
16. And fed thee with Man in the wilderness, of whom thy fathers knew nothing, that he might humble thee, and try thee, that he might do thee good hereafter.
17. Or else thou shalt say in thine heart, My strength, and the strength of mine hands, have gotten me this fortune;
18. But remember the LORD thy God: for he it is that giveth thee strength to do mighty works, to keep his covenant which he sware unto thy fathers, as it is this day.
19. But if thou shalt forget the LORD thy God, and shalt go after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I testify against you this day, that ye shall perish; 20. Even as the heathen which the LORD destroyeth before your face, so shall ye also perish, because ye obey not the voice of the LORD your God.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 9

Causes of the taking of the land of Canaan.

1. Hear, O Israel, thou shalt pass over Jordan this day, to come in to possess the nations that are greater and stronger than thou, great cities walled up to heaven, 2. A great and high nation, the children of Enakim, whom thou hast known, of whom also thou hast heard: who can stand against the children of Enak?
3. Know thou this day, that the LORD thy God goeth before thee, a devouring fire. He shall destroy them, and subdue them before thee, and shall drive them out, and destroy them quickly, as the LORD hath said unto thee.
4. If therefore the LORD thy God hath driven them out from before thee, say not in thine heart,
The LORD hath brought me in to possess the land for my righteousness' sake: for the LORD hath driven out these heathen from before thee for their ungodliness.
5. For thou comest not in to possess their land, because of thy righteousness and uprightness of heart: but the LORD thy God doth drive out these heathen for their ungodliness, to keep the word which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

6. Know therefore that the LORD thy God giveth thee not this good land to possess for thy righteousness' sake, because thou art a stiff-necked people.

7. Remember and forget not how thou didst provoke the LORD thy God to anger in the wilderness. From the day that thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt, until ye came into this place, ye were disobedient to the LORD.

8. For in Horeb ye provoked the LORD to anger, that he might destroy you with wrath; 9. When I went up into the mount to receive the tables of stone, the tables of the covenant which the LORD made with you, I tarried forty days and forty nights in the mount, neither eating bread, nor drinking water,

10. And the LORD gave me the two tables of stone, written with the finger of God, and all the words thereon, as the LORD spake unto you out of the fire of the mount in the day of the congregation.

11. And after forty days and forty nights the LORD gave me the two tables of stone of the covenant.

12. And he said unto me, Arise, go down quickly from hence: for thy people, which thou broughtest up out of Egypt, have perished. They are gone quickly out of the way which I commanded them: they have made them a molten image.

13. And the LORD said unto me, I see that this people is a stiff-necked people.

14. Depart from me, that I may destroy them, and blot out their name from under heaven; and I will make of thee a stronger and a greater nation than this.

15. And when I turned, and came out of the mountain that burned with fire, having the two tables of the covenant upon both my hands,

16. Then I looked, and, behold, ye had sinned against the LORD your God, in that ye had made for yourselves a cast calf, and had soon turned out of the way which the LORD commanded you.

17. Then I took hold of both tables, and cast them out of both hands, and brake them in pieces before your eyes.

18. And fell down before the LORD, as at first, forty days and forty nights, and did neither eat bread, nor drink water, because of all your sins which ye did, when ye did this evil in the sight of the LORD to provoke him to anger.

19. For I was afraid of wrath and anger, because the LORD was wroth with you to destroy you.
But the LORD hearkened unto me this time also.
20. And the LORD was very wroth with Aaron, to destroy him: but I prayed also for Aaron in that day.
21. But your sin, the calf which ye had made, took I, and burned it with fire, and brake it in pieces, and brake it in pieces, until it became dust, and cast the dust into the brook that floweth down from the mountain.
22. And so ye provoked the LORD to anger at Thabeera, and at Massa, and at the tombs of pleasure.
23. And when he sent you out of Kadeshbarnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you, ye have disobeyed the mouth of the LORD your God, and have not believed in him, neither have ye obeyed his voice.
24. For ye have been disobedient to the LORD all the days that I have known you.
25. And I fell down before the LORD forty days and forty nights, which I lay there: for the LORD said he would destroy you.
26. And I besought the LORD, saying, O LORD, O LORD, destroy not thy people and thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and hast brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand.
27. Remember thy servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Look not to the hardness and wickedness and sin of this people,
28. Lest the land from whence thou hast brought us should be spoken of: The LORD was not able to bring them into the land which he spake unto them: therefore he brought them out, because he was displeased with them, and slew them in the wilderness.
29. For they are thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou hast executed with thy great strength, and with thine outstretched arm.
(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 10

The renewal of the covenant is to provoke Israel to the love of God.

1. At that time the LORD said unto me, Hew thee two tables of stone, like unto the first, and come unto me into the mountain, and make thee a fine ark of wood, 2. Then will I write upon the tables the words that were upon the first which thou hast broken; and thou shalt put them in the ark.

3. So I made an ark of pine wood, and cut two tables of stone, as the first were, and went up into the mountain, and had the two tables in mine hands.
4. And he wrote upon the tables, as the first writing was, the ten words which the LORD spake unto you out of the fire of the mount in the time of the assembly: and the LORD gave them unto me.
5. And I turned, and departed from the mount, and put the tables in the ark which I had made, that they might be there, as the LORD commanded me.
6. And the children of Israel went out from Beroth-bne-jakan unto Moser. And Aaron died there, and is buried there: and Eleazar his son was priest for him.
7. And they went out from thence unto Gudegodah; and from Gudegodah unto Jathbath, a land of rivers.
8. At that time the LORD set apart the tribe of Levi to bear the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to stand before the LORD, to serve him, and to praise his name, unto this day.
9. Therefore the Levites shall have no part nor inheritance with their brethren: for the LORD is their inheritance, as the LORD thy God hath spoken unto them.
10. And I stood in the mount, as before, forty days and forty nights: and the LORD hearkened unto me that time also, and would not destroy thee.
11. And he said unto me, Arise, and go, that thou mayest go before the people, that they may come in and possess the land which I sware unto their fathers to give them.
12. Now therefore, O Israel, what doth the LORD thy God require of thee, but to fear the LORD thy God, and to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve the LORD thy God with all thine heart and with all thy soul?
13. To keep the commandments of the LORD, and his statutes, which I command thee this day, that it may go well with thee?
14. Behold, the heaven, and all the heavens, and the earth, and all that is therein, are the LORD thy God's.
15. Nor did he delight in thy fathers only, to love them, and to multiply their seed after them, even after you, above all nations, as it is this day.

16. Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be not stiffnecked henceforth.

17. For the LORD your God is a God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, mighty and terrible, esteeming no man, and taking no gift

18. And rendereth justice unto the fatherless and to the widow, and loveth the stranger, that he may give them meat and raiment.

19. Wherefore love ye also the strangers: for ye were strangers also in the land of Egypt.

20. The LORD thy God shalt thou fear, and him shalt thou serve, and him shalt thou cleave unto, and by his name shalt thou swear.

21. He is thy glory, and thy God, which hath done with thee such great and terrible things as thine eyes have seen.

22. Thy fathers went down into Egypt with seventy souls: but now the LORD thy God hath multiplied thee as the stars of heaven.

Chapter 11

Causes why to love God and keep His commandments.

1. Thou shalt therefore love the LORD thy God, and keep his law, and his statutes, and his judgments, and his commandments, all the days of thy life.

2. And know ye this day, which your children know not, neither have seen; the chastening of the LORD your God, his glory, and his mighty hand, and his outstretched arm.

3. And his signs and his works, which he did among the Egyptians, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to all his land;

4. And what he did in the power of the Egyptians, in their horses, and in their chariots, when he brought upon them the waters of the Red sea, when they pursued after you, and the LORD destroyed them, unto this day;

5. And what he did unto you in the wilderness, until ye came into this place; 6. As he did unto Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab the son of Reuben, when the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their household, and their tents, and all their substance that they had gotten in the midst of all Israel.

7. For your eyes have seen the great works of the LORD, which he hath done.

8. Therefore ye shall keep all the commandments which I command thee this day, that ye may be strengthened to come in and possess the land whither ye go to possess it; 9. And that thou mayest live long in the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers to give them, and to their seed, a land flowing with milk and honey.

10. For the land whither thou goest to possess it is not like the land of Egypt, from whence ye went forth, when thou sowedst thy seed, and wateredst thyself like a cabbage garden, 11. But it hath mountains and meadows, which the rain from heaven must water, 12. The land of which the LORD thy God is mindful, and the eyes of the LORD thy God are ever upon it from the beginning of the year even unto the end.

13. Will ye therefore hear my commandments which I command you this day, that ye love the LORD your God, and serve him with all your heart and with all your soul?

14. Then will I give rain unto your land in his season, the early rain, and the latter rain; and thou shalt gather in thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil;

15. And I will give thy cattle grass in thy field, and ye shall eat and be filled.

16. But beware lest your hearts be persuaded, and ye depart, and serve other gods, and worship them,

17. And then the wrath of the LORD be kindled against you, and shut up the heavens, that there come no rain, neither let the earth yield her increase, and ye perish quickly from off the good land which the LORD hath given you.

18. Take therefore these words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be a memorial before your eyes.

19. And teach them unto your children, that ye speak of them when thou sittest in thine house, or when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

20. And write them upon the posts of thy house, and upon thy gates,

21. That thou and thy children mayest live long in the land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers to give them, as long as the days of heaven shall endure upon the earth.

22. For if ye will keep all these commandments which I command you, to do them, to love the LORD your God, and to walk in all his ways, and to cleave unto him, 23. Then shall the LORD drive out all these nations from before you, that ye may possess greater and stronger nations than ye are.

24. All the places whereon the sole of your foot shall tread shall be yours: from the wilderness, and from mount Lebanon, and from the river Phrath unto the uttermost part of the sea, shall be your border.

25. No man shall be able to withstand you. The fear and dread of you shall the LORD bring upon all the earth wherein ye travel, as he hath spoken unto you.

26. Behold, I set before you this day the blessing and the curse: 27. The blessing, if ye obey the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you this day;

28. But the curse, if ye will not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, and turn aside from the way which I command you this day, to walk after other gods, which ye know not.

29. When the LORD thy God bringeth thee into the land which thou goest in to possess it, then thou shalt pronounce a blessing upon mount Grisim, and a curse upon mount Ebal, 30. Which are beyond Jordan by the way of the going down of the sun, in the land of the Canaanites, which dwell in the plain over against Gilgal, by the grove of More.

31. For thou shalt pass over Jordan, to possess the land which the LORD thy God hath given thee, to possess it, and to dwell therein.

32. Take heed therefore to do according to all the commandments and statutes which I set before you this day.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 12

Place and manner of true worship.

1. These are the commandments and the statutes which ye shall keep, to do them in the land which the LORD God of thy fathers hath given thee to possess all the days that ye shall live upon the earth.

2. Cast out all the places where the heathen which ye shall take have served their gods, whether on high mountains, or on hills, or under green trees;

3. And destroy their altars, and break down their pillars, and burn their groves with fire; and take away the idols of their gods, and destroy their name out of the same place.

4. Ye shall not do so unto the LORD your God,

5. But in the place which the LORD your God shall choose out of all your tribes, to put his name there, ye shall search, and come thither.
6. And your burnt offerings, and your other sacrifices, and your tithes, and the offerings of your hands, and your vows, and your freewill offerings, and the firstborn of your oxen and of your sheep, bring ye thither.
7. And there ye shall eat before the LORD your God, and be glad in all that ye bring, and in all that your house bring, wherein the LORD your God hath blessed you.
8. Ye shall do none of those things which we do here this day, every man whatsoever he thinketh good.
9. For ye are not yet come to the rest, nor to the inheritance which the LORD thy God shall give thee.
10. And ye shall pass over Jordan, and dwell in the land which the LORD your God shall give you for an inheritance, and shall give you rest from all your enemies round about you, and shall dwell safely.
11. And it shall come to pass, when the LORD thy God shall choose a place for his name to dwell there, that ye shall bring there all that I command you, your burnt offerings, and your other sacrifices, and your tithes, and the offering of your hands, and all your free vows, which ye shall vow unto the LORD.
12. And ye shall rejoice before the LORD your God, ye, and your sons, and your daughters, and your menservants, and your maidservants, and the Levites that are within your gates: for they have no part nor inheritance with you.
13. Beware lest thou offer thy burnt offerings in all the places which thou seest, 14. But in the place which the LORD shall name in any of thy tribes, there shalt thou offer thy burnt offering, and do all that I command thee.
15. But thou mayest slay, and eat flesh in all thy gates, according to all the pleasure of thy soul, according to the blessing of the LORD thy God, which he hath given thee: both the clean and the unclean may eat it, as the deer, or as the hart.
16. Without the blood thou shalt not eat, but shalt pour it upon the earth as water.
17. But thou shalt not eat within thy gates of the tenth of thy corn, or of thy wine, or of thine oil, or of the firstborn of thy oxen, or of thy sheep, or of any of thy vows which thou hast vowed, or of thy freewill offerings, or of the heave of thine hand;

18. But thou shalt eat these things before the LORD thy God in the place which the LORD thy God hath chosen, thou, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and thy menservants, and thy maidservants, and the Levite that is within thy gates: and thou shalt rejoice before the LORD thy God over all that thou bringest.

19. And beware lest thou trust the Levites all the days of thy life upon the earth.

20. And if the LORD thy God shall enlarge thy border, as he hath said unto thee, saying, I will eat flesh, because thy soul lusteth to eat flesh; then eat flesh according to all the desire of thy soul.

21. And if the place be far from thee, which the LORD thy God hath chosen to put his name there, then kill of thy oxen or of thy sheep, which the LORD hath given thee, as I commanded thee, and eat within thy gates according to all the pleasure of thy soul.

22. As one eateth a deer or a hart, so mayest thou eat it: both the clean and the unclean may eat it at the same time.

23. Only take heed that thou eat not the blood: for the blood is the soul: therefore shalt thou not eat the soul with the flesh,

24. But thou shalt pour it upon the earth, as water.

25. And thou shalt not eat it, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, because thou hast done that which is right in the sight of the LORD.

26. But if thou wilt sanctify any of thine own, or vow, thou shalt load it, and bring it into the place which the LORD hath mentioned,

27. And thou shalt offer thy burnt offering of flesh and blood upon the altar of the LORD thy God. The blood of thy sacrifice thou shalt pour upon the altar of the LORD thy God, and shalt eat the flesh thereof.

28. Observe, and hear all these words which I command thee, that it may be well with thee, and with thy children after thee for ever, that thou hast done that which is right and acceptable in the sight of the LORD thy God.

29. When the LORD thy God shall cut off the heathen from before thee, and thou shalt come to possess them, and shalt possess them, and shalt dwell in their land, 30. Take heed lest thou fall into the snare after them, after they are destroyed from before thee, and ask not after their gods, saying, As these nations have served their gods, so will I do.

31. Thou shalt not do so unto the LORD thy God: for they have done unto their gods all that is abomination to the LORD, and that he hateth: for they have burned their sons and their daughters with fire unto their gods.

32. All things whatsoever I command you, that shall ye observe to do. You shall not add to it, nor take away from it.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 13

Punishment of false prophets, deceivers and seducers.

1. if a prophet or a dreamer among you will arise and give you a sign or a miracle, 2. And the sign or the miracle cometh, whereof he spake unto thee, saying, Let us go after other gods, which ye know not, and serve them:

3. Thou shalt not hearken unto the words of such a prophet, or of such a dreamer of dreams: for the LORD your God doth tempt you, that he may know whether ye love him with all your heart, and with all your soul.

4. For ye shall follow the LORD your God, and fear him, and keep his commandments, and obey his voice, and serve him, and cleave unto him.

5. But the prophet, or the dreamer of dreams, shall die, because he hath taught you to fall away from the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you from the house of bondage, and deceived you out of the way; whom the LORD your God commanded to walk in, that thou mightest put away evil from among you.

6. If thy brother thy mother's son, or thy son, or thy daughter, or the woman that is in thine arms, or thy friend that is like unto thy heart, persuade thee privily, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which thou knowest not, nor thy fathers,

7. Which are among the nations round about you, whether they be near thee or far off, from one end of the earth even unto the other:

8. Then grant not, neither obey him. Neither let thine eye spare him, neither have mercy on him, nor hide him,

9. But thou shalt slay him. And thine hand shall be first upon him to slay him, and afterward the hand of all the people.

10. He shall be stoned to death, because he hath seduced thee from the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt from the house of bondage, 11. That all Israel may hear, and fear; and that there be no more such evil among you.

12. When thou shalt hear of any city which the LORD thy God hath given thee to dwell therein, that it shall be said:

13. Some of the children of Belial are gone out from among thee, and have deceived the inhabitants of their city, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which ye know not, 14. Then shalt thou diligently seek, and search, and inquire. And if the truth be found, that it is certain that the abomination is done among you,

15. Then shalt thou smite the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroy them, and all that is therein, and their cattle with the edge of the sword.

16. And thou shalt gather all the spoil thereof into the midst of the streets, and burn them with fire, both the city and all the spoil thereof together, unto the LORD thy God; and it shall lie in a heap for ever, and never be built.

17. And let none of the curse be upon thy hand, that the LORD may turn away the fierceness of his wrath, and give thee mercy, and have compassion on thee, and multiply thee, as he sware unto thy fathers, 18. Because thou hast obeyed the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep all his commandments, which I command thee this day, to do that which is right in the sight of the LORD thy God.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 14

Mourning, dining, and tithing ordinances.

1. Ye are the children of the LORD your God: ye shall not pierce yourselves with marks, neither shall ye shave your eyes above a dead man.

2. For thou art a holy people unto the LORD thy God: and the LORD hath chosen thee to be his own out of all the nations that are upon the earth.

3. thou shalt not eat abomination.

4. And this is the beast which ye shall eat: oxen, sheep, goats, 5. deer, roe deer, buffalo, ibex, tenderloin, urochs and eland
6. And every beast that divideth his hoof, and cheweth the cud thereof, ye shall eat.
7. But that which cheweth the cud, and divideth not the hoof, ye shall not eat. And the camel, and the hare, and the rabbit, which cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof, shall be unclean unto you.
8. The swine, though he cleave the hoof, yet chew the cud not, shall be unclean unto you. Ye shall not eat their flesh, neither shall ye touch their carcase.
9. This is that ye shall eat of every thing that is in the waters: every thing that hath raft feathers and scales ye shall eat.
10. But whatsoever hath not the feathers of a raft, nor the scales thereof, eat ye not: for it is unclean unto you.
- Eleven: Eat all clean birds.
12. And these are they which ye shall not eat: the eagle, and the hawk, and the fishhawk; 13. the diver, the harrier, the vulture with his kind
14. and all ravens with their kind,
15. the ostrich, the night owl, the cuckoo, the sparrowhawk with its kind, 16. the little owl, the eagle owl, the bat,
17. the bittern, the stork, the swan,
18. the heron, the jay with its kind, the hoopoe, the swallow;
19. And every fowl that creepeth shall be unclean unto you, and ye shall not eat it.
20. The clean fowl ye shall eat.
21. Ye shall eat no carcase: thou shalt give it to the stranger that is within thy gates to eat, or sell it to a stranger: for thou art a holy people unto the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not boil the kid, because it is still suckling its mother.
22. Thou shalt set apart tithes every year of all the increase of thy seed which cometh out of thy field;
23. And thou shalt eat it before the LORD thy God in the place which he hath named, that his name may dwell there: of the tenth of thy corn, and of thy wine, and of thy oil, and of the firstborn of thy oxen and of thy sheep; that thou mayest learn to fear the LORD thy God all the days of thy life.

24. But if the way be too much for thee, that thou canst not carry it, because the place is too far from thee, which the LORD thy God hath chosen to make his name dwell there (for the LORD thy God hath blessed thee),
25. Give it for money, and take the money in thine hand, and go into the place which the LORD thy God hath chosen,
26. And give money for all that thy soul lusteth after, whether it be oxen, or sheep, or wine, or strong drink, or any thing that thy soul desireth. And there eat before the LORD thy God, and be merry, thou and thy house.
27. And the Levite that is within thy gates; thou shalt not leave him, because he hath no part nor inheritance with thee.
28. For three years thou shalt set apart all the tithes of thine income of that year, and shalt leave them in thy gate.
29. Then shall the Levite, which hath no part nor inheritance with thee, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, which are within thy gates, come and eat and be satisfied; that the LORD thy God may bless thee in all the works of thine hand which thou doest.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 15

Of the year, sold servants and firstborn.

1. For seven years shalt thou keep a year of remission.
2. And this is the manner of the year of remission: if a man borrow aught of his neighbour, he shall remit it unto him, and shall not exaction it of his neighbour, or of his brother: for it is called a year of remission unto the LORD.
3. Of a stranger thou mayest remit it: but of him that is thy brother thou shalt remit it.
4. There shall no beggar be among you: for the LORD shall bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance;
5. Only obey the voice of the LORD thy God, and keep all these commandments, which I command thee this day, to do them.
6. For the LORD thy God shall bless thee, as he hath spoken unto thee. Thus shalt thou lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow of any. Thou shalt rule over many nations, and over thee shall no man rule.

7. If any of thy brethren be poor in any city of thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, harden not thine heart, nor stay thine hand against thy poor brother, 8. But thou shalt open them unto him, and lend unto him according to his lack.

9. Beware lest there be an evil spirit in thine heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of remission, draweth nigh, and looketh unkindly upon thy poor brother, and giveth him not; and he shall cry unto the LORD against thee, and thou shalt have sin; 10. But thou shalt give unto him, and not grieve thine heart to give unto him: for because of this the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all thy works, and in all that thou doest.

11. There shall always be poor in the land: therefore I command thee, saying, Open thine hand unto thy brother that is oppressed and poor in thy land.

12. If thy brother, an Eberian, or an Eberian woman, sell himself unto thee, he shall serve thee six years: in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free.

13. And when thou shalt let him go free, thou shalt not let him go empty from thee, 14. But thou shalt lay up for him of thy flock, of thy threshingfloor, and of thy winepress, to give of that which the LORD thy God hath blessed thee.

15. And remember that thou also wast a servant in the land of Egypt, and that the LORD thy God redeemed thee: therefore I command thee this day.

16. And if he shall say unto thee: I will not depart from thee; for I love thee and thy house: for he is well with thee,

17. So take an awl, and bend it through his ear at the door, and let him be thy servant for ever.

Thou shalt do likewise with thine handmaid.

18. And let it not seem hard unto thee, that thou shouldest let him go free: for he hath served thee as a twofold hired servant six years: so shall the LORD thy God bless thee in all that thou doest.

19. Every firstborn that is born among thy oxen and among thy sheep, which is a male, thou shalt sanctify unto the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not till the firstlings of thine oxen, neither shalt thou feed the firstlings of thy sheep.

20. Thou shalt eat them before the LORD thy God yearly in the place which the LORD hath named, thou and thy house.

21. But if it have any blemish, limping, or blind, or any evil defect, thou shalt not offer it unto the LORD thy God,

22. But in thy gate shalt thou eat it, whether thou be unclean or clean, as the deer and the hart; 23. Only thou shalt not eat of his blood, but shalt pour it upon the earth as water.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 16

Of the three main annual festivals.

1. Keep the moon of Abib, to keep the passover unto the LORD thy God: for in the moon of Abib the LORD thy God brought thee up out of Egypt by night.

2. And thou shalt kill the passover unto the LORD thy God, sheep and oxen, in the place which the LORD shall choose to put his name there.

3. Thou shalt not eat leavened bread at the feast. Seven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread of affliction: for thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt with fear, that thou mayest remember the day of thy going forth out of the land of Egypt all thy days.

4. No leavened meat shall be seen within all thy borders seven days: neither shall any of the flesh that is slain in the evening of the first day remain overnight until the morning.

5. Thou canst not kill the passover in any of thy gates, which the LORD thy God hath given thee, 6. But in the place which the LORD thy God shall choose for his name to dwell there, thou shalt kill the passover at even, when the sun is down, at the time that thou camest out of Egypt; 7. And thou shalt cook it, and eat it in the place which the LORD thy God shall choose; and afterward thou shalt turn in the morning, and go unto thy tabernacle.

8. Six days shalt thou eat unleavened meat: and on the seventh day is the convocation of the LORD thy God: thou shalt do no work therein.

9. Seven weeks shalt thou number thyself, and begin to number them, when they begin to cut the sickle in the seed.

10. And thou shalt keep the feast of weeks unto the LORD thy God, to give a freewill offering of thine hand, after that the LORD thy God hath blessed thee;

11. And thou shalt rejoice before the LORD thy God, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy servant, and thy maid, and the Levite that is within thy gates, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are among thee, in the place which the LORD thy God hath chosen to put his name there.

12. And remember that thou wast a servant in Egypt, to keep and to do according to these commandments.

13. The feast of tabernacles shalt thou keep seven days, when thou hast gathered in thy threshingfloor and thy winepress;

14. And thou shalt rejoice at thy feast, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are within thy gates.

15. Seven days shalt thou keep the feast unto the LORD thy God in the place which the LORD shall choose. For the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all thine income, and in all the works of thine hands: therefore shalt thou rejoice.

16. Three times in the year shall all the male of thee appear before the LORD thy God in the place which the LORD shall choose: in the feast of unleavened bread, in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles. But it shall not appear empty before the LORD, 17. Every man according to the gift of his hand, according to the blessing which the LORD thy God hath given thee.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 17

Appointment, election and office of judges, especially of a king.

18. Judges and officers shalt thou set thee in all thy gates, which the LORD thy God shall give thee among thy tribes, to judge the people with judgment.

19. Thou shalt not bend the law, neither shalt thou look upon any person, nor take any gift: for gifts blind the wise, and pervert the things of the righteous.

20. That which is right thou shalt pursue, that thou mayest live, and possess the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

21. Thou shalt not plant a grove of trees by the altar of the LORD thy God, which thou shalt make thee.

22. Thou shalt not set thee up a pillar, which the LORD thy God hateth.
Ch. 17, v. 1. Thou shalt not sacrifice unto the LORD thy God an ox or a sheep that hath blemish or any evil thing in it: for it is an abomination unto the LORD thy God.

2. If there be found among thee in the gates which the LORD thy God giveth thee, any man or woman that doeth evil in the sight of the LORD thy God, to transgress his covenant.

3. And go and serve other gods, and worship them, whether they be the sun, or the moon, or any host of heaven, which I have not commanded,

4. And if it be told thee, and thou hear it, thou shalt inquire of it. And if thou find that it is true that such an abomination hath been done in Israel,

5. Then shalt thou bring forth the same man or woman that hath done this evil unto thy gate, and shalt stone them to death.

6. In the mouth of two witnesses, or in the mouth of three witnesses, he that is worthy of death shall die: but in the mouth of one witness he shall not die.

7. The hand of the witnesses shall be first to slay him, and afterward the hand of all the people, that thou put away the wicked from thee.

8. If any matter be grievous unto thee in judgment, between blood and blood, between commerce and commerce, between hurt and hurt, and whatsoever strife there be in thy gates, then thou shalt arise, and go up to the place which the LORD thy God shall choose thee, 9. And come to the priests, and to the Levites, and to the judge that shall be at that time, and ask; and they shall pronounce judgment unto thee.

10. And thou shalt do according to all that they tell thee in the place which the LORD hath mentioned, and shalt observe to do according to all that they shall teach thee.

11. According to the law which they teach thee, and according to the statute which they tell thee, thou shalt keep it, that thou depart not from it to the right hand, nor to the left.

12. And if any man act presumptuously, that he obey not the priest which is there in the office of the LORD thy God, or the judge, he shall die: and thou shalt put away the wicked from Israel.

13. That all the people may hear, and fear, and be no more presumptuous.

14. When thou shalt come into the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt possess it, and dwell therein, and shalt say, I will set a king over me, as all the nations have over me,

15. Then shalt thou make him king over thee, whom the LORD thy God shall choose. But thou shalt set one of thy brethren to be king over thee. Thou canst not set over thee any stranger that is not thy brother.

16. But that he keep not many horses, neither bring the people again into Egypt, because of the multitude of horses: for the LORD hath said unto you, Ye shall not come again by this way.

17. Neither shall he take many wives, lest his heart be turned away: neither shall he gather much silver and gold.

18. And when he shall sit upon the throne of his kingdom, he shall take this other law from the priests the Levites, and have it written in a book.

19. This shall be with him, and he shall read in it all the days of his life, that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, to keep all the words of this law, and the statutes thereof, to do them.

20. He shall not lift up his heart above his brethren, neither shall he depart from the commandment on the right hand, nor on the left, that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he and his children in Israel.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 18

Of the priesthood, idolatry, and Christ the right prophet.

1. The priests, the Levites, of all the tribe of Levi, shall have no part nor inheritance with Israel.

The sacrifices of the LORD, and his inheritance, shall they eat.

2. Therefore shall they have no inheritance among their brethren; that the LORD may be their inheritance, as he hath spoken unto them.

3. And this shall be the law of the priests upon the people, and upon them that sacrifice, whether they be oxen or sheep, to give unto the priest the arm, and the cheek, and the belly.

4. And the firstling of thy corn, and of thy wine, and of thy oil, and the firstling of the shearing of thy sheep.

5. For the LORD thy God hath chosen him out of all thy tribes, to minister in the name of the LORD, he and his sons for ever.

6. If a Levite come out of any of thy gates, or out of all Israel, where he is a sojourner, and come according to all the pleasure of his soul into the place which the LORD hath mentioned, 7. To minister in the name of the LORD his God, as all his brethren the Levites, which stand there before the LORD,

8. And they shall have an equal part to eat of the things which he hath sold. Property of his fathers.

9. When thou comest into the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not learn the abominations of these nations.

10. Lest there be found among thee a man that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or a prophet, or a diviner, or one that hearkeneth unto the voice of birds, or a sorcerer, 11. Or conjurors, or diviners, or interpreters of signs, or one who inquires of the dead.

12. For whosoever doeth these things is an abomination unto the LORD: and for these abominations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee.

13. But thou shalt be without change with the LORD thy God.

14. For these nations, which thou shalt take, obey the diviners and the prophets: but thou shalt not so hold thyself against the LORD thy God.

15. A prophet like unto me shall the LORD thy God raise up unto thee out of thee, and out of thy brethren, and ye shall obey him.

16. As thou hast asked of the LORD thy God in Horeb in the day of the congregation, saying: I will no more hear the voice of the LORD my God, neither will I see the great fire any more, lest I die.

17. And the LORD said unto me, They have spoken well.

18. I will raise up unto them a prophet like unto thee from among their brethren, and will give my words to his mouth; and he shall speak unto them all that I shall command him.

19. And whosoever shall not hear my words, which he shall speak in my name, of him will I require it.

20. But if any prophet be presumptuous to speak in my name, which I commanded him not to speak, and that speaketh in the name of other gods, the same prophet shall die.

21. But whether thou wilt say in thine heart: How can I know what word the LORD hath not spoken?

22. If a prophet speak in the name of the LORD, and it come to nothing, and be not come, that is the word which the LORD hath not spoken: the prophet hath spoken it out of presumption: therefore shun him not.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 19

Order of the free cities. False witness punishment.

1. When the LORD thy God hath cut off the nations, which land the LORD thy God shall give thee to possess them, and to dwell in their cities and in their houses, 2. Thou shalt set apart for thee three cities in the land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it.

3. And thou shalt choose places, and divide the border of thy land, which the LORD thy God shall divide unto thee, into three circles; and thither shall he flee that hath committed manslaughter.

4. And this shall be the thing, that he that hath committed manslaughter may flee, and live: If a man smite his neighbour, not wilfully, and hated him not before, 5. But as if a man went into the woods with his neighbour to cut wood, and took out an axe with his hand to cut down the wood, and the iron came off the handle, and struck his neighbour, and he died; he shall flee one in these cities, and live,

6. Lest the avenger of blood pursue after the slayer, because his heart is heated, and take hold of him, because the way is so far off, and smite his soul, when yet there is no sentence of death upon him, because he hated not before.

7. Therefore I command thee to set apart three cities.

8. And if the LORD thy God shall enlarge thy border, as he sware unto thy fathers, and give thee all the land which he spake to give unto thy fathers

9. If thou shalt keep all these commandments, to do according to them which I command thee this day, to love the LORD thy God, and to walk in his ways all the days of thy life, then thou shalt do three cities more unto these three,

10. Lest innocent blood be shed in thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and blood be upon thee.

11. But if a man bear hatred against his neighbour, and lie in wait for him, and make himself against him, and smite his soul, and be a creeper in these cities, 12. Then the elders of his city shall send and fetch him from thence, and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die.

13. Thine eyes shall not spare him: thou shalt put on the innocent blood of Israel, and it shall be well with thee.

14. Thou shalt not drive back thy neighbour's border, which the former have set in thine inheritance, which thou shalt inherit in the land which the LORD thy God hath given thee to possess.

15. No single witness shall stand against any man concerning any iniquity or sin, whatsoever sin it be that can be committed: but in the mouth of two or three witnesses shall the matter stand.

16. If a wicked witness appear against any man, to testify against him a transgression, 17. Then shall the two men that have a matter together stand before the LORD in the presence of the priests and judges, which shall be at the same time;

18. And the judges shall inquire. And if the false witness hath borne false witness against his brother,

19. Then do unto him as he would have done unto his brother, that thou put away the wicked from thee,

20. That others may hear, and be afraid, and do no more such wicked things under thee.

21. Thine eye shall not spare his. Soul for soul, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 20

Rules of War

1. When thou goest forth to war against thine enemies, and seest horses and chariots of a people greater than thyself, fear them not: for the LORD thy God, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, is with thee.

2. And it shall come to pass, when ye are come to the battle, that the priest shall come and speak unto the people.

3. And say unto them: Israel, hearken! Ye go this day to battle against your enemies. Let not your heart be troubled; fear not, nor be dismayed, nor be afraid of them; 4. For the LORD your God goeth with you, to fight for you with your enemies, to save you.

5. And the officers shall speak unto the people, saying, Whosoever hath built a new house, and hath not yet dedicated it, let him go and dwell in his house, lest he die in battle, and another dedicate it.

6. Whosoever hath planted a vineyard, and hath not yet made it common, let him go and tarry at home, lest he die in the war, and another make it common.
7. Whosoever hath trusted a wife unto him, and hath not yet brought her home, let him go and tarry at home, lest he die in battle, and another bring her home.
8. And the officers shall continue to speak unto the people, saying: Whosoever is afraid and fainthearted, let him go and tarry at home, lest he also make his brethren's heart faint, as his heart is.
9. And when the officers have reasoned with the people, they shall set the captains before the people at the head.
10. When thou comest before a city to dispute with it, then thou shalt offer peace unto it.
11. If she answer thee peaceably, and open unto thee, then all the people that are found within shall be interestable unto thee, and subject unto thee.
12. But if she will not deal peaceably with thee, and will have war with thee, besiege her.
13. And when the LORD thy God giveth them into thine hand, then shalt thou smite all that is male therein with the edge of the sword;
14. Without the wives, and the children, and the cattle, and all that is in the city, and all the spoil, thou shalt divide among thyself: and thou shalt eat of the spoil of thine enemies, which the LORD thy GOD hath given thee.
15. So shalt thou do unto all the cities that are very far from thee, and are not of the cities of these nations.
16. But in the cities of these nations, which the LORD thy God shall give thee for an inheritance, thou shalt not suffer any to live that hath breath,
17. But thou shalt utterly destroy them, even the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, as the LORD thy God commanded thee, 18. Lest they teach you all the abominations which they do unto their gods, and ye sin against the LORD your God.
19. If thou lie a long time before a city, against which thou contendest to take it, thou shalt not destroy the trees, to cut them down with the axe: for thou mayest eat thereof; therefore thou shalt not cut them down. For it is wood in the field, and not man, that it may be a stronghold before thee.

20. And those trees, which thou knowest not to eat of, thou shalt destroy, and cut them down, and build them strong holds against the city that warreth with thee, until thou be mighty over it.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 21

Of unknown manslaughter, captive females, the right of the firstborn, disobedient sons, hanged men.

1. When a man is found slain in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess, and he lieth in the field, and it is not known who slew him,

2. Then thy elders and thy judges shall go forth, and measure of the slain unto the cities that are round about.

3. Whichever city is next, the elders thereof shall take a young heifer of the oxen, that one hath not wrought, nor pulled at the yoke,

4. And they shall bring her down to a gravelly ground, which is neither wrought nor sown, and there shall cut off her neck at the bottom.

5. Then shall the priests come, the children of Levi: for the LORD thy God hath chosen them to minister unto him, and to praise his name: and after their mouth shall all things be done, and all hurt.

6. And all the elders of that city shall come near unto the slain, and wash their hands over the young heifer, whose neck is cut off at the bottom,

7. And they shall answer and say, Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it.

8. Be merciful unto thy people Israel, whom thou, O LORD, hast redeemed: lay not innocent blood upon thy people Israel. So shall they be reconciled above the blood.

9. So shalt thou put away the innocent blood from thee, that thou mayest do that which is right in the sight of the LORD.

10. When thou goest forth to battle against thine enemies, and the LORD thy God delivereth them into thine hand, that thou mayest carry away their captives, 11. And when thou seest a fair woman among the captives, thou hast a desire for her, that thou mayest take her to wife,

12. Bring her into thine house, and shave off her hair, and trim her nails.
13. And put off her garments wherein she is bound, and let her sit in thine house, and weep for her father and for her mother one moon; and afterward sleep with her, and take her in marriage, and let her be thy wife.
14. But if thou delight not in her, then thou shalt let her go whithersoever she goeth, and shalt not sell her for money, nor put her away, because thou hast humbled her.
15. If a man have two wives, the one whom he loveth, and the other whom he hateth, and they bear him children, both the loving and the adversary: the firstborn shall be of the adversary, 16. And when the time cometh for him to divide the inheritance unto his children, he cannot make the son of the beloved the firstborn son for the firstborn son of the hostile, 17. But he shall know the son of the hostile for the firstborn, that he may give him double all that is present: for he is his firstborn, and the right of the firstborn is his.
18. If a man have a wayward and disobedient son, which will not obey his father's voice, nor his mother's voice; and if they chasten him, he will not obey them,
19. Then his father and his mother shall take him, and bring him unto the elders of the city, and unto the gate of that place.
20. And say unto the elders of the city, This our son is wayward, and disobedient, and will not obey our voice, and is a glutton and a drunkard.
21. Then shall all the people of that city stone him, that he die: and thou shalt put away the wicked from thee, that all Israel may hear and fear.
22. If a man have committed a sin worthy of death, and be put to death by being hanged on a tree,
23. Then his body shall not remain upon the wood overnight, but thou shalt bury him that day: for he that is hanged is accursed with God, lest thou pollute thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 22

Many a law is recorded.

1. When thou seest thy brother's oxen or sheep go astray, thou shalt not depart from them, but shalt bring them again unto thy brother.
2. And if thy brother be not nigh thee, and thou know him not, then thou shalt take them into thine house, and they shall be with thee, until thy brother seek them, and then thou shalt restore them unto him.
3. So shalt thou do with his ass, and with his garment, and with all that is lost, which thy brother hath lost, and thou findest it: thou canst not escape it.
4. If thou seest thy brother's ass or his ox falling by the way, thou shalt not depart from him, but shalt help him up.
5. A woman shall not wear man's apparel, neither shall a man put on woman's apparel: for whosoever doeth these things is an abomination to the LORD thy God.
6. If thou find in the way a bird's nest in a tree, or in the earth, with young, or with eggs, and the mother sit upon the young, or upon the eggs, thou shalt not take the mother with the young, 7. But let the mother fly, and take the young, that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest live long.
8. When thou buildest a new house, make an awning for it upon thy roof, lest thou bring blood upon thine house, when any man falleth down.
9. Thou shalt not sow thy vineyard with divers seeds, lest thou sanctify the seed which thou hast sown beside the fruit of the vineyard.
10. Thou shalt not plow with an ox and an ass together.
11. Thou shalt not put on a garment of wool and linen mingled together.
12. Thou shalt make thee small lappets in the four parts of thy cloak, that thou mayest cover thyself.
13. If a man take a wife, and be sorry for her, when he hath put her to sleep, 14. And he layeth a vile thing upon her, and maketh an evil cry against her, saying, I have taken this woman, and when I went in unto her, I found her not a virgin: 15. Then the damsel's father and her mother shall take her, and bring forth the damsel's maidenhead before the elders of the city at the gate.
16. And the damsel's father shall say unto the elders, I have given my daughter to this man to wife; now is he grieved against her.

17. And he layeth a shameful thing upon her, saying, I found not thy daughter a virgin: here is my daughter's virginity. And they shall spread the garments before the elders of the city.

18. Then the elders of the city shall take the man, and chasten him.

19. And he shall pay an hundred shekels of silver, and shall give them unto the damsel's father, because he hath put a virgin to shame in Israel: and he shall take her to wife, that he may not put her away all the days of his life.

20. But if it be true, that the damsel is not found a virgin,

21. And they shall bring her out unto the door of her father's house, and the men of the city shall stone her to death, because she hath committed folly in Israel, and because she hath entered into her father's house: and thou shalt put away evil from among you.

22. If a man be found sleeping with a woman that hath an husband, they shall both die, the man and the woman with whom he slept: and thou shalt do the evil of Israel.

23. If a damsel be familiar with any man, and a man get her in the city, and sleep with her, 24. Then ye shall bring them both out unto the gate of the city, and ye shall stone them both to death: the damsel, because she cried not, being in the city; the man, because he hath violated his neighbour's wife; and thou shalt put away evil from among you.

25. And if a man get a familiar maid in the field, and take her, and lie with her, then the man that slept with her shall die alone.

26. And thou shalt not hurt the harlot: for she hath done no sin worthy of death: but as a man riseth up against his neighbour, and killeth his soul, so is it.

27. For he found her in the field, and the familiar damsel cried out, and there was none to help her.

28. If a man come unto a virgin that is not trusted, and take her, and sleep with her, and be found so,

29. And he that slept with her shall give unto her father fifty shekels of silver, and shall have her to wife, because he hath made her weak: he cannot leave her all the days of his life.

30. No man shall take his father's wife, nor uncover his father's covering.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 23

who belongs to the congregation of the Lord or not.

1. There shall no man be cut off, nor cut off, in the congregation of the LORD.

2: Neither shall any whoremonger enter into the congregation of the LORD, even after the tenth generation; but shall not enter evil into the congregation of the LORD.

3. The Ammonites and the Moabites shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD, even after the tenth generation: they shall never enter in,

4. Because they prevented you not with bread and water in the way, when ye came out of Egypt, and hired Balaam the son of Beor of Pethor of Mesopotamia against you, to curse thee.

5. But the LORD thy God would not hearken unto Balaam, and changed thy curse into a blessing, because the LORD thy God loved thee.

6. Thou shalt not wish them happiness or good all thy days for ever.

7. Thou shalt not count the Edomite an abomination: he is thy brother. Neither shalt thou count the Egyptian an abomination: for thou hast been a stranger in his land.

8. The children which they beget in the third generation shall come into the congregation of the LORD.

9. When thou goest out of the camp against thine enemies, beware of all evil.

10. If there be any among thee that is not clean, and any thing hath befallen him in the night, let him go out of the camp, and let him not come in again,

11. Till he bathe himself in water before even. And when the sun is down, he shall go into the camp again.

12. And thou shalt have a place without the camp, where thou mayest go in time of need.

13. And thou shalt have a little shovel, and when thou sittest without, thou shalt dig therewith: and when thou hast sat down, thou shalt gather up that which is gone out of thee.

14. For the LORD thy God walketh among thy camp, to deliver thee, and to give thine enemies before thee. Therefore let thy camp be holy, that no shame be seen among thee, and let him turn away from thee.

15. Thou shalt not deliver up a servant unto his master, who hath escaped from him unto thee.

16. He shall dwell with thee in the place which he shall choose within thy gates for his good; and thou shalt not oppress him.
17. There shall be no whore among the daughters of Israel, neither shall there be a fornicator among the sons of Israel.
18. Thou shalt not bring a whore's fee, nor a dog's fee, into the house of the LORD thy God, for any vow: for it is an abomination unto the LORD thy God.
19. Thou shalt not usury thy brother, neither with money, nor with meat, nor with any thing to usury.
20. In the stranger thou mayest multiply, but not in thy brother: that the LORD thy God may bless thee in all that thou undertakest in the land whither thou goest to possess it.
21. If thou vow a vow unto the LORD thy God, thou shalt not forsake to keep it: for the LORD thy God shall require it of thee, and it shall be sin unto thee.
22. If thou let thy vows go by, it is no sin unto thee.
23. But that which went out to thy lips thou shalt keep, and do according to that which thou hast freely vowed unto the LORD thy God, which thou hast spoken with thy mouth.
24. When thou goest into thy neighbour's vineyard, thou mayest eat of the grapes according to thy will, until thou be full; but thou shalt not put any thing into thy vessel.
25. When thou goest into thy neighbour's seed, thou mayest pluck the ears of corn with thine hand; but with the sickle thou shalt not go to and fro within it.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 24

Laws, mainly concerning the domestic state.

1. If a man take a wife, and marry her, and she find not favour in his sight, because of any displeasure, then he shall write a bill of divorcement, and put it in her hand, and put her out of his house.
2. When she is gone out of his house, and is gone, and is married to another,
3. And the same other man shall be angry with her, and shall write her a bill of divorcement, and put it into her hand, and let her out of his house: or if the same other man die, who had taken her to wife:
4. Then her first husband, which put her away, cannot take her again to be his wife, because she is unclean: for this is abomination in the sight of the LORD, lest thou make the land to sin, which the LORD thy God hath given thee for an inheritance.

5. If a man hath lately taken a wife, he shall not go forth to war, neither shall anything be laid upon him. He shall be at liberty in his house a year, and shall rejoice with his wife whom he hath taken.

6. Thou shalt not take for a pledge the lowest and the uppermost millstone: for he hath set thy soul for a pledge.

7. If any man be found stealing a soul from among his brethren, from among the children of Israel, and shifting it, or selling it, such a thief shall die, that thou put away evil from among you.

8. Beware of the plague of leprosy, that thou observe diligently to do all that the priests the Levites teach thee: and as they command you, that shall ye observe to do.

9. Consider what the LORD thy God did unto Miriam in the way that ye came out of Egypt.

10. If thou owe thy neighbour any thing, thou shalt not go into his house, and take a pledge of him,

11. But thou shalt stand without, and he to whom thou borest shall bring forth his pledge unto thee.

12. But if he be a poor man, thou shalt not lie down over his pledge, 13. But thou shalt restore him his pledge when the sun goeth down, and he shall sleep in his garment, and bless thee. This shall be a righteousness unto thee before the LORD thy God.

14. Thou shalt not withhold wages from the poor and needy, whether they be of thy brethren, or strangers that are in thy land, or within thy gates,

15. But thou shalt give him his hire of the day, that the sun go not down upon it: for he is scanty, and shall preserve his soul therewith, lest he call upon the LORD against thee, and be sin unto thee.

16. Fathers shall not die for children, nor children for fathers: but every man shall die for his own sin.

17. Thou shalt not pervert the right of the stranger, nor of the fatherless; neither shalt thou take the widow's garment for a pledge.

18. For thou shalt remember that thou wast a servant in Egypt, and that the LORD thy God redeemed thee from thence. Therefore I command thee to do this thing.

19. When thou hast reaped in thy field, and hast forgotten a sheaf in the field, then thou shalt not return to fetch it; but it shall be to the stranger, and to the fatherless, and to the widow; that the LORD thy God may bless thee in all the works of thine hands.

20. When thou hast shaken thy olive trees, thou shalt not shake them again: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow.

21. When thou hast gleaned thy vineyard, thou shalt not glean it: it shall be of the stranger, and of the fatherless, and of the widow.

22. And thou shalt remember that thou wast a servant in the land of Egypt: therefore I command thee to do this thing.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 25

Several pieces of Jewish police regulations.

1. If there be strife between men, let them be brought into court, and let them be judged, and let the righteous be judged, and the wicked condemned.

2. And if the wicked have deserved to be beaten, the judge shall call him down, and shall smite him before him according to the measure and number of his iniquity.

3. When forty blows have been given him, he shall not be beaten any more; lest, when more blows are given, he be beaten too much, and thy brother be abominable in thy sight, 4. Thou shalt not bind up the mouth of the ox that threshes.

5. If brethren dwell together, and one die without children, then the wife of the deceased shall not take a strange man out of the house, but her brother in law shall put her to sleep, and take her to be married, and marry her.

6. And the firstborn of her shall be called by the name of his brother that died, that his name be not cut off from Israel.

7. And if it please not the man to take his sister in law, then she his sister in law shall go up under the gate before the elders, and say, My brother in law refuseth to raise up a name unto his brother in Israel, and will not marry me.

8. Then the elders of the city shall call for him, and speak unto him. And when he standeth, and saith, I am not pleased to take them,

9. And his sister in law shall come unto him before the elders, and take off his shoe from off his feet, and spit upon him: and she shall answer and say: So shall it be done unto every man that will not build up his brother's house.

10. And his name shall be called in Israel the house of the barefooter.

11. When two men quarrel together, and one man's wife runeth to deliver her husband out of the hand of him that smiteth him, and putteth forth her hand, and seizeth him by his shame, 12. Then shalt thou cut off her hand, and thine eye shall not spare her.

13. Thou shalt not have two weights in thy sack, great and small; 14. And there shall not be in thine house two bushels, large and small.

15. Thou shalt have a full and right weight, and a full and right bushel, that thy life may be long in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

16. For whosoever doeth these things is an abomination unto the LORD thy God, as are all they that do evil.

17. Remember what the Amalekites did unto thee in the way that ye came out of Egypt: 18. How they attacked thee in the way, and smote the hindmost of thee, all the weak that followed thee in the rear, when thou wast weary and faint, and feared not God, 19. And it shall come to pass, when the LORD thy God hath given thee rest from all thine enemies round about in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, that thou shalt cut off the remembrance of the Amalekites from under heaven. Remember this!

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 26

Of the first fruits and tithes.

1. When thou comest into the land which the LORD thy God shall give thee for an inheritance, and takest it, and dwellest therein,

2. Then shalt thou take all the firstfruits of the land, which come forth out of the ground, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt put them in a basket, and shalt go unto the place which the LORD thy God shall choose, that his name may dwell there, 3. And thou shalt come unto the priest that is at that time, and say unto him, I confess this day unto the LORD thy God, that I am come into the land which the LORD sware unto our fathers to give us.

4. And the priest shall take the basket out of thine hand, and set it down before the altar of the LORD thy God.
5. Then shalt thou answer and say before the LORD thy God, The Syrians sought to destroy my father, which went down into Egypt, and was there a stranger with a few people, and there became great, and strong, and much people.
6. But the Egyptians dealt evil with us, and compelled us, and laid hard service upon us.
7. And we cried unto the LORD God of our fathers, and the LORD heard our cry, and saw our affliction, and our anguish, and our distress.
8. And brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with a great terror, by signs and wonders;
9. And brought us into this place, and gave us this land, where milk and honey flow in it.
10. Now therefore I will bring the firstfruits of the land, which thou, LORD, hast given me. And thou shalt leave them before the LORD thy God, and worship before the LORD thy God, 11. And rejoice in all that the LORD thy God hath given thee, and in thy house, thou, and the Levite, and the stranger that is with thee.
12. When thou hast gathered together all the tithes of thine income in the third year, which is a tenth year, then thou shalt give unto the Levite, and to the stranger, and to the fatherless, and to the widow, that they may eat in thy gate, and be satisfied.
13. And thou shalt say before the LORD thy God, I have brought that which is holy out of mine house, and have given it unto the Levites, and to the strangers, and to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all thy commandment which thou hast commanded me: I have not transgressed thy commandments, neither have I forgotten them.
14. I have not eaten thereof in my affliction, neither have I done thereof in uncleanness; I have not given thereof unto the dead: I have been obedient to the voice of the LORD my God, and have done all things as thou hast commanded me.
15. Look down from thy holy habitation from heaven, and bless thy people Israel, and the land which thou hast given us, as thou swarest unto our fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey within.

16. This day doth the LORD thy God grant thee to do according to all these commandments and these statutes, to keep them, and to do them with all thine heart and with all thy soul.

17. Thou hast spoken unto the LORD this day, that he is thy God, that thou shouldest walk in all his ways, and keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and obey his voice.

18. And the LORD hath spoken unto thee this day, that thou shouldest be his own people, as he hath spoken unto thee, to keep all his commandments,

19. And he shall make thee supreme, and thou shalt be praised, and glorified, and honoured above all nations which he hath made thee: that thou mayest be a holy people unto the LORD thy God, as he hath said.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 27

Memorials of the Children of Israel. Blessing and curse.

1. And Moses and the elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, Keep all the commandments which I command you this day.

2. And it shall come to pass at the time that ye pass over Jordan into the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, that thou shalt set up great stones, and whitewash them with lime.

3. And write therein all the words of this law, when thou passest over, that thou mayest come into the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, a land flowing with milk and honey within, as the LORD thy fathers' God hath spoken unto thee.

4. And it shall come to pass, when ye are passed over Jordan, that ye shall set up such stones (which I command you this day) in mount Ebal, and whitewash them with lime.

5. And thou shalt build there an altar of stone unto the LORD thy God, and no iron shall pass over it.

6. Of whole stones shalt thou build this altar unto the LORD thy God, and offer burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD thy God.

7. And thou shalt offer peace offerings, and eat there, and rejoice before the LORD thy God.

8. And thou shalt write upon the stones all the words of this law, plainly and distinctly.

9. And Moses and the priests the Levites spake unto all Israel, saying:
Mark and hearken, O

Israel. This day thou art become a people of the LORD thy God,

10. That thou mayest obey the voice of the LORD thy God, and do according to his commandments and his statutes, which I command thee this day.

11. And Moses commanded the people that day, saying:

12. These shall stand in mount Grisim to bless the people, when ye are gone over Jordan; Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin.

13. And these shall stand in mount Ebal to curse: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.

14. And the Levites shall lift up, and say unto every one of Israel with a loud voice: 15. Cursed be he that maketh an idol, or a graven image, an abomination to the LORD, the work of the craftsmen's hands, and setteth it in secret. And all the people shall answer and say, Amen.

16. Cursed be he that curseth his father or his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen.

17. Cursed be he that trammelteth his neighbour's border. And all the people shall say, Amen.

18. Cursed be he that maketh a blind man to err in the way. And all the people shall say, Amen.

19. Cursed be he that maketh the right of the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow to perish.

And all the people shall say, Amen.

20. Cursed be he that lieth with his father's wife, that he may uncover his father's breast. And all the people shall say, Amen.

21. Cursed be he that lieth with any beast. And all the people shall say,
Amen.

22. Cursed be he that lieth with his sister, which is his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter.

And all the people shall say, Amen.

23. Cursed be he that lieth with his mother-in-law. And all the people shall say, Amen.

24. Cursed be he that smiteth his neighbour in secret. And all the people shall say, Amen.

25. Cursed be he that taketh gifts, to smite the soul of innocent blood!
And all the people shall say, Amen.

26. Cursed be he that fulfilleth not all the words of this law, to do them.
And all the people shall say, Amen.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 28

Promised blessing, threatened curse.

1. And if thou wilt obey the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep and to do all his commandments, which I command thee this day, then the LORD thy God shall make thee supreme above all people of the earth,

2. And all these blessings shall come upon thee, and shall be upon thee, because thou hast obeyed the voice of the LORD thy God.

3. Blessed shalt thou be in the city, blessed shalt thou be in the field.

4. Blessed shall be the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy land, and the fruit of thy cattle, and the fruit of thy oxen, and the fruit of thy sheep.

5. Blessed shall be thy basket and thy rest.

6. Blessed shalt thou be when thou goest in, blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

7. And the LORD shall smite thine enemies that rise up against thee before thee: by one way shall they go out against thee, and by seven ways shall they flee from thee.

8. The LORD shall command the blessing to be with thee in thy cellar, and in all that thou shalt undertake, and shall bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God hath given thee.

9. The LORD will establish thee a holy nation unto him, as he hath sworn unto thee, because thou hast kept the commandments of the LORD thy God, and hast walked in his ways, 10. And all the nations of the earth shall see that thou art called by the name of the LORD, and shall fear thee.

11. And the LORD shall make thee to abound in riches, in the fruit of thy womb, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy ground, in the land which the LORD swore unto thy fathers to give thee.

12. And the LORD will open unto thee his good treasure, the heaven, to give rain unto thy land in his season, and to bless all the works of thine hands. And thou shalt lend unto many nations, but thou shalt not borrow of any.

13. And the LORD shall make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt soar above, and not lie beneath: because thou hast obeyed the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day to keep and to do,

14. And that thou depart not from any word which I command you this day, either to the right hand, or to the left, to walk after other gods to serve them.

15. But if thou wilt not obey the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep and to do all his commandments and his statutes, which I command thee this day, all these curses shall come upon thee, and shall be upon thee.

16. Cursed shalt thou be in the city, cursed shalt thou be in the field.

17. Cursed shall be thy basket and the rest of thy stuff.

18. Cursed shall be the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy land, and the fruit of thy oxen, and the fruit of thy sheep.

19. Cursed shalt thou be when thou goest in, cursed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

20. The LORD shall send among thee destruction, and mischief, and evil, in all that thou takest in hand to do, until thou be destroyed, and perish quickly, because of thy wickedness, because thou hast forsaken me.

21. The LORD shall put the gland of death upon thee, until he destroy thee in the land whither thou goest to possess it.

22. The LORD shall smite thee with sore, and with fever, and with heat, and with rheumatism, and with drought, and with poisonous air, and with jaundice, and shall persecute thee until he destroy thee.

23. Thy heaven which is above thy head shall be brass, and the earth beneath thee shall be iron.

24. The LORD shall give unto thy land dust and ashes for rain from heaven upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

25. The LORD shall smite thee before thine enemies. By one way shalt thou go out unto them, and by seven ways shalt thou flee from them: and thou shalt be scattered abroad among all the kingdoms of the earth.

26. Thy carcase shall be meat unto every fowl of the air, and to every beast of the earth: and there shall be none to scatter them.

27. The LORD shall smite thee with the glands of Egypt, with genital warts, and with scabies, and thou shalt not be healed.

28. The LORD shall smite thee with madness, blindness, and raving of the heart; 29. And thou shalt grope in the noonday, as a blind man gropes in the dark; and thou shalt not prosper in thy way, and shalt suffer violence and injustice all thy days; and no man shall help thee. 30. A wife shalt thou make thee trust, but another shall sleep with her. A house shalt thou build, but thou shalt not dwell therein. A vineyard shalt thou plant, but thou shalt not make it common. 31. Thine ox shall be slain before thine eyes, but thou shalt not eat thereof. Your donkey will be taken by force before your face and will not be returned to you. Your sheep will be given to your enemies, and no one will help you. 32. Thy sons and thy daughters shall be given unto another people; and thine eyes shall look, and faint upon them daily; and there shall be no strength in thine hands. 33. The fruit of thy land, and all thy labour, shall a people devour, whom thou knowest not; and thou shalt suffer iniquity, and be crushed all thy days. 34. And thou shalt be senseless before that which thine eyes shall see. 35. The LORD will smite thee with an evil gland in thy knees and in thy calves, that thou shalt not be healed from the sole of thy foot even to the crown of thy head. 36. And the LORD shall drive thee, and thy king, whom thou hast set over thee, among a people whom thou hast not known, nor thy fathers: and there thou shalt change gods, wood, and stones. 37. And thou shalt be an abomination, and a proverb, and a mockery among all nations, because the LORD hath driven thee. 38. Thou shalt carry out much seed into the field, and gather it little: for the locusts shall eat it up. 39. Vineyards shalt thou plant and build, but thou shalt not drink wine, nor read wine: for the worms shall eat it up. 40. Thou shalt have olive trees in all thy borders, but thou shalt not anoint thyself with oil: for thine olive tree shall be plucked up. 41. Thou shalt beget sons and daughters, and shalt not have them: for they shall be carried away captive. 42. All thy trees and the fruit of thy land shall the vermin eat.

43. The stranger that is with thee shall ascend above thee, and shall always soar: but thou shalt descend, and shalt always fall.

44. He shall lend unto thee, but thou shalt not lend unto him: he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail.

45. And all these curses shall come upon thee, and persecute thee, and smite thee, until thou be destroyed; because thou hast not obeyed the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes, which he commanded thee.

46. Therefore signs and wonders shall be in thee, and in thy seed for ever, 47. Because thou didst not serve the LORD thy God with joy and gladness of heart, when thou hadst all things.

48. And thou shalt serve thine enemy, whom the LORD shall send thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in all want: and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he destroy thee.

29. The LORD shall send a people upon thee from afar, from the ends of the earth, as an eagle hath cried, whose language thou understandest not,

50. An insolent people, that regard not the person of the aged, nor spare the young; 51. And he shall eat up the fruit of thy cattle, and the fruit of thy ground, until thou be destroyed: and he shall leave thee none of the corn, nor of the wine, nor of the oil, nor of the fruit of the oxen, nor of the sheep, until it destroy thee;

52. And it shall afflict thee in all thy gates, until it cast down thy high and strong walls, wherein thou trustedst, in all thy land: and thou shalt be afflicted in all thy gates, throughout all thy land, which the LORD thy God hath given thee.

53. Thou shalt eat the fruit of thy womb, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters, which the LORD thy God hath given thee, in anguish and distress, that thine enemy may press thee; 54. That a man, which before lived very tenderly and in lusts among you, shall forgive his brother, and the woman that is in his arms, and the son that is left of his sons, 55. To give any of them of the flesh of his sons, which he eateth, because there is nothing left him of all that he hath, in anguish and distress; that thine enemy may compass thee about in all thy gates.

56. A woman among you that hath before lived tenderly and in lusts, that she hath not sought to set the sole of her foot upon the earth for tenderness and for lust, she shall grant to the man in her arms, and to her son, and to her daughter

57. the afterbirth, which is gone out between her own legs, and her sons which she bare: for they shall eat them in secret from all want, in anguish and distress, that thine enemy may throng thee within thy gates.

58. Wherefore thou shalt not keep all the words of this law, which are written in this book, to fear that glorious and terrible name, the LORD thy God,

59. Then shall the LORD deal strangely with thee, with plagues upon thee and upon thy seed, with great and longsuffering plagues, with evil and longsuffering diseases, 60. And he shall turn unto thee all the plague of Egypt, from which thou art afraid, and they shall cleave unto thee.

61. And every sickness, and every plague, which is not written in the book of this law, shall the LORD bring upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

62. And there shall be left a little multitude of you, which were before as the stars of heaven according to the multitude, because thou hast not hearkened unto the voice of the LORD thy God.

63. And as the LORD rejoiced over you before, to do you good, and to multiply you; so shall he rejoice over you, to destroy you, and to destroy you: and ye shall be cut off from the land which thou goest in to possess it.

64. For the LORD shall scatter thee among all nations, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which thou hast not known, nor thy fathers, wood and stones.

65. Therefore thou shalt have no abiding substance among these nations, neither shall the soles of thy feet have any rest. For the LORD shall give thee there a trembling heart, and faint eyes, and a withered soul,

66. That thy life shall hover before thee. Night and day thou shalt fear, and shalt not be sure of thy life.

67. In the morning thou shalt say, Alas, that I might live to see the evening! In the evening thou shalt say, Oh that I might see the morning! for the fear of thine heart shall terrify thee, and for that which thou shalt see with thine eyes.

68. And the LORD shall bring thee again into Egypt by ships full, by the way of which I said: Thou shalt see it no more. And there ye shall be sold unto your enemies for bondmen and bondmaids, and there shall be no buyer.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 29

Covenant Renewal.

1. These are the words of the covenant which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, the second time after he had made it with them in Horeb.
2. And Moses called unto all Israel, and said unto them: Ye have seen all that the LORD hath done in Egypt before your eyes unto Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land, 3. The great temptations which thine eyes have seen, that they were great signs and wonders.
4. And the LORD hath not yet given you unto this day a heart to understand, eyes to see, and ears to hear.
5. He hath made you to walk forty years in the wilderness: your garments are not become old upon you, neither is your shoe become old upon your feet.
6. Ye have not eaten bread, neither drunk wine, nor strong drink; that ye might know that I am the LORD your God.
7. And it came to pass, when ye were come into this place, that Sihon king of Heshbon and Og king of Bashan went out to meet us to fight with us. And we smote them 8. And they took their land, and gave it for an inheritance unto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half tribe of the Manassites.
9. Keep therefore the words of this covenant, and do them; that ye may deal wisely in all your doings.
10. All ye stand before the LORD your God this day, the rulers of your tribes, your elders, your officers, every man of Israel,
11. Your children, your wives, your stranger that is in your camp, both your hewers of wood, and your drawers of water,
12. That thou mayest walk in the covenant of the LORD thy God, and in the oath which the LORD thy God maketh unto thee this day,
13. That he may establish thee this day for a people unto him, and that he may be thy God, as he spake unto thee, and as he sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

14. For I make not this covenant and this oath with you alone,
15. But both with you which are here this day, and stand with us before the LORD our God, and with them which are not with us this day.
16. For ye know how we dwelt in the land of Egypt, and passed through the midst of the nations which ye passed through,
17. And behold their abominations, and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which were with them.
18. Lest there be among you a man, or a woman, or a servant, or a tribe, whose heart is turned this day from the LORD our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations, and peradventure become a root among you, bearing gall and wormwood,
19. And though he hear the words of this curse, yet bless himself in his heart, saying, It is well with me, because I walk according to my heart: that the drunken woman may pass away with the thirsty.
20. Then shall not the LORD have mercy upon him; but then shall his wrath and his fury be kindled against such a man, and all the curses that are written in this book shall be laid upon him. And the LORD shall blot out his name from under heaven.
21. And he shall separate him for a calamity out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in the book of this law.
22. Then shall say the children of your children come up after you, and the strangers that come from a far country, when they see the plagues of this land, and the diseases wherewith the LORD hath afflicted them,
23. For he hath burned all their land with brimstone and salt, that it should not be sown, nor grow, neither should any herb spring up therein; as Sodom and Gomorrha, Adama and Zebo, are turned back, which the LORD hath turned back in his wrath and fury.
24. Then shall all nations say, Why hath the LORD thus done unto this land? What is this great and fierce anger?
25. And it shall be said, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD God of their fathers, which he made with them, when he brought them up out of the land of Egypt; 26. And they went and served other gods, and worshipped them, such gods as they knew not, and which gave them nothing;

27. Therefore the wrath of the LORD is kindled against this land, because he hath brought upon them all the curses that are written in this book;

28. And the LORD thrust them out of their land with great wrath and fury and displeasure, and cast them into another land, as it is this day.

29. The mystery of the LORD our God is revealed unto us, and unto our children for ever, that we should do all the words of this law.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 30

The penitent obtain mercy, the rebellious vengeance and punishment.

1. When therefore all these things come upon thee, whether they be blessings or cursings, which I have set before thee, and thou goest into thine heart, where thou art among the heathen, because the LORD thy God hath cast thee out,

2. and turn unto the LORD thy God, to obey his voice, thou and thy children, with all thine heart and with all thy soul in all that I command thee this day,

3. Then shall the LORD thy God turn thy prison, and have mercy upon thee, and gather thee again out of all nations, whither the LORD thy God hath scattered thee.

4. If thou be cast out unto the end of heaven, yet the LORD thy God shall gather thee from thence, and fetch thee from thence;

5. And he shall bring thee into the land which thy fathers possessed, and thou shalt possess it; and he shall do thee good, and multiply thee above thy fathers.

6. And the LORD thy God shall circumcise thy heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love the LORD thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live.

7. But these curses shall the LORD thy God put all upon thine enemies, and upon them that hate thee, and persecute thee.

8. But thou shalt return, and obey the voice of the LORD, and do all his commandments which I command thee this day.

9. And the LORD thy God shall make thee prosperous in all the works of thine hands, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy land; and it shall be well with thee. For the LORD will turn to rejoice over thee for thy good, as he rejoiced over thy fathers,

10. Therefore obey the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes, which are written in the book of this law, and turn unto the LORD thy God with all thine heart and with all thy soul.

11. For the commandment which I command thee this day is not hid from thee, neither is it far from thee,

12. Nor in heaven, that thou mayest say, Who will take us up to heaven, and fetch us to hear and to do?

13. Neither is it beyond the sea, that thou shouldest say, Who shall pass over the sea, and take us, that we may hear, and do it?

14. For the word is nigh unto thee in thy mouth, and in thine heart to do it.

15. Behold, I have set before thee this day life and good, death and evil;

16. Who command thee this day to love the LORD thy God, and to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his judgments, and to live, and to be multiplied, that the LORD thy God may bless thee in the land whither thou goest to possess it.

17. But if thou turn away thine heart, and obey not, but be deceived, to worship other gods, and to serve them,

18. I declare unto you this day, that ye shall perish, and not remain long in the land, when thou shalt pass over Jordan to possess it.

19. I take heaven and earth to be witnesses over you this day. I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing, that you may choose life, and that you and your seed may live, 20. That ye love the LORD your God, and obey his voice, and cleave unto him. For this is thy life, and thy long days, to dwell in the land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give them.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 31

Moses resigns his office, orders Joshua to take his place.

1. And Moses went and spake these words unto all Israel;

2. And said unto them: I am this day an hundred and twenty years old; I can go no more out and in: therefore the LORD hath said unto me, Thou shalt not go over this Jordan.

3. The LORD thy God himself shall go before thee; he himself shall destroy these nations before thee, and thou shalt possess them. Joshua shall pass over before thee, as the LORD hath spoken.

4. And the LORD shall do unto them as he did unto Sihon and Og, kings of the Amorites, and to their land, which he destroyed.

5. When therefore the LORD shall give them before you, ye shall do unto them according to all the commandment which I have commanded you.

6. Be of good courage, fear not, neither be afraid of them: for the LORD thy God himself will walk with thee, and will not turn away his hand from thee, nor forsake thee.

7. And Moses called Joshua, and said unto him in the sight of all Israel, Be of good courage and undaunted: for thou shalt bring this people into the land which the LORD swore unto their fathers to give them, and thou shalt divide it among them.

8. But the LORD himself, which goeth before you, shall be with thee, and shall not remove his hand from thee, nor forsake thee. Fear not, neither be dismayed.

9. And Moses wrote this law, and gave it to the priests, to the children of Levi, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel; 10. And commanded them, saying, For seven years, in the year of remission, at the feast of tabernacles,

11. When all Israel come to appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall choose, thou shalt cause this law to be proclaimed before all Israel in their ears, 12. Even before the congregation of the people, both of the men, and of the women, and of the children, and of thy stranger that is within thy gates; that they may hear and learn, that they may fear the LORD their God, and keep him, to do all the words of this law, 13. And that their children also, which know it not, may hear and learn; that they may fear the LORD your God all the days of your life, which are in the land whither ye go in over Jordan.

14. And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thy time is come to die. Call Joshua, and come into the tabernacle of the congregation, that I may command him. And Moses went with Joshua, and they entered into the tabernacle of the congregation.

15. And the LORD appeared in the tabernacle in a pillar of cloud: and the same pillar of cloud stood in the door of the tabernacle.

16. And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thou shalt sleep with thy fathers; and this people shall come up, and whoredom after strange gods, of the land whither they go, and shall forsake me, and shall forsake the covenant that I have made with them.

17. Then shall my wrath be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and hide my face from them, and they shall be consumed. And when much calamity and anguish shall befall them, they shall say, Hath not all this evil entered me, Because my God is not with me?

18. But I will hide my face in that day because of all the evil that they have done, in that they have turned unto other gods.

19. Now therefore write ye this song, and teach it the children of Israel, and put it in their mouths; that the song may be a witness unto me among the children of Israel.

20. For I will bring them into the land, which I swore unto their fathers, when milk and honey flowed within. And when they eat, and are filled, and grow fat, they shall turn unto other gods, and serve them; and they shall blaspheme me, and forsake my covenant.

21. And when much calamity and anguish shall enter them, this song shall answer them for a testimony: for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouth of their seed. For I know their thoughts, that they may go about even now, before I bring them into the land which I have sworn.

22. So Moses wrote this song at that time, and taught it the children of Israel.

23. And he commanded Joshua the son of Nun, saying, Be of good courage, and be not afraid: for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the land which I swore unto them, and I will be with thee.

24. Now Moses had written out the whole words of this law in a book,

25. And he commanded the Levites that bare the ark of the testimony of the LORD, saying: 26. Take the book of this law, and put it in the side of the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that there it may be a witness against thee.

27. For I know your disobedience and stubbornness. Behold, because I live with you this day, ye have been disobedient to the LORD: how much more after my death?

28. Gather therefore before me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, and take heaven and earth for witnesses against them.

29. For I know that after my death ye shall perish, and go out of the way which I have commanded you. Then shall evil befall you hereafter: because ye have done evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger with the work of your hands.

30. So Moses spake the words of this song in the ears of all the congregation of Israel:

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 32

Moses' Song and Canticle.

1. Take heed, ye heavens, I will speak; and let the earth hear the words of my mouth.

2. Let my doctrine drop as the rain, and let my speech flow as the dew, as the rain upon the grass, and as the drops upon the herb.

3. For I will praise the name of the LORD. Give glory to our God alone!

4. He is a rock. His works are blameless: for all that he doeth is right.

Faithful is God, and there is no evil in him: just and upright is he.

5. The perverse and wicked manner fall from him; they are stains, and not his children.

6. Do you then give thanks to the LORD your God, you foolish and foolish people? Is he not thy Father, and thy Lord? Is it not he only that hath made thee, and prepared thee?

7. Remember the former times unto this day, and consider what he hath done for the fathers of old. Ask thy father, and he shall tell thee: thy elders, and they shall tell thee.

8. When the most High divided the nations, and scattered the children of men, he set the bounds of the nations according to the number of the children of Israel.

9. For the LORD'S portion is his people; Jacob is the cord of his inheritance.

10. He found him in the wilderness, in the dry desert, howling. He led him, and gave him the law. He kept him as the apple of his eye,

11. As an eagle bringeth forth his young, and soareth over them. He spread forth his wings, and took him, and bare them upon his wings.

12. The LORD alone led him, and there was no strange god with him.

13. He brought him up on high upon the earth, and fed him with the fruit of the field, and made him suck honey out of the rocks, and oil out of the hard stones, 14. Butter of the kine, and milk of the sheep, with the fat of the lambs, and fat rams, and goats with fat kidneys, and wheat, and watered him with good grape blood.

15. And when he was fat and full, he became horny. And he became fat, and fat, and strong, and hath forsaken the God that made him: he hath despised the rock of his salvation; 16. And hath provoked him to zeal by strangers; by abominations hath he provoked him to anger.

17. They have sacrificed unto the devils of the field, and not unto their God, unto gods which they knew not, unto new ones, which were not before, which your fathers did not worship.

18. Thou hast forsaken thy rock that begat thee, and hast forgotten God that made thee.

19. And when the LORD saw it, he was wroth with his sons and with his daughters.

20. And he said: I will hide my face from them, I will see what shall befall them at the last: for it is a perverse kind, they are unfaithful children.

21. They have provoked me against that which is not God: with their idolatry have they provoked me, and I will provoke them again against that which is not a people; against a foolish people will I provoke them.

22. For the fire is kindled in mine anger, and shall burn even to the lowest hell; and shall devour the land with her increase, and set on fire the foundations of the mountains.

23. I will heap all mischief upon them; I will shoot all mine arrows into them.

24. They shall faint with hunger, and be consumed with fever, and with sudden death. I will send the teeth of beasts among them, and the poison of serpents.

25. Outward shall the sword take them, and inward shall terror take them; both young men and virgins, babes with the gray man.

26. I will say, Where are they? I will lift up their memory among men,

27. If I spared not the wrath of the enemy, lest their enemies should be proud, and say, Our power is great, and the LORD hath not done all these things.

28. For there is a people where there is no counsel within, and there is no understanding in them.

29. O, that they might be wise, and hear these things, that they might understand the things that shall come upon them hereafter.

30. How is it that one shall chase a thousand of them, and two shall make ten thousand to flee? Is it not that she hath sold her rock, and the LORD hath delivered her up?

31. For our rock is not as their rock: our enemies themselves are judges.

32. For their vine is of the vine of Sodom, and of the field of Gomorrha; their grapes are gall, they have bitter berries;

33. Their wine is the poison of dragons, and the gall of fierce vipers.

34. Is not this hidden with me, and sealed up in my treasures?

35. Vengeance is mine; I will recompense. In his time shall her foot slide; For the time of her calamity is at hand, And her future hasteth on.

36. For the LORD will judge his people, and have mercy upon his servants. For he shall see that their power is gone, and that both they that are shut up and forsaken are gone.

37. And they shall say, Where are their gods, their rock, in whom they trusted?

38. Of which sacrifice they did eat fat, and drank the wine of their libation? Let them arise, and help you, and protect you!

39. See ye then that I alone am, and there is no God beside me? I can kill, and I can make alive; I can smite, and I can heal; and there is none that shall deliver out of mine hand.

40. For I will lift up my hand to heaven, and will say, I live for ever.

41. When I shall sharpen the lightning of my sword, and my hand shall take hold to punish, then will I again avenge myself upon mine enemies, and recompense them that hate me.

42. I will make mine arrows drunken with blood, and my sword shall devour flesh upon the blood of the slain, and upon the prison, and upon the uncovered head of the enemy.

43. Rejoice, all ye his people: for he will avenge the blood of his servants, and will take vengeance on his enemies, and will be gracious unto the land of his people.

44. And Moses came and spake all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he and Joshua the son of Nun.

45. And Moses spake all these things unto all Israel,

46. And he said unto them: Take to heart all the words which I testify unto you this day, that ye command your children to keep and do all the words of this law.

47. For it is not a vain word unto you, but it is your life: and this word shall prolong your life in the land whither ye go over Jordan to possess it.

48. And the LORD spake unto Moses the same day, saying:

49. Go up to mount Abarim, to mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab over against Jericho, and possess the land of Canaan, which I will give unto the children of Israel for a possession, 50. And die in the mount, when thou art come up, and gather thyself unto thy people, as Aaron thy brother died in mount Hor, and gathered himself unto his people, 51. Because ye sinned against me among the children of Israel at the water of odds in Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin, to sanctify me not among the children of Israel; 52. For thou shalt see the land against thee, which I give unto the children of Israel, but thou shalt not enter therein:

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 33

Moses' valet blessing and divination.

1. This is the blessing, that Moses the man of God might bless the children of Israel before his death,

2. And said, The LORD is come from Sinai, and is risen up unto them from Seir; he is broken forth from mount Paran, and is come with many thousands of saints: at his right hand is a fiery law unto them.

3. How he loveth the people! All his saints are in thy hand: they shall sit at thy feet, and shall learn of thy words.

4. Moses commanded us the law, the inheritance of the congregation of Jacob.

5. And he administered the office of king, and gathered together the heads of the people with the tribes of Israel.

6. Let Reuben live, and die not; and let his rabble be few.

7. This is the blessing of Judah. And he said, Lord, hear the voice of Judah, and make him ruler over his people, and let his power be great, and let him be helped against his enemies.

8. And he said unto Levi, Let thy judgment and thy light abide with thy holy husband, whom thou hast tried in Massa, when ye fought at the water of Hader.

9. He that saith to his father and to his mother, I see him not; and to his brother, I know him not; and to his son, I know not: they keep thy speech, and keep thy covenant; 10. They shall teach thy statutes unto Jacob, and thy law unto Israel: they shall put incense before thee, and whole sacrifices upon thine altar.

11. Bless, O LORD, his fortunes, and let the works of his hands please thee: bruise the backs of them that rise up against him, and of them that hate him, that they rise not up.

12. And to Benjamin he said, The beloved of the LORD shall dwell safely; he shall always keep over him, and shall dwell between his shoulders.

13. And to Joseph he said, His land is in the blessing of the LORD. There is noble fruit from heaven, from the dew, and from the deep that is below.

14. There are noble fruits of the sun, and noble ripe fruits of the moons.

15. And from the high mountains toward the east, and from the hills for and for.

16. And precious fruit of the earth, and that which is therein. Let the grace of him that dwelt in the bush be upon the head of Joseph, and upon the crown of Nasir among his brethren.

17. His glory is like the firstborn ox, and his horns are like the horns of a unicorn: with them shall he thrust the nations together unto the end of the land. These are the thousands of Ephraim, and the thousands of Manasseh.

18. And unto Zebulun he said, Zebulun, rejoice in thy going forth. But, O Issachar, rejoice in thy tents.

19. They shall call the nations unto the mount, and there shall they offer sacrifices of righteousness. For they shall suck the multitude of the sea, and the sunk treasures in the sand.

20. And unto Gad he said, Blessed be Gad the maker of space: he lieth as a lion, and taketh away the arm and the crown.

21. And he saw that there was given unto him a head, a teacher hidden, which came with the rulers of the people, and shewed the righteousness of the LORD, and his judgments toward Israel.

22. And unto Dan he said, Dan a young lion; he shall flow from Bashan.

23. And unto Naphtali he said, Naphtali shall have enough of all that he desireth, and shall be full of the blessing of the LORD: in the evening and in the south shall be his possession.

24. And to Asher he said, Let Asher be blessed with sons; let him be pleasant to his brethren, and dip his foot in oil.
25. Let iron and brass be in his shoes; let thine old age be as thy youth.
26. There is no god but the god of the righteous. He that sitteth in the heavens be thy help, and whose glory is in the clouds.
27. This is the tabernacle of God from the beginning, and among the poor for ever. And he shall cast out thine enemy from before thee, saying, Be thou destroyed.
28. Israel shall dwell in safety alone: the fountain of Jacob shall be in the land, where there is corn and wine; and his heaven shall drop with dew.
29. Blessed art thou, O Israel, who is like thee? O people, that thou mayest be saved by the LORD, Who is the shield of thy help, And the sword of thy victory! Thine enemies shall lack; But thou shalt tread upon their high places.

(Deuteronomy)

Chapter 34

Moses' death and what followed it.

1. And Moses passed over from the plains of Moab unto mount Nebo, unto the top of mount Pisgah, toward Jericho. And the LORD shewed him all the land of Gilead, even unto Dan.
2. And all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim, and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah, unto the uttermost sea.
3. And toward the south, and the region of the breadth of Jericho, the city of palm trees, unto Zoar.
4. And the LORD said unto him, This is the land which I swear unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, saying, I will give it unto thy seed. Thou hast seen it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not pass over.
5. So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD.
6. And he buried him in the valley, in the land of Moab, over against the house of Peor. And no man hath known his sepulchre unto this day.
7. And Moses was an hundred and twenty years old when he died. His eyes had not grown dim, nor his strength decayed.
8. And the children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days. And the days of weeping and lamentation over Moses were fulfilled.

9. And Joshua the son of Nun was filled with the spirit of wisdom: for Moses had laid his hands upon him. And the children of Israel hearkened unto him, and did as the LORD commanded Moses.

10. And there arose no prophet in Israel after the manner of Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face.

11. For all manner of signs and wonders, wherewith the LORD sent him to do them in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land,

12. And to all this mighty hand and great vision, which Moses did in the sight of all Israel.

Text of the unrevised Luther Bible 1545:

DeepL English Translation

[Processed by BackToLuther. German text published here.]

The Book of Joshua ^

Chapter 1

Joshua is strengthened in his profession.

1. After the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, the LORD spake unto Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' servant:

2. Moses my servant is dead: now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, thou, and all this people, unto the land which I have given unto them, even to the children of Israel.

3. All the places whereon the soles of your feet shall tread have I given you, as I spake unto Moses.

4. From the wilderness, and this Lebanon, unto the great river Phrath, all the land of the Hittites, unto the great sea westward, shall be your border.

5. No man shall withstand thee all the days of thy life. As I was with Moses, so will I be with thee. I will not leave thee, nor depart from thee.

6. Be thou confident and undaunted: for thou shalt divide unto this people the land which I swear unto their fathers to give them.

7. Only be thou confident and very joyful, that thou keep and do all things according to the law which Moses my servant commanded thee. Depart not from it, to the right hand, or to the left, that thou mayest do wisely in all that thou shalt do.

8. And let not the book of this law depart out of thy mouth, but consider it day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein. Then you will be successful in everything you do, and you will be able to act wisely.

9. Behold, I have commanded thee to be confident and joyful. Be not afraid, neither be dismayed: for the LORD thy God is with thee in all that thou shalt do.

10. Then Joshua commanded the captains of the people, saying:

11. Pass through the camp, and command the people, saying, Get ye victuals: for three days shall ye pass over this Jordan, to come in and possess the land which the LORD your God giveth you.

12. And unto the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, said Joshua: 13. Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD spake unto you, saying, The LORD your God hath given you rest, and hath given you this land.

14. Let your wives and your children and your cattle dwell in the land which Moses gave you on this side Jordan: but go ye before your brethren armed, as valiant men, and help them, 15. Till the LORD bring your brethren also to rest, as he bringeth you, that they also may possess the land which the LORD your God giveth them. Then shall ye return unto your own land, which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you to possess, on this side Jordan, toward the rising of the sun.

16. And they answered Joshua, and said: All that thou hast commanded us we will do; and whither thou sendest us we will go.

17. As we were obedient unto Moses, so will we be obedient unto thee: only that the LORD thy God may be with thee, as he was with Moses.

18. Whosoever shall disobey thy mouth, and shall not obey thy words in all that thou givest us, he shall surely die. Only be of good courage and undaunted.

(Joshua)

Chapter 2

The scouts are rescued at Rahab.

1. And Joshua the son of Nun sent two spies secretly from Shittim, saying, Go, visit the land, and Jericho. And they went, and came into the house of a harlot named Rahab, and entered into her.

2. And it was told the king of Jericho, saying, Behold, there are men come in this night of the children of Israel to search the land.

3. And the king of Jericho sent unto Rahab, saying, Bring forth the men that are come to thee into thine house: for they are come to search out all the land.
4. But the woman hid the two men, and said thus, Men came in unto me, but I knew not whence they were.
5. And when they were about to shut the gates, because it was dark, they went out, that I know not whither they went. Chase after them with haste; for ye shall seize them.
6. And she let them go up upon the roof, and hid them under the stalks of flax, which she had spread for them upon the roof.
7. And the men pursued after them by the way of Jordan unto the fords. And they shut the gate, when they were gone out that pursued after them.
8. And before the men lay down to sleep, she went up unto them upon the housetop.
9. And said unto them: I know that the LORD hath given you the land: for terror is fallen upon us because of you, and all the inhabitants of the land are become cowards before your coming.
10. For we have heard how the LORD dried up the waters of the Red sea from before you, when ye came out of Egypt; and what ye did unto the two kings of the Amorites, Sihon and Og, on the other side Jordan, how ye destroyed them.
11. And since we have heard these things, our heart is troubled, and there is no more courage in any man for your future: for the LORD your God is one God, both in heaven above, and in earth beneath.
12. Now therefore swear unto me by the LORD, that, because I have shewed mercy unto you, ye also shew mercy unto my father's house; and give me a sure sign, 13. That ye save my father, and my mother, and my brethren, and my sisters, and all that they have, and deliver our souls from death.
14. And the men said unto her, If we do not do mercy and faithfulness unto thee, when the LORD giveth us the land, our soul shall be put to death for you, except thou betray our business.
15. And she let them down by the rope through the window: for her house was upon the wall of the city, and she dwelt upon the wall.

16. And she said unto them: Go up into the mountain, that they which pursue you meet not; and hide yourselves there three days, until they that pursue you come again: and afterward go your way.

17. And the men said unto her, But we will be loosed from the oath which thou hast taken from us,

18. When we come into the land, and thou hast not tied this red cord in the window, that thou mightest let us down, and gather unto thee into the house thy father, and thy mother, and thy brethren, and all thy father's house.

19. And whosoever goeth out at the door of thine house, let his blood be upon his head, and we be guiltless: but of all that are in thine house, if a hand be laid upon them, their blood shall be upon our head.

20. And if thou shalt say any thing of this business of ours, we will be loosed from the oath which thou hast taken of us.

21. And she said, Let it be as ye say; and let them go. And they went. And she knotted the red rope in the window.

22. And they went and came to the mountains, and abode there three days, until they that pursued them should return. For they sought them in all the highways, but found them not.

23. So the two men returned, and went down from the mountains, and passed over; and came to Joshua the son of Nun, and told him all things as they had found them,

24. And they said unto Joshua, The LORD hath delivered all the land into our hand: even so all the inhabitants of the land are cowardly before us.

(Joshua)

Chapter 3

Israel goes through the Jordan dry-footed.

1. And Joshua arose early, and they departed from Shittim, and came to Jordan, he and all the children of Israel, and lodged there overnight, before they passed over.

2. And after three days the captains passed through the camp.

3. And they commanded the people, saying: When ye shall see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, and the priests of the Levites bearing it, then go out from your place, and follow it.

4. But that between you and her there be a space of two thousand cubits. Ye shall not come nigh unto her, that ye may know by what way ye must go: for ye went not that way before.
5. And Joshua said unto the people, Sanctify yourselves: for to morrow the LORD will do a miracle among you.
6. And he said unto the priests, Carry the ark of the covenant, and go before the people. So they bare the ark of the covenant, and went before the people.
7. And the LORD said unto Joshua, This day will I begin to magnify thee before all Israel, that they may know how I was with Moses, even so with thee.
8. And thou shalt command the priests that bear the ark of the covenant, saying, When ye are come forward into the waters of Jordan, then stand still.
9. And Joshua said unto the children of Israel, Come near, and hear the words of the LORD your God.
10. And he said, By this ye shall know that there is a living God among you, and that he will drive out from before you the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hivites, and the Perizzites, and the Gergosites, and the Amorites, and the Jebusites.
11. Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Ruler of all the earth shall pass before you into Jordan.
12. Now therefore take you twelve men out of the tribes of Israel, out of every tribe one.
13. And it shall come to pass, when the soles of the feet of the priests that bear the ark of the LORD, the ruler of all the earth, are let down into the waters of Jordan, that the waters which flow down from above into Jordan shall be cut off, and shall stand upon a heap.
14. And when the people went forth out of their tents to pass over Jordan, and the priests bare the ark of the covenant before the people
15. And they came to Jordan, and dipped their feet in the water before them, (and Jordan was full upon all his banks all the harvest time.)
16. And the waters stood, which came down from above, set up over a heap, very far from the people of the city that lieth on the side of Zartan: but the waters that ran down to the sea, even to the salt sea, abated and were consumed. So the people went over against Jericho.

17. And the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD were dry in the midst of Jordan. And all Israel passed through dry, until all the people were all come over Jordan.

(Joshua)

Chapter 4

Memorials of the miraculous passage through the Jordan.

1. And the LORD said unto Joshua:

2. Take you twelve men, out of every tribe one.

3. And command ye them, saying, Take up out of Jordan twelve stones from the place where the priests' feet stand, and bring them over with you, and leave them in the inn, where ye shall lodge this night.

4. Then Joshua called twelve men, which were appointed of the children of Israel, out of every tribe one,

5. And he said unto them: Go over before the ark of the LORD your God into the midst of Jordan, and lift every man a stone upon his shoulder according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel,

6. That they may be a sign among you. When your children shall ask their fathers in time to come, saying: What do these stones do?

7. And ye shall tell them how the waters of Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, when it passed over Jordan: and these stones shall be for a memorial unto the children of Israel for ever.

8. And the children of Israel did as Joshua commanded them, and took twelve stones out of the midst of Jordan, as the LORD spake unto Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and brought them over with them unto the inn, and left them there.

9. And Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of Jordan, where the feet of the priests that bare the ark of the covenant stood: and they are there unto this day.

10. For the priests that bare the ark stood in the midst of Jordan, until all things were fulfilled, which the LORD commanded Joshua to say unto the people, as Moses commanded Joshua.

And the people hasted, and passed over.

11. And when all the people were passed over, the ark of the LORD passed over also, and the priests before the people.

12. And the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, went armed before the children of Israel, as Moses spake unto them.

13. And forty thousand armed for an army went before the LORD to battle in the plains of Jericho.

14. In that day the LORD magnified Joshua in the sight of all Israel, and they feared him, as they feared Moses all the days of his life.

15. And the LORD said unto Joshua:

16: Command the priests that bear the ark of the testimony, that they come up out of Jordan.

17. So Joshua commanded the priests, saying, Come up out of Jordan.

18. And when the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD came up out of Jordan, and trod upon the dry land with the soles of their feet, the waters of Jordan returned unto their place, and flowed as before upon all the banks thereof.

19. And it was the tenth day of the first month, when the people came up out of Jordan, and pitched in Gilgal toward the east of Jericho.

20. And the twelve stones which they had taken out of Jordan, Joshua set up at Gilgal.

21. And he said unto the children of Israel, When your children shall ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What mean these stones?

22. Then ye shall make it known unto them, saying, Israel passed over Jordan dry, 23. When the LORD your God dried up the waters of Jordan from before you, until ye passed over; as the LORD your God did in the Red sea, which he dried up from before us, until we passed over;

24. That all the nations of the earth may know the hand of the LORD, how mighty it is: that ye may fear the LORD your God always.

(Joshua)

Chapter 5

Circumcision and Passover performed in the Promised Land.

1. And when all the kings of the Amorites that dwelt on the west side Jordan, and all the kings of the Canaanites that dwelt by the sea, heard how that the LORD had dried up the waters of Jordan from before the children of Israel, until they were passed over, their heart was troubled, and there was no more courage in them from before the children of Israel.

2. And at that time the LORD said unto Joshua, Make thee knives of stone, and circumcise the children of Israel again the second time.
3. And Joshua made him knives of stone, and circumcised the children of Israel in the hill of Araloth.
4. And this is the cause why Joshua circumcised all the people that came out of Egypt, even the likenesses of men: for all the men of war died in the wilderness in the way that they came out of Egypt.
5. For all the people that came out were circumcised: but all the people that were born in the wilderness, in the way that they came out of Egypt, they were not circumcised.
6. For the children of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, until all the people of the men of war that came out of Egypt perished, because they hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD: as the LORD swore unto them that they should not see the land which the LORD swore unto their fathers to give us, a land flowing with milk and honey.
7. The same children that came up in their stead Joshua circumcised: for they had foreskin, and were not circumcised in the way.
8. And when all the people were circumcised, they abode in their place in the camp, until they were healed.
9. And the LORD said unto Joshua, This day have I turned away the reproach of Egypt from you: and the same place was called Gilgal unto this day.
10. And it came to pass, when the children of Israel were encamped in Gilgal, that they kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the month in the evening in the coasts of Jericho.
11. And they did eat of the corn of the land on the second day of the passover, unleavened bread, and singing, the same day.
12. And the man ceased on the morrow, when they did eat the corn of the land, that the children of Israel had no more man; but they did eat the corn of the land of Canaan of the same year.
13. And it came to pass, when Joshua was at Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes, and perceived a man standing against him, having a mere sword in his hand. And Joshua went unto him, and said unto him, Art thou with us, or with our enemies?
14. And he said, Nay; but I am a ruler over the host of the LORD, and am come now. Then Joshua fell on his face to the ground, and worshipped, and said unto him, What saith my lord unto his servant?

15. And the prince of the host of the LORD said unto Joshua, Put off thy shoes from off thy feet: for the place whereon thou standest is holy. And Joshua did so.

(Joshua)

Chapter 6

Conquest and destruction of the city of Jericho.

1. And Jericho was shut up, and kept from the children of Israel, that no man might come in or go out.

2. And the LORD said unto Joshua, Behold, I have delivered Jericho into thine hand, and her king, and her men of war.

3. Let all the men of war go round about the city once; and do so six days.

4. And on the seventh day let the priests take seven trumpets of the trumpet before the ark, and go about the city seven times on the seventh day, and let the priests blow with the trumpets.

5. And when they blow the trumpet in the year of jubile, and sound the trumpet, then shall all the people make a great shout, and the walls of the city shall fall down, and the people shall fall every man straight before him;

6. Then Joshua the son of Nun called unto the priests, and said unto them: Bear ye the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of the jubilee before the ark of the LORD.

7. And he said unto the people, Go and compass the city, and let him that is armed go before the ark of the LORD.

8. And it came to pass, when Joshua had told the people, that the seven priests brought seven trumpets before the ark of the LORD, and went and blew with the trumpets: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them.

9. And he that was armed went before the priests that blew with the trumpets: and the multitude followed after the ark, and blew with the trumpets.

10. And Joshua commanded the people, saying: Ye shall not make a shout, nor let your voice be heard, nor let a word proceed out of your mouth, until the day that I shall say unto you: Make a shout; then make a shout.

11. So the ark of the LORD went round about the city once; and they entered into the camp, and abode therein.

12. For Joshua rose up early in the morning, and the priests bare the ark of the LORD.

13. So the seven priests bare the seven trumpets of the jubilee before the ark of the LORD, and went and blew with the trumpets: and they that were armed went before them, and the company followed the ark of the LORD, and blew with the trumpets.

14. And the next day they went about the city once, and returned into the camp. So they did six days.

15. And on the seventh day, when the dawn was risen, they rose up early, and compassed the city after the same manner seven times: so that on that day they compassed the city seven times.

16. And the seventh time, when the priests blew with the trumpets, Joshua said unto the people, Make a noise: for the LORD hath given you the city.

17. But this city, and all that is therein, shall be utterly destroyed unto the LORD. But Rahab the harlot shall live, and all that are with her in the house: for she hid the messengers which we sent.

18. But beware of him that is banished, lest ye banish yourselves, and take any thing of him that is banished, and banish the camp of Israel, and bring evil upon it.

19. And all the silver, and the gold, and the vessels of brass and of iron, shall be sanctified unto the LORD, to be the treasures of the LORD.

20. And the people made a great shout, and blew with the trumpets. And when the people heard the sound of the trumpets, they made a great shout. And the walls fell down, and the people went up into the city every man straight before him. So they took the city.

21. And they utterly destroyed all that were in the city with the edge of the sword, both man and woman, young and old, ox, sheep, and ass.

22. And Joshua said unto the two men that spied out the land, Go into the harlot's house, and bring out the woman from thence, and all that she hath, as ye sware.

23. And the young men that were spies went in, and brought out Rahab, and her father, and her mother, and her brethren, and all that she had, and all her family, and left them without the camp of Israel.

24. And they burnt the city with fire, and all that was therein. But the silver, and the gold, and the vessels of brass and of iron, they put for a treasure into the house of the LORD.

25. And Rahab the harlot, and her father's house, and all that she had, let Joshua live. And she dwelt in Israel unto this day, because she hid the messengers which Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

26. At that time Joshua sware, saying, Cursed be the man before the LORD that setteth up and buildeth this city Jericho. When he layeth the foundation thereof, it shall cost him his first son: and when he setteth up the gates thereof, it shall cost him his youngest son.

27. So the LORD was with Joshua, that it was said of him throughout all the earth.

(Joshua)

Chapter 7

Achan punished for theft.

1. And the children of Israel took the banished man: for Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the banished man. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against the children of Israel.

2. And Joshua sent men from Jericho unto Ai, which is by Bethaven, toward the east of Bethel, and said unto them: Go up, and reconnoitre the land: and when they were gone up, and had reconnoitred Ai,

3. And they came again to Joshua, and said unto him, Let not all the people go up, but let them go up by two or three thousand men, and smite Ai, lest all the people be troubled there: for they are few.

4. So the people went up about three thousand men: and they fled before the men of Ai.

5. And the men of Ai smote them about thirty and six men, and chased them out of the gate unto Shabarim, and smote them down the way. And the people's hearts were troubled, and they were turned into water.

6. And Joshua rent his clothes, and fell to the earth upon his face before the ark of the LORD until the even, with the elders of Israel, and cast dust upon their heads.

7. And Joshua said, O Lord, Lord, why hast thou brought this people over Jordan, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites to destroy us? O that we had stayed beyond Jordan, as we began!

8. O my lord, what shall I say, because Israel hath turned her back upon her enemies?

9. When the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land hear it, they shall compass us about, and cut off our name from the earth. What wilt thou do by thy great name?

10. And the LORD said unto Joshua, Arise. Wherefore liest thou thus upon thy face?

11. Israel have sinned, and have transgressed my covenant which I commanded them, and have taken the banished man, and have stolen, and have denied, and have put him among their vessels.

12. The children of Israel shall not stand before their enemies, but shall turn their backs upon their enemies: for they are under the ban: I will not be with you hence, except ye destroy the ban from among you.

13. Arise, sanctify the people, and say, Sanctify yourselves to morrow. For thus saith the LORD

God of Israel, There is a curse upon thee, O Israel: therefore thou canst not stand before thine enemies, until ye put away the curse from among you.

14. And ye shall make your hearts early, one tribe after another: and what tribe the LORD shall smite, that shall make itself hearty, one family after another: and what family the LORD shall smite, that shall make itself hearty, one house after another: and what house the LORD shall smite, that shall make itself hearty, one landlord after another.

15. And he that is found in the ban shall be burned with fire with all that he hath, because he hath transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he hath committed folly in Israel.

16. And Joshua rose up early in the morning, and brought Israel in one tribe after another: and the tribe of Judah was taken.

17. And when he brought in the families of Judah, the family of the Zerahites was taken. And when he brought in the family of the Zerahites, one landlord after another, Zabdi was taken.

18. And when he had brought in his house one host after another, Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.

19. And Joshua said unto Achan, My son, give glory unto the LORD God of Israel, and give him praise: and tell me, what hast thou done? and deny me nothing.

20. And Achan answered Joshua, and said, Verily I have sinned against the LORD God of Israel; so and so have I done.

21. And I saw among the rough a precious Babylonian mantle, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a golden tongue, worth fifty shekels by weight: I lusted after it, and took it. And, behold, it is buried in the earth in my tent, and the silver under it.

22. And Joshua sent messengers, and they ran unto the tabernacle: and, behold, it was buried in his tabernacle, and the silver under it.

23. And they took it out of the tabernacle, and brought it unto Joshua, and to all the children of Israel, and cast it before the LORD.

24. And Joshua and all Israel with him took Achan the son of Zerah, and his silver, and his mantle, and his golden tongue, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that he had, and brought them up into the valley of Achor.

25. And Joshua said, Because thou hast afflicted us, let the LORD afflict thee this day. And all Israel stoned him, and burned them with fire. And when they had stoned them, 26. And they made upon them a great heap of stones, which remaineth unto this day. So the LORD turned back from the fury of his wrath. Therefore the name of that place is called the valley of Achor unto this day.

(Joshua)

Chapter 8

Siege and conquest of the city of Ai.

1. And the LORD said unto Joshua, Fear not, neither be dismayed. Take with thee all the people of war, and arise, and go up to Ai. Behold, I have delivered into thy hand king Als, and his people, and his city, and his land.

2. And thou shalt do unto Ai and her king as thou didst unto Jericho and her king, without dividing her spoil of her cattle among you. But set an ambush behind the city.

3. And Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up to Ai. And Joshua chose thirty thousand men of valour, and sent them out by night.

4. And commanded them, saying, Take heed, ye shall be the ambush behind the city: but get you not too far from the city, and be ye all ready.

5. And I, and all the people that are with me, will make for the city. And if they come out to meet us, as before, we will flee before them,

6. That they may come out after us, until we have plucked them out of the city. For they shall remember that we flee from them, as before. And because we flee from them, 7. And ye shall arise out of ambush, and take the city: for the LORD your God shall deliver it into your hand. 8. And when ye have taken the city, set it on fire, and do according to the word of the LORD.

Behold, I have commanded you.

9. So Joshua sent them, and they went into ambush, and halted between Bethel and Ai on the west side of Ai. And Joshua tarried that night among the people.

10. And he rose up early in the morning, and gathered the people together, and went up with the elders of Israel before the people unto Ai.

11. And all the people of war that were with him went up, and drew near, and came against the city, and pitched before Ai on the north side; and there was but a valley between him and Ai.

12. And he took about five thousand men, and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai on the west side of the city.

13. And they set the people of all the camp, which were toward the north of the city, to be the last of them toward the west of the city. So Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley.

14. And when the king of Ai saw it, they made haste, and rose up early, and the men of the city out to meet Israel to battle, with all his people, unto a certain place before the border. For he knew not that there was an ambush against him behind the city.

15. And Joshua and all Israel stood as though they were smitten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness.

16. And all the people of the city cried out, that they should pursue them.

17. And they also pursued after Joshua, and went out of the city, that there remained not a man in Ai and Bethel, that went not out after Israel: and they left the city open, to pursue after Israel.

18. And the LORD said unto Joshua, Stretch out the spear that is in thine hand against Ai; for I will deliver it into thine hand. And when Joshua stretched out the spear that was in his hand against the city,

19. And the ambush arose in haste out of his place, and ran after he stretched forth his hand, and came into the city, and took it; and hasted, and set it on fire.

20. And the men of Ai turned, and looked behind them, and saw the smoke of the city ascend up to heaven, and had no place to flee to or from. And the people that fled to the wilderness turned back to pursue after them.

21. For when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, because there was smoke in the city, they turned again, and smote the men of Ai.

22. And they that were in the city came out to meet them, and came in the midst of Israel from thence, and from thence: and they smote them, until none of them remained, nor escaped.

23. And they took the king of Ai alive, and brought him to Joshua.

24. And when Israel had slain all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, and in the wilderness, which pursued after them, and were all fallen with the edge of the sword, until they were all consumed, then all Israel returned unto Ai, and smote them with the edge of the sword.

25. And all that fell that day, both men and women, were twelve thousand, all the people of Ai.

26. And Joshua removed not his hand again to stretch forth the spear, until all the inhabitants of Ai were utterly destroyed.

27. Without the cattle, and the spoil of the city, Israel divided among themselves according to the word of the LORD, which he commanded Joshua.

28. And Joshua burnt Ai, and made a heap of it for ever, which lieth there to this day.

29. And he hanged the king of Ai upon a tree until the even. And when the sun was down, he commanded that his body should be taken down from the tree, and they cast it under the gate of the city, and made a great heap of stones upon it, which is there unto this day.

30. Then Joshua built an altar unto the LORD God of Israel in mount Ebal.

31. As Moses the servant of the LORD commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, an altar of whole stones hewn with no iron: and they offered upon it burnt offerings and peace offerings unto the LORD.

32. And there he wrote upon the stones the other law, which Moses commanded the children of Israel.

33. And all Israel, and their elders, and their officers, and their judges, stood on both sides of the ark before the priests of Levi, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, both the strangers and the sojourners, half of them beside mount Grisim, and half of them beside mount Ebal; as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded before, to bless the people of Israel.

34. And afterward he proclaimed all the words of the law, blessings and cursings, as it is written in the book of the law.

35. There was not a word that Moses commanded, which Joshua spake not before all the congregation of Israel, and before the women, and the children, and the strangers that sojourned among them.

(Joshua)

Chapter 9

The Gibeonites come into the covenant with guile.

1. And it came to pass, when all the kings that were on the other side Jordan, in the mountains, and in the valleys, and in all the coasts of the great sea, and that were by the side of mount Lebanon, the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, heard these things,

2. And they gathered themselves together with one accord, and fought against Joshua, and against Israel.

3. But the men of Gibeon, when they heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and Ai, devised a stratagem;

4. And they went and sent a message, and took old sacks upon their asses.

5. And old torn and mended wineskins, and old mended shoes, put on their feet, and put on old garments: and all the bread that they took with them was hard and mouldy.

6. And they went to Joshua into the camp to Gilgal, and said unto him, and to all Israel, We are come from a far country: now therefore make a covenant with us.

7. And all Israel said unto the Hivite, Peradventure thou wilt dwell among us: how then can I make a covenant with thee?

8. And they said unto Joshua, We are thy servants. And Joshua said unto them: Who are ye, and whence come ye?

9. And they said: Thy servants are come from very far countries for the name of the LORD thy God: for we have heard his tidings, and all that he did in Egypt, 10. And all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites that were beyond Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon, and to Og king of Bashan, which dwelt in Ashtaroth.

11. Therefore said our elders, and all the inhabitants of our land: Take food with you on your journey, and go out to meet them, and speak to them; we are your servants. Now therefore make a covenant with us.

12. This our bread, which we took out of our houses for our meat, was yet fresh when we went forth unto you: but now, behold, it is hard and mouldy;

13. And these wineskins we filled anew, and, behold, they are rent: and these our garments and our shoes are become old by reason of the very long journey.

14. Then the captains received their meat, and asked not the mouth of the LORD.

15. And Joshua made peace with them, and established a covenant with them, that they should live. And the rulers of the congregation sware unto them.

16. But about three days after they had made a covenant with them, it came to pass, that they were nigh unto them, and dwelt among them.

17. For when the children of Israel departed, they came the third day unto their cities, which were called Gibeon, and Caphirah, and Beeroth, and Kiriathjearim.

18. And they smote them not, because the rulers of the congregation had sworn unto them by the LORD God of Israel. And when all the congregation murmured against the princes, 19. And all the rulers of the whole congregation said: We have sworn unto them by the LORD God of Israel; therefore we cannot touch them.

20. But this we will do: let them live, lest wrath come upon us for the oath which we have taken unto them.

21. And the princes said unto them: Let them live, that they may be hewers of wood and drawers of water unto all the congregation, as the princes said unto them.

22. And Joshua called unto them, and spake unto them, saying, Why have ye deceived us, saying, Ye are very far from us, when ye dwell among us?

23. Therefore ye shall be accursed, that there shall not cease from among you servants that hew wood and carry water unto the house of my God.

24. And they answered Joshua, and said: It is told thy servants, that the LORD thy God commanded Moses his servant to give you all the land, and to destroy before you all the inhabitants of the land. So we feared for our lives because of you, and we have done this.

25. But now, behold, we are in thy hands: what it seemeth thee good and right to do unto us, do that.

26. And he did so unto them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, that they slew them not.

27. So Joshua made them that day hewers of wood, and drinkers of water for the congregation, and altars of the LORD unto that day in the place which he would choose.

(Joshua)

Chapter 10

Wonderful victory of Joshua against the Amorites.

1. And it came to pass, when Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem heard that Joshua had taken Ai, and had utterly destroyed them, and had done to Ai and her king, as he had done to Jericho and her king, and that they of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and had come among them, 2.

They feared greatly (for Gibeon was a great city, as a royal city, and greater than Ai, and all the citizens thereof contentious).

3. And he sent to Hoham king of Hebron, and to Piream king of Jarmuth, and to Japhia king of Lachish, and to Debir king of Eglon, saying:

4. Come up unto me, and help me, that we may smite Gibeon: for she hath made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel.

5. And the five kings of the Amorites came up in multitude, the king of Jerusalem, and the king of Hebron, and the king of Jarmuth, and the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon, with all their camp, and occupied Gibeon, and fought against them.

6. And they that were in Gibeon sent unto Joshua to the camp to Gilgal, saying, Turn not thy hand from thy servants. Come up to us in haste, save us, and help us: for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the mountains are gathered together against us.

7. And Joshua went up from Gilgal, and all the people of war with him, and all the valiant men.

8. And the LORD said unto Joshua, Fear them not: for I have delivered them into thine hand: there shall not any of them be able to stand before thee.

9. So Joshua came upon them suddenly, for all night he went up from

10. But the LORD rebuked them before Israel, and they fought a great battle at Gibeon, and pursued after them by the way of Bethhoron, and smote them unto Azekah and Makkedah.

11. And as they fled before Israel by the way of Bethhoron, the LORD sent down great hail from heaven upon them unto Azekah, and they died. And many more died of the hail, than the children of Israel slew with the sword.

12. And Joshua spake unto the LORD in the day that the LORD delivered up the Amorites in the sight of the children of Israel, and said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand still in Gibeon; and moon, in the valley of Ajalon.

13. And the sun and the moon stood still, until the people had avenged themselves on their enemies. Is not this written in the book of the pious? And the sun stood in the midst of heaven, and went not down all that day.

14. And there was no day like unto it, before or since, that the LORD hearkened unto the voice of a man: for the LORD fought for Israel.

15. And Joshua returned to the camp to Gilgal, and all Israel with him.

16. But the five kings had fled, and hid themselves in the cave of Makkedah.

17. And Joshua was told, We have found the five kings hid in the cave of Makkedah.

18. And Joshua said, Roll great stones before the hole of the cave, and appoint men over it to keep them.

19. But ye stand not still, but pursue after your enemies, and smite the hindmost of them; and let them not enter into their cities: for the LORD your God hath delivered them into your hand.

20. And it came to pass, when Joshua and the children of Israel had finished this very great battle upon them, and had smitten them, that the remnant of them that remained came into the strong cities.

21. So all the people returned into the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace: and no man lifted up his tongue before the children of Israel.

22. And Joshua said, Open the hole of the cave, and bring forth the five kings unto me.

23. So they did, and brought the five kings unto him out of the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon.

24. And when the five kings were brought forth unto him, Joshua called unto all Israel, and said unto the captains of the people of war that went with him, Come near, and tread upon the necks of these kings with your feet. And they came near, and trod on their necks with their feet.

25. And Joshua said unto them: Fear not, nor be dismayed; be of good courage and undaunted: for so will the LORD do unto all your enemies against whom ye fight.

26. And Joshua smote them afterward, and slew them, and hanged them upon five trees: and they hung upon the trees until the even.

27. And when the sun was down, he commanded that they should be taken down from the trees, and cast into the cave wherein they were hid: and they laid great stones before the cave hole.

They are still there to this day.

28. That day Joshua also took Makkedah, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof, and burned it, and all the souls that were therein, and left none remaining: and he did unto the king of Makkedah as he had done unto the king of Jericho.

29. And Joshua and all Israel went with him from Makkedah to Libnah, and fought against them.

30. And the LORD delivered the same into the hand of Israel with their king, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein, and left none remaining within: and he did unto their king as he did unto the king of Jericho.

31. And afterward Joshua and all Israel went with him from Libnah to Lachish, and occupied and disputed with them.

32. And the LORD delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel, and they took it the next day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein, according to all that he had done to Libnah.

33. And at that time Horam king of Gezer went up to help Lachish: but Joshua smote him with all his people, until none remained within.

34. And Joshua went from Lachish, and all Israel, to Eglon, and besieged them, and fought against them.

35. And he took them the same day, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and destroyed all the souls that were therein the same day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

36. And Joshua and all Israel went up from Eglon to Hebron, and fought against them.

37. And he took them, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and their king, and all their cities, and all the souls that were therein; and left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon, and banished them, and all the souls that were therein.

38. And Joshua returned again with all Israel unto Debir, and fought against them.

39. And he took them, and their king, and all their cities, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls that were therein, and left none remaining. As he had done to Hebron, so did he to Debir and her king, and as he had done to Libnah and her king.

40. So Joshua smote all the country in the mountains, and in the south, and in the valleys, and by the rivers, with all the kings thereof: and he left none remaining, and hid all that breathed, as the LORD God of Israel commanded.

41. And he smote them from Kadeshbarnea unto Gaza, and all the land of Goshen unto Gibeon.

42. And he took all these kings with their land at one time: for the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel.

43. And Joshua returned into the camp to Gilgal with all Israel.

(Joshua)

Chapter 11

Extermination of the Canaanites.

1. And when Jabin king of Hazor heard these things, he sent to Jobab king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achsaph.

2. And to the kings that dwelt on the north side of the mountains, and on the south side of Cinnereth, and in the valley, and in Naphoth-dor by the sea.

3. And the Canaanites toward the east, and toward the west, and the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, in the mountains, and the Hivites in the lower part of mount Hermon, in the land of Mizpah.

4. These went out with all their host, a great multitude, as the sand of the sea, and many horses and chariots.

5. And all these kings gathered themselves together, and came and pitched by the waters of Merom, to fight with Israel.

6. And the LORD said unto Joshua, Fear them not: for to morrow about this time will I give them all to be slain before the children of Israel: their horses shalt thou cause to cease, and their chariots shalt thou burn with fire.

7. And Joshua came suddenly upon them, and all the people of war with him, by the water of Merom, and overtook them.

8. And the LORD delivered them into the hand of Israel, and smote them, and chased them unto great Zidon, and unto the warm waters, and unto the breadth of Mizpeh toward the east, and smote them, until there was none left of them.

9. Then Joshua did unto them as the LORD had said unto him, and he crippled their horses, and burned their chariots.

10. And he returned in that day, and took Hazor, and smote the king thereof with the sword (for Hazor was the chief city of all those kingdoms before).

11. And smote all the souls that were therein with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed them, and left none that had breath; and burnt Hazor with fire.

12. And Joshua took all the cities of those kings with their kings, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and destroyed them, as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded.

13. But the children of Israel burned no cities that were upon the hills: only Hazor burned Joshua.

14. And all the spoil of those cities, and the cattle, did the children of Israel divide among themselves; but all the people they smote with the edge of the sword, until they destroyed them, and left none that had breath.

15. As the LORD commanded Moses his servant, and Moses Joshua; so Joshua did, that there was nothing wanting in all that the LORD commanded Moses.

16. So Joshua took all this land in the mountains, and all that lieth southward, and all the land of Goshen, and the grounds, and the fields, and the mountains of Israel with their bases, 17. From the mountains that divide the land up to Seir, unto Baal-gad, in the breadth of mount Lebanon, under mount Hermon. And all their kings he overcame, and smote them, and slew them.

18. But he contended with these kings a long time.

19. And there was no city that yielded peaceably unto the children of Israel, save the Hivites that dwelt at Gibeon: but they took them all by battle.

20. And it came to pass from the LORD, that their hearts were hardened to meet the children of Israel with strife, that they might be utterly destroyed, and that no mercy might be shown them, but that they might be destroyed, as the LORD commanded Moses.

21. And it came to pass at that time, that Joshua came and cut off the Enakims from the mountains, from Hebron, and from Debir, and from Anab, and from all the mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Israel, and bound them with their cities.

22. And there remained no Enakim in the land of the children of Israel, save in Gaza, and in Gath, and in Ashdod, where they remained.

23. So Joshua took all the land, according to all that the LORD spake unto Moses, and gave it for an inheritance unto Israel, to every tribe his portion. And the land ceased from war.

(Joshua)

Chapter 12

Defeated Kings.

1. These are the kings of the land, which smote the children of Israel, and possessed their land on the other side Jordan toward the sunrising, from the waters of Arnon even unto mount Hermon, and all the plain toward the east:

2. Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon, and reigned from Aroer, which is on the bank of the river by Arnon, and in the midst of the river, and over half Gilead unto the river Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon,

3. And over the plain unto the sea of Cinneroth eastward, and unto the sea of the plain, even the salt sea eastward, by the way of Beth-jesimoth, and from southward by the streams of mount Pisgah.

4. And the border of Og king of Bashan, which was left of the giants, dwelling in Ashtaroth and Edrei.

5. And he reigned over mount Hermon, and over Salcah, and over all Bashan, unto the border of Geshuri, and Maachathi, and half Gilead, which was the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.

6. And Moses the servant of the LORD, and the children of Israel, smote them. And Moses the servant of the LORD gave them to be taken by the Reubenites, and by the Gadites, and by the half tribe of Manasseh.

7. These are the kings of the land, which Joshua smote, and the children of Israel on this side Jordan toward the even, from Baalgad, even unto the breadth of mount Lebanon, unto the mountain that divideth the land up to Seir; which Joshua gave to the tribes of Israel to possess, every man his part,

8. And the mountains, and the valleys, and the valleys, and the rivers, and the wilderness, and the south country: the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

9. The king of Jericho, the king of Ai, which is on the side of Bethel, 10. The king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron,

11. The king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish,

12. The king of Eglon, the king of Gezer,

13. The king of Debir, the king of Geder,

14. The king of Horma, the king of Arad,

15. The king of Libnah, the king of Adullam,

16. The king of Makkedah, the king of Bethel,

17. The king to Tapuah, the king to Hephher,

18. The king of Aphek, the king of Lasaron,

19. The king of Madon, the king of Hazor,

20. The king of Simron-meron, the king of Achsaph,

21. The king of Thaenach, the king of Megiddo,

22. The king of Kedesh, the king of Jacneam of Carmel,

23. The king of Naphtoth-dor, the king of the Gentiles in Gilgal, 24. The king of Thirzah. That is thirty and one kings.

(Joshua)

Chapter 13

Distribution of the land is made.

1. And it came to pass, when Joshua was old and well advanced in years, that the LORD said unto him, Thou art old and well advanced in years, and there is yet much land left to possess, 2. Namely, all Galilee of the Philistines, and all Gessuri,

3. From Sihor, which is before Egypt, unto the border of Ekron northward, which is of the Canaanites, five lords of the Philistines; the Gashite, the Ashdodite, the Ashclonite, the Gittite, the Ekronite, and the Avite.

4. And from the south all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah of the Zidonians, unto Aphek, unto the border of the Amorites;

5. And the land of the Giblites, and all Lebanon toward the rising of the sun, from Baal-gad under mount Hermon unto Hamath:

6. All they that dwell in the mountains, from Lebanon even unto the warm waters, and all the Zidonians. I will drive them out from before the children of Israel. Cast lots only to divide them among Israel, as I commanded thee.

7. Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance among the nine tribes, and among the half tribe of Manasseh.

8. For the Reubenites and the Gadites have received their inheritance with the other half of Manasseh, which Moses gave them on the other side Jordan toward the going up, as Moses the servant of the LORD gave them:

9. From Aroer, which is by the river at Arnon, and from the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the region of Medba, unto Dibon;

10. And all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, which sat in Heshbon, unto the border of the children of Ammon.

11. And Gilead, and the border of Gessuri, and Maachathi, and all mount Hermon, and all Bashan, unto Salcah;

12. All the kingdom of Og in Bashan, which sat in Ashtaroth and Edrei, which was the rest of the giants. And Moses smote them, and cast them out.

13. And the children of Israel did not drive out those that were in Geshur, and those that were in Maachath: but both Geshur and Maachath dwelt among the children of Israel unto this day.

14. But unto the tribe of the Levites he gave no inheritance: for the sacrifice of the LORD God of Israel is their inheritance, as he spake unto them.

15. So Moses gave to the tribe of the children of Reuben according to their families, 16. And their border was from Aroer, which is on the bank of the river by Arnon, and the city in the midst of the river, with all the plain, unto Medbah;

17. Heshbon, and all the cities thereof that are in the plain; Dibon, and Bamothbaal, and Bethbaal-meon,

18. Jahza, Kedemoth, Mephaath,

19. kiriathaim, sibma, zereth sahar on the mountain in the valley, 20. beth-peor, the streams at pishgah and beth-jesimoth

21. And all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, which sat in Heshbon, whom Moses smote, and the princes of Midian, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the mighty men of king Sihon, that dwelt in the land.

22. And Balaam the son of Beor the diviner did the children of Israel slay with the sword, with them that were slain.

23. And the border of the children of Reuben was Jordan This is the inheritance of the children of Reuben among their families, cities, and villages.

24. To the tribe of the children of Gad among their families Moses gave,

25. And their coast was Jaesher, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the children of Ammon, unto Aroer, which is before Rabbah;

26. And from Heshbon unto Ramath-mizpeh and Betonim, and from Mahanaim unto the border of Debir;

27. And in the valley of Bethharam, and Bethnimrah, and Sukhoth, and Zaphon, which was left of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, the border of Jordan, unto the end of the sea of Cinnereth, on this side Jordan eastward.

28. This is the inheritance of the children of Gad in their families, in their cities, and in their villages.

29. To the half tribe of the children of Manasseh according to their families Moses gave, 30. And their border was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the villages of Jair which are in Bashan, even threescore cities.

31. And half Gilead, Ashtaroth, Edrei, the cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, gave he to the children. Machir the son of Manasseh, that is, to the half of the children of Machir, according to their families.

32. This is it that Moses distributed in the plains of Moab, on the other side Jordan, before Jericho, toward the going up.

33. But unto the tribe of Levi Moses gave no inheritance: for the LORD God of Israel is their inheritance, as he spake unto them.

(Joshua)

Chapter 14

Of Caleb's inheritance.

1. Now this is the possession of the children of Israel in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed among them.

2. And they divided it by lot among them, as the LORD commanded by Moses, to give unto the ten tribes and an half.

3. For unto the two and to the half tribe Moses had given an inheritance on the other side Jordan.

But unto the Levites he gave no inheritance among them.

4. For the children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim: therefore they gave the Levites no part in the land, but cities to dwell in, and suburbs for their cattle and for their substance.

5. As the LORD commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel, and divided the land.

6. And the children of Judah came unto Joshua at Gilgal: and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said unto him, Thou knowest what the LORD said unto Moses the man of God concerning me and thee in Kadeshbarnea.

7. I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me out from Kadeshbarnea to search the land, and I told him again according to my conscience.

8. But my brethren which went up with me made the heart of the people faint: but I followed the LORD my God faithfully.

9. And Moses swore the same day, saying, The land whereon thou hast trodden with thy foot shall be thine and thy children's inheritance for ever: because thou hast faithfully followed the LORD my God.

10. And now, behold, the LORD hath given me life, as he spake. It is now forty and five years since the LORD spake these things unto Moses, which Israel walked in the wilderness. And now, behold, I am this day eighty and five years old.

11. And I am as strong this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me forth: as my strength was then, so is it now, to fight and to go out and to come in.

12. Give me therefore this mountain, which the LORD spake of that day: for thou heardest it that day. For the Enakims dwell above, and are great and strong cities: if the LORD would be with me to drive them out, as the LORD hath said.

13. And Joshua blessed him, and gave Hebron unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh for an inheritance.

14. Therefore Hebron was the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite unto this day, because he followed the LORD God of Israel faithfully.

15. And the name of Hebron in old time was Kiriath-arba, who was a great man among the Enakims. And the land ceased from war.

(Joshua)

Chapter 15

Border and cities of the tribe of Judah.

1. The lot of the tribe of the children of Judah among their families was the border of Edom in the wilderness of Zin, which is on the south side, in the corner of the south country, 2. Their south borders were from the corner of the salt sea, that is, from the tongue that goeth toward the south,

3. And come out from thence up to Akkrabbim, and pass through Zin; and go up from the south toward Kadeshbarnea; and pass through Hezron, and go up to Adar, and go about Karkaa; 4. And pass through Azmon, and come out unto the river of Egypt, that the end of the border may be the sea. And this shall be your border toward the south.

5. And the morning border is from the salt sea unto the end of Jordan. And the north border is from the tongue of the sea, which is at the place of Jordan,

6. And go up to Beth-hagla, and go on the north side to Beth-arabah, and come up to the stone of Bohen the son of Reuben;

7. And go up to Debir, from the valley of Achor, and from the midnight place that looketh toward Gilgal, which is over against Adumim, which lieth by the water from the south. And afterward she went unto the water of Enzhemesh, and came out unto the well of Rogel.

8. And she went up to the valley of the son of Hinnom on the side of the Jebusite, which dwelleth on the south side, which is Jerusalem: and she came up to the top of the mountain that lieth before the valley of Hinnom on the west side, which cometh to the corner of the valley of Raphaim on the north side.

9. Afterward it cometh down from the top of the same mountain unto the fountain of the waters of Nephtoth, and cometh out unto the cities of mount Ephron, and inclineth unto Baalah, which is Kiriathjearim;

10. And he turned round from Baalah toward the west to mount Seir, and went on the side of mount Jearim from the north, which is Chessalon, and came down to Bethshemesh, and passed through Timnah;

11. And he went out from the side of Ekron toward the north, and went toward Shicron: and he passed over mount Baalah, and came out to Jabneel; and the last of them was the sea.

12. And the border toward the west is the great sea. This is the border of the children of Judah round about in their families.

13. And to Caleb the son of Jephunneh shall be given his portion among the children of Judah, according to the commandment of the LORD Joshua, even Kiriath-arba, the father of Enak, which is Hebron.

14. And Caleb cast out from thence the three sons of Enak; Shesai, and Ahiman, and Talmai, born of Enak.

15. And he went up from thence unto the inhabitants of Debir. And the name of Debir in old time was Kiriath-sepher.

16. And Caleb said, He that smiteth Kiriath-shepher, and taketh her, to him will I give my daughter Achsah to wife.

17. And Athniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's brother, took her, and gave him Achsah his daughter to wife.

18. And it came to pass, when she was come in, that she was bidden to claim a field of her father's; and she fell down from off her ass. And Caleb said unto her, What is the matter with thee?

19. And she said, Give me a blessing: for thou hast given me a south land, give me also springs of water. So he gave her fountains above and below.

20. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Judah among their families.

21. And the cities of the tribe of the children of Judah, from one corner to another, by the border of Edom southward, were these: Kabzeel, Eder, Jagur,

22. Kina, Dimona, Ad-Ada,

23. Kedes, Hazor, Ithnan,

24. siph, telem, bealoth,

25. Hazor-hadata, Kirioth-hezron, that is Hazor,

26. Amam, Sema, Molada,

27. hazar-gadda, hesmon, beth-palet,

28. Hazar-Sual, Beer-Seba, Bisjoth-Ja,

29. Baala, Ijim, Azem,

30. El-Tholad, Chesil, Horma,

31. Ziklag, Madmanna, Sansanna,

32. Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain, Rimon. These are twenty and nine cities and their villages.

33. And in the causes was Esthaol, Zarea, Asna,

34. Sanoah, En-Gannim, Thapuah, Enam,

35th Jarmuth, Adullam, Socho, Aseka,

36. Saaraim, Adithaim, Gedera, Gederothaim. These are fourteen cities and their villages.

37. Zenan, Hadasa, Migdal-Gad,

38. Dilean, Mizpe, Jakthiel,

39. Lachis, Bazekath, Eglon,

40. Chabon, Lahmam, Cithlis,

41. Gederoth, Beth-dagon, Naema, Makeda. These are sixteen cities and their villages.

42. Libna, Ether, Asan,

43. Jephthah, Asna, Nezib,

44. Kegila, Achsib, Marias. These are nine cities and their villages.

45. Ekron with her daughters and villages.

46. From Ekron even unto the sea, all that is near unto Ashdod, and their villages; 47. Ashdod with her daughters and her villages, Gaza with her daughters and her villages, unto the waters of Egypt. And the great sea is the border thereof.

48. And in the mountains was Samir, and Jattir, and Socho,

49. Danna, Kiriath-Sanna, this is Debir,

50. Anah, Esthemo, Anim,

51. Gosen, Holon, Gilo. That's eleven towns and their villages.

52. Arab, Duma, Esean,

53. Janum, Beth-Thapuah, Apheka,

54. Humta, Kiriath-Arba, that is Hebron, Zior. That is nine towns and their villages.

55. Maon, Carmel, Siph, Juta,

56. Jezreel, Jakdeam, Sanoah,

57. Kam, Gibeah, Thimnah. These are ten cities and their villages.

58. Halhul, Beth-Zur, Gedor,

59. Maarath, Beth-anoth, Elthekon. These are six cities and their villages.

60. Kiriath-baal, which is Kiriath-jearim, Harabba; two cities and their villages.

61. And in the wilderness was Beth-arabah, Middin, Sechachah,

62. Nibsan and the Salt City and Engeddi. These are six cities and their villages.

63. And the Jebusites dwelt at Jerusalem, and the children of Judah could not drive them out. So the Jebusites dwelt with the children of Judah at Jerusalem unto this day.

(Joshua)

Chapter 16

Border towns of the children of Ephraim.

1. And the lot fell to the children of Joseph from Jordan toward Jericho unto the waters of Jericho, from the going upward, and the wilderness that goeth up from Jericho through mount Bethel;

2. And come out of Bethel unto Lus, and pass through the border of Archi-artharoth; 3. And he went down toward the west to the border of Japhleti, unto the border of Bethhoron the lower, and unto Gaser: and the end thereof was by the sea.

4. This is the inheritance of the sons of Joseph, of Manasseh, and of Ephraim.

5. The border of the children of Ephraim among their families, their inheritance from the going upward, was Atharoth-adar unto upper Beth-horon;
6. And go out toward the evening at Michmethath, which is toward the north: there she turneth about toward the going up of the city of Thaenath-silo, and goeth through there from the going up toward Janoha;
7. And come down from Janoha unto Atharoth and Naaratha, and touch Jericho, and go out by Jordan.
8. From Tapuah it goeth toward the west to Nahalkanah; and the end thereof is by the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim among their families.
9. And all the border cities, and the villages thereof, of the children of Ephraim, were gathered together for the inheritance of the children of Manasseh.
10. And they drove not out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gaser. So the Canaanites abode under Ephraim unto this day, and were made interestable.

(Joshua)

Chapter 17

Of the inheritance of the other half of the tribe of Manasseh.

1. And the lot fell upon the tribe of Manasseh, because he was Joseph's first son: and the lot fell upon Machir the first son of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, because he was a man of war: therefore Gilead and Bashan were given unto him.
2. And to the rest of the sons of Manasseh, and to their families, even to the sons of Abiezer, and to the sons of Helek, and to the sons of Azriel, and to the sons of Shechem, and to the sons of Hephher, and to the sons of Shemida. These are the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph, men of their families.
3. But Zelaphehad the son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters: and their names are these: Mahela, Noa, Hagla, Milcah, Thirzah.
4. And they came before Eleazar the priest, and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, and said: The LORD commanded Moses that he should give us an inheritance among our brethren. And they gave them an inheritance among their father's brethren, according to the commandment of the LORD.

5. And there fell upon Manasseh ten cords out of the land of Gilead, and out of Bashan, which is beyond Jordan.

6. For the daughters of Manasseh took inheritance among his sons, and the land of Gilead was given unto the other sons of Manasseh.

7. And the border of Manasseh was from Asher unto Michmethath, which is before Shechem, and is on the right hand of Enthapuah.

8. For the land of Tapuah was Manasseh: and the border of Manasseh is unto the children of Ephraim.

9. And afterward it shall come down to Nahal-chanah toward the south, unto the cities of the brook, which are Ephraim's, among the cities of Manasseh: but from the north the border of Manasseh shall be by the brook, and shall end at the sea,

10. To Ephraim southward, and to Manasseh northward; and the sea shall be the border thereof: and it shall come upon Asher northward, and upon Issachar eastward.

11. And Manasseh had among Issachar and Asher Bethshean and her daughters, and Jeblaam and her daughters, and those of Dor and her daughters, and those of En-dor and her daughters, and those of Taanach and her daughters, and those of Megiddo, and her daughters and the third part of Napheth.

12. And the children of Manasseh could not take those cities: but the Canaanites began to dwell in the same land.

13. And when the children of Israel became mighty, they made the Canaanites to pay interest, and did not drive them out.

14. And the children of Joseph spake unto Joshua, saying: Why hast thou given me but one lot, and one cord of inheritance? For I am a great people, as the LORD hath blessed me.

15. And Joshua said unto them: Because thou art a great people, go up into the forest, and cut down there the land of the Perizzites and the giants: for the mountains of Ephraim are too narrow for thee.

16. And the children of Joseph said, We shall not get the mountains: for there are chariots of iron among all the Canaanites that dwell in the valley of the land, with whom is Bethshean, and her daughters, and Jezreel in the valley.

17. And Joshua said unto the house of Joseph, and to Ephraim, and to Manasseh, Thou art a great people; and because thou art so great, thou needest not have a lot, 18. But the mountain shall be thine, where the forest is: cut it down, and it shall be the end of thy lot, when thou hast driven out the Canaanites, which have chariots of iron, and are mighty. (Joshua)

Chapter 18

Border towns of the tribe of Benjamin.

1. And all the congregation of the children of Israel gathered themselves together unto Shiloh, and set up there the tabernacle of the congregation. And the land was subdued unto them.

2. And there were yet seven tribes of the children of Israel, to whom they had not distributed their inheritance.

3. And Joshua said unto the children of Israel, How long are ye so foolish, that ye go not to possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers hath given you?

4. Get you three men out of every tribe, and I will send them, and they shall arise, and go through the land, and describe it according to their inheritance, and come unto me.

5. Divide the land into seven parts. Judah shall abide in his border from the south: and the house of Joseph shall abide in his border from the north.

6. And ye shall describe the land of the seven parts, and bring them hither unto me, and I will cast lots for you before the LORD our God.

7. For the Levites have no portion among you; but the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance. And Gad, and Reuben, and the half tribe of Manasseh, have taken their inheritance beyond Jordan eastward, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them.

8. And the men arose, and went. And Joshua commanded them, as they went to describe the land, saying, Go, walk through the land, and describe it, and come again unto me, that I may cast lots for you here before the LORD in Shiloh.

9. So the men went and passed through the land, and described it by letter after the cities into seven parts: and they came to Joshua to the camp at Shiloh.

10. And Joshua cast lots for them at Shiloh before the LORD, and divided the land there among the children of Israel, every man his portion.

11. And the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin fell according to their families, and the border of their lot went out between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph.

12. And the border of it was in the north corner from Jordan, and went up to the side of Jericho on the north side, and came into the mountains on the west side, and went out by the wilderness of Bethaven;

13. And go from thence unto Lus by the side of Lus toward the south, which is Bethel, and come down to Atharoth-adar by the mountain that lieth from the south by the lower Bethhoron.

14. And afterward it inclined itself, and turned the corner of the evening southward, from the mountain that lieth before Bethhoron southward, and ended at Kiriathbaal, which is Kiriathjearim, the city of the children of Judah; which is the corner westward.

15. And the south corner is from Kiriathjearim, and goeth out toward the evening, and cometh forth unto the fountain of Nephthoah;

16. And go down to the end of the mountain that lieth before the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is in the valley of Raphaim northward: and go down through the valley of Hinnom by the side of the Jebusites southward, and come down to the well of Rogel;

17. And he goeth forth from the north, and cometh out to En-shemesh, and cometh out to the heaps that are toward Adumim, and cometh down to the stone of Bohen the son of Reuben;

18. And go ye aside to the midnight region, and come down to the midnight region;

19. And go to the side of Bethhagla, which is toward the north: and the end thereof shall be at the tongue of the salt sea toward the north, at the place of Jordan toward the south. This is the south border.

20. But the corner toward the east shall be the end of Jordan. This is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin within their borders round about among their families.

21. And the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin, among their families are these: Jericho, Beth-hagla, Emek-reziz,

22. Beth-arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel.

23. Avim, Hapara, Ophra,
24. Kaphar-Amonai, Aphni, Gaba. These are twelve cities and their villages.
25. Gibeon, Rama, Beeroth,
26. Mizpe, Kaphira, Moza,
27. Rekem, Jerpeel, Thareala,
28. Zelah, Eleph, and the Jebusites; that is, Jerusalem, Gibeath, Kiriath: fourteen cities and their villages. This is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin in their families.

(Joshua)

Chapter 19

Of the remaining six tribes and Joshua's inheritance.

1. Afterward fell the other lot of the tribe of the children of Simeon after their families: and their inheritance was among the inheritance of the children of Judah.
2. And Beer-sheba, and Sheba, and Molada, were their inheritance, 3. Hazar-Sual, Bala, Azem,
4. El-Tholad, Bethul, Horma,
5. Ziklag, Beth-Markaboth, Hazar, Sussa,
6. Beth-lebaoth, Saruhen. These are thirteen cities and their villages.
7. Ain, Rimon, Ether, Asan. These are four cities and their villages.
8. And all the villages that are round about these cities, unto Baalath-beer-ramath southward.

This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon in their families.

9. For the inheritance of the children of Simeon is under the cord of the children of Judah.

Because the inheritance of the children of Judah was too great for them, therefore the children of Simeon asked under their inheritance.

10. And the third lot fell upon the children of Zebulun after their families: and the border of their inheritance was unto the sand;
11. And go up to the west to Mareala, and come upon Dabath, and come upon the brook that floweth before Jakneam;
12. And he turned from Sarid toward the rising of the sun unto the border of Kisloththabor: and he came out to Dabrath, and went up to Japhia.

13. And from thence she goeth toward the going up by Gitta-hepher, and Ithah, and Kazin, and cometh out to Rimon-mithoar and Nea;
14. And he turned about from north to Nathon, and ended in the valley of Jephthah-el, 15. Katath, Nahalal, Simron, Jedeala, and Bethlehem: these are twelve cities and their villages.
16. This is the inheritance of the children of Zebulun in their families; these are their cities and their villages.
17. And the fourth lot fell upon the children of Issachar according to their families.
18. And their border was Jezreel, and Cheshulloth, and Sunem,
19. Hapharaim, Sion, Anaharath,
20. Rabith, Kiseon, Abez,
21. remeth, en-gannim, en-hada, beth-pazez;
22. And they come upon Tabor, and Sahazima, and Bethshemesh; and their end is at Jordan.
Sixteen cities and their villages.
23. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Issachar in their families, in their cities, and in their villages.
24. And the fifth lot fell to the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families.
25. And their border was Helkath, Hali, Beten, Achsaph.
26. Alamelech, Ameid, Miseal; and abutteth Carmel by the sea, and Sihor-libnath; 27. And he turned toward the rising of the sun to Beth-dagon, and came upon Zebulun, and upon the valley of Jephthah-el, upon the north of Beth-emek, and upon Negiel, and came out to Kabul on the left hand,
28. And Ebron, and Rehob, and Hammon, and Cana, unto the great Zidon; 29. And he turned toward Ramah unto the strong city of Zor; and he turned toward Hossa, and ended at the sea by the line toward Achsib,
30. Uma, Aphek, Rehob. Twenty-two cities and their villages.
31. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher in their families, cities, and villages.
32. And the sixth lot fell to the children of Naphtali in their families.
33. And their borders were from Heleph, Elon, through Zaenannim, Adami-Nekeb, Jabneel, unto Lakum, and endeth at Jordan;

34. And he turned to the evening to Ashnoththabor, and came out from thence to Hukok: and he met Zebulun at south, and Asher at evening, and Judah at Jordan at sunrising; 35. And he hath strong cities; Zidim, Zer, Hamath, Rakath, Cinnereth, 36. Adama, Rama, Hazor, 37. Kedes, Edrei, En-Hazor, 38. Jereon, Migdal-El, Harem, Beth-Anath, Beth-Sames. Nineteen cities and their villages. 39. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali in their families, cities, and villages. 40. And the seventh lot fell upon the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families. 41. And the border of their inheritance was Zareah, Esthaol, Irsames, 42. Saelabin, Ajalon, Jethla, 43. Elon, Thimnatha, Ekron, 44. Eltheke, Gibethon, Baalath, 45. Yehud, Bne-Barak, Gath-Rimon, 46. Me-Jarkon, Rakon with the boundaries against Japho. 47. And the border of the children of Dan terminated at the same. And the children of Dan went up, and fought against Leshem, and prevailed, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and took them, and dwelt therein: and they called them Dan after their father's name. 48. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan in their families, cities, and villages. 49. And when they had divided the land, and the coasts thereof, the children of Israel gave Joshua the son of Nun an inheritance among them. 50. And they gave him, according to the commandment of the LORD, the city which he required, which is Thimnathzerah in mount Ephraim. And he built the city, and dwelt therein. 51. These are the inheritances which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the chief of the fathers of the families, distributed by lot unto the children of Israel in Shiloh before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation; and they finished the distribution of the land.

(Joshua)

Chapter 20

Free Cities Ordinance.

1. And the LORD spake unto Joshua, saying:
2. Say unto the children of Israel, Pray ye among you free cities, of which I spake unto you by Moses,
3. Thither may a manslayer flee, who smiteth a soul unawares and unknowingly, that they may be free among you from the avenger of blood.
4. And he that fleeth into the city shall stand without the gate of the city, and shall declare his cause before the elders of the city: and they shall receive him into the city, and give him place to dwell with them.
5. And if the avenger of blood pursue after him, they shall not deliver the slayer into his hand, because he smote his neighbour unawares, and was no enemy to him before.
6. And he shall dwell in the city, until he stand before the congregation in judgment, until the death of the high priest, which shall be at that time. Then shall the slayer return to his city, and to his house, to the city whence he fled.
7. And they sanctified Kedesh in Galilee, in mount Naphtali; and Shechem, in mount Ephraim; and Kiriath-arbah, which is Hebron, in mount Judah.
8. And on the other side Jordan, where Jericho is, toward the going up, they gave Bezer in the wilderness on the plain, of the tribe of Reuben; and Ramoth in Gilead, of the tribe of Gad; and Golan in Bashan, of the tribe of Manasseh.
9. These were the cities appointed for all the children of Israel, and for the strangers that sojourn among them, that whosoever smiteth a soul unawares should flee thither, that he die not by the avenger of blood, until he stand before the congregation.

(Joshua)

Chapter 21

Providing for the Levites.

1. Then came the chief fathers of the Levites unto Eleazar the priest, and unto Joshua the son of Nun, and unto the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel; 2. And they spake unto them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying: The LORD commanded by Moses that they should give us cities to dwell in, and suburbs thereof for our cattle.

3. And the children of Israel gave unto the Levites of their inheritance, according to the commandment of the LORD, these cities and their suburbs.
4. And the lot fell upon the family of the Kohathites, and thirteen cities were given by lot unto the children of Aaron the priest out of the Levites: of the tribe of Judah, and of the tribe of Simeon, and of the tribe of Benjamin.
5. And unto the rest of the sons of Kohath, of the same family, were ten cities given by lot, of the tribe of Ephraim, and of the tribe of Dan, and of the half tribe of Manasseh.
6. And to the sons of Gershon, of the same family, were given by lot thirteen cities: of the tribe of Issachar, and of the tribe of Asher, and of the tribe of Naphtali, and of the half tribe of Manasseh, in Bashan.
7. And unto the children of Merari, of their seed, were twelve cities: of the tribe of Reuben, and of the tribe of Gad, and of the tribe of Zebulun.
8. So the children of Israel gave by lot unto the Levites these cities and their suburbs, as the LORD commanded by Moses.
9. Of the tribe of the children of Judah, and of the tribe of the children of Simeon, they gave these cities, which they called by their names,
10. The children of Aaron, of the family of the Kohathites, of the children of Levi: for the first lot was theirs.
11. And they gave them Kiriath-arbah, which was Enak's father's, which is Hebron, in mount Judah, and the suburbs thereof round about.
12. And the field of the city, and the villages thereof, gave they unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh for his inheritance.
13. So they gave unto the children of Aaron the priest the free city of the slain, Hebron and her suburbs, Libnah and her suburbs,
14. Jathir and her suburbs, Esthemoa and her suburbs,
15. Holon and its suburbs, Debir and its suburbs,
16. Ain and her suburbs, Jutah and her suburbs, Bethshemesh and her suburbs: nine cities of these two tribes.
17. And of the tribe of Benjamin they gave four cities, Gibeon and her suburbs, Geba and her suburbs,
18. Anathoth and her suburbs, Almon and her suburbs,

19. All the cities of the sons of Aaron the priest were thirteen with their suburbs.

20. And to the families of the rest of the sons of Kohath, the Levites, were given by lot four cities of the tribe of Ephraim.

21. And they gave them the free city of the slayers, Shechem and her suburbs in mount Ephraim, Gezer and her suburbs,

22. Kibzaim and its suburbs, Beth-horon and its suburbs.

23. Of the tribe of Dan, four cities; Eltheke and her suburbs, Gibthon and her suburbs, 24. ajalon and her suburbs, gath-rimon and her suburbs.

25. Of the half tribe of Manasseh, two cities; Taenah and her suburbs, Gath-ramon and her suburbs,

26. And all the cities of the other children of the tribe of Kohath were ten with their suburbs.

27. And unto the sons of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, out of the half tribe of Manasseh were given two cities, the city of refuge for the slain, Golan in Bashan, and the suburbs thereof, Beesthrah, and the suburbs thereof.

28. Of the tribe of Issachar, four cities; Kision and her suburbs, Dabrath and her suburbs, 29. Yarmuth and its suburbs, En-Gannim and its suburbs.

30. Of the tribe of Asher, four cities; Miseal and her suburbs, Abdon and her suburbs, 31. helkath and its suburbs, rehob and its suburbs.

32. Of the tribe of Naphtali, three cities: the free city of Kedesh for the slayers of Galilee, and the suburbs thereof; Hammoth-dor, and the suburbs thereof; Karrten, and the suburbs thereof, 33. And all the cities of the tribe of the Gershonites were thirteen with their suburbs.

34. And unto the families of the sons of Merari, the rest of the Levites, out of the tribe of Zebulun were given four cities; Jakneam and her suburbs, and Carthah and her suburbs, 35. dimna and its suburbs, nahalal and its suburbs.

36. And of the tribe of Reuben four cities; Bezer and her suburbs, Jahzah and her suburbs, 37. Kedemoth and her suburbs, Mephaath and her suburbs.

38: Of the tribe of Gad four cities: the free city for the slayers, Ramoth in Gilead, and the suburbs thereof,

39. Mahanaim and her suburbs, Heshbon and her suburbs, Jaeser and her suburbs, 40. And all the cities of the children of Merari, which were of their families, of the Levites, according to their lot, were twelve. 41. And all the cities of the Levites, which were of the inheritance of the children of Israel, were forty and eight with their suburbs. 42. And every one of these cities had her suburbs round about her, one as well as another. 43. So the LORD gave unto Israel all the land which he sware to give unto their fathers, and they possessed it, and dwelt therein. 44. And the LORD gave them rest from all around, as he sware unto their fathers: and none of their enemies stood against them, but all their enemies delivered he into their hand. 45. And there was no lack of all the good things which the LORD had spoken unto the house of Israel. All things came to pass.

(Joshua)

Chapter 22

The third and a half tribes, in returning home...
an altar.

1. Then Joshua called the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh.
2. And said unto them: Ye have kept all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you.
3. Ye have not forsaken your brethren a long time unto this day, but have kept the commandment of the LORD your God.
4. Because therefore the LORD your God hath given rest unto your brethren; as he spake unto them, turn ye now, and go unto your tents unto the land of your inheritance, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side Jordan.
5. Now therefore diligently observe to do according to the commandment and the law, which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, to love the LORD your God, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and to cleave unto him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul.
6. So Joshua blessed them, and let them go; and they went unto their tents.

7. To the half tribe of Manasseh Moses gave in Bashan; and to the other half Joshua gave among their brethren on this side Jordan westward. And he sent them away to their tents, and blessed them, 8. And he said unto them: Ye are come home again with great riches unto your tents, with much cattle, and silver, and gold, and brass, and iron, and raiment: divide therefore the spoil of your enemies among your brethren.

9. So the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, returned, and went from the children of Israel out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go into the land of Gilead, unto the land of their inheritance, which they desired by the commandment of the LORD through Moses.

10. And when they were come to the heaps that are by Jordan, which are in the land of Canaan, the same Reubenites, and Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, built there by Jordan a great and beautiful altar.

11. And the children of Israel heard say, Behold, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, have built an altar over against the land of Canaan, by the heaps of Jordan on this side the children of Israel,

12. And they gathered themselves together with all the congregation of Shiloh, to go up against them with an army.

13. And they sent unto them into the land of Gilead Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, 14. And with him ten chief princes of the houses of their fathers, out of every tribe of Israel one.

15. And when they were come unto them into the land of Gilead, they spake unto them, saying: 16. Therefore let all the congregation of the LORD say unto you, How sin ye against the God of Israel, that ye turn away this day from the LORD, to build you an altar, to depart from the LORD?

17. We are not satisfied with the iniquity of Peor, from which we are not cleansed unto this day, and a plague is come upon the congregation of the LORD,

18. And ye are turned away from the LORD this day, and have turned away from the LORD this day, that he may be angry with all the congregation of Israel this day or to morrow?

19. If the land of your inheritance seem unto you to be unclean, come over unto the land which the LORD hath, where the tabernacle of the LORD is, and worship among us: and be not ye turned aside from the LORD, and from us, to build you an altar beside the altar of the LORD our God.

20. Did not Achan the son of Zerah sin against the exile, and wrath come upon all the congregation of Israel, and he perished not alone for his iniquity?

21. And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh answered and said unto the heads and princes of Israel:

22. The strong God, the LORD, the strong God, the LORD, knoweth, and Israel knoweth also, that if we fall away, or sin against the LORD, he will not help us this day.

23. And if we have built the altar, to turn away from the LORD, to offer burnt offerings, or meat offerings, or peace offerings, upon it unto the LORD, he shall require it.

24. And if we have not done it rather for the care of the thing, and said: To day or to morrow your children may say unto our children, What is the LORD God of Israel to you?

25. The LORD hath set Jordan for a border between us and you children of Reuben and Gad: ye have no part in the LORD. So your children shall put away our children from the fear of the LORD.

26. Therefore said we: Let us build us an altar, not for sacrifice, nor for burnt offering, 27. But that he may be a witness between us and you and our seed, that we may minister unto the LORD before him with our burnt offerings, and with our peace offerings, and with our peace offerings; and that your children may not say unto our children to day, or to morrow: Ye have no part in the LORD.

28. But if they should say thus unto us, or unto our seed to day, or to morrow, n they might say, Behold the likeness of the altar of the LORD, which our fathers made, not for sacrifice, nor for burnt offering, but for a witness between us and you.

29. Far be it from us, that we should turn away from the LORD, and build this day an altar for a burnt offering, and for a meat offering, and for sacrifices beside the altar of the LORD our God, which is before his tabernacle.

30. And when Phinehas the priest, and the princes of the congregation, the rulers of Israel, which were with him, heard these words which the children of Reuben and Gad and Manasseh spake, they were well pleased.

31. And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said unto the children of Reuben, and Gad, and Manasseh, To day we know that the LORD is among us, that ye have not sinned against the LORD in this deed. Now ye have delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of the LORD.

32. Then Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the princes of the land of Gilead, of the children of Reuben and Gad, returned into the land of Canaan unto the children of Israel, and told them.

33. And it pleased the children of Israel well, and they praised the God of the children of Israel, and said no more that they would go up against them with an army to destroy the land, where the children of Reuben and Gad dwelt within.

34. And the children of Reuben and Gad called the altar, that it might be a witness between us, and that the LORD was GOD.

(Joshua)

Chapter 23

Joshua holds a Diet to admonish the people.

1. And it came to pass after a long time, when the LORD had given Israel rest from all their enemies round about, that Joshua was old and in a good state of health, 2. And he called all Israel, and their elders, and their chiefs, and their judges, and their officers, and said unto them: I am old and well stricken in years,

3. And ye have seen all that the LORD your God hath done unto all these nations before you: for the LORD your God hath himself fought for you.

4. Behold, I have divided unto you by lot the remnant of nations, every tribe his inheritance from Jordan, and all the nations which I have cut off, and by the great sea toward the going down of the sun.

5. And the LORD your God shall cast them out from before you, and drive them out from among you, and ye shall possess their land, as the LORD your God hath spoken unto you.

6. Be of good cheer therefore, that ye keep and do all things which are written in the book of the law of Moses, that ye turn not aside from it to the right hand, or to the left, 7. That ye come not among these other nations which are with you, neither remembering, nor swearing by the name of their gods, nor serving, nor worshipping them, 8. But cleave unto the LORD your God, as ye have done unto this day.

9. So shall the LORD drive out from before you great and mighty nations: and no man hath withstood you unto this day.

10. One of you shall chase a thousand: for the LORD your God fighteth for you, as he hath spoken unto you.

11. Therefore keep your souls most diligently, that ye may love the LORD your God.

12. But if ye turn, and cleave unto these remnant nations, and marry yourselves unto them, that ye may come among them, and they among you,

13. Know therefore that the LORD your God will no more drive out all these nations from before you, but they shall become a snare and a net unto you, and a scourge in your sides, and a sting in your eyes, until he destroy you from off the good land which the LORD your God hath given you.

14. Behold, I go this day as all the world: and ye shall know with all your heart and with all your soul, that not one word hath failed of all the good things which the LORD your God hath spoken unto you: all things are come, and none remaineth.

15. Therefore as all good things have come to you, which the LORD your God hath spoken unto you; so shall the LORD bring upon you all evil things, until he destroy you from off this good land, which the LORD your God hath given you,

16. If ye transgress the covenant of the LORD your God, which he commanded you, and go and serve other gods, and worship them, that the wrath of the LORD be kindled against you, and ye perish quickly from off the good land which he hath given you.

(Joshua)

Chapter 24

Joshua's last day in the land. His and Eleazar's death.

1. And Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel unto Shechem, and called the elders of Israel, the chiefs, and the judges, and the officers. And when they had stood before GOD, 2. And he said unto all the people, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Your fathers dwelt in time past beyond the waters, Tarah, Abraham's father, and Nahor's father, and served other gods.

3. And I took your father Abraham beyond the river, and caused him to wander throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed unto him, and gave him Isaac.

4. And to Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau: and I gave Esau possession of mount Seir. And Jacob and his children went down into Egypt.

5. And I sent Moses and Aaron, and afflicted Egypt, as I did among them.

6. After this I brought you and your fathers out of Egypt. And when ye came to the sea, and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and horsemen unto the Red sea, 7. And they cried unto the LORD, and he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea upon them, and covered them. And your eyes have seen what I have done in Egypt. And ye dwelt in the wilderness a long time.

8. And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt beyond Jordan: and when they fought against you, I delivered them into your hand to possess their land, and destroyed them from before you.

9. And Balak the son of Zipor king of Moab arose, and fought against Israel, and sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you.

10. But I would not hear him. And he blessed you; and I delivered you out of his hands.

11. And when ye were passed over Jordan, and came to Jericho, the men of Jericho fought against you, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Girgothites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites: but I delivered them into your hand.

12. And he sent hornets before you; and they drove them out before you, the two kings of the Amorites, not by thy sword, nor by thy bow.

13. And I have given you a land wherein ye have not labored, and cities which ye have not built, that ye may dwell therein, and eat of vineyards and oliveyards which ye have not planted.

14. Fear ye the LORD therefore, and serve him faithfully and righteously: forsake the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the river, and in Egypt, and serve the LORD.

15. But if it please you not to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; the LORD, whom your fathers served on the other side of the river, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell. But I and my house will serve the LORD.

16. And the people answered and said, Far be it from us to forsake the LORD, and to serve other gods.

17. For the LORD our God brought us and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, and did great signs in our sight, and kept us in all the way which we went, and among all the nations through which we passed;

18. And hath cast out from before us all the Amorite nations that dwelt in the land. Therefore will we also serve the LORD: for he is our God.

19. And Joshua said unto the people, Ye cannot serve the LORD: for he is a holy God, a jealous God, which will not spare your transgression and your sin.

20. But if ye forsake the LORD, and serve a strange god, he will turn and afflict you, and kill you, after he hath done you good.

21. And the people said unto Joshua, Not so; but we will serve the LORD.

22. And Joshua said unto the people, Ye are witnesses against yourselves, that ye have chosen the LORD to serve you. And they said: Yes.

23. Put away therefore the strange gods that are among you, and incline your heart unto the LORD God of Israel.

24. And the people said unto Joshua, We will serve the LORD our God, and obey his voice.

25. So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and set before them statutes and judgments in Shechem.

26. And Joshua wrote all these things in the book of the law of God, and took a great stone, and set it up there under an oak which was by the sanctuary of the LORD.

27. And he said unto all the people, Behold, this stone shall be a witness between us: for it hath heard all the words of the LORD, which he spake unto us; and it shall be a witness against you, that ye deny not your God.

28. So Joshua left the people, every man to his inheritance.

29. And it came to pass after these things, that Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died when he was an hundred and ten years old.

30. And they buried him in the border of his inheritance, in Timnath Serah, which is in mount Ephraim, from the north side of mount Gaash.

31. And Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and the elders that lived long after Joshua, who knew all the works of the LORD which he had done for Israel.

32. And the bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel had brought out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem, in the piece of ground which Jacob bought of the children of Hemor the father of Shechem for an hundred pence; and it became the inheritance of the children of Joseph.

33. Eleazar also the son of Aaron died; and they buried him in Gibeah of Phinehas his son, which was given him in mount Ephraim.

Text of the unrevised Luther Bible 1545:

DeepL English Translation

[Processed by BackToLuther. German text published here.]

The Book of Judges (Judges) ^

Chapter 1

The tribe of Judah wages war in Joshua's stead.

1. After the death of Joshua the children of Israel asked the LORD, saying: Who shall make war among us against the Canaanites?

2. And the LORD said, Judah shall lead him. Behold, I have given the land into his hand.

3. And Judah said unto Simeon his brother, Go up with me in my lot, and let us fight against the Canaanites, and I will go with thee again in thy lot. So Simeon went with him.

4. And it came to pass, when Judah was gone up, that the LORD delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand, and smote Beshek ten thousand men.

5. And they found Adoni-bezek in Bezek, and fought against him, and smote the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

6. But Adoni-besek fled, and they pursued after him: and when they had laid hold on him, they cut off his thumbs on his hands and on his feet.

7. And Adoni-bezek said, Seventy kings with the thumbs of their hands and feet hewed up under my table. As I have done, so hath God recompensed me: And they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.

8. But the children of Judah fought against Jerusalem, and took her, and smote her with the edge of the sword, and burned the city.

9. And the children of Judah came down to fight against the Canaanites, which dwelt in the mountains, and in the south country, and in the valley.

10. And Judah went against the Canaanites that dwelt in Hebron, (for Hebron was called Kiriatharba in the days of old,) and smote Shesai, and Ahiman, and Talmai.

11. And he departed thence against the inhabitants of Debir. And the name of Debir was Kiriath-sepher in the days of old.

12. And Caleb said, Whosoever shall smite Kiriath-shepher, and win him, to him will I give my daughter Achsah to wife.

13. And Athniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's youngest brother, took her. And he gave him his daughter Achsah to wife.

14. And it came to pass, when she was come in, that she was told to demand a field of her father: and she fell down from off her ass. And Caleb said unto her, What is the matter with thee?

15. And she said, Give me a blessing: for thou hast given me a south land, give me also a watery one. So he gave her a watery one above and below.

16. And the sons of the Kenite, Moses' brother in law, went up out of the city of palm trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which is south of the city of Arad: and they went and dwelt among the people.

17. And Judah went with Simeon his brother, and smote the Canaanites that were in Zephath, and utterly destroyed them; and they called the name of the city Horma.

18. And Judah took Gaza with her possession, and Asklon with her possession, and Ekron with her possession.

19. And the LORD was with Judah, to take the mountains: for he could not take the inhabitants in the bottom, because they had chariots of iron.

20. And they gave Hebron unto Caleb, as Moses had said: and he drove out of it the three sons of Enak.

21. But the children of Benjamin drove not out the Jebusites that dwelt at Jerusalem: but the Jebusites dwelt with the children of Benjamin at Jerusalem unto this day.

22. Likewise also the children of Joseph went up to Bethel: and the LORD was with them.

23. And the house of Joseph spied out Bethel, which before was called Lus.

24. And the watchmen saw a man going out of the city, and said unto him, Show us where we enter into the city, and we will do mercy unto thee.

25. And when he shewed them the way of the city, they smote the city with the edge of the sword; but the man and all his family they let go.

26. And the same man went into the land of the Hittites, and built a city, and called it Luz; which is called so to this day.

27. And Manasseh drove not out Bethshean with her daughters, nor Taenah with her daughters, nor the inhabitants of Dor with their daughters, nor the inhabitants of Jebleam with their daughters, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo with their daughters: and the Canaanites began to dwell in the same land.

28. And it came to pass, when Israel was strong, that he made the Canaanites to pay interest, and did not drive them out.

29. Neither did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gaser; but the Canaanites dwelt among them in Gaser.

30. Neither did Zebulun drive out the inhabitants of Kitron and Nahalal, but the Canaanites dwelt among them, and they were tine.

31. And Asher drove not out the inhabitants of Acre, nor the inhabitants of Zidon, nor of Ahelab, nor of Achsib, nor of Helba, nor of Aphik, nor of Rehob,

32. But the Asserites dwelt among the Canaanites that dwelt in the land: for they drove them not out.

33. Naphtali drove not out the inhabitants of Bethshemesh, nor of Bethanath, but dwelt among the Canaanites that dwelt in the land. But they that dwelt at Bethshemesh, and at Bethanath, became interestable.

34. And the Amorites pressed the children of Dan into the mountains, and suffered them not to come down into the valley.

35. And the Amorites began to dwell in mount Heres, in Aijalon, and in Saalbim. But the hand of the house of Joseph was heavy upon them, and they became ashamed.

36. And the border of the Amorites was from the going up to Akkrabbim, and from the rock, and from the high place.

(Judges)

Chapter 2

Of the children of Israel inertia, apostasy, punishment, and redemption.

1. And the angel of the LORD came up from Gilgal to Bochim, and said: I brought you up out of Egypt, and brought you into the land which I swore unto your fathers, saying, I would not loose my covenant with you for ever,

2. That ye should not make a covenant with the inhabitants of this land, and break their altars.

But ye have not hearkened unto my voice. Why have ye done this?

3. Then said I also, I will not drive them out from before you, that they may become a snare unto you, and their gods a net.

4. And when the angel of the LORD had spoken these words unto all the children of Israel, the people lifted up their voice, and wept.

5. And they called the name of the place Bochim, and sacrificed there unto the LORD.

6. For when Joshua had sent the people away, and the children of Israel were gone every man to his inheritance to possess the land,

7. The people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and the elders that lived long after Joshua, which had seen all the great works of the LORD, which he had done unto Israel.

8. Now Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, when he was an hundred and ten years old, was dead,

9. And they buried him within the borders of his inheritance in Timnath-heres, in mount Ephraim, from the north side of mount Gaash.

10. And when all that were alive at that time were gathered unto their fathers, there arose after them another generation, which knew not the LORD, nor the works that he had done for Israel.

11. And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and served Baalim.

12. And they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, which had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, and went after other gods, and after the gods of the nations that dwelt round about them, and worshipped them, and provoked the LORD to anger.

13. For they forsook the LORD, and served Baal and Ashtaroth.

14. And the wrath of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and delivered them into the hand of them that spoiled them, to rob them, and sold them into the hand of their enemies round about. And they could no more withstand their enemies,

15. But whithersoever they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them to do them harm, as the LORD had said and sworn unto them: and they were hard pressed.

16. When then the LORD had raised up judges, which delivered them out of the hand of the spoilers,

17. Neither did they obey the judges, but went after other gods, and worshipped them, and soon departed from the way wherein their fathers had gone to obey the commandments of the LORD, and did not as they did.

18. And when the LORD had raised up judges unto them, the LORD was with the judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies, as long as the judge lived. For the LORD was grieved because of their lamentations over them that oppressed and pressed them.

19. And when the judge died, they turned, and corrupted themselves more than their fathers, to follow other gods, to serve them, and to worship them: they fell not from their nobleness, nor from their stiffneckedness.

20. Therefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, saying, Because this people have transgressed my covenant, which I commanded their fathers, and have not hearkened unto my voice,

21. Neither will I henceforth drive out the heathen, whom Joshua left when he died, 22. That I may try Israel in them, whether they abide in the way of the LORD, to walk in it, as their fathers abode, or not.

23. So the LORD left these heathen, that he did not soon drive them out, whom he had not delivered into Joshua's hand.

(Judges)

Chapter 3

Athniel, Ehud, Samgar and their deeds.

1. These are the heathen whom the LORD left to try Israel, who knew not the wars of Canaan, 2. And that the families of the children of Israel might know, and learn to fight, who knew nothing of it before:

3. The five lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Zidonians, and the Hivites, that dwelt in mount Lebanon, from mount Baalhermon even unto Hemath.
4. The same remained to try Israel in them, that it might be known whether they obeyed the commandments of the LORD, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.
5. And the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites,
6. And they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons, and served their gods;
7. And they did evil in the sight of the LORD, and forgot the LORD their God, and served Baalim and the groves.
8. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Cushanrishathaim king of Mesopotamia: and the children of Israel served Cushanrishathaim eight years.
9. And the children of Israel cried unto the LORD; and the LORD raised up unto them a Saviour to deliver them, Athniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's youngest brother.
10. And the Spirit of the LORD was in him, and he became a judge in Israel, and went out to battle. And the LORD delivered into his hand Cushan-rishathaim king of Syria, that his hand might be strong upon him.
11. And the land was quiet forty years. And Athniel the son of Kenaz died.
12. But the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD. Then the LORD strengthened Eglon king of Moab against Israel, because they did evil in the sight of the LORD.
13. And he gathered unto him the children of Ammon, and the Amalekites. And he went and smote Israel, and took the city of palm trees.
14. And the children of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years.
15. And they cried unto the LORD; and the LORD raised up unto them a saviour, Ehud the son of Gera, the son of Jemini, which was left And when the children of Israel by the same gift sent Eglon the king of Moab,

16. And Ehud made him a two-edged sword a cubit long, and girded it under his garment upon his right thigh;

17. And he brought the present unto Eglon the king of Moab. And Eglon was a very fat man.

18. And when he had delivered up the present, he left the people that bare the present, 19. And he returned from the idols at Gilgal, and said, I have a secret thing to tell thee, O king.

And he commanded to hold their peace, and all that were about him departed from him.

20. And Ehud came in unto him. And he sat in the summerhouse, which was for him alone. And Ehud said: I have GOD's word to thee. And he arose from his seat.

21. And Ehud put forth his left hand, and took the sword from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly,

22. That the hilt also went in by the edge, and the fat closed up the hilt, (for he drew not the sword out of his belly,) that the dung went out of him.

23. But Ehud went out of the hall, and shut the door behind him, and shut it.

24: And when he was gone out, his servants came in, and saw that the door of the summer chamber was shut, and said: He may have gone to the chair in the chamber of the summer house.

25. And when they had tarried till they were ashamed, (for no man opened the door of the bower,) they took the key, and opened it: and, behold, their lord lay dead upon the earth.

26. And Ehud escaped while they were departing, and passed over before the idols, and escaped unto Seirath.

27. And when he was come in, he blew a trumpet in mount Ephraim. And the children of Israel went with him out of the mount, and he before them;

28. And said unto them: Pursue me: for the LORD hath delivered into your hand Moab your enemies. And they pursued after him, and took the ford of Jordan, which goeth to Moab, and suffered no man to pass over.

29. And Moab at that time smote ten thousand men, all the best men, and all the mighty men of valour; and not one escaped.

30. So Moab was subdued at that time under the hand of the children of Israel. And the land was quiet fourscore years.

31. And after that was Samgar the son of Anath, which smote six hundred Philistines with a bullock, and delivered Israel also.

(Judges)

Chapter 4

Deborah, Barak and Jael's heroism.

1. But the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD, because Ehud was dead.

2. And the LORD sold them into the hand of Jabin king of the Canaanites, which sat in Hazor: and his captain of the host was Zisserah, and he dwelt in Harosheth of the Gentiles.

3. And the children of Israel cried unto the LORD: for he had nine hundred chariots of iron, and compelled the children of Israel by force twenty years.

4. In those days there was a judge in Israel, Deborah the prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth.

5. And she dwelt under the palm tree of Deborah, between Ramah and Bethel, in mount Ephraim. And the children of Israel came up unto her in judgment.

6. And she sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam, of Kedesh-naphtali, and said unto him, Hath not the LORD God of Israel commanded thee? Go up to mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of Zebulun?

7. For I will bring Sisserah the captain of the host of Jabin unto thee by the river Kishon, with his chariots, and with his multitude, and will deliver him into thy hand.

8. And Barak said unto her, If thou wilt go with me, I will go: but if thou wilt not go with me, I will not go.

9. And she said: I will go with thee, but the prize shall not be thine in this journey which thou doest, but the LORD will deliver Sissera into the hand of a woman. So Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh.

10. And Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh, and went on foot with ten thousand men.

And Deborah also went with him.

11. And Heber the Kenite went out from among the Kenites, from among the sons of Hobab, Moses' brother in law, and pitched his tent by the oaks of Zaanaim beside Kedesh.

12. And it was told Zisserah that Barak the son of Abinoam was gone up to mount Tabor.

13. And he called all his chariots together, nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people that were with him, from Harosheth of the Gentiles unto the river Kishon, 14. And Deborah said unto Barak, Arise, this is the day when the LORD hath delivered Zisserah into thine hand: for the LORD will go forth before thee. So Barak came down from mount Tabor, and the ten thousand men after him.

15. And the LORD affrighted Sisserah, and all his chariots, and all his host, at the edge of Barak's sword: and Sisserah leaped from his chariot, and fled on foot.

16. And Barak pursued after the chariots and after the host unto Harosheth of the nations. And all the host of Sisera fell before the edge of the sword, and not one remained.

17. And Sisserah fled on foot to the tabernacle of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite. For king Jabin of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite were at peace with one another.

18. And Jael went out to meet Sisserah, and said unto him, Depart, my lord, depart unto me, and fear not. And he went in unto her into her tent: and she covered him with a mantle.

19. And he said unto her, Give me a little water to drink, for I thirst. So she put on a milk-pot, and gave him to drink, and covered him.

20. And he said unto her, Enter in at the door of the tabernacle, and if any man come and ask whether any man be here, say, No man.

21. And Jael Heber's wife took a nail of the tabernacle, and a hammer in her hand, and went in unto him softly, and smote the nail through his sleep, and he sank to the earth. And he fell asleep, and fainted, and died.

22. And it came to pass, as Barak pursued after Sissera, that Jael went out to meet him, and said unto him, Come hither, and I will shew thee the man whom thou seekest. And when he was come in unto her, Sissera lay dead, and the nail was in his sleep.

23. So God restrained Jabin king of the Canaanites in those days before the children of Israel.

24. And the hand of the children of Israel continued, and waxed strong against Jabin king of the Canaanites, until they cut him off.

Ch. 5, v. 1. Then Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam sang at that time, saying:

(Judges)

Chapter 5

Deborah and Barak's song of triumph.

2. Praise ye the LORD, that Israel is become free again, and the people have been willing.

3. Give ear, ye kings, and take heed, ye princes. I will sing unto the LORD, I will play unto the LORD God of Israel.

4. O LORD, when thou camest forth from Seir, and wentest forth out of the field of Edom, the earth trembled, and the heavens dripped, and the clouds were filled with water.

5. The mountains were poured out before the LORD, Sinai before the LORD God of Israel.

6. In the days of Samgar the son of Anath, in the days of Jael, were the ways passed away; and they that walked in the paths walked in crooked ways.

7. There was a lack of farmers in Israel, until I Deborah arose, until I arose a mother in Israel.

8. A new thing hath God chosen; he hath denied the gates. There was not a shield nor a spear among forty thousand in Israel.

9. My heart is well pleased with the rulers of Israel, which are of their own free will among the people. Praise the LORD,

10. Ye that ride upon fair asses, that sit in judgment, that sing, that walk in the way.

11. When the shooters cried out between the creators, saying, Of the righteousness of the LORD, of the righteousness of his peasants in Israel: then the LORD'S people came down to the gates.

12. Run, run, Deborah, run, run, and sing a little song. Arise, Barak, and catch thy captors, O son of Abinoam.

13. Then the forsaken ruled over the mighty men: the LORD hath ruled by me over the mighty.

14. Out of Ephraim was their root against Amalek, and after thee, Benjamin, among thy people.

From Machir came regents, and from Zebulun were regents by the pen.

15. And the princes of Issachar were with Deborah. And Issachar was as Barak in the bottom, sent with his footmen. Reuben held up from him, and separated himself from us.

16. Why dost thou tarry among the hurdles, hearing the bleating of the flock, and thinkest thyself great, and separatest thyself from us?

17. And Gilead dwelt beyond Jordan. And why dwelt Dan among the ships? Asher sat at the ford of the sea, and abode in his torn spots.

18. And Zebulun's people ventured their souls unto death; Naphtali also, in the height of the field.

19. And the kings came and fought: and the kings of the -canaanites fought at Taanah, by the waters of Megiddo; but they brought no profit.

20. They fought against them out of heaven; the stars in their courses fought against Sissera.

21. The brook Kison rolled them, the brook Kedumim, the brook Kison. Tread, my soul, upon the strong!

22. Then the horses' feet rattled at the trembling of their mighty riders.

23. Curse the city of Meros, said the angel of the LORD; curse her inhabitants, because they came not to the help of the LORD, to the help of the LORD to the mighty.

24. Blessed is Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite among the women: blessed is she in the tabernacle among the women.

25. She gave milk when he asked for water, and butter she offered in a glorious dish.

26. And she took hold of the nail with her hand, and of the smith's hammer with her right hand; and smote Sissera through his head, and bruised and pierced his sleep.

27. He bowed himself at her feet, and fell down, and lay down: he bowed himself, and fell down at her feet: as he bowed himself, so he lay corrupt.

28. And the mother of Sissera looked out at the window, and cried through the lattice, Why doth his chariot pine, that he cometh not? How do the wheels of his chariots remain so backward?

29. The wisest of his wives answered, because she kept repeating her words of lamentation: 30. Shall they not then find and divide the spoil, every man a mead or two for a spoil, and Sissera multicolored embroidered garments for a spoil, embroidered multicolored garments about the neck for a spoil?

31. So perish, O LORD, all thine enemies. But they that love him shall be as the sun riseth in his strength. And the land was quiet forty years.

(Judges)

Chapter 6

Gideon appointed judge.

1. And when the children of Israel had done evil in the sight of the LORD, the LORD delivered them into the hand of the Midianites seven years.

2. And it came to pass, when the hand of Midian was strong upon Israel, that the children of Israel made for themselves clefts in the mountains, and caves, and strong holds.

3. And it came to pass, when Israel sowed any seed, that the Midianites and the Amalekites and the children of the east came up against them;

4. And they encamped against them, and destroyed the increase of the land, even unto Gaza: and they left no remnant of food in Israel, neither sheep, nor ox, nor ass.

5. For they came up with their cattle and their tents, as a great multitude of locusts, that neither they nor their camels could be numbered: and they fell into the land, and destroyed it.

6. So Israel was very small before the Midianites. Then cried the children of Israel unto the LORD.

7. And they cried unto the LORD because of the Midianites,

8. And the LORD sent unto them a prophet, which said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I brought you up out of Egypt, and brought you out of the house of bondage; 9. And I have delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of all the hand that oppressed you, and have thrust them out from before you, and have given you their land.

10. And said unto you: I am the LORD your God; not the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell. And ye have not hearkened unto my voice:

11. And an angel of the LORD came and sat under an oak tree in Ophrah, which was Joash the father of the Ezrites: and Gideon his son threshed wheat at the winepress, that it might flee before the Midianites.

12. And the angel of the LORD appeared unto him, and said unto him, The LORD be with thee, thou valiant man.

13. And Gideon said unto him, My lord, is the LORD with us? why then have all these things befallen us? And where are all his wonders, which our fathers told us, saying: The LORD brought us up out of Egypt? But now the LORD hath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hand of Midian.

14. And the LORD turned unto him, and said, Go in this thy strength, and deliver Israel out of the hand of the Midianites. Behold, I have sent thee.

15. And he said unto him, My lord, wherewith shall I redeem Israel? Behold, my friendship is the least in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house.

16. And the LORD said unto him, I will be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites as one man.

17. And he said unto him, If I have found grace in thy sight, make me a sign that thou art he which speaketh unto me.

18. Depart not, till I come unto thee, and bring my meat offering, which I leave before thee. And he said: I will tarry until thou come again;

19. And Gideon came and slew a kid of the goats, and took an ephah of unleavened flour, and put the flesh in a basket, and put the broth in a pot, and brought it out unto him under the oak, and stood by.

20. And the angel of God said unto him, Take the flesh, and the unleavened meat, and leave it upon the rock that is here, and pour out the broth. And he did so.

21. And the angel of the LORD put forth the rod that was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened flour with the point thereof. And the fire came out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened flour. And the angel of the LORD departed out of his sight.

22. And when Gideon saw that it was an angel of the LORD, he said, O LORD, LORD, have I thus seen an angel of the LORD face to face?

23. But the LORD said unto him, Peace be unto thee. Fear not; thou shalt not die.

24. And Gideon built there an altar unto the LORD, and called it, The LORD of peace. And it standeth unto this day in Ophrah, the father of the Ezrites.

25. And the same night the LORD said unto him, Take the bullock of thy father's oxen, and another bullock of seven years old, and break down the altar of Baal which is thy father's, and cut down the grove that is by it;

26. And thou shalt build an altar unto the LORD thy God upon the top of this rock, and prepare it: and take the other bullock, and offer a burnt offering with the wood of the grove which thou hast hewn down.

27. And Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had said unto him. But he was afraid to do it by day in the presence of his father's house, and of the men of the city; and he did it by night.

28. And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was broken down, and the grove thereof cut down; and the other bullock, a burnt offering upon the altar that was built.

29. And one said unto another: Who hath done this thing? And when they sought and enquired, it was said, Gideon the son of Joash hath done this thing.

30. And the men of the city said unto Joash, Deliver up thy son. He must die, because he has broken the altar of Baal and cut down the grove.

31. And Joash said unto all them that sat with him: Will ye contend for Baal? Will ye help him?

He that wroth for him shall die this morning. If he be God, he shall be justified in himself, and his altar shall be broken.

32. And from that day they called his name Jerubbaal, saying, Baal reproacheth himself, that his altar is broken down.

33. And when all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the children of the east were gathered together, they passed through, and pitched in the valley of Jezreel, 34. And the Spirit of the LORD drew Gideon, and he blew with the trumpets, and called Abieser to follow him.

35. And he sent tidings throughout all Manasseh, and called him, that they also should follow him. And he sent word also unto Asher, and Zebulun, and Naphtali; which came up to meet him.

36. And Gideon said unto GOD, Wilt thou deliver Israel by my hand, as thou hast spoken?

37. And I will put a fleece of wool upon the threshingfloor. And the dew shall be upon the fleece alone, and shall drop upon all the earth; and I will know that thou wilt redeem Israel by mine hand, as thou hast spoken.

38. And it came to pass thus. And when he arose early on the morrow, he pressed the dew out of the skin, and filled a vial full of water.

39. And Gideon said unto God, Let not thine anger be kindled against me, that I may speak again. I will only try again with the skin. Let it alone be dry upon the skin, and dew upon all the earth.

40. And God did so that night, that there was dryness upon the skin only, and dew upon all the earth.

(Judges)

Chapter 7

Gideon receives victory against the Midianites.

1. And Jerubbaal, that is, Gideon, arose early, and all the people that were with him, and pitched by the well of Harod, to have the host of Midian northward, behind the hills of the valley.

2. And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people that are with thee are too many for me to deliver Midian into their hand: for Israel will boast against me, saying, My hand hath redeemed me.

3. Now therefore let them cry out in the ears of the people, saying, Let him that is foolish and desponding return, and come up quickly from mount Gilead. And the people returned twenty and two thousand, and ten thousand only remained.

4. And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people are yet too many. Bring them down unto the waters, and there will I try them thee: and of him that I shall say unto thee to go with thee, he shall go with thee: but of him that I shall say, he shall not go with thee, he shall not go.

5. And he brought the people down unto the waters. And the LORD said unto Gideon, Whosoever shall lick the water with his tongue, as a dog licketh it, set him apart; as well as he that shall fall upon his knees to drink.

6. And the number of them that had licked out of the hand into the mouth was three hundred men: and all the rest of the people had drunk kneeling.

7. And the LORD said unto Gideon, By the three hundred men that licked will I deliver you, and will give the Midianites into your hand: but let all the rest of the people go into their place.

8. And they took with them food for the people, and their trumpets. And the rest of the children of Israel let him go every man to his tent:

and he strengthened himself with three hundred men. And the host of Midian lay down before him in the valley.

9. And the LORD said unto him that night, Arise, and go down to the camp: for I have delivered it into thy hand.

10. But if thou fear to go down, let Pura thy son go down with thee unto the camp, 11. And thou shalt hear what they say. And afterward thou shalt go down with the power unto the camp. And Gideon went down with Purah his lad unto the place of the shield-keepers that were in the camp.

12. And the Midianites, and the Amalekites, and all the children of the east, lay down in the midst like a multitude of locusts; and their camels were not to be numbered before the multitude, as the sand upon the seashore.

13. And when Gideon was come, behold, he dreamt a dream one to another, saying, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and it seemed unto me that a barley loaf was rolled unto the host of Midian: and when it came to the tents, it smote them, and overthrew them, and overturned them, to bring down the top of the tent.

14. And the other answered: This is nothing but the sword of Gideon the son of Joash the Israelite. God has given the Midianites into his hands with the whole army.

15. And when Gideon heard the dream, and the interpretation thereof, he worshipped, and returned into the host of Israel, and said, Arise; for the LORD hath delivered the host of Midian into your hand.

16. And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and put a trumpet in every man's hand, and pitchers of wine, and torches within.

17. And said unto them, Look unto me, and do likewise: and, behold, when I come into the place of the host, as I do, so do ye.

18. When I blow the trumpet, and all that are with me, then ye also shall blow the trumpet round about all the host, and say: Here, Lord, and Gideon!

19. So Gideon and an hundred men came with him unto the place of the host, unto the first watchmen that were appointed, and stirred them up, and blew with trumpets, and brake the pitchers in their hands.

20. So all the three companies blew with trumpets, and brake the pitchers. And they held the torches in their left hand, and the trumpets in their right hand, and blew, and cried: Here the sword of the LORD and Gideon!

21. And every man stood in his place round about the host. And all the host ran, and cried out, and fled.

22. And when the three hundred men blew with the trumpets, the LORD caused every man's sword to be against every man's sword throughout all the host. And the army fled unto Beth-sitta Zereratha, unto the border of the breadth of Meholah at Tabath.

23. And the men of Israel of Naphtali, and of Asher, and of all Manasseh, cried out, and pursued after the Midianites.

24. And Gideon sent word throughout all mount Ephraim, saying, Come down to meet the Midianites, and run the waters over against them unto Bethbarah and Jordan. And all they that were of Ephraim cried out, and ran the waters over against them unto Bethbarah and Jordan.

25. And they took two princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb, and slew Oreb in the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb in the winepress of Zeeb: and they chased the Midianites, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb unto Gideon over Jordan.

(Judges)

Chapter 8

The Midianites who remain are defeated, and Sebab and Zalmuna are captured.

1. And the men of Ephraim said unto him, Why hast thou done this unto us, that thou calledst us not, when thou wentest to battle against the Midianites? And they quarreled with him fiercely.

2. And he said unto them: What have I now done that is like unto your deed? Is not one vine of Ephraim better than all the vintage of Abieser?

3. God has given the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb, into your hands. How could I have done what you have done? When he spoke these things, their anger departed from him.

4. And when Gideon was come to Jordan, he passed over with the three hundred men that were with him: and they were weary, and pursued.

5. And he said unto the men of Sukhoth, Give some loaves unto the people that are under me: for they are weary, because I go after the kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunah.

6. And the princes of Shukthoth said, Are the fists of Zebah and Zalmunah already in thine hand, that we should give bread unto thy host?

7. And Gideon said, Well, if the LORD deliver Zebah and Zalmunna into mine hand, I will bruise your flesh with thorns out of the wilderness, and with hedges.

8. And he went up from thence unto Pnuel, and spake so unto them. And the men of Pnuel answered him, as did the men of Sukthoth.

9. And he said also unto the men of Pnuel, If I come again in peace, I will break down this tower.

10. And Zebah and Zalmunna were at Karkor, and their host with them, about five and ten thousand, all that remained of all the host of the east. For an hundred and twenty thousand were fallen that could draw the sword.

11. And Gideon went up by the way of the tabernacle, toward the east, to Nobah and to Jagbeha, and smote the army: for the army was sure.

12. And Zebah and Zalmunna fled: but he pursued after them, and caught the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and destroyed all the host.

13. And Gideon the son of Joash returned from the battle before the sun was up, 14. And he caught a lad of the people of Shukthoth, and asked him; and he wrote unto him the princes of Shukthoth, and their elders, seventy and seven men.

15. And he came to the men of Shukthoth, and said, Behold, here is Zebah and Zalmunna, of whom ye mocked me, saying, Is Zebah's fist and Zalmunna's fist already in thine hands, that we should give bread unto thy men that are weary?

16. And he took the elders of the city and domes out of the wilderness and hedges, and made the people of Sukthoth to feel it.

17. And he brake down the tower of Pnuel, and slew the men of the city.

18. And he said unto Zebah and Zalmunna, What were the men whom ye slew in Tabor? And they said, They were as thou art, and every one of them fair, as the children of a king.

19. And he said, They were my brethren, my mother's sons. As the LORD liveth, if ye had let them live, I would not have slain you.

20. And he said unto Jether his firstborn son, Arise, slay them. But the lad drew not his sword: for he was afraid, because he was yet a lad.

21. And Zebah and Zalmunna said, Arise, thou, and make thyself at us: for after that the man is, so is his strength. So Gideon arose, and slew Zebah and Zalmunna, and took the braces that were on their camels' necks.

22. And some of Israel said unto Gideon, Be thou lord over us, thou, and thy son, and thy son's son; because thou hast delivered us out of the hand of Midian.

23. But Gideon said unto them: I will not be lord over you, neither shall my son be lord over you: but the LORD shall be lord over you.

24. And Gideon said unto them: One thing I desire of you, that every man give me the headbands which he hath stolen: for because they were Ishmaelites, they had headbands of gold.

25. They said: These we will give. And they spread out a garment, and every man cast thereon the headbands which he had stolen.

26. And the golden headbands which he required were of the weight of a thousand seven hundred shekels of gold, beside the clasps, and the chains, and the scarlet garments, which the kings of Midian wear, and beside the collars of their camels.

27. And Gideon made an ephod of it, and put it in his city at Ophrah. And all Israel took offense at it there; and it was an offence unto Gideon, and to his house.

28. So the Midianites were humbled before the children of Israel, and lifted up their heads no more. And the land was quiet forty years, as long as Gideon lived.

29. And Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and dwelt in his house.

30. And Gideon had seventy sons, which came out of his loins: for he had many wives.

31. And his concubine, which he had in Shechem, bare him also a son; and he called his name Abimelech.

32. And Gideon the son of Joash died in a good old age, and was buried in the sepulchre of Joash his father in Ophrah, the father of the Ezrites.

33. And it came to pass, when Gideon was dead, that the children of Israel turned again, and whored after Baalim, and made them Baal-Berith their god.

34. And the children of Israel remembered not the LORD their God, which had delivered them out of the hand of all their enemies round about.

35. And did not shew mercy unto the house of Jerubbaal-gideon, as he had shewed all goodness unto Israel.

(Judges)

Chapter 9

The fratricide Abimelech perishes.

1. And Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem unto his mother's brethren, and spake unto them, and unto all the family of his mother's father's house, saying: 2. Speak ye, I pray thee, in the ears of all the men of Shechem, saying, Which is better for you, that seventy men, all the sons of Jerubbaal, should be lords over you, or that one man should be lord over you? Remember also that I am your bones and your flesh.

3. And his mother's brethren spake all these words of him in the ears of all the men of safety: and their heart inclined toward Abimelech, because they remembered: He is our brother.

4. And they gave him seventy pieces of silver of the house of Baal-Berith. And Abimelech did dine therewith loose, frivolous men that followed him.

5. And he came into his father's house to Ophrah, and slew his brethren the sons of Jerubbaal, seventy men, upon one stone. And Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal remained: for he was hid.

6. And all the men of Shechem, and all the house of Millo, gathered themselves together, and went and made Abimelech king by the high oak which is in Shechem.

7. And it was told Jotham, that he went and stood upon the top of mount Grisim, and lifted up his voice, and cried, and said unto them: Hear me, ye men of Shechem, that God may hear you also.

8. And the trees went to anoint a king over them, and said unto the olive tree, Be our king.

9. But the olive tree answered and said unto them, Shall I leave my fatness, which both gods and men glorify in me, and go to hover over the trees?

10. And the trees said unto the fig tree, Come thou, and be our king.

11. But the fig tree said unto them, Shall I leave my sweetness and my good fruit, and go to hover above the trees?

12. And the trees said unto the vine, Come thou, and be our king.

13. But the vine said unto them, Shall I leave my wine, which maketh glad gods and men, and go to hover over the trees?

14. And all the trees said unto the thornbush, Come thou, and be our king.

15. And the thornbush said unto the trees, If it be true that ye anoint me king over you, come and trust under my shadow: but if not, let fire come out of the thornbush, and consume the cedars of Lebanon.

16. Now therefore have ye done right and truly in making Abimelech king? And ye have done well to Jerubbaal, and to his house, and have done unto him as he hath done unto you, 17. That my father fought for your sakes, and cast away his soul, to deliver you out of the hand of Midian?

18. And ye rise up this day against my father's house, and slay his children, even seventy men, upon one stone; and make you a king, Abimelech the son of his handmaid, over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother.

19. Now therefore, if ye have dealt justly and uprightly with Jerubbaal, and with his house this day, be glad in Abimelech, and let him be glad in you.

20. And if not, then let fire go out from Abimelech, and consume the men of Sure, and the house of Millo; and let fire go out from the men of Sure, and from the house of Millo, and consume Abimelech.

21. And Jotham fled, and escaped, and went to Bear, and dwelt there before Abimelech his brother.

22. And it came to pass, when Abimelech had reigned over Israel three years, 23. God sent an evil will between Abimelech and the men of Shechem. For the men of Shechem promised Abimelech;

24. And they reproached the seventy sons of Jerubbaal for their iniquity, and laid the blood of them upon Abimelech their brother, which slew them, and upon the men of safety, which strengthened his hand to slay his brethren.

25. And the men of Sichern set an ambush in the tops of the mountains, and spoiled all that walked by them in the way. And it was told Abimelech.

26. And Gaal the son of Ebed came, and his brethren, and entered into Shechem. And the men of Shechem relied upon him;

27. And they went out into the field, and gathered their vineyards, and pressed wine; and made a dance, and went into the house of their god, and did eat and drink, and cursed Abimelech.

28. And Gaal the son of Ebed said, Who is Abimelech? and what is Shechem, that we should serve him? Is not he the son of Jerubbaal, and hath set Zebul his servant over the men of Hemor, the father of Shechem? Why should we serve him?

29. Would to God that the people were under my hand, that I might drive out Abimelech! And it was said unto Abimelech, Increase thine army, and go forth.

30. For Zebul the ruler of the city, when he heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, was wroth in his anger.

31. And he sent word unto Abimelech privily, saying, Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed and his brethren are come to Shechem, and have made the city abominable unto thee.

32. Arise therefore by night, thou, and thy people that are with thee, and set an ambush upon them in the field.

33. And in the morning, when the sun riseth, arise early, and overtake the city. And when he and the people that are with him shall come out unto thee, do unto him as thine hand findeth.

34. And Abimelech arose by night, and all the people that were with him, and stood in safety with four companies.

35. And Gaal the son of Ebed went out, and stood at the door of the gate of the city. And Abimelech arose out of the ambush, he and the people that were with him.

36. And when Gaal saw the people, he said unto Zebul, Behold, a people cometh down from the height of the mountains. And Zebul said unto him, Thou seest the shadows of the mountains for people.

37. And Gaal spake yet more, and said, Behold, a people cometh down out of the midst of the land, and a multitude cometh by the way of the magic region.

38. And Zebul said unto him, Where is now here thy mouth, which said, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? Is not this the people whom thou hast despised? Go forth therefore, and fight with him.

39. And Gaal went out before the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.

40. But Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him: and there fell many slain unto the door of the gate.

41. And Abimelech abode in Arumah. And Zebul drove out Gaal and his brethren, that they should not dwell in the covert.

42. And in the morning the people went out into the field. And Abimelech was told, 43. And he took the people, and divided them into three companies, and set an ambush upon them in the field. And when he saw that the people were gone out of the city, he rose up against them, and smote them.

44. And Abimelech, and the company that was with him, attacked them, and stood at the gate of the city: and two of the company attacked all that were in the field, and smote them.

45. And Abimelech fought against the city all that day, and took it, and slew the people that were therein, and brake down the city, and sowed salt in it.

46. And when all the men of the tower of Shechem heard it, they went into the fortress of the house of Berith the god.

47. And when Abimelech heard that all the men of the tower of Sichern were gathered together, 48. And he went up into mount Zalmon with all his people that were with him, and took an axe in his hand, and cut down a branch from the trees, and took it up, and laid it upon his shoulder, and said unto all the people that were with him, As ye have seen me do, so do ye hasted, as I have done.

49. And all the people cut off every man a bough, and went after Abimelech, and laid them by the fortress, and set it on fire: and all the men of the tower of Shechem died, about a thousand men and women.

50. And Abimelech went to Thebez, and besieged it, and took it.

51. And there was a strong tower in the midst of the city, upon which all the men and women, and all the inhabitants of the city, fled; and they shut them up behind them, and went up into the roof of the tower.

52. And Abimelech came to the tower, and fought against it, and drew nigh unto the door of the tower, and burned it with fire.

53. And a woman cast a piece of a millstone upon Abimelech's head, and brake his skull.

54. And Abimelech made haste, and called unto the lad that bare his weapons, and said unto him, Put forth thy sword, and slay me, lest it be said of me, A woman slew him. And his lad thrust him through, and he died.

55. And when the children of Israel that were with him saw that Abimelech was dead, they went every man to his place.

56. So God paid Abimelech for the evil that he had done to his father, in that he slew his seventy brethren.

57. Likewise all the evil of the men of Shechem God forgave on their heads, and the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal came upon them.

(Judges)

Chapter 10

Israel is pushed by the Philistines because of idolatry.

1. And it came to pass after Abimelech, that Tola, a man of Issachar, the son of Puah the son of Dodo, went to help Israel. And he dwelt at Samir in mount Ephraim.

2. And he judged Israel twenty and three years; and he died, and was buried in Samir.

3. And after him arose Jair the Gileadite, and judged Israel twenty and two years.

4. And he had thirty sons riding upon thirty asses: and he had thirty cities, which are called the villages of Jair unto this day, which are in Gilead.

5. And Jair died, and was buried in Kamon.

6. But the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD, and served Baalim, and Ashtaroth, and the gods of Syria, and the gods of Zidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines; and forsook the LORD, and served him not.

7. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the children of Ammon.

8. And they trode down and smote the children of Israel from that year even eighteen years, even all the children of Israel that were beyond Jordan, in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead.

9. And the children of Ammon passed over Jordan, and fought against Judah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim; so that Israel was greatly distressed.

10. And the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, saying: We have sinned against thee; for we have forsaken our God, and served Baalim.

11. And the LORD said unto the children of Israel, Have not the Egyptians, and the Amorites, and the children of Amman, and the Philistines, compelled you?

12. The Zidonians, and the Amalekites, and the Maanites: and I delivered you out of their hand, when ye cried unto me?

13. Yet have ye forsaken me, and served other gods: therefore will I not help you any more.

14. Go and cry unto the gods which ye have chosen: let them help you in the time of your affliction.

15. And the children of Israel said unto the LORD, We have sinned: do thou with us as thou wilt; only save us at this time.

16. And they put away strange gods, and served the LORD. And it grieved him that Israel was so afflicted.

17. And the children of Ammon cried, and pitched in Gilead: but the children of Israel gathered themselves together, and pitched in Mizpeh.

18. And the people of the princes of Gilead said one to another, Whosoever shall begin to fight against the children of Ammon, he shall be chief over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

(Judges)

Chapter 11

Jephthah's victory and vows.

1. Jephthah, a Gileadite, was a valiant man, but a whoremonger. But Gilead had begotten Jephthah.

2. And when the wife of Gilead bare him children, and the children of his wife grew up, they cast out Jephthah, and said unto him, Thou shalt not inherit in our father's house; for thou art the son of another woman.

3. And he fled from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of Tob. And there were gathered unto him a few men, and they went out with him.

4. And for some time afterward the children of Amman fought with Israel.

5. And it came to pass, when the children of Ammon had fought with Israel, that the elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah out of the land of Tob.

6. And they said unto him, Come and be our captain, that we may fight against the children of Ammon.

7. And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead: Are not ye that hate me, and have cast me out of my father's house? And now come ye unto me, because ye are in tribulation?

8. And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, Now therefore we return unto thee, that thou mayest go with us, and fight with us against the children of Amman, and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

9. And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead: If ye bid me fight again against the children of Ammon, and the LORD give them before me, shall I be your head?

10. And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, Let the LORD be a hearer between us, where we do not as thou hast said.

11. So Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead: and the people made him head over them, and ruler over them. And Jephthah spake all these things before the LORD in Mizpah.

12. And Jephthah sent messengers unto the king of the children of Amman, saying, What hast thou to do with me, that thou art come to me to fight against my land?

13. And the king of the children of Ammon answered the messengers of Jephthah: Because Israel took my land, when they came out of Egypt, from Arnon even unto Jabbok, and unto Jordan.
Now therefore restore it unto me in peace.

14. And Jephthah sent more messengers unto the king of the children of Amman.

15. And they said unto him, Thus saith Jephthah: Israel hath taken no land, neither from Moab, nor from the children of Ammon.

16. For when they came out of Egypt, Israel went through the wilderness unto the Red sea, and came to Kadesh;

17. And he sent messengers unto the king of Edom, saying, Let me pass through thy land. But the king of Edom hearkened not unto them. And they sent to the king of Moab, and he would not hear them. So Israel dwelt in Kadesh.

18: And he walked in the wilderness, and compassed the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came from the rising of the sun unto the land of Moab, and pitched on the other side of Arnon; and came not within the border of Moab: for Arnon is the border of Moab.

19. And Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of Heshbon the Amorite, saying, Let us pass through thy land unto my place.

20. But Sihon trusted not Israel to pass through his border, but gathered all his people together, and encamped at Jahaz, and fought with Israel.

21. And the LORD God of Israel delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they smote them. So Israel took all the land of the Amorites, which dwelt in the same country,

22. And they took all the border of the Amorites from Arnon even unto Jabbok, and from the wilderness even unto Jordan.

23. Now therefore the LORD God of Israel hath driven out the Amorites from before his people Israel; and wilt thou take them?

24. Thou shalt take them whom thy god Kamos hath driven out, and make us to take all whom the LORD our God hath driven out before us.

25. Thinkest thou that thou art better in judgment than Balak the son of Zipor king of Moab?

hath he ever justified himself, or fought against Israel?

26. Though Israel dwelt three hundred years in Heshbon, and in her daughters, and in Aroer, and in her daughters, and in all the cities that are by the Arnan? Why do ye not save them in that day?

27. I have sinned nothing against thee; and thou doest evil against me, to fight against me. Let the LORD judge this day between Israel and the children of Ammon.

28. But the king of the children of Ammon hearkened not unto the words of Jephthah, which he sent unto him.

29. And the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, and passed through Gilead, and through Manasseh, and through Mizpeh, which is in Gilead, and from Mizpeh, which is in Gilead, upon the children of Amman.

30. And Jephthah vowed a vow unto the LORD, saying, Deliver thou the children of Amman into mine hand,

31. That which cometh out of my house, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, shall be the LORD'S, and I will offer it for a burnt offering.

32. So Jephthah came upon the children of Amman to fight against them. And the LORD delivered them into his hand.

33. And he smote them from Aroer even unto Minnith, twenty cities, and unto the plain of the vineyards, a very great slaughter. And the children of Ammon were humbled before the children of Israel:

34. And when Jephthah was come to Mizpeh to his house, behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and dances: and she was an only child, and he had neither son nor daughter.

35. And when he saw her, he rent his clothes, and said, Alas, my daughter, how thou bendest me, and grieveest me! For I have opened my mouth against the LORD, and cannot gainsay it.

36. And she said, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth against the LORD, do unto me as it proceeded out of thy mouth, after that the LORD smote thee upon thine enemies the children of Ammon.

37. And she said unto her father, Thou wilt do this unto me, that thou wilt leave me two months, that I may go down from hence into the mountains, and bewail my virginity with my companions.

38. And he said, Go thy way. And let her go two months. And she went with her companions, and wept for her virginity upon the mountains.

39. And after two months she returned unto her father. And he did unto her as he had promised: and she was never guilty of any man. And it became a custom in Israel, 40. And the daughters of Israel shall go yearly to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in the year.

(Judges)

Chapter 12

Defeat of the Ephraimites.

1. And the men of Ephraim cried, and went northward, and said unto Jephthah, Why art thou gone to battle against the children of Ammon, and hast not called us to go with thee? We will burn your house and you with fire.

2. And Jephthah said unto them: I and my people had a great matter with the children of Ammon; and I cried unto you, but ye helped me not out of their hands.
3. And when I saw that ye would not help me, I put my soul in mine hand, and went against the children of Ammon; and the LORD delivered them into mine hand. Wherefore then come ye up unto me to fight against me?
4. And Jephthah gathered all the men of Gilead, and fought against Ephraim. And the men of Gilead smote Ephraim, because they said, Be ye Gileadites among Ephraim, and Manasseh among the fugitives of Ephraim.
5. And the Gileadites took the fords of Jordan before Ephraim. And when the fugitives of Ephraim said, Let me pass over, the men of Gilead said unto him, Art thou an Ephraite? And when he answered, No,
6. And they said unto him, Shibolet; and he said, Siboleth; and could not speak it aright. And they took him, and smote him at the fords of Jordan: and in that day there fell of Ephraim forty and two thousand.
7. And Jephthah judged Israel six years. And Jephthah the Gileadite died, and was buried in the cities of Gilead.
8. After whom Israel judged Ebzan of Bethlehem.
9. He had thirty sons, and thirty daughters he put forth, and thirty daughters he took from without his sons: and he judged Israel seven years.
10. And died, and was buried in Bethlehem.
11. After this Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel: and he judged Israel ten years.
12. And he died, and was buried in Aijalon in the land of Zebulun.
13. After this judged Israel Abdon the son of Hillel, a Pireathonite.
14. And he had forty sons, and thirty nephews, riding upon seventy asses: and he judged Israel eight years.
15. And he died, and was buried in Pireathon, in the land of Ephraim, in the mount of the Amalekites.

(Judges)

Chapter 13

Simson's conception and birth.

1. And the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD: and the LORD delivered them into the hand of the Philistines forty years.

2. Now there was a man in Zareah of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah: and his wife was barren, and bare nothing.
3. And the angel of the LORD appeared unto the woman, and said unto her, Behold, thou art barren, and bearest not: but thou shalt conceive, and bear a son.
4. Take heed therefore that thou drink not wine, nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean thing.
5. For thou shalt conceive, and bear a son, and there shall no razor come upon his head. For the child shall be the betrothed of God from his mother's womb: and he shall begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines.
6. And the woman came and told her husband, and said, There came a man of God unto me, and his form was as the appearance of an angel of God, almost terrifying, that I asked him not whence, nor whither; neither did he tell me his name.
7. And he said unto me, Behold, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son. Now therefore drink no wine, nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean thing: for the child shall be the betrothed of God from his mother's womb even unto his death.
8. And Manoah besought the LORD, saying, O LORD, let the man of God come again unto us, whom thou hast sent, that he may teach us what we shall do unto the child that shall be born.
9. And God heard the voice of Manoah: and the angel of God came again to the woman. And she sat in the field, and Manoah her husband was not with her.
10. And she ran quickly, and told her husband, and said unto him, Behold, the man hath appeared unto me, which came unto me this day.
11. And Manoah arose, and went after his wife: and he came to the man, and said unto him, Art thou the man that talked with the woman? And he said, Yea.
12. And Manoah said, When that which thou hast spoken shall come, what shall be the manner and work of the child?
13. And the angel of the LORD said unto Manoah, Let him beware of all that I have said unto the woman.
14. He shall not eat that cometh of the vine, neither shall he drink wine or strong drink, neither shall he eat any unclean thing: all that I have commanded him shall he keep.

15. And Manoah said unto the angel of the LORD, Let thee be stayed, and we will prepare thee a kid of the goats.

16. And the angel of the LORD answered Manoah, Though thou keep me here, yet will I not eat of thy meat. But if thou wilt offer a burnt offering unto the LORD, then thou shalt offer it.

For Manoah knew not that it was an angel of the LORD.

17. And Manoah said unto the angel of the LORD, What is thy name? that we may praise thee, when that which thou hast spoken shall come to pass.

18. And the angel of the LORD said unto him, Why askest thou after my name, which is miraculous?

19. And Manoah took a kid of the goats, and a meat offering, and offered it upon a rock unto the LORD. And he made it marvelous. And Manoah and his wife looked on.

20. And when the flame ascended up to heaven from off the altar, the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar. And when Manoah and his wife saw it, they fell to the earth upon their faces.

21. And the angel of the LORD appeared no more unto Manoah, nor unto his wife. Then Manoah knew that it was an angel of the LORD.

22. And he said unto his wife: We must die of death, that we have seen God.

23. And his wife answered and said unto him, If the LORD had desired to kill us, he would not have taken the burnt offering and the meat offering from our hands, neither would he have told us all these things, nor have let us hear these things, as they are now.

24. And the woman bare a son, and called his name Samson. And the lad grew, and the LORD blessed him.

25. And the Spirit of the LORD began to drive him in the camp of Dan, between Tsar and Esthaol.

(Judges)

Chapter 14

Simson's exploit, wedding and mystery.

1. And Samson went down to Timnath, and saw a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines.

2. And when he was come up, he told his father and his mother, saying: I have seen a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines: now therefore give me the same to wife.

3. And his father and his mother said unto him, Is there not then a woman among the daughters of thy brethren, and among all thy people, that thou goest and takest a wife of the uncircumcised Philistines? Then Samson said to his father, "Give me this one, for she is pleasing to my eyes.

4. But his father and his mother knew not that it was of the LORD: for he sought cause of the Philistines. And the Philistines reigned over Israel at that time.

5. So Samson went down with his father and his mother to Timnath. And when they were come to the vineyards of Timnath, behold, a young lion came roaring to meet him.

6. And the Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and rent him as a kid is rent, and had nothing in his hand. And he told not his father, nor his mother, what he had done.

7. And when he was come down, he spake unto the woman, and she pleased Samson in his eyes.

8. And after some days he returned to take them, and went out of the way to see the carcase of the lion. And, behold, there was a swarm of bees in the carcase of the lion, and honey.

9. And he took it in his hand, and did eat thereof by the way: and he went to his father and to his mother, and gave them to eat also. And he told them not that he had taken the honey of the lion's nest.

10. And when his father was come down to the woman, Samson made a marriage there, as young men do.

11. And when they saw him, they gave him thirty companions to be with him.

12. And Samson said unto them: I will give you a riddle. If ye will tell me, and come to the seven days of the marriage, I will give you thirty shirts, and thirty garments for a feast.

13. But if ye cannot guess, then ye shall give me thirty shirts, and thirty ceremonial garments.

And they said unto him, Give up thy riddle, and let us hear.

14. And he said unto them, Food came from the eater, and sweetness from the strong. And they could not guess the riddle in three days.

15. And on the seventh day they said unto Samson's wife: Persuade thy husband to tell us the riddle, or we will burn thee and thy father's house with fire. Did ye bring us hither to make us poor, or not?

16. And Samson's wife wept before him, and said, Thou art angry with me, and lovest me not.

Thou hast set a riddle before the children of my people, and hast not told it. And he said unto her, Behold, I have not told my father nor my mother, and should I tell thee?

17. And she wept before him seven days, because they were married.

But on the seventh day he told her, because she drove him in. And she told the riddle of her people unto her children.

18. Then said the men of the city unto him the seventh day, before the sun went down: What is sweeter than honey? What is stronger than the lion? But he said unto them: If ye had not plowed with my calf, ye would not have met my riddle.

19. And the Spirit of the LORD was upon him, and he went down to Asklon, and smote thirty men of them, and took their raiment, and gave garments of feasting unto them that had guessed the riddle. And he was wroth in his anger, and went up to his father's house.

20. But Samson's wife was given to one of his fellows that belonged to him.

(Judges)

Chapter 15

Samson does harm to the Philistines by the foxes and the ass's chin.

1. And it came to pass after certain days, about the time of wheat harvest, that Samson went to visit his wife with a kid. And when he thought, I will go into my wife's chamber, her father would not let him in.

2. And said: I thought thou hadst been angry with her, and have given her to thy friend. But she hath a younger sister more fair than she: let her be thine for this.

3. Then said Samson unto them: For once I have a right cause against the Philistines; I will do you harm.

4. And Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took fires, and turned every tail to the other, and put a fire between every two tails.

5. And they set them on fire, and let them go among the corn of the Philistines: and they set on fire the almonds, and the standing corn, and the vineyards, and the oliveyards.

6. And the Philistines said, Who hath done this? And they said, Samson the son in law of the Thimnite, because he took his wife from him, and gave her to his friend: And the Philistines went up, and burned her and her father with fire.

7. And Samson said unto them, Though ye have done this already, yet will I take vengeance on you myself, and will cease afterward.

8. And smote them sore, both in the shoulders and in the loins. And he went down, and dwelt in the cleft of the stone at Etam.

9. And the Philistines went up, and besieged Judah, and settled in Lehi.

10. But they of Judah said: Why are ye come up against us? And they answered: We are come up to bind Samson, that we may do unto him as he hath done unto us.

11. And three thousand men of Judah went down to the valley of Etam, and said unto Samson, Knowest thou not that the Philistines reign over us? Why then hast thou done this thing unto us? And he said unto them: As they have done it unto me, so have I done it unto them.

12. And they said unto him, We are come down to bind thee, and to deliver thee into the hand of the Philistines. And Samson said unto them, Swear unto me that ye will not resist me.

13. And they answered him, We will not resist thee, but will bind thee, and deliver thee into their hand, and will not kill thee. And they bound him with two new cords, and brought him up from the rock.

14. And when he was come to Lehi, the Philistines shouted unto him. And the Spirit of the LORD was upon him, and the cords of his arms were as the cords of the fire: and the bands of his hands were melted.

15. And he found a rotten ass's jawbone; and he put forth his hand, and took it, and smote a thousand men therewith.

16. And Samson said, There they lie in heaps: by the jaws of an ass have I smitten a thousand men.

17. And when he had spoken it, he cast out the jaw of his hand, and called the name of the place Ramath-lehi.

18. And when he thirsted greatly, he called upon the LORD, and said, Thou hast given great salvation by the hand of thy servant; but now I must die of thirst, and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised.

19. And God split a molar in the jaw, and water came out. And when he drank, his spirit returned, and was refreshed. Therefore the name of the fountain of the caller, which was in the jaw, is called unto this day.

20. And he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.

(Judges)

Chapter 16

Simson's fall, misery and final revenge.

1. Samson went to Gasa, and there he saw a harlot, and lay with her.

2. And it was told the Gasites, saying, Samson is come in. And they compassed him about, and lay wait for him all night in the gate of the city: and they were silent all night, and said: Wait!

And it shall come to pass in the morning, when it is light, that we will slay him.

3. And Samson lay till midnight. And he arose on the north side, and took both the doors of the gate of the city, and the two posts thereof, and lifted them up with the bars thereof, and put them upon his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of the hill that is before Hebron.

4. And afterward he loved a woman by the brook Sorek, whose name was Delilah.

5. And the lords of the Philistines came up, and said unto her, Persuade him, and see wherein he hath great power, and wherewith we prevail against him, to bind him, and to compel him; and we will give thee every one a thousand and an hundred shekels of silver.

6. And Delilah said unto Samson, Tell me, my son, wherein is thy great strength, and wherewith thou mayest be bound to be compelled.

7. And Samson said unto her, If they would bind me with seven ropes of fresh bast, which are not yet withered, I should be weak, and be as another man.

8. And the princes of the Philistines brought up unto her seven ropes of fresh bast, which were not yet withered: and she bound him therewith.

9. And they waited for him with her in the chamber: and she said unto him, The Philistines are upon thee, Samson. And he rent the ropes, as a cord of brass is rent when it toucheth the fire: and he knew not where his strength was.

10. And Delilah said unto Samson, Behold, thou hast deceived me, and lied unto me: now therefore tell me, wherewith can thou be bound?

11. And he said unto her, If they bind me with new cords, lest any work be done, I shall be weak, and like another man.

12. And Delilah took new cords, and bound him therewith, and said, Philistines upon thee, Samson. (And they were kept upon him in the chamber.) - And he rent them from his arms like a thread.

13. And Delilah said unto him, Thou hast yet deceived me, and told me a lie. Tell me, my lord, wherewith can I bind thee? And he said unto her, If thou shalt braid seven locks of my head with a plaited band, and fasten them with a nail.

14. And she said unto him, Philistines upon thee, Samson. And he awoke from his sleep, and drew out his braided locks with nail and braid.

15. And she said unto him, How canst thou say that thou lovest me, when thine heart is not with me? Thrice hast thou deceived me, and hast not told me wherein is thy great strength.

16. And when she had driven him with her words all the days, and afflicted him, his soul was weary unto death.

17. And he told her his whole heart, and said unto her, There never came a razor upon my head: for I am the betrothed of God from my mother's womb. When thou shalt adjure me, let my strength depart from me, and I shall be weak, and like all men.

18. And when Delilah saw that he had revealed all his heart unto her, she sent and called the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come up again; for he hath revealed all his heart unto me. So the lords of the Philistines came up to her and brought the money in their hands.

19. And she left him asleep in her bosom, and called for one that should cut off the seven locks of his head. And she began to compel him. And his strength was gone out of him.

20. And she said unto him, Philistines upon thee, Samson. And when he was awake from his sleep, he said, I will go forth, as I have done many times, I will depart: and he knew not that the LORD was departed from him.

21. And the Philistines took him, and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with two fetters of brass; and he was mangled in prison.

22. But the hair of his head began to grow again where it was shorn.
23. And when the princes of the Philistines were gathered together to offer a great sacrifice unto Dagon their god, and to rejoice, they said, Our god hath delivered Samson our enemy into our hand.
24. Likewise when the people saw him, they praised their God: for they said: Our God hath delivered into our hand our enemy, which destroyed our land, and slew our many.
25. And when their hearts were in good cheer, they said, Send for Samson, that he may play before us. So they fetched Samson out of prison, and he played before them: and they set him between two pillars.
26. And Samson said unto the lad that led him by the hand, Let me feel the pillars, and let the house stand, that I may lean upon it.
27. And the house was full of men and women. And the princes of the Philistines were all there, and upon the housetop about three thousand, both men and women, watching Samson play.
28. And Samson called upon the LORD, and said, O LORD, remember me, and strengthen me, O GOD, this time, that I may avenge myself on the Philistines for my two eyes.
29. And he took the two middle pillars, upon which the house was set, and upon which it stood, one in his right hand, and the other in his left hand,
30. And he said, My soul dieth with the Philistines: and he bowed it vigorously. And the house fell upon the princes, and upon all the people that were therein: and there were more dead in his death, than in his life.
31. And his brethren came down, and all his father's house, and took him up, and bare him, and buried him in Manoah his father's sepulchre, between Zareah and Esthaol. And he judged Israel twenty years.

(Judges)

Chapter 17

Micah sets up idolatry.

1. Now there was a man in mount Ephraim, whose name was Micah.
2. And he said unto his mother, The thousand and hundred pieces of silver which thou hast taken unto thee, and hast sworn and said in mine ears, behold, the same money is with me, and I have taken it unto me. And his mother said, Blessed be my son unto the LORD.

3. So he restored unto his mother the thousand and an hundred pieces of silver. And his mother said: I have sanctified the money of mine hand unto the LORD for my son, to make an image and an idol: now therefore I restore it unto thee.

4. But he restored the money unto his mother. And his mother took two hundred shekels of silver, and put them in the goldsmith's hand, and he made her an image and an idol, which was afterward in the house of Micah.

5. And the man Micah had a house of God, and made an ephod and a sanctuary, and filled the hand of one of his sons to be his priest.

6. In those days there was no king in Israel: and every man did that which seemed right unto him.

7. Now there was a young man of Bethlehemjudah of the family of Judah: and he was a Levite, and a stranger there.

8. And he departed out of the city of Bethlehemjudah, to wander whithersoever he might. And when he was come to mount Ephraim, to the house of Micah, to go his way, 9. And Micah said unto him, Whence comest thou? And he answered him, I am a Levite of Bethlehemjudah, and wander whithersoever I may.

10. And Micah said unto him, Abide with me, and thou shalt be my father, and my priest: and I will give thee ten shekels of silver yearly, and thy named garments, and thy food. And the Levite went.

11. And the Levite came to dwell with the man; and he kept the lad as a son.

12. And Micah filled the Levite's hand, and he became his priest: so he was in the house of Micah.

13. And Micah said, Now I know that the LORD will do me good, because I have a Levite for a priest.

(Judges)

Chapter 18

The Danites win Lais and set up idolatry.

1. In those days there was no king in Israel. And the tribe of Dan sought him an inheritance, where they might dwell: for there was no inheritance fallen to them among the tribes of Israel until that day.

2. And the children of Dan sent out of their families from the ends thereof five valiant men of Czar and Esthaol, to search out the land, and to search it out, and said unto them: Go and explore the land. And they came to mount Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and lodged there overnight.

3. And when they were with the servants of Micah, they knew the voice of the Levite the boy: and they departed thither, and said unto him, Who brought thee hither? What doest thou there, and what hast thou here?

4. And he said unto them, Thus and thus did Micah unto me, and appointed me to be his priest.

5. And they said unto him, Ask of GOD, that we may know whether the way which we take be prosperous.

6. And the priest answered them: Go in peace: your way is right in the sight of the LORD, which ye go.

7. And the five men went and came to Laish, and saw the people that were therein dwelling safely, after the manner of the Zidonians, quietly and securely; and there was none to hurt them in the land, or to lord it over them: and they were far from the Zidonians, and had nothing to do with men.

8. And they came to their brethren to Zareah and Esthaol: and their brethren said unto them: How is it with you?

9. And they said: Up, let us go up to them: for we have seen the land, which is almost good.

Make haste therefore, and be not slothful to go, that ye may come and possess the land.

10. When ye come, ye shall come unto a sure people; and the land is far and wide, for God hath given it into your hands, such a place as nothing faileth, all that is in the earth.

11. And there went out from thence of the families of Dan, and of Zareah, and of Esthaol, six hundred men armed with their weapons to battle.

12. And they went up, and pitched in Kiriathjearim of Judah. Wherefore they called the place the camp of Dan unto this day, which is beyond Kiriathjearim.

13. And from thence they went up into mount Ephraim, and came to the house of Micah.

14. And the five men that went out to search the land of Laish answered and said unto their brethren: Know ye also that in these houses there is an ephod, and a sanctuary, and an image, and an idol?

Now think ye what ye shall do.

15. And they entered in, and came to the house of the lad the Levite, which was in Micah's house, and greeted him kindly.

16. And the six hundred armed men with their armour, which were of the children of Dan, stood at the gate.

17. And the five men that went out to search the land went up, and came thither: and they took the image, and the ephod, and the sanctuary, and the idol. And the priest stood at the gate by the six hundred armed men with their armour.

18. And when they were come into the house of Micah, and had taken the image, and the ephod, and the sanctuary, and the idol, the priest said unto them: What do ye?

19. And they said unto him, Hold thy peace, and shut thy mouth, and shew thyself to us, that thou mayest be our father and priest. Is it better for thee to be a priest in the house of one man, or in all the tribe and family of Israel?

20. And it pleased the priest well, and he took both the ephod, and the sanctuary, and the image, and went with them among the people.

21. And when they turned and went, they sent before them the little children, and the cattle, and all that they had that was good.

22. And when they were come afar off from Micha's house, the men that were in the houses of Micha's house cried out, and followed after the children of Dan, and called unto the children of Dan.

23. And they turned their faces, and said unto Micah, What is the matter with thee, that thou hast made such a noise?

24. And he answered: Ye have taken my gods, which I made, and the priest, and are gone; and now what have I more? And ye ask yet what I lack?

25. And the children of Dan said unto him, Let not thy voice be heard among us, lest angry men fall upon thee, and thy soul, and the soul of thy house, be troubled.

26. So the children of Dan went their way. And Micah, when he saw that they were too strong for him, turned and came again to his house.

27. And they took that which Micah had made, and the nest that he had, and came unto Laish, unto a quiet, sure people, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and burnt the city with fire.
28. And there was none to deliver them, because they were far from Zidon, and had no business with the people: and they lay in the valley, which is by Beth-rehob. And they built the city, and dwelt therein;
29. And they called them Dan, after the name of Dan their father, which was born of Israel. And the name of the city in old time was Laish.
30. And the children of Dan set up for themselves the image. And Jonathan the son of Gershon the son of Manasseh, and his sons, were nesters among the tribe of Dan until the time that they were carried away captive out of the land.
31. And they set among them the image of Micah, which he had made, as long as the house of God was in Shiloh.

(Judges)

Chapter 19

Those at Gibeah are committing a shameful and most criminal act.

1. In those days there was no king in Israel. And a Levite man was a stranger by the side of mount Ephraim, and had taken him a concubine to wife of Bethlehemjudah.
2. And when she had walked beside him, she ran from him to her father's house to Bethlehemjudah, and was there four months.
3. And her husband arose, and went after her, and spake kindly unto her, and brought her again unto him: and he had a lad and a pair of asses with him. And she led him into her father's house. And when the damsel's father saw him, he was glad, and received him.
4. And his brother in law, the damsel's father, kept him, that he abode with him three days; eating and drinking, and lodging there by night.
5. And the fourth day they rose up early in the morning, and he arose, and would have gone. And the damsel's father said unto his son in law, Give thy heart first with a morsel of bread, and then ye shall go.
6. And they sat down, and did eat together, and drank. And the damsel's father said unto the man, Stay thou the night, and let thy heart be merry.
7. And when the man arose, and was about to depart, his brother's servant constrained him to tarry there overnight.

8. And in the morning of the fifth day he rose up early, and would go. Then said the damsel's father, Feed thine heart, and let us tarry till the day be done. So the two of them ate together.

9. And the man arose, and would have gone with his concubine, and with his lad. But his brother's father, the damsel's father, said unto him, Behold, the day is gone, and it will be evening; tarry thou tonight. Behold, here is a lodging place this day: tarry thou here for the night, and let thine heart be merry: and in the morning rise early, and go thy way unto thy tabernacle.

10. But the man would not tarry overnight, but rose up, and departed, and came unto Jebus, that is, Jerusalem, with his pair of asses loaded, and his concubine with him.

11. And when they were come to Jebus, the day was almost gone. And the lad said unto his lord, Sweet lord, show us, and let us enter into this city of the Jebusites, and tarry in there overnight.

12. And his master said unto him, We will not go into the city of strangers, which are not of the children of Israel, but we will go over to Gibeah.

13. And he said unto his lad: Go away, that we may come to a place, and tarry in Gibeah, or in Ramah, for the night.

14. And they departed, and walked, and the sun went down hard upon them at Gibeah, which is under Benjamin.

15. And they entered in there, that they might come in, and tarry in Gibeah for the night. And when he was come in, he sat down in the street of the city: for there was none to lodge them in the house that night.

16. And, behold, there came an old man from his work out of the field in the evening; and he also was of mount Ephraim, and a stranger in Gibeah: but the men of the place were the sons of Jemini.

17. And when he lifted up his eyes, and saw the stranger in the street, he said unto him, Whither goest thou? and whence comest thou?

18. And he said unto him, We are journeying from Bethlehemjudah, until we come to the side of mount Ephraim, whence I am; and I went to Bethlehemjudah, and am now going to the house of the LORD; and no man will lodge with me.

19. We have straw and provender for our asses, and bread and wine for me, and for thy handmaid, and for the lad that is with thy servant; that we lack nothing: 20. And the old man said, Peace be unto thee. All that thou lackest thou shalt find with me; only stay not in the street overnight.

21. And brought him into his house, and fed the asses; and they washed their feet, and did eat and drink.

22. And when their heart was in good cheer, behold, the wicked men of the city came and compassed the house, and knocked at the door, and said unto the old man the landlord, Bring forth the man that is come into thine house, that we may know him.

23. But the man, the landlord, went out unto them, and said unto them: Do not, my brethren, do evil after this man is come into my house; do not do such folly!

24. Behold, I have a daughter yet a virgin, and this a concubine: them will I bring forth unto you, and ye shall put to shame, and do unto them as ye please: but in this man do not such folly.

25. But the people would not hearken unto him. Then the man took hold of his concubine, and brought her forth unto them. And they knew her, and toiled all night until the morning: and when the dawn was come, they let her go.

26. And the woman came hard before morning, and fell down at the door of the man's house, where her lord was within, and lay there until it was light.

27. And when their lord arose in the morning, and opened the door of the house, and went out to go his way, behold, his concubine was at the gate of the house, and her hands were upon the threshold.

28. And he said unto her, Arise, and let us go. But she answered not. Then he took her upon his ass, and arose, and went to his place.

29. And when he was come home, he took a knife, and laid hold on his concubine, and cut her in twain, bone and all, and sent her into all the coasts of Israel.

30. And he that saw it said, This thing hath not been done, nor seen, since the children of Israel came out of the land of Egypt unto this day. Now therefore consider these things, and give counsel, and declare them.

(Judges)

Chapter 20

The tribe of Benjamin is almost completely wiped out.

1. And the children of Israel went out, and gathered themselves together as one man from Dan unto Beer-sheba, and from the land of Gilead, unto the LORD to Mizpeh.
2. And the rulers of all the people of all the tribes of Israel stood by in the congregation of God, four hundred thousand men of foot, unsheathing the sword.
3. And the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel were gone up to Mizpah. And the children of Israel said, Tell me, how is this evil done?
4. And the Levite, the husband of the woman that was slain, answered and said: I came to Gibeah of Benjamin with my cherub, to dwell there overnight.
5. And the citizens of Gibeah arose against me, and compassed me about in the house by night, and sought to slay me; and they defiled my concubine, and she died.
6. And I took my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her into all the fields of the inheritance of Israel: for they have done wickedness and folly in Israel.
7. Behold, all ye children of Israel; take counsel, and do it.
8. And all the people arose as one man, and said, Let no man enter into his tent, nor return into his house,
9. But this will we now do against Gibeah:
10. Let us draw lots, and take ten men of an hundred, and an hundred of a thousand, and a thousand of ten thousand, out of all the tribes of Israel, to take meat for the people, that they may come and do to Gibeah of Benjamin according to all their folly which they have done in Israel.
11. So all the men of Israel gathered themselves together unto the city as one man, and joined themselves together.
12. And the tribes of Israel sent men unto all the families of Benjamin, saying, What wickedness is this that is done among you?
13. Bring therefore the men, the wicked men of Gibeah, that we may kill them, and put away the evil from Israel. But the children of Benjamin would not hearken unto the voice of their brethren the children of Israel,
14. But they gathered themselves together out of the cities unto Gibeah, to go out to battle against the children of Israel.

15. And there were numbered that day of the children of Benjamin out of the cities twenty and six thousand men that drew sword, beside the men of Gibeah, of whom there were numbered seven hundred choice men.

16. And of all this people seven hundred men were chosen, which were left, and could hit a hair with the sling, that they missed not.

17. And of the men of Israel, beside Benjamin, were numbered four hundred thousand men that wielded the sword, and all the valiant men.

18. And they arose, and went up to the house of God, and asked God, saying: Who shall go up before us to begin war with the children of Benjamin? And the LORD said, Judah shall begin.

19. So the children of Israel rose up in the morning, and pitched before Gibeah.

20. And every man of Israel went out to fight with Benjamin, and sent to fight against Gibeah.

21. And the children of Benjamin came out of Gibeah, and smote twenty and two thousand of Israel that day.

22. But the people, the men of Israel, arose, and prepared themselves to fight still more in the same place where they had prepared themselves the day before.

23. And the children of Israel went up, and wept before the LORD until the even: and they asked the LORD, saying, Shall we come near more to fight with the children of Benjamin our brethren? And the LORD said, Go up unto them.

24. And it came to pass, when the children of Israel were come unto the children of Benjamin the second day,

25. And the Benjamites came out of Gibeah against them that day, and smote of the children of Israel eighteen thousand more to the ground, all of them with the sword.

26. And all the children of Israel went up, and all the people, and came unto the house of God, and wept, and tarried there before the LORD, and fasted all the day until the even, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

27. And the children of Israel asked the LORD, saying, There was the ark of the covenant of God there at that time,

28. And Phinehas the son of Eleazar, Aaron's son, stood before him at that time, and said, Shall we go forth more to fight with the children of Benjamin our brethren, or shall I desist? And the LORD said, Go up; to morrow I will deliver them into your hand.

29. And the children of Israel set an ambush upon Gibeah round about.

30. And the children of Israel went up the third day unto the children of Benjamin, and pitched at Gibeah, as twice before.

31. And the children of Benjamin came out to meet the people, and tore themselves out of the city, and began to smite and to wound of the people, as they had done twice before, in the field, in two highways, the one to Bethel, and the other to Gibeah, about thirty men of Israel.

32. And the children of Benjamin said, They are smitten before us, as before. But the children of Israel said: Let us flee, that we may pluck them out of the city into the street.

33. And all the men of Israel arose out of their place, and prepared themselves for Baal-thamar.

And the ambush of Israel sprang up in his place from the cave of Gaba.

34. And there came to Gibeah ten thousand men chosen out of all Israel, and the battle was sore: but they knew not that evil should befall them.

35. So the LORD smote Benjamin before the children of Israel, and the children of Israel destroyed that day twenty and five thousand and an hundred men in Benjamin, all of them with the sword.

36. For when the children of Benjamin saw that they were smitten, the men of Israel gave them place: for they relied upon the ambush which they had set at Gibeah.

37. And the ambush also hasted, and came forth to Gibeah, and went up, and smote the whole city with the edge of the sword.

38. And they had a charge together, the men of Israel and the ambush, to fall upon them with the sword, when the smoke was lifted up from the city.

39. And when the men of Israel turned in the battle, and Benjamin began to smite, and wounded in Israel about thirty men, and thought that they were smitten before us, as in the former battle,

40. And there began to rise up a smoke from the city straight above. And Benjamin turned behind him, and, behold, the city ascended up to heaven.

41. And the men of Israel also turned, and affrighted the men of Benjamin: for they saw that evil was about to befall them;

42. And they turned before the men of Israel toward the wilderness. And the battle followed them, and they that came in from the cities destroyed them within.

43. And they compassed Benjamin, and pursued after him unto Menuah, and trampled them before Gibeah, toward the rising of the sun.

44. And there fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men, all of them valiant men.

45. And they turned, and fled to the wilderness, unto the rock Rimmon: and in the same way they slew five thousand men; and they followed them in the rear unto Gideom, and slew two thousand of them.

46. And there fell that day of Benjamin twenty and five thousand men that wielded the sword, all of them men of valour.

47. Only six hundred men turned and fled to the wilderness unto the rock Rimmon: and they dwelt in the rock Rimmon four moons.

48. And the men of Israel came again unto the children of Benjamin, and smote with the edge of the sword them that were in the city, both men and cattle, and all that was found: and all the cities that were found were burnt with fire.

(Judges)

Chapter 21

How the tribe of Benjamin was rebuilt.

1. And the men of Israel had sworn at Mizpah, saying, No man shall give his daughter to the Benjamites to wife.

2. And the people came unto the house of God, and tarried there until the even before God: and they lifted up their voice, and wept greatly.

3. And said, O LORD God of Israel, why is this come to pass in Israel, that this day there is less of a tribe of Israel?

4. And the next morning the people rose up early, and built there an altar, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.

5. And the children of Israel said: Who is there of the tribes of Israel that came not up with the congregation unto the LORD? For there was a great oath made, that whosoever came not up to the LORD to Mizpeh should surely surely die.

6. And the children of Israel repented them of Benjamin their brethren, and said: This day is a tribe broken off from Israel.

7. How shall we do unto them, that the rest may have wives? For we have sworn by the LORD, that we will not give them wives of our daughters.

8. And they said: Who is there of the tribes of Israel that came not up to the LORD to Mizpeh?

And, behold, there was none in the camp of the congregation of Jabesh in Gilead.

9. For they numbered the people, and, behold, there was not a citizen of Jabesh in Gilead.

10. And the congregation sent thither twelve thousand men of valiant valour, and commanded them, saying: Go and smite with the edge of the sword the inhabitants of Jabesh in Gilead, and their wives and children.

11. But thus shall ye do: All things that are male, and all women that lie with man, banish them.

12. And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh in Gilead four hundred damsels, virgins, which were not with any man. And they brought them into the camp to Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

13. And all the congregation sent, and spake unto the children of Benjamin that were in the rock Rimmon, and called unto them peaceably.

14. So the children of Benjamin came again at that time; and they gave them the wives which they had received of the women of Jabesh in Gilead: and they found none more so.

15. And the people repented against Benjamin, because the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.

16. And the elders of the congregation said: What shall we do, that the rest of them may have wives also? For the women of Benjamin are destroyed.

17. And they said: The remnant of Benjamin must keep their inheritance, lest one tribe be cut off from Israel.

18. And we cannot give them our daughters to wife: for the children of Israel have sworn, saying, Cursed be he that giveth a wife to the Benjamites.

19. And they said, Behold, there is a yearly feast of the LORD in Shiloh, which is on the north side toward Bethel, toward the rising of the sun, in the way that goeth up from Bethel to Shechem; and on the south side toward Libona.

20. And they commanded the children of Benjamin, saying: Go and lie in wait in the vineyards.

21. And it shall come to pass, when ye see the daughters of Shiloh come out with dancing, that ye shall go forth out of the vineyards, and take every man his wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go into the land of Benjamin.

22. And when their fathers or their brethren come to make terms with us, we will say unto them, Be merciful unto them: for we took them not with strife, but ye would not give them; the iniquity is now yours.

23. And the children of Benjamin did so, and took wives according to their number of the flocks which they had spoiled, and went and dwelt in their inheritance, and built cities, and dwelt therein.

24. And the children of Israel departed from thence at that time, every man to his tribe, and every man to his family, and departed every man to his inheritance.

25. In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which seemed right unto him.

Text of the unrevised Luther Bible 1545:

DeepL English Translation

[Processed by BackToLuther. German text published here.]

The Book of Ruth ^

Chapter 1

Ruth travels with Naemi to Bethlehem

1. In the days of the judges there was a famine in the land. And a certain man of Bethlehemjudah went into the country of Moab, with his wife and two sons.

2. And his name was Elimelech, and Naomi his wife, and Mahlon and Chilion his two sons, Ephrathites, of Bethlehemjudah. And when they were come into the land of Moab, they abode there.

3. And Elimelech Naomi's husband died, and she was left with her two sons.

4. they took Moabitish women. One was named Arpa, and the other Ruth. And when they had dwelt there about ten years,

5. And Mahlon and Chilion died, both of them; and the woman was left unto both the sons, and to her husband.

6. And she arose with her two cords, and departed out of the land of Moab: for she had heard in the land of Moab that the LORD had visited his people, and given them bread.

7. And she went out of the place where she was, and her two cords with her. And she went by the way, that she might return into the land of Judah,

8. And she said unto her two cords, Go and return, every one to her mother's house: the LORD have mercy on you, as ye have had mercy on the dead, and on me.

9. The LORD grant that ye may find rest, every one in her husband's house. And kissed them.

And they lifted up their voice, and wept.

10. And said unto her, We will go with thee unto thy people.

11. And Naomi said, Return, my daughters; why will ye go with me? How can I have children in my womb to be your husbands?

12. Return, my daughters, and go; for I am now too old to take a husband. And if I say, It is to be hoped that I shall take a husband this night, and bring forth children, 13. How can ye wait till they be grown up? How will ye pardon, that ye should not take men?

Not so, my daughters: for I am very sorry for you, because the hand of the LORD is gone out upon me.

14. And they lifted up their voice, and wept more. And Arpah kissed her sister in law: but Ruth abode with her.

15. And she said, Behold, thy sister in law is turned unto her people, and unto her God: turn thou also after thy sister in law.

16. And Ruth said, Speak not to me, that I should leave thee, and turn from thee. Whither thou goest, I will go: whither thou stayest, I will stay. Thy people are my people, and thy God is my God.

17. Where thou diest, there die I also; there will I be buried also. The LORD do this for me, and this for me: Death shall separate me from thee.

18. And when she saw that she was minded to go with her, she left off speaking to her of it.

19. So the two went together until they came to Bethlehem. And when they were come to Bethlehem, all the city was moved about them, saying, Is this Naomi?

20. And she said unto them: Call me not Naomi, but Mara: for the Almighty hath greatly grieved me.

21. I went out full, but the LORD brought me home empty. Why then call ye me Naomi, when the LORD hath humbled me, and the Almighty hath afflicted me?

22. And it came to pass about the time of the barley harvest, that Naomi and Ruth the Moabitess, her wife, returned from the land of Moab unto Bethlehem.

(Ruth)

Chapter 2

Ruth picks up ears of corn in Boaz's field.

1. There was also a man, the friend of Naomi, of the family of Elimelech, whose name was Boaz; he was a goodly man.

2. And Ruth the Moabitess said unto Naomi, Let me go into the field, and glean ears of corn, after him that I find grace in. And she said unto her, Go thy way, my daughter.

3. And she went, and came, and gleaned after the reapers in the field. And it came to pass, that the same field was Boaz's, who was of the family of Elimelech.

4. And, behold, Boaz came even from Bethlehem, and said unto the reapers, The LORD be with you. And they answered: The LORD bless thee.

5. And Boaz said unto his lad that was set over the reapers, Whose is the damsel?

6. And the lad that was set over the reapers answered and said, It is the damsel the Moabitess, which came again with Naomi out of the country of Moab.

7. For she said, Let me glean, I pray thee, and gather me among the sheaves after the reapers: and she came and stood there from the morning until now, and tarried a little at home.

8. And Boaz said unto Ruth, Hearest thou, my daughter? Thou shalt not go to glean another field; neither go thou hence, but keep thee with my damsels;

9. And, behold, where they cut in the field, go after them. I have commanded my son that no man should touch thee. And if thou thirst, go to the vessel, and drink where my servants draw.

10. And she fell on her face, and worshipped the earth, and said unto him, Wherefore have I found grace in thine eyes, that thou shouldest know me, which am a stranger?

11. And Boaz answered and said unto her, It is told me all that thou hast done unto thy wife after the death of thy husband, that thou hast left thy father, and thy mother, and thy country, and hast gone unto a people which thou knewest not before.

12. The LORD repay thee for thy deed: and let thy reward be perfect with the LORD God of Israel, unto whom thou camest, that thou mayest have confidence under his wings.

13. And she said, Let me find grace in thine eyes, my lord: for thou hast comforted me, and hast spoken kindly unto thine handmaid, when I am not as one of thy handmaids.

14. And Boaz said unto her, When it is time to eat, come hither, and eat of the bread, and dip thy morsel in the vinegar. And she sat down by the side of the reapers. And he put singing before her: and she did eat, and was filled, and left over.

15. And when she arose to read, Boaz commanded his lads, saying, Let her also read among the sheaves, and shame her not.

16. And of the heaps also let it remain, and let it lie, that they may gather it up; and let no man reproach them for it.

17. So she gleaned in the field until even, and beat out that which she had gleaned: and it was about an ephah of barley.

18. And she took it up, and came into the city. And her sister in law saw it, what she had read.

And she drew out, and gave her that which was left her, whereof she was filled.

19. And her husband's wife said unto her, Where hast thou read this day, and where hast thou wrought? Blessed is he that knoweth thee. And she told her husband's wife with whom she had wrought, saying, The man with whom I wrought this day is called Boaz.

20. And Naomi said unto her cord, Blessed be he unto the LORD, for he hath not left his mercy, both on the living, and on the dead. And Naomi said unto her, The man is ours, and he is our inheritance.

21. And Ruth the Moabite said, He said also this unto me, Thou shalt cleave unto my lads, until they have reaped all for me.

22. And Naomi said unto Ruth her cord, It is better, my daughter, that thou go out with his damsels, lest any man spoil thee in another field.

23. So she went to the damsels of Boaz, and reaped until the harvest of barley and wheat was ended. And she came again to her wife in law.

(Ruth)

Chapter 3

Ruth gets good notice about future marriage.

1. And Naomi her sister in law said unto her, My daughter, I will give thee rest, and it shall be well with thee.

2. Now Boaz our friend, where thou hast been with the damsel, winnoweth barley in his threshingfloor this night.

3. Bathe thyself therefore, and anoint thee, and put on thy garment, and go down into the threshingfloor, that no man may know thee, till they have eaten and drunk wholly.

4. And when he lieth down, mark the place where he lieth down; and come and uncover at his feet, and lie down, and he shall tell thee what thou shalt do.

5. And she said unto her, All that thou sayest unto me I will do.

6. And she went down to the threshingfloor, and did according to all that her sister in law had commanded.

7. And when Boaz had eaten and drunk, his heart was merry; and he came and lay behind an almond. And she came softly, and uncovered at his feet, and lay down.

8. And it came to pass, when midnight was come, that the man was afraid and shaken: and, behold, a woman lay at his feet.

9. And he said, Who art thou? And she answered: I am Ruth thy handmaid. Spread thy wing over thy handmaid, for thou art the heir.

10. And he said, Blessed art thou unto the LORD, my daughter. Thou hast done a better mercy afterward than thou didst before, in that thou hast not gone after the young men, rich or poor.

11. Now, my daughter, fear not. All that thou sayest I will do unto thee: for all the city of my people know that thou art a virtuous woman.

12. Well, it is true that I am the heir; but there is one nearer than I.
13. Stay the night. Tomorrow, if he take thee, well; but if he desire not to take thee, I will take thee, as the LORD liveth. Sleep till to morrow.
14. And she slept at his feet until the morning. And she arose before any man knew another: and he thought that no man might know that a woman was come into the threshingfloor.
15. And she said, Bring forth the cloak that thou hast on, and shut it. And she shut it. And he measured six measures of barley, and laid it upon her. And he came into the city.
16. And she came to her husband's wife, and she said, How is it with thee, my daughter? And she told her all that the man had done unto her,
17. And he said, These six measures of barley gave he me; for he said, Thou shalt not come empty unto thy wife in law.
18. And she said, Be still, my daughter, until thou know where it goeth forth: for the man will not rest, but he shall finish it this day.

(Ruth)

Chapter 4

The marriage of Boaz to Ruth is consummated and blessed.

1. And Boaz went up into the gate, and sat down there. And, behold, as the heir passed by, Boaz spake unto him, saying, Come and sit down hither or thither. And he came and sat down.
2. And he took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, Sit ye down. And they sat down.
3. And he said unto the heir: Naomi, which is come again from the land of Moab, offer for sale the piece of ground that was our brother's, Elimelech's.
4. Therefore I thought to bring it up in thine ears, saying, If thou wilt inherit it, buy it before the people, and before the elders of my people: but if thou wilt not inherit it, tell me, that I may know it: for there is no inheritance without thee, nor I after thee. And he said: I will inherit it.
5. And Boaz said, When thou buyest the field at the hand of Naomi, then thou shalt take Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, to raise up a name for the dead upon his inheritance.
6. And he said, I will not inherit it, lest peradventure I should destroy mine inheritance. Inherit thou that which I shall inherit: for I will not inherit it.

7. And it was a custom in Israel of old time, that, if any man would not inherit, nor buy, any possession, that there should be any thing, he should take off his shoe, and give it unto him: this was the testimony in Israel.

8. And the heir said unto Boaz, Buy thou it: and he took off his shoe.

9. And Boaz said unto the elders and to all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's, of the hand of Naomi.

10. And Ruth the Moabite, Mahlon's wife, will I take to wife; that I may raise up a name for him that is dead upon his inheritance, and that his name be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place. And his name shall not be cut off from among his brethren, nor out of the gate of his place: ye are witnesses of this this day.

11. And all the people that were in the gate, and the elders, said: We are witnesses. The LORD make the woman that cometh into thine house like Rachel and Leah, which built the house of Israel; and grow up very much in Ephrathah, and be glorified in Bethlehem.

12. And let thy house be like the house of Pharez, whom Tamar bare unto Judah, of the seed which the LORD shall give thee of this damsel.

13. So Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife. And while he lay with her, the LORD gave her to be with child, and she bare a son.

14. And the women said unto Naomi, Blessed be the LORD, which hath not caused an heir to depart from thee at this time, that his name should remain in Israel.

15. He shall refresh thee, and keep thee in thy old age. For thy cord, which loved thee, bare him, which is better unto thee than seven sons.

16. And Naomi took the child, and laid him in her bosom, and became his keeper.

17. And their neighbours called his name, and said: Naomi is born a child; and they called his name Obed, which is the father of Jesse, which is David's father.

18. This is the family of Perez: Perez begat Hezron;

19. Hezron begat Ram; Ram begat Amminadab;

20. Amminadab begat Nahesson; Nahesson begat Salma;

21. Salma begat Boaz; Boaz begat Obed;

22. Obed begat Jesse; Jesse begat David.

Text of the unrevised Luther Bible 1545:

DeepL English Translation

[Processed by BackToLuther. German text published here.]

The first book of Samuel (1 Samuel) ^

Chapter 1

Samuel is born

1. There was a man of Ramathaim-zophim, of mount Ephraim, whose name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Thohu, the son of Zuph, which was of Ephrath.

2. And he had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah.

And Peninnah had children, and Hannah had no children.

3. And the same man went up from his city in his own time, and worshipped, and offered sacrifice unto the LORD of hosts in Shiloh. And there were there priests unto the LORD

Hophni and Phinehas, the two sons of Eli.

4. And it came to pass one day, when Elkanah offered, that he gave pieces to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters.

5. But unto Hannah he gave a piece sorrowful: for he loved Hannah: but the LORD had shut up her womb.

6. And her adversaries afflicted her, and greatly defied her, that the LORD had closed up her womb.

7. So it was every year, when she went up to the house of the LORD, that she was grieved, and wept, and did not eat.

8. And Elkanah her husband said unto her, Hannah, why weepest thou, and why eatest thou nothing, and why is thy heart evil? am I not better unto thee than ten sons?

9. And Hannah arose after she had eaten in Shiloh, and after she had drunk. (And Eli the priest sat on a seat by the side of the temple of the LORD.)

10. And she was sorrowful in her heart, and prayed unto the LORD, and wept.

11. And he vowed a vow, saying, O LORD of hosts, if thou wilt look upon the affliction of thine handmaid, and remember me, and wilt not forget thine handmaid, and wilt give thy handmaid a son, then I will give him unto the LORD all the days of his life, and there shall no razor come upon his head.

12. And when she had prayed long before the LORD, Eli watched her mouth.

13. For Hannah spake in her heart; but her lips moved, and her voice was not heard. And Eli thought that she was drunken,

14. And said unto her, How long wilt thou be drunken? Let the wine come from thee, which thou hast with thee.

15. And Hannah answered and said, Nay, my lord, I am a sorrowful woman. I have not drunk wine or strong drink, but have poured out my heart before the LORD.

16. Thou shalt not regard thine handmaid as a loose woman: for out of my great grief and sadness have I spoken hitherto.

17. And Eli answered and said, Go in peace. The God of Israel will give thee thy request, which thou hast asked of him.

18. And she said, Let thine handmaid find grace in thine eyes. So the woman went her way, and did eat, and saw no more sorrow.

19. And they rose up early in the morning, and worshipped before the LORD, and returned, and came home to Ramath. And Elkanah knew Hannah his wife: and the LORD remembered her.

20. And when some days were expired, she conceived, and bare a son, and called his name Samuel: for I asked him of the LORD.

21. And when the man Elkanah went up, he and all his household, to offer the sacrifice to the LORD in due season, and his vows,

22. But Hannah went not up with them, but said unto her husband, Till the child be weaned, then will I bring him, that he may appear before the LORD, and dwell there for ever.

23. And Elkanah her husband said unto her, Do as thou wilt; tarry till thou wean him: and let the LORD confirm that which he hath spoken. So the woman stayed and suckled her son until she weaned him.

24. And she brought him up with her, after she had weaned him, with three bullocks, with an ephah of flour, and a flagon of wine, and brought him into the house of the LORD in Shiloh: but the lad was yet young.

25. And they slew a bullock, and brought the lad to Eli.

26. And she said, O my lord, as thy soul liveth, my lord, I am the woman that stood here with thee, and besought the LORD,

27. Since I asked for this boy. Now the Lord has given my request, which I asked of him.

28. Therefore I give him again unto the LORD all the days of his life, because he is desired of the LORD. And there they worshipped the Lord.

(1 Samuel)

Chapter 2

Hannah's praise song. Education of Samuel. Wickedness of the sons of Eli.

1. And Hannah prayed, and said, My heart is glad in the LORD; my horn is lifted up in the LORD. My mouth is opened wide against mine enemies: for I rejoice in thy salvation.

2. There is none holy, save the LORD: there is none beside thee, neither is there any stronghold, as our God is.

3. Forsake your great boasting and your boasting, and let out of your mouth that which is old: for the LORD is a God that knoweth, and suffereth not such boasting to prosper.

4. The bow of the strong is broken, and the weak are girded with strength.

5. They that were full were sold for bread, and they that famished hungered no more, till the barren woman bare seven, and she that had many children fainted.

6. The LORD killeth, and quickeneth; he bringeth into hell, and bringeth out again.

7. The LORD maketh poor, and maketh rich: he bringeth low, and exalteth.

8. He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and exalteth the needy out of the dunghill, to set him among princes, and to make him inherit the throne of honour. For the end of the world is the LORD'S, and he hath set the foundation of the earth upon it.

9. He shall keep the feet of his saints: but the wicked shall be destroyed in darkness: for much fortune profiteth no man.

10. They that dispute with the LORD shall perish: upon them shall he thunder in heaven. The LORD shall judge the end of the world; he shall give power unto his king, and exalt the horn of his anointed.

11. And Elkanah went to Ramath unto his house: and the lad was the LORD'S servant before Eli the priest.

12. But the sons of Eli were wicked men: they inquired not after the LORD, 13. Nor according to the law of the priests unto the people. And if any man would offer any thing, the priest's lad came, because the meat was boiling, having one with three prongs in his hand;

14. And he thrust it into the crucible, or into the caldron, or into the pan, or into the pot: and that which he brought forth with the crucible the priest took away. So they did unto all Israel that were come to Shiloh.

15. And it came to pass in like manner, before they had kindled the fat, that the priest's lad came and said unto him that offered the sacrifice, Give me the flesh to roast for the priest: for he will not take flesh of thee cooked, but raw.

16. And it came to pass, when any man said unto him, Let the fat be burned as it is fit to be burned to day, and afterward take that which thy heart desireth, that he said unto him, Thou shalt give it me now: if not, I will take it by force.

17. Therefore the sin of the children was very great in the sight of the LORD: for the people blasphemed the meat offering of the LORD.

18. And Samuel was a servant before the LORD: and the lad was girded with a linen ephod.

19. For this his mother made him a little skirt, and brought it up to him in his season, when she went up with her husband to offer the sacrifices in his season.

20. And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, The LORD give thee seed of this woman for the petition which she asked of the LORD. And they went to their place.

21. And the LORD visited Hannah, and she conceived, and bare three sons and two daughters.

And Samuel the lad increased with the LORD.

22. And Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons did unto all Israel, and that they slept with the women that ministered at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

23. And he said unto them: Why do ye these things? For I hear your wickedness from all this people.

24. Not so, my children, this is not a good cry that I hear. Ye do transgress the LORD'S people.

25. If a man sin against a man, the judge is able to make him whole. But if any man sin against the LORD, who can plead for him? But they hearkened not unto their father's voice: for the LORD purposed to kill them.

26. But the lad Samuel went and increased, and was accepted of the LORD, and of men.

27. And there came a man of God unto Eli, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, I have manifested myself unto thy father's house, while they were yet in Egypt, in Pharaoh's house, 28. And I have chosen him there for me in the sight of all the tribes of Israel for the priesthood, to offer upon mine altar, and to burn incense, and to bear the ephod before me: and I have given unto thy father's house all the fires of the children of Israel.

29. Wherefore then hast thou lusted against my sacrifices and my meat offerings, which I have commanded in the tabernacle? And thou honouredst thy sons more than me, that ye should eat of the best of all the meat offerings of my people Israel.

30. Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I have said, Thy house and thy father's house shall walk before me for ever. But now saith the LORD, Be it far from me: but whosoever shall honour me, him will I honour also: but whosoever shall despise me, him shall he despise again.

31. Behold, the days come, that I will break in twain thine arm, and the arm of thy father's house, and there shall be no age in thine house.

32. And thou shalt see thine adversary in the tabernacle of all good that shall come unto Israel: and there shall be no age in thy father's house for ever.

33. But I will not cut off from thee any man from off mine altar, that thine eyes may fail, and that thy soul may mourn: and all the multitude of thy house shall die, when they have become men.

34. And this shall be a sign unto thee, which shall come upon thy two sons, Hophni and Phinehas: in one day shall they both die.

35. And I will raise me up a faithful priest, which shall do according to mine heart and according to my soul: and I will build him a sure house, and he shall walk before mine anointed for ever.

36. And he that is left of thy house shall come and fall down before him for a penny of silver and for a morsel of bread, and shall say, Let me to a priest's portion, that I may eat a morsel of bread.

(1 Samuel)

Chapter 3

Samuel is called and made respectable.

1. And when Samuel the lad ministered unto the LORD under Eh, the word of the LORD was dear in those days, and there was little divination.

2. And it came to pass, that at that time Eli lay in his place, and his eyes began to be dark, that he could not see.

3. And Samuel lay in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was, before the lamp of God went out.

4. And the LORD called Samuel. And he answered, Behold, here am I.

5. And he ran unto Eli, and said, Behold, here am I, thou hast called me. And he said: I called thee not; go again, and lie down to sleep. And he went and lay down to sleep.

6. And the LORD called again, Samuel. And Samuel arose, and went to Eli, and said, Behold, here am I, thou hast called me. And he said: I called thee not, my son: go again, and lie down.

7. But Samuel knew not the LORD, neither was the word of the LORD yet revealed unto him.

8. And the LORD called Samuel the third time. And he arose, and went to Eli, and said, Behold, here am I, thou hast called me. And Eh perceived that the LORD called unto the lad, 9. And he said unto him, Return, and lie down; and when thou art called, say, Speak, O LORD: for thy servant heareth. And Samuel went and lay down in his place.

10. And the LORD came and stood there, and cried as before, Samuel, Samuel. And Samuel said, Speak; for thy servant heareth.

11. And the LORD said unto Samuel, Behold, I do a thing in Israel, that whosoever shall hear it, both his ears shall ring.

12. In that day will I raise up against Eh that which I have spoken against his house; I will begin it, and I will finish it.

13. For I told him, that I would be a judge of his house for ever for iniquity: for he knew the wickedness of his children, and saw not that they were wicked.

14. Therefore I have sworn unto the house of Eli, that the iniquity of the house of Eli shall not be atoned for, neither with sacrifice, nor with meat offering for ever.

15. And Samuel lay till the morning, and opened the door of the house of the LORD. And Samuel feared to tell the vision of Eli.

16. And Eli called unto him, and said, Samuel, my son. And he answered, Behold, here am I.

17. And he said, What is the word that is spoken unto thee? Do not conceal anything from me.

God do you this and that, where you keep from me something that is told you!

18. And Samuel told him all things, and hid nothing from him. And he said, It is the LORD; do that which is good in his sight.

19. And Samuel increased, and the LORD was with him: and none of his words fell to the ground.

20. And all Israel, from Dan even unto Beer-sheba, knew that Samuel was a faithful prophet of the LORD.

21. And the LORD appeared again in Shiloh: for the LORD was revealed unto Samuel in Shiloh by the word of the LORD.

Ch. 4, v. 1. And Samuel began to preach unto all Israel.

(1 Samuel)

Chapter 4

Israel's defeat. Kidnapping of the ark of the covenant. Death of Eli and his sons.

And Israel went out to meet the Philistines to battle, and encamped at Eben-Ezer. And the Philistines encamped at Aphek.

2. And they armed themselves against Israel. And the battle was far divided. And Israel was smitten before the Philistines, and they smote in order in the field about four thousand men.

3. And when the people were come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, Why hath the LORD smitten us this day before the Philistines? Let us take unto us the ark of the covenant of the LORD from Shiloh, and let it come among us, that it may save us out of the hand of our enemies.

4. And the people sent to Shiloh, and brought thence the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, which sitteth over the cherubims. And there were the two sons of Eli with the ark of the covenant of God, Hophni and Phinehas.

5. And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD was come into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, and the earth resounded.

6. And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shouting, they said: What is the noise of this great shouting in the camp of the Eberians? And when they heard that the ark of the LORD was come into the camp,

7. And they were afraid, and said: God is come into the camp: and they said, Woe is us: for it was not so before.

8. woe is us! Who will deliver us from the hand of these mighty gods? These are the gods that smote Egypt with all manner of plague in the wilderness.

9. Be ye therefore men of good courage, O ye Philistines, that ye serve not the Ebrams, as they have served you. Be men, and fight.

10. And the Philistines fought, and Israel was smitten, and every man fled to his tent. And there was a very great slaughter: and there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen.

11. And the ark of God was taken, and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

12. And one of Benjamin ran out of the army, and came to Shiloh the same day, having rent his clothes, and having sprinkled earth upon his head.

13. And, behold, when he was come in, Eli sat upon the throne to look toward the way: for his heart was troubled over the ark of God. And when the man was come into the city, he told it: and all the city cried out.

14. And when Eli heard the loud cry, he said, What is this loud tumult? And the man came hurrying, and told Eli.

15. Now Eli was ninety and eight years old, and his eyes were dark, that he could not see.) 16. And the man said unto Eh, I come, and am fled this day out of the army. And he said, How is it, my son?

17. And the messenger answered and said: Israel is fled before the Philistines, and there is a great slaughter among the people: and thy two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead; and the ark of God is taken.

18. And when he remembered the ark of God, he fell back from the seat of the gate, and brake his neck in twain, and died: for he was old and a heavy man. And he judged Israel forty years.

19. And his wife, Phinehas' wife, was with child, and was about to lie. And when she heard that the ark of God was taken, and that her husband and her husband were dead, she bowed herself, and bare the child: for it came to her woe.

20. And when she was dead, the women that sat by her said: Fear not, for thou hast a young son.

But she answered nothing, neither took it to heart.

21. And she called the name of the lad Ikabod, and said, The glory is departed from Israel; because the ark of God was taken, and her husband, and her husband.

22. And he said again, The glory is departed from Israel: for the ark of God is taken away.

(1 Samuel)

Chapter 5

Plague of the Philistines because of the kidnapped ark of the covenant.

1. And the Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod, 2. Into the house of Dagon, and set them by the side of Dagon.

3. And when they of Ashdod arose early on the morrow, they found Dagon lying on his face in the earth before the ark of the LORD. And they took Dagon, and set him again in his place.

4. And when they arose early on the morrow, they found Dagon again lying on his face in the earth before the ark of the LORD, and his head and his two hands cut off upon the threshold, and his body alone lying thereon.

5. Therefore the priests of Dagon, and all that go into Dagon's house, shall not tread upon the threshold of Dagon at Ashdod unto this day.

6. But the hand of the LORD was heavy upon them of Ashdod, and destroyed them, and smote Ashdod, and all the coasts thereof, in secret places.

7. And when the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, Let not the ark of the God of Israel abide with us: for his hand is too hard upon us, and upon Dagon our god.

8. And they sent and gathered all the lords of the Philistines together, and said: What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And they said, Let them of Gath carry about the ark of the God of Israel.

9. And they carried about the ark of the God of Israel. And as they carried it about, there was a very great tumult in the city by the hand of the LORD, and they smote the people of the city, both small and great; and they had a secret plague in secret places.

10. And they sent the ark of the LORD to Ekron. And when the ark of God was come to Ekron, they of Ekron cried out, saying, They have brought the ark of God round about unto me, to slay me and my people.

11. And they sent and gathered all the lords of the Philistines, and said, Send again the ark of the God of Israel unto his place, that it slay me not, nor my people. For the hand of GOD made a very great tumult with strangling in all the city.

12. And those that died not were smitten in secret places, so that the cry of the city went up to heaven.

Chapter 6

The ark of the covenant is delivered to the Israelites again.

1. So the ark of the LORD was seven months in the land of the Philistines.

2. And the Philistines called their priests and their diviners, and said: What shall we do with the ark of the LORD? Teach us, wherewith shall we send it to its place?

3. And they said: If ye will send the ark of the God of Israel, send it not empty: but if ye shall repay a trespass offering, ye shall be healed, and it shall be known unto you why his hand depart not from you.

4. And they said: What is the trespass offering which we shall give unto him? And they answered: Five golden eyes, and five golden mice, according to the number of the five lords of the Philistines: for there hath been one plague upon you all, and upon your lords.

5. Now therefore make ye the likeness of your asses, and of your mice that have destroyed your land, to give glory unto the God of Israel: peradventure his hand shall be lightened upon you, and upon your God, and upon your land.

6. Why harden ye your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? Is it not so, when he proved himself to them, that they left them, and went away?

7. Now therefore take and make a new cart, and two young suckling cows, on which no yoke hath ever come, and hitch them to the cart, and let their calves remain behind them at home.

8. And take the ark of the LORD, and lay it upon the cart; and the jewels of gold, which ye shall give him for a trespass offering, put them in a little box by their sides, and send them, and let them go.

9. And behold her. If she go up by the way of her border unto Bethshemesh, he hath done us all this great evil. If not, we shall know that his hand hath not touched us, but it hath happened unto us by chance.

10. So the men did, and took two young suckling cows, and harnessed them to a cart, and kept their calves at home.

11. And they laid the ark of the LORD upon the cart, and the coffer with the mice of gold, and with the images of their eyes.

12. And the cattle went straight on toward Bethshemesh by a highway; and they went and bleated, and turned not aside on the right hand, nor on the left. And the lords of the Philistines went after them unto the border of Bethshemesh.

13. And the children of Bethshem were reaping in the wheat in the valley, and lifted up their eyes, and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it.

14. And the cart came into the field of Joshua the Bethshemite, and stood there quietly. And there was a great stone there. And they cut down the wood of the cart, and offered the heifers for a burnt offering unto the LORD.

15. And the Levites took down the ark of the LORD, and the coffer that was by it, wherein were the precious jewels, and set them upon the great stone. And the men of Bethshemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrifices unto the LORD that day.

16. And when the five lords of the Philistines had looked on, they went again to Ekron the same day.

17. Now these are the golden eyes, which the Philistines offered for a trespass offering unto the LORD: Ashdod one, Gasa one, Asklon one, Gath one, and Ekron one.

18. And golden mice according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines among the five princes, both of the walled cities and villages, and unto the great Abel, whereon they left the ark of the LORD, unto this day, in the field of Joshua the Beth-shemite.

19. And some of Bethshemesh were smitten, because they had seen the ark of the LORD. And he smote of the people fifty thousand and seventy men. And the people mourned, because the LORD had done such a great slaughter among the people.

20. And the men of Bethshemesh said: Who can stand before the LORD, that holy God? and to whom shall he go from us?

21. And they sent messengers unto the inhabitants of Kiriathjearim, saying, The Philistines have brought again the ark of the LORD; come down, and bring it up unto you.

Chapter 7

The penitent Israelites are victorious against the Philistines at Samuel's prayer.

1. So the men of Kiriathjearim came and took up the ark of the LORD, and brought it into the house of Abinadab in Gibeah: and they sanctified Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the LORD.

2. And from the day that the ark of the LORD abode in Kiriathjearim, time delayed until twenty years: and all the house of Israel wept before the LORD.

3. And Samuel said unto all the house of Israel, If ye turn unto the LORD with all your heart, then put away the strange gods and Ashtaroth from among you, and set your heart on the LORD, and serve him only; and he shall deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.

4. And the children of Israel put away Baalim and Ashtaroth from them, and served the LORD only.

5. And Samuel said, Gather all Israel together to Mizpeh, that I may pray unto the LORD for you.

6. And they came together to Mizpeh, and drew water, and poured it out before the LORD, and fasted that day, and said there: We have sinned against the LORD. So Samuel judged the children of Israel at Mizpeh.

7. And when the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were come together to Mizpeh, the princes of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard it, they were afraid of the Philistines.

8. And they said unto Samuel, Cease not to cry unto the LORD our God for us, that he may save us out of the hand of the Philistines.

9. And Samuel took a kid of the lamb, and offered a whole burnt offering unto the LORD, and cried unto the LORD for Israel: and the LORD hearkened unto him.

10. And while Samuel was offering the burnt offering, the Philistines came near to fight against Israel. And the LORD thundered a great thunder that day upon the Philistines, and discomfited them, and they were smitten before Israel.

11. And the men of Israel went out from Mizpeh, and pursued the Philistines, and smote them unto Bethcar.

12. And Samuel took a stone, and set it between Mizpeh and Sen, and called his name Eben-Ezer, and said, Hitherto hath the LORD helped us.

13. So the Philistines were subdued, and came no more within the border of Israel: and the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

14. So the cities which the Philistines had taken from them, from Ekron even unto Gath, and the coasts thereof, were restored unto Israel, which delivered Israel out of the hand of the Philistines: for Israel had peace with the Amorites.

15. And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life.

16. And he went about yearly to Bethel, and to Gilgal, and to Mizpah. And when he had judged Israel in all these places,

17. And he returned to Ramath, because there was his house: and there he judged Israel, and built there an altar unto the LORD.

(1 Samuel)

Chapter 8

Israel desires a king. Whose right is displayed.

1. And when Samuel was old, he made his sons judges over Israel.

2. His firstborn son's name was Joel, and the other Abijah: and they were judges in Beersheba.

3. But his sons walked not in his way, but inclined to covetousness, and took gift, and bowed to justice.

4. And all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Ramath unto Samuel.

5. And they said unto him, Behold, thou art grown old, and thy sons walk not in thy ways: now therefore set a king over us, and judge us, as all the heathen have.
6. And it displeased Samuel: and they said, Give us a king to judge us. And Samuel prayed before the LORD.
7. And the LORD said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they have said unto thee: for they have not rejected thee, but me, that I should not reign over them.
8. They have done unto thee as they did from the day that I brought them up out of Egypt unto this day, and have forsaken me, and served other gods.
9. Obey therefore their voice. But testify unto them, and declare unto them the right of the king that shall reign over them.
10. And Samuel spake all the words of the LORD unto the people, which demanded of him a king.
11. This shall be the right of the king that shall reign over you: Your sons shall he take to his chariot, and horsemen to trot before his chariot,
12. And captains over thousands, and captains over fifties, and tillers of his field, and reapers of his harvest, and to make his armour, and that which pertaineth to his chariot.
13. And he shall take your daughters to be apothecaries, and cooks, and bakers.
14. Your best fields, and your vineyards, and your oliveyards, shall he take, and give unto his servants.
15. And of your seed, and of your vineyards, shall he take tithes, and give them unto his stewards and to his servants.
16. And he shall take your menservants, and your maidservants, and your fine young men, and your asses, and shall do his business with them.
17. Of your flocks shall he take tithes, and ye shall be his servants.
18. And it shall come to pass, if ye shall cry out in that day against your king, whom ye have chosen for yourselves, that the LORD will not hear you in that day.
19. But the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel, and said: Nay, but there shall be a king over us,
20. That we also may be like all the rest of the heathen, that our king may judge us, and go out before us in our wars.

21. Then Samuel obeyed all that the people spake, and told it in the ears of the LORD.

22. And the LORD said unto Samuel, Hearken unto their voice, and make them a king. And Samuel said unto the men of Israel, Go ye every man to his own city.

(1 Samuel)

Chapter 9

Saul, the appointed king in Israel, is Samuel's guest.

1. Now there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Apiah, the son of a man Jemini, a man of pity.

2. And he had a son, whose name was Saul: he was a fine young man, and there was none finer among the children of Israel, of a head above all the people.

3. And Kish Saul's father had lost his asses: and he said unto Saul his son, Take one of the lads with thee, and arise, go and seek the asses.

4. And he passed through the mountains of Ephraim, and through the land of Salishah, and found them not: they passed through the land of Saalim, and were not there: they passed through the land of Jemini, and found them not.

5. And when they were come into the land of Zuph, Saul said unto the lad that was with him, Come, and let us go home again: for my father will leave the asses, and take care of us.

6. And he said, Behold, there is a renowned man of God in this city; all that he saith is done.

Now therefore let us go thither: peradventure he will tell us our way that we go.

7. And Saul said unto his lad: If we go, what shall we bring to the man? For the bread is gone out of our sack: we have no other gift to bring unto the man of God. What have we?

8. And the lad answered Saul again, and said, Behold, I have with me a fourth part of a silver cup: let us give it unto the man of God, that he may tell us our way.

9. In the days of old in Israel, when they went to inquire of God, they said, Come, and let us go unto the seer. For they that are now called prophets were called seers in time past.

10. And Saul said unto his lad: Thou hast spoken well; come, and let us go. And they went to the city where the man of God was,

11. And coming up to the city, they found damsels going out to draw water. And they said unto them: Is the seer here?

12. And they answered them, and said: Yea, behold, here he is; make haste, for he is come into the city this day, because the people have to sacrifice this day in the high place.

13. When ye come into the city, ye shall find him before he go up on high to eat. For the people shall not eat until he come, when he shall bless the sacrifice; and afterward they that are bidden shall eat. Go up, therefore, for now you will find him.

14. And when they were come up to the city, and were in the midst of the city, behold, Samuel went out to meet them, and would have gone up to the high place.

15. But the LORD had revealed Samuel unto his ears the day before Saul came, saying: 16. To morrow about this time will I send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin; and thou shalt anoint him ruler over my people Israel, to deliver my people out of the hand of the Philistines. For I have looked upon my people, and their cry is come before me.

17. And when Samuel looked upon Saul, the LORD answered him, Behold, this is the man of whom I spake unto thee, that he should reign over my people.

18. And Saul came to Samuel under the gate, and said, Tell me, where is the seer's house?

19. And Samuel answered Saul, and said: I am the seer; go up before me to the high place, for ye shall eat with me to day: to morrow I will let thee go, and all that is in thine heart I will tell thee.

20. And for the asses, which thou lostst three days ago, trouble thyself not now; they are found.

And whose shall be all that is best in Israel? Shall it not be all thine, and all thy father's house?

21. And Saul said, Am not I the son of Jemini, and of the least of the tribes of Israel, and my family the least of all the families of the tribes of Benjamin? Why then sayest thou these things unto me?

22. And Samuel took Saul and his son, and brought them into the ark, and set them on high among them that were bidden, which were about thirty men.

23. And Samuel said unto the cook, Give the piece which I gave thee, and commanded thee to keep it with thee.

24. And the cook took up a shoulder, and that which hung thereon. And he set it before Saul, and said, Behold, this is left; set it before thee, and eat: for it is kept for thee even to this time, when I charged the people. So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

25. And when they were come down from the high place unto the city, he spake unto Saul upon the housetop.

26. And they rose up early; and when the morning dawned, Samuel called unto Saul upon the housetop, and said, Arise, that I may let thee go. And Saul arose, and they went out together, he and Samuel.

27. And when they were come down to the end of the city, Samuel said unto Saul, Tell the lad to go before us; and he went before: but now stand thou still, that I may make thee know what God hath said.

(1 Samuel)

Chapter 10

Saul anointed and presented as king.

1. And Samuel took a vial of oil, and poured it upon his head, and kissed him, and said, Seest thou that the LORD hath anointed thee ruler over his inheritance?

2. And it shall come to pass, when thou goest from me, that thou shalt find two men by Rachel's sepulchre in the border of Benjamin in Zelzah, which shall say unto thee, The asses are found, which thou wentest to seek: and, behold, thy father hath left the asses out of the way, and sorroweth for you, saying, What shall I do for my son?

3. And it shall come to pass, when thou turnest thence, that thou shalt come to the oak of Tabor; and there three men shall meet thee, which go up to God to Bethel. One beareth three goats, another three pieces of bread, and the third a bottle of wine.

4. And they shall greet thee kindly, and give thee two loaves. And thou shalt take them of their hands.

5. Afterward shalt thou come unto the hill of God, where the camp of the Philistines is: and when thou comest thither into the city, there shall meet thee a company of prophets coming down from on high, and before them psalteries, and timbrels, and pipes, and harps, and they prophesying.

6. And the Spirit of the LORD shall come upon thee, and thou shalt prophesy with them; and thou shalt become a different man.
7. When therefore these signs come unto thee, do that which cometh under thy hands: for GOD is with thee.
8. And thou shalt go down before me unto Gilgal: behold, I will come down unto thee to offer burnt offerings and peace offerings. Seven days shalt thou tarry, until I come unto thee, and tell thee what thou shalt do.
9. And when he turned his shoulders to go from Samuel, God gave him another heart: and all these signs came to pass the same day.
10. And when they were come to the hill, behold, a company of prophets met him: and the Spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied among them.
11. And when all that knew him before saw him prophesying with the prophets, they all said one to another, What is befallen the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?
12. And one there answered and said, Who is their father? Whence came the saying: Is Saul also among the prophets?
13. And when he had made an end, he came up on high.
14. And Saul's cousin said unto him, and to his lad: Whither went ye? And they answered: To seek the asses: and when we saw that they were not there, we came to Samuel.
15. And Saul's cousin said, Tell me, what said Samuel unto you?
16. And Saul said unto his cousin, He told us that the asses were found. But of the kingdom he told him not what Samuel had said.
17. And Samuel called the people unto the LORD to Mizpeh.
18. And he said unto the children of Israel, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I have brought Israel out of Egypt, and have delivered you out of the hand of Egypt, and out of the hand of all the kingdoms that oppressed you.
19. And ye have this day rejected your God, which delivered you out of all your calamities and your tribulations, saying unto him, Set a king over us. Now therefore come before the LORD according to your tribes and your fellowships.
20. And when Samuel had brought all the tribes of Israel, the tribe of Benjamin was taken.

21. And when he brought in the tribe of Benjamin with their families, the family of Matri was taken, and Saul the son of Kish was taken. And they sought him, but found him not.

22. Then asked they the LORD again, Will he come hither also? And the LORD answered, Behold, he hath hid himself among the barrels.

23. And they ran and fetched him from thence. And when he was come among the people, he was one main longer than all the people.

24. And Samuel said unto all the people, See ye whom the LORD hath chosen: for there is none like him among all the people. And all the people rejoiced, and said, Happy kings!

25. And Samuel told the people all the judgments of the kingdom, and wrote them in a book, and laid it before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people every man to his own house.

26. And Saul also went home to Gibeah; and there went with him of the host a part which touched the heart of God.

27. But some of the loose people said: What shall this man do for us? And they despised him, and brought him no present. But he pretended not to hear.

(1 Samuel)

Chapter 11

Saul's first victory against the Ammonites.

1. And Nahash the Ammonite came up, and besieged Jabesh in Gilead. And all the men of Jabesh said unto Nahash, Make a league with us, and we will serve thee.

2. And Nahash the Ammonite answered them: In this will I make a covenant with you, that I will put out the right eye of you all, and put you to shame among all Israel.

3. And the elders of Jabesh said unto him, Give us seven days, that we may send messengers into all the coasts of Israel: and if there be none to deliver us, we will go out unto thee.

4. And the messengers came to Gibeah unto Saul, and spake these things in the ears of the people. And all the people lifted up their voice, and wept.

5. And, behold, Saul came out of the field after the oxen, and said, What is the matter with the people that they weep? And they told him the matter of the men of Jabesh.

6. Then the Spirit of God was upon him, when he heard such words; and his wrath was greatly kindled.
7. And he took a pair of oxen, and cut them in pieces, and sent throughout all the coasts of Israel by messengers, saying, Whosoever shall not be cut off after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done unto the oxen. And the fear of the LORD fell upon the people, and they went out as one man.
8. And he made an order at Basek. And of the children of Israel were three hundred thousand men, and of the children of Judah thirty thousand.
9. And they said unto the messengers that came: So tell the men of Jabesh in Gilead: Tomorrow help shall come unto you, when the sun beginth to shine hotly. And when the messengers came and told the men of Jabesh, they were glad.
10. And the men of Jabesh said: To morrow we will go out unto you, and ye shall do unto us all that ye please.
11. And it came to pass on the morrow, that Saul divided the people into three companies, and they came into the camp about the watch of the morning, and smote the Ammonites until the day was hot: and they that remained were scattered, so that there were not two of them together.
12. And the people said unto Samuel, Who are they that said, Shall Saul reign over us? Pray ye them, men, that we may slay them.
13. And Saul said, Let no man die this day: for the LORD hath this day given salvation unto Israel.
14. And Samuel said unto the people, Come, and let us go to Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there.
15. And all the people went to Gilgal, and there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gilgal, and offered peace offerings before the LORD. And Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced there almost exceedingly.

(1 Samuel)

Chapter 12

How Samuel handed over his judgeship.

1. And Samuel said unto all Israel, Behold, I have hearkened unto your voice in all that ye have said unto me, and have made a king over you.

2. And now, behold, your king goeth before you. And I am grown old and gray, and my sons are with you, and I have gone before you from my youth even unto this day.
3. Behold, here am I; answer me before the LORD, and before his anointed, if I have taken any man's ox, or any man's ass; if I have done any man violence, or any man wrong; if I have taken any gift of any man's hand, and have blinded mine eyes? then will I restore it unto you.
4. And they said: Thou hast done us no violence nor wrong, neither hast thou taken anything from any man's hand.
5. And he said unto them: The LORD be witness against you, and his anointed this day, that ye have found nothing in my hand. And they said: Yea, witness they shall be.
6. And Samuel said unto the people, Yea, the LORD that made Moses and Aaron, and brought your fathers out of the land of Egypt.
7. Come now therefore, that I may testify with you before the LORD concerning all the good deeds of the LORD, which he hath done for you and for your fathers.
8. And it came to pass, when Jacob was come into Egypt, that your fathers cried unto the LORD, and he sent Moses and Aaron to bring your fathers out of Egypt, and to make them dwell in this place.
9. And when they had forgotten the LORD their God, he sold them into the hand of Sisera the captain of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab, which fought against them.
10. And they cried unto the LORD, saying: We have sinned in that we have forsaken the LORD, and served Baalim and Ashtaroth: but now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve thee.
11. And the LORD sent Jerubbaal, and Bedan, and Jephthah, and Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies round about, and made you dwell in safety.
12. And when ye saw that Nahash king of the children of Ammon came against you, ye said unto me, Not thou, but a king, shall reign over us: for the LORD your God was your king.
13. Now therefore ye have your king, whom ye have chosen and asked: for, behold, the LORD hath set a king over you.

14. If ye then fear the LORD, and serve him, and obey his voice, and be not disobedient to the mouth of the LORD, both ye and your king that reigneth over you shall follow the LORD your God.

15. But if ye will not obey the voice of the LORD, but will disobey his mouth, the hand of the LORD shall be against you, and against your fathers.

16. Stand ye also now, and behold the great thing which the LORD will do before your eyes.

17. Is not the wheat harvest now? But I will call upon the LORD, and he shall cause it to thunder and to rain, that ye may understand and see the great evil that ye have done in the sight of the LORD, in that ye have asked yourselves a king.

18. And when Samuel called upon the LORD, the LORD thundered and rained that day. And all the people feared the LORD very much, and Samuel.

19. And they all said unto Samuel, Pray for thy servants unto the LORD thy God, that we die not: for upon all our iniquity have we also done this evil, in that we have asked us a king.

20. And Samuel said unto the people, Fear not: ye have done all this evil: nevertheless turn not aside from the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart.

21. And yield not to vanity: for it profiteth not, neither can it save, because it is a vain thing.

22. But the LORD will not trust his people for his great name's sake: for the LORD hath begun to make you his own people.

23. But let it also be far from me to sin so against the LORD, that I should cease to pray for you, and to teach you the good and right way.

24. Only fear the LORD, and serve him faithfully with all your heart: for ye have seen how great things he doeth unto you.

25. But if ye do evil, both ye and your king shall be lost.

(1 Samuel)

Chapter 13

Saul's distrust in the course against the Philistines

1. Saul had reigned one year; and when he had reigned two years over Israel, 2. And he chose him three thousand men out of Israel. Two thousand were with Saul in Michmash, and in mount Bethel, and one thousand with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin: and the rest of the people let him go every man to his tent.

3. And Jonathan smote the Philistines in their camp, which was at Gibeah; and it came before the Philistines. And Saul sounded a trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Let the Ebramites hear.

4. And all Israel heard say, Saul hath smitten the camp of the Philistines: for Israel stank because of the Philistines. And all the people cried after Saul unto Gilgal.

5. And the Philistines gathered themselves together to battle with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, six thousand horsemen, and the rest of the people, as the sand that was by the sea side: and they came up, and pitched at Michmash on the east side before Bethaven.

6. And when the men of Israel saw that they were in trouble, (for the people were afraid,) they hid themselves in caves, and in clefts, and in rocks, and in holes, and in pits.

7. And the Ebramites passed over Jordan into the land of Gad and Gilead. And Saul was yet at Gilgal, and all the people were timid behind him.

8. And he tarried seven days for the time appointed of Samuel. And when Samuel came not to Gilgal, the people dispersed themselves from him.

9. And Saul said, Bring me burnt offerings and peace offerings. And he offered burnt offerings.

10. And when he had finished the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came. And Saul went out to meet him, to bless him.

11. And Samuel said, What hast thou done? Saul answered: And I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that thou camest not at a time appointed: and the Philistines were gathered together to Michmash.

12. And I said, Now the Philistines will come down to me to Gilgal, and I have not asked the face of the LORD: so I ventured, and offered burnt offerings.

13. And Samuel said unto Saul, Thou hast done foolishly, and hast not kept the commandment of the LORD thy God, which he commanded thee: for he would have established thy kingdom over Israel for ever.

14. But now thy kingdom shall not stand. The LORD hath sought him a man after his own heart, whom the LORD commanded to be ruler over his people: for thou hast not kept the commandment of the LORD.

15. And Samuel arose, and went from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people that were with him about six hundred men.

16. And Saul, and Jonathan his son, and the people that were with him, dwelt in the hill of Benjamin. And the Philistines were encamped at Michmash.

17. And out of the camp of the Philistines went three companies to devastate the land. And one of them went by the way of Ophrah unto the land of Shual;

18. And the second turned unto the way of Bethhoron; and the third turned unto the way of the valley of Zeboim, which is by the wilderness.

19. And there was not found a smith in all the land of Israel: for the Philistines thought that the Ebramites would make swords and spears.

20. And all Israel went down to the Philistines, if any man had a plowshare, or a hoe, or an axe, or a scythe, to sharpen.

21. And the edges of the scythes, and of the pruning hooks, and of the forks, and of the axes, were worn out, and the pricks were blunted.

22. And it came to pass, when the day of battle was come, that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of all the people that were with Saul and Jonathan: only Saul and his son had weapons.

23. And the camp of the Philistines went out before Michmash.

(1 Samuel)

Chapter 14

Jonathan's heroic deed. Saul plunges him into mortal danger through untimely zeal.

1. And it came to pass one day, that Jonathan the son of Saul said unto his lad that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over to the camp of the Philistines which is yonder. He did not tell his father.

2. And Saul abode in Gibeah at the end of a grenadier tree that was in the suburbs: and the people that were with him were about six hundred men.

3. And Ahijah the son of Ahitub, the brother of Ikabod, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, was the priest of the LORD in Shiloh, and wore the ephod. And the people knew not that Jonathan was gone.

4. And by the way, where Jonathan sought to pass over unto the camp of the Philistines, were two sharp rocks, the one on this side, and the other on that side; the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Senne.

5. And one looked from northward toward Michmash, and the other from southward toward Gaba.

6. And Jonathan said unto his armourbearer, Come, and let us go over unto the camp of these uncircumcised: peradventure the LORD will do something by us: for it is not hard for the LORD to help by much or by little.

7. And his armourbearer answered him, Do according to all that is in thine heart: go thy way, behold, I am with thee, as thine heart desireth.

8. And Jonathan said, Well, if we come over unto the people, and come in their faces, 9. Then shall they say, Stand still, till we come unto you; and we will stand still in our place, and not go up unto them.

10. But if they shall say, Come up unto us, and we will go up unto them, the LORD hath given them into our dogs. And this shall be a sign unto us.

11. And it came to pass, when they were come both to the face of the Philistines' camp, that the Philistines said, Behold, the Ebrams are gone out of the holes wherein they were hid.

12. And the men of the camp answered Jonathan and his armourbearer, and said: Come up hither unto us, and we will teach you well. And Jonathan said unto his armourbearer, Come up after me: for the LORD hath delivered them into the hand of Israel.

13. And Jonathan went up with his hands and with his feet, and his armourbearer after him. And they fell down before Jonathan, and his armourbearer choked him continually, 14. So that the first battle which Jonathan and his armourbearer did was about twenty men, almost half a hoof of ground, which is a yoke.

15. And there was a terror in the camp in the field, and in all the people of the camp; and the bands that went about were afraid; so that the land trembled: for it was a terror from God.

16. And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah-benjamin saw that the multitude was broken up, and that they went astray, and were broken up.

17. And Saul said unto the people that were with him, Count and see which of us are departed.

And when they counted, behold, Jonathan and his armourbearer were not there.

18. And Saul said unto Ahijah, Bring hither the ark of God: for the ark of God was at that time with the children of Israel.

19. And while Saul yet spake unto the priest, the tumult and the running of the Philistines' camp increased. And Saul said unto the priest, Remove thy hand.

20. And Saul called, and all the people that were with him, and came to the battle: and, behold, every man's sword went against every man's, and there was a very great tumult.

21. And the Ebramites also, which were before with the Philistines, and went up with them in the camp round about, joined themselves to Israel, which were with Saul and Jonathan.

22. And all the men of Israel, which were hid in mount Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, went after them in battle.

23. So the LORD helped Israel in those days. And the battle continued unto Bethaven.

24. And when the men of Israel were faint that day, Saul charged the people, saying, Cursed be every man that eateth any thing until even, that I may avenge myself on mine enemies. So all the people ate nothing.

25. And all the land came into the forest. And there was honey in the field.

26. And when the people were come into the forest, behold, honey flowed. But no man put it into his mouth with his hand: for the people feared the oath.

27. And Jonathan had not heard that his father had bidden the people: and he stretched out his staff which he had in his hand, and dipped the point thereof in the honeycomb, and turned his hand to his mouth; and his eyes were open.

28. And one of the people answered and said, Thy father hath charged the people, saying, Cursed be every one that eateth this day. And the people were dim.

29. And Jonathan said, My father hath wandered in the land: behold, how mine eyes are waxed open, that I have tasted a little of this honey.

30. And because the people did not eat this day of the spoil of their enemies, which they found, the battle was not increased against the Philistines.

31. And they smote the Philistines that day from Michmash even unto Ajalon. And the people were very faint.

32. And the people dressed the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground, and ate them so bloody.

33. And they told Saul, Behold, the people have sinned against the LORD, in that they eat blood.

And he said: Ye have done wickedly: roll now unto me a great stone.

34. And Saul said again, Disperse yourselves among the people, and tell them, Bring every man his ox and his sheep unto me, and slay them all there, that ye may eat them, and not sin against the LORD by eating the blood. So all the people brought every man his ox with his hand by night, and slew it there.

35. And Saul built an altar unto the LORD. This is the first altar which he built unto the LORD.

36. And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and spoil them, until the morning light; that we leave none of them. And they answered: Do all that pleaseth thee. And the priest said, Let us come near hither unto God.

37. And Saul said unto GOD, Shall I go down after the Philistines? and wilt thou deliver them into the hand of Israel? But he answered him not at that time.

38. And Saul said, Let all the multitudes of the people come near, and know and see in whom is the sin at this time;

39. For as the LORD liveth, the Saviour of Israel, though it be in my son Jonathan, he shall die.

And no man answered him of all the people.

40. And he said unto all Israel, Be ye on that side; and I and Jonathan my son will be on this side.

And the people said unto Saul, Do as it pleaseth thee.

41. And Saul said unto the LORD God of Israel, Execute judgment. And Jonathan and Saul were smitten: but the people went out free.

42. And Saul said, Cast upon me and upon Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was smitten.

43. And Saul said unto Jonathan, Tell me, what hast thou done? Jonathan told him, and said: I have tasted a little honey with the rod that was in my hand: and, behold, I die for it.

44. And Saul said, God do this unto me, and that unto me, Jonathan: thou must surely die.

45. And the people said unto Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who hath wrought such great salvation in Israel? Far be it from him. As the LORD liveth, there shall not an hair of his head fall to the ground: for God hath done it by him this day. So the people redeemed Jonathan, that he died not.

46. And Saul went up from the Philistines, and the Philistines went to their place.

47. And when Saul had taken the kingdom over Israel, he fought against all his enemies round about, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines: and whithersoever he turned he punished.

48. And he made an army, and smote the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hand of all that oppressed them.

49. And Saul had sons; Jonathan, and Ishwi, and Malchishua. And his two daughters' names were Merob the firstborn, and Michal the youngest.

50. And the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam, a daughter of Ahimaaz. And the name of his captain of the host was Abner, the son of Ner, Saul's cousin.

51. And Kish was Saul's father: and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.

52. And there was a sore battle against the Philistines all the days of Saul. And when Saul saw a strong man, and a valiant man, he took him.
(1 Samuel)

Chapter 15

Saul rejected for his disobedience.

1. And Samuel said unto Saul, The LORD hath sent me to anoint thee king over his people Israel: now therefore hear the voice of the words of the LORD.
2. Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I have considered what Amalek did unto Israel, and how he changed his way, when he came out of Egypt.
3. Now therefore go and smite the Amalekites, and destroy them with all that they have. Spare not him, but slay both man and woman, children and sucklings, oxen and sheep, camels and asses.
4. And Saul brought them before the people, and numbered them Thelaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men of Judah.
5. And when Saul was come to the city of Amalek, he set an ambush by the brook.
6. And he said unto the Kenite, Pray, depart, and come down from among the Amalekites, lest I put you to death with them: for ye did mercy unto all the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt. So the Kenites went out from among the Amalekites.
7. And Saul smote the Amalekites from Havilah even unto Shur, which is before Egypt.
8. And Agag the king of Amalek was taken alive, and all the people he banished with the edge of the sword.
9. But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the good sheep, and the oxen, and the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them: but they destroyed that which was vile and unprofitable.
10. And the word of the LORD came unto Samuel, saying:
11. It repenteth me that I have made Saul king: for he hath turned back from me, and hath not fulfilled my words. And Samuel was wroth, and cried unto the LORD all night long.
12. And Samuel rose up early to meet Saul in the morning. And it was told him, that Saul was come to Carmel, and had set up for him a sign of victory, and was gone about, and came down to Gilgal.
13. And when Samuel came to Saul, Saul said unto him, Blessed art thou unto the LORD. I have fulfilled the word of the LORD.
14. And Samuel said, What then is the bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the roaring of the oxen that I hear?

15. And Saul said, They have brought them of the Amalekites: for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, because of the sacrifice of the LORD thy God: the rest we have utterly destroyed.

16. And Samuel said unto Saul, Let me tell thee what the LORD hath said unto me this night.

And he said, Tell me.

17. And Samuel said: Is it not so, when thou wast small in thine own sight, that thou becameest chief among the tribes of Israel, and the LORD anointed thee king over Israel?

18. And the LORD sent thee on thy way, saying, Go and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them, until thou destroy them.

19. Why hast thou not obeyed the voice of the LORD, but hast turned thyself to robbery, and hast done evil in the sight of the LORD?

20. And Saul said unto Samuel, I have hearkened unto the voice of the LORD, and have gone the way which the LORD sent me, and have brought Agag king of Amalek, and have destroyed the Amalekites.

21. But the people have taken of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the best of the exiled, to offer unto the LORD thy God in Gilgal.

22. And Samuel said, Thinkest thou that the LORD delighteth in sacrifice and burnt offering, rather than in obedience to the voice of the LORD? Behold, obedience is better than sacrifice, and heedfulness than the fat of rams;

23. For disobedience is a sin of sorcery; and to resist is idolatry and idolatry. Because therefore thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, he hath rejected thee also, that thou shouldest not be king.

24. And Saul said unto Samuel, I have sinned, because I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD, and thy words: for I feared the people, and obeyed their voice.

25. And now forgive me my sin, and return with me, that I may worship the LORD.

26. And Samuel said unto Saul, I will not return with thee: for thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD hath rejected thee, that thou shouldest not reign over Israel.

27. And when Samuel turned to go away, he caught him by the corner of his skirt, and it rent.

28. And Samuel said unto him, The LORD hath rent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to thy neighbour, which is better than thou.

29. Neither doth the hero of Israel lie, nor repent: for he is not a man, that any thing should repent him.

30. And he said: I have sinned; yet honor me now before the elders of my people, and before Israel; and return with me, that I may worship the LORD thy God.

31. So Samuel returned, and followed Saul, and Saul worshipped the LORD.

32. And Samuel said, Bring me Agag the king of Amalek. And Agag went to him confidently, and said, Thus must the bitterness of death be driven away.

33. And Samuel said, As thy sword hath robbed women of their children, so shall thy mother be robbed of her children among women. So Samuel smote Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal.

34. And Samuel went to Ramath: and Saul went up to his house at Gibeah-saul.

35. And Samuel saw Saul no more until the day of his death. But Samuel mourned for Saul, because the LORD repented that he had made Saul king over Israel.

(1 Samuel)

Chapter 16

David's profession and first anointing as king.

1. And the LORD said unto Samuel, How long mournest thou for Saul, whom I have rejected, that he should not reign over Israel? Fill thy horn with oil, and go, and I will send thee unto Jesse the Bethlehemite: for I have chosen a king among his sons.

2. And Samuel said, How shall I go? Saul shall know it, and slay me. And the LORD said, Take thee a calf of the oxen, and say, I am come to sacrifice unto the LORD.

3. And thou shalt call Jesse to the sacrifice; and I will instruct thee what thou shalt do, that thou mayest anoint me, which I will tell thee.

4. And Samuel did as the LORD had said unto him, and came to Bethlehem: and the elders of the city were astonished. And the elders of the city were astonished, and went out to meet him, and said: Is it peace that thou art come?

5. And he said, Yea, I am come to sacrifice unto the LORD: sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and invited them to the sacrifice.
6. And when they were come in, he looked on Eliab, and thought whether he were his anointed before the LORD.
7. And the LORD said unto Samuel, Behold not his form, nor his great person; I have rejected him. For it is not how a man looketh. A man looketh on the things that are before his eyes: but the LORD looketh on the heart.
8. And Jesse called unto Abinadab, and made him pass over before Samuel. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this man.
9. And Jesse passed by Samma. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this man.
10. And Jesse sent his seven sons before Samuel. And Samuel said unto Jesse, The LORD hath not chosen him.
11. And Samuel said unto Jesse, Are all the lads? And he said, There is yet the least left; and, behold, he is tending the sheep. And Samuel said unto Jesse, Send and fetch him: for we will not sit down till he come hither.
12. And he sent and fetched him. And he was of a brownish complexion, with beautiful eyes, and of a goodly stature. And the LORD said, Arise, anoint him: for he is he.
13. And Samuel took his horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brethren. And the Spirit of the LORD came upon David from that day forward. And Samuel arose, and went to Ramah.
14. And the spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD troubled him greatly.
15. And the servants of Saul said unto him, Behold, an evil spirit from GOD maketh thee very uneasy.
16. Our lord shall tell his servants that stand before him, that they seek a man that can play well upon the harp; that, when the evil spirit of God cometh upon thee, he may play with his hand, that it may be better with thee.
17. And Saul said unto his servants: Look for a man who is good at playing the stringed instruments, and bring him to me.
18. And one of the lads answered and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, that is well skilled in the playing of the strings; a stout man, and valiant, and understanding in things, and fair; and the LORD is with him.

19. And Saul sent messengers unto Jesse, saying, Send me David thy son, which is with the sheep.

20. And Jesse took an ass of bread, and a bottle of wine, and a kid of the goats, and sent them unto Saul by David his son.

21. So David came to Saul, and ministered before him: and he loved him very much, and he became his armourbearer.

22. And Saul sent unto Jesse, saying, Let David tarry before me: for he hath found grace in mine eyes.

23. And it came to pass, when the Spirit of God was upon Saul, that David took the harp, and played with his hand; and Saul was refreshed, and was better with him, and the evil spirit departed from him.

(1 Samuel)

Chapter 17

David's quarrel with the giant Goliath.

1. And the Philistines gathered their armies to battle, and came together to Shocho in Judah, and pitched between Shocho and Azekah, at the end of Damim.

2. And Saul and the men of Israel came together, and pitched in the valley of the oak, and prepared themselves to battle against the Philistines.

3. And the Philistines sat upon a mountain on the other side, and the children of Israel upon a mountain on this side; and there was a valley between them.

4. And there came forth out of the camps of the Philistines a giant named Goliath of Gath, six cubits high and an hand's breadth;

5. And he had a helmet of brass upon his head, and a coat of mail upon him; and the weight of his coat was five thousand shekels of brass;

6. and had brazen harness on his thighs and a brazen shield on his shoulders.

7. And the shaft of his spear was as a weaver's beam, and the iron of his spear had six hundred shekels of iron: and his shield bearer went before him.

8. And he stood and called unto the witness of Israel, and said unto them: Why are ye come out to set yourselves at war? Am not I a Philistine, and ye servants of Saul? Call one of you to come down unto me.

9. If he be able to fight against me, and smite me, we will be your servants: but if I be able to fight against him, and smite him, ye shall be our servants, to serve us.

10. And the Philistine said: I have mocked the witness of Israel this day: give me one, and let us fight together.

11. And when Saul and all Israel heard this saying of the Philistine, they were amazed and sore afraid.

12. And David was the son of an Ephrathite man, of Bethlehemjudah, whose name was Jesse; and he had eight sons, and was an old man in the days of Saul, and was old among men.

13. And the three greatest sons of Jesse were at war with Saul, and were called by name: Eliab the firstborn, Abinadab the second, and Samma the third.

14. And David was the youngest. And the three eldest went out to war with Saul, 15. And David departed again from Saul, to keep his father's flock in Bethlehem.

16. And the Philistine came early in the morning and in the evening, and presented himself forty days.

17. And Jesse said unto David his son, Take for thy brethren these ephahs of sackbread, and these ten loaves, and run into the army to thy brethren,

18. And these ten fresh cheeses, and bring them unto the centurion; and see thy brethren, if it be well with them, and take what they command thee.

19. And Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of the oak, fighting against the Philistines.

20. And David arose early in the morning, and left the sheep with the keeper, and carried, and went as Jesse had commanded him, and came to the chariot-house. And the host was come forth, and armed themselves, and cried out in battle.

21. For Israel had armed themselves, and the Philistines were armed against their stuff.

22. And David left the vessel which he bare under the keeper of the vessels, and ran unto the witness; and went in, and saluted his brethren.

23. And while he yet spake unto them, behold, a giant named Goliath, the Philistine of Gath, came up out of the Philistine's stuff, and spake as before: and David heard it.

24. But every man of Israel, when he saw the man, fled from him, and was sore afraid.

25. And all the people of Israel said, Have ye seen this man come up? For he is come up to speak evil of Israel. And whosoever smiteth him, the king will make him very rich, and give him his daughter, and will make his father's house free in Israel.

26. And David said unto the men that sat with him: What shall be done to him that smiteth this Philistine, and turneth away the reproach from Israel? For who is this Philistine, this uncircumcised man, that mocketh the testimony of the living God?

27. And the people said unto him, As before, So shall it be done unto him that smiteth him.

28. And Eliab his elder brother heard him speak with the men, and was wroth with anger against David, and said, Why art thou come down? and why hast thou forsaken the few sheep that are there in the wilderness? I know thy presumption, and the wickedness of thine heart. For thou art come down to see the battle.

29. And David said, What have I done now? Is it not commanded me?

30. And he turned from him to another, and spake as he spake before. And the people answered him as before.

31. And when they heard the words that David spake, they declared them before Saul, and he sent for him.

32. And David said unto Saul, Let no man's heart fail him for this cause: let thy servant go and fight with the Philistine.

33. And Saul said unto David, Thou canst not go against this Philistine to fight with him: for thou art a boy, but this man is a man of war from his youth.

34. And David said unto Saul, Thy servant was tending his father's flock, and there came a lion and a bear, and carried away a sheep from the fold.

35. And I ran after him, and smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth. And when he was come upon me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him, and slew him.

36. So thy servant smote both the lion and the bear. Now therefore this Philistine, the uncircumcised, shall be as one of them, because he hath defiled the stuff of the living God.

37. And David said, The LORD that delivered me from the lion and from the bear, he shall deliver me also from this Philistine.

38. And Saul said unto David, Go thy way; the LORD be with thee. And Saul clothed David with his garments, and put a helmet of brass upon his head, and put on him a coat of mail.

39. And David girded his sword upon his garments, and began to walk, because he had never tried it. And David said unto Saul, I cannot go thus, for I am not accustomed: and he put it from him.

40. And he took his staff in his hand, and chose five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in the shepherd's bag which he had, and in the sack; and he took the sling in his hand, and made himself the Philistine.

41. And the Philistine went also, and made himself David, and his shield-bearer before him.

42. And when the Philistine saw, and looked upon David, he despised him. For he was a lad, brownish and fair.

43. And the Philistine said unto David, Am I a dog, that thou comest unto me with staves? And he cursed David by his God.

44. And he said unto David, Come unto me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field.

45. And David said unto the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield: but I come unto thee in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the testimony of Israel, whom thou hast heard.

46. This day will the LORD deliver thee into mine hand, and I will smite thee, and take away thy head from thee, and give the carcase of the host of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the earth; that all the earth may know that Israel hath one God, 47. And that all this congregation may know that the LORD helpeth not with sword nor with spear: for the battle is the LORD'S, and he will deliver you into our hand.

48. And when the Philistine arose, and came near against David, David made haste, and ran from the witness against the Philistine.

49. And David put his hand into his pocket, and took a stone out of it, and cast it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, and the stone entered into his forehead, and he fell to the earth upon his face.

50. So David overcame the Philistine with the sling, and with the stone; and smote him, and slew him. And since David had no sword in his hand,

51. And he ran, and stood by the Philistine, and took his sword, and drew it out of the sheath, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith. And when the Philistines saw that their strongest was dead, they fled.

52. And the men of Israel and Judah arose, and called, and pursued after the Philistines unto the valley, and unto the gates of Ekron. And the Philistines fell slain by the way of the gates unto Gath, and unto Ekron.

53. And the children of Israel returned from pursuing the Philistines, and spoiled their camp.

54. And David took the Philistine's head, and brought it to Jerusalem; and he put his weapons in his tent.

55. And when Saul saw David going out against the Philistines, he said to Abner the captain of his host, Whose son is the lad? And Abner said, As thy soul liveth, O king, I know not.

56. And the king said, Ask then whose son the young man is.

57. And David returned from the battle of the Philistine, and Abner took him, and brought him before Saul: and he had the Philistine's head in his hand.

58. And Saul said unto him, Whose son art thou, boy? And David said: I am the son of thy servant Jesse the Bethlehemite.

(1 Samuel)

Chapter 18

David's praise, peril of life, and marriage.

1. And it came to pass, when he had spoken to Saul, that the heart of Jonathan was joined unto the heart of David: and Jonathan loved him as his own heart.

2. And Saul took him that day, and suffered him not to come again to his father's house.

3. And Jonathan and David made a covenant together: for he loved him as his own heart.

4. And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe which he had on, and gave it to David, and his coat, and his sword, and his bow, and his girdle.

5. And David went out whither Saul sent him, and kept himself wisely. And Saul set him over the men of war: and he pleased all the people well, even the servants of Saul.

6. And it came to pass, when he was come again from the battle of the Philistines, that the women of all the cities of Israel went out to meet king Saul with singing and with dancing, and with joy, and with violins.

7. And the women sang one against another, and played, saying, Saul hath smitten a thousand, but David ten thousand.

8. And Saul was very wroth, and the word displeased him, and said, They have given David ten thousand, and have given me a thousand: the kingdom will be yet; 9. And Saul looked sore upon David from that day forward.

10. And the next day the evil spirit of God came upon Saul, and prophesied in the house at home: and David played upon the strings with his hand, as he did every day. And Saul had a spear in his hand.

11. And he shot him, and thought: I will spear David against the wall. And David turned from him twice.

12. And Saul was afraid of David: for the LORD was with him, and was departed from Saul.

13. And Saul put him away, and made him ruler over a thousand men: and he went out and came in before the people.

14. And David behaved himself wisely in all his doings: and the LORD was with him.

15. And when Saul saw that he thought himself wise, he shrank from him.

16. But all Israel and Judah loved David: for he went out and came in before them: 17. And Saul said unto David, Behold, my greatest daughter Merob will I give thee to wife: be thou joyful, and fight the wars of the LORD. For Saul said, My hand shall not be upon him, but the hand of the Philistines.

18. And David said unto Saul, Who am I, and what is my life, and my father's seed in Israel, that I should be the king's son in law?

19. And when the time came that Merob the daughter of Saul should be given to David, she was given to Adriel the Meholathite to wife.

20. And Michal Saul's daughter loved David: and when it was told Saul, he said, This is right.

21. And I will give her unto him, and she shall be his fall, and the hands of the Philistines shall be upon him. And he said unto David, Thou shalt be my son in law this day with the other.

22. And Saul commanded his servants: Speak unto David privily, and say, Behold, the king hath a desire for thee, and all his servants love thee: now therefore be the king's son in law.

23. And the servants of Saul spake these words in David's ears. And David said, Dost thou think it a small thing to be the king's son in law? But I am a poor, little man.

24. And Saul's servants told him again, saying, These words spake David.

25. And Saul said, Thus say ye unto David, The king desireth no morning gift, save an hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to avenge himself on the king's enemies. For Saul sought to slay David by the hand of the Philistines.

26. And his servants spake these words unto David, and thought it good for David, that he should be the king's son in law. And the time was not yet ended.

27. And David arose, and went with his men, and smote of the Philistines two hundred men. And David brought their skirts, and made the king glad of the number, that he might be the king's son in law. Then Saul gave him Michal his daughter in marriage.

28. And Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David. And Michal Saul's daughter loved him.

29. And Saul was yet more afraid of David, and became his enemy all the days of his life.

30. And when the princes of the Philistines went out, David dealt more wisely than all the servants of Saul, when they went out; and his name was magnified.

(1 Samuel)

Chapter 19

David, to preserve life, goes to misery.

1. And Saul spake unto Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should kill David. But Jonathan Saul's son loved David very much;

2. And told him, saying, My father Saul seeketh to kill thee. Now therefore keep thee tomorrow, and be hid, and hide thyself.

3. And I will go forth, and stand beside my father in the field where thou art, and speak of thee unto my father; and whatsoever I see I will make known unto thee.

4. And Jonathan spake the best of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, Let not the king sin against David his servant: for he hath done no sin against thee, and his doings are very profitable unto thee;

5. And he put his life in his hand, and smote the Philistine: and the LORD did great salvation unto all Israel. This thou sawest, and rejoicedst. Why then wilt thou sin against innocent blood, to kill David without a cause?

6. And Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan, and sware, As the LORD liveth, he shall not die.

7. Then Jonathan called David, and told him all these words; and brought him to Saul, and he was before him as before.

8. And there was war again, and David went out, and fought against the Philistines, and made a great slaughter, and they fled before him.

9. And the evil spirit from the LORD came upon Saul, and he sat in his house with a spear in his hand: and David played upon the strings with his hand.

10. And Saul sought to spear David to the wall with the spear. And he tore himself from Saul, and the spear went into the wall. And David fled, and escaped that night.

11. And Saul sent messengers to David's house, to keep him, and to kill him in the morning. And Michal his wife told David, saying, If thou wilt not save thy soul this night, thou shalt die to morrow.

12. And Michal brought him down by the window, and he went, and fled, and escaped.

13. And Michal took an image, and laid it in the bed, and put a kidskin for his head, and covered it with garments.

14. And Saul sent messengers to fetch David. And she said, He is sick.

15. And Saul sent messengers to see David, saying, Bring him up to me with the bed, that he may be put to death.

16. And when the messengers were come, behold, the image lay in the bed, and a kidskin at his head.

17. And Saul said unto Michal, Why hast thou deceived me, and left mine enemy to escape? And Michal said unto Saul, He said unto me, Let me go, or I will kill thee.

18. And David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done unto him. And he went with Samuel, and dwelt at Naioth.

19. And it was told Saul, saying, Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah.

20. And Saul sent messengers to fetch David. And they saw two choirs of prophets prophesying; and Samuel was their overseer. And the Spirit of God came upon Saul's messengers, and they prophesied also.

21. And when it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, which prophesied also. And he sent the third messengers, and they prophesied also.

22. And he himself went to Ramah; and when he came to the great well that is in Seku, he asked, saying, Where is Samuel and David? And it was told him, Behold, at Naioth in Ramah.

23. And there he went to Naioth in Ramah. And the Spirit of God came upon him, and he went and prophesied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah.

24. And he stripped himself also of his garments, and prophesied also before Samuel, and fell down naked all that day and all that night.

Therefore they say: Is Saul also among the prophets?

(1 Samuel)

Chapter 20

Jonathan and David's friendship.

1. And David fled from Naioth unto Ramah: and David came and spake before Jonathan, saying, What have I done? What have I transgressed? What have I sinned against thy father, that he should seek my life?

2. And he said unto him, Far be it from thee; thou shalt not die. Behold, my Father doeth nothing, great or small, that he revealeth not unto mine ears: why then should my Father hide these things from me? It will not be so.

3. And David sware again, saying, Thy father knoweth that I have found grace in thine eyes: therefore he will think, Jonathan shall not know these things, lest he be grieved. Verily the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, there is but a step between me and death.

4. And Jonathan said unto David, I will do unto thee according to the desire of thine heart.
5. And David said unto him, Behold, to morrow is the new moon, when I shall sit at meat with the king: let me therefore hide myself in the field until the even of the third day.
6. And if thy father inquire of me, say, David beseeched me that he would run to Bethlehem, to his own city: for there is a yearly sacrifice there unto all the family.
7. If he say, It is good, it is well with thy servant. But if he be angry, thou shalt know that evil is determined in him.
8. Now therefore do thou mercy unto thy servant: for thou hast made a covenant with me thy servant in the LORD. But if there be any iniquity in me, kill me: for why wouldest thou bring me unto thy father?
9. And Jonathan said, Far be it from me, that I should know that evil was determined by my father to come upon thee, and that I should not tell it thee.
10. And David said, Who will tell me, if thy father answer thee a hard thing?
11. And Jonathan said unto David, Come, and let us go out into the field. And they went both of them out into the field,
12. And Jonathan said unto David, O LORD God of Israel, if I search my father to morrow, and the third day, that it be well with David, and send not unto thee, and shew it not in thine ears.
13. Then let the LORD Jonathan do this, and that. And if it please my father to do evil against thee, I will shew it also in thine ears, and let thee go in peace. And the LORD be with thee, as he was with my father.
14. If I do it not, do not the mercy of the LORD upon me, because I live, neither if I die.
15. And it shall come to pass, when the LORD shall cut off the enemies of David, every one out of the land, that thou wilt not tear thy mercy from mine house for ever.
16. So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, The LORD require it out of the hand of David's enemies.
17. And Jonathan went on, and sware unto David, that he loved him: for he loved him as he loved his own soul.
18. And Jonathan said unto him, To morrow is the new moon, and they shall inquire of thee: for thou shalt be missed when thou sittest.

19. And the third day come down quickly, and go into a place where thou shalt hide thyself in the day of work, and sit down by the stone of Asel,

20. Then will I shoot three arrows at his side, as I shot at the sure time.

21. And, behold, I will send the lad: Go, seek the arrows. And if I say unto the lad, Behold, the arrows lie behind thee hither; go and fetch them: come, for there is peace, and no hurt, as the LORD liveth.

22. And if I say unto the young man, Behold, the arrows lie before thee thither: go thy way, for the LORD hath let thee go.

23. And whatsoever thou and I have spoken together, the LORD is between me and thee for ever.

24. And David hid himself in the field. And when the new moon was come, the king sat down to meat.

25. And when the king was set in his place, as he was set before, against the wall, Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by Saul's side. And David was missed in his place.

26. And Saul spake nothing that day: for he thought, Something hath befallen him, that he is not clean.

27. And it came to pass on the second day of the new moon, when David was missed in his place, that Saul said unto Jonathan his son, Why is not the son of Jesse come to the table, either yesterday or to day?

28. And Jonathan said unto Saul, He besought me that he would go to Bethlehem, 29. And he said, Let me go, for our family hath sacrifices to offer in the city, and my brother hath commanded me himself: now therefore if I have found grace in thine eyes, I will go away, and see my brethren. Therefore he came not to the king's table.

30. And Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, Thou rebellious wicked man! I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to be a reproach unto thee and to thy wicked mother.

31. For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the earth, thou shalt not stand, neither shall thy kingdom. Send therefore, and bring him to me; for he must die.

32. And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, Why should he die? What hath he done?

33. And Saul shot the spear at him, and speared him. And Jonathan perceived that it was fully determined with his father to slay David.

34. And he arose from the table in fierce wrath, and did eat no bread the next day of the new moon: for he was grieved for David, because his father condemned him so.

35. And it came to pass in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field, whither he had appointed David, and a little lad with him.

36. And said unto the lad: Run, and find me the arrows which I shoot. And as the lad ran, he shot an arrow at him.

37. And when the lad came to the place whither Jonathan had shot the arrow, Jonathan called after him, and said, The arrow lieth thither before thee.

38. And called after him again: Make haste, and stand not still. And the lad of Jonathan gathered up the arrows, and brought them unto his lord.

39. And the lad knew not: but Jonathan and David knew the matter.

40. And Jonathan gave his weapon unto his lad, and said unto him, Go and carry it into the city.

41. And when the lad was come in, David arose out of the place about noon, and fell on his face to the ground, and worshipped three times: and they kissed one another, and wept one with another; but David most of all.

42. And Jonathan said unto David, Go in peace. That which we both have sworn in the name of the LORD, saying, The LORD be between me and thee, and between my seed and thy seed, shall stand for ever.

43. And Jonathan arose, and came into the city.

(1 Samuel)

Chapter 21

David starves, flees, and dissembles.

1. And David came to Nob unto Ahimelech the priest. And Ahimelech was amazed, when he met David, and said unto him, Why comest thou alone, and is there no man with thee?

2. And David said unto Ahimelech the priest, The king commanded me a thing, and said unto me, Let no man know why I have sent thee, or what I have commanded thee. For I have also sent my sons hither or thither.

3. Now if thou hast any under thine hand, one loaf, or five, deliver them into my hand, or whatsoever thou findest.

4. And the priest answered David, and said: I have no common bread under my hand, but holy bread; if only the boys had abstained from women!
5. And David answered the priest, and said unto him, The women were barred unto us three days, when I went forth; and the lad's seed was holy: but if this way be unholy, it shall be sanctified this day in the witness.
6. Then the priest of the holy place gave him, because there was no other bread than the shewbread that was laid up before the LORD, to lay up other fresh bread that day, when he had taken it away.
7. And there was that day a man shut up before the LORD of the servants of Saul, whose name was Doeg, an Edomite, the mightiest of the shepherds of Saul.
8. And David said unto Ahimelech, Is there not here under thine hand a spear or a sword? I have not taken my sword and weapons with me; for the king's cause was urgent.
9. And the priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom thou smote in the valley of the oak, is here, wrapped in a cloak behind the ephod. If thou wilt have the same, take it: for there is none else here but this. And David said, There is none like it: give it me.
10. And David arose and fled from before Saul, and came to Achish king of Gath.
11. And the servants of Achish said unto him, This is David king of the land, of whom they sang in the round dance, saying, Saul slew a thousand, and David ten thousand.
12. And David took the speech to heart, and was sore afraid of Achish king of Gath.
13. And he disguised his gesture before them, and rolled under their hands, and thrust himself at the door of the gate, and his jealousy flowed into his beard.
14. Then said Achish unto his servants: Behold, ye see that the man is foolish: wherefore have ye brought him unto me?
15. Have I not enough of the foolish, that ye have brought this one to run beside me? Shall he come into my house?

(1 Samuel)

Chapter 22

Saul has eighty-five priests killed by the traitor Doeg.

1. And David went from thence, and escaped into the cave of Adullam: and when his brethren heard it, and all his father's house, they came down unto him there.
2. And there were gathered unto him all manner of men that were in distress, and in debt, and of a grieved heart: and he was chief of them; and there were with him about four hundred men.
3. And David went from thence unto Mizpeh, into the land of Moab, and said unto the king of Moab, Let my father and my mother go out and come in unto you, until I know what God will do unto me.
4. And he left them before the king of Moab, to abide with him all the days that David was in the castle.
5. And Gad the prophet said unto David, Dwell not in the castle, but go and come into the land of Judah. So David went, and came into the forest of Hareth.
6. And it came to pass before Saul, that David and the men that were with him came forth. And it came to pass, as Saul dwelt in Gibeah under a grove in Ramah, that he had his spear in his hand, and all his servants stood by him.
7. And Saul said unto his servants that sat by him: Hear, ye children of Jemini, the son of Jesse also shall give you all the fields and vineyards, and make you rulers over thousands and over hundreds,
8. That ye have all joined yourselves together against me; and is there none that hath made it known unto mine ears, because my son also hath made a covenant with the son of Jesse? Is there none of you whom it grieveth for me, and revealeth it unto mine ears? For my son hath raised up my servant against me, to come after me as it is in the day.
9. And Doeg the Edomite, which stood by Saul's servants, answered and said: I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nobe to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub.
10. And he asked the LORD for him, and gave him meat, and the sword of Goliath the Philistine.
11. And the king sent and called Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests that were at Nobe. And they came all unto the king.
12. And Saul said, Hear, thou son of Ahitub. And he said, Here am I, my lord.

13. And Saul said unto him, Why have ye made a covenant against me, thou and the son of Jesse, to give him bread and a sword, and to ask God for him, that thou shouldest raise him up to pursue me, as it is in the day?

14. And Ahimelech answered the king, and said, And who is there among all thy servants, but David, that is faithful, and the king's son in law, and walketh in thy obedience, and is kept in thy house in glory?

15. Have I but this day begun to ask God for him? Be it far from me! Let not the king lay these things upon his servant in all my father's house: for your servant has known nothing of all this, small or great.

16. And the king said, Ahimelech, thou must surely die, thou, and all thy father's house.

17. And the king said unto his servants that sat by him: Turn ye, and slay the priests of the LORD: for their hand also is with David; and when they knew that he fled, they told me not.

But the king's servants would not lay their hands on the priests of the LORD to slay them.

18. And the king said unto Doeg, Turn thou, and slay the priests. Turn thou, and slay the priests.

And Doeg the Edomite turned, and slew the priests: and there died that day fourscore and five men that wore linen vestments.

19. And the city of the priests, Nob, he smote with the edge of the sword, both man and woman, children and sucklings, oxen and asses and sheep.

20. And there escaped a son of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, whose name was Abiathar, and he fled after David.

21. And he told him that Saul had slain the priests of the LORD.

22. And David said unto Abiathar, I knew it the day that Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would tell Saul: I am guilty of all the souls of thy father's house.

23. Abide with me, and fear not. He that standeth after my life, the same shall stand after thy life: and thou shalt be kept with me.

(1 Samuel)

Chapter 23

David is betrayed anew, persecuted, and miraculously saved.

1. And it was told David, saying, Behold, the Philistines fight against Keilah, and spoil the threshingfloors.

2. And David asked the LORD, saying, Shall I go and smite these Philistines? And the LORD said unto David, Go, thou shalt smite the Philistines, and deliver Keilah.

3. And the men that were with David said unto him, Behold, we are afraid here in Judah, and will go to Keilah, to the Philistines' house?

4. And David asked the LORD again: and the LORD answered him, and said, Go down to Keilah; for I will deliver the Philistines into thine hand.

5. So David and his men went to Keilah, and fought against the Philistines, and carried off their cattle, and did great slaughter unto them. So David delivered them that were in Keilah.

6. For when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David to Keilah, he carried the ephod down with him.

7. And it was told Saul that David was come to Keilah, and Saul said, God hath delivered him into mine hand, that he should be shut up, when he was come into a city shut up with gates and bars:

8. And Saul called all the people to battle at Keilah, to put David and his men to the sword.

9. And when David knew that Saul had evil thoughts against him, he said unto Abiathar the priest, Bring forth the ephod.

10. And David said, O LORD God of Israel, thy servant hath heard that Saul seeketh to come to Keilah to destroy the city for my sake.

11. Will the people of Keilah deliver me into his hand? And shall Saul come down, as thy servant hath heard? Declare it, O LORD God of Israel, unto thy servant. And the LORD said, He shall come down.

12. And David said, Will the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul? And the LORD said, Yea.

13. Then David arose, he and his men, about six hundred of them, and departed from Keilah, and walked whithersoever they could. And when it was told Saul that David was escaped from Keilah, he put his departure in order.

14. And David abode in the wilderness, in the stronghold, and dwelt in the mount in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul sought him all the days of his life: but God delivered him not into his hand.

15. And David saw that Saul was gone out to seek his life. But David was in the wilderness of Ziph, in the heath.

16. And Jonathan the son of Saul arose, and went to David into the heathen, and strengthened his hand in God;

17. And he said unto him, Fear not: for the hand of Saul my father shall not find thee; and thou shalt reign over Israel, and I will be next unto thee; and my father knoweth these things.

18. And they made both of them a covenant together before the LORD. And David abode in the heath, but Jonathan returned home.

19. And the Ziphites went up to Saul to Gibeah, and said: Is not David hid with us in the castle, in the heath, in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the right hand of the wilderness?

20. Therefore let the king come down according to all the desire of his heart, and let us deliver him into the king's hand.

21. And Saul said, Blessed be ye unto the LORD, that ye have had mercy upon me.

22. Go ye therefore, and be more sure, that ye may know and see in what place his feet have been, and who hath seen him there: for it is told me that he is crafty.

23. Behold, search out all the places where he is hid, and come again unto me, if ye be sure, and I will go with you. And if he be in the land, I will search for him among all the thousands of Judah.

24. And they made ready, and went to Ziph before Saul. And David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the region on the right hand of the wilderness.

25. And when Saul went with his men to seek, it was told David: and he went down into the rock, and dwelt in the wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard it, he pursued after David in the wilderness of Maon.

26. And Saul and his men went on one side of the mountain, and David and his men on the other side of the mountain. And when David hasted to escape from Saul, Saul and his men compassed David and his men, and took them.

27. And there came a messenger to Saul, saying, Make haste, and come; for the Philistines are fallen into the land.

28. And Saul turned back from pursuing David, and went to meet the Philistines: therefore the name of the place is called Shelah-mahelkoth.

Ch. 24, v. 1. And David went up from thence, and abode in the castle of Engedi.

(1 Samuel)

Chapter 24

David spares Saul in the cave

2. And when Saul was come again from the Philistines, he was told, Behold, David is in the wilderness of Engedi.

3. And Saul took three thousand young men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men upon the rock of the chamois.

4. And when he was come to the sheepcote by the way, there was a cave there: and Saul went in to cover his feet. And David and his men sat in the back of the cave.

5. And David's men said unto him, Behold, this is the day of which the LORD hath said unto thee, Behold, I will deliver thine enemy into thine hand, and thou shalt do unto him as it pleaseth thee. And David arose, and quietly cut a corner of Saul's skirt.

6. But afterward his heart smote him, because he had cut off the tail of Saul, 7. And he said unto his men, Let this thing be far from me, that I should do it, and lay my hand upon my lord the LORD'S anointed: for he is the LORD'S anointed.

8. And David sent away his men with words, and suffered them not to rise up against Saul. And Saul arose out of the cave, and went by the way,

9. And afterward David also arose, and went out of the cave; and called after Saul in the rear, and said, My lord the king. And Saul looked behind him. And David bowed his face to the ground, and worshipped.

10. And said unto Saul, Why obeyest thou the word of men, which say, David seeketh thy mischief?

11. Behold, this day thine eyes see that the LORD hath delivered thee this day into mine hand in the cave, and it was said that I should slay thee. But thou wast spared, because I said: I will not lay my hand upon my lord; for he is the LORD'S anointed.

12. My father, behold the corner of thy skirt in mine hand, that I would not slay thee, when I cut off the corner of thy skirt. Know and see that there is no evil in my hand, nor any transgression. Neither have I sinned against thee: And thou huntest my soul to take it away.

13. The LORD will be judge between me and thee, and will avenge me on thee: but mine hand shall not be upon thee.

14. As the old saying is, From the wicked cometh iniquity. But my hand shall not be upon thee.

15. Whom goest thou after, O king of Israel? Whom dost thou pursue? A dead dog, a few fleas?

16. Let the LORD be judge, and judge between me and thee, and see; and plead my cause, and deliver me out of thine hand.

17. And when David had spoken these words unto Saul, Saul said, Is not this thy voice, my son David? And Saul lifted up his voice, and wept.

18. And he said unto David, Thou art more righteous than I. Thou hast proved me good, but I have proved thee evil.

19. And thou hast shewed me this day how thou hast done good unto me, how that the LORD had delivered me into thy hand, and yet thou hast not slain me.

20. How shall a man find his enemy, and let him go a good way? The LORD repay thee good for this day, which thou hast done unto me!

21. Now therefore, behold, I know that thou shalt be king, and the kingdom of Israel is in thine hand.

22. Now therefore swear unto me by the LORD, that thou wilt not cut off my seed after me, neither wipe out my name from my father's house.

23. And David sware unto Saul. And Saul went home; and David and his men went up to the castle.

(1 Samuel)

Chapter 25

Samuel's death. Nabal's folly. Abigail's caution. David's courtship of her.

1. And Samuel died; and all Israel gathered themselves together, and mourned for him, and buried him in his house at Ramah. And David arose, and went down into the wilderness of Paran.

2. And there was a man in Maon, and his substance in Carmel: and the man was of great substance, and had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats. And it came to pass, that he shewed his sheep in Carmel.

3. And his name was Nabal; and his wife's name was Abigail, and she was a woman of good understanding, and fair of face: but the man was hard and wicked in his doings, and was one of Caleb.

4. And it came to pass, when David was in the wilderness, that he heard Nabal shearing his sheep,

5. And he sent forth ten young men, and said unto them: Go up to Carmel, and when ye come to Nabal, greet him kindly for my sake.

6. And say, Peace be unto thee, and to thy house, and to all that thou hast.

7. I have heard that thou hast shearers. Now thy shepherds, which thou hast, have been with us; we have not mocked them, neither have they lacked in number all the days that they have been at Carmel.

8. Ask thy young men therefore, and they shall tell thee: and let the young men find grace in thine eyes: for we are come to a good day. Give unto thy servants, and unto thy son David, that which thine hand findeth.

9. And when the young men of David were come, and had spoken all these words unto Nabal because of David, they ceased.

10. And Nabal answered David's servants, and said, Who is David? and who is the son of Jesse?

Now there are many servants that tear themselves from their masters.

11. Shall I take my bread, and my water, and my flesh, which I have slain for my shearers, and give them unto men whom I know not whence they are?

12. And the young men of David returned on their way: and when they were come again to him, they told him all these things.

13. And David said unto his men, Gird every man his sword upon him. And every man girded his sword upon him; and David girded his sword also upon him, and went up after him about four hundred men: but two hundred abode by the device.

14. And Abigail Nabal's wife said unto one of the young men, Behold, David hath sent messengers out of the wilderness to bless our lord: and he snorted at them.

15. And they have been very good unto us, and have not mocked us, neither have we lacked in number as long as we have walked with them in the field,

16. But have been our walls day and night, all the days that we have kept the sheep with them.

17. Take heed therefore, and see what thou doest: for surely there is a calamity upon our lord, and upon all his house; and he is an unruly man, to whom no man may speak.

18. And Abigail made haste, and took two hundred loaves, and two measures of wine, and five sheep boiled, and five measures of flour, and an hundred heads of raisins, and two hundred heads of figs, and loaded them upon asses.

19. And said unto her young men: Go before me; behold, I will come afterward. And she told not her husband Nabal.

20. And as she rode upon the ass, and went down in the darkness of the mountain, behold, David met her, and his men came down, and met her.

21. And David had said: For I have kept in vain all that this man hath in the wilderness, that nothing hath failed of all that he hath: and he hath paid me good with evil.

22. God do so, and more to the enemies of David, where I deliver unto this until light morrow one that pisseth against the wall out of all that he hath!

23. And when Abigail saw David, she came down quickly from off her ass, and fell on her face before David, and worshipped the earth.

24. And he fell down at his feet, and said, Alas, my lord, let this iniquity be mine; and let thy handmaid speak in thine ears, and hear the words of thy handmaid.

25. Let not my lord set his heart against this Nabal the hopeless man: for he is a fool, as his name is called, and foolishness is with him. But I thy handmaid have not seen the young men of my lord, whom thou hast sent.

26. But now, my lord, as the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, the LORD hath prevented thee from coming against the blood, and hath redeemed thy hand. Now therefore, as Nabal, so shall thine enemies be, and they that would do evil unto my lord.

27. Here is the blessing which thy handmaid hath brought unto my lord: give it unto the young men that walk under my lord.

28. Forgive the transgression of thine handmaid. For the LORD will make my lord an established house, because thou hast made war with the LORD: and let no evil be found in thee all the days of thy life.

29. And if a man rise up to persecute thee, and seek thy soul, the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of the living with the LORD thy God: but the soul of thine enemies shall be slung with the sling.

30. When the LORD shall do all the good unto my lord, which he hath spoken unto thee, and shall command thee to be a duke over Israel,

31. Then it shall not be a shock nor an offence unto the heart of my lord, that thou hast not shed blood without a cause, and saved thyself: then shall the LORD be well pleased with my lord, and thou shalt remember thy handmaid.

32. And David said unto Abigail: Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which hath sent thee this day to meet me.

33. And blessed be thy speech, and blessed be thou that thou hast saved me this day, that I have not come against blood, and have redeemed myself with mine own hand.

34. Verily, as the LORD God of Israel liveth, who hath prevented me from doing thee evil, if thou hadst not hasted to meet me, there would not have remained unto Nabal this bright morning one that pisseth against the wall.

35. So David took from her hand that which she had brought him, and said unto her, Go up in peace unto thine house: behold, I have hearkened unto thy voice, and have looked upon thy person.

36. And when Abigail came to Nabal, behold, he had prepared a feast in his house, as the feast of a king: and his heart was good with himself, and he was very drunken. And she told him nothing, neither small nor great, until the morning light.

37. And it came to pass, when it was morning, and the wine was come from Nabal, that his wife told him these things. And his heart was sore in his flesh, and he became as a stone.

38. And for ten days the LORD smote him, and he died.

39. And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be the LORD, which smelled my reproach upon Nabal, and delivered his servant from evil: and the LORD hath recompensed the evil of Nabal upon his head. And David sent and spake unto Abigail, that he might take her to wife.

40. And when David's servants came to Abigail to Carmel, they spake unto her, saying: David sent us unto thee, that he might take thee to wife.

41. And she arose, and worshipped upon her face to the earth, saying, Behold, here is thy handmaid, to minister unto the servants of my lord, and to wash their feet.

42. And Abigail made haste, and arose, and rode upon an ass, and five damsels that were under her, and went after David's messengers, and became his wife.

43. And David took Ahinoam of Jezreel; and they were both his wives.

44. And Saul gave Michal his daughter, David's wife, to Phalti the son of Lai of Gallim.

(1 Samuel)

Chapter 26

David takes Saul's spear and water cup.

1. And they of Ziph came to Saul to Gibeah, and said: Is not David hid in the hill of Hachilah before the wilderness?

2. And Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, and with him three thousand young men of Israel, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph.

3. And he encamped in the hill of Hachilah, which is before the wilderness by the way. And David abode in the wilderness. And when he saw that Saul was come after him into the wilderness,

4. And he sent out spies, and learned that Saul was sure to come.

5. And David arose, and came to the place where Saul was encamped, and saw the place where Saul lay with Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host. For Saul lay in the chariot, and the host round about him.

6. And David answered and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, the brother of Joab, Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp? And Abishai said: I will go down with thee.

7. So David and Abishai came to the people by night. And, behold, Saul lay sleeping in the chariot-house, and his spear was in the earth at his head. And Abner and the people lay about him.

8. And Abishai said unto David, God hath delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore will I thrust him into the earth with the spear once, that he have no more need.

9. And David said unto Abishai, Destroy him not: for who shall lay hands on the LORD'S anointed, and go unpunished?

10. And David said, As the LORD liveth, if the LORD smite him not, or his time come that he die, or go into battle, and perish,

11. Then let the LORD be far from me, that I should lay my hand upon the LORD'S anointed.

Now therefore take the spear for his heads, and the cup of water, and let us go.

12. So David took the spear and the cup of water at the heads of Saul, and went; and there was none that saw, nor knew, nor awaked; but they were all asleep. For a deep sleep had fallen upon them from the LORD.

13. And when David was come over on the other side, he stood upon the top of the mountain afar off, and there was a great space between them.

14. And the people cried unto Abner the son of Ner, saying, Hearest thou not, Abner? And Abner answered and said, Who art thou that crieth out against the king?

15. And David said unto Abner, Art not thou a man? and who is like thee in Israel? Why then hast thou not kept thy lord the king? For one of the people is come in to destroy thy lord the king.

16. But it is not good that thou hast done this thing. As the LORD liveth, ye are the children of death, because ye have not kept your master, the LORD'S anointed. Now, behold, here is the king's spear, and the cup of water that was at his head.

17. And Saul knew the voice of David, and said: Is not this thy voice, my son David? And David said, It is my voice, my lord the king.

18. And he said, Why doth my lord thus persecute his servant? What have I done, and what evil is in my hand?

19. Now therefore, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant, If the LORD provoke thee against me, let a meat offering be smelled: but if the children of men do it, let them be accursed before the LORD, to cast me out this day, that I cleave not unto the inheritance of the LORD, saying: Go, serve other gods.

20. Now therefore let not my blood fall to the ground from the presence of the LORD. For the king of Israel is gone out to seek a flea, as one chaseth a partridge upon the mountains.

21. And Saul said: I have sinned; come again, my son David. I will not harm thee again, because my soul hath been dear in thine eyes this day. Behold, I have done foolishly and very unwisely.

22. And David answered and said, Behold, here is the king's spear; let one of the young men go over and fetch it.

23. But the LORD will recompense every man according to his righteousness and faith. For the LORD hath delivered thee into mine hand this day; but I would not lay mine hand upon the LORD'S anointed.

24. And as this day thy soul was greatly esteemed in mine eyes, so let my soul be greatly esteemed in the eyes of the LORD, and save me from all tribulation.

25. And Saul said unto David, Blessed art thou, my son David; thou shalt do it, and go forth. And David went his way, and Saul returned unto his place.

(1 Samuel)

Chapter 27

David's apartment in Ziklag.

1. And David said in his heart, I shall fall into the hand of Saul in those days: nothing is better for me than that I should escape into the land of the Philistines, that Saul should desist from seeking me again throughout all the coasts of Israel; and I shall escape out of his hand.

2. And he arose, and went over, he and the six hundred men that were with him, unto Achish the son of Maach, king of Gath.

3. So David dwelt at Achish in Gath with his men, every man with his household; and David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, the wife of Nabal.

4. And when it was told Saul that David was fled to Gath, he sought him no more.

5. And David said unto Achish, If I have found grace in thine eyes, let me have a place in the cities of one of the country, that I may dwell therein: why should thy servant dwell with thee in the royal city?

6. Then Achish gave him Ziklag of that day. Therefore Ziklag is the king of Judah unto this day.

7. And the time that David dwelt in the land of the Philistines was one year and four months.

8. And David went up, he and his men, and fell into the land of the Geshurites, and the Gittites, and the Amalekites: for these were the inhabitants of that land of old, when they came unto Shur, even unto the land of Egypt.

9. And when David had smitten the land, he left neither man nor woman alive, and took sheep, and oxen, and asses, and camels, and raiment; and returned, and came to Achish.

10. And when Achish said, Are ye not invaded this day? then said David, Against the south of Judah, and against the south of the Jerahmeelites, and against the south of the Kenites.

11. And David suffered neither man nor woman to come alive to Gath, and thought that they would speak and gossip against us. So David did, and it was his way all the days that he dwelt in the land of the Philistines.

12. Therefore Achish believed David, saying, He hath made himself vile in the sight of his people Israel: therefore shall he be my servant for ever.

(1 Samuel)

Chapter 28

Saul seeks advice from a magician and is frightened by the ghost.

1. And it came to pass in those days, that the Philistines gathered their host together to battle against Israel. And Achish said unto David, Thou shalt know that thou and thy men shall go forth with me into the army.

2. And David said unto Achish, Well, thou shalt know what thy servant shall do. And Achish said unto David, Therefore will I make thee keeper of my head all the days of my life.

3. And Samuel died, and all Israel mourned for him, and buried him in Ramah his city. So Saul had driven out of the land the soothsayers and the diviners.

4. And it came to pass, when the Philistines were gathered together, and were come and encamped at Sunem, that Saul gathered all Israel together, and encamped at Gilboa.

5. And when Saul saw the host of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart was sore troubled.

6. And he consulted the LORD: but the LORD answered him not, neither by dreams, nor by light, nor by prophets.

7. And Saul said unto his servants: Seek me out a woman that hath a spirit of divination, that I may go unto her, and ask her. And his servants said unto him, Behold, there is a woman at Endor that hath a spirit of divination:

8. And Saul changed his garments, and put on other garments, and went, and two others with him, and came by night unto the woman, and said, Prophecy unto me by the spirit of the diviner, and bring up unto me that I tell thee.

9. And the woman said unto him, Behold, thou knowest well what Saul hath done, how he hath cut off the soothsayers and the diviners from the land: why then wilt thou bring my soul into the net, that I may be killed?

10. And Saul swore unto her by the LORD, saying, As the LORD liveth, let not this thing come to thee into iniquity.

11. And the woman said, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said, Bring up Samuel unto me.

12. And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice, and said unto Saul, Why hast thou deceived me? Thou art Saul.

13. And the king said unto her, Fear not; what seest thou? And the woman said unto Saul, I see gods coming up out of the earth.

14. And he said, What manner of man is he? And she said, There cometh up an old man, clothed in a robe of silk. And Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and bowed himself with his face to the ground, and worshipped.

15. And Samuel said unto Saul, Why hast thou troubled me, to bring me up? And Saul said: I am greatly distressed, the Philistines fight against me, and God is departed from me, and answereth me not, neither by prophets, nor by dreams: therefore have I sent for thee, that thou mightest tell me what I should do.

16. And Samuel said, What wilt thou ask me, because the LORD is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy?

17. The LORD will do unto thee as he hath spoken by me, and will snatch the kingdom out of thine hand, and will give it to David thy neighbour;

18. Because thou hast not hearkened unto the voice of the LORD, nor executed the fury of his wrath against thee, therefore hath the LORD done this thing unto thee.

19. And the LORD shall deliver Israel with thee into the hand of the Philistines. Tomorrow thou and thy sons shall be with me. The LORD also shall deliver the host of Israel into the hand of the Philistines.

20. And Saul fell to the ground as long as he was, and was sore afraid at the words of Samuel, because there was no strength in him: for he had eaten nothing all that day nor all that night.

21. And the woman went in unto Saul, and saw that he was sore afraid, and said unto him, Behold, thy handmaid hath hearkened unto thy voice, and I have put my soul in mine hand, to hearken unto thy words which thou hast spoken unto me.

22. Now therefore thou also shalt obey thy handmaid's voice. I will set before thee a morsel of bread, that thou mayest eat, and recover thy strength, and go thy way.

23. But he refused, and said: I will not eat. And his servants and the woman constrained him, that he should obey their voice. And he arose from the earth, and sat up in bed.

24. And the woman had a fattened calf at home; and she made haste, and slew it, and took flour, and kneaded it, and baked it unleavened.

25. And he brought it before Saul, and before his servants. And when they had eaten, they arose, and passed the night.

(1 Samuel)

Chapter 29

David is sent back by the Philistines.

1. And the Philistines gathered all their armies to Aphek: and Israel encamped at Am in Jezreel.

2. And the lords of the Philistines went by hundreds, and by thousands: but David and his men went behind at Achish.

3. And the princes of the Philistines said, What shall these Ebrams do? And Achish said unto them: Is not this David the servant of Saul king of Israel, which hath been with me year and day, and hath found nothing in him from the time he fell away until now?

4. And the lords of the Philistines were wroth with him, and said unto him, Let the man return, and abide in his place whither thou hast appointed him, lest he go down to battle with us, and be our adversary in the battle. For in what will he please his lord better than in the heads of these men?

5. Is not he David, of whom they sang in the round dance, saying, Saul hath slain a thousand, but David ten thousand?

6. And Achish called David, and said unto him, As surely as the LORD liveth, I think thee honest, and thy going out and thy coming in with me in the army pleaseth me well, and I have not seen any evil in thee since the time that thou camest unto me unto this day: but thou pleasest not with the princes.

7. Now therefore return, and go in peace, that thou do not evil in the sight of the lords of the Philistines.

8. And David said unto Achish, What have I done, and what hast thou reproved thy servant, from the time that I was before thee until now, that I should not come and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?

9. And Achish answered and said unto David, I know it: for thou art pleasing in mine eyes, as an angel of God. But the princes of the Philistines have said, Let him not go up with us to battle.

10. Now therefore arise early in the morning, and thy master's servants that are come with thee: and when ye have risen early in the morning, that it may be light, go.

11. So David and his men rose up early, and went in the morning, and returned into the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

Chapter 30

David is victorious against the Amalekites and divides the plunder.

1. And it came to pass on the third day, when David was come to Ziklag with his men, that the Amalekites came in at noon, and at Ziklag, and smote Ziklag, and burned it with fire; 2. And they had led away the women out of it, both small and great: but they had not killed any, but had driven them away, and gone their way.

3. And when David and his men were come to the city, he saw that it was burned with fire, and that their wives and their sons and their daughters were taken captives, 4. And David and the people that were with him lifted up their voice, and wept, until they could weep no more.

5. For David's two wives were also captives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabai the Carmelite.

6. And David was sore troubled: for the people would have stoned him: for all the people's souls were troubled, every man for his sons and for his daughters. But David strengthened himself in the LORD his God.

7. And he said unto Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech's son, Bring me the ephod. And when Abiathar had brought the ephod unto David,

8. And David asked the LORD, saying, Shall I pursue after the men of war, and shall I seize them? And he said, Pursue them, and thou shalt seize them, and shalt do salvation.

9. And David went, and the six hundred men that were with him: and when they came to the brook Besor, some stood still:

10. And David and the four hundred men pursued; but the two hundred men that stayed were too weary to go over the brook Besor.

11. And they found an Egyptian man in the field, and brought him unto David, and gave him bread, that he might eat, and watered him with water;

12. And they gave him a piece of figs, and :two pieces of raisins. And when he had eaten, his spirit came again to him: for he had eaten nothing, neither drunk water, in three days and three nights.

13. And David said unto him, Whose art thou? and whence art thou? And he said: I am an Egyptian lad, the servant of an Amalekite: and my lord hath forsaken me, because I was sick three days ago.

14. We fell upon Krethi at noon, and upon Judah at noon, and upon Caleb at noon, and burned Ziklag with fire.

15. And David said unto him, Wilt thou bring me down unto these men of war? And he said, Swear to me by God that thou wilt not kill me, nor deliver me into the hand of my lord, and I will bring thee down unto these men of war.

16. And he brought them down. And, behold, they were scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth, eating and drinking, and feasting upon all the great spoil which they had taken out of the land of the Philistines and Judah.

17. And David smote them from the morning until the evening toward the second day: and there escaped not one of them, save four hundred young men, which fell upon camels, and fled.

18. So David delivered all that the Amalekites had taken, and his two wives; 19. And lacked none, neither small nor great, neither sons, nor daughters, nor spoil, nor any thing that they had taken: David brought it all again.

20. And David took the sheep and the oxen, and drove the people before him: and they said, This is David's spoil.

21. And when David came to the two hundred men that were too weary to follow David, and had tarried by the brook Besor, they went out to meet David, and the people that were with him. And David stood by the people, and greeted them kindly.

22. Then answered they that were wicked and loose among them that went with David, and said: Because they went not with us, let nothing be given them of the spoil which we have delivered: but let every man lead his wife and his children, and go.

23. And David said, Ye shall not do so, my brethren, with that which the LORD hath given us, and hath preserved us, and delivered into our hand these men of war that came against us.

24. Who shall obey you in this? As the portion of them that go down to battle, so shall the portion of them that abide in the device be, and shall be divided alike.

25. This hath been the custom and the law in Israel from that time forward unto this day.

26. And when David was come to Ziklag, he sent of the spoil to the elders of Judah, to his friends, saying, Behold, ye have the blessing of the spoil of the enemies of the LORD; 27. Namely, to them that are at Bethel, and to them that are at Ramoth in the south day, and to them that are at Jathir,

28. To them of Aroer, to them of Siphamoth, to them of Esthemoa, 29. To them that are in Rachel, to them that are in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, to them that are in the cities of the Kenites,

30. To those of Horma, to those of Bor-asan, to those of Athah,

31. To them in Hebron, and to all the places where David walked with his men.

Chapter 31

Saul's last war against the Philistines, wherein he stabbed himself.

1. And the Philistines fought against Israel: and the men of Israel fled before the Philistines, and fell down slain in mount Gilboa.

2. And the Philistines attached themselves to Saul and to his sons, and smote Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua, Saul's sons.

3. And the battle was sore against Saul, and the archers smote him with bows, and he was greatly wounded of the archers.

4. And Saul said unto his armourbearer, Put forth thy sword, and thrust me therewith, lest these uncircumcised come and stab me, and make a mockery of me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid. So Saul took the sword and fell on it.

5. And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell upon his sword, and died with him.

6. So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armourbearer, and all his men, at the same time that day.

7. And when the men of Israel that were beyond the bottom, and that were beyond Jordan, saw that the men of Israel were fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities, and fled also: so the Philistines came and dwelt within.

8. And the next day the Philistines came to strip the slain, and found Saul and his three sons lying in mount Gilboa.

9. And they cut off his head, and stripped him of his weapons, and sent them abroad into the land of the Philistines, to proclaim in the house of their idols, and among the people.

10. And they put his armour in the house of Ashtaroth, but they hanged his body upon the wall of Bethsan.

11. And they that were at Jabesh in Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul, 12. And they arose, which were men of valour, and went all night, and took the dead bodies of Saul and of his sons from the wall of Bethsan, and brought them to Jabesh, and burned them there.

13. And they took their bones, and buried them under the tree of Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

Text of the unrevised Luther Bible 1545:

DeepL English Translation

[Processed by BackToLuther. German text published here.]

The Second Book of Samuel (2 Samuel) ^

Chapter 1

David's song of mourning over the death of Saul and Jonathan.

1. After the death of Saul, when David was come again from the battle of Amalek, and abode two days in Ziklag,

2. And, behold, on the third day there came a man of the host of Saul with his clothes rent, and earth upon his head. And when he came to David, he fell to the ground, and worshipped.

3. And David said unto him, Whence comest thou? And he said unto him, Out of the host of Israel am I escaped.

4. And David said unto him, Tell me how it is. And he said, The people are fled from the battle, and much people are fallen: and Saul is dead, and Jonathan his son.
5. And David said unto the young man that told him, How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his son are dead?
6. And the young man that told him said: I came to mount Gilboa, and, behold, Saul leaned upon his spear, and the chariots and horsemen pursued after him.
7. And he turned, and saw me, and called unto me. And I said, Here am I.
8. And he said unto me, Who art thou? And I said unto him, I am an Amalekite.
9. And he said unto me, Come near me, and slay me: for I am afflicted round about, and my life is yet in me.
10. And I came unto him, and slew him; for I knew well that he could not live after his fall: and I took the crown from off his head, and the bracelet from off his arm, and brought it unto thee, my lord.
11. And David took hold of his garments, and rent them, and all the men that were with him.
12. And they mourned, and wept, and fasted until even, over Saul, and over Jonathan his son, and over the LORD'S people, and over the house of Israel, because they were fallen by the sword.
13. And David said unto the young man that told him, Whence art thou? And he said: I am the son of a stranger, an Amalekite.
14. And David said unto him, How art thou not afraid to lay thine hand upon the LORD'S anointed to destroy him?
15. And David said unto one of his young men, Come near, and smite him. And he smote him, and he died.
16. And David said unto him, Thy blood be upon thy head: for thy mouth hath spoken against thee, saying: I have slain the LORD'S anointed.
17. And David lamented this lamentation over Saul, and over Jonathan his son.
18. And commanded that the children of Judah should be taught the bow. Behold, it is written in the book of the righteous:

19. The noblest of Israel are slain in thy high places. How are the mighty fallen!

20. Declare it not in Gath, proclaim it not in the street of Asklon; lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised be glad.

21. Ye mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew, neither let there be rain upon you, neither let there be any ground for heave offerings: for there the shield of the mighty is cut off, the shield of Saul, as though it were not anointed with oil.

22. The bow of Jonathan hath never failed, and the sword of Saul hath never returned empty of the blood of the slain, and of the fat of the mighty.

23. Saul and Jonathan, lovely and sweet in their life, are not parted in death; lighter than eagles, and stronger than lions.

24. Ye daughters of Israel, weep for Saul, who clothed you cleanly with raisin paint, and adorned you with jewels of gold upon your garments.

25. How are the mighty fallen in the battle! Jonathan is slain upon thy high places.

26. I am sorry for thee, my brother Jonathan. I have had great joy and delight in thee; thy love hath been more strange unto me than woman's love is.

27. How have the heroes fallen, and the valiant perished!

(2 Samuel)

Chapter 2

Anointing of David as king. Ishbosheth's rebellion.

1. And it came to pass after this, that David asked the LORD, saying, Shall I go up into the cities of Judah? And the LORD said unto him, Go up. And David said, Whither? And he said, To Hebron.

2. So David went with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

3. And David brought up the men that were with him, every man with his household, and dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

4. And the men of Judah came and anointed David there king over the house of Judah. And it was told David that they of Jabesh in Gilead had buried Saul,

5. And he sent messengers unto them, saying, Blessed be ye unto the LORD, that ye have shewed such mercy unto your LORD Saul, and have buried him.
6. The LORD therefore have mercy upon you, and faithfulness; and I will do you good also, because ye have done these things.
7. Let your hands therefore be stayed, and be joyful: for your lord Saul is dead, and the house of Judah have anointed me king over them.
8. And Abner the son of Ner, which was captain of Saul's host, took Ishbosheth Saul's son, and brought him to Mahanaim;
9. And made him king over Gilead, and over Asuri, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel.
10. And Ishbosheth Saul's son was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel: and he reigned two years. But the house of Judah kept David.
11. And the time that David reigned in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.
12. And Abner the son of Ner went out of the army to Gibeon, he and the servants of Ishbosheth the son of Saul;
13. And Joab the son of Zeruiah went out with the servants of David, and met together at the pool of Gibeon, and lay down these on this side of the pool, and those on that side.
14. And Abner said unto Joab, Let the lads arise, and play before us. And Joab said, It is well.
15. And they arose, and went their number, twelve of Benjamin, for the part of Ishbosheth Saul's son, and twelve of the servants of David.
16. And every man took the other by the head, and thrust in his side his sword, and fell together.
Wherefore the place is called: Helkath-hazurim, which is at Gibeon.
17. And there was a very sore battle that day. And Abner and the men of Israel were smitten before the servants of David.
18. And there were three sons of Zeruiah there: Joab, Abishai, and Asahel. And Asahel was light of foot, as a deer in the field;
19. And he pursued after Abner, and departed not to the right hand or to the left hand of Abner.
20. And Abner turned, and said, Art thou Asahel? And he said, Yea.

21. And Abner said unto him, Lift thee up either on thy right hand, or on thy left; and take for thee one of the lads, and take him his armour. But Asahel would not depart from him.

22. And Abner said unto Asahel, Lift thee up from me. Why wilt thou that I should smite thee to the ground? and how shall I lift up my face before Joab thy brother?

23. But he refused to depart. And Abner thrust him behind him with a spear into his belly, and the spear went out behind him: and he fell there, and died before him. And whosoever came to the place where Asahel lay dead stood still.

24. And Joab and Abishai pursued after Abner until the going down of the sun. And they came to the hill of Amma, which is before Giah, by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon, 25. And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became a company, and stood upon the top of a hill.

26. And Abner called unto Joab, and said, Shall the sword devour without end? Knowest thou not that hereafter there shall be more mourning? How long wilt thou not tell the people, that they may depart from their brethren?

27. And Joab said, As God liveth, if thou hadst said so this morning, the people would have desisted every man from his brother.

28. And Joab blew the trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more.

29. And Abner and his men went all that night over the plain, and passed over Jordan, and walked through all Bithron, and came into the camp.

30. And Joab turned from Abner, and gathered all the people together: and there lacked of David's servants nineteen men, and Asahel.

31. But the servants of David had smitten among Benjamin and the men of Abner, that three hundred and threescore men were left dead.

32. And they raised up Asahel, and buried him in his father's sepulchre in Bethlehem: and Joab and his men went all night, that the light might break upon them. And the light was kindled in Hebron.

(2 Samuel)

Chapter 3

Abner killed by Joab.

1. And there was a long battle between the house of Saul and the house of David. And David went and increased; and the house of Saul went and decreased.
2. And children were born unto David in Hebron: his firstborn son Amnon of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess;
3. the other: Chileab of Abigail, Nabal's wife, the Carmelite; the third: Absalom the son of Maachah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur;
4. The fourth Adonijah the son of Hagith; the fifth: Saphatiah the son of Abital; 5. The sixth, Jethream of Egla, David's wife. These were born unto David in Hebron.
6. And it came to pass, when there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner strengthened the house of Saul.
7. And Saul had a concubine, whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. And Ishbosheth said unto Abner, Why layest thou with my father's concubine?
8. And Abner was very wroth at these words of Ishbosheth, and said, Am I then a dog's head, that I do mercy against Judah to the house of Saul thy father, and to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into David's hand? And thou reckonest iniquity unto me this day for a woman?
9. God do unto Abner this, and that, if I do not do as the LORD David swear, 10. That the kingdom might be taken from the house of Saul, and that the throne of David might be established over Israel and over Judah from Dan even to Beersheba.
11. And again he could not answer him a word, for he was afraid.
12. And Abner sent messengers unto David for himself, saying, Whose land is this? And he said, Make thy covenant with me: behold, my hand shall be with thee, that I may return unto thee all Israel.
13. And he said, Well, I will make a covenant with thee. But this I pray thee, that thou see not my face; but bring thou first to me Michal Saul's daughter, when thou comest to see my face.
14. And David sent messengers unto Ishbosheth the son of Saul, saying, Give me Michal my wife, whom I have entrusted to me with an hundred foreskins of the Philistines.
15. And Ishbosheth sent, and took them of the man Partiell the son of Lai.

16. And her husband went with her, and wept behind her unto Bahurim. And Abner said unto him, Return, and go. And he returned.

17. And Abner spake unto the elders of Israel, saying: Ye were long ago desirous of David, that he should reign over you.

18. Now therefore do it: for the LORD said of David, I will deliver my people Israel by the hand of David my servant out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies.

19. And Abner spake in the ears of Benjamin, and went to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that was good in Israel, and in all the house of Benjamin.

20. And it came to pass, when Abner was come to David to Hebron, and with him twenty men, that David made them a feast.

21. And Abner said unto David, I will arise, and go, and gather all Israel unto my lord the king, and they shall make a covenant with thee, that thou mayest be king, as thy soul desireth. So David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.

22. And, behold, the servants of David and Joab came from the men of war, bringing with them a great spoil. Now Abner was not with David in Hebron, but had sent him away, that he might go in peace.

23. And it came to pass, when Joab and all the host were come with him, that it was told him that Abner the son of Ner was come to the king, and that he had sent him away in peace.

24. And Joab went in unto the king, and said, What hast thou done? Behold, Abner is come unto thee: why hast thou sent him away from thee, that he is departed?

25! Knowest thou not Abner the son of Ner? For he is come to persuade thee, that he may know thy going out, and thy coming in, and know all that thou doest.

26. And when Joab was gone out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, to fetch him again from Borhazira: and David knew it not.

27. And it came to pass, when Abner was come again to Hebron, that Joab brought him into the midst of the gate to speak unto him privily, and there he smote him in the belly, and he died, because of the blood of Asahel his brother.

28. And it came to pass afterward, when David heard it, that he said, I am guiltless, and my kingdom before the LORD for ever, because of the blood of Abner the son of Ner.

29. And it shall fall upon the head of Joab, and upon all his father's house; and it shall not cease in the house of Joab, which hath a flow of pus, and leprosy, and walketh by the staff, and falleth by the sword, and lacketh bread.

30. So Joab and Abishai his brother slew Abner, because he slew Asahel their brother in the battle at Gibeon.

31. And David said unto Joab, and to all the people that were with him, Rend your clothes, and gird sackcloth about you, and bear grief for Abner. And the king went after the coffin.

32. And when they buried Abner in Hebron, the king lifted up his voice, and wept at the sepulchre of Abner; and all the people wept also.

33. And the king bewailed Abner, saying, Abner died not, as a fool dieth.

34. Thy hands are not bound, neither are thy feet put in fetters: thou art fallen, as one falleth before wicked men. Then all the people wept for him still more.

35. And it came to pass, when all the people were come in to eat with David, while it was yet high day, that David sware, saying, God do this to me, and that, where I taste bread, or any thing, before the sun go down.

36. And all the people knew it, and all the good things that the king did pleased them in the sight of all the people.

37. And all the people and all Israel perceived that day that it was not of the king that Abner the son of Ner was slain.

38. And the king said unto his servants: Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?

39. But I am yet tender, and an anointed king. But the men, the children of Zeruiah, are grievous unto me. The LORD reward him that doeth evil according to his wickedness.

(2 Samuel)

Chapter 4

Isboseth is murdered and smelled by David.

1. And when Saul's son heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, his hands were loosed, and all Israel were afraid.

2. And there were two men captains over the warriors among the sons of Saul; the name of the one was Baena, and the name of the other

Rechob, sons of Rimon the Berothite, of the children of Benjamin. For Beroth also was reckoned among Benjamin. - ·

3. And the Berothites fled to Gethaim, and were strangers there unto this day.

4. And Jonathan the son of Saul had a son that was lame of his feet: and he was five years old when the cry of Saul and Jonathan came out of Jezreel, and his nurse took him up, and fled: and as she hasted and fled, he fell, and went lame: and his name was Mephibosheth.

5. So the sons of Rimon the Berothite, Rechob and Baena, went, and came to the house of Ishbosheth, when the day was hottest; and he lay in his bed at noon.

6. And they came into the house to take wheat: and they pricked him in the stomach, and escaped.

7. For when they were come into the house, he lay upon his bed in his bedchamber, and they smote him dead, and cut off his head, and took his head, and went by the way of the plain all night.

8. And they brought the head of Ishbosheth unto David to Hebron, and said unto the king, Behold, the head of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, thine enemy, which strove after thy soul: the LORD hath smelled my lord the king this day upon Saul, and upon his seed.

9. And David said unto them, As the LORD liveth, he hath delivered my soul out of all my affliction,

10. And I took him that told me, saying, Saul is dead, thinking that he was a good messenger: and I slew him in Ziklag, to whom I should give a messenger's fee.

11. And these wicked men slew a righteous man in his house upon his bed. Yea, shall I not require the blood of your hands, and do you out of the earth?

12. And David commanded his young men, and they slew them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up by the pool of Hebron. And they took the head of Ishbosheth, and buried it in Abner's sepulchre at Hebron.

(2 Samuel)

Chapter 5

David's second anointing, happy state, and twofold victory.

1. And all the tribes of Israel came to David to Hebron, saying, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh.

2. And also in time past, when Saul was king over us, thou leddest out and broughtest in Israel.

Thus hath the LORD said unto thee, Thou shalt shepherd my people Israel, and shalt be a duke over Israel.

3. And all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron. And king David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD: and they anointed David king over Israel.

4. David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years.

5. In Hebron he reigned seven years and six months over Judah: but in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years over all Israel and Judah.

6. And the king went with his men to Jerusalem against the Jebusites that dwelt in the land. And they said unto David, Thou shalt not come in hither, but the blind and the lame shall carry thee away. This is what they meant, that David would not come in.

7. But David took the castle of Zion, which is David's city.

8. And David said the same day, He that smiteth the Jebusites, and taketh the gutters, the lame, and the blind, to whom the soul of David is hostile. Therefore they say, Let not the blind and the lame come into the house.

9. So David dwelt in the castle, and called it the city of David. And David built round about from Millo, and within.

10. And David went and received, and the LORD God of hosts was with him.

11. And Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers unto David, and cedar trees for a wall, and carpenters and stonemasons, to build David an house.

12. And David perceived that the LORD had confirmed him to be king over Israel, and had exalted his kingdom for the sake of his people Israel.

13. And David took more wives and concubines at Jerusalem, after he was come from Hebron: and there were born unto him more sons and daughters.

14. And these are the names of them that were born unto him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,

15. Jebehar, Elisua, Nepheg, Japhia,

16. Elisama, Eliada, Eliphalet.

17. And when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over Israel, they all went up to seek David. And when David heard of it, he went down into a castle.

18. But the Philistines came and settled in the valley of Rephaim.

19. And David asked the LORD, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines, and wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto David, Go up, and I will deliver the Philistines into thine hand.

20. And David came to Baalprazim, and smote them there, and said, The LORD hath torn mine enemies from before me as the waters do tear. Therefore the name of that place was called Baalprazim.

21. And they left their idol there. And David and his men lifted them up.

22. And the Philistines went up again, and settled in the valley of Rephaim.

23. And David inquired of the LORD, and the LORD said, Thou shalt not go up; but come behind them, that thou mayest come upon them over against the mulberry trees.

24. And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt hear the sound of the tops of the mulberry trees, that thou shalt beware: for the LORD is gone out before thee to smite the host of the Philistines.

25. And David did as the LORD commanded him, and smote the Philistines from Geba until they came to Gaser.

(2 Samuel)

Chapter 6

David's dance of joy upon picking up the Ark of the Covenant.

1. And David gathered again all the young men of Israel, thirty thousand.

2. And he arose, and went with all the people that were with him of the inhabitants of Judah, to bring up thence the ark of God, which is called, The name of the LORD of hosts dwelleth thereon above the cherubims.

3. And they brought the ark of God in a new chariot, and took it out of the house of Abinadab, which dwelt at Gibeah. And Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drove the new chariot.

4. And when they brought him forth with the ark of God out of the house of Abinadab, which dwelt in Gibeah, Ahio went before the ark,

5. And David and all the house of Israel played before the LORD with all manner of strings of fir wood, and with harps, and psalteries, and timbrels, and cymbals.

6. And when they were come to the threshingfloor of Nachon, Uzzah took hold, and kept the ark of God: for the oxen stood by.

7. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah, and God smote him there for his iniquity, and he died there by the ark of God.

8. And David was grieved that the LORD had made such a breach in Uzzah: and he called the name of that place Perez-uzah unto this day.

9. And David feared the LORD of that day, and said, How shall the ark of the LORD come unto me?

10. And would not suffer them to be brought unto him into the city of David, but brought them into the house of Obbedom the Gittite.

11. And it came to pass, when the ark of the LORD abode in the house of Obbedom the Gittite three months, that the LORD blessed him, and all his house.

12. And it was told king David, saying, The LORD hath blessed the house of Obbedom, and all that he had, because of the ark of God. And he went and brought up the ark of God out of the house of Obbedom into the city of David with joy.

13. And as they went along with the ark of the LORD six courses, they sacrificed an ox and a fat sheep.

14. And David danced before the LORD with all his might, and was girded with a linen ephod.

15. And David and all Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting and with trumpets.

16. And when the ark of the LORD was come into the city of David, Michal Saul's daughter looked through the window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the LORD, and despised him in her heart.

17. And when they had brought in the ark of the LORD, they set it in the midst of the tabernacle which David had pitched for them. And David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

18. And when David had offered the burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts.

19. And he divided out of all the people, and out of the multitude of Israel, both man and woman, to every man a cake of bread, and a piece of flesh, and a spoonful of wine. And all the people returned every man to his house.

20. And when David was come again to bless his house, Michal Saul's daughter went out to meet him, and said, How glorious hath the king of Israel been this day, that he hath uncovered himself before the handmaidens of his servants, as the loose men uncover themselves!

21. And David said unto Michal, I will play before the LORD, which hath chosen me before thy father, and before all his house, to command me to be ruler over the LORD'S people, over Israel.

22. And I will be even less than thus: and I will be lowly in mine eyes, and will become honourable with the handmaidens of whom thou hast spoken.

23. But Michal Saul's daughter had no child until the day of her death.
(2 Samuel)

Chapter 7

David gets the promise of the Messiah when he is willing to build a temple.

1. Now when the king sat in his house, and the LORD had given him rest from all his enemies round about,

2. And he said unto Nathan the prophet, Behold, I dwell in a house of cedars, and the ark of God dwelleth under the carpets.

3. And Nathan said unto the king: Go thy way; all that thou hast in thine heart do: for the LORD is with thee.

4. And the word of the LORD came unto Nathan by night, saying:

5. Go and say unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD, Shall thou build me an house to dwell in?

6. For I have not dwelt in any house since the day that I brought up the children of Israel out of Egypt unto this day: but I have walked in the tabernacle and in the tabernacle.

7. Whithersoever I walked with all the children of Israel, have I spoken with any of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people Israel, saying, Why build ye not me an house of cedar?

8. Now therefore thus shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I have taken thee from the sheepcote, that thou shouldest be ruler over my people Israel; 9. And I have been with thee whithersoever thou hast gone, and have cut off all thine enemies from before thee, and have made thee a great name, as the name of the great men that are in the earth.

10. And I will set a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell there, and shall go no more astray; neither shall the children of wickedness throng them any more, as at the first,

11. And from that time I have set judges over my people Israel, and will give thee rest from all thine enemies. And the LORD declare unto thee, that the LORD will make thee an house.

12. And it shall come to pass, when thy days are expired, that thou shalt lie down with thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed after thee, which shall come forth out of thy womb, and I will establish his kingdom.

13. He shall build an house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom for ever.

14. I will be his father, and he shall be my son. And if he do iniquity, I will punish him with the rod of men, and with the blows of the children of men;

15. But my mercy shall not be taken away from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I took away from before thee.

16. But thy house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee, and thy throne shall be established for ever.

17. For Nathan had spoken all these words, and all this vision to David,
18. And David the king came and stood before the LORD, and said, Who am I, O LORD, and what is my house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

19. Thou hast not hearkened unto these things, O Lord, O Lord, but hast spoken to the house of thy servant of things to come. This is the manner of a man that is God the LORD.

20. And what shall David speak more unto thee? Thou knowest thy servant, O Lord, O Lord!

21. For thy word's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all these great things, to make them known unto thy servant.

22. Wherefore also thou art greatly esteemed, O LORD God: for there is none like thee, neither is there any God but thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

23. For where is there a nation in the earth like thy people Israel, for whom God went to redeem a people unto him, and to make him a name, and to do such great and terrible things in thy land before thy people, whom thou hast redeemed unto thee from Egypt, from the heathen, and from their gods?

24. And thou hast prepared for thee thy people Israel, for thy people for ever: and thou, O

LORD, art become their God.

25. Now therefore, O LORD GOD, confirm the word for ever, which thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, and do as thou hast spoken: 26. And thy name shall be magnified for ever; and it shall be said, The LORD of hosts is the God of Israel. And the house of thy servant David shall stand before thee.

27. For thou, O LORD of hosts, O God of Israel, hast opened the ear of thy servant, saying, I will build thee an house. Therefore thy servant hath found his heart to pray this prayer unto thee.

28. Now, O LORD, O LORD, thou art GOD, and thy words shall be truth. Thou hast spoken these good things concerning thy servant.

29. Now therefore lift up and bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee for ever: for thou, O LORD, hast spoken it: and with thy blessing shall thy servant's house be blessed for ever.

(2 Samuel)

Chapter 8

David triumphs and orders the offices.

1. And it came to pass afterward, that David smote the Philistines, and weakened them, and took the bridle of the Philistines' hand.

2. And he smote Moab to the ground, so that he put two parts to death, and left one part alive. So the Moabites became servile unto David, that they brought him gifts.

3. And David smote Hadarezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, when he went to recover his power by the river Phrath.

4. And David took of them a thousand and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen; and he crippled all the chariots, and left an hundred chariots.

5. And the Syrians came from Damascus to help Hadarezer king of Zobah: and David smote the Syrians twenty and two thousand men.

6. And he put people in Damascus in Syria. So Syria was servile unto David, that they brought him gifts. For the LORD helped David whithersoever he went.

7. And David took the shields of gold that were Hadarezer's servants, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8. But from Betah and Berothai, the cities of Hadarezer, king David took almost much brass.

9. And it came to pass, when Toi king of Hemath heard that David had smitten all the power of Hadarezer, that he was smitten,

10. And he sent Jehoram his son unto David, to salute him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadarezer, and smitten him; (for Toi had fought with Hadarezer:) and he had with him jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and jewels of brass, 11. Which king David also sanctified unto the LORD, with the silver and gold which he sanctified unto the LORD out of all the heathen which he brought in among him:

12. Of Syria, and of Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the spoil of Hadarezer the son of Rehob king of Zobah.

13. And David made him a name, when he returned, and smote the Syrians in the valley of salt, eighteen thousand.

14. And he put people in all Edom, and all Edom was subject unto David: for the LORD helped David whithersoever he went.

15. So David reigned over all Israel; and he established righteousness and justice among all the people.

16. And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host: and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was chancellor;

17. Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, were priests: Seraiah was a scribe;

18. Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Krethi and Plethi: and the sons of David were priests.

(2 Samuel)

Chapter 9

Good deed of David against Mephiboseth

1. And David said: Is there any left of the house of Saul, that I should show him mercy for Jonathan's sake?

2. And there was a servant of the house of Saul, whose name was Ziba; and they called him to David. And the king said unto him, Art thou Ziba? And he said, Yea, thy servant.

3. And the king said: Is there any other of the house of Saul, that I may do God's mercy upon him? And Ziba said unto the king: There is yet a son of Jonathan, lame of foot.
4. And the king said unto him, Where is he? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he is at Lodabar, in the house of Machir the son of Ammiel.
5. And king David sent and fetched him from Lodabar, of the house of Machir the son of Ammiel.
6. And when Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan the son of Saul came to David, he fell on his face, and worshipped. And David said, Mephibosheth. And he said, Here am I thy servant.
7. And David said unto him, Fear not: for I will shew thee mercy for Jonathan thy father's sake, and will restore thee all the land of Saul thy father: and thou shalt eat bread daily at my table.
8. And he worshipped, and said, Who am I thy servant, that thou turnest to a dead dog, as I am?
9. And the king called Ziba Saul's son, and said unto him, All that was Saul's, and all his house, have I given unto thy master's son.
10. Now therefore work his field, thou, and thy children, and thy servants, and bring it in, that it may be thy lord's son's bread, that he may feed himself: but Mephibosheth thy lord's son shall eat bread daily at my table. And Ziba had fifteen sons, and twenty servants.
11. And Ziba said unto the king: All that my lord the king hath commanded his servant, so shall his servant do. And Mephibosheth eat upon my table, as the king's children eat one.
12. And Mephibosheth had a little son, whose name was Micah. And all that dwelt in the house of Ziba served Mephibosheth.
13. And Mephibosheth dwelt at Jerusalem, because he did eat daily at the king's table: and he limped with both his feet.

(2 Samuel)

Chapter 10

The Ammonites mock David's servants and are defeated.

1. And it came to pass after this, that the king of the children of Ammon died; and Hanon his son reigned in his stead.
2. And David said, I will shew mercy unto Hanon the son of Naha, as his father shewed mercy unto me. And he sent and comforted him by his servants concerning his father. And the servants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon,

3. And the mighty men of the children of Ammon said unto Hanon their lord, Thinkest thou that David hath honoured thy father in thy sight, in that he hath sent comforters unto thee?

Thinkest thou not that therefore he hath sent his servants unto thee, to search the city, and to search it, and to return?

4. And Hanon took David's servants, and shaved half their beards, and cut off half their garments, even to the girdle, and sent them away.

5. And when it was told David, he sent to meet them: for the men were greatly defiled. And the king said unto them, Tarry at Jericho until your beard be grown, and then come again.

6. And when the children of Ammon saw that they stank before David, they sent, and dined with the Syrians of the house of Rehob, and with the Syrians of Zobah, twenty thousand footmen, and of king Maachah a thousand men, and of Ishob twelve thousand men.

7. And when David heard it, he sent Joab with all the host of the men of war.

8. And the children of Ammon went out, and prepared themselves to battle at the gate. And the Syrians of Zobah, and of Rehob, and of Ishob, and of Maachah, were alone in the field.

9. And it came to pass, when Joab saw that the battle was set upon him, both before and behind, that he chose out of all the young men of Israel, and armed himself against the Syrians.

10. And the rest of the people he put under the hand of Abishai his brother, to make ready against the children of Ammon;

11. And said, If the Syrians outnumber me, come to my help: but if the children of Ammon outnumber thee, I will come to thy help.

12. Be of good cheer, and let us be strong for our people, and for the cities of our God: but let the LORD do that which is right in his sight.

13. And Joab came near with the people that were with him to fight against the Syrians: and they fled before him.

14. And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians fled, they fled from Abishai, and entered into the city. So Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.

15. And when the Syrians saw that they were smitten before Israel, they came in multitude.

16. And Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Syrians that were beyond the river, and brought in their force: and Shobach the captain of Hadarezer's host went before them.

17. And when it was told David, he gathered all Israel together, and passed over Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians armed themselves against David to fight with him.

18. And the Syrians fled before Israel: and David slew of the Syrians seven hundred chariots, and forty thousand horsemen: and he smote Shobach the captain of the host, and he died there.

19. And when the kings that were under Hadarezer saw that they were smitten before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and became subject unto them. And the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon more.

(2 Samuel)

Chapter 11

David's adultery and manslaughter.

1. And it came to pass, when the year was expired, at the time that kings go forth, that David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel, to destroy the children of Ammon, and to occupy Rabbah: but David abode at Jerusalem.

2. And it came to pass about even, that David arose from his couch, and went up to the roof of the king's house, and saw a woman washing herself from the roof: and the woman was very beautiful in form.

3. And David sent and asked for the woman, saying, Is not this Bathsheba the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?

4. And David sent messengers, and fetched her. And when she was come in unto him, he slept with her. And she purged herself from her uncleanness, and returned unto her house.

5. And the woman conceived, and sent and told David, saying, I am with child.

6. And David sent unto Joab, saying, Send unto me Uriah the Hittite. And Joab sent Uriah unto David.

7. And when Uriah came to him, David asked if it were well with Joab, and with the people, and with the battle.

8. And David said unto Uriah, Go down to thine house, and wash thy feet. And when Uriah was gone out to the king's house, he followed him after the king's present.

9. And Uriah lay down to sleep at the door of the king's house, where all the servants of his lord lay, and went not down into his house.

10. And it was told David, saying, Uriah went not down to his house: and David said unto him, Didst thou not come over the field? Why wentest thou not down to thine own house?

11. And Uriah said unto David, The ark, and Israel, and Judah, dwell in tents; and Joab my lord, and my lord's servants, lie in the field: and shall I go into mine house to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? As thou livest, and as thy soul liveth, I will not do it.

12. And David said unto Uriah, Stay here this day, and tomorrow I will send thee away. So Uriah abode at Jerusalem by day, and by night.

13. And David invited him to eat and drink before him, and made him drunken. And it came to pass in the evening, that he went out to lie down in his bed with his master's servants, and went not down to his house.

14. In the morning David wrote a letter unto Joab, and sent it by Uriah.

15. And he wrote thus in the epistle, Set Uriah in the battle, where it is hardest, and turn aside behind him, that he may be slain and die.

16. And it came to pass, when Joab was round about the city, that he set Uriah in the place where he knew that there were men of war.

17. And when the men of the city came out, and fought against Joab, some of the people of David's servants fell, and Uriah the Hittite died also.

18. And Joab sent, and told David all the bargain of the battle.

19. And he commanded the messenger, saying, When thou hast made an end of all the bargain of the battle with the king

20. And behold, the king is wroth, and saith unto thee, Why have ye come so nigh unto the city to battle? know ye not how to shoot from the wall?

21. Who smote Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth? Did not a woman cast a piece of a mill upon him from the wall, and he died in Thebez? Wherefore have ye come nigh unto the wall? then shalt thou say, Thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

22. And the messenger went and came, and told David all things, wherefore Joab had sent him.

23. And the messenger said unto David, The men rose up against us, and fell out unto us into the field: and we were with them unto the gate of the gate.

24. And the archers shot from the wall at thy servants, and slew some of the king's servants: and Uriah thy servant the Hittite is dead also.

25. And David said unto the messenger: Thus shalt thou say unto Joab, Let not this thing offend thee: for now the sword devoureth this, now that. Stop the battle against the city, that thou mayest break it; and be of good cheer.

26. And when Uriah's wife heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she mourned for her landlord.

27. And when she had mourned, David sent and took her into his house, and she became his wife, and bare him a son. But the deed which David did displeased the LORD.

(2 Samuel)

Chapter 12

Nathan's sermon on repentance.

1. And the LORD sent Nathan unto David. And when he was come unto him, he said unto him, There were two men in one city, the one rich, and the other poor.

2. the rich man had a great many sheep and oxen;

3. But the poor man had nothing, save one little lamb, which he had bought: and he nourished it, and it waxed great with him, and with his children at the same time; it did eat of his meat, and drank of his cup, and slept in his bosom; and he kept it as a daughter.

4. And when a stranger came to the rich man, he spared to take of his flocks and of his herds, to dress for the stranger that came to him: and he took the poor man's sheep, and dressed them for the man that came to him.

5. And David was wroth with great wrath against the man, and said unto Nathan, As the LORD liveth, the man that hath done this is the child of death.

6. And he shall pay the sheep fourfold, because he hath done this thing, and hath not spared it.

7. And Nathan said unto David, Thou art the man. Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I have anointed thee king over Israel, and have delivered thee out of the hand of Saul; 8. And I have given thee the house of thy master, and his wives into thy bosom; and I have given thee the house of Israel and Judah: and if that be not enough, I will add this and that.

9. Wherefore then hast thou despised the word of the LORD, to do this evil in his sight? Thou hast slain Uriah the Hittite with the sword; thou hast taken his wife to wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon.

10. Now therefore the sword shall not depart from thine house for ever, because thou hast despised me, and hast taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife.

11. Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will raise up evil against thee out of thine own house, and will take thy wives before thine eyes, and will give them unto thy neighbour, and he shall sleep with thy wives in the bright sun.

12. For thou hast done it secretly: but I will do it before all Israel, and before the sun.

13. And David said unto Nathan, I have sinned against the LORD. And Nathan said unto David, So hath the LORD taken away thy sin; thou shalt not die.

14. But because thou hast blasphemed the enemies of the LORD by this thing, the son that is born unto thee shall surely die.

15. And Nathan went home. And the LORD smote the child that Uriah's wife bare unto David, that he died.

16. And David besought GOD for the babe, and fasted; and went in, and lay upon the ground all night.

17. And the elders of his house arose, and would have lifted him up from the earth: but he would not, neither did he eat with them.

18. And on the seventh day the child died. And the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead. For they thought: Behold, when the child was yet alive, we spake unto him, and he hearkened not unto our voice: how much more shall it hurt him, if we say, The child is dead?

19. And when David saw that his servants spake softly, and perceived that the child was dead, he said unto his servants: Is the child dead? And they said: Yes.

20. And David arose from the earth, and washed himself, and anointed himself, and put on other raiment, and went into the house of the LORD, and worshipped. And when he was come home again, he set him bread, and did eat.

21. And his servants said unto him, What is this thing that thou doest? When the child was alive, thou fastedst and wept; but now that he is dead, risest thou and eatest?

22. And he said, For the child I fasted, and wept when he was alive: for I thought: Who knoweth whether the LORD will have mercy on me, that the child may live?

23. But now that it is dead, what shall I fast? Can I fetch it again? I will go to him, but he will not come to me again.

24. And when David had comforted Bathsheba his wife, he went in unto her, and slept with her.

And she bare a son, and called his name Solomon. And the LORD loved him.

25. And he put him under the hand of Nathan the prophet, who called his name Jedidiah, because of the LORD.

26. And Joab fought against Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and took the king's city.

27. And he sent messengers unto David, saying, I have fought against Rabbah, and have gained the city of waters.

28. Now therefore take ye the remnant of the people, and besiege the city, and take it, lest I take it, and I have the name thereof.

29. So David took all the people together, and went and fought against Rabbah, and took them.

30. And they took the crown of their king from off his head, which weighed a talent of gold, and precious stones, and was set upon David's head: and he brought forth out of the city much spoil.

31. And he brought out the people that were within, and put them under saws of iron, and under prongs of iron, and under wedges of iron, and burned them in brickkilns. So did he to all the cities of the children of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

(2 Samuel)

Chapter 13

The incestuous Amnon is murdered by Absalom's servants.

1. And it came to pass after this, that Absalom the son of David had a fair sister, whose name was Tamar: and Amnon the son of David loved her.
2. And Amnon feigned himself sick because of Tamar his sister. For she was a virgin, and it seemed hard unto Amnon that he should do her any hurt.
3. And Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Simea David's brother: and the same Jonadab was a very wise man.
4. And he said unto him, Why growest thou lean, O king's son, from day to day? wilt thou not tell me? And Amnon said unto him, I have loved Tamar my brother Absalom's sister.
5. And Jonadab said unto him, Lie thee down upon thy bed, and make thee sick. And it shall come to pass, when thy father is come to look upon thee, that thou shalt say unto him, Let my sister Tamar come, that she may suck me, and make a meal before me, that I may watch, and eat of her hand.
6. So Amnon lay down, and was sick. And when the king came to see him, Amnon said unto the king: Let my sister Thamar come, that she may make a vegetable or two before me, and I may eat of her hand.
7. And David sent to Tamar to the house, saying, Go to the house of Amnon thy brother, and make him meat.
8. And Tamar went to the house of Amnon her brother; and he lay in bed. And she took a dough, and kneaded it, and soothed it before his eyes, and cooked him a vegetable.
9. And she took the dish, and poured it out before him: but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, Let every man go out from me. And every man went out from him.
10. And Amnon said unto Tamar, Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand.
And Tamar took the meat which she had made, and brought it into the chamber unto Amnon her brother.
11. And when she had brought it to him to eat, he took hold of her, and said unto her, Come hither, my sister, sleep with me.
12. And she said unto him, Not, my brother, weaken me not, for so one is not in Israel; do not such foolishness.
13. Where will I go with my shame? And thou shalt be like the fools of Israel. But speak unto the king, and he shall not deny me thee.

14. But he would not obey her, and overpowered her, and weakened her, and slept with her.

15. And Amnon was exceeding sorry for her, because the hatred was greater than the love was before. And Amnon said unto her, Arise, and be lifted up.

16. And she said unto him, This evil is greater than the other which thou hast done unto me, to cast me out. But he hearkened not unto her voice, 17. But called unto his lad that was his servant, and said, Drive this one out from me, and shut the door after her.

18. And she had on a coat of many colours: for the king's daughters wore such coats, because they were virgins. And when his servant had driven her out, and shut the door behind her, 19. And Tamar cast ashes upon her head, and rent the coat of many colours that she had on, and put her hand upon her head, and went and cried.

20. And Absalom her brother said unto her: Hath thy brother Amnon been with thee? Now therefore, my sister, hold thy peace; it is thy brother, and take not the matter so much to heart. So Tamar abode alone in Absalom her brother's house.

21. And when king David heard all these things, he was very wroth. But Absalom spake not unto Amnon, neither evil nor good.

22. And Absalom was grieved with Amnon, because he had weakened Tamar his sister.

23. And Absalom had shearers in Baal-hazor, which is under Ephraim, about two years: and Absalom invited all the king's sons.

24. And he came to the king, and said, Behold, thy servant hath shearers: let the king and his servants go with his servant.

25. And the king said unto Absalom, Not so, my son, let us not all go, lest we trouble thee. And when he had urged him, yet he would not go, but blessed him.

26. And Absalom said, Shall not my brother Amnon go with us? And the king said unto him, Why should he go with thee?

27. And Absalom constrained him, that he should leave Amnon and all the king's sons with him.

28. And Absalom commanded his sons, saying, Behold, when Amnon is well pleased with the wine, and I say unto you, Smite Amnon, and slay him, that ye fear not: for I have commanded you; be of good cheer, and be fresh.

29. So the sons of Absalom did unto Amnon as Absalom commanded them. And all the king's sons arose, and every man sat upon his mouth, and fled.

30. And while they were yet in the way, the rumour came before David, that Absalom had slain all the king's sons, that there was not one of them left.

31. And the king arose, and rent his clothes, and lay upon the ground; and all his servants that sat about him rent their clothes.

32. And Jonadab the son of Simea David's brother answered and said, My lord think not that all the lads the king's children are dead; but Amnon is dead to all. For Absalom hath kept it with him from the day that he weakened Tamar his sister.

33. Now therefore, my lord the king, take not this to heart, that all the king's children are dead; but Amnon only is dead.

34. And Absalom fled. And the lad that was in the way lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, a great multitude came one after another by the way of the side of the mountain.

35. And Jonadab said unto the king, Behold, the king's children are come: as thy servant hath said, so it is come to pass.

36. And when he had spoken, behold, the king's sons came and lifted up their voice, and wept.

And the king and all his servants wept very sore.

37. And Absalom fled, and went unto Talmai the son of Ammihud king of Geshur. And he mourned for his son all the days of his life.

38. And Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three years.

39. And king David ceased from going out against Absalom: for he was comforted because of Amnon, because he was dead.

(2 Samuel)

Chapter 14

Absalom finds mercy through the intercession of the woman of Thekoa.

1. And Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart was against Absalom.

2. And he sent to Thekoa, and fetched thence a wise woman, and said unto her, Bear sorrow, and put on garments of sorrow, and anoint thee not with oil; but be thou as a woman that hath borne sorrow a long time for a dead man.

3. And thou shalt go in unto the king, and speak unto him thus and thus. And Joab gave her charge what she should speak.

4. And when the woman of Thekoa would have spoken unto the king, she fell upon her face to the earth, and worshipped, saying, Help me, O king.

5. And the king said unto her, What is the matter with thee? She said: I am a widow, a woman that mourneth, and my husband is dead;

6. And thy handmaid had two sons, which quarreled together in the field: and there being no saviour, one smote the other, and slew him.

7. And, behold, all the friends of thy handmaid rise up, and say, Deliver him that smote his brother, that we may kill him for the soul of his brother whom he slew, and destroy the heir also: and we will quench my spark that is left, that there shall not be left to my husband a name, nor any thing upon the earth.

8. And the king said unto the woman, Go home, and I will command for thee.

9. And the woman of Thekoa said unto the king: My lord the king, the iniquity is upon me, and upon my father's house: but let the king and his throne be blameless.

10. And the king said, Whosoever shall speak against thee, bring him unto me, and he shall touch thee no more.

11. And she said, The king remember the LORD thy God, that the avenger of blood be not multiplied to destroy, and that he destroy not my son. And he said, As the LORD liveth, there shall not a hair of thy son fall to the earth.

12. And the woman said, Let thy handmaid say something unto my lord the king. And he said, Tell me.

13. And the woman said, Why hast thou thought such a thing against the people of God, that the king hath spoken such a thing, that he should be guilty, and that he should not bring again his outcast?

14. For we die, and as the waters that are carried away into the earth are not stopped: and God will not take away life, but will take heed lest that which is cast out be cast out of him.

15. Now therefore I am come to speak these things unto my lord the king: for the people made me afraid. For thy handmaid thought: I will

15. speak unto the king; peradventure he will do that which his handmaid saith.

16. For he will hear his handmaid, and deliver me out of the hand of all them that would destroy me and my son from the inheritance of God.

17. And thy handmaid said, The word of my lord the king shall be a comfort unto me: for my lord the king is as an angel of God, that he may hear good and evil. Therefore the LORD thy God shall be with thee.

18. And the king answered and said unto the woman, Deny me not that which I ask thee. And the woman said, My lord the king, speak.

19. And the king said: Is not the hand of Joab with thee in all this? And the woman answered and said, As thy soul liveth, my lord the king, there is none other, neither on the right hand, nor on the left, but as my lord the king hath spoken. For Joab thy servant commanded me, and he gave all these things unto thy handmaid.

20. That I should thus turn this matter, thy servant Joab hath done it. But my lord is wise, as the wisdom of an angel of God, that he knoweth all things in the earth.

21. And the king said unto Joab, Behold, I have done this thing: go therefore, bring again the lad Absalom.

22. And Joab fell on his face to the ground, and worshipped, and thanked the king, and said, To day thy servant knoweth that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord the king, that the king doeth what his servant saith.

23. So Joab arose, and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

24. And the king said, Let him go into his house again, and let him not see my face. So Absalom returned to his house, and saw not the king's face.

25. And there was no man in all Israel so fair as Absalom, and had this praise above all: from the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head was there not a blemish in him.

26. And it came to pass, when they shaved his head, that it was shaved every year, because it was too heavy for him to be shaved, that the hair of his head weighed two hundred shekels by the king's weight.

27. And unto Absalom were born three sons, and a daughter, whose name was Tamar, a woman fair in form.

28. So Absalom tarried two years in Jerusalem, and saw not the king's face.

29. And Absalom sent to Joab to send him to the king, and he would not come to him. And he sent again, and he would not come.

30. And he said unto his servants: Behold, the piece of Joab's field is by mine, and he hath barley thereon; go ye, and set it on fire. So Absalom's servants set the piece on fire.

31. And Joab arose, and came into Absalom's house, and said unto him, Wherefore have thy servants set my piece on fire?

32. And Absalom said unto Joab, Behold, I sent for thee, saying, Come hither, that I may send thee to the king, saying, Why am I come from Geshur? It would be better for me if I were still here. Now therefore let me see the king's face: but if there be any iniquity in me, slay me.

33. And Joab went in unto the king, and told him. And he called unto Absalom to come in unto the king: and he worshipped upon his face to the earth before the king: and the king kissed Absalom.

(2 Samuel)

Chapter 15

David flees from his rebellious son Absalom.

1. And it came to pass afterward, that Absalom made him chariots, and horses, and fifty men to carry him.

2. And Absalom rose up early in the morning, and stood by the way of the gate. And it came to pass, when any man had a bargain to come before the king in judgment, that Absalom called him, and said, Of what city art thou? And he said, Thy servant is one of the tribes of Israel, 3. Thus spake. And Absalom said unto him, Behold, thy cause is just and evil; but thou hast no interrogator from the king.

4. And Absalom said, Who shall make me a judge in the land, that every man may come to me that hath a cause and a judgment, and that I may set him right?

5. And if any man came near to him to worship him, he put forth his hand, and took him, and kissed him.

6. In this manner did Absalom to all Israel, when they came before the king in judgment: so he stole the heart of the men of Israel.

7. And it came to pass after forty years, that Absalom said unto the king: I will go and perform my vow at Hebron, which I have vowed unto the LORD.

8. For thy servant made a vow, when I dwelt at Geshur in Syria, saying, If the LORD bring me again to Jerusalem, I will worship the LORD.

9. And the king said unto him, Go in peace. And he arose, and went to Hebron.

10. And Absalom sent out spies into all the tribes of Israel, saying, When ye hear the sound of the trumpet, then say, Absalom is become king in Hebron.

11. And there went with Absalom two hundred men, called from Jerusalem: but they went in their simplicity, and knew not the matter.

12. And Absalom sent also to Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counsel, out of Gib his city. And it came to pass, when he had offered the sacrifices, that the covenant was strengthened: and the people ran and multiplied with Absalom.

13. And there came one, and told David, saying, The heart of every man in Israel follow Absalom.

14. And David said unto all his servants that were with him at Jerusalem, Come, and let us flee; for here shall be no escape from Absalom: make haste that we go, lest he overtake us, and take us, and bring evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword.

15. And the king's servants said unto him, What my lord the king hath mentioned, behold, here are thy servants.

16. And the king went out on foot with all his household. And he sent ten concubines to keep the house.

17. And when the king and all the people were come out on foot, they stood afar off from the house.

18. And all his servants went beside him, and all the Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men that came from Gath on foot, went before the king.

19. And the king said unto Ithai the Gittite, Why goest thou also with us? Turn again, and abide with the king: for thou art a stranger, and art come hither out of thy place.

20. Yesterday thou camest, and to day thou darest to go with us. But I will go where I may go.

Return, and to thy brethren with thee be mercy and faithfulness.

21. And Ithai answered and said, As the LORD liveth, and as my lord the king liveth, in what place my lord the king shall be, whether it be death or life, there shall thy servant be also.

22. And David said unto Ithai, Come then, and go with me. So went Ithai the Gittite, and all his men, and all the multitude of the children that were with him.

23. And all the land wept with a loud voice, and all the people went with him. And the king passed over the brook Kidron, and all the people went forward by the way of the wilderness.

24. And, behold, Zadok also was there, and all the Levites that were with him; and they bare the ark of the covenant of God, and set it there. And Abiathar went up, until all the people came out unto the city.

25. But the king said unto Zadok: Bring again the ark of GOD into the city. If I find favor in the sight of the LORD, he will bring me again, and will let me see it, and his house.

26. And thus saith he: I have no desire for thee: behold, here am I, and he will do with me as he pleaseth?

27. And the king said unto Zadok the priest: O seer, return again into the city with peace, and with you your two sons, Ahimaaz thy son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar.

28. Behold, I will tarry in the plain of the wilderness, until tidings come from you, and they shall tell me.

29. So Zadok and Abiathar brought the ark of God again to Jerusalem, and abode there.

30. And David went up the mount of Olives, and wept, and his head was covered with a veil, and he went barefooted. And all the people that were with him had every man his head covered, and went up weeping.

31. And when it was told David that Ahithophel was in league with Absalom, he said, Lord, make the counsel of Ahithophel foolish.

32. And when David was come up to the high place, where they worshipped God, behold, Hushai the Arachite met him, with his skirt rent, and earth upon his head.

33. And David said unto him, If thou go with me, thou shalt be a burden unto me.

34. And if thou go into the city again, and say unto Absalom, I am thy servant, I will be the king's servant: for I was thy father's servant in those days, and I will be thy servant now: then thou shalt well destroy the counsel of Ahithophel for me.

35. So Zadok and Abiathar the priests are with thee. All that thou heardest of the king's house, say thou unto Zadok and Abiathar the priests.

36. Behold, their two sons are with them, Ahimaaz the son of Zadok, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar. By them thou mayest tell me what thou shalt hear.

37. So Hushai the friend of David came into the city, and Absalom came to Jerusalem.

(2 Samuel)

Chapter 16

Ziba's slander. Simei's blasphemy. Absalom's incest.

1. And when David was come down a little from the high place, behold, Ziba the lad of Mephibosheth met him, saddled with a pair of asses; and upon them were two hundred loaves of bread, and an hundred heads of raisins, and an hundred heads of figs, and a bottle of wine.

2. And the king said unto Ziba, What wilt thou do with these? And Ziba said, The asses shall be for the king's servants to ride upon, and the loaves and figs for the young men to eat, and the wine to drink, when they are weary in the wilderness.

3. And the king said, Where is thy master's son? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he abideth at Jerusalem: for he said, To day shall the house of Israel restore me my father's kingdom.

4. And the king said unto Ziba, Behold, all that Mephibosheth hath shall be thine. Ziba said: I worship; let me find grace in thy sight, my lord king.

5. And it came to pass, when king David was come to Bahurim, that, behold, there went out a man there of the family of the house of Saul, whose name was Shimei the son of Gera; and he went out, and cursed;

6. And he cast stones at David, and at all the servants of king David. For all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left.

7. And Shimei, when he had cursed, said, Out, out, thou bloodhound, thou loose man.

8. The LORD hath recompensed thee for all the blood of the house of Saul, because thou hast reigned in his stead. Now hath the LORD delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom thy son: and, behold, thou art in thy calamity, because thou art a bloodhound.

9. And Abishai the son of Zeruiah said unto the king, Shall this dead dog curse my lord the king?
I will go and pluck off his head.

10. And the king said: Ye children of Zeruiah, what have I to do with you? Let him curse: for the LORD hath said unto him, Curse David. Who then can say, Why doest thou thus?

11. And David said unto Abishai, and unto all his servants: Behold, my son, which is come out of my womb, is after my life: why not now also the son of Jemini? Let him be subdued, that he may curse: for the LORD hath commanded him.

12. Peradventure the LORD will look upon my affliction, and repay me with kindness his cursing this day.

13. So David went on his way with his men: but Shimei went on beside him by the side of the mountain, and cursed, and cast stones at him, and blasted him with stones of the earth.

14. And the king came in, and all the people that were with him, weary, and refreshed themselves there.

15. And Absalom and all the people of the men of Israel came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him.

16. And when Hushai the Arachite, David's friend, came in unto Absalom, he said unto Absalom, Happy king! Happy is he, O king!

17. And Absalom said unto Hushai, Is this thy mercy to thy friend? Why wentest thou not with thy friend?

18. And Hushai said unto Absalom, Not so; but whom the LORD hath chosen, and this people, and all the men of Israel, I will be his, and will dwell with him.

19. Secondly, whom shall I serve? Should I not serve before his son? As I have served thy father.
As I have served before thy father, so will I serve before thee.

20. And Absalom said unto Ahithophel, Counsel ye, what shall we do?

21. And Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Put to sleep thy father's concubines, whom he hath left to keep the house: and all Israel shall hear that thou hast made thy father to stink, and all the hands that are with thee shall be the more bold.

22. And they made Absalom a tent upon the housetop: and Absalom slept with his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel.

23. At that time, when Ahithophel gave counsel, it was as if one had asked of God: so all the counsel of Ahithophel was both with David and with Absalom.

(2 Samuel)

Chapter 17

Ahithophel's futile advice and desperate end.

1. And Ahithophel said unto Absalom, I will number twelve thousand men, and will arise and pursue David by night.

2. And I will overtake him, because he is faint and lukewarm. And it shall come to pass, when I have made him afraid, that all the people that are with him shall flee, that I will smite the king alone.

3. And bring all the people again unto thee. And it shall come to pass, when every man is brought unto thee according to thy desire, that all the people shall dwell in peace.

4. It seemed good unto Absalom, and to all the elders of Israel.

5. And Absalom said, Let Hushai the Arachite also call, and hear what he saith.

6. And when Hushai came in unto Absalom, Absalom said unto him, Ahithophel hath spoken these things: say thou, shall we do it, or shall we not do it?

7. And Hushai said unto Absalom, It is not good counsel that Ahithophel hath given this time.

8. And Hushai said again, Thou knowest thy father well, and his men, that they are strong, and of a fierce spirit, like a bear whose young are taken in a field: and thy father is a man of war, and will not fail with the people.

9. Behold, he hath hid himself perhaps in a pit, or in some other place. And it shall come to pass, when the first evil shall come, that there shall be a cry, saying, There is a slaughter among the people that follow Absalom,

10. Then every man that is a warrior, and that hath a heart like a lion, shall be despondent. For all Israel knoweth that thy father is strong, and that there are warriors with him.

11. But this I counsel, that thou gather unto thee all Israel, from Dan even unto Beer-sheba, as the sand of the sea; and that thou set thy person among them.

12. So we will overtake him in what place we find him, and will come upon him as the dew falls upon the earth, that we will not leave one in him, nor in any of his men.

13. And if he gather himself into a city, then all Israel shall cast ropes upon that city, and pull it into the river, that there be not a pebble found in it.

14. Then said Absalom and all Israel, The counsel of Hushai the Arachite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. And the LORD sent to prevent the good counsel of Ahithophel, that the LORD might bring evil upon Absalom.

15. And Hushai said unto Zadok and Abiathar the priests, Thus and thus did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel: but I have counseled thus and thus.

16. Now therefore send quickly, and tell David, saying, Dwell not in the wilderness overnight, but pass over, lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people that are with him.

17. And Jonathan and Ahimaaz sat by the well of Rogel, and a maid went and told them. And they went and told king David: for they were not to be seen coming into the city.

18. And a lad saw them, and told Absalom. And the two went in haste, and came to a man's house in Bahurim, which had a well in his court; thither they went in.

19. And the woman took and spread a covering over the well's hole, and spread gruel over it, that it should not be known.

20. And when Absalom's servants came into the house to the woman, they said: Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman said unto them, They went over the brook. And when they sought, and found not, they returned to Jerusalem.

21. And when they were departed, they came up out of the well, and went and told David the king, and said unto David, Arise, and pass over the waters in haste: for thus and thus hath Ahithophel counseled against you.

22. Then David arose, and all the people that were with him, and passed over Jordan, until the morning light: and there was not one lacking that passed not over Jordan.

23. And when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not departed from, he saddled his ass, and arose, and went home to his own city, and filled his house, and hanged himself, and died, and was buried in his father's sepulchre.

24. And David came to Mahanaim. And Absalom passed over Jordan, and all the men of Israel with him.

25. And Absalom had set Amasa in Joab's stead over the host. And Amasa was a man's son, whose name was Jethra, an Israelite, which lay with Abigail the daughter of Nahah, the sister of Zeruiah, Joab's mother.

26. And Israel and Absalom encamped in Gilead.

27. And when David was come to Mahanaim, Shobi the son of Naha, of Rabbath, of the children of Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammiel, of Lodabar, and Barzillai the Giladite, of Roglim

28. bedding, basin, earthen vessel, wheat, barley, flour, sows, beans, lentils, groats.

29. And honey, and butter, and sheep's milk, and oxen's milk, to David, and to the people that were with him, to eat. For they thought, The people shall be hungry, and weary, and thirsty in the wilderness.

(2 Samuel)

Chapter 18

Absalom is pierced hanging from an oak tree.

1. And David numbered the people that were with him, and set captains over them a thousand and an hundred.

2. And he sent out of the people a third part under Joab, and a third part under Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and a third part under Ithai the Gittite. And the king said unto the people, I will go out with you also.

3. And the people said, Thou shalt not go out: for though we flee, or half of us die, they will not take us: for thou art as though our number were ten thousand: now therefore it is better that thou shouldest help us out of the city.

4. And the king said unto them: What ye please, that will I do. And the king stood at the gate, and all the people went out by hundreds and by thousands.

5. And the king commanded Joab, and Abishai, and Ithai, saying, Deal cleanly with the lad Absalom. And all the people heard it, when the king commanded all the captains about Absalom.

6. And it came to pass, when the people were come out into the field to meet Israel, that the battle arose in the forest of Ephraim.

7. And the people of Israel were smitten there before the servants of David: and there was a great slaughter that day, twenty thousand men.

8. And there was the battle scattered abroad in all the land: and the forest devoured more people by day than the sword devoured.

9. And Absalom met David's servants, and rode upon a jaw. And when the mouth was come under a great thick oak, he hanged his head upon the oak, and hovered between heaven and earth: but his mouth ran out from under him.

10. And when a man saw it, he told Joab, saying, Behold, I saw Absalom hanging on an oak.

11. And Joab said unto the man that told him, Behold, sawest thou this? Why didst thou not smite him there to the ground? then would I have given thee of me ten pieces of silver, and a girdle.

12. And the man said unto Joab: If thou hadst weighed a thousand pieces of silver in my hand, Yet would I not have laid my hand upon the king's son. For the king commanded thee, and Abishai, and Ithai, in our ears, saying, Beware lest any man hurt the lad Absalom.

13. Or if I had done any thing wrong in my way, because nothing is hid from the king, thou thyself wouldest have stood against me.

14. And Joab said: I cannot tarry with thee so long. And Joab took three spears in his hand, and thrust them into Absalom's heart, while he yet lived by the oak.

15. And ten lads, Joab's armourbearers, went about, and smote him to death.

16. And Joab blew a trumpet, and brought the people again, that they should not pursue after Israel: for Joab would spare the people.

17. And they took Absalom, and cast him into the wood into a great pit, and laid a very great heap of stones upon him. And all Israel fled every man to his tent.

18. And Absalom had set up a pillar for him, while he was yet alive, which is in the king's own land. For he said: I have no son: therefore this shall be the memorial of my name: and he called the pillar after his name, and it is called Absalom's room unto this day.

19. And Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, Let me run, I pray thee, and proclaim unto the king that the LORD hath delivered him out of the hand of his enemies.

20. And Joab said unto him, Thou bringest no good tidings this day. One day thou shalt bring tidings, and to day thou shalt not: for the king's son is dead.

21. And Joab said unto Chuzi, Go and tell the king what thou hast seen. And Chuzi worshipped Joab, and ran.

22. And Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said again unto Joab: How if I also run after Chuzi? And Joab said, What wilt thou run after, my son? Come hither, thou wilt not bring good tidings.

23. How if I run? He said unto him, Run then. So Ahimaaz ran straightway, and came before Chusi.

24. And David sat between two gates. And the watchman went up to the roof of the gate that was by the wall, and lifted up his eyes, and saw a man walking by himself.

25. And he called and told the king. And the king said: If he be alone, good tidings are in his mouth. And when the same went and came near,
26. And the watchman saw another man running, and called into the gate, and said, Behold, a man runneth alone. And the king said, He also is a good messenger.

27. And the watchman said: I see the first course as the course of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok.

And the king said, He is a good man, and bringeth good tidings.

28. And Ahimaaz called, and said unto the king: Peace! And he worshipped before the king upon his face to the earth, saying, Blessed be the LORD thy God, which hath delivered up the men that lifted up their hand against my lord the king.

29. And the king said, Is it well with the lad Absalom? And Ahimaaz said: I saw a great tumult, when Joab the king's servant sent me thy servant; and I know not what it was.

30. And the king said, Go about, and stand there. And he went about, and stood there.

31. And, behold, Chuzi came and said, Here is good tidings, my lord the king. The LORD hath avenged thee this day from the hand of all them that rebelled against thee.

32. And the king said unto Chushi, Is it well with the lad Absalom? And Chushi said, Let it be to all the enemies of my lord the king, as it is to the lad, and to do evil to all that rise up against thee.

33. And the king was grieved, and went into the hall of the gate, and wept: and as he went, he said, My son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom. Would to God that I should die for thee!

O Absalom, my son, my son!

(2 Samuel)

Chapter 19

David is restored to the kingdom.

1. And it was told Joab, saying, Behold, the king weepeth, and mourneth for Absalom.

2. And the victory of the day was grievous among all the people: for the people heard that day that the king was grieved for his son.

3. And the people stole away that day, and entered not into the city, as a people that are consumed, when they are fled in the battle, stumble.

4. And the king covered his face, and cried with a loud voice: Ah, my son Absalom! Absalom, my son, my son!

5. And Joab came into the king's house, and said, Thou hast made all thy servants ashamed this day, which have saved the souls of thy sons, and of thy daughters, and of thy wives, and of thy concubines,

6. To love them that hate thee, and to hate them that love thee. For this day thou hast found it out, that thou hast no interest in the captains and servants. For I know this day, that if Absalom were alive unto thee, and we were all dead this day, it would seem good unto thee.

7. Arise therefore, and go forth, and speak kindly unto thy servants. For I swear unto thee by the LORD, If thou go not out, there shall not a man abide with thee this night. And it shall be worse unto thee than all the evil that hath come upon thee from thy youth even unto this day.

8. And the king arose, and sat in the gate. And it was told all the people, Behold, the king sitteth in the gate. And all the people came before the king. And Israel fled every man into his tent.

9. And all the people of all the tribes of Israel were at strife, and said: The king hath delivered us out of the hand of our enemies, and delivered us out of the hand of the Philistines, and hath fled out of the land before Absalom.

10. Thus Absalom died in the battle which we anointed over us. Wherefore now are ye so quiet, that ye will not restore the king?

11. And the king sent unto Zadok and Abiathar the priests, saying, Speak unto the elders of Judah, saying, Why be ye the last to bring the king again to his house? (For the speech of all Israel was to come before the king into his house.)

12. Ye are my brethren, my bone and my flesh: why then will ye be the last to take the king again?

13. And say unto Amasa, Art thou not my bone and my flesh? God do this and that unto me, that thou be not captain of the host before me all thy days in Joab's stead.

14. And he inclined the heart of all the men of Judah as of a man. And they sent unto the king: Come again, thou, and all thy servants.

15. So the king came again. And when he was come to Jordan, the men of Judah were come to Gilgal to go down to meet the king, to bring the king over Jordan.

16. And Shimei the son of Gera, the son of Jemini, which dwelt in Bahurim, hasted, and went down with the men of Judah to meet David the king.

17. And there were with him a thousand men of Benjamin, and Ziba the young man of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons, and twenty servants: and they passed over Jordan before the king.

18. And they made the fords, and brought the king's servants over, and did according to his pleasure. And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king, as he passed over Jordan.

19. And he said unto the king: My lord, count not this iniquity against me, and remember not that thy servant offended thee the day that my lord the king departed from Jerusalem, and the king take it not to heart;

20. For thy servant knoweth that I have sinned. And, behold, I am come this day the first of all the house of Joseph, to go down to meet my lord the king.

21. And Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, And Shimei shall not die for this, seeing he hath cursed the LORD'S anointed?

22. And David said, What have I to do with you, ye children of Zeruiah, that ye should become Satan unto me this day? Shall any die this day in Israel? thinkest thou that I know not that I am become king over Israel this day?

23. And the king said unto Shimei, Thou shalt not die. And the king sware unto him.

24. Mephibosheth the son of Saul also came down to meet the king. And he had not washed his feet, nor his beard, nor his clothes, from the day that the king departed, until the day that he came in peace.

25. And when he was come to Jerusalem to meet the king, the king said unto him, Why wentest thou not with me, Mephibosheth?

26. And he said, My lord the king, my servant hath deceived me. For thy servant thought, I will saddle an ass, and ride upon it, and go to the king: for thy servant is lame.

27. For this he hath shewed thy servant before my lord the king. But my lord the king is as an angel of God: do that which is good in thy sight.

28. For all my father's house were nothing, but men of death before my lord the king: hast thou set thy servant among them that eat at thy table? What have I further righteousness, or further cry unto the king?

29. And the king said unto him, Why speakest thou any more of thy things? I have said, Thou and Ziba divide the field together.

30. And Mephibosheth said unto the king: He shall take it even there, after my lord the king is come home in peace.

31. And Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Roglim, and brought the king over Jordan, to lead him in Jordan.

32. And Barzillai was almost old, even fourscore years old: and he had fed the king, because he was in Mahanaim: for he was a very excellent man.

33. And the king said unto Barzillai, Thou shalt pass over with me, and I will provide for thee with me at Jerusalem.

34. And Barzillai said unto the king: What is there left for me to live, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem?

Thirty-five. I am eighty years old today. How should I know what is good or evil, or taste what I eat or drink, or hear what the singers sing? Why should your servant complain to my lord the king any more?

36. Thy servant shall go a little way with the king over Jordan. Why will the king do such a recompense unto me?

37. Let thy servant return, that I may die in my city, by the grave of my father and of my mother.

Behold, thy servant Chimeham, let him go over with my lord the king, and do unto him that which is good in thy sight.

38. And the king said, Chimeham shall pass over with me, and I will do unto him that which is good in thy sight: also all that thou choosest in me will I do unto thee.

39. And when all the people were gone over Jordan, and the king also, the king kissed Barzillai, and blessed him; and he returned unto his place.

40. And the king passed over to Gilgal, and Chimeham passed over with him. And all the people of Judah had carried the king over: but half the people of Israel were there.

41. And, behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said unto him, Why have our brethren the men of Judah stolen thee, and have brought the king and his house over Jordan, and all David's men with him?

42. And the men of Judah said unto the men of Israel, The king is nigh unto us: wherefore are ye angry? Do ye think that we have received food or gifts from the king?

43. And they of Israel answered them of Judah, and said: We have ten times more with the king, and also with David, than ye have. Why then hast thou esteemed me so small, that ours was not the first to take our king? But they of Judah spake more harshly than they of Israel.

(2 Samuel)

Chapter 20

Seba, the rebel, will get his reward.

1. And there was there a certain man of renown, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a man of Jemini: and he blew a trumpet, and said, We have no part in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse. Let every man take his place in his tent, O Israel.

2. And all the men of Israel fell from David, and followed Zeba the son of Bichri. And the men of Judah clave to their king from Jordan even unto Jerusalem.

3. And when king David was come home to Jerusalem, he took the ten concubines, which he had left to keep the house, and put them in ward, and fed them; but he slept not with them. So they were shut up until their death, and lived as widows.

4. And the king said unto Amasa, Call me all the men of Judah unto the third day; and thou shalt stand here also.

5. And Amasa went to call Judah; but he delayed the time which he had appointed him.

6. And David said unto Abishai, Now shall Sheba the son of Bichri hurt us more than Absalom.

Take thou thy master's servants, and pursue after him, lest he find for himself strong cities, and escape out of our sight.

7. And the men of Joab went out after him, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men. And they went out from Jerusalem after Sheba the son of Bichri.

8. And when they were by the great stone that was in Gibeon, Amasa came before them. And Joab was girded upon his garment that he had on, and had girded upon him a sword, which hung upon his thigh in the sheath, which went out with pleasure.

9. And Joab said unto Amasa, Peace be unto thee, my brother. And Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand, and kissed him.

10. And Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand; and he thrust him therewith in the belly, and his bowels were poured out upon the earth; and he gave him no more thrust, and died. And Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri.

11. And one of the sons of Joab stood by him, and said, Defy, and make one of you Joab's sons, and make David Joab's son.

12. And Amasa lay rolled in blood in the midst of the street. And when one saw that all the people stood still, he turned Amasa out of the street into the field, and cast clothes upon him; because he saw that whosoever came nigh him stood still.

13. And it came to pass, when he was put out of the way, that every man followed Joab after Sheba the son of Bichri.

14. And he passed through all the tribes of Israel unto Abel, and Beth-maachah, and all Haberim: and they gathered themselves together, and followed him.

15. And they came and besieged Abel and Beth-maachah; and they heaped a rubble round about the city, and stood upon the wall: and all the people that were with Joab rushed, and would have cast down the wall.

16. And a wise woman cried out of the city, Hear ye. Hear ye! Speak unto Joab, that he come hither; and I will speak unto him.

17. And when he was come unto her, the woman said, Art thou Joab? And he said, Yea: and she said unto him, Hear the speech of thine handmaid. And he said: I hear.

18. And she said, In old time they said: If any man will ask, let him ask of Abel: and it came to pass.

19. I am one of the peaceable and faithful cities of Israel: and wilt thou slay the city, and the mother of Israel? Why wilt thou devour the inheritance of the LORD?

20. And Joab answered and said, Far be it from me, far be it from me, that I should devour and destroy. And it was not so;

21. But a man of mount Ephraim, whose name is Sheba the son of Bichri, hath rebelled against king David. Pray for him alone, and I will depart out of the city. And the woman said unto Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown over the wall unto thee.

22. And the woman came in unto all the people with her wisdom. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and cast it unto Joab. And he blew the trumpet, and they dispersed themselves from the city every man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem unto the king.

23. And Joab was over all the host of Israel. And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Krethi and Plethi.

24. Adoram was chamberlain. Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was chancellor.

25. And Seiah was a scribe. Zadok and Abiathar were priests.

26. And Ira the Jairite was David's priest.

(2 Samuel)

Chapter 21

David resisteth the temptation, obtaineth victories against the Philistines.

1. There was also a time of trouble in David's days, three years in succession: and David sought the face of the LORD. And the LORD said, Because of Saul, and because of the house of blood, that he slew the Gibeonites.
2. And the king called for the Gibeonites, and said unto them. (Now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but were left of the Amorites: but the children of Israel had sworn unto them, and Saul sought to smite them in his zeal for the children of Israel and Judah).
3. And David said unto the Gibeonites: What shall I do unto you, and wherewith shall I make an atonement for you, that ye may bless the inheritance of the LORD?
4. And the Gibeonites said unto him, It is not for us to do gold nor silver unto Saul, nor to do silver unto his house, neither is it for us to kill any man in Israel. And he said, What say ye then that I should do unto you?
5. And they said unto the king: The man that hath destroyed us, and brought us to nought, we will destroy him, and nothing shall remain unto him in all the coasts of Israel.
6. Pray us seven men of his house, that we may hang them up for the LORD in Gibeah of Saul the LORD'S chosen. And the king said: I will give them.
7. But the king spared Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of the oath of the LORD, which was between them, even between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.
8. And the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, which she bare unto Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, which she bare unto Adriel the son of Barzillai the Mahalothite, the king took.
9. And he delivered them into the hand of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the mount before the LORD. So these seven fell at once, and died in the time of the first harvest, when the barley harvest began.
10. And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it upon the rock in the beginning of the harvest, until the waters of heaven dripped upon them: and she suffered not the fowls of the air to rest upon them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night.
11. And it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, Saul's concubine, had done.

12. And David went and took the bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan his son, of the men of Jabesh in Gilead, which they had stolen out of the street of Bethshan, where the Philistines had hanged them, when the Philistines smote Saul in mount Gilboa.

13. And brought them up from thence, and gathered them into heaps with the bones of the slain.

14. And they buried the bones of Saul and of Jonathan his son in the land of Benjamin, in Zelah, in the sepulchre of Kish his father; and they did according to all that the king commanded: and God was reconciled to the land after that;

15. And there arose again a war of the Philistines against Israel: and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines. And David was weary.

16. And Jeshbi of Nob, who was one of the sons of Rapha, and the weight of his spear was three hundred weight of brass, and had new weapons, intended to smite David.

17. And Abishai the son of Zeruiah helped him, and slew the Philistine. And the men of David swore unto him, saying: Thou shalt go out no more with us to battle, lest the light of Israel be put out.

18. And afterward there arose a war at Nob with the Philistines. And Shibechai the Hushathite smote Saph, which was one of the sons of Rapha.

19. And there was war again in Gob with the Philistines. And Elhanan the son of Jaere-orgim, a Bethlehemite, smote Goliath the Gittite, whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

20. And there arose another war in Gath. And there was a man of great stature, which had six fingers in his hands, and six toes in his feet, which were twenty and four in number: and he also was born of Rapha.

21. And when he had mocked Israel, Jonathan the son of Simea, David's brother, smote him.

22. These four were born to Rapha in Gath, and fell by the hand of David and his servants.

(2 Samuel)

Chapter 22

Praise song of David for salvation from his enemies.

1. And David spake the words of this song before the LORD in the days when the LORD had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul, saying: 2. The LORD is my rock, and my burgundy my deliverer.

3. God is my refuge, in whom I trust, my shield and the horn of my salvation, my protection and my refuge, my Savior, who saves me from iniquity.

4. I will praise the LORD, and call upon him, and I shall be delivered from mine enemies.

5. For the pains of death had compassed me about, and the rivers of Belial terrified me.

6. The bands of hell compassed me about, and the cords of death overwhelmed me.

7. When I am afraid, I call upon the LORD, and cry unto my God; and he heareth my voice from his temple, and my cry cometh before him in his ears.

8. The earth quaked and was moved; the foundations of heaven were moved and shook, because he was wroth.

9. Vapour went up from his nostrils, and fire consumed from his mouth, and there was lightning therefrom.

10. He bowed the heavens, and descended, and darkness was under his feet.

11. And he rode upon the cherub, and flew; and he floated upon the wings of the wind.

12. His tent about him was dark, and black thick clouds.

13. From the brightness before him it burned with lightnings.

14. The LORD thundered from heaven, and the most High let out his thunder.

15. He shot forth his beams, and scattered them; he made lightning, and terrified them.

16. And there were showers of water, and the ground was covered with the reproach of the LORD, and with the breath of his nostrils, and with the snorting of his nostrils.

17. He sent from on high, and took me, and drew me up out of great waters.

18. He delivered me from my strong enemies, from my haters that were too mighty for me, 19. Which overcame me in the time of my calamity. And the LORD became my confidence.

20. He brought me out into the room; he plucked me out, because he had a desire for me.

21. The LORD hath dealt well with me according to my righteousness: he hath rewarded me according to the cleanness of my hands.

22. For I keep the ways of the LORD, and am not ungodly against my God.

23. For all his statutes have I in view, and his commandments will I not cast away; 24. But I am without change before him, and keep myself from sins.

25. Therefore the LORD rewardeth me according to my righteousness, according to my cleanness in his sight.

26. With the saints thou art holy; with the pious thou art pious, 27. With the pure you are pure, and with the perverse you are perverse.

28. For thou helpest the wretched people, and with thine eyes thou bringest low them that are high.

29. For thou, O LORD, art my lamp. The LORD maketh light my darkness.

30. For with thee I can smite warriors, and leap over the walls with my God.

31. God's ways are without change, the words of the LORD are pure: he is a shield unto all them that put their trust in him.

32. For is there a God without the LORD? And where is a refuge without our God?

33. God strengthens me with power and shows me a way without change.

34. He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and setteth me on my high place.

35. He hath taught my hands to fight, and my arm to draw the bow of brass.

36. And givest me the shield of thy salvation. And when thou humblest me, thou makest me great.

37. thou makest room to walk under me, that my ankles slip not.

38. I will pursue after mine enemies, and destroy them; and will not return until I have destroyed them.

39. I will kill them, and break them in pieces, and they shall not withstand me: they shall fall under my feet.

40. Thou canst arm me with strength to battle; thou canst cast under me them that set themselves against me.
41. Thou givest me mine enemies to flee, that I may destroy them that hate me.
42. They love one another, but there is no helper; to the LORD, but he answereth them not.
43. I will pound them as the dust of the earth; as the dung of the street will I scatter and scatter them.
44. Thou savest me from the contentious people, and keepest me for a head among the heathen: a people that I knew not serve me.
45. The strange children have feared me, and obeyed me with obedient ears.
46. the strange children are languishing and wriggling in their bonds.
47. The LORD liveth; and blessed be my stronghold, and let God, the stronghold of my salvation, be exalted.
48. The GOD who gives me vengeance and casts the nations under me.
49. He delivereth me out of mine enemies. Thou liftest me up from them that set themselves against me: thou savest me from the wicked.
50. Therefore will I give thee thanks, O LORD, among the heathen, and sing praise unto thy name. And sing praise unto thy name,
51. Who hath shewed great salvation unto his king, and his anointed David, and his seed for ever.

(2 Samuel)

Chapter 23

David's last speeches and hero book.

1. These are the last words of David: David the son of Jesse spake; the man assured of the Messiah of the God of Jacob spake sweetly with the psalms of Israel.
2. The Spirit of the LORD hath spoken by me, and his speech is by my tongue.
3. The GOD of Israel hath spoken unto me; the stronghold of Israel hath spoken, the righteous Ruler among men, the Ruler in the fear of GOD.
4. And as the light of the morning, when the sun riseth in the morning without cloud, when from the brightness after the rain the grass groweth out of the earth.

5. For my house is not so with God: for he hath set me a covenant for ever, and all things are well ordered and kept. For all my salvation and my doings are that nothing increase.

6. but Belial are all like the outcast thistles which cannot be grasped with hands; 7. But he that shall attack them shall have iron and spears in his hand, and shall be burned with fire in the tabernacle.

8. These are the names of the mighty men of David: Jashabeam the son of Hachmoni, the chiefest of the three; he took up his spear, and slew eight hundred at one time.

9. After him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the son of Ahohi, among the three valiant men with David. And they mocked the Philistines, and were gathered there to battle, and the men of Israel went up,

10. And he stood and smote the Philistines, until his hand was weary upon the sword. And the LORD gave great salvation at that time; and the people turned back after him to take away.

11. After him was Samma the son of Agah the Hararite. And the Philistines gathered themselves together into a company, and there was there a piece of ground full of lentils: and the people fled from before the Philistines,

12. And he stood in the midst of the piece, and delivered it, and smote the Philistines: and God gave great salvation.

13. And these three chief of thirty came down in the harvest to David in the cave of Adullam; and the band of the Philistines lay in the bottom of Rephaim.

14. And David was in the castle at that time, and the Philistine people were in Bethlehem.

15. And David longed, and said, Who shall fetch me drink of the water of the well of Bethlehem under the gate?

16. And the three mighty men went into the camp of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, which was under the gate, and bare it, and brought it unto David. But he would not drink it, but poured it out unto the LORD.

17. And said, Let the LORD forbid that I should do this thing. Is it not the blood of the men that have dared their lives, and perished? And he would not drink it. So did the three mighty men.

18. And Abishai the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was the chief of the three. He lifted up his spear, and smote three hundred: and he was also renowned among three.
19. And the most glorious of the three, and was chief of them: but he came not nigh unto the three.
20. And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of Ishail, of great works, of Kabzeel. And he smote two lions of Moab: and he went down, and smote a lion in the well in the snowy season.
21. And he smote also an Egyptian, an abominable man, which had a spear in his hand. And he went down unto him with a rod, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear.
22. This did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada: and he was famous among the three mighty men.
23. And more glorious than the thirty: but he came not within three. And David made him a secret council.
24. Asahel the brother of Joab was among the thirty. Elhanan the son of Dodo, at Bethlehem.
25. Samma the Haradite. Elikai the Haradite.
26. Helez the Paltite. Ira the son of Ike the Thekoite.
27. Abieser the Anthothite. Mebunai the Hushathite.
28. Zalmon the Ahohite. Maherai the Netophathite.
29. Heleb the son of Baenah the Netophathite. Ithai the son of Ribai, of Gibeah of the children of Benjamin.
30. Benaiah the Pirgathonite. Hidai, of the streams of Gaa.
31. Abialbon the Arbathite. Asmaveth the Barhumite.
32. Eliakheba the Saalbonite. The children Jasen and Jonathan.
33. Samma the Hararite. Ahiam the son of Sarar the Hararite.
34. Eliphelet the son of Ahazbai the son of Maechathi. Eliam the son of Ahithophel the Gilonite.
35. Hezrai the Carmelite Paerai the Arbiter.
36. Jegeal the son of Nathan of Zobah. Bani the Gadite.
37. Zelek the Ammonite. Naharai the Beerothite, the armorbearer of Joab the son of Zeruiah.
38. Ira the Jethrite. Gareb the Jethrite.
39. Uriah the Hittite. Of all these there are thirty and seven.

(2 Samuel)

Chapter 24

David's ambition in counting the people is punished with pestilence.

1. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel again, and provoked David among them, saying, Go, number Israel and Judah.

2. And the king said unto Joab the captain of his host, Go thou round about all the tribes of Israel from Dan even unto Beer-sheba, and number the people, that I may know how many they are.

3. And Joab said unto the king: The LORD thy God do unto this people, as it is now, an hundred times more, that my lord the king may see the pleasure of his eyes: but what pleasure hath my lord the king in this matter?

4. And the king's word was against Joab, and against the captains of the host. So Joab went out, and the captains of the host, from the king, to number the people of Israel.

5. And they passed over Jordan, and encamped at Aroer on the right hand of the city that is in the brook Gad, and at Jaeser.

6. And they came to Gilead, and to the low country of Habi: and they came to Dan-jan, and to Zidon.

7. And they came to the strong city of Tyrus, and to all the cities of the Hivites and Canaanites; and they went out unto the south of Judah to Beersheba.

8. And they compassed all the country, and came to Jerusalem after nine months and twenty days.

9. And Joab gave the king the sum of the people that were numbered. And there were in Israel eight hundred thousand mighty men that drew sword, and in Judah five hundred thousand men.

10. And the heart smote David, after that the people were numbered. And David said unto the LORD, I have sinned greatly in that I have done this thing: now therefore, O LORD, take away the iniquity of thy servant: for I have done very foolishly.

11. And when David arose in the morning, and the word of the LORD came unto Gad the prophet, David's seer, saying:

12. Go and speak unto David, Thus saith the LORD; Three things will I bring unto thee; choose thee one that I do unto thee.

13. And Gad came to David, and told him, and said unto him, Wilt thou that seven years' tribulation shall come upon thy land, or that thou shalt flee from thine adversaries three months, and they shall pursue thee, or that three days' pestilence shall be in thy land? Mark now, and see what I shall say again unto him that sent me.

14. And David said unto Gad: I am almost afraid; but let us fall into the hand of the LORD, for his mercy is great: I will not fall into the hand of man.

15. So the LORD caused a pestilence to come upon Israel from the morning even until the time appointed: and the people died from Dan even unto Beer-sheba, even seventy thousand men.

16. And when the angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy her, the LORD repented him of the evil, and said unto the angel that destroyed the people, It is enough; now therefore let thine hand be removed. Now the angel of the LORD was at the threshingfloor of Arafnah the Jebusite.

17. And David, when he saw the angel that smote the people, said unto the LORD, Behold, I have sinned, I have done iniquity: what have these sheep done? Let thine hand be against me, and against my father's house.

18. And Gad came to David at that time, and said unto him, Go up, set up an altar unto the LORD in the threshingfloor of Arafnah the Jebusite.

19. So David went up, as Gad had said, and as the LORD had commanded.

20. And when Arafnah turned, he saw the king going to him with his servants; and he worshipped upon his face to the earth.

21. And he said, Why cometh my lord the king to his servant? And David said, To buy of thee the threshingfloor, and to build an altar unto the LORD, that the plague of the people may cease.

22. And Arafnah said unto David, My lord the king, take and offer as it pleaseth him: behold, there is an ox for a burnt offering, and bows, and harness of an ox for wood.

23. And Arafnah the king gave all to the king. And Arafnah said unto the king: The LORD thy God, let thee be acceptable unto him.

24. And the king said unto Arafnah, Not so; but I will buy it of thee for his money: for I will not offer burnt offerings unto the LORD my God, which I have for nought. So David bought the threshingfloor and the ox for fifty shekels of silver.

25. And there he built an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.

And the LORD made an atonement for the land, and the plague ceased from off the people of Israel.

Text of the unrevised Luther Bible 1545:

DeepL English Translation

[Processed by BackToLuther. German text published here.]

The First Book of Kings (1 Kings) ^

Chapter 1

Solomon anointed and inaugurated as king.

1. And because king David was old and well stricken in years, though they covered him with garments, he could not wax warm.
2. And his servants said unto him, Let them find my lord the king a damsel, a virgin, to stand before the king, and to nurse him, and to sleep in his arms, and to warm my lord the king.
3. And they sought a fair damsel throughout all the coasts of Israel: and they found Abi sag of Sunem, and brought her unto the king.
4. And she was a very fair damsel; and she nursed the king, and ministered unto him. But the king knew her not:
5. And Adonijah the son of Hagith rose up, and said: I will be king. And he made him chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to go before him.
6. And his father would not grieve him in his days, saying, Why doest thou thus? And he also was a very goodly man, and he begat him next unto Absalom.
7. And he had counsel with Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest, which helped Adonijah.
8. But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoioda, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the mighty men of David, were not with Adonijah.
9. And Adonijah sacrificed sheep and oxen and fatted cattle by the stone of Soheleth, which is by the well of Rogel; and he invited all his brethren the king's sons, and all the men of Judah the king's servants.
10. But Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother, he invited not.
11. And Nathan said unto Bathsheba Solomon's mother, Hast thou not heard that Adonijah the son of Hagith is king, and our lord David knoweth not?
12. Come now therefore, and I will give thee counsel, that thou mayest save thy soul, and the soul of Solomon thy son.

13. Go, and enter in unto king David, and say unto him, Didst thou not, my lord the king, swear unto thy handmaid, saying: Solomon thy son shall be king after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? Why then hath Adonijah become king?

14. Behold, because thou art yet here, and speakest with the king, I will come in after thee, and will fully speak thy word.

15. And Bathsheba went in unto the king into the chamber. And the king was very old, and Abishag of Sunem ministered unto the king.

16. And Bathsheba bowed herself, and worshipped the king. And the king said, What is the matter with thee?

17. And she said unto him, My lord, thou hast sworn unto thy handmaid by the LORD thy God, saying, Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and sit upon my throne.

18. But now, behold, Adonia is become king; and, my lord the king, thou knowest nothing about it.

19. He hath offered oxen and fatlings, and many sheep: and he hath charged all the king's sons, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the captain of the host: but he hath not charged Solomon thy servant.

20. But thou art my lord the king: the eyes of all Israel look unto thee, that thou mayest shew them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

21. But when my lord the king shall have fallen asleep with his fathers, then shall I and Solomon my son be sinners.

22. And while she yet spake unto the king, Nathan the prophet came.

23. And they told the king: Behold, Nathan the prophet. And when he was come in before the king, he worshipped the king on his face to the earth.

24. And said, My lord king, hast thou said, Adonijah shall be king after me, and shall sit upon my throne?

25. For he went down this day, and offered oxen and fatlings, and many sheep, and called all the king's sons, and the captains, and Abiathar the priest. And, behold, they eat and drink before him, saying, Happy is the king Adonijah!

26. But me thy servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and thy servant Solomon, hath he not charged.

27. Is this commanded of my lord the king, and hast not thy servants known who shall sit in the throne of my lord the king after him?

28. And king David answered and said, Call Bathsheba unto me. And she came in before the king. And she stood before the king,

29. And the king sware, saying, As the LORD liveth, who hath delivered my soul out of all distress,

30. I will do this day as I sware unto thee by the LORD God of Israel, saying, Solomon thy son shall reign after me; and he shall sit upon my throne for me.

31. And Bathsheba bowed her face to the ground, and worshipped the king, and said, Blessed be my lord King David for ever.

32. And king David said, Call me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And they came in before the king,

33. And the king said unto them: Take with you your lord's servants, and set Solomon my son upon my mouth, and bring him down to Gihon.

34. And Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, anoint him there king over Israel. And blow ye with the trumpets, and say, Blessed be Solomon the king.

35. And go up after him, and when he is come, he shall sit upon my throne, and be king over me: and I will command him to be ruler over Israel and over Judah.

36. And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, Amen, so saith the LORD God of my lord the king.

37. As the LORD hath been with my lord the king, so be he also with Solomon, that his throne may be greater than the throne of my lord king David.

38. And Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Krethi and Plethi, went down, and set Solomon in the jaws of king David, and brought him to Gihon.

39. And Zadok the priest took the horn of oil out of the tabernacle, and anointed Solomon. And they blew with the trumpet, and all the people said, Happy is king Solomon!

40. And all the people went up after him: and the people blew with whistles, and were very glad; and the earth rang with their shouting.

41. And Adonijah heard it, and all that he had invited that were with him; and they had already eaten. And when Joab heard the sound of the trumpets, he said, What is the cry and tumult of the city?

42. And while he yet spake, behold, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came. And Adonijah said, Come in, for thou art an upright man, and bringest good tidings.

43. And Jonathan answered and said unto Adonijah, Yea, our lord king David hath made Solomon king;

44. And he sent with him Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Krethi and Plethi; and they set him in the king's mouth.

45. And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anointed him king in Gihon: and they went up from thence with joy, and the city rejoiced. This is the cry that ye have heard.

46. For this Solomon sitteth in the royal seat.

47. And the king's servants went in to bless our lord king David, saying, Thy God make Solomon's name better than thy name, and make his throne greater than thy throne. And the king worshipped in the camp.

48. And the king said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which this day hath made one to sit upon my throne, that mine eyes have seen.

49. And all that were bidden at Adonijah were afraid, and arose, and went every man his way.

50. But Adonijah was afraid of Solomon; and he arose, and went, and took hold of the horns of the altar.

51. And it was told Solomon, saying, Behold, Adonijah feareth king Solomon; and, behold, he taketh hold of the horns of the altar, saying, King Solomon sweareth unto me this day that he will not slay his servant with the sword.

52. And Solomon said, If he be upright, not a hair of his head shall fall to the earth: but if evil be found in him, he shall die.

53. And king Solomon sent, and brought him down from off the altar. And when he was come, he worshipped king Solomon. And Solomon said unto him, Go into thine house.

(1 Kings)

Chapter 2

David's last will and parting. Solomon's succession and earnest government.

1. And it came to pass, when the time was come that David should die, that he commanded Solomon his son, saying:
2. I go the way of all the earth: be of good cheer, and be a man.

3. And wait upon the guard of the LORD thy God, that thou walk in his ways, and keep his statutes, and his judgments, and his testimonies, as it is written in the law of Moses; that thou mayest be wise in all that thou doest, and in all that thou turnest, 4. That the LORD may perform his word which he spake concerning me, saying, If thy children keep their ways, and walk before me faithfully with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall never fail thee a man upon the throne of Israel. 5. Also thou knowest well what Joab the son of Zeruiah did unto me, what he did unto the two captains of the host of Israel, Abner the son of Ner, and Amasa the son of Jether, whom he slew, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle that was about his loins, and upon his shoes that were upon his feet. 6. Do according to thy wisdom, that thou bring not down his gray hairs with peace unto hell. 7. Thou shalt also shew mercy unto the children of Barzillai the Gileadite, that they may eat at thy table. For so they did unto me, when I fled from Absalom thy brother. 8. And, behold, thou hast with thee Shimei the son of Gera, the son of Jemini of Bahurim, who cursed me shamefully at the time that I went to Mahanaim. And he came down to meet me by Jordan. And I swore unto him by the LORD, saying: I will not kill thee with the sword. 9. But let him not be innocent: for thou art a wise man, and knowest well what thou oughtest to do unto him, that thou mayest bring down his gray hairs with blood into hell. 10. So David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David. 11. And the time that David reigned over Israel was forty years. Seven years was he king in Hebron, and thirty and three years in Jerusalem. 12. And Solomon sat upon the throne of David his father, and his kingdom was very established. 13. And Adonijah the son of Hagith came in unto Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, Comest thou also with peace? And he said, Yea. 14. And said: I have come to speak with thee. And she said, Tell me. 15. And he said, Thou knowest that the kingdom was mine, and all Israel was set upon me to be king: but now the kingdom is turned, and is become my brother's; from the LORD it is become his.

16. Now I make a request of thee, that thou put not my face to shame. And she said unto him, Tell me.

17. And he said, Speak unto king Solomon, (for he will not put thy face to shame,) that he give me Abi sag of Sunem to wife.

18. And Bathsheba said, Well, I will speak unto the king for thy sake.

19. And Bathsheba came in unto king Solomon, to speak with him concerning Adonijah. And the king arose, and went to meet her, and worshipped her, and sat upon his throne. And a seat was set for the king's mother, and she sat on his right hand.

20. And she said: I make a small request of thee, that thou shalt not shame my face. And the king said unto her, Please, my mother, I will not shame thy face.

21. And she said, Let Abishag of Sunem give Adonijah thy brother to wife.

22. And king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, Why askest thou Abishag of Sunem the Adonite? Ask him the kingdom also; for he is my greatest brother, and hath Abiathar the priest, and Joab the son of Zeruiah.

23. And king Solomon sware by the LORD, saying, God do this unto me, and this unto me: Adonijah hath spoken this against his life.

24. And now, as the LORD liveth, which hath confirmed me, and made me to sit upon the throne of David my father, and hath made me an house, as he spake, this day shall Adonijah die.

25. And king Solomon sent by Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, which smote him, and he died.

26. And the king said unto Abiathar the priest, Go to Anathoth unto thy field: for thou art dead.

But I will not kill thee this day: for thou hast borne the ark of the LORD before David my father, and hast suffered where my father suffered.

27. So Solomon put away Abiathar, that he should not be the priest of the LORD, that the word of the LORD might be fulfilled, which he spake concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

28. And the rumour came before Joab: for Joab was attached to Adonijah, though not to Absalom. And Joab fled into the tabernacle of the LORD, and took hold on the horns of the altar.

29. And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled to the tabernacle of the LORD: and, behold, he stood by the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go, smite him.

30. And when Benaiah was come to the tabernacle of the LORD, he said unto him, Thus saith the king, Go forth. And he said, Nay, I will die here. And Benaiah told the king these things again, saying, Thus spake Joab, and thus answered he me.

31. And the king said unto him, Do as he hath spoken, and smite him, and bury him, that thou mayest put away from me the blood which Joab hath shed for nought, and from my father's house,

32. And let the LORD pay him for his blood upon his head, because he smote two men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword: and David my father knew not any thing of it, Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host over Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the host over Judah;

33. And their blood shall be paid upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for ever: and David, and his seed, and his house, and his throne, shall have peace in the sight of the LORD for ever.

34. And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and smote him, and slew him. And he was buried in his house in the wilderness.

35. And the king set Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his stead over the host: and the king set Zadok the priest in the stead of Abiathar.

36. And the king sent and called Shimei, and said unto him, Build thee an house at Jerusalem, and dwell there; and go not out thence, either hither or thither.

37. When thou goest forth, and passest over the brook Kidron, know that thou shalt surely die: thy blood shall be upon thy head.

38. And Shimei said unto the king: This is a good opinion; as my lord the king hath spoken, so shall thy servant do. So Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem a long time.

39. And it came to pass about three years, that two servants ran away from Shimei to Achish the son of Maechah king of Gath. And it was told Shimei, Behold, thy servants are at Gath.

40. And Shimei arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish, to seek his servants. And when he was come, he brought his servants from Gath.

41. And it was told Solomon, saying, Shimei is departed from Jerusalem unto Gath, and is come again.

42. And the king sent and called Shimei, and said unto him, Did I not swear unto thee by the LORD, and testify unto thee, saying, What day thou shalt go forth, and go hither or thither, and know that thou must surely die? And thou saidst unto me, I have heard a good report.

43. Why then hast thou not kept the oath of the LORD, and the commandment which I commanded thee?

44. And the king said unto Shimei, Thou knowest all the wickedness that thine heart is conscious of, which thou hast done unto David my father: the LORD hath paid thy wickedness upon thy head.

45. And king Solomon is blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD for ever.

46. And the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he went out, and smote him, and he died. And the kingdom was established by the hand of Solomon.

(1 Kings)

Chapter 3

Solomon's marriage, prayer and judgment.

1. And Solomon made friends with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the city of David, until he had enlarged his house, and the house of the LORD, and the walls about Jerusalem.

2. But the people sacrificed yet in the high places: for there was not yet a house built unto the name of the LORD until that time.

3. And Solomon loved the LORD, and walked after the manner of David his father, without sacrificing and burning incense in the high places.

4. And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there: for that was a glorious high place. And Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings upon the same altar.

5. And the LORD appeared unto Solomon in Gibeon in a dream by night: and God said, Ask what I shall give thee.

6. And Solomon said, Thou hast shewed great mercy unto David thy servant my father, as he walked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart before thee: and thou hast kept this great mercy unto him, and hast given him a son to sit upon his throne, as it is now.

7. Now, O LORD my God, thou hast made thy servant king in the stead of David my father. I am a little child, and know not my way out, nor my way in.

8. And thy servant is great among the people whom thou hast chosen, that no man can number them, nor describe them before the multitude.

9. Then give thou thy servant an obedient heart, that he may judge thy people, and understand what is good and what is evil. For who is able to judge this mighty people of thine?

10. And it pleased the LORD that Solomon asked such a thing.

11. And God said unto him, Because thou askest these things, and askest not for long life, nor for riches, nor for the soul of thine enemies, but for understanding to hear judgment, 12. Behold, thus have I done according to thy words. Behold, I have given thee a heart of wisdom and understanding; there was none like thee before thee, neither shall there be any like thee after thee.

13. Forasmuch as thou hast not asked, I have given thee riches and honour: there is none like thee among kings in thy days.

14. And if thou wilt walk in my ways, and keep my statutes and my commandments, as David thy father walked, I will give thee long life.

15. And when Solomon awoke, behold, it was a dream. And he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and made a great supper unto all his servants.

16. At that time came two harlots unto the king, and stood before him.

17. And the one woman said, Oh my lord, I and this woman dwelt in one house; and I lay with her in the house.

18. And about three days after I gave birth she gave birth also: and we were together, that there was no stranger in the house with us, save we both.

19. And the son of that woman died in the night: for she had crushed him in his sleep.

20. And she arose in the night, and took my son from my side, while thine handmaid slept, and laid him upon her arm, and her dead son she laid upon my arm.

21. And when I arose in the morning to nurse my son, behold, he was dead. But in the morning I looked on him, and, behold, he was not my son that I had brought forth.

22. And the other woman said, Not so; my son liveth, and thy son is dead. And she said, Not so; thy son is dead, and my son liveth. And they spake thus before the king.

23. And the king said, This saith, My son liveth, and thy son is dead: that saith, Not so; thy son is dead, and my son liveth.

24. And the king said, Bring me a sword. And when the sword was brought before the king, 25. And the king said, Divide the living child into two parts, and give the one half, and the other half.

26. Then said the woman, whose son was alive, unto the king, (for her motherly heart was kindled against her son,) Alas, my lord, give her the child alive, and kill it not. But she said, Let it be neither mine nor thine; let it be divided.

27. And the king answered and said, Give this child alive, and kill him not: she is his mother.

28. And the judgment went out before all Israel, which the king had judged: and they feared the king, because they saw that the wisdom of God was in him to execute judgment.

(1 Kings)

Chapter 4

Solomon's officers, glory and wisdom.

1. So Solomon was king over all Israel.

2. And these were his princes; Azariah the son of Zadok the priest, 3. Elihoreph and Ahijah the sons of Sisha were scribes. Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was chancellor.

4. Jehoiada's son, was captain of the host. Zadok and Abiathar were priests.

5. Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers. Zabud the son of Nathan the priest was the king's friend.

6. Ahishar was chamberlain: Adoniram the son of Abda was chamberlain.

7. And Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, to minister unto the king and to his house.

And one of them had a month's supply in the year.

8. And they were called the sons of Hur in mount Ephraim;

9. The son of Dezer in Makaz, and in Saalbim, and in Bethshemesh, and in Elon, and in Bethhanan;

10. The son of Heshed in Aruboth: and he had Shocho, and all the land of Hephher; 11. The son of Abinadab: all the dominion of Dor; and would have Taphath the daughter of Solomon to wife;

12. Baena the son of Ahilud, in Taenah, and in Megiddo, and over all Bethshean, which is beside Zarthanah under Jezreel, from Bethshean even unto the plain of Meholah, even beyond Jehakmeam;

13. The son of Giver in Ramoth in Gilead: and he had the spots of Jair the son of Manasseh in Gilead, and had the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, threescore and ten great cities, walled, and with bars of brass;

14. Ahinadab the son of Iddo, to Mahanaim;

15. Ahimaaz in Naphtali: and he also took Solomon's daughter Basmath to wife; 16. Baena the son of Husai, in Asher, and in Aloth;

17. Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah, in Issachar;

18. Shimei the son of Elah, in Benjamin;

19. Geber the son of Us, in the land of Gilead, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, and of Og king of Bashan; a minister was in the same land.

20. And Judah and Israel were as the sand of the sea: and they did eat and drink, and were merry.

21. So Solomon was lord over all the kingdoms from the waters of the Philistines' country unto the border of Egypt, which brought him gifts, and served him all the days of his life.

22. And Solomon had daily for meat thirty measures of fine flour, and threescore measures of other flour,

23. And ten fatted oxen, and twenty hinds, and an hundred sheep, beside the deer, and the roe deer, and the chamois, and the fatted cattle.

24. For he reigned over all the land that was on this side the river, from Tiphseh even unto Gaza, over all the kings that were on this side the river, and had peace of all his subjects round about,

25. And Judah and Israel dwelt safely every man under his vine, and under his fig tree, from Dan even to Beersheba, all the days of Solomon.

26. And Solomon had forty thousand chariot horses, and twelve thousand horsemen.

27. And the officers fed king Solomon, and all that belonged to the king's table, every man in his month, and lacked nothing.

28. And they brought barley and straw for the horses and for the horsemen unto the place where he was, every man according to his commandment.

29. And God gave Solomon very great wisdom, and understanding, and a heart as calm as the sand that lieth by the sea shore,

30. That the wisdom of Solomon was greater than all the children of the morning, and the wisdom of all the Egyptians.

31. And he was wiser than all men, and wiser than the poets, Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Chalcolah, and Darda: and he was renowned among all the heathen round about.

32. And he spake three thousand proverbs, and his songs were a thousand and five.

33. And he spake of trees, from the cedar of Lebanon unto hyssop that groweth out of the wall.

And he spake of cattle, and of birds, and of creeping things, and of fishes.

34. And there came out of all nations to hear the wisdom of Solomon, of all the kings of the earth, which had heard of his wisdom.

(1 Kings)

Chapter 5

Solomon's covenant with Hiram in preparation for building the temple.

1. And Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants unto Solomon: for he had heard that they had anointed him king in his father's stead. For Hiram loved David all the days of his life.

2. And Solomon sent to Hiram, saying:

3. Thou knowest that David my father could not build an house unto the name of the LORD his God, because of the war that was about him, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet.

4. But now the LORD my God hath given me rest round about, that there is no more adversary nor evil hindrance.

5. Behold, I have thought to build an house unto the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spake unto David my father, saying, Thy son, whom I will set in thy stead upon thy throne, shall build an house unto my name.

6. Now therefore command that cedars be hewn for me out of Lebanon, and that thy servants be with my servants. And the wages of thy servants will I give thee, all as thou sayest. You know that we have no one who knows how to cut wood like the Zidonians.

7. And when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, he rejoiced greatly, and said, Blessed be the LORD this day, which hath given David a wise son over this great people.

8. And Hiram sent unto Solomon, saying, I have heard that thou hast sent unto me. I will do according to all thy desire with cedars and with fir wood.

9. And my servants shall bring them down from Lebanon unto the sea; and I will lay them in rafts upon the sea unto the place which thou shalt tell me: and there I will bind them, and thou shalt fetch them. And thou shalt do my desire, and give meat unto my servants.

10. So Hiram gave Solomon cedar and fir wood according to all his desire.

11. And Solomon gave unto Hiram twenty thousand measures of wheat to eat for his servants, and twenty measures of olive oil. And Solomon gave them to Hiram yearly.

12. And the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as he had spoken unto him. And there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and they made both of them a covenant together.

13. And Solomon put a number upon all Israel; and the number was thirty thousand men.

14. And he sent them into Lebanon, ten thousand and one month; and they were in Lebanon one month, and at home two months. And Adoniram was over such a number.

15. And Solomon had seventy thousand that bare burdens, and fourscore thousand that carpentered in the mount,

16. Without the chief officers of Solomon, which were set over the work, even three thousand and three hundred, which had the rule over the people that wrought in the work.

17. And the king commanded that they should break out great and precious stones, even hewn stones for the foundation of the house.

18. And the builders of Solomon, and the builders of Hiram, and the builders of Giblem, cut out, and prepared wood and stones to build the house.

(1 Kings)

Chapter 6

The construction of the temple will be completed in seven years.

1. In the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel came out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of the reign of Solomon over Israel, in the month Sif, which is the other moon, was the house built unto the LORD.

2. Now the house which king Solomon built for the LORD was threescore cubits long, and twenty cubits broad, and thirty cubits high.

3. And they built a hall before the temple, twenty cubits long, according to the breadth of the house, and ten cubits broad before the house.

4. And he made the windows of the house wide within, and narrow without.

5. And he built a border upon the wall of the house round about, to go round about the temple and the choir; and made the outer wall thereof round about.

6. The lowest course was five cubits, and the middle course six cubits, and the third course seven cubits: for he put banners round about the house without, that they might not cleave unto the wall of the house.

7. And when the house was set in order, the stones were first made ready, so that no hammer or axe or iron tool was heard in the building.

8. And there was a door on the right side in the midst of the house, that went up by turnstones into the middle passage, and from the middle passage into the third.

9. So he built the house, and finished it: and he sprinkled the house with cedar, both above and on the walls.

10. He built also a passage upon the top of the whole house, five cubits high, and covered the house with cedar.

11. And the word of the LORD came unto Solomon, saying;

12. This is the house which thou shalt build. If thou wilt walk in my statutes, and do according to my judgments, and keep all my commandments to walk therein, I will confirm my word with thee, as I spake unto David thy father.

13. And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel.

14. So Solomon built the house, and finished it.

15. And he built the walls of the house within on the sides of cedar, from the floor of the house even unto the top thereof; and he lined it with wood within, and wainscoted the floor of the house with fir boards.

16. And he built at the back of the house twenty cubits, a wall of cedar from the floor to the top; and there he built the choir within, and the holy of holies.

17. But the house of the temple (before the choir) was forty cubits long,

18. Within the house was all the cedar, with twisted knots and flowers, that there was not a stone to be seen.

19. And he prepared the choir within the house, that the ark of the covenant of the LORD might be put there.

20. And before the choir, which was twenty cubits long, and twenty cubits broad, and twenty cubits high, and overlaid with pure gold, he sprinkled the altar with cedar.

21. And Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold, and set up bars of gold before the choir, which he overlaid with gold,

22. So that the whole house was overlaid with gold: and he overlaid the whole altar before the choir with gold.

23. He made also in the choir two cherubims, ten cubits high, of olive wood.

24. Five cubits was the wing of every cherub, ten cubits from the end of his one wing unto the end of his other wing.

25. So the other cherub also had ten cubits, and was of the same measure and of the same space of both the cherubims,

26. So that every cherub was ten cubits high.

27. And he put the cherubims within the house. And the cherubims spread forth their wings, and one wing touched this wall, and the other cherub's wing touched the other wall: and in the midst of the house one wing touched another.

28. And he overlaid the cherubims with gold.

29. And upon all the walls of the house round about he made carvings of cherubims hollowed out, and palm trees, and flowers, within and without.

30. And he overlaid the floor of the house with plates of gold within and without.

31. And in the entry of the choir he made two doors of olive wood, with five-feet posts.

32. And made carvings thereon of cherubims, and palm trees, and flowers; and overlaid them with plates of gold.

33. So he made also in the entering in of the temple foursquare posts of olive wood.

34. And two doors of fir wood: and every door had two leaves hanging together upon the hinges thereof.

35. And he carved thereon cherubims, and palm trees, and flowers; and overlaid them with gold, according to the commandment.

36. And he built a court within of three bows of hewn stones, and of a cord of hewed cedars.

37. In the fourth year, in the month Sif, was the foundation laid of the house of the LORD.

38. And in the eleventh year, in the month of Bul (which is the eighth moon), the house was prepared, as it should be, that they should build it seven years.

(1 Kings)

Chapter 7

Fabrication of the royal houses and the vessels of the temple.

1. But Solomon built his house thirteen years, and made it complete.

2. Namely, he built an house of the forest of Lebanon, an hundred cubits long, fifty cubits broad, and thirty cubits high. And upon the same four quarters he laid the floor of cedar boards, upon cedar pillars, according to the staves,

3. And upon the top thereof a room of cedars upon the same pillars, which were forty and five, fifteen in a row.

4. And were windows against the three squares over against each other, three against three.

5. And were foursquare in their posts.

6. And he built a hall of pillars fifty cubits long, and thirty cubits broad; and another hall before it, with pillars and thick beams.

7. And he built also a hall for the judgment seat, where they judged: and he wainscoted both the floors with cedar.

8. And his house, where he dwelt, was in the court of the back of the hall, made like unto the other houses: and he made a house like unto the hall for Pharaoh's daughter, whom Solomon had taken to wife.

9. All these were precious stones, hewn with angle iron, cut with saws on every side, from the foundation even to the roof, and the great court without.

10. And the foundations also were precious and great stones, ten cubits and eight cubits, 11. and thereon precious hewn stones after the angle iron and cedars.

12. And the great court round about had three courses of hewn stone, and one course of cedar boards; so also the court of the house of the LORD within, and the hall of the house.

13. And king Solomon sent and fetched Hiram of Tyre,

14. The son of a widow, of the tribe of Naphtali; and his father was a man of Tyre: he was a master of brass, full of wisdom, and understanding, and skill in working all manner of brass.

And when he came to king Solomon, he made all his works.

15. And he made two pillars of brass, every one eighteen cubits high; and a cord of twelve cubits was the measure of every pillar.

16. And he made two knobs of brass to be set upon the top of the pillars, and every knob was five cubits high.

17. And on every knob of the top of the pillar were seven plaited hoops, like chains.

18. And he made on every pommel two rows of pomegranates round about in one hoop, to cover the pommel.

19. And the knobs were as the roses before the hall, four cubits high.

20. And the pomegranates that were in the staves round about were two hundred, above and below the hoop that went round about the belly of the pommel, on every pommel on both pillars.

21. And he set up the pillars before the hall of the temple. And which he set on the right hand he called Jachin; and which he set on the left hand he called Boaz.

22. And it stood upon the pillars like roses. So the work of the pillars was finished.

23. And he made a sea of water ten cubits broad, from brim to brim, round about, and five cubits high; and a cord thirty cubits long was the measure round about.

24. And about the same sea, which was ten cubits broad, there were knots in the border thereof round about the sea: and the knots were two tiers cast.

25. And there stood upon twelve oxen, of which three were toward the north, and three toward the west, and three toward the south, and three toward the east: and the sea was upon them, and all their hind parts were inward.

26. And the thickness thereof was an handbreadth, and the brim thereof was as the brim of a cup, as a rose sprung up: and it went in for two thousand baths.

27. And he made ten stands of brass, each four cubits long and broad, and three cubits high.

28. And the stalls were so made, that they had sides between the fillets.

29. And on the sides between the borders were lions, and oxen, and cherubims. And the sides where the lions and the oxen were had ledges above and below, and little feet thereon.

30. And every chair had four brass wheels with a brass frame. And on the four corners were cast armpits, every one over against the other, leaning down against the caldron.

31. But the neck in the midst of the stalls was a cubit high, and about a cubit and a half wide; and there were humps in the neck in squares, and not round.

32. And the four wheels were at the bottom of the sides, and the axles of the wheels were upon the stalls. Each wheel was a cubit and a half high.

33. And the wheels were like chariot wheels, and their axles, and hubs, and spokes, and rims, were all cast.

34. And the four armpits of the four corners of every stall were also in the stalls.

35. And at the neck, on the top of the chair, half a cubit high, round about, were ledges and sides on the chair.

36. And he digged on the surface of the same sides and borders cherubims, and lions, and palm trees; every one by the other round about.

37. And in this manner he made ten chairs, cast, of the same measure, and of the same space, in all of them.

38. And he made ten brasen caldrons, that forty baths might go into one caldron: and the caldron was four cubits high, and upon every throne was a caldron.

39. And he set five chairs at the right hand corner of the house, and the other five at the left hand corner: and he set the sea on the right hand before the south.

40. And Hiram also made pots, and shovels, and basons; and finished all the works which king Solomon made in the house of the LORD,

41. Namely, the two pillars, and the two censers on the top of the two pillars, and the two plaited bands to cover the two censers on the pillars;

42. and the four hundred pomegranates on the two wreathed hoops, two rows of pomegranates on each hoop, to cover the two pommels on the pillars;

43. Plus the ten pews and ten kettles on top;

44. And the sea, and twelve oxen under the sea;

45. And the pots, and the shovels, and the beckons. And all these vessels, which Hiram made for king Solomon in the house of the LORD, were of pure brass.

46. In the region of Jordan the king cast them, in thick earth, between Shukoth and Zarthan.

47. And Solomon left all the vessels unweighed before the very great multitude of the brass.

48. Solomon also made all the vessels of the house of the LORD, a golden altar, and a golden table, whereon the shewbread was laid;

49. Five candlesticks on the right hand, and five candlesticks on the left hand, before the choir, of pure gold, with flowers of gold, and lamps, and snows;

50. And bowls, and dishes, and basons, and spoons, and pans, of pure gold. And the hinges of the door of the inner house of the holy of holies, and of the door of the house of the temple, were of gold.

51. So all the work that king Solomon did in the house of the LORD was finished. And Solomon brought in the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, which David his father had hallowed, and put them in the treasury of the house of the LORD.

(1 Kings)

Chapter 8

The temple of Solomon is dedicated.

1. Then king Solomon gathered unto him the elders of Israel, all the princes of the tribes, and the rulers of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.

2. And there were gathered together unto king Solomon all the men of Israel in the month Ethanim, in the feast, which is the seventh moon.

3. And when all the elders of Israel were come, the priests lifted up the ark of the LORD, 4. And they brought them up, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the vessels of the sanctuary that were in the tabernacle. And the priests and the Levites did so.

5. And king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel that were gathered unto him, went with him before the ark, and offered sheep and oxen so much that they could not be numbered nor reckoned.

6. So the priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD into their place, into the choir of the house, into the holy of holies, under the wings of the cherubims.

7. For the cherubims spread forth their wings in the place where the ark stood, and covered the ark and the staves thereof from above.

8. And the rods were so long, that the pommels thereof were seen in the sanctuary before the choir, but they were not seen without: and they were there unto this day.

9. And there was nothing in the ark, save the two tables of stone of Moses, which he left there in Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.

10. And as the priests went out of the sanctuary, a cloud filled the house of the LORD, 11. So that the priests could not stand and minister before the cloud. For the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD.

12. And Solomon said, The LORD hath spoken that he will dwell in darkness.

13. For I have built thee an house for thy dwelling, a habitation, that thou mayest dwell therein for ever.

14. And the king turned his face, and blessed all the congregation of Israel: and all the congregation of Israel stood.

15. And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which spake by his mouth unto David my father, and fulfilled by his hand, saying:

16. From the day that I brought forth my people Israel out of Egypt, I have not mentioned a city among any tribe of Israel, to build me an house, that my name might be there: but David have I mentioned to be over my people Israel.

17. And my father David purposed to build an house unto the name of the LORD God of Israel; 18. And the LORD said unto David my father, Because thou hast purposed to build an house for my name, thou hast done well to undertake it;

19. But thou shalt not build the house, but the son that shall come out of thy loins, he shall build an house for my name.

20. And the LORD hath confirmed his word which he spake. For I am risen up in the stead of David my father. And I sit upon the throne of Israel, as the LORD hath spoken; and have built an house unto the name of the LORD God of Israel.

21. And I have prepared there a place for the ark, wherein is the covenant of the LORD, which he made with our fathers, when he brought them up out of the land of Egypt.

22. And Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD against all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven.

23. And he said, O LORD God of Israel, there is no God like unto thee in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, that keepeth covenant and mercy unto thy servants which walk before thee with all their heart:

24. Who hast kept unto thy servant David my father that which thou hast spoken unto him. With thy mouth hast thou spoken it, and with thine hand hast thou fulfilled it, as it is this day.

25. Now therefore, O LORD God of Israel, keep unto thy servant David my father that which thou hast spoken unto him, saying, There shall not fail thee a man before me, that sitteth upon the throne of Israel: yet let thy children keep their way, that they may walk before me, as thou hast walked before me.

26. Now therefore, O God of Israel, let thy words come to pass, which thou hast spoken unto thy servant David my father.

27. For thinkest thou that God dwelleth on the earth? Behold, the heavens and all the heavens may not provide for thee. How then shall this house which I have built?

28. But turn to the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplications, O LORD my God, that thou mayest hear the praise and the prayer which thy servant maketh before thee this day,

29. That thine eyes may be open upon this house night and day, upon the place of which thou hast said: My name shall be there. Thou shalt hear the prayer that thy servant maketh in this place,

30. And hear the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, which they shall do in this thy dwelling place which is in heaven; and when thou hearest it, be gracious.

31. If a man sin against his neighbour, and take an oath upon him to be bound, and the oath come before thine altar in this house,

32. Then hear thou in heaven, and do justice unto thy servants, to condemn the wicked, and to bring his way upon his head, and to judge the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

33. When thy people Israel are smitten before their enemies, because they have sinned against thee, and turn unto thee, and confess thy name, and pray, and make supplication unto thee, in this house,

34. Then hear thou in heaven, and be merciful to the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again into the land which thou gavest unto their fathers.

35. When the heavens are shut up, that it rain not, because they have sinned against thee, and shall pray in this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sins, because thou hast urged them,

36. Then hear thou in heaven, and have mercy on the sin of thy servants, and on thy people Israel, to shew them the good way wherein they shall walk, and to rain upon the land which thou hast given thy people for an inheritance.

37. If there be a famine, or pestilence, or drought, or blight, or locusts, or caterpillars in the land, or his enemy in the land besiege his gates, or any plague or disease: 38. Then whosoever shall ask and beseech, whether it be men or thy people Israel, when they perceive their plague, every man in his heart shall spread out his hands unto this house, 39. Then hear thou in heaven, in the place where thou dwellest, and be gracious, and provide that thou mayest give every man according as he hath walked, as thou knowest his heart: for thou only knowest the heart of all the children of men;

40. That they may fear thee alway, as long as they dwell in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.

41. Though a stranger, which is not of thy people Israel, come from a far country for thy name's sake

42. (for they shall hear of thy great name, and of thy mighty hand, and of thy outstretched arm), and come to pray before this house,

43. Then hear thou in heaven, in the habitation of thy dwelling, and do according to all that the stranger calleth unto thee, that all people of the earth may know thy name, and fear thee, as do thy people Israel; and that they may know how that house is called by thy name, which I have built.

44. When thy people go forth to battle against their enemies of the way which thou shalt send them, and they shall pray unto the LORD by the way of the city which thou hast chosen, and by the house which I have built for thy name,

45. then thou wilt hear their prayer and supplication in heaven, and wilt establish justice.

46. If they sin against thee, (for there is no man that sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and give them up before their enemies, that they may carry them captive into the enemy's country, far or near,

47. And they shall smite in their hearts in the land wherein they are captives, and shall be converted, and shall cry unto thee in the land of their captivity, saying: We have sinned and transgressed, and have been ungodly;

48. And they turn unto thee with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies, which they have carried away, and pray unto thee toward their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house which I have built for thy name:

49. Then hear thou their prayer and their supplication in heaven, from thy dwelling place, and do justice,

50. And be merciful unto thy people that have sinned against thee, and to all their transgressions, that they have transgressed against thee; and have mercy upon them that hold them captive, and have compassion on them.

51. For they are thy people and thine inheritance, whom thou hast brought out of Egypt out of the iron furnace;

52. That thine eyes may be open unto the supplications of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, that thou mayest hear them in all things wherefore they call upon thee.

53. For thou hast separated them unto thee for an inheritance out of all the people of the earth, as thou spakest by the hand of Moses thy servant, when thou broughtest up our fathers out of Egypt, O LORD, O LORD.

54. And when Solomon had prayed all this prayer and supplication before the LORD, he arose from the altar of the LORD, and left off kneeling, and spreading out his hands toward heaven.

55. And he stood there, and blessed all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying: 56. Blessed be the LORD, which hath given rest unto his people Israel, as he spake. Not one of his good words, which he spake by his servant Moses, hath perished.

57. May the LORD our God be with us, as he was with our fathers. Let him not forsake us, nor withdraw his hand from us,

58. To incline our hearts unto him, that we may walk in all his ways, and keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his judgments, which he commanded our fathers.

59. And these words, which I have prayed before the LORD, must come near unto the LORD our God day and night, to do judgment unto his servant, and to do judgment unto his people Israel, every one in his season,

60. That all the nations of the earth may know that the LORD is GOD, and none more.

61. And let your heart be righteous with the LORD our God, to walk in his customs, and to keep his commandments, as it is this day.

62. And the king and all Israel offered sacrifices before the LORD.

63. And Solomon offered peace offerings, which he offered unto the LORD, twenty and two thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So they dedicated the house of the LORD, the king, and all the children of Israel.

64. And the king consecrated the middle court that was before the house of the LORD the same day, to set there the burnt offering, and the meat offering, and the fat of the peace offerings.

For the brass altar that stood before the LORD was too small for the burnt offering, the grain offering, and the fat of the peace offerings.

65. And Solomon made a feast at that time, and all Israel with him, a great congregation, from the border of Hemath unto the river of Egypt, before the LORD our God, seven days and seven days; which was fourteen days.

66. And he sent the people away the eighth day. And they blessed the king, and went unto their tents rejoicing, and of good cheer, because of all the good that the LORD had done for David his servant, and for Israel his people.

(1 Kings)

Chapter 9

The Lord appears to Solomon the second time. Fortified Cities.

Navigation.

1. And when Solomon had built the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all that he desired and longed to do, he began to build the house of the LORD.

2. The Lord appeared unto him the second time, as he appeared unto him in Gibeon.

3. And the LORD said unto him, I have heard thy prayer and thy supplication, which thou hast made before me, and have sanctified this house, which thou hast built to put my name there for ever: mine eyes and mine heart shall be there for ever.

4. And thou, if thou walk before me as David thy father walked, with a righteous heart and uprightness, to do all that I have commanded thee, and to keep my commandments and my statutes,

5. Then will I confirm the throne of thy kingdom upon Israel for ever, as I spake unto David thy father, saying, There shall no man fail thee from the throne of Israel.

6. But if ye turn away from me behind, ye and your children, and keep not my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you, and go and serve other gods, and worship them, 7. Then will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; and the house which I have hallowed for my name will I forsake out of my sight: and Israel shall be a proverb and a fable among all people;

8. And the house shall be pulled down; and all that pass by shall be astonished, and shall blaspheme, and say, Why hath the LORD done this thing unto this land, and unto this house?

9. And they shall answer, Because they have forsaken the LORD their God, which brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have taken other gods, and worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath the LORD brought all this evil upon them.

10. And it came to pass, when the twenty years were expired, in the which Solomon built the two houses, the house of the LORD, and the king's house,

11. And when Hiram king of Tyre had brought Solomon cedar trees, and fir trees, and gold, according to all that he desired, king Solomon gave unto Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.

12. And Hiram went out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him, and they pleased him not.

13. And said, What are these cities, my brother, which thou hast given me? And called them the land of Kabul unto this day.

14. And Hiram had sent unto the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold.

15. And the same is the sum of the increase which king Solomon began to build the house of the LORD, and his house, and Millo, and the walls of Jerusalem, and Hazer, and Megiddo, and Gaser.

16. For Pharaoh king of Egypt had come up, and taken Gase, and burned it with fire, and slain the Canaanites that dwelt in the city, and given it for a present unto his daughter Solomon's wife.

17. So Solomon built Gaser, and the lower Beth-horon.

18. And Baelath and Tamar in the wilderness of the land.

19. And all the cities of the granaries which Solomon had, and all the cities of the chariots, and the cities of the horsemen, and whatsoever he pleased to build, in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

20. And all the rest of the people of the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which were not of the children of Israel, 21. The same children which they left behind them in the land, whom the children of Israel could not utterly destroy, Solomon made to pay interest unto this day.

22. But of the children of Israel made he not servants, but made them men of war, and his servants, and princes, and knights, and over his chariots, and horsemen.

23. And the officers that were over Solomon's business were five hundred and fifty, which ruled over the people, and did the business.

24. And Pharaoh's daughter went up from the city of David unto her house, which he had built for her. And he built Millo also.

25. And Solomon offered burnt offerings and peace offerings three times in the year upon the altar which he had built unto the LORD, and burnt incense upon it before the LORD. And the house was finished.

26. And Solomon also made ships at Ezeon-giver, which is by Elath, on the shore of the Red sea, in the land of Edom.

27. And Hiram sent his servants in the ship, which were good shipmen, and experienced in the sea, with the servants of Solomon.

28. And they came to Ophir, and took there four hundred and twenty talents of gold, and brought it unto king Solomon.

(1 Kings)

Chapter 10

The Queen of Imperial Arabia marvels at Solomon's wisdom, wealth and glory.

1. And when the rumour of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD came before the queen of Arabia, she came to try him with riddles.

2. And she came to Jerusalem with a very great company, with camels bearing spices, and much gold and precious stones. And when she was come in unto king Solomon, she spake unto him all that she had undertaken.

3. And Solomon told her all things, and there was nothing hid from the king that he told her not.

4. And when the queen of Arabia saw all the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built,

5. And the meat for his table, and for his servants' dwelling, and for his servants' service, and for their garments, and for his gifts, and for his burnt offerings, which he offered in the house of the LORD, she could no more abstain from them.

6. And he said unto the king: It is true what I have heard in my country of thy nature and of thy wisdom.

7. And I believed it not, till I came, and saw it with mine own eyes. And, behold, I was not told the half of it. Thou hast more wisdom and good than the rumour that I have heard.

8. Blessed are thy people, and thy servants, which stand always before thee, and hear thy wisdom.

9. Blessed be the LORD thy God, which hath pleased thee to set thee on the throne of Israel: because the LORD loveth Israel for ever, and hath made thee king, to execute judgment and justice.

10. And she gave unto the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and very much spices and precious stones. And there came no more so much spices, as the queen of Arabia gave to king Solomon.

11. And the ships of Hiram, which brought gold out of Ophir, brought very much ebony and precious stones.

12. And the king made pillars of ebony in the house of the LORD, and in the king's house, and harps, and psalteries for the singers. And the ebony came no more, neither was it seen unto this day.

13. And king Solomon gave unto the queen of Sheba all that she desired and asked, without that he gave her of himself. And she turned, and went into her own land with her servants.

14. And the weight of the gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred threescore and six talents,

15. Without that which came from merchants and traders and apothecaries, and from all the kings of Arabia, and from the mighty men of the countries.

16. And king Solomon made two hundred shields of the best gold, and put six hundred pieces of gold for a shield;

17. And three hundred chargers of the best gold, three pounds of gold for every charger. And the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

18. And the king made a great chair of ivory, and overlaid it with the most precious gold.

19. And the chair had six steps, and the head of the chair was round behind. And there were rests on either side round about the buttocks; and two lions stood by the rests.

20. And twelve lions stood upon the six steps on either side. Such a thing is never done in any kingdom.

21. All the drinking vessels of king Solomon were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of gold: for silver was not esteemed in the days of Solomon.

22. For the king's ship that sailed in the sea with Hiram's ship came once in three years, and brought gold, and silver, and ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

23. So king Solomon was greater in riches and wisdom than all the kings of the earth.

24. And all the world desired to see Solomon, that they might hear the wisdom which God had put into his heart.

25. And every man brought him gifts of silver, and of vessels of gold, and of raiment, and of armour, and of spices, and of horses, and of mouths yearly.

26. And Solomon brought chariots and horsemen in abundance, and had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen: and he left them in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

27. And the king made the silver of Jerusalem as much as the stones, and the cedar as much as the wild fig trees of the valley.

28. And they brought Solomon horses out of Egypt, and all manner of merchandise: and the king's merchants bought the same merchandise.

29. And they brought them out of Egypt, a chariot for six hundred pieces of silver, and a horse for an hundred and fifty. And they brought them by their hand unto all the kings of the Hittites, and to the kings of Syria.

(1 Kings)

Chapter 11

Solomon's wives, idolatry, enemies and death.

1. But king Solomon loved many foreign wives, Pharaoh's daughter, and Moabites, and Ammonites, and Edomites, and Zidonites, and Hittites,

2. Of such nations as the LORD had said unto the children of Israel, Go not unto them, neither let them come unto you: they will surely incline your hearts after their gods. To these Solomon clave with love.

3. And he had seven hundred wives to wife, and three hundred concubines: and his wives inclined his heart.

4. And when he was old, his wives inclined his heart after strange gods, so that his heart was not entire with the LORD his God, as was the heart of David his father.

5. So Solomon walked after Ashtoreth the god of Zidon, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.

6. And Solomon did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed not the LORD wholly, as David his father did.

7. Then Solomon built a high place for Kamos the abomination of Moab in the mount that is before Jerusalem, and for Molech the abomination of the Ammonites.

8. So did Solomon to all his foreign wives, which burned incense and sacrificed unto their gods.

9. And the LORD was wroth with Solomon, because his heart was displeased with the LORD

God of Israel, which twice appeared unto him.

10. And had commanded him that he should not walk after other gods, and yet had not kept that which the LORD commanded him.

11. Therefore said the LORD unto Solomon, Because these things have been done unto thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant and my commandments which I commanded thee, I will also rend the kingdom from thee, and give it unto thy servant.

12. But in thy days I will not do it for David thy father's sake; but from the hand of thy son will I pluck it.

13. But I will not cut off the whole kingdom. One tribe will I go unto thy son for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, which I have chosen.

14. And the LORD raised up an adversary unto Solomon, Hadad the Edomite, of royal seed, which was in Edom.

15. For when David was in Edom, and Joab the captain of the host went up to bury the slain, he smote all the men of Edom.

16. For Joab abode there six months, and all Israel, until he had cut off all that was manly in Edom.

17. And Hadad fled, and with him certain men of Edom, of his father's servants, to come into Egypt. And Hadad was a young lad.

18. And they departed from Midian, and came to Paran; and they took men with them out of Paran, and came into Egypt unto Pharaoh king of Egypt: and he gave him an house, and food, and settled him in the land.

19. And Hadad found great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, that he gave him also his wife's sister

Tachpenes the queen to wife.

20. And the sister of Tachpenes bare him Genubath his son: and Tachpenes brought him up in Pharaoh's house: and Genubath was in Pharaoh's house among the sons of Pharaoh.

21. And when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the host was dead, he said unto Pharaoh, Let me go into my own land.

22. And Pharaoh said unto him, What lackest thou with me, that thou wilt go into thy land? And he said, Nothing: but let me go.

23. Also God raised up for him an adversary, Reson the son of Eliada, who had fled from his master Hadadezer king of Zobah.

24. And he gathered men against him, and became captain of the soldiers, when David slew them: and they went to Damascus, and dwelt there, and reigned in Damascus.

25. And he was Israel's adversary all the days of Solomon. This is the harm that Hadad suffered: therefore he had a loathing against Israel, and reigned over Syria.

26. And Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephrathite of Zareda, Solomon's servant, whose mother's name was Zerugah a widow, lifted up his hand against the king.

27. And this is the cause why he lifted up his hand against the king: When Solomon built Millo, he shut up a breach in the city of David his father.

28. And Jeroboam was a man of valour. And when Solomon saw that the lad was upright, he set him over all the burden of the house of Joseph.

29. And it came to pass in those days, that Jeroboam went out from Jerusalem, and Ahijah the prophet of Shiloh met him in the way, having a new coat upon him: and they were alone in the field.

30. And Ahijah took hold of the new coat which he had on, and rent it into twelve pieces.

31. And he said unto Jeroboam, Take thee ten pieces. For thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Behold, I will pluck the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give thee ten tribes.

32. He shall have a tribe for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel,

33. Because they have forsaken me, and worshipped Ashtoreth the god of the Zidonians, and Kamos the god of Moab, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon, and have not walked in my ways, to do that which is right in mine eyes, my commandments and my statutes, as David his father did.

54. Neither will I take the whole kingdom out of his hand; but I will make him ruler all the days of his life for David my servant's sake, whom I have chosen, who hath kept my commandments and my statutes.

35. Out of the hand of his son will I take the kingdom; and I will give thee ten tribes.

36. And give his son a tribe, that David my servant may have a lamp before me every way in the city of Jerusalem, which I have chosen to put my name there.

37. Now therefore I will take thee, and thou shalt reign over all that thine heart desireth, and shalt be king over Israel.

38. If thou wilt therefore obey all that I command thee, and walk in my ways, and do that which is right in mine eyes, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as my servant David did; then will I be with thee, and build thee a sure house, as I built David, and will give thee Israel.

39. And will humble the seed of David for this cause, but not for ever.

40. And Solomon sought to kill Jeroboam. And Jeroboam arose, and fled into Egypt unto Sishak king of Egypt: and he tarried in Egypt until Solomon died.

41. And the rest of the acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of Chronicles by Solomon?

42. And the time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years.

43. And Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David his father. And Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

(1 Kings)

Chapter 12

Partition of the kingdom of Solomon.

1. And Rehoboam went to Shechem: for all Israel were come to Shechem to make him king.

2. And Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard it, while he was yet in Egypt, whither he fled from the presence of king Solomon; and he abode in Egypt.

3. And they sent and called him. And Jeroboam and all the congregation of Israel came and spake unto Rehoboam, saying:

4. Thy Father hath made our yoke too hard: now therefore make thou the hard service and the heavy yoke lighter, which he hath put upon us, and we will be subject unto thee.

5. And he said unto them: Go ye till the third day, and come again unto me. And the people went.

6. And king Rehoboam took counsel with the elders that were before Solomon his father when he lived, saying, How counsel ye that we should answer this people?

7. And they said unto him, If thou wilt do service unto this people this day, and wilt do them will, and wilt hear them, and wilt speak good words unto them, they shall be servants unto thee all the days of thy life.

8. But he left the counsel of the elders, which they had given him, and held a council with the young men that were brought up with him, and sat before him.

9. And he said unto them: What counsel ye that we should answer this people, who have said unto me: Lighten the yoke which thy Father hath put upon us.

10. And the young men that were brought up with him said unto him, Thou shalt say unto the people that say unto thee, Thy father hath made our yoke too heavy; make thou it lighter for us; thus shalt thou say, My least finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11. Now my father hath put a heavy yoke upon you, but I will make it more heavy upon you: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12. So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had said, saying: Come again unto me the third day.

13. And the king gave a hard answer unto the people, and forsook the counsel which the elders had given him,

14. And he spake unto them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father hath made your yoke heavy, but I will make it more heavy upon you: my father hath chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15. So the king hearkened not unto the people: for it was so wrought of the LORD, that he might confirm his word, which he spake by Ahijah of Shiloh unto Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16. And when all Israel saw that the king would not hear them, the people answered the king, and said, What have we part in David, or inheritance in the son of Jesse? Arise, O Israel, unto thy tents. Now therefore, David, behold thou unto thy house. So Israel went to his tents, 17. That Rehoboam reigned over the children of Israel only, which dwelt in the cities of Judah.

18. And when king Rehoboam sent Adoram the chamberlain, all Israel cast him down with stones. And king Rehoboam mounted a chariot, and fled to Jerusalem.

19. So Israel fell away from the house of David unto this day.

20. And when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was come again, they sent and called him unto all the congregation, and made him king over all Israel. And none followed the house of David, save the tribe of Judah only.

21. And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered all the house of Judah, and the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand young men of valour, to fight against the house of Israel, and to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.

22. And the word of God came unto Shemaiah the man of God, saying:

23. Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah, and to Benjamin, and to the rest of the people, saying:

24. Thus saith the LORD; Ye shall not go up and fight against your brethren the children of Israel; every man return home: for this thing is done of me. And they hearkened unto the word of the LORD, and returned, and went, as the LORD had said.

25. And Jeroboam built Shechem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein, and went out thence, and built Pnuel.

26. And Jeroboam thought in his heart, The kingdom shall now fall again to the house of David, 27. And this people shall go up to offer sacrifices in the house of the LORD which is at Jerusalem: and the heart of this people shall turn unto their lord Rehoboam king of Judah, and shall slay me, and fall again unto Rehoboam king of Judah.

28. And the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold, and said unto them: It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold, there are thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt!

29. And he set one at Bethel, and put the other at Dan.

30. And it became a sin: for the people went from before one even unto Dan.

31. He made also a house of high places; and made priests of the least of the people, which were not of the children of Levi.

32. And he made a feast on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, as the plague in Judah, and offered upon the altar. So he did in Bethel, that they sacrificed unto the calves which he had made: and he ordained at Bethel the priests of the high places which he had made.

33. And he offered upon the altar which he had made at Bethel, on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, which he had devised out of his heart, and made feasts for the children of Israel, and offered upon the altar to burn incense.

(1 Kings)

Chapter 13

Jeroboam's hand withers. A prophet is killed by the lion.

1. And, behold, a man of God came from Judah by the word of the LORD to Bethel: and Jeroboam stood by the altar burning incense.

2. And he cried against the altar by the word of the LORD, saying, Altar, altar, thus saith the LORD; Behold, a son shall be born to the house of David, whose name shall be Josiah; and he shall offer upon thee the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and shall burn men's bones upon thee.

3. And he wrought a miracle that day, saying, This is the miracle that the LORD hath spoken; Behold, the altar shall be broken down, and the ashes that are upon it shall be spilt: 4. And when the king heard the word of the man of God that cried against the altar of Bethel, he put forth his hand by the altar, and said, Seize him. And his hand withered, which he had stretched out against him, and could not draw it again to himself.

5. And the altar rent, and the ashes were poured out from off the altar, according to the miracle which the man of God had wrought by the word of the LORD.

6. And the king answered and said unto the man of God, Ask the face of the LORD thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored unto me. And the man of God besought the face of the LORD: and the king's hand was brought again unto him, and was as it was before.

7. And the king spake unto the man of God, saying, Come home with me, and be merry; and I will give thee a present.

8. And the man of God said unto the king: Though thou gavest me half thy house, yet will I not come with thee: for I will not eat bread nor drink water in this place.

9. For thus is it commanded me in the word of the LORD, saying, Thou shalt eat no bread, neither shalt thou drink any water, neither shalt thou return by the way which thou wentest.

10. And he departed by another way, and came not again by the way which he came to Bethel.

11. And there dwelt an old prophet in Bethel; and his son came unto him, and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Bethel, and the words that he spake unto the king.

12. And their father said unto them: Where is the way which he went? And his sons showed him the way which the man of God went, which was come from Judah.

13. And he said unto his sons, Saddle me the ass. And when they had saddled him with the ass, he rode upon it.

14. And he went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak: and he said unto him, Art thou the man of God that came from Judah? And he said, Yea.

15. And he said unto him, Come home with me, and eat bread.

16. And he said: I cannot return with thee, and come with thee: neither will I eat bread with thee, nor drink water with thee in this place.

17. For it was spoken unto me in the word of the LORD, saying, Thou shalt neither eat bread there, nor drink water; thou shalt not go again by the way which thou wentest.

18. And he said unto him, I also am a prophet like unto thee, and an angel spake unto me by the word of the LORD, saying, Bring him again home with thee, that he may eat bread, and drink water. But he lied to him.

19. And brought him again, and he did eat bread, and drank water in his house.

20. And as they sat at meat, the word of the LORD came unto the prophet, who had turned him again,

21. And he cried unto the man of God that was come from Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Because thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the LORD, and hast not kept the commandment which the LORD thy God commanded thee,

22. And returned, and did eat bread, and drank water in the place whereof he said unto thee, Thou shalt neither eat bread, nor drink water, neither shall thy dead body come into the sepulchre of thy fathers.

23. And after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, they saddled the ass to the prophet, whom he had restored.

24. And as he departed, a lion found him in the way, and slew him: and his carcase lay cast in the way, and the ass stood by him, and the lion stood by the carcase.

25. And as men passed by, they saw the body cast in the way, and the lion standing by the body; and they came and told it in the city, where the old prophet dwelt within.

26. And when the prophet heard it, he that had brought him again, said, This is the man of God, which hath disobeyed the mouth of the LORD: therefore the LORD hath given him to the lion, and he hath broken him, and slain him, according to the word which the LORD spake unto him.

27. And he said unto his sons, Saddle me the ass. And when they had saddled him, 28. And he went, and found his body cast in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the body: the lion had eaten nothing of the body, neither had he broken the ass.

29. And the prophet took up the body of the man of God, and laid it upon the ass, and led it again, and came into the city of the old prophet, and they mourned and buried him.

30. And he laid the body in his sepulchre; and they lamented him, saying, Alas, brother!

31. And when they had buried him, he said unto his sons: When I die, bury me in the sepulchre where the man of God is buried within, and lay my legs beside his legs.

32. For that which he hath cried against the altar of Bethel by the word of the LORD, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria, shall come to pass.

33. But after this Jeroboam turned not from his evil way, but turned back, and made priests of the high places of the least of the people:

whosoever he pleased he filled his hand, and he became priest of the high places.

34. And this became a sin unto the house of Jeroboam, that he was destroyed, and cut off from the earth.

(1 Kings)

Chapter 14

Prophecy against Jeroboam. Rehoboam's government, sin and its punishment.

1. At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam was sick.

2. And Jeroboam said unto his wife, Arise, and disguise thyself, that no man know that thou art Jeroboam's wife, and go to Shiloh. Behold, there is Ahijah the prophet, which spake unto me that I should reign over this people.

3. And take with thee ten loaves, and cakes, and a jar of honey; and come unto him, that he may tell thee how the lad shall fare.

4. And the wife of Jeroboam did so, and arose, and went to Shiloh, and came into the house of Ahijah. But Ahijah could not see; for his eyes were stiff with age.

5. And the LORD said unto Ahijah, Behold, the wife of Jeroboam cometh to ask of thee a thing concerning her son: for he is sick. Speak therefore unto her thus and thus. And when she was come in, she presented herself a stranger.

6. And when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet going in at the door, he said, Come in, thou wife of Jeroboam, why art thou a stranger? I am sent unto thee a stern messenger.

7. Go and tell Jeroboam, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I have exalted thee from among the people, and have made thee ruler over my people Israel;

8. And I have rent the kingdom from David's house, and have given it thee. But thou hast not been as my servant David, which kept my commandments, and walked after me with all his heart, to do that which was right in mine eyes;

9. And thou hast done evil against all that were before thee, and hast gone and made thee other gods, and molten images, to provoke me to anger, and hast cast me behind thy back.

10. Therefore, behold, I will bring evil upon the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam him that pisseth against the wall, and him that is shut up, and him that is forsaken in Israel; and I will sweep out the posterity of the house of Jeroboam, as one sweepeth out dung, until he be utterly destroyed.

11. Whosoever of Jeroboam dieth in the city, the dogs shall eat him: but whosoever dieth in the field, the fowls of the air shall eat him: for the LORD hath spoken it.

12. Arise thou therefore, and go home. And when thy foot entereth into the city, the child shall die.

13. And all Israel shall mourn for him, and shall bury him. For this man only of Jeroboam shall go into the grave, because some good thing was found in him before the LORD God of Israel in the house of Jeroboam.

14. And the LORD shall raise up a king over Israel for him, and he shall cut off the house of Jeroboam that day. And what is done now?

15. And the LORD shall smite Israel, as the reed is moved in the waters, and shall pluck Israel up out of this good land, which he gave unto their fathers, and shall scatter them upon the face of the waters, because they have made their groves to provoke the LORD to anger.

16. And he shall deliver up Israel for the sins of Jeroboam, who sinned, and made Israel to sin.

17. And the wife of Jeroboam arose, and went, and came to Tirzah. And when she was come to the threshold of the house, the lad died.

18. And they buried him, and all Israel mourned for him according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by his servant Ahijah the prophet.

19. And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he fought and ruled, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

20. And the time that Jeroboam reigned was twenty and two years. And he slept with his fathers: and Nadab his son reigned in his stead.

21. So Rehoboam the son of Solomon was king in Judah. Rehoboam was forty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put his name there. His mother's name was Naema, an Ammonite woman.

22. And Judah did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and provoked him to zeal, more than all that their fathers had done in their sins which they did.

23. For they built them also high places, and pillars, and groves, upon every high hill, and under every green tree.

24. There were also fornicators in the land, and they did all the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out from before the children of Israel.

25. And it came to pass in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem.

26. And he took the treasures out of the house of the LORD, and out of the king's house, and all that was to be taken, and took all the shields of gold which Solomon had made; 27. In whose stead king Rehoboam made shields of brass, and put them under the hand of the chief captains that kept the door of the king's house.

28. And as often as the king went into the house of the LORD, they carried the satellites, and brought them again into the satellites' chamber.

29. And the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah.

30. And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days.

31. And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David.

And his mother's name was Naema the Ammonite. And Abiam his son reigned in his stead.

(1 Kings)

Chapter 15

Reign of two kings in Judah, Abiam and Assa, and two in Israel, Nadab and Baasha.

1. In the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam the son of Nebat, Abiam reigned in Judah; 2. And he reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Maecha, a daughter of Abishalom.

3. And he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him; and his heart was not righteous in the LORD his God, as was the heart of David his father.

4. For because of David the LORD his God gave him a lamp at Jerusalem, to raise up his son after him, and to keep him at Jerusalem,

5. Because David did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and departed not from all that he commanded him all the days of his life, except in his dealings with Uriah the Hittite.

6. And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.

7. And the rest of the acts of Abiam, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah. Now there was war between Abiam and Jeroboam.

8. And Abiam slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David. And Assa his son reigned in his stead.

9. In the twentieth year of Jeroboam king over Israel was Asa king in Judah.

10. And he reigned forty and one years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Maechah, the daughter of Abisalom.

11. And Assa did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, as did David his father.

12. And he put away the fornicators out of the land, and put away all the idols which his fathers had made.

13. And he put away Maechah his mother from the service which she had made for Miplezeth in the grove. And Assa cut off her miplezeth, and burned him in the brook Kidron.

14. But the high places did not abolish them. But the heart of Assa was righteous in the LORD all his days.

15. And he brought in the silver, and the gold, and the vessels which his father had hallowed, and the things which were hallowed, unto the house of the LORD.

16. And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

17. And Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that none should come out, nor go in on the side of Asa king of Judah.

18. And Assa took all the silver and gold that was left in the treasury of the house of the LORD, and in the treasury of the king's house, and delivered them into the hands of his servants, and sent them unto Benhadad the son of Tabrimon, the son of Heshion, king of Syria, which dwelt at Damascus, and told him:

19. There is a covenant between me and thee, and between my father and thy father: therefore will I send thee a present of silver and gold, that thou mayest put away the covenant that thou hast with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

20. And Benhadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent his captains against the cities of Israel, and smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel Bethmaechah, all Cinneroth, in all the land of Naphtali.

21. And when Baasha heard it, he left off to build Ramah, and went again to Thirzah.

22. And king Asa made a noise throughout all Judah, saying, Here be none excepted. And they took away the stones and the timber from Ramah, wherewith Baasha had built: and king Asa built Geba Benjamin and Mizpeh therewith.

23. And the rest of the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah; without his sickness of his feet in his old age.

24. And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father.

And Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead.

25. And Nadab the son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned over Israel two years.

26. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin, to make Israel sin.

27. And Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, made a league against him, and smote him at Gibethon, which was of the Philistines. For Nadab and all Israel besieged Gibethon.

28. So Baasha killed him in the third year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his stead.

29. And when he was king, he smote all the house of Jeroboam, and left not any that had the breath of Jeroboam, until he had destroyed him: according to the word of the LORD which he spake by his servant Ahijah of Shiloh,

30. Because of the sin of Jeroboam, which he did, and made Israel to sin, with the provoking, that he might provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger.

31. And the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

32. And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

33. And it came to pass in the third year of Asa king of Judah, that Baasha the son of Ahijah reigned over all Israel in Tirzah twenty and four years.

34. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin, to make Israel sin.

Ch. 16. v. 1. Now the word of the LORD came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying: 2. Because I have raised thee up out of the dust, and have made thee ruler over my people Israel, and thou walkest in the way of Jeroboam, and makest my people Israel to sin, to provoke me to anger by their sin,

3. Behold, I will take away the seed of Baasha, and the seed of his house, and will set thine house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

4. Whosoever dieth of Baasha in the city, the dogs shall eat him: and whosoever dieth of him in the field, the fowls of the air shall eat him.

5. And the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

6. And Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah. And Ela his son reigned in his stead.

7. And the word of the LORD came by the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani upon Baasha, and upon his house, and against all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger by the works of his hands, that it might be like the house of Jeroboam; and because he had slain him.

(1 Kings)

Chapter 16

Of four kings in Israel: Ela, Zimri, Amri, and Ahab.

8. In the twenty and sixth year of Asa king of Judah was Elah the son of Baasha king over Israel in Tirzah two years.

9. And Zimri his servant, the captain of half the chariots, made a league against him. And he was in Tirzah, and drank, and was drunken in the house of Arzah the governor of Tirzah.

10. And Zimri came in, and slew him in the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah: and he reigned in his stead.

11. And when he was king, and sat upon his throne, he smote all the house of Baasha, and left not over him that pissed against the wall, and his heirs, and his friends.

12. So Zimri destroyed all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake concerning Baasha by the prophet Jehu,

13. For all the sins of Baasha, and of Ela his son, which they did, to make Israel sin, to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger by their idolatry.

14. And the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

15. In the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah did Zimri reign seven days in Tirzah.

For the people lay before Gibethon the Philistine.

16. And when the people of the camp heard that Zimri had made a covenant, and had also slain the king, all Israel that day made Amri the captain of the host king over Israel in the camp.

17. And Amri went up, and all Israel with him, from Gibethon, and besieged Tirzah.

18. And when Zimri saw that the city was to be taken, he went into the palace of the king's house, and burned himself with the king's house, and died.

19. Because of his sins which he had done, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he had done, to make Israel sin.

20. And the rest of the acts of Zimri, and how he made a covenant, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

21. At that time the people of Israel were divided into two parts. Half of them clung to Thibni son of Ginath, and they made him king; and the other half clung to Amri.

22. But the people that clave to Amri were stronger than the people that clave to Thibni the son of Ginath. And Thibni died; and Amri became king.

23. In the thirty and first year of Asa king of Judah was Amri king over Israel twelve years, and reigned in Tirzah six years.

24. And he bought mount Samaria of Shemer for two talents of silver, and built upon the mount; and called the name of the city which he built Samaria, after the name of Shemer the Lord of the mountain.

25. And Amri did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and was worse than all that were before him.

26. And he walked in all the ways of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sins, to make Israel sin, that they might provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger in their idolatry.

27. And the rest of the acts of Amri, and all that he did, and the power that he exercised, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

28. And Amri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria. And Ahab his son reigned in his stead.

29. In the thirty and eighth year of Asa king of Judah was Ahab the son of Amri king over Israel, and reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty and two years.

30. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD against all that were before him.

31. And it was a small thing unto him to walk in the sin of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and to take Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of Zidon to wife: and he went and served Baal, and worshipped him.

32. And Baal set up an altar in the house of Baal, which he built for him in Samaria.

33. And he made a grove, so that Ahab did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel that were before him.

34. At that time Hiel of Bethel built Jericho. It cost him his first son Abiram, when he laid the foundation, and his youngest son Segub, when he set the doors, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Joshua the son of Nun.

(1 Kings)

Chapter 17

Elijah in the Teurung fed by ravens, wakes a dead man to Zarpath.

1. And Elijah the Thishbite, of the inhabitants of Gilead, said unto Ahab: As the LORD God of Israel liveth, before whom I stand, there shall be neither dew nor rain these years, I say.

2. And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying:

3. Depart thence, and turn thee toward the east, and hide thee by the brook Krith, which floweth over against Jordan.
4. And thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ravens to feed thee there.
5. And he went and did according to the word of the LORD, and departed, and sat down by the brook Krith, which floweth over against Jordan.
6. And the ravens brought him bread and meat morning and evening; and he drank of the brook.
7. And it came to pass after some days, that the brook dried up: for there was no rain in the land.
8. Then came the word of the LORD unto him, saying:
9. Arise, go to Zarpath, which is by Zidon, and dwell there: for I have commanded a widow there to provide for thee.
10. And he arose, and went to Zarpath. And when he was come to the door of the city, behold, there was a widow gleaning wood. And he called unto her, and said, Fetch me a little water in a vessel, that I may drink.
11. And when she went to fetch it, he called unto her, and said, Bring me also a morsel of bread.
12. And she said, As the LORD thy God liveth, I have nothing baked without a handful of flour in the kad, and a little oil in the jar. And, behold, I have gathered up a wood or two, and am gone in, and will prepare for myself and for my son, that we may eat and die.
13. And Elijah said unto her, Fear not. Go and do as thou hast said; but first make me a little baked of it, and bring it forth unto me: and afterward thou shalt make it also for thee and for thy son.
14. For thus saith the LORD God of Israel, The flour of the kad shall not be consumed, neither shall the cruse of oil fail, until the day that the LORD sendeth rain upon the earth.
15. And she went and did as Elijah had said. And he did eat, and she also, and her house for a season.
16. The flour that was in the kad was not eaten, neither was the cruse of oil wanting, according to the word of the LORD which he spake by Elijah.
17. And after these things the son of the woman his landlady fell sick, and his sickness was so very sore, that there was no breath left in him.

18. And she said unto Elijah, What have I to do with thee, thou man of God? Thou camest in unto me, that my iniquity might be remembered, and that my son might be slain.

19. And he said unto her, Give me thy son. And he took him from her bosom, and went up into the hall where he dwelt, and laid him upon his bed.

20. And he called upon the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, hast thou also done evil to the widow, wherewith I am a sojourner, to kill her son?

21. And he measured himself over the child three times, and called upon the LORD, and said, O

LORD my GOD, let the soul of this child come again to him.

22. And the LORD hearkened unto the voice of Elijah: and the soul of the child came again unto him, and revived.

23. And Elijah took the child, and brought him down into the hall of the house, and gave him to his mother, and said, Behold, thy son liveth.

24. And the woman said unto Elijah, Now I know that thou art a man of God, and the word of the LORD in thy mouth is truth.

(1 Kings)

Chapter 18

The prophet Elijah slaughters the Baal apes.

1. And for a long time the word of the LORD came unto Elijah in the third year, saying, Go and shew thyself to Ahab, that I may rain upon the earth.

2. And Elijah went to show himself to Ahab. And there was a great distress in Samaria.

3. And Ahab called for Obadiah, the master of his court. (And Obadiah feared the LORD very much.

4. For when Jezebel had cut off the prophets of the LORD, Obadiah took an hundred prophets, and hid them in the cave, fifty here, and fifty there, and fed them with bread and water).

5. And Ahab said unto Obadiah, Go through the land unto all the fountains of waters and unto all the rivers, that we may find hay, and feed the horses and the mouths, lest all the cattle perish.

6. And they divided themselves into the land, to go through it. And Ahab went by himself one way, and Obadiah by himself the other way.

7. And when Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him: and when he knew him, he fell upon his face, and said, Art not thou my lord Elijah?

8. And he said, Yea; go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

9. And he said, What have I sinned, that thou wilt deliver thy servant into the hand of Ahab to slay me?

10. As the LORD thy God liveth, there is no nation nor kingdom whither my Lord hath not sent to seek thee. And when they said: He is not here, he took an oath of the kingdom and people, that they had not found thee.

11. And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

12. If then I went from thee, the spirit of the LORD would take thee away, I know not whither: and if I came and told Ahab, and found thee not, he slew me. But thy servant feareth the LORD from his youth.

13. Is it not told my lord what I did, when Jezebel slew the prophets of the LORD, that I hid an hundred of the prophets of the LORD, fifty here, and fifty there, in the cave, and fed them with bread and with water?

14. And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy master, Elijah is here; that he may slay me.

15. And Elijah said, As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, I will shew myself unto him this day.

16. And Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him. And Ahab went to meet Elijah.

17. And when Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that confoundeth Israel?

18. And he said: I confound not Israel, but thou and thy father's house, because ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and walk after Baalim.

19. Send therefore, and gather unto me all Israel unto mount Carmel, and the four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal, and the four hundred prophets of the grove, which eat of the table of Jezebel.

20. So Ahab sent down all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together unto mount Carmel.

21. And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long do ye linger on both sides? If the LORD be God, walk after him: but if it be Baal, walk after him. And the people answered him nothing.

22. And Elijah said unto the people, I alone am left a prophet of the LORD: but the prophets of Baal are four hundred and fifty men.

23. Now therefore give us two bullocks, and let them choose one bullock, and cut it in pieces, and lay it upon the wood, and put no fire unto it: and I will take the other bullock, and lay it upon the wood, and put no fire unto it.

24. Then call ye on the name of your God, and I will call on the name of the LORD. Whichever God therefore shall answer with fire, let him be GOD. And all the people answered and said, This is right.

25. And Elijah said unto the prophets of Baal, Call ye a bullock, and make the first, for yours is much; and call upon your God's name, and put no fire to it.

26. And they took the bullock which he gave them, and dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from the morning even unto the south, saying: Baal, hear us. But there was neither voice nor answer. And they limped about the altar which they had made.

27. And when it was noon, Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry aloud: for he is a god; he worketh, or hath work, or is in the field, or peradventure sleepeth, that he may awake.

28. And they cried with a loud voice, and cut themselves with knives and awls after their manner, until their blood was gone.

29. And when noon was past, they prophesied until the meat offering should be offered: and there was no voice, nor answer, nor hearkening.

30. And Elijah said unto all the people, Come unto me, all ye people. And when all the people came unto him, he healed the altar of the LORD that was broken.

31. And he took twelve stones according to the number of the tribes of the children of Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD spake, saying, Thou shalt be called Israel.

32. And he built of the stones an altar in the name of the LORD, and made round about the altar a pit two measures broad.

33. And he dressed the wood, and cut up the bullock, and laid it upon the wood.

34. And he said, Bring four measures of water, and pour it upon the burnt offering, and upon the wood. And he said, Do it again. And they did it again. And he said, Do it the third time. And they did it the third time.

35. And the waters ran round about the altar, and the pit was filled with water.

36. And when the time was come to offer the meat offering, Elijah the prophet came near, and said, O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and I am thy servant; and that I have done all these things according to thy word.

37. Hear me, O LORD; hear me, that this people may know that thou, O LORD, art God, that thou mayest turn their hearts afterward.

38. And the fire of the LORD came down, and devoured burnt offerings, and wood, and stones, and earth, and licked up the waters of the pit.

39. And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces, and said: The LORD is GOD, the LORD is GOD!

40. And Elijah said unto them: Seize the prophets of Baal, that none of them escape. And they took them. And Elijah brought them down unto the brook Kishon, and slew them there.

41. And Elijah said unto Ahab: Go up, eat, and drink; for it is rushing as if it would rain very much.

42. And when Ahab went up to eat and to drink, Elijah went up to the top of Carmel, and bowed himself to the ground, and put his head between his knees.

43. And said unto his lad: Go up and look toward the sea. And he went up, and looked, and said, There is nothing there. And he said, Go again seven times.

44. And the seventh time he said, Behold, a little cloud cometh up out of the sea, as the hand of a man. And he said, Go up, and tell Ahab: Tend, and go down, that the rain take thee not.

45. And before they looked, the heaven was black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab departed, and went to Jezreel.

46. And the hand of the LORD came upon Elijah; and he girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab, until he came to Jezreel.

(1 Kings)

Chapter 19

Elijah's escape, fasting, comfort, and successor.

1. And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and how he had slain all the prophets of Baal with the sword.

2. And Jezebel sent a messenger unto Elijah, saying, The gods do this to me, and that to me, if I do not do to thy soul this time to morrow, as one of these souls.

3. And when he saw it, he arose, and went whithersoever he would, and came to Beer-sheba in Judah, and left his lad there.

4. And he went into the wilderness one day's journey, and came in, and sat down under a juniper, and prayed that his soul might die, saying, It is enough; now therefore, O LORD, take my soul. I am no better than my fathers.

5. And he lay down, and slept under the juniper. And, behold, the angel stirred him, and said unto him, Arise, and eat.

6. And he looked round about, and, behold, there was at his head a loaf of toasted bread, and a pitcher of water. And when he had eaten and drunk, he lay down again to sleep.

7. And the angel of the LORD came again the second time, and stirred him, saying, Arise, and eat: for thou hast a great way to go.

8. And he arose, and did eat and drink, and went by the strength of the same meat forty days and forty nights unto mount Horeb.

9. And there he entered into a cave, and lodged there overnight. And, behold, the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, What doest thou here, Elijah?

10. And he said: I have been jealous for the LORD God of Zeboath: for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, and broken down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I alone am left, and they seek to take away my life.

11. And he said, Go forth, and stand upon the mountain before the LORD. And, behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks, before the LORD: but the LORD was not in the wind. And after the wind there was an earthquake: but the LORD was not in the earthquake.

12. And after the earthquake there was a fire: but the LORD was not in the fire. And after the fire came a still, gentle whirring.

13. And when Elijah heard it, he covered his face with his mantle, and went out, and entered into the door of the cave. And, behold, a voice came unto him, saying, What hast thou to do here, Elijah?

14. And he said: I have been jealous for the LORD God of hosts: for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, they have broken down thine altars, they have slain thy prophets with the sword; and I alone am left, and they seek to take away my life.

15. And the LORD said unto him, Go thy way again through the wilderness unto Damascus, and go in, and anoint Hazael king over Syria.

16. And Jehu the son of Nimshi king over Israel, and Elisha the son of Shaphat, of Abel-meholah, a prophet in thy stead.

17. And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall escape the sword of Hazael shall slay Jehu; and whosoever shall escape the sword of Jehu shall slay Elisha.

18. And I will leave seven thousand in Israel, every knee that hath not bowed to Baal, and every mouth that hath not kissed him.

19. And he went from thence, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat ploughing with twelve yokes before him: and he himself was of the twelve. And Elijah went unto him, and cast his mantle upon him.

20. And he left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, Let me kiss my father and my mother, and I will follow thee. And he said unto him, Go thy way, and come again: for I have business with thee.

21. And he ran again from him, and took a yoke of oxen, and offered them; and boiled the flesh with the wood of the oxen, and gave it to the people to eat. And he arose, and followed Elijah, and ministered unto him.

(1 Kings)

Chapter 20

Twofold war and victory of Ahab against Benhadad the Syrian.

1. And Benhadad king of Syria gathered together all his power, and there were thirty and two kings with him, and horses, and chariots: and he went up, and besieged Samaria, and fought against them.

2. And sent messengers unto Ahab king of Israel into the city.

3. And said unto him, Thus saith Benhadad, Thy silver and thy gold are mine, and thy wives and thy best children are mine.

4. And the king of Israel answered and said, My lord king, as thou hast spoken; I am thine, and all that I have.

5. And the messengers came again, and said, Thus saith Benhadad, Because I have sent unto thee, saying, Thy silver, and thy gold, thy wives, and thy children, shalt thou give me, 6. Then to morrow about this time I will send my servants unto thee, and they shall visit thy house, and the houses of thy subjects: and they shall take in their hands the things that are pleasant unto thee, and carry them away.

7. And the king of Israel called unto all the elders of the land, and said, Mark and see how wickedly he doeth it. He hath sent unto me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold; and I have not withstood him.

8. And all the ancients and all the people said unto him, Thou shalt not hearken, nor grant.

9. And he said unto Benhadad the messengers, Tell my lord the king: All that thou didst command thy servant at the first will I do; but this I cannot do. And the messengers went and said these things again.

10. And Benhadad sent unto him, saying, The gods do this and that unto me, where the dust of Samaria shall be enough for all the people under me to bring a handful of it.

11. But the king of Israel answered and said, Say ye, He that putteth on the armour shall not boast, as he that putteth it off.

12. And when Benhadad heard it, and he was drinking with the kings in the tents, he said unto his servants: Send yourselves. And they sent themselves against the city.

13. And, behold, a prophet came to Ahab king of Israel, and said, Thus saith the LORD, Thou hast seen all this great multitude. Behold, I will deliver it into thine hand this day, that thou mayest know that I am the LORD.

14. And Ahab said, By whom? And he said, Thus saith the LORD, By the sons of the governors.

And he said, Who shall stir up the battle? And he said, Thou.

15. And he numbered the sons of the governors, two hundred thirty and two. And he numbered after them all the people of all the children of Israel, seven thousand men.

16. And they departed in the middle of the day. And Benhadad drank, and was drunken in the tent, with the thirty and two kings that came to his help.

17. And the lads of the governors went out first. And Benhadad sent out, and they told him, saying: There go men out of Samaria.

18. And he said, Take them alive, whether they come out for peace, or for strife.

19. And when the lads of the governors were gone out, and the host after them, 20. And they smote every man that came before him. And the Syrians fled, and Israel pursued after them. And Benhadad king of Syria escaped with horses and horsemen.

21. And the king of Israel went out, and smote horse and chariot, and made a great slaughter of the Syrians.

22. And a prophet came to the king of Israel, and said unto him, Go and strengthen thyself; and mark and see what thou doest. For the king of Syria shall come up against thee when the year is expired.

23. For the servants of the king of Syria said unto him, Their gods are mountain gods: therefore have they taken us. O that we should fight with them in the plain! What is the matter, that we should have conquered them?

24. Do thou therefore unto him, Remove the kings every one from his place, and put lords in their stead.

25. And ordain thee an army like unto the army that thou hast lost, and horses and chariots like unto them: and let us fight against them in the plain. What shall we do to them? And he hearkened unto their voice, and did so.

26. And it came to pass, when the year was expired, that Benhadad gathered the Syrians, and went up to Aphek to fight against Israel.

27. And the children of Israel also arrayed themselves, and fed themselves, and went out to meet them, and encamped against them, as two little flocks of goats. And the land was full of the Syrians.

28. And a man of God came near, and said unto the king of Israel, Thus saith the LORD; Because the Syrians have said, The LORD is a God of the mountains, and not a God of the ground, I have delivered all this great multitude into thy hand, that ye may know that I am the LORD.

29. And they encamped against them seven days. And on the seventh day they went out to battle, and the children of Israel smote the Syrians an hundred thousand footmen in one day.

30. And the remnant fled to Aphek into the city: and the wall fell upon the rest of the twenty and seven thousand men. And Benhadad also fled into the city, from chamber to chamber.

31. And his servants said unto him, Behold, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings: let us therefore put sackcloth upon our loins, and ropes upon our heads, and go out unto the king of Israel: peradventure he will save thy life.

32. And they girded sackcloth about their loins, and ropes about their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said: Benhadad thy servant saith unto thee, Let my soul live. And he said, If he live, he is my brother.

33. And the men took the word from him in haste, and interpreted it for themselves, and said: Yea, thy brother Benhadad. And he said, Come and bring him. So Benhadad went out to him. And let him sit upon the chariot

34. And he said unto him, The cities which my father took from thy father will I restore unto thee; and make thee streets of Damascus, as my father did of Samaria, and I will leave thee with a covenant. And he made a covenant with him, and sent him away.

35. Then said a man of the sons of the prophets unto his neighbour by the word of the LORD, Slay me, I pray thee. But he refused to smite him.

36. And he said unto him, Because thou hast not hearkened unto the voice of the LORD, behold, a lion shall smite thee, if thou depart from me. And as he departed from him, a lion found him, and smote him.

37. And he found another man, and said, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man smote him sore.

38. And the prophet went and stood by the way of the king, and hid his face with ashes.

39. And as the king passed by, he cried unto the king, saying, Thy servant was gone out in the midst of the battle. And, behold, a man was departed, and brought a man unto me, and said, Keep this man: if any man miss him, then thy soul shall be for his soul, or thou shalt weigh a talent of silver.

40. And when thy servant had business here and there, he was no more. And the king of Israel said unto him, This is thy judgment; thou hast pleaded it thyself.

41. And he hasted, and put away the ashes from his face: and the king of Israel knew him, that he was one of the prophets.

42. And he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD; Because thou hast sent away the exiled man from thee, thy soul shall be for his soul, and thy people for his people.

43. And the king of Israel went away displeased and angry into his house, and came to Samaria.

(1 Kings)

Chapter 21

Practiced tyranny of Ahab and Jezebel against Naboth.

1. Now it came to pass, after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard in Jezreel, by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

2. And Ahab spake unto Naboth, saying, Give me thy vineyard, and I will make me a cabbage garden out of it, because it is so near unto my house. And I will give thee a better vineyard for it; or, if it please thee, I will give thee silver for it, as much as it is worth.

3. And Naboth said unto Ahab: Let the LORD be far from me, that I should give thee the inheritance of my fathers.

4. And Ahab came home displeased, and wroth, because of the word that Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken unto him, saying: I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers. And he lay upon his bed, and turned his face, and did eat no bread.

5. And Jezebel his wife came in unto him, and said unto him, What is the matter, that thy spirit is displeased, and that thou eatest not bread?

6. And he said unto her: I spake unto Naboth the Jezreelite, saying, Give me thy vineyard for money; or, if thou be desirous, I will give thee another for it. But he said: I will not give thee my vineyard.

7. And Jezebel his wife said unto him, What kingdom would there be in Israel, if thou didst so?

Arise, eat bread, and be of good courage. I will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.

8. And she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his petschier, and sent them unto the elders and rulers of his city, that dwelt about Naboth.

9. And wrote thus in the epistles, Let a fast be proclaimed, and set Naboth on high among the people.

10. And set before him two loose knaves, which testify, saying, Thou hast blessed God and the king. And bring him forth, and stone him, that he die.

11. And the elders and rulers of his city, which dwelt in his city, did as Jezebel commanded them, as she wrote in the letters which she sent unto them.

12. And they cried out a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people.

13. And the two scoundrels came and stood before him, and testified against Naboth before the people, and said: Naboth blessed GOD and the king. And they brought him out of the city, and stoned him to death.

14. And they sent to Jezebel, saying, Naboth is stoned, and is dead.

15. And when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned and dead, she said unto Anab, Arise, and take the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give thee for money. For Naboth liveth no more, but is dead.

16. And when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, he arose, and went down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, and took it.

17. But the word of the LORD came unto Elijah the Tishbite, saying: 18. Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, which is in Samaria. (Behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone down to possess it.)

19. And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Thou hast slain, and thou hast taken. And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth shall dogs lick thy blood.

20. And Ahab said unto Elijah, Hast thou ever found me thine enemy? And he said, Yea, I have found thee, because thou art sold to do evil in the sight of the LORD.

21. Behold, I will bring evil upon thee, and will take away thy seed; and I will cut off from Ahab him also that pisseth against the wall, and that is shut up and left in Israel.

22. And I will make thine house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, for provocation, that thou hast provoked to anger, and made Israel to sin.

23. And the LORD spake also concerning Jezebel, saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel upon the wall of Jezreel.

24. He that dieth of Ahab in the city shall the dogs eat: and he that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat.

25. So there was none so sold to do evil in the sight of the LORD as Ahab: for Jezebel his wife persuaded him so.

26. And he made himself a great abomination to walk after idols, according to all that the Amorites did, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel.

27. And when Ahab heard these words, he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his body, and fasted, and slept in sackcloth, and walked miserably.

28. And the word of the LORD came unto Elijah the Thishbite, saying: 29. Hast thou not seen Ahab bowing down before me? Because he bowed down before me, I will not bring evil upon his life: but upon his son's life will I bring evil upon his house.

(1 Kings)

Chapter 22

Ahab's downfall. Jehoshaphat's and Ahaziah's government.

1. And three years passed, and there was no war between the Syrians and Israel.

2. And in the third year Jehoshaphat king of Judah went down to the king of Israel.

3. And the king of Israel said unto his servants: Know ye not that Ramoth is ours in Gilead; and we sit still, and take them not at the hand of the king of Syria?

4. And he said unto Jehoshaphat, Wilt thou go with me to battle to Ramoth in Gilead? And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, I will be as thou art, and my people as thy people, and my horses as thy horses.

5. And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Ask ye this day the word of the LORD.

6. Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets of four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall I go to Ramoth in Gilead to battle, or shall I leave it? And they said: Go up, and the LORD deliver it into the hand of the king.

7. And Jehoshaphat said: Is there no more prophet of the LORD here, that we should inquire of him?

8. And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet a man, Micah the son of Jemla, of whom the LORD may be inquired of. But I am grieved for him: for he knoweth me no good, but evil. And Jehoshaphat said, The king speaketh not so.

9. And the king of Israel called unto a chamberlain, and said, Bring quickly Micaiah the son of Jemla.

10. And the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat king of Judah, sat every man in his seat, clothed with garments, in the place before the door of the gate of Samaria: and all the prophets prophesied before them.

11. And Zedekiah the son of Cnaenah had made him horns of iron, and said, Thus saith the LORD, Herewith shalt thou thrust the Syrians, until thou have cleared them up.

12. And all the prophets prophesied thus, saying: Go up to Ramoth in Gilead, and be blessed: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

13. And the messenger that went to call Micaiah said unto him, Behold, the words of the prophets are all good for the king: now therefore let thy word also be as the word of them, and speak good.

14. And Micah said, As the LORD liveth, I will speak what the LORD shall say unto me.

15. And when he was come to the king, the king said unto him, Shall we go up to Ramoth in Gilead to fight, or shall we leave it? And he said unto him, Yea, go up, and prosper: for the LORD will deliver it into the hand of the king.

16. And the king said unto him again, I charge thee that thou tell me no other thing but the truth in the name of the LORD.

17. And he said: I saw all Israel scattered upon the mountains like sheep having no shepherd.

And the LORD said, Have these no master? Return every one of them in peace.

18. And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he knew me no good thing, but only evil?

19. And he said, Hear now therefore the word of the LORD. I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left.

20. And the LORD said, Who shall persuade Ahab to go up, and fall at Ramoth in Gilead? And one said this, and another said that.

21. And a spirit came out, and stood before the LORD, and said: I will persuade him. And the LORD said unto him, With what?

22. And he said: I will go out, and be a false spirit in all his prophets' mouths. And he said, Thou shalt persuade him, and shalt deliver it: go out, and do so.

23. Now, behold, the LORD hath put a false spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets; and the LORD hath spoken evil of thee.

24. And Zedekiah the son of Cnaenah came near, and smote Micaiah on the beacons, and said, How? Is the Spirit of the LORD departed from me, that he should speak unto thee?

25. And Micah said, Behold, thou shalt see in that day, when thou shalt pass from chamber to chamber, that thou shalt hide thyself.

26. And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and let him dwell with Amon the mayor, and with Joash the king's son,

27. And say, Thus saith the king, Put this man in prison, and feed him with bread and with water of affliction, until I come again in peace.

28. And Micah said, If thou return in peace, the LORD hath not spoken by me. And said, Hearken, all ye people.

29. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went up to Ramoth in Gilead.

30. And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, Disguise thyself, and come into the battle with thy garments on. And the king of Israel disguised himself also, and went into the battle.

31. And the king of Syria commanded the captains of his chariots, which were thirty and two, saying: Ye shall not fight against small nor great, but against the king of Israel only.

32. And when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they thought that he was the king of Israel, and fell upon him with strife: but Jehoshaphat cried out.

33. And when the captains of the chariots saw that he was not the king of Israel, they turned back from him behind.

34. And a man drew his bow about, and shot the king of Israel between the armour and the hengel. And he said unto his charioteer, Turn thine hand, and bring me out of the host; for I am sore.

35. And the battle increased that day, and the king stood in the chariot against the Syrians, and died in the evening. And the blood flowed from the wounds into the midst of the chariot.

36. And they proclaimed in the army, when the sun was down, saying, Go every man to his city, and to his country.

37. So the king died, and was brought to Samaria. And they buried him in Samaria.

38. And when they washed the chariot by the pool of Samaria, the dogs licked up the blood thereof (and the harlots washed it), according to the word of the LORD which he spake.

39. And the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory house that he built, and all the cities that he built, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

40. So Ahab passed away with his fathers, and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.

41. And Jehoshaphat the son of Asa reigned over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.

42. And he was thirty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Asuba, a daughter of Zilhi.

43. And he walked in all the way of his father Asa, and departed not from it: and he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD.

44. But he removed not the high places; and the people sacrificed and burned incense in the high places.

45. And had peace with the king of Israel.

46. And the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might, and what he did, and how he fought, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah.

47. And he took out of the land the rest of the whoredoms that remained in the days of Asa his father.

48. And there was no king in Edom.

49. And Jehoshaphat had made ships for the sea, to go into Ophir to fetch gold. But they went not: for they were broken in Ezeon-giver.

50. And Ahaziah the son of Ahab said unto Jehoshaphat, Let my servants go with thy servants in ships. But Jehoshaphat would not.

51. And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.

Text of the unrevised Luther Bible 1545:
DeepL English Translation

[Processed by BackToLuther. German text published here.]

The Second Book of Kings (2 Kings) ^

Chapter 1

1. Also the Moabites fell away from Israel, because Ahab was dead.
2. And Ahaziah fell through the lattice of his hall in Samaria, and was sick: and he sent messengers, and said unto them: Go and inquire of Baalzebub the god of Ekron whether I shall recover of this disease.
3. And the angel of the LORD spake unto Elijah the Thisbite: Arise, and meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say unto them: Is there not now a God in Israel, that ye go to ask Baalzebub the god of Ekron?
4. Therefore thus saith the LORD; Thou shalt not come down from the bed whereon thou hast lain, but shalt surely die. And Elijah departed.
5. And when the messengers were come again unto him, he said unto them: Why come ye again?
6. And they said unto him, A man came up to meet us, and said unto us, Go again unto the king that sent you, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Is there no God in Israel, that thou goest to inquire of Baalzebub the god of Ekron? Therefore shalt thou not come down from off the bed whereon thou hast lain, but shalt surely die.
7. And he said unto them: What manner of man was he that met you, and said these things unto you?
8. And they said unto him, He had a smoky skin on, and a leathern girdle about his loins. And he said, It is Elijah the Thisbite.
9. And he sent unto him a captain over fifty, and the same fifty. And when he was come up to him, behold, he sat on the top of the mountain. And he said unto him, Thou man of God, the king saith, Thou shalt come down.
10. And Elijah answered the captain of fifty, and said unto him, If I be a man of God, let fire fall from heaven, and devour thee and thy fifty. So fire came down from heaven, and devoured him and his fifty.
11. And he sent again another captain over fifty unto him with his fifty. And he answered and said unto him, Thou man of God, thus saith the king, Come down quickly.
12. And Elijah answered and said, If I be a man of God, let fire fall from heaven, and devour thee and thy fifty. So the fire of GOD fell from heaven, and devoured him and his fifty.

13. And he sent again the third captain over fifty, and his fifty. And when he came up unto him, he bowed his knees to Elijah, and besought him, and said unto him, Thou man of God, let my soul, and the soul of thy servants, these fifty, be accepted before thee.

14. Behold, the fire is fallen from heaven, and hath devoured the first two captains of fifty with their fifties: but now let my soul be accepted before thee.

15. And the angel of the LORD said unto Elijah, Go down with him, and fear him not. And he arose, and went down with him unto the king.

16. And he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD; Because thou hast sent messengers to enquire of Baalzebub the god of Ekron, as if there were no god in Israel to enquire of: thou shalt not come down from the bed whereon thou layest, but shalt surely die.

17. So he died according to the word of the LORD, which Elijah spake. And Jehoram reigned in his stead the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah: for he had no son.

18. And the rest of the acts of Ahaziah, which he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

(2 Kings)

Chapter 2

Elijah's ascension. Elisha's miracles.

1. And when the LORD was about to take Elijah up to heaven in the weather, Elijah and Elisha went from Gilgal.

2. And Elijah said unto Elisha, Stay here, for the LORD hath sent me to Bethel. And Elisha said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And they came down to Bethel,

3. And the sons of the prophets that were at Bethel came out unto Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the LORD will take away thy Lord from thy heads this day? And he said: I know it also: hold your peace.

4. And Elijah said unto him, Elisha, good fellow, tarry here: for the LORD hath sent me to Jericho. And he said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And they came to Jericho,

5. And the sons of the prophets that were at Jericho came unto Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the LORD will take away thy master from thy head this day? And he said: I know it also: hold your peace.

6. And Elijah said unto him, Stay here, for the LORD hath sent me to Jordan. And he said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee: and they went both of them together.

7. And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went and stood over against him afar off: and they stood by Jordan.

8. And Elijah took his mantle, and wrapped it together, and smote the water; and it parted on both sides, and they passed through dry.

9. And when they were come over, Elijah said unto Elisha, Ask what I shall do for thee, before I be taken from thee. And Elisha said, That thy spirit may be with me double.

10. And he said, Thou hast asked a hard thing: but if thou shalt see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be so; but if not, it shall not be so.

11. And as they walked together, and he spake, behold, there came a chariot of fire with horses of fire, and separated them one from another: and Elijah ascended up to heaven in the weather.

12. And Elisha saw it, and cried, My father, my father, chariots of Israel, and his horsemen. And saw him no more. And he took hold of his garments, and rent them in twain.

13. And he took up the coat of Elijah, which had fallen from him, and returned, and stood on the bank of Jordan.

14. And he took the same coat of Elijah, which had fallen from him, and smote the water, and said, Where then is the LORD God of Elijah? And he smote the water, and it parted on both sides: and Elisha passed through.

15. And when the children of the prophets that were at Jericho saw him against him, they said: The spirit of Elijah resteth upon Elisha: and they went out to meet him, and worshipped the earth.

16. And they said unto him, Behold, there are among thy servants fifty men, strong men, let them go and seek thy master: peradventure the spirit of the LORD hath taken him, and cast him into some mountain, or into some valley. But he said, "Do not let them go.

17. But they constrained him, until he stood unruly, and said, Let go. And they sent fifty men, and sought him three days; but they found him not.

18. And they came again unto him. And he tarried at Jericho, and said unto them, Did I not tell you not to go?

19. And the men of the city said unto Elisha, Behold, it is good to dwell in this city, as my lord hath seen; but it is evil water, and the land is barren.

20. And he said, Bring me a new bowl, and put salt therein. And they brought it unto him.

21. And he went out unto the fountain of waters, and cast the salt therein, and said, Thus saith the LORD, I have made this water wholesome; there shall no more death nor barrenness come thence.

22. So the waters were healed unto this day, according to the word of Elisha which he spake.

23. And he went up to Bethel. And as he walked along the way, little boys came out of the city, and mocked him, and said unto him, Baldy, come up hither. Baldy, come up hither!

24. And he turned, and saw them, and cursed them in the name of the LORD. And there came two bears out of the wood, and tare forty and two of the children.

25. And from thence he went up into mount Carmel, and returned thence to Samaria.

(2 Kings)

Chapter 3

Joram's government, war and victory against the Moabites.

1. Jehoram the son of Ahab reigned over Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years.

2. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, but not as his father and mother did.

For he took away the pillar of Baal, which his father had made.

3. But he continued in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin, and departed not from them.

4. And Mesha king of Moab had many flocks, and shewed the king of Israel the wool of an hundred thousand lambs, and of an hundred thousand rams.

5. And when Ahab was dead, the king of Moab fell away from the king of Israel.

6. And Jehoram king of Samaria went out at that time, and put all Israel in order.

7. And he sent to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab is departed from me:
come with me to fight against Moab. And he said: I will come up; I am as thou art, and my people as thy people, and my horses as thy horses.

8. And he said, By what way shall we go up? And he said, By the way of the wilderness of Edom.

9. So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom. And when they went seven days' journey, the host and the cattle that were among them had no water.

10. And the king of Israel said, O woe! The LORD hath charged these three kings, to deliver them into the hand of Moab.

11. And Jehoshaphat said: Is there no prophet of the LORD here, that we should seek counsel of the LORD by him? And one of the servants of the king of Israel answered and said, Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat, which poured water on the hands of Elijah.

12. And Jehoshaphat said, The word of the LORD is with him. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

13. And Elisha said unto the king of Israel, What hast thou to do with me? Go to thy father's prophets, and to thy mother's prophets. And the king of Israel said unto him, Nay: for the LORD hath called these three kings to deliver them into the hand of Moab.

14. And Elisha said, As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, if I looked not upon Jehoshaphat king of Judah, I would not look upon thee, nor regard thee.

15. Bring me therefore a minstrel. And as the minstrel played upon the string, the hand of the Lord came upon him.

16. And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Make ditches here and there by this brook.

17. For thus saith the LORD; Ye shall see no wind, neither shall ye see any rain: nevertheless the brook shall be full of water, that ye and your household and your cattle may drink.

18. This is a small thing in the sight of the LORD: he will also deliver the Moabites into your hand,

19. And ye shall smite every strong city, and every chosen city; and ye shall cut down every good tree, and shall stop up every well of water, and shall destroy every good field with stones.

20. And it came to pass in the morning, when they offered meat offerings, that, behold, there came a river of water by the way of Edom, and filled the land with water.

21. And when all Moab heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they called all that were old enough and above in armour, and stood in the border.

22. And when they arose early in the morning, and the sun was risen upon the waters, the Moabites saw the waters red against them as blood;

23. And they said: It is blood; the kings have corrupted themselves with the sword, and one shall have smitten another. Hoi, Moab, make thee now a prey!

24. And when they were come to the camp of Israel, Israel arose, and smote Moab; and they fled before them. But they came in, and smote Moab.

25. And they brake down the cities, and cast every man his stones upon all the good fields, and filled them; and stopped up all the wells of water, and cut down all the good trees, until only the stones remained upon the brick walls: and they compassed them about with slingers, and smote them.

26. And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too strong for him, he took unto him seven hundred men, which drew swords to pluck out against the king of Edom: but they could not.

27. And he took his firstborn son, which was to be king in his stead, and offered him for a burnt offering upon the wall. And Israel was very wroth, and departed from him, and returned unto the land.

(2 Kings)

Chapter 4

Elisa's Five Marvels.

1. And a certain woman of the wives of the children of the prophets cried unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead: and thou knowest that he thy servant feared the LORD: now cometh the trespasser, and will take my two children for his own servants.

2. And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do unto thee? Tell me, what hast thou in the house?

And she said, Thy handmaid hath nothing in the house, save a pitcher of oil.

3. And he said, Go and ask of all thy neighbours without, empty vessels, and not a few of them.

4. And go in, and shut the door behind thee with thy sons, and pour into all the vessels; and when thou hast filled them, give them up.

5. And she went and shut the door behind her, and her sons with her; and they brought her the vessels, and she poured.

6. And when the vessels were full, she said unto her son, Bring me another vessel. And he said unto her, There is no more vessel here. And there was the oil.

7. And she went and told the man of God. And he said, Go, sell the oil, and pay thy debtor; but thou and thy sons feed thyself of the rest.

8. And it came to pass in those days, that Elisha went to Sunem. And there was a rich woman there, which kept him to eat with her. And it came to pass, as he passed through there often, that he went in unto her, and did eat with her.

9. And she said unto her husband, Behold, I know that this man of God is holy, which passeth through here for ever.

10. Let us make him a little chamber of boards above, and put therein a bed, and a table, and a chair, and a candlestick; that, when he cometh to us, he may do therein.

11. And it came to pass in those days, that he went in, and lay down in the upper chamber, and slept within.

12. And he said unto Gehazi his lad, Call unto the Sunamitess. And when he called unto her, she stood before him.

13. And he said unto him, Say unto her, Behold, thou hast done all this service unto us; what shall I do unto thee? Hast thou any thing to the king, or to the captain of the field? She said: I dwell among my people.

14. And he said, What is there for her to do? And Gehazi said, Alas, she hath no son, and her husband is old.

15. And he said, Call unto her. And when he called unto her, she entered in at the door.

16. And he said, At this time about a year shalt thou have a son. And she said, Oh not, my lord, thou man of God, lie not unto thine handmaid.

17. And the woman conceived, and bare a son the same time about a year, as Elisha spake unto her.

18. And when the child was grown, it came to pass, that he went out unto his father unto the reapers.

19. And said unto his father: O my head, my head! He said to his boy: Take him to his mother.

20. And he took him, and brought him in unto his mother; and she set him upon her lap until noon; and he died.

21. And she went up, and laid him upon the bed of the man of God, and shut it, and went out.

22. And she called her husband, and said, Send me one of the lads, and an ass; and I will go to the man of God, and return.

23. And he said, Why wilt thou go unto him? For this day is not the new moon, nor the sabbath.

And she said, It is well.

24. And she saddled the ass, and said unto the lad: Drive on, and do not delay me in riding, as I say unto thee;

25. So she went and came unto the man of God unto mount Carmel.

And when the man of God saw her against him, he said unto Gehazi his lad, Behold, the Sunammite is here.

26. Run therefore to meet her, and ask her whether it be well with her, and with her husband, and with her son? And she said, Well.

27. And when she was come up to the man of God into the mountain, she held him by his feet: and Gehazi came near to cast her off. And the man of God said, Let her alone; for her soul is troubled: and the LORD hath hid it from me, and hath not told me.

28. And she said, When did I ask a son of my lord? Did I not tell thee not to deceive me?

29. And he said unto Gehazi, Gird up thy lands, and take my staff in thine hand, and go (if any man meet thee, greet him not; and if any man greet thee, thank him not), and lay my staff upon the face of the lad.

30. And the mother of the lad said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee: and he arose, and went after her.

31. And Gehazi went before them, and laid the rod upon the face of the lad: but there was neither voice nor feeling. And he went again to meet him, and signified unto him, saying, The lad is not awake.

32. And when Elisha was come into the house, behold, the lad was dead in his bed.

33. And he went in, and shut the door upon them both, and prayed unto the LORD.

34. And he went up, and lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon the mouth of the child, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands: and he spread himself upon him, and the womb of the child was warm.

35. And he arose again, and went once hither and thither in the house; and went up, and spread himself over him. And the lad snorted seven times: and after that the lad opened his eyes.

36. And he called Gehazi, and said, Call unto the Sunamitess. And when he called unto her, she came in unto him. And he said, Take thy son thither.

37. And she came and fell at his feet, and worshipped the ground, and took her son, and went out.

38. And when Elisha was returned to Gilgal, there was a famine in the land, and the sons of the prophets dwelt before him. And he said unto his lad: Set a great pot, and boil a vegetable for the children of the prophets.

39. And one went into the field to gather herbs, and found wild tendrils, and gathered of them coloquines, his garment full: and when he was come, he cut them in the pot for vegetables, because they knew them not.

40. And when they poured it out for the men to eat, and they did eat of the vegetables, they cried out, saying, O man of God, death in the pot! For they could not eat it.

41. And he said, Bring flour. And he put it into the pot, and said, Put it before the people, that they may eat. And there was no evil in the pot.

42. And there came a man of Baal-salisha, and brought the man of God's firstfruits, even twenty loaves, and new corn in his garment. And he said, Give it to the people, that they may eat.

43. And his servant said, What shall I give an hundred men to him? And he said, Give unto the people. Give to the people, that they may eat. For thus saith the LORD; They shall eat, and be left over.

44. And he set it before them, that they should eat: and he tarried yet after the word of the LORD.

(2 Kings)

Chapter 5

Naaman is cleansed from leprosy, Gehazi is punished with it.

1. Naaman the captain of the host of the king of Syria was an excellent man in the sight of his lord, and highly esteemed: for by him the LORD gave salvation in Syria. And he was a mighty man, and a leper.

2. And the men of war that were in Syria fell out, and carried away a little damsel out of the land of Israel, which was in the service of Naaman's wife.

3. And she said unto her wife, If my lord were with the prophet of Samaria, he would rid him of his leprosy.

4. And he went in unto his lord, and told him, and said, Thus and thus spake the damsel of the land of Israel.

5. And the king of Syria said, Go, I will write a letter unto the king of Israel. And he went, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand shekels, and ten sets of garments.

6. And he brought the letter unto the king of Israel, saying, When this letter cometh unto thee, behold, I have sent unto thee Naaman my servant, that thou shouldest rid him of his leprosy.

7. And when the king of Israel read the letter, he rent his clothes, and said, Am I God, that I can kill, and that I can make alive, to send unto me to rid the man of his leprosy? Mark and behold, how he seeketh a cause of me!

8. And when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, he sent unto him, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? Let him come to me, that he may know that there is a prophet in Israel.

9. So Naaman came with horses and chariots, and stopped at the door of Elisha's house.

10. And Elisha sent a messenger unto him, saying, Go and wash in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall be restored unto thee, and thou shalt be clean.

11. And Naaman was wroth, and departed, and said: I meant that he should come out unto me, and stand, and call upon the name of the LORD his God, and run his hand over the place, and so put away the leprosy.

12. Are not the waters of Amanah and Pharphar in Damascus better than all the waters of Israel, that I may wash in them, and be clean? And he turned and departed in anger.

13. And his servants came unto him, and spake unto him, saying: Dear father, if the prophet had commanded thee a great thing, shouldest thou not do it? How much more, if he say unto thee, Wash, and thou shalt be clean?

14. And he went down, and was baptized in Jordan seven times, as the man of God had spoken: and his flesh was restored, as the flesh of a young lad, and he was clean.

15. And he returned unto the man of God, and to all his host. And when he was come in, he stood before him, and said, Behold, I know that there is no God in all the earth, save in Israel: now therefore receive the blessing of thy servant.

16. And he said, If the LORD be alive, before whom I stand, I will not take it. And he urged him to take it; but he would not.

17. And Naaman said, Shall not thy servant have a burden given unto this earth, as much as two mouths shall bear? For thy servant will no more sacrifice unto other gods, nor offer burnt offerings, but unto the LORD;

18. That the LORD may be gracious unto thy servant in this, where I worship in the house of Rimon, when my lord goeth into the house of Rimon to worship there, and he leaneth upon my hand.

19. And he said unto him. Go in peace. And when he was departed from him one country way in the country,

20. And Gehazi the son of Elisha, the man of God, said, Behold, my lord hath spared Naaman the Syrian, that he hath taken nothing of him that he hath brought. As the LORD liveth, I will go after him, and take something of him.

21. So Gehazi pursued after Naaman. And when Naaman saw that he pursued him, he came down from the chariot to meet him, and said, Is it lawful?

22. And he said, Yea. And my lord hath sent me to say unto thee, Behold, there are now come unto me from mount Ephraim two lads of the sons of the prophets; give them a talent of silver, and two sets of garments.

23. And Naaman said, Take the two talents: and he constrained him, and bound the two talents of silver in two bags, and in two garments, and gave them to his two sons, which bare them before him.
24. And when he was come to Ophel, he took it from their hands, and laid it up in the house, and sent the men away.
25. And when they were departed, he stood before his lord. And Elisha said unto him, Whence, Gehazi? And he said, Thy servant went neither hither nor thence.
26. And he said unto him, Was not my heart moved, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? Was this the time to take silver, and raiment, and oliveyards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and maidservants?
27. But the leprosy of Naaman shall cleave unto thee, and to thy seed for ever. And he went out from him leprous as snow.

(2 Kings)

Chapter 6

From floating iron. Blindness of the Syrians. Famine in Samaria.

1. And the children of the prophets said unto Elisha, Behold, the place where we dwell before thee is too strait for us.
2. Let us go to Jordan, and fetch every man wood there, that we may build us a place there to dwell in. And he said, Go ye.
3. And one said, Dear, go with thy servants. And he said: I will go with thee.
4. And he went with them. And when they were come to Jordan, they cut down wood.
5. And when one cut down a tree, the iron fell into the water: Water. And he cried out, saying, Awe, my lord! This is what it is borrowed for.
6. And the man of God said, Where is it fallen? And when he shewed him the place, he cut down a piece of wood, and thrust it there. And the iron floated.
7. And he said, Take it up. And he put forth his hand, and took it.
8. And the king of Syria made war against Israel, and consulted with his servants, saying, We will pitch here and there.
9. And the man of God sent unto the king of Israel, saying, Beware that thou go not into that place: for the Syrians rest there.

10. So the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God told him, and kept it, and kept it there: and he did it not once nor twice by himself.
11. And the king of Syria's heart was displeased, and called his servants, and said unto them: Will ye not tell me who is fled from among us to the king of Israel?
12. And one of his servants said, Not so, my lord the king: but Elisha the prophet of Israel saith all these things unto the king of Israel, which thou speakest in the chamber where thy camp is.
13. And he said, Go ye therefore, and see where he is, that I may send and fetch him. And they shewed him, saying, Behold, he is at Dothan.
14. And he sent horses and chariots, and a great power. And when they were come by night, they compassed the city about.
15. And the servant of the man of God rose up early, and arose, and went forth: and, behold, there was a power round about the city with horses and chariots. And his lad said unto him, Awe, my lord! How shall we do now?
16. And he said, Fear not: for they that are with us are more than they that are with them.
17. And Elisha prayed, and said, Lord, open his eyes, that he may see. And the LORD opened the lad's eyes, and he saw: and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha.
18. And when they were come down unto him, Elisha besought, saying, Lord, smite this people with blindness. And he smote them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.
19. And Elisha said unto them: This is not the way, nor the city. Follow me, and I will lead you unto the man whom ye seek. And he led them to Samaria.
20. And when they were come to Samaria, Elisha said, Lord, open the eyes of these, that they may see. And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw: and, behold, they were in the midst of Samaria.
21. And the king of Israel, when he saw them, said unto Elisha, My father, shall I smite them?
22. And he said, Thou shalt not smite them. Whom thou shalt smite with thy sword and thy bow, smite them. Set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink; and let them go to their lord.

23. And there was a great supper prepared. And when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away to go unto their lord. Since that time the men of war of the Syrians came no more into the land of Israel.

24. And it came to pass after these things, that Benhadad king of Syria gathered all his host together, and went up, and besieged Samaria.

25. And there was a great famine in Samaria. And they besieged the city, until the head of an ass was eighty shekels of silver, and the dung of a quart of doves five shekels of silver.

26. And when the king of Israel was come to the wall, a woman cried unto him, saying, Help me, my lord the king.

27. And he said, If the LORD help thee not, whence shall I help thee? From the threshingfloor, or from the winepress?

28. And she said, The king said unto her, What is the matter with thee? And she said, This woman said unto me, Give thy son, that we may eat to day; to morrow we will eat my son.

29. So we boiled my son, and did eat him. And I said unto her the next day, Give thy son, and let us eat. But she hid her son.

30. When the king heard the words of the woman, he rent his clothes, and went to the wall. Then all the people saw that he had sackcloth on the bottom of his body.

31. And he said, God do this unto me, and that, where the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall stand upon him this day.

32. And Elisha sat in his house, and the elders sat with him: and he sent a man before him. And before the messenger came to him, he said unto the elders, Have ye seen how this murderous child hath sent hither to cut off my head? When the messenger comes, shut the door and push him away with the door: behold, the sound of his master's feet follows him.

33. And while he yet talked with them, behold, the messenger came down unto him, and said, Behold, this evil cometh of the LORD: what more shall I expect of the LORD?

(2 Kings)

Chapter 7

Quick good time to Samaria.

1. And Elisha said, Hear the word of the LORD. Thus saith the LORD; To morrow about this time shall a bushel of fine flour be worth a shekel, and two bushels of barley a shekel, under the gate of Samaria.
2. And the knight, upon whose hand the king leaned, answered the man of God, and said, And if the LORD made windows in heaven, how could this be? And he said, Behold, with thine eyes shalt thou see it, and shalt not eat thereof.
3. And there were four lepers at the door of the gate: and one said unto another: Why shall we tarry here until we die?
4. If we would come into the city, there is famine in the city, and we should die there: but if we tarry here, we shall die also. Now therefore let us go and fall to the army of the Syrians. If they let us live, we will live; if they kill us, we will be dead.
5. And they rose up early in the morning, that they might come unto the host of the Syrians. And when they were come to the place of the host, behold, there was none there.
6. For the LORD had made the Syrians to hear a shout of chariots of horses, and of great strength, saying one to another, Behold, the king of Israel hath brought against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us.
7. And they arose and fled early in the morning, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, in the camp, as it was, and fled away with their lives.
8. And when the lepers were come to the place of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and took silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it: and they came again, and entered into another tent, and took out of it, and went and hid it.
9. But one said unto another: Let us not do so! This day is a day of good tidings. If we keep silence, and wait till the morning light, our iniquity shall be found: let us go therefore, and come and tell it unto the king's house.
10. And when they were come, they called at the gate of the city, and told them, saying: We are come to the camp of the Syrians: and, behold, there is none there, neither voice of man, but horses and asses tied, and the tents as they stand.
11. And they called unto the porters, that they should tell it within the king's house.

12. And the king arose in the night, and said unto his servants: Let it be told you how the Syrians deal with us. They know that we are famished, and are gone out of the camp, that they may crouch in the field: and they think, If they go out of the city, we will take them alive, and come into the city.

13. And one of his servants answered and said, Take the five remaining horses that are left in the house, (behold, they are left in the house of all the multitude of Israel, which are all gone,) and let us send and see them.

14. And they took two chariots with horses, and the king sent them after the camp of the Syrians, and said, Go ye, and possess.

15. And when they came after them unto Jordan, behold, the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast off, as they hasted. And when the messengers were returned, they told the king,
16. And the people went out, and spoiled the camp of the Syrians. And the price of a bushel of fine flour was a shekel, and of two bushels of barley a shekel, according to the word of the LORD.

17. And the king appointed the knight, upon whose hand he leaned, under the gate. And the people trode him down in the gate: and he died, as the man of God spake, when the king came down unto him.

18. And it came to pass, as the man of God told the king, saying, To morrow about this time shall two bushels of barley be worth a shekel, and a bushel of fine flour a shekel, under the gate of Samaria;

19. And the knight answered the man of God, and said, Behold, if the LORD made windows in heaven, how shall it be done? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, and shalt not eat thereof.

20. And it was so with him: for the people trode him down in the gate, and he died.

(2 Kings)

Chapter 8

Seven years of teurung. Change in the kingdom of the Syrians. Joram and Ahaziah, kings in Judah.

1. And Elisha spake unto the woman whose son he had quickened, saying, Arise, and go with thy house, and be a stranger whithersoever thou canst: for the LORD shall call for a plague, which shall come into the land seven years.

2. And the woman arose, and did according to the word of the man of God, and went with her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years.
3. And when the seven years were expired, the woman came again out of the land of the Philistines, and went out to cry unto the king for her house and her land.
4. And the king spake unto Gehazi the son of the man of God, saying, Tell me all the great works that Elisha hath done.
5. And as he told the king how he had quickened a dead man, behold, the woman came even now whose son he had quickened, and cried unto the king for her house and her land. Then said Gehazi, My lord the king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha hath quickened.
6. And the king asked the woman, and she told him. And the king gave her a chamberlain, and said, Restore unto her all that is hers, and all the revenue of the field, from the time that she left the land until now.
7. And Elisha came to Damascus. And Benhadad king of Syria lay sick: and it was told him, saying, The man of God is come hither.
8. And the king said unto Hazael, Take the present with thee, and go to meet the man of God, and inquire of the LORD by him, saying, If I may recover of this disease.
9. And Hazael went out to meet him, and took a present with him, and all the goods of Damascus, forty camels' weight. And when he was come, he stood before him, and said. Thy son Benhadad king of Syria hath sent me unto thee, saying, Can I also recover of this disease?
10. And Elisha said unto him, Go and tell him, Thou shalt recover: but the LORD hath shewed me that he shall surely die.
11. And the man of God looked gravely, and stood unruly, and wept.
12. And Hazael said, Why weepeth my lord? And he said: I know the evil that thou wilt do unto the children of Israel. Thou wilt burn their strong cities with fire, and slay their young men with the sword, and slay their young children, and cut in pieces their women with child.
13. And Hazael said, What is thy servant the dog, that he should do this great thing? And Elisha said, The LORD hath shewed me that thou shalt be king in Syria.

14. And he departed from Elisha, and came to his lord, and he said unto him, What said Elisha unto thee? And he said, He said unto me, Thou shalt recover.

15. And the next day he took the colter, and dipped it in water, and spread it over him, and died.

And Hazael reigned in his stead.

16. In the fifth year of Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel was Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king in Judah.

17. Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

18. And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for Ahab's daughter was his wife: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

19. But the LORD would not destroy Judah for David his servant's sake; as he had spoken to him, to give him a lamp among his children for ever.

20. In his days the Edomites fell away from Judah, and made a king over them.

21. For Jehoram passed through Zair, and all the chariots with him, and rose up by night, and smote the Edomites that were round about him, and the captains of the chariots, and the people fled into their tents.

22. Therefore the Edomites fell from Judah unto this day. Libnah also fell away at the same time.

23. And the rest of the acts of Jehoram, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah.

24. And Jehoram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.

25. In the twelfth year of Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel was Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king in Judah.

26. Ahaziah was twenty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah, daughter of Amri king of Israel.

27. And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of the LORD, as did the house of Ahab: for he was the brother in law of the house of Ahab.

28. And he went with Jehoram the son of Ahab to battle against Hazael king of Syria to Ramoth in Gilead: but the Syrians smote Jehoram.

29. And Jehoram the king returned to be healed in Jezreel of the blows which the Syrians had smitten him in Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah came down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

(2 Kings)

Chapter 9

Jehu anointed king; kills Joram, Ahaziah and Jezebel.

1. And Elisha the prophet called one of the children of the prophets, and said unto him, Gird up thy loins, and take this pitcher of oil with thee, and go to Ramoth in Gilead.

2. And when thou comest thither, thou shalt see there Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi. And go in, and raise him up among his brethren, and bring him into the innermost chamber.

3. And take the pitcher of oil, and pour it upon his head, and say, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel. And thou shalt open the door, and flee, and not be pardoned.

4. And the young man of the prophet, the lad, went to Ramoth in Gilead.

5. And when he was come in, behold, the captains of the host sat there. And he said: I have something to say to thee, captain. And Jehu said, To whom of us all? And he said, To thee, O captain.

6. And he arose, and went in. And he poured the oil upon his head, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I have anointed thee king over the LORD'S people Israel.

7. And thou shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master, to avenge the blood of the prophets my servants, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, from the hand of Jezebel,

8. And all the house of Ahab shall perish. And I will cut off from Ahab him that pisseth against the wall, and him that is shut up, and him that is left in Israel.

9. And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah.

10. And the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the field at Jezreel, and none shall bury her. And he opened the door, and fled.

11. And when Jehu was come out unto the servants of his lord, they said unto him, Is it well?

Why is this frenzied man come unto thee? And he said unto them: Ye know the man well, and what he saith.

12. And they said: This is not true; but declare it unto us. And he said, Thus and thus hath he spoken unto me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel.

13. And they hasted, and took every man his garment, and laid it under him upon the high stairs, and blew with the trumpet, and said: Jehu is become king!

14. So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi made a covenant against Joram. And Jehoram lay before Ramoth in Gilead, and all Israel, against Hazael king of Syria.

15. And Jehoram the king returned to be healed in Jezreel of the blows which the Syrians had smitten him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And Jehu said: If it be your mind, let no man escape out of the city, that he may go and prophesy in Jezreel.

16. And he was led, and went to Jezreel, because Jehoram was there: so Ahaziah king of Judah went down to see Jehoram.

17. And the watchman that stood in the tower of Jezreel saw the company of Jehu coming, and said: I see a company. And Jehoram said, Take a horseman, and send against them, and say, Is it peace?

18. And the horseman went to meet him, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu said, What is peace to thee? Turn thee behind me. And the watchman declared, and said, The messenger is come to them, and will not return.

19. And he sent another horseman. And when he came to him, he said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu said, What is peace to thee? Turn thee behind me.

20. And the watchman declared it, saying, He is come unto them, and will not return. And it is a driving as the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi: for he driveth as he would be foolish.

21. And Joram said, Hitch up your chariots. And they harnessed his chariot; and they went out, Jehoram king of Israel, and Ahaziah king of Judah, every man in his chariot, to meet Jehu: and they met him in the field of Naboth the Jezreelite.

22. And when Jehoram saw Jehu, he said, Jehu, is it peace? And he said, What peace? Thy mother Jezebel's whoredoms and sorceries increase.

23. And Joram turned his hand, and fled, and said unto Ahaziah, It is treachery, Ahaziah.

24. But Jehu took the bow, and shot Jehoram between the arms, so that the arrow went out through his heart; and he fell into his chariot.

25. And he said unto Bidekar the knight, Take thee, and cast him into the field of Naboth the Jezreelite. For I remember that thou wentest with me in a chariot after Ahab his father, that the LORD laid such a burden upon him.

26. What is the matter, said the LORD, I will recompense thee the blood of Naboth, and of his children, which I saw yesterday, upon this field? Now therefore take, and cast it into the field, according to the word of the LORD.

27. And when Ahaziah king of Judah saw it, he fled by the way unto the house of the garden.

And Jehu pursued after him, and caused him to go up in the chariot unto Gur, which is by Jebelaam. And he fled to Megiddo, and died there.

28. And his servants brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre with his fathers in the city of David.

29. And Ahaziah reigned over Judah in the eleventh year of Jehoram the son of Ahab.

30. And it came to pass, when Jehu was come to Jezreel, that when Jezebel heard of it, she made up her face, and decked her head, and looked out at the window.

31. And when Jehu was come under the gate, she said: Is Zimri well, who slew his master?

32. And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who is here with me? and two or three eunuchs turned unto him.

33. And he said, Cast her down. And they cast her down, and the wall and the horses were sprinkled with her blood: and she was trodden down.

34. And when he was come in, and had eaten and drunk, he said, Behold the accursed woman, and bury her: for she is a king's daughter.

35. And when they went to bury her, they found nothing of her but the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands.

36. And they came again, and told him. And he said, It is this that the LORD spake by Elijah his servant the Hittite, saying, In the field of Jezreel shall the dogs of Jezebel eat flesh.

37. So the carcase of Jezebel was as the dung of the field in the field of Jezreel, that it could not be said: This is Jezebel.

(2 Kings)

Chapter 10

Extermination of the family of Ahab and the Baal apes.

1. And Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters, and sent them to Samaria unto the rulers of the city of Jezreel, unto the elders and guardians of Ahab, saying thus: 2. When this letter cometh unto you, with whom your lord's sons are, chariots, horses, strong cities, and armour,

3. Then see which of your lord's is the best and the most skillful, and set him in his father's seat, and fight for your lord's house.

4. And they were almost afraid, and said, Behold, two kings have not stood before him: how then shall we stand?

5. And they that were over the house, and over the city, and the elders, and the guardians, sent unto Jehu, saying, We are thy servants; we will do all that thou sayest unto us; we will make no man king. Do what pleases thee!

6. And he wrote another letter unto them, saying, If ye be mine, and if ye hearken unto my voice, take the heads of the men that are your lord's sons, and bring them unto me to Jezreel to morrow about this time. (Now the king's sons were seventy men, and the greatest of the city brought them up).

7. And when the letter came unto them, they took the king's sons, and slew seventy men, and put their heads in baskets, and sent them unto him to Jezreel.

8. And when the messenger came and told him, saying, They have brought the king's children's heads, he said, Lay them in two heaps at the door of the gate until to morrow.

9. And it came to pass in the morning, when he was gone out, that he stood and said unto all the people, Ye are right. Behold, have I made a covenant against my lord, and slain him? Who then hath smitten all these?

10. Ye know therefore that there fell not a word of the LORD upon the earth, which the LORD spake against the house of Ahab: and the LORD did as he spake by his servant Elijah.

11. So Jehu smote all the remnant of the house of Ahab that was in Jezreel, all his great men, and his kinsmen, and his priests, until not one remained unto him.

12. And he arose, and went, and came to Samaria. And there was a shepherd's house by the way.

13. And Jehu met the brethren of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, Who are ye? And they said: We are the brethren of Ahaziah, and go down to salute the king's children, and the queen's children.

14. And he said, Take them alive. And they took them alive, and slew them at the well by the shepherd's house, forty and two men, and left not one of them.

15. And as he departed thence, he found Jonadab the son of Rechab meeting him, and greeted him, and said unto him, Is thy heart right, as my heart is right with thy heart? And Jonadab said, Yea. If it be so, give me thine hand. And he gave him his hand. And he made him sit with him in the chariot.

16. And said, Come with me, and see my zeal for the LORD. And they led him with him in his chariot.

17. And when he was come to Samaria, he smote all that remained of Ahab in Samaria, until he had destroyed him, according to the word of the LORD which he spake unto Elijah.

18. And Jehu gathered all the people together, and said unto them, Ahab hath served Baal little; Jehu will serve him much.

19. Now therefore let all the prophets of Baal, and all his servants, and all his priests, cry unto me, that no man miss: for I have a great sacrifice to make unto Baal. Whomsoever shall be missed, he shall not live. But Jehu did this to put an end to the servants of Baal.

20. And Jehu said, Sanctify the feast unto Baal, and let it be proclaimed.

21. And Jehu sent throughout all Israel, and called for all the servants of Baal, that there should not be left any that should not come. And they came into the house of Baal; and the house of Baal was filled at every end.

22. Then said he unto them that were over the house of garments: Bring out all the servants of Baal's garments. And they brought forth the garments.

23. And Jehu went into the church of Baal with Jonadab the son of Rechab, and said unto the servants of Baal, Search ye, and see that there be no servant of the LORD here among you, but Baal's servant only.

24. And when they were come in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings, Jehu appointed him fourscore men without, saying, If any of the men which I shall put in your hand escape, his soul shall be for his soul.

25. And it came to pass, when he had finished the burnt offerings, that Jehu said unto the guard and to the knights, Go in, smite every man, and let no man go out. And they smote them with the edge of the sword. And the satellites and the knights cast them away, and went to the city of the church of Baal.

26. And they brought out the pillars of the church of Baal, and burned them.

27. And they brake down the pillar of Baal, and the church of Baal, and made it a secret chamber unto this day.

28. So Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

29. But of the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin, Jehu left not, of the calves of gold that were in Bethel, and in Dan.

30. And the LORD said unto Jehu, Because thou hast been willing to do that which is right in mine eyes, and hast done in the house of Ahab all that was in mine heart, let thy children sit on thy throne of Israel unto the fourth generation.

31. But Jehu kept not the law of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart: for he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam, who had made Israel to sin.

32. At that time the LORD began to be weary of Israel: for Hazael smote them throughout all the coasts of Israel,

33. From Jordan toward the rising of the sun, and all the land of Gilead, of the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the river near Arnon, and Gilead, and Bashan.

34. And the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

35. And Jehu slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son reigned in his stead.

36. And the time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty and eight years.

(2 Kings)

Chapter 11

Athaliah's tyranny. Joas' coronation.

1. And Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah, when she saw that her son was dead, arose and destroyed all the seed of the king.

2. And Jehosheba the daughter of king Jehoram, Ahaziah's sister, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him out of the king's children that were slain, with his nurse in the bedchamber; and they hid him from Athaliah, that he should not be slain.

3. And he was hid with her in the house of the LORD six years. And Athaliah was queen of the land.

4. And in the seventh year Jehoiada sent, and took the captains of hundreds, and the captains of the guard, and brought them unto him into the house of the LORD, and made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of the LORD, and shewed them the king's son.

5. And he commanded them, saying, This is the thing that ye shall do, that the third part of you which go in on the sabbath day shall keep the watch in the king's house; 6. And a third part shall be at the gate of Sur, and a third part at the gate that is behind the satellites: and the guard shall be at the house of Massa.

7. But two parts of you all, which depart on the sabbath day, shall keep the watch in the house of the LORD for the king.

8. And ye shall compass the king round about, every man with his armour in his hand: and whosoever cometh in between the wall, let him die, that ye may be with the king when he goeth out and when he cometh in.

9. And the captains of an hundred did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded them, and took their men that came in on the sabbath with them that went out on the sabbath, and came unto Jehoiada the priest.

10. And the priest gave unto the captains of the guard spears and shields, which had been David's, which were in the house of the LORD.

11. And the guard stood round about the king, every man with his armour in his hand, from the corner of the house on the right hand even unto the corner of the house on the left hand, toward the altar, and toward the house.

12. And he brought forth the king's son, and put a crown upon him, and gave him the testimony; and they made him king, and anointed him, and joined their hands together, and said: Happy is the king!

13. And when Athaliah heard the cry of the people that ran, she came unto the people into the house of the LORD.

14. And, behold, the king stood by the pillar, as was his custom, and the singers and the trumpeters by the king: and all the people of the land were glad, and blew with the trumpets: but Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, Rebellion, rebellion!

15. And Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of hundreds that were set over the host, and said unto them: Bring her out unto the house into the court: and whosoever followeth her, let him die by the sword. For the priest had said that she should not die in the house of the LORD.

16. And they laid hands on her, and she went in by the way of the horses unto the king's house, and was slain there.

17. And Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD, and the king, and the people, that they should be the LORD'S people: so also between the king and the people.

18. And all the people of the land went into the church of Baal, and brake down his altars, and brake his images in pieces: and they slew Mathan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed the offices of the house of the LORD.

19. And he took the captains of hundreds, and the captains of the guard, and all the people of the land, and brought the king down from the house of the LORD, and came by the way of the gate of the guard unto the king's house: and he sat upon the king's throne.

20. And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet: and they slew Athaliah with the sword in the king's house.

21. And Joash was seven years old when he began to reign.

(2 Kings)

Chapter 12

Reign of Joash king of Judah.

1. In the seventh year of Jehu Joash reigned king, and reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibea of Bersaba.
2. And Joash did that which was right and pleasing in the sight of the LORD, as long as Jehoiada the priest taught him,
3. Notwithstanding they removed not the high places: for the people sacrificed and burned incense yet in the high places.
4. And Joash said unto the priests, All the money that is sanctified, that it may be brought into the house of the LORD, which is common, the money that every man giveth in the estimation of his soul, and all the money that every man offereth freely, that it may be brought into the house of the LORD,
5. And let the priests take them, every one of his acquaintance. And they shall repair that which is broken down in the house of the LORD, where they find it broken down.
6. And it came to pass, when the priests had not repaired the house that was broken down until the three and twentieth year of Joash the king, that the priests repaired it, 7. And king Joash called for Jehoiada the priest, and for the priests, and said unto them: Why do ye not repair that which is broken down in the house? Now therefore ye shall not take the money, every man of his acquaintance, unto yourselves; but ye shall give it unto that which is broken down in the house.
8. And the priests granted not to take money of the people, neither to repair the building of the house.
9. And Jehoiada the priest took an ark, and bored a hole in the top thereof, and set it by the right hand of the altar, where they go into the house of the LORD. And the priests that kept the threshold put therein all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD.
10. And it came to pass, when they saw that there was much money in the ark, that the king's scribe came up with the high priest, and bound up the money, and numbered it, which was found for the house of the LORD.
11. And they gave the money in cash unto them that wrought and appointed the house of the LORD: and they gave it out unto the carpenters that wrought and appointed the house of the LORD,

12. To the masons, and to the stonecutters, and to them that bought timber and hewn stone, to repair the dilapidations of the house of the LORD, and to repair all that they found needful in the house.

13. But they made not silver bowls, psalteries, cymbals, trumpets, nor any vessels of gold or silver, in the house of the LORD, of the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, 14. But it was given to the workmen, that they might repair with it that which was broken down in the house of the LORD.

15. Neither charged the men, to whom the money was given, that they should give it to the labourers: but they dealt in faith.

16. But the money of trespass offerings and of sin offerings was not brought into the house of the LORD: for it was the priest's.

17. At that time Hazael king of Syria went up, and fought against Gath, and took them. And when Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem,

18. And Jehoash king of Judah took all that was hallowed, which Jehoshaphat, Jehoram, and Ahaziah, kings of Judah, his fathers, had hallowed, and that which he had hallowed, and all the gold that was found in the treasury of the house of the LORD, and in the king's house, and sent it unto Hazael king of Syria. Then he departed from Jerusalem.

19. And the rest of the acts of Jehoash, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

20. And his servants rebelled, and made a league, and smote him in the house of Millo, when they go down to Silla.

21. For Jehoshabar the son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, slew him. And they buried him with his fathers in the city of David. And his son reigned in his stead.

(2 Kings)

Chapter 13

Government of Jehoahaz and Joash.

1. In the twenty and third year of Jehoahaz the son of Ahaziah king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria seventeen years.

2. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, and departed not from it.

3. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Benhadad the son of Hazael, all the days of their life.
4. But Jehoahaz besought the LORD in his face. And the LORD hearkened unto him: for he saw the affliction of Israel, how that the king of Syria oppressed them.
5. And the LORD gave Israel a Saviour, which brought them out of the hand of the Syrians, that the children of Israel might dwell in their tents, as before.
6. But they departed not from the sin of the house of Jeroboam, which made Israel to sin, but walked therein. And the grove of Samaria stood still.
7. For there remained no more of Jehoahaz's people than fifty horsemen, ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen. For the king of Syria had slain them, and made them as the dust of the threshingfloor.
8. And the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.
9. And Jehoahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. And Jehoash his son reigned in his stead.
10. In the thirty and seventh year of Jehoash king of Judah, Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz reigned over Israel in Samaria sixteen years.
11. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and repented not of all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, but walked in them.
12. And the rest of the acts of Jehoash, and what he did, and his might, how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.
13. And Joash slept with his fathers, and Jeroboam sat upon his throne. And Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.
14. And Elisha was sick, and died. And Joash king of Israel came down unto him, and wept before him, and said, My father, my father, chariots of Israel, and his horsemen.
15. And Elisha said unto him, Take the bow and the arrows. And when he had taken the bow and the arrows,

16. And he said unto the king of Israel, Draw the bow with thine hand. And he drew with his hand. And Elisha put his hand upon the king's hand.

17. And said, Open the window toward the east. And he opened it. And Elisha said, Shoot. And he shot. And he said, An arrow of salvation from the LORD, an arrow of salvation against the Syrians: and thou shalt smite the Syrians at Aphek, until they be consumed.

18. And he said, Take the arrows. And when he had taken them, he said unto the king of Israel, Smite the earth. And he smote thrice, and stood still.

19. And the man of God was wroth with him, and said, If thou hadst smitten five or six times, thou wouldest have smitten the Syrians until they were consumed: but now thou shalt smite them thrice.

20. And it came to pass, when Elisha was dead, and they had buried him, that the men of war of Moab fell into the land of that year.

21. And it came to pass, that they buried a man: and when they saw the men of war, they cast the man into Elisha's sepulchre. And when he was come, and touched the bones of Elisha, he quickened, and stood upon his feet.

22. So Hazael king of Syria constrained Israel all the days of Jehoahaz.

23. But the LORD had mercy upon them, and had compassion on them, and turned unto them for his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; and would not destroy them, neither cast them out of his sight, even unto this hour.

24. And Hazael king of Syria died, and Benhadad his son reigned in his stead.

25. And Jehoash returned, and took the cities out of the hand of Benhadad the son of Hazael, which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father with strife. Three times Joash smote him, and brought again the cities of Israel.

(2 Kings)

Chapter 14

Amaziah and Azariah, kings in Judah. Jeroboam the second in Israel.

1. In the second year of Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, Ahaziah the son of Jehoash king of Judah reigned.

2. He was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Joadan of Jerusalem.
3. And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD: yet not as David his father did, but as Joash his father did he also.
4. For the high places were not removed, but the people sacrificed and burned incense in the high places.
5. And when he had become mighty in the kingdom, he smote his servants that smote his father the king.
6. But the children of the murderers he slew not. He slew not them: as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers; but every man shall die for his own sin.
7. And he smote ten thousand of the Edomites in the valley of the salt, and took the city of Selah with battle; and called it Jaktheel unto this day.
8. And Amaziah sent messengers unto Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz the son of Jehu king of Israel, saying, Come, and let us see one another.
9. But Joash king of Israel sent unto Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The briar that is in Lebanon sent unto the cedar tree of Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife. And the wild beasts of the field of Lebanon ran upon the briar, and trod it down.
10. Thou hast smitten the Edomites; thine heart is lifted up. Have glory, and dwell in the land: why wilt thou strive for evil, that thou shouldest fall, and Judah with thee?
11. But Amaziah hearkened not. Then Joash king of Israel went up; and they looked together, he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Bethshemesh, which is in Judah.
12. And Judah was smitten before Israel, and every man fled into his tent.
13. And Jehoash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash the son of Ahaziah, at Bethshemesh, and came to Jerusalem, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim unto the corner gate four hundred cubits.

14. And he took all the gold, and the silver, and the vessels that were found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and the children for a pledge, and returned to Samaria.

15. And the rest of the acts of Jehoash, which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

16. And Joash slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria among the kings of Israel. And Jeroboam his son reigned in his stead.

17. And Amaziah the son of Jehoash king of Judah lived after the death of Jehoahaz the son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years.

18. And the rest of the acts of Amaziah are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah.

19. And they made a covenant against him at Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish. And they sent after him to Lachish, and slew him there.

20. And they brought him on horses, and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David.

21. And all the people of Judah took Azariah in his sixteenth year, and made him king instead of Amaziah his father.

22. And he built Elath, and brought it again to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

23. In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash reigned over Israel in Samaria forty and one years.

24. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

25. And he brought again the border of Israel from Hemath even unto the sea that is in the plain, according to the word of the LORD God of Israel, which he spake by his servant Jonah the son of Amithai the prophet, which was of Gath Hepher.

26. For the LORD saw the affliction of Israel, that they also which were shut up and forsaken were consumed, and that there was no helper in Israel.

27. And the LORD spake not that he would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven, but helped them by Jeroboam the son of Joash.

28. And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his might, and how he fought, and how he restored Damascus and Hemath unto Judah in Israel, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

29. And Jeroboam passed away with his fathers, with the kings of Israel. And Zechariah his son reigned in his stead.

(2 Kings)

Chapter 15

Government of several kings in Judah and Israel.

1. In the twenty and seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel was king Azariah the son of Amaziah king of Judah.

2. And he was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and two years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jechaliah of Jerusalem.

3. And did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, even as Amaziah his father did, 4. Notwithstanding they removed not the high places: for the people sacrificed and burned incense yet in the high places.

5. And the LORD afflicted the king, and he was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a house but one. And Jotham the king's son ruled the house, and judged the people of the land.

6. And the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah.

7. And Azariah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David.

And Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

8. In the thirty and eighth year of Azariah king of Judah was king Zechariah the son of Jeroboam over Israel in Samaria six months.

9. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done. He desisted not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin.

10. And Shallum the son of Jabesh made a league against him, and smote him before the people, and slew him; and he reigned in his stead.

11. And the rest of the acts of Zechariah, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

12. And this is it that the LORD Jehu spake, saying, Thy children shall sit in the fourth generation upon the throne of Israel: and it was so.

13. And Shallum the son of Jabe reigned in the thirty and ninth year of Azariah king of Judah, and reigned one month in Samaria.

14. For Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and smote Shallum the son of Jabe in Samaria, and slew him, and reigned in his stead.

15. And the rest of the acts of Shallum, and the covenant which he made, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

16. Then Menahem smote Tiphshah, and all that were therein, and their border of Tirzah, because they would not let him in; and smote all their pregnant women, and rent them.

17. In the thirty and ninth year of Azariah king of Judah was king Menahem the son of Gadi over Israel ten years in Samaria.

18. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD. He departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin, all the days of his life.

19. And Phul king of Assyria came into the land. And Menahem gave Phul a thousand talents of silver to keep with him, and confirmed the kingdom unto him.

20. And Menahem set a money in Israel upon the richest, fifty shekels of silver upon every man, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria returned home, and abode not in the land.

21. And the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

22. And Menahem slept with his fathers: and Pekahiah his son reigned in his stead.

23. In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah was Pekahiah the son of Menahem king over Israel in Samaria two years.

24. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: for he repented not of the sin of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin.

25. And Pekah the son of Remaliah his knight made a league against him, and smote him in Samaria in the palace of the king's house, with Argob and Arne, and fifty men with him of the children of Gilead, and slew him: and he reigned in his stead.

26. And the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

27. In the fifty and second year of Azariah king of Judah was king Pekah the son of Remaliah over Israel in Samaria twenty years.

28. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: for he repented not of the sin of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin.

29. In the days of Pekah king of Israel came Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and took Ijon, and Abel-beth-maechah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, and all the land of Naphtali, and carried them away into Assyria.

30. And Hosea the son of Elah made a league against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and slew him: and he reigned in his stead in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah.

31. And the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

32. In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel, Jotham the son of Uzziah king of Judah reigned.

33. And he was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerusa, a daughter of Zadok.

34. And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Uzziah his father had done,

35. Notwithstanding they removed not the high places: for the people sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. And he built the high gate of the house of the LORD.

36. And the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah.

37. At that time the LORD began to send into Judah Rezin king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah.

38. And Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

(2 Kings)

Chapter 16

Ahaz and his government.

1. In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah was king Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah.

2. Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and he did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD his God, as did David his father.
3. For he walked in the way of the kings of Israel. For this cause he made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out from before the children of Israel;
4. And they offered sacrifices, and burned incense in the high places, and in the hills, and among all the green trees.
5. Then Rezin king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to battle, and besieged Ahaz; but they could not prevail against them.
6. At that time Rezin king of Syria brought Elath again into Syria, and thrust out the Jews from Elath: but the Syrians came and dwelt therein unto this day.
7. And Ahaz sent messengers unto Tiglathpileser king of Assyria, saying, I am thy servant, and I am thy son: come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, which have risen up against me.
8. And Ahaz took the silver and the gold that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent gifts unto the king of Assyria.
9. And the king of Assyria hearkened unto him, and went up to Damascus, and took them, and led them away to Kir, and slew Rezin.
10. And king Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglathpileser king of Assyria. And when he saw an altar that was in Damascus, king Ahaz sent the image and likeness of the same altar unto Uriah the priest, how it was made.
11. And Uriah the priest built an altar, and made it, as king Ahaz had sent unto him from Damascus, until king Ahaz came from Damascus.
12. And when the king of Damascus was come, and saw the altar, he offered upon it.
13. And he burnt his burnt offering, and his meat offering, and poured out his drink offerings thereon, and sprinkled the blood of the peace offerings, which he offered, upon the altar.

14. But the brasen altar that was before the LORD he took away, that it should not stand between the altar and the house of the LORD: but he set it at the corner of the altar northward.

15. And king Alias commanded Uriah the priest, saying, Upon the great altar thou shalt burn the burnt offerings of the morning, and the meat offerings of the evening, and the king's burnt offerings, and his meat offering, and the burnt offerings of all the people of the land, with their meat offering, and their drink offerings, and all the blood of the burnt offerings; and the blood of all the sacrifices shalt thou sprinkle upon it: but with the brasen altar I will think what I will do.

16. And Uriah the priest did all that Alias the king commanded him.

17. And king Ahaz brake off the sides of the stalls, and put the caldrons on the top of them; and he took the sea from the bullocks that were under it, and set it upon the pavement of stone.

18. And the covering of the sabbath, which they had built upon the house, and the king's course without, he turned unto the house of the LORD, to minister unto the king of Assyria.

19. And the rest of the acts of Ahaz, which he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah.

20. And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

(2 Kings)

Chapter 17

Under Hosea the ten tribes are led into Assyria.

1. In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hosea the son of Elah, nine years old, reigned over Israel in Samaria.

2. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, but not as the kings of Israel that were before him.

3. And against him went up Salma the Nasser, king of Assyria. And Hosea was subject unto him, that he gave him gifts.

4. And when the king of Assyria perceived that Hosea had made a covenant, and had sent messengers unto So king of Egypt, and had not presented gifts unto the king of Assyria every year, he besieged him, and put him in prison.

5. And the king of Assyria went throughout all the country, and unto Samaria, and besieged them three years.

6. And in the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria took Samaria, and led Israel away to Assyria, and placed them in Halah, and in Habor, by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

7. For when the children of Israel sinned against the LORD their God, (who brought them up out of the land of Egypt, out of the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt,) and feared other gods 8. And they walked after the manner of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel. And they walked after the manner of the kings of Israel, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel;

9. And the children of Israel adorned their things against the LORD their God, which were not good: namely, they built them high places in every city, both in castles, and in strong cities, 10. And they set up pillars and groves in every high hill, and under every green tree; 11. And there they burned incense in every high place, as did the heathen whom the LORD had driven away before them, and did wickedly, that they might provoke the LORD to anger; 12. And they served idols, whereof the LORD had said unto them: Ye shall not do these things; 13. And when the LORD had testified in Israel and Judah by all the prophets and by all the showers, saying, Turn ye from your wicked ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent unto you by my servants the prophets:

14. So they hearkened not, but hardened their necks, as the necks of their fathers, which believed not on the LORD their God;

15. And they despised his commandments, and his covenant which he had made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he had done among them; but walked after their own vanity, and became vain after the heathen that dwelt about them, of whom the LORD commanded them that they should not do like them;

16. But they forsook all the commandments of the LORD their God, and made them two cast calves, and groves; and worshipped all the hosts of heaven, and served Baal; 17. And they made their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and went about with divination and sorcery, and committed themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger;

18. And the LORD was very wroth with Israel, and removed them out of his sight; and there remained none but the tribe of Judah only.

19. Neither did Judah keep the commandments of the LORD their God, and walk after the manner of Israel, which they had done.

20. Therefore the LORD rejected all the seed of Israel, and pressed them, and delivered them into the hand of the spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight.

21. For Israel was cut off from the house of David, and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king. And he turned Israel backward from the LORD, and made them to sin grievously.

22. So the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam, which he had committed, and departed not from them,

23. Till the LORD had removed Israel out of his sight, as he spake by all his servants the prophets. So Israel was carried away out of his land into Assyria unto this day.

24. And the king of Assyria sent from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hemath, and from Sepharvaim, and possessed the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel. And they took Samaria, and dwelt in the same. Cities.

25. And when they began to dwell there, and feared not the LORD, the LORD sent lions among them, and slew them.

26. And they said unto the king of Assyria, The heathen whom thou hast brought, and filled the cities of Samaria with them, know not the way of God in the land: therefore he hath sent lions among them, and, behold, they slay them, because they know not the way of God in the land.

27. And the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Bring thither one of the priests that are carried away from thence, and go and dwell there; and he shall teach them the manner of God in the land.

28. And there came one of the priests which were carried away from Samaria, and sat in Bethel, and taught them how they should fear the LORD.

29. But every people made his god, and put them in the houses which the Samaritans made in the high places, every people in their cities where they dwelt.

30. They of Babylon made Sukhoth-benoth. Those of Chuth made Nergel. Those of Hemath made Asima.

31. Those of Ava made Nibehas and Tharthak. Those of Sepharvaim burned their sons to the.

Adramelech and Anamelech, the gods of those of Sepharvaim.

32. And because they also feared the LORD, they made them priests in the high places out of the lowest of them, and put them in the houses in the high places.

33. So they feared the LORD, and served the gods after the manner of every people whence they were brought.

34. And unto this day they do after the manner of old, not fearing the LORD, nor doing their statutes and their judgments, according to the law and the commandment, which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, whom he called Israel,

35. And he made a covenant with them, and commanded them, saying, Fear no other gods, neither worship them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice unto them,

36. But the LORD, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and an outstretched arm, him fear, and him worship, and sacrifice unto him; 37. And the statutes, and the judgments, and the judgments, and the statutes, and the commandments, which he hath commanded you to observe, that ye do them always, and fear not other gods;

38. and of the covenant which he hath made with you, forget not that ye fear not other gods, 39. But fear the LORD your God, which shall deliver you from all your enemies.

40. But these obeyed not, but did after their former manner.

41. So these nations feared the LORD, and served their idols also. So did their children, and their children's children, as their fathers did, unto this day.

(2 Kings)

Chapter 18

In the reign of Hezekiah, Jerusalem is besieged by Sanherib.

1. In the third year of Hoshea the son of Elah king of Israel was king Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah.

2. And he was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Abi, the daughter of Zechariah.

3. And that which was well pleasing in the sight of the LORD, as his father David.
4. And he cut down the high places, and brake down the pillars, and cut down the groves, and brake down the brazen serpent that Moses had made: for until that time the children of Israel had burned incense unto it, and it was called Nehusthan.
5. He trusted in the LORD God of Israel, that after him there was none like him among all the kings of Judah, neither was there any before him.
6. He cleaved unto the LORD, and departed not backward from him, and kept his commandments which the LORD commanded Moses.
7. And the LORD was with him; and whithersoever he went forth, he dealt wisely. For this cause he turned aside from the king of Assyria, and was not subject unto him.
8. And he smote the Philistines unto Gaza, and unto the border thereof, from the castles even unto the strong cities.
9. In the fourth year of Hezekiah king of Judah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea the son of Elah king of Israel, Salmanesser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it; 10. And he took it after three years, in the sixth year of Hezekiah; that is, in the ninth year. Hosea king of Israel, when Samaria was won.
11. And the king of Assyria led Israel away to Assyria, and put them in Halah, and in Habor, by the river Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes,
12. Because they had not hearkened unto the voice of the LORD their God, and had transgressed his covenant, and all that Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded, whom they had neither hearkened unto, nor done.
13. Now in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah went up Sanherib king of Assyria against all the strong cities of Judah, and took them.
14. And Hezekiah king of Judah sent unto the king of Assyria to Lachish, saying, I have sinned, turn from me; and I will bear that which thou layest upon me. So the king of Assyria laid on Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.
15. So Hezekiah gave all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house.

16. At that time Hezekiah king of Judah brake the doors of the temple of the LORD, and the plates which he had overlaid, and gave them to the king of Assyria.

17. And the king of Assyria sent Tartan, and the arch-trustee, and Rabshakeh of Lachish, unto king Hezekiah, with great power, unto Jerusalem: and they went up. And when they were come, they stopped at the water-pit by the upper pool, which is by the way of the fuller's field.

18. And he called unto the king. And there came out unto them Eliakim the son of Hilkiah the chamberlain, and Sebena the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the chancellor.

19. And the archbishop said unto them: Beloved, say unto king Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria: What defiance is this, in which thou trustest?

20. Thinkest thou that there is yet counsel and power to fight? Whereunto then dost thou trust, that thou hast turned aside from me?

21. Behold, thou trustest in this broken reed, in Egypt? which, if any man lean upon it, it shall go into his hand, and pierce it. So Pharaoh king of Egypt is unto all them that trust in him.

22. But if ye will say unto me, We trust in the LORD our God: is not this he, whose high places and altars Hezekiah hath abolished, and hath said unto Judah and Jerusalem, Before this altar which is in Jerusalem shall ye worship?

23. Now therefore vow unto my lord the king of Assyria, that I will give thee two thousand horses, and that thou shalt add horsemen unto them.

24. How wilt thou then abide before the least of my lords, one of my lord's subjects, and trust in Egypt for chariots and horsemen?

25. But thinkest thou that I have gone up without the LORD, to destroy this place? The LORD hath said unto me, Go up into this land, and destroy it.

26. And Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Sebena, and Joah, said unto the prince of the arch, Speak unto thy servants in Syrian, for we understand it: speak not unto us in the Jews' tongue in the ears of the people that are upon the wall.

27. But the archbishop said unto them: Did my lord then send me to thy lord, or to thee, to speak such words? Yea, to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may eat their own dung with you, and drink their own urine.

28. And the prince stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spake, saying, Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria.

29. Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah set you up; for he is not able to deliver you out of mine hand.

30. And let not Hezekiah put you off unto the LORD, saying, The LORD will deliver us, and this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

31. Do not obey Hezekiah. For thus saith the king of Assyria: Take hold of my grace, and come out unto me; and every man shall eat of his vine, and of his fig tree, and drink of his well, 32. Till I come and take you into a land like unto your own, where is corn, and wine, and bread, and vineyards, and olive trees, and oil, and honey; and ye shall live, and not die. Harken not unto Hezekiah: for he deceiveth you, saying, The LORD will deliver us.

33. Have the gods also of the heathen delivered every man his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

34. Where are the gods to Hemath and Arphad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena and Iwa? Have they also delivered Samaria out of my hand?

35. Where is there a God among all the gods of the earth, which have delivered their land out of mine hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of mine hand?

36. And the people held their peace, and answered him nothing: for the king had commanded, saying, Answer him nothing.

37. And Eliakim the son of Hilkiah the chamberlain, and Zebenah the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the chancellor, came unto Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of the prince.

(2 Kings)

Chapter 19

Sanherib's defiance and power is broken and shattered at Hezekiah's prayer.

1. And when Hezekiah the king heard it, he rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

2. And he sent Eliakim the chamberlain, and Shebena the scribe, and the eldest priests, clothed with sackcloth, unto Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.
3. And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This is a day of trouble, and reproach, and blasphemy; the children are come to the birth, and there is no strength to bring forth.
4. Whether the LORD thy God would hear all the words of the prince whom his lord the king of Assyria hath sent to reproach the living God, and to rebuke him with words which the LORD thy God hath heard. Save thy prayer for the rest that are left.
5. And when the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah,
6. And Isaiah said unto them, Thus say ye unto your Lord, Thus saith the LORD; Fear not the words which thou hast heard, that the lads of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me, 7. Behold, I will give him a spirit, and he shall hear a rumour, and return unto his own land: and I will slay him with the sword in his own land.
8. And when the archbishop returned, he found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah: for he had heard that he was come out of Lachish.
9. And when he heard of Tirhakah king of the Moors: Behold, he is gone out to fight with thee, he turned and sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying.
10. Thus say ye to Hezekiah king of Judah, Let not thy God be set up, in whom thou trustest, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.
11. Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done unto all the countries, and hast utterly destroyed them: and thou shalt be saved?
12. Have the gods of the heathen saved them also, whom my fathers have destroyed; Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the children of Eden, which were in Thelassar?
13. Where is the king of Hemath, and the king of Arphad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Iwa?
14. And when Hezekiah had received the letters of the messengers, and had read them, he went up to the house of the LORD, and spread them out before the LORD.

15. And he prayed before the LORD, and said, O LORD God of Israel, which sitteth over cherubims, thou only art God among all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven and earth.
16. O LORD, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold, and hear the words of Sanherib, which hath sent to mock the living GOD.
17. It is true, LORD, that the kings of Assyria slew the heathen with the sword, and destroyed their land.
18. And they have cast their gods into the fire. For they were not gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stones: therefore they slew them.
19. But now, O LORD our God, save us out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou, O LORD, art God alone.
20. And Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, What thou hast prayed unto me for Sanherib king of Assyria, that have I heard.
21. This is that the LORD hath spoken against him: The virgin the daughter of Zion despiseth thee, and mocketh thee: the daughter of Jerusalem shaketh her head at thee.
22. Whom hast thou heard and blasphemed? Against whom hast thou lifted up thy voice? Thou hast lifted up thine eyes against the Holy One of Israel.
23. Thou hast heard the LORD by thy messengers, saying, I have gone up through the multitude of my chariots unto the height of the mountains, unto the sides of Lebanon; I have cut down the tall cedars thereof, and the choice firs thereof, and am come unto the uttermost lodging place of the forest of his Carmel;
24. I have dug and drunk up the strange waters, and have dried up the lakes with the soles of my feet.
25. But hast thou not heard that I have done these things a long time before, and from the beginning have I prepared them? But now have I caused strong cities to fall into a desolate heap of stones,
26. And they that dwell therein shall be weary, and afraid, and ashamed, and shall be as the grass of the field, and as the green herb for hay upon the housetops, which withereth before it be ripe.
27. I know thy dwelling, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and that thou hast raged against me.

28. Because thou hast raged against me, and because thine insolence is come up into mine ears, I will put a ring upon thy nose, and a bit in thy mouth, and will bring thee again by the way whence thou camest.

29. And be a sign unto thee: In this year eat that which is trodden down; in the next year that which groweth of itself; in the third year sow, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof.

30. And the daughter of Judah, which is saved, and is left, shall take root among her, and bear fruit above her.

31. For from Jerusalem shall go forth them that are left, and them that are saved from mount Zion. The zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.

32. Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria; He shall not enter into this city, neither shall he shoot an arrow therein, neither shall he put a shield before it, neither shall he build a wall round about it,

33. But he shall return by the way that he came, and shall not enter into that city: the LORD saith it.

34. And I will defend this city, and will help it for my sake, and for David my servant's sake.

35. And the same night the angel of the LORD went out, and smote in the camp of Assyria an hundred and fifty and five thousand men. And when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead bodies.

36. So Sanherib king of Assyria departed, and went away, and returned; and abode at Nineveh.

37. And when he worshipped in the house of Nisroch his god, Adramelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword, and they escaped into the land of Ararat. And Assar-haddon his son reigned in his stead.

(2 Kings)

Chapter 20

Hiskia's illness, life extension, ambition and farewell.

1. In those days Hezekiah was sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Send thine house: for thou shalt die, and not live.

2. And he turned his face to the wall, and prayed unto the LORD, saying: 3. O LORD, remember that I have walked before thee faithfully, and with a righteous heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept greatly.

4. And when Isaiah was not yet half gone out of the city, the word of the LORD came unto him, saying:

5. Return, and say unto Hezekiah the prince of my people, Thus saith the LORD God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, and have seen thy tears. Behold, I will heal thee: the third day thou shalt go up into the house of the LORD.

6. And I will add fifteen years unto thy life. And I will do unto thy life fifteen years, and deliver thee and this city from the king of Assyria, and will defend this city for my sake, and for my servant David's sake.

7. And Isaiah said, Bring ye a piece of figs. And when they had brought them, they laid them upon the gland, and he was healed.

8. And Hezekiah said unto Isaiah: What sign is this, that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up to the house of the LORD the third day?

9. And Isaiah said, The sign shalt thou have of the LORD, that the LORD will do that which he hath spoken. Shall the shadow go forth ten steps, or go back ten steps?

10. And Hezekiah said, It is easy for the shadow to go down ten steps: I will not have it, but it shall go back ten steps behind him.

11. Then Isaiah the prophet called upon the LORD: and the shadow went back behind him ten steps at the hand of Ahaz, which he had gone down.

12. At that time Brodach the son of Baledan, the son of Baledan king of Babylon, sent letters and presents unto Hezekiah: for he had heard that Hezekiah was sick.

13. And Hezekiah was merry with them, and showed them all the treasury, silver, and gold, and spices, and the best oil, and the armoury, and all that was in his treasures. There was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah showed them not.

14. And Isaiah the prophet came to Hezekiah the king, and said unto him, What said these men, and whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come unto me from far countries, from Babylon.

15. And he said, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah said, They have seen all that is in mine house; and there is nothing in my treasures, which I have not shewed them.
16. And Isaiah said unto Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD.
17. Behold, the days come, that all things shall be carried away to Babylon out of thine house, and that which thy fathers have gathered unto this day; and nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.
18. And of the children that shall come of thee, which thou shalt beget, they shall be taken to be chamberlains in the palace of the king of Babylon.
19. And Hezekiah said unto Isaiah: This is good that the LORD hath spoken. And he said, Peace and faithfulness shall be in my days.
20. And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and all that he did, and the pool, and the pipes, that he might bring water into the city, behold, they are written in the book of Chronicles. Chronicles of the kings of Judah.
21. And Hezekiah slept with his fathers. And Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

(2 Kings)

Chapter 21

History of Manasseh and Amon, kings in Judah.

1. Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hephzi-Bah.
2. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out from before the children of Israel.
3. And he turned back, and built the high places which Hezekiah his father had removed, and set up altars unto Baal, and made groves, as Ahab king of Israel had done, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and ministered unto them.
4. And they built altars in the house of the LORD, whereof the LORD had said: I will set my name in Jerusalem.
5. And he built altars unto all the armies that were in heaven, in both courts of the house of the LORD.
6. And he made his son to pass through the fire, and hearkened unto the cry of birds, and to signs, and kept soothsayers and diviners: and he did much that was evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

7. And he set a hair idol, which he had made, in the house, of which the LORD spake unto David, and unto Solomon his son: In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever,

8. And I will no more move the foot of Israel from off the land which I gave unto their fathers, if they will keep and do according to all that I have commanded, and according to all the law which Moses my servant commanded them.

9. But they hearkened not: but Manasseh deceived them, and they did worse than the heathen, whom the LORD destroyed from before the children of Israel.

10. Then spake the LORD by his servants the prophets, saying:

11. Therefore Manasseh king of Judah hath done these abominations, which are worse than all the abominations that the Amorites did, which were before him: and he hath also made Judah to sin with his idols,

12. Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel; Behold, I will bring evil upon Jerusalem and Judah; and whosoever shall hear it, both his ears shall ring.

13. And I will draw upon Jerusalem the measuring rod of Samaria, and the weight of the house of Ahab; and I will pour out Jerusalem as one pours out bowls, and will overturn her.

14. And I will leave some of mine inheritance, and will deliver them into the hand of their enemies, and they shall be a spoil and a prey to all their enemies, 15. Because they have done evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger from the day that their fathers came forth out of Egypt unto this day.

16. Manasseh also shed much innocent blood, until Jerusalem was filled here and there, without sin, to make Judah sin, that they might do evil in the sight of the LORD.

17. And the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin which he committed, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah, 18. And Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his house, which is in the garden of Uzzah. And Amon his son reigned in his stead.

19. Amon was twenty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Mesulemeth, daughter of Haruz of Jatba.

20. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as Manasseh his father had done, 21. And he walked in all the way which his father walked, and served the idols which his father served, and worshipped them.

22. And forsook the LORD God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of the LORD.

23. And his servants made a league against Amon, and slew the king in his house.

24. And the people of the land smote all them that had made the covenant against Amon the king. And the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

25. And the rest of the acts of Amon, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah.

26. And they buried him in his sepulchre in the garden of Uzzah. And Josiah his son reigned in his stead.

(2 Kings)

Chapter 22

It is under Josiah that the Book of the Law is found.

1. Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty and one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedida, a daughter of Adaiah of Bazkath.

2. And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in all the way of David his father, and turned not aside to the right hand, nor to the left.

3. And in the eighteenth year of king Josiah the king sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, the scribe, into the house of the LORD, saying:

4. Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, and give them the money that is brought into the house of the LORD, which the keepers of the door have gathered of the people, 5. To give to the workmen that are hired in the house of the LORD, and to give to the workmen of the house of the LORD, to repair that which is broken down in the house, 6. To the carpenters, and builders, and masons, and to buy timber and hewn stone, to repair the house;

7. But that no account be taken of them of the money that is put under their hand, but that they deal it in faith.

8. And Hilkiah the high priest said unto Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, that he might read it.

9. And Shaphan the scribe brought it unto the king, and told him again, saying, Thy servants have gathered together the money that was found in the house, and have given it to the workmen that are hired in the house of the LORD.

10. And Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest gave me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king.

11. And when the king heard the words of the book of the law, he rent his clothes.

12. And the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor the son of Michaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying: 13. Go ye, enquire of the LORD for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is kindled against us, because our fathers hearkened not unto the words of this book, to do according to all that is written therein.

14. And Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asaiah, went unto Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harham, the keeper of the garments; and she dwelt at Jerusalem in the other part: and they spake unto her.

15. And she said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Say unto the man that sent you unto me:

16. Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, all the words of the law which the king of Judah hath read, 17. Because they have forsaken me, and burned incense unto other gods, and provoked me to anger with all the works of their hands. Therefore shall my wrath be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched.

18. But unto the king of Judah, which sent you to enquire of the LORD, thus shall ye say, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel:

19. Because thine heart was moved at the words which thou hast heard, and hast humbled thyself before the LORD, when thou heardest what I spake against this place and the inhabitants thereof, that they should be a desolation and a curse, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me, I also have heard it, saith the LORD.

20. Therefore will I gather thee unto thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered into thy grave in peace; and thine eyes shall not see all the evil that I will bring upon this place. And they told the king again.

(2 Kings)

Chapter 23

Josiah purifies the service. Government of the kings Jehoahaz and Jehoiakim.

1. And the king sent, and there were gathered unto him all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

2. And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, both small and great: and they read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of the LORD.

3. And the king stood upon a pillar, and made a covenant before the LORD, that they should walk after the LORD, and keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all their heart, and with all their soul, to establish the words of this covenant, which were written in this book. And all the people entered into the covenant.

4. And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the threshold, that they should take out of the temple of the LORD all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the grove, and for all the host of heaven. They burned them outside Jerusalem in the Valley of Kidron, and their dust was carried to Bethel.

5. And he put away the camarim which the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places of the cities of Judah, and round about Jerusalem, and the incense of Baal, and of the sun, and of the moon, and of the planets, and of all the host of heaven.

6. And he brought the grove out of the house of the LORD from before Jerusalem unto the brook

Kidron, and burned it in the brook Kidron, and made it dust, and cast the dust upon the graves of the common people.

7. And he brake down the houses of the fornicators that were by the house of the LORD, wherein the women wrought houses for the grove.
8. And he sent for all the priests of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests burnt incense, from Geba even unto Beersheba; and brake down the high places that were in the gates of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which was on the left hand when they prayed at the gate of the city.
9. But the priests of the high places had never sacrificed upon the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but did eat unleavened bread among their brethren.
10. He defiled also the Thopheth in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man should let his son or his daughter pass through the fire unto Molech.
11. And he took away the horses which the kings of Judah had set for the sun in the entry of the house of the LORD by the chamber. Nathan-melech the chamberlain, which was in Parvarim: and he burnt the chariots of the sun with fire.
12. And the altars that were upon the housetop in the hall of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars that Manasseh had made in the two courts of the LORD'S house, the king brake down; and he ran from thence, and cast the dust thereof into the brook Kidron.
13. And the high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of mount Mashith, which Solomon king of Israel had built, Asthoreth the abomination of Zidon, and Kamos the abomination of Moab, and Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon, did the king defile.
14. And he brake the pillars, and cut off the sharks, and filled their place with the bones of men.
15. And the altar that was at Bethel, the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat made, who made Israel to sin, he brake down the same altar, and the high place; and burned the high place, and made it dust, and burned the grove.
16. And Josiah turned, and saw the graves that were in the mount, and sent, and took the bones out of the graves, and burned them upon the altar, and polluted it, according to the word of the LORD, which the man of God had proclaimed, who proclaimed these things.

17. And he said, What is this sepulchre that I see? And the men of the city said unto him, It is the sepulchre of the man of God, which came from Judah, and proclaimed these things that thou hast done against the altar of Bethel.

18. And he said, Let him lie; let no man move his bones. So his bones were saved with the bones of the prophet that came from Samaria.

19. And he put away all the houses of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke to anger: and he did unto them all things, as he did unto Bethel.

20. And he sacrificed all the priests of the high places that were there upon the altars, and burnt men's bones upon them. And he returned to Jerusalem.

21. And the king commanded the people, saying, Keep the passover unto the LORD your God, as it is written in the book of this covenant.

22. For there was no passover so kept as this, from the time of the judges that judged Israel, and in all the days of the kings of Israel, and of the kings of Judah, 23. But in the eighteenth year of king Josiah this passover was kept unto the LORD in Jerusalem.

24. And Josiah purged out all the diviners, and the interpreters of signs, and the graven images, and the idols, and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah, and in Jerusalem, that he might establish the words of the law that were written in the book which Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the LORD.

25. There was no king like him before him, that turned to the LORD with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his strength, according to all the law of Moses: and after him his like arose not.

26. But the LORD turned not back from the fierceness of his great wrath, because he was wroth with Judah for all the provocations which Manasseh had provoked him to.

27. And the LORD said: I will also put Judah away out of my sight, as I have put Israel away; and I will cast away this city which I had chosen, even Jerusalem, and the house of it, of which I said: My name shall be there.

28. And the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah.

29. In his days Pharaoh-necho king of Egypt went up against the king of Assyria unto the river Phrath. And king Josiah went out to meet him, and died at Megiddo, when he had seen him.

30. And his servants carried him dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father's stead.

31. Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal, daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

32. And did evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done.

33. And Pharaoh-necho caught him at Riblath in the land of Hemath, that he should not reign in Jerusalem: and he laid up an assessment upon the land, an hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold.

34. And Pharaoh-necho made Eliakim the son of Josiah king instead of Josiah his father, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. But Jehoahaz he took, and brought him into Egypt; and there he died.

35. And Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold unto Pharaoh: but he appraised the land to give the silver according to Pharaoh's commandment; and he appraised every man according to his ability of the silver and the gold of the people of the land, to give to Pharaoh's necho.

36. Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zebudah, daughter of Pedaiah of Ruma.

37. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done.

(2 Kings)

Chapter 24

Of three kings in Judah: Jehoiakim, Jehoiachin, and Zidekiah.

1. In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up; and Jehoiakim was subject unto him three years. And he turned and departed from him.

2. And the LORD sent upon him soldiers out of Chaldea, and out of Syria, and out of Moab, and out of the children of Ammon, and sent them into Judah to destroy him, according to the word of the LORD which he spake by his servants the prophets.

3. And it came to pass unto Judah, according to the word of the LORD, that he put them away out of his sight, because of the sin of Manasseh, which he had done; 4. Even because of the innocent blood which he shed, and made Jerusalem full of innocent blood, the LORD would not forgive.

5. And the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah.

6. And Jehoiakim slept with his fathers: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

7. And the king of Egypt departed no more out of his land: for the king of Babylon had taken from him all that was the king's in Egypt, from the river of Egypt even unto the river Phrath.

8. Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Nehuztha, daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.

9. And did evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father had done.

10. At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon went up to Jerusalem, and came unto the city with a stronghold.

11. And when Nebuchadnezzar came to the city, and his servants, he besieged it.

12. And Jehoiachin king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon with his mother, and with his servants, and with his princes, and with his officers: and the king of Babylon received him in the eighth year of his reign.

13. And he took out from thence all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and of the king's house, and brake in pieces all the vessels of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the LORD, as the LORD had said;

14. And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men, and ten thousand captives, and all the carpenters, and all the smiths: and he left none but a few of the people of the land.

15. And he carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon, the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his chamberlains; and he carried away the mighty men of the land captives from Jerusalem to Babylon,

16. And the best of the men, seven thousand; and the carpenters, and the smiths, a thousand, all mighty men of war: and the king of Babylon brought them to Babylon.

17. And the king of Babylon made Mathaniah his cousin king in his stead, and changed his name to Zidekiah.

18. Zedekiah was twenty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamital, a daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

19. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as Jehoiakim had done.

20. For so it came to pass with Jerusalem and Judah out of the wrath of the LORD, that he cast them out of his sight. And Zedekiah was turned aside from the king of Babylon.

(2 Kings)

Chapter 25

From the destruction of the city of Jerusalem and the Babylonian captivity.

1. And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth day of the tenth month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came against Jerusalem with all his power; and they encamped against her, and built a ruin round about her.

2. So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of Zidekiah the king.

3. And in the ninth month there was a great famine in the city, so that the people of the land had nothing to eat.

4. And they entered into the city, and all the men of war fled by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which goeth unto the king's garden. And the Chaldeans were round about the city. And he fled by the way of the plain.

5. But the power of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and took him in the field of Jericho: and all the men of war that were with him were scattered from him.

6. And they took the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon to Riblath; and they pronounced judgment upon him.

7. And they slew the children of Zedekiah before his eyes, and blinded Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with chains, and brought him to Babylon.

8. On the seventh day of the fifth month, which is the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzar-adan the chamberlain, servant to the king of Babylon, unto Jerusalem.

9. And burnt the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the great houses, with fire.
10. And all the power of the Chaldeans, which was with the captain of the court, brake down the walls about Jerusalem.
11. And the rest of the people that were left in the city, which fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the rabble, did Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carry away.
12. And of the least in the land let the courtier have husbandmen and husbandwomen.
13. And the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brasen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans brake, and carried the brass to Babylon.
14. And the pots, and the shovels, and the knives, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass, wherewith they ministered, took they away.
15. And the chamberlain took the pots, and the basons, and all that was gold and silver, 16. Two pillars, and a sea, and the chairs which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD.
- The brass of all these vessels was not to be weighed.
17. There was a pillar eighteen cubits high, and the top thereof was also of brass, and three cubits high; and the hoops and the pomegranates that were upon the top thereof were all of brass: in like manner was the other pillar with the hoops.
18. And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the priest of the first order, and Zephaniah the priest of the second order, and three doorkeepers.
19. And a chamberlain of the city, which was set over the men of war, and five men that were always before the king, which were found in the city, and Shopher the captain of the host, which taught the people war in the land, and threescore men of the people of the country, which were found in the city:
20. And Nebuzar-adan the chamberlain took them, and brought them unto the king of Babylon to Riblath.
21. And the king of Babylon smote them dead at Riblath in the land of Hemath. So Judah was carried away out of his land.

22. But over the rest of the people of the land of Judah, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon delivered up, he set Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan.

23. And it came to pass, when all the people of war, captains, and men, heard that the king of Babylon had set Gedaliah, that they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Thanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaeshaniah the son of Maechathi, and their men.

24. And Gedaliah swore unto them, and to their men, and said unto them: Fear not to be subject unto the Chaldeans: abide in the land, and be subject unto the king of Babylon; and it shall be well with you.

25. And it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah the son of Elishama, of the royal family, and ten men with him, slew Gedaliah, and the Jews and the Chaldeans that were with him at Mizpah.

26. And all the people arose, both small and great, and the captains of the host, and came into Egypt: for they were afraid of the Chaldeans.

27. And it came to pass in the thirty and seventh year after that Jehoiachin king of Judah was carried away, in the twenty and seventh day of the twelfth month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, brought forth the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah out of the dungeon.

28. And he spake kindly unto him, and set his throne over the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon;

29. And he changed the garments of his prison: and he did eat every way before him all the days of his life;

30. And he appointed him his portion, which was given him of the king every day all the days of his life.

Text of the unrevised Luther Bible 1545:

DeepL English Translation

[Processed by BackToLuther. German text published here.]

The first book of the Chronicle (1 Chronicles) ^

Chapter 1

Genealogical register of the patriarchs except Jacob.

1. Adam, Seth, Enos,
2. Kenan, Mahalaleel, Jared,
3. Enoch, Methusalah, Lamech,

4. Noah, Shem, Ham, Japheth.
5. the children of Japheth are these: Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Thubal, Mesech, Thiras.
6. But the children of Gomer are: Askenas, Riphath, Thogarma.
7. the children of Javan are: Elisha, Tharsisa, Chitim, Dodanim.
8. the children of Ham are: Chus, Mizraim, Put, Canaan.
9. But the children of Chu are: Seba, Hevila, Sabtha, Ragema, Sabthecha. And the sons of Ragema are: Sheba and Dedan.
10. And Chus begat Nimrod, who began to be mighty in the earth.
11. Mizraim begat Ludim, Anamim, Lehabim, Naphthuhim,
12. pathrusim, kasluhim (from which are descended the philistim), and kaphthorim.
13. And Canaan begat Zidon his first son, and Heth,
14. Jebusi, Amori, Girgosi,
15. Hevi, Arki, Sini,
16. Arwadi, Zemari and Hemathi.
17. And the children of Shem were these: Elam, Asshur, Arphachad, Lud, Aram, Uz, Hul, Gether and Masech.
18. And Arphachad begat Salah; and Salah begat Eber.
19. And unto Eber were born two sons: the name of the one was Peleg, because in his days the land was divided: and the name of his brother was Jaktan.
20. And Jaktan begat Almodad, and Saleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jarah, 21. Hadoram, Usal, Dikla,
22. Ebal, Abimael, Sheba,
23. Ophir, Hevila and Jobab. These are all the children of Jaktan.
24. Sem, Arphachsad, Salah,
25. Boar, Peleg, Regu,
26. Serug, Nahor, Tharah,
27. Abram, that is Abraham.
28. And the sons of Abraham are: Isaac and Ishmael.
29. This is their generation: the firstborn of Ishmael, Nebajoth, Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, 30. misma, duma, masa, hadad, theme,
31. Jethur, Naphi, Kedma. These are the children of Ishmael.
32. And the sons of Keturah the concubine of Abraham, which bare Shimran, and Jaksan, and Medan, and Midian, and Jezbak, and Shuah. But the children of Jaksan are: Sheba and Dedan.

33. And the children of Midian are: Ephah, Ephher, Enoch, Abida, Eldaa. These are all the children of Keturah.
34. And Abraham begat Isaac. And the children of Isaac are: Esau and Israel.
35. The sons of Esau: Eliphaz, Reguel, Jeus, Jaelam, Korah.
36. The children of Eliphaz are: Theman, Omar, Zephi, Gaetham, Kenaz, Thimnah, Amalek.
37. The children of Reguel are: Nahath, Serah, Samma and Misa.
38. the children of Seir are: Lothan, Sobal, Zibeon, Ana, Dison, Ezer, Disan.
39. The children of Lothan are: Hori, Homam; and Thimna was a sister of Lothan.
40. the children of Sobal are: Alian, Manahath, Ebal, Sephi, Onam. The children of Zibeon are: Aja and Ana.
41. the children of Anas: Dison. The children of Dison are: Hamran, Esban, Jethran, Cheran.
42. The children of Ezer are: Bilhan, Saewan, Jaekan. The children of Disan are: Uz and Aran.
43. These are the kings that reigned in the land of Edom, before there reigned a king among the children of Israel, Bela the son of Beor: and the name of his city was Dinhabah.
44. And when Bela was dead, Jobab the son of Zerah, of Bazrah, reigned in his stead.
45. And when Jobab was dead, Husham of the Themanites reigned in his stead.
46. And when Husham was dead, Hadad the son of Bedad reigned in his stead, who smote the Midianites in the field of Moab: and the name of his city was Avith.
47. And when Hadad was dead, Samla of Masrek reigned in his stead.
48. And when Samla was dead, Saul of Rehoboth by the river reigned in his stead.
49. And when Saul was dead, Baalhanan the son of Achbor reigned in his stead.
50. And when Baalhanan was dead, Hadad reigned in his stead; and the name of his city was Pagi; and his wife's name was Mehetabeel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mesahab.

51. And when Hadad was dead, there were princes in Edom; Thimnah the prince, Alwa the prince, Jetheth the prince,
52. Prince Ahalibama, Prince Ela, Prince Pinon,
53. Prince Kenas, Prince Theman, Prince Mibzar,
54. Prince Magdiel, prince Iram. These are the princes of Edom.

(1 Chronicles)

Chapter 2

Sons of Jacob and Judas.

1. These are the children of Israel; Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun, 2. Dan, Joseph, Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad, Asher.
3. the children of Judah are: Ger, Onan, Sela. These three were born to him of the Canaanitish woman, the daughter of Shua. But Ger, the first son of Judah, was evil in the sight of the LORD; therefore he slew him.
4. And Tamar his string bare him Pharez and Zerah: and all the sons of Judah were five.
5. the children of Perez are: Hezron and Hamul.
6. but the children of Serah are: Simri, Ethan; Heman, Chalcol, Dara. Of all these there are five.
7. The children of Carmi are Achan, which deceived Israel, because he trespassed against the exile.
8. the children of Ethan are Azariah.
9. And the sons of Hezron that were born unto him were: Jerahmeel, Ram, Chalubai.
10. And Ram bare witness unto Amminadab. And Amminadab bare witness unto Naheshon the prince of the children of Judah.
11. Nahesson begat Salma. Salma bore witness to Boaz.
12. Boaz begat Obed. Obed begat Jesse.
13. And Jesse begat Eliab his first son, and Abinadab his second, and Simmer his third, 14. Nethaneel fourth, Raddai fifth,
15. Ozem the sixth, David the seventh.
16. And their sisters were: Zeruiah and Abigail. The children of Zeruiah are: Abishai, Joab, Asahel, the three.
17. And Abigail bare Amasa. And the father of Amasa was Jether the Ishmaelite.
18. And Caleb the son of Hezron begat with Asubah his wife, and Jerigoth: and these are their children, Jezer, and Shobab, and Ardon.

19. And when Asubah was dead, Caleb took Ephrath, and she bare him Hur.
20. Hur gave birth to Uri. Uri gave birth to Bezaleel.
21. And afterward Hezron slept with the daughter of Machir the father of Gilead: and he took her when he was threescore years old, and she bare him Segub.
22. And Segub begat Jair, which had twenty and three cities in the land of Gilead.
23. And he got out of the same Geshur, and Aram, the villages of Jair, and Kenath with her daughters, threescore cities. These are all the children of Machir the father of Gilead.
24. And it came to pass after the death of Hezron in Caleb Ephrathah, that Hezron left Abijah his wife, which bare him Ashur the father of Thekoah.
25. And Jerahmeel the first son of Hezron had children; the first Ram, and Bunah, and Oren, and Ozem, and Ahijah.
26. And Jerahmeel had another wife, whose name was Atara; she was the mother of Onam.
27. And the sons of Ram the firstborn of Jerahmeel were: Maaz, Jamin, and Eker.
28. And Onam had children, Samai and Jada. But the children of Samai are: Nadab and Abishur.
29. And the name of Abishur's wife was Abihail, and she bare him Achban and Molid.
30. And the children of Nadab are: Seled and Appaim; and Seled died without children.
31. The children of Appaim are Jesei. The children of Jesei are Sesan. The children of Sesan are Ahelai.
32. And the sons of Jadah the brother of Samai were: Jether and Jonathan: but Jether died without children.
33. And the children of Jonathan are: Peleth and Sasa. These are the children of Jerahmeel.
34. And Sheshan had not sons, but daughters. And Sesan had an Egyptian servant, whose name was Jarha.
35. And Sheshan gave Jarha his servant his daughter to wife, and she bare him Athai.
36. Athai begat Nathan. Nathan begat Sabad.

37. And Shabad begat Ephlal. Ephlal begat Obed.
 38. Obed begat Jehu. Jehu begat Azariah.
 39. Azariah begat Halez. Halez begat Eleasa.
 40. Eleasa begat Sissemmai. Sissemmai begat Sallum.
 41. Sallum begat Jekamia. Jekamia begat Elisama.
 42. The sons of Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel: Meshah his first son, which is the father of Ziph; and the sons of Maresah the father of Hebron.
 43. And the children of Hebron are: Korah; Thapuah, Rekem, and Sama.
 44. And Sama begat Raham the father of Jarkaam. And Rekem begat Samai.
 45. And the name of the son of Samai was Maon: and Maon was the father of Bethzur.
 46. And Ephah the concubine of Caleb bare Haran, and Moza, and Gases. And Haran begat Gases.
 47. And the sons of Jahdai are: Regem, Jotham, Gesan, Pelet, Ephah, and Saaph.
 48. And Maechah the concubine of Caleb bare Seber and Thirhenah; 49. And she bare also Saaph the father of Madmannah, and Sheva the father of Machbenah, and the father of Gibeah. But Achsah was Caleb's daughter.
 50. These were the sons of Caleb; Hur the firstborn of Ephrathah; Shobal the father of Kiriathjearim;
 51. Salma, the father of Bethlehem; Hareph, the father of Beth-Gader.
 22. And Shobal the father of Kiriathjearim had sons, who saw half of Manuhoth.
 53. And the friends of Kiriathjearim were the Jethites, and the Puthites, and the Sumathites, and the Mizraites. From these are the Zaregathites and the Esthaolites.
 54. The children of Salma are Bethlehem, and the Netophathites, the crown of the house of Joab, and half of the Manahthites of the Zareith.
 55. And the friends of the scribes that dwelt in Jabez were the Thireathites, and the Shimeathites, and the Sukhathites. These are the children that came from Hamath the father of Beth-rechab.

(1 Chronicles)

Chapter 3

Register of the Kings of Judah.

1. These are the sons of David, which were born unto him in Hebron: the first Amnon, by Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; the second Daniel, by Abigail the Carmelitess; 2. The third Absalom the son of Maechah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur: the fourth Adonijah the son of Haggith;

3. The fifth, Shaphatiah, by Abital; the sixth, Jethream, by his wife Eglah.

4. These six were born unto him in Hebron: for there he reigned seven years and six months: but in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years.

5. And these were born unto him at Jerusalem; Shimea, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, the four of them, of the daughter of Shua the daughter of Ammiel;

6. In addition Jebehar, Elisama, Eliphalet,

7. Noga, Nepheg, Japia,

8. Elisama, Eliada, Eliphalet, the nine.

9. These are all the children of David, without the children of the concubines. And Tamar was their sister.

10. Solomon's son was Rehoboam; Abiah his son; Asa his son; Jehoshaphat his son; 11. His son was Joram; his son was Ahaziah; his son was Joash;

12. His son was Amaziah; his son was Azariah; his son was Jotham; 13. His son was Ahaz; his son was Hezekiah; his son was Manasseh; 14. His son was Amon; his son was Josiah.

15. And Josiah's sons were, the first Johanan, the second Jehoiakim, the third Zidekiah, the fourth Shallum.

16. And the sons of Jehoiakim were Jechaniah; and his son was Zidekiah.

17. And the sons of Jechaniah, which was taken captive, were: Sealthiel,

18. Malchiram, Phadaiah, Senneazar, Jecamiah, Hosama, Nedabiah.

19. The children of Phadaiah were: Zerubbabel and Shimei. The children of Zerubbabel were: Meshullam, and Hananiah, and Selomith their sister;

20. And Hasuba, Ohel, Berechiah, Hashadiah, Jusab-hesed, the five of them.

21. And the sons of Hananiah were: Platiah, and Jesaiah; whose son was Rephaiah, whose son was Arnan, whose son was Obadiah, whose son was Zechaniah.

22. And the sons of Zechaniah were Shemaiah. And the sons of Shemaiah were: Hattus, Jegeal, Bariah, Neariah, Shaphat, the six.

23. And the sons of Neariah were: Elioenai, Hezekiah, Azrikam, the three.

24. And the sons of Elioenai were: Hodaiah, Eliasib, Plaiah, Akub, Johanan, Delaiah, Anani, the seven.

(1 Chronicles)

Chapter 4

Descendants of Judah.

1. The children of Judah were: Perez, Hezron, Karmi, Hur and Sobal.

2. And Reaiah the son of Shobal begat Jahath. Jahath begat Ahumai and Lahad. These are the friendships of the Zaregathites.

3. And this is the tribe of the father Etam; Jezreel, and Jezma, and Jedbas: and their sister's name was Hazlelponi;

4. And Pnuel the father of Gedor, and Ezer the father of Husah. These are the sons of Hur the firstborn of Ephrathah the father of Bethlehem.

5. And Ashur the father of Thekoa had two wives, Helleah and Naera.

6. And Naera bare him Ahusam, and Hephher, and Themni, and Ahastari. These are the children of Naera.

7. But the children of Helleah were: Zereth, Jezohar and Ethnan.

8. And Koz begat Anub, and Hazobeba, and the friendship of Aharhel the son of Harum.

9. And Jaebez was more glorious than his brethren: and his mother called his name Jaebez, because she said: I have born him with sorrow.

10. And Jaebez called upon the God of Israel, and said, Wherefore thou wilt bless me, and enlarge my border, and thy hand shall be with me, and wilt deal with evil, that it trouble me not. And God sent, and he asked.

11. And Calub the brother of Shuhah begat Mehir, who is the father of Esthon.

12. And Esthon begat Beth-rapha, and Paseah, and Thehinnah the father of the city of Nahash; these are the men of Rechah.

13. And the sons of Kenah were: Athniel and Seraiah. And the sons of Athniel were Hathath.

14. And Meonothai begat Ophrah. And Seraiah begat Joab the father of the valley of the carpenters: for they were carpenters.
15. And the sons of Caleb the son of Jephunneh were: Jru, Ela, and Naam. And the sons of Elah were Kenaz.
16. And the sons of Jehaleleel were: Ziph, Ziphah, Tirya, and Azareel.
17. And the sons of Ezra were: Jether, Mered, Ephraim, and Jalon; and Tahar with Miriam, Samai, Jezbath the father of Esthemoa.
18. And Judiah his wife bare Jered the father of Gedor, Heber the father of Shochai, Jekuthiel the father of Sanoah. These are the sons of Bithiah the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mered took.
19. The sons of the wife of Hodiah the sister of Naham the father of Keilah: Garmi and Esthemoa the Maechathite.
20. And the sons of Simon were: Amnon, Rinnah, and Ben-hanan, Thilon. The children of Jesse were: Sheth, and the Ben-Sheth.
21. And the sons of Selah the son of Judah were: He the father of Lechah, Laadah the father of Maresah, and the friendship of the linen weavers under the house of Azbath;
22. And Jokim, and the men of Coseba, and Joash, and Saraph, which were fathers of the house in Moab, and Jashubi in Lahem; as the old saying is.
23. They were potters, and dwelt under plants and fences with the king in his business: and they came and sojourned there.

(1 Chronicles)

Chapter 5

Races of Simeon.

24. The sons of Simeon were: Nemuel, Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, Saul;
25. His son was Shallum; his son was Mibsam; his son was Misha.
26. And the sons of Mishma were Hamuel; his son was Zachur; his son was Shimei.
27. And Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters; and his brethren had not many children: but all their friends multiplied not as the children of Judah.
28. And they dwelt at Beer-sheba, and at Molada, and at Hazar-sual, 29. Bilha, Ezem, Tholad,
30. Bethuel, Harma, Ziklag,
31. Beth-marchaboth, Hazar-susim, Beth-birei, Saaraim. These were their cities, save David the king.

32. And their villages by Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Thochan, Asan, the five cities.
33. And all the villages that were round about these cities, even unto Baal, that is their dwelling, and their families among them.
34. And Mesobab, and Jamlech, and Joshah the son of Amaziah.
35. Joel, Jehu the son of Josibiah; the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel,
36. Elioenai, Jaekobah, Jezoahiah, Asaiah, Adiel; Ishmeel and Benaiah,
37. And Ziza the son of Sophei, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Zimri, the son of Shemaiah.
38. These became princes of note in their families of the house of their fathers, and divided themselves according to the multitude.
39. And they went, and came to Gedor, until the east of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks.
40. And they found fat pasture, and good pasture, and a land far from space, quiet, and rich: for there dwelt before the people of Ham.
41. And they which are now described by name came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and smote the tents and dwellings that were found there, and utterly destroyed them unto this day, and dwelt in their stead: for there was pasture there for sheep.
42. And of them, of the sons of Simeon, went five hundred men unto mount Seir, with their captains, Platiah, and Neariah, and Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Jezei, 43. And they smote the remnant that were left of the Amalekites, and dwelt there unto this day.

(1 Chronicles)

Chapter 6 (otherwise 5th)

Of Ruben, Gad and Manasseh.

1. The children of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel; for he was the firstborn, but because he defiled his father's bed, his firstborn was given to the children of Joseph, the son of Israel: and he was not counted for the firstborn;
2. For Judah, which was mighty among his brethren, to him was given the principality before him, and to Joseph the firstborn.)
3. Now these are the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel; Hanoah, and Pallu, and Hezron, and Carmi.
4. And the sons of Joel were Shemaiah; and his son was Gog; and his son was Shimei; 5. His son was Micah; his son was Reaiah; his son was Baal;

6. His son was Beerah, whom Tiglathpilneser king of Assyria carried away captive: and he was a prince among the Reubenites.

7. But his brethren of his families, when they were numbered among their generations, had for heads Jeiel and Zechariah.

8. And Bela the son of Asan, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, dwelt in Aroer, and unto Nebo and Baal-meon;

9. And they dwelt toward the east, until they came to the wilderness by the river Phrath: for their cattle were many in the land of Gilead.

10. And in the days of Saul they made war against the Hagarites, and they fell by their hand, and dwelt in those tents against all the east coast of Gilead.

11. And the children of Gad dwelt against them in the land of Bashan unto Salcah.

12. Joel the chief, and Shapham the other, Jaenai and Shaphat in Bashan.

13. And their brethren of the house of their fathers were: Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jaekan, Shia, and Eber, the seven.

14. These are the sons of Abihail the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jesai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Bus.

15. And Ahi the son of Abdiel the son of Guni was a captain in the house of their fathers; 16. And they dwelt in Gilead in Bashan, and in her daughters, and in all the suburbs of Saron, unto the end thereof.

17. All these were reckoned in the days of Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.

18. And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, which were valiant men, able to bear shields and swords, and to draw bows, and to fight, were forty and four thousand and seven hundred and threescore, that went forth to battle.

19. And when they fought with the Hagarites, Jetur, Naphtes, and Nodab helped them.

20. And the Hagarites were given into their hand, and all that was with them. For they cried unto GOD in battle; and he was entreated, because they trusted in him.

21. And they led away their cattle, five thousand camels, two hundred and fifty thousand sheep, two thousand asses, and an hundred thousand men's souls.

22. For there fell many wounded: for the battle was of GOD. And they dwelt in their stead until the time that they were taken captive.

23. And the children of the half tribe of Manasseh dwelt in the land from Bashan unto Baalhermon, and Senir, and mount Hermon: and they were many.

24. And these were the heads of the house of their fathers; Ephraim, Jesei, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, Jahdiel; mighty men of valour, and heads of renown in the house of their fathers.

25. And when they had sinned against the God of their fathers, and had whored after the idols of the nations of the land, which God had destroyed before them, then they sinned against the God of their fathers,

26. And the God of Israel raised up the spirit of Phul king of Assyria, and the spirit of Tiglathpilneser king of Assyria, and carried away the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, and brought them unto Halah, and Habor, and Hara, and unto the river Gozan, unto this day.

(1 Chronicles)

The 7th chapter (otherwise 6th)

Number and dwelling of the. Children of Levi and Aaron.

1. The children of Levi were: Gershom, Kahath and Merari.

2. And the sons of Kohath were: Amram, Jezechar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

3. The sons of Amram were: Aaron, Moses, and Miriam. The children of Aaron were: Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

4. Eleazar begat Phinehas. Phinehas begat Abishua.

5. Abishua begat Buki. Buki begat Ushi.

6. Uzzi begat Seraiah. Seraiah begat Meraioth.

7. Meraioth begat Amariah. Amariah begat Ahitob.

8. Ahitob begat Zadok. Zadok begat Ahimaaz.

9. Ahimaaz begat Azariah. Azariah bore witness to Johanan.

10. Johanan begat Azariah the priest of the house which Solomon built in Jerusalem.

11. Azariah begat Amariah. Amariah bore witness to Ahitob.

12. Ahitob begat Zadok. Zadok begat Shallum.

13. Shallum begat Hilkiah. Hilkiah begat Azariah.
14. Azariah begat Seraiah. Seraiah begat Jozadak.
15. And Jehozadak was carried away with them, when the LORD carried away captive Judah and Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar.
16. Now therefore the sons of Levi are these: Gershom, Kahath, Merari.
17. And these are the names of the sons of Gershom; Libni and Shimei.
18. And the names of the sons of Kohath are Amram, and Jezechar, and Hebron, and Uzziel.
19. The sons of Merari; their names are Maheli and Musi. These are the families of the Levites under their fathers.
20. And the son of Gershom was Libni, and the son of Jahath, and the son of Shimon; 21. His son was Joah; his son was Iddo; his son was Zerah; his son was Jeathrai.
22. And Kohath's son was Amminadab; and his son's son was Korah; and his son's son was Assir;
23. His son was Elkanah; his son was Abiassaph; his son was Assir; 24. His son was Tahath; his son was Uriel; his son was Uziah; his son was Saul.
25. The sons of Elkanah were Amasai and Ahimoth;
26. His son was Elkanah; his son was Elkanah of Zoph; his son was Nahath; 27. His son was Eliab; his son was Jeroham; his son was Elkanah; 28. His son was Samuel; his firstborn was Vasni, and Abijah.
29. Merari's son was Maheli; his son was Libni; his son was Shimei; his son was Uzzah; 30. And his son's son was Shimea; and his son's son was Haggiah; and his son's son was Asaiah.
31. And these are they which David set to sing in the house of the LORD, where the ark rested; 32. And they ministered before the tabernacle of the congregation with singing, until Solomon had built the house of the LORD in Jerusalem: and they continued in their service after their manner.
33. And these are they that tarried, and their children. Of the sons of Kohath was Heman the singer, the son of Joel, the son of Samuel,
34. The son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel, the son of Toah, 35. The son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai, 36. The son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah, 37. The son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Abiasaph, the son of Korah, 38. The son of Jezehar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel.

39. And Assaph his brother stood on his right hand. And Assaph was the son of Berechiah the son of Simea,

40. The son of Michael, the son of Baiseiah, the son of Malchijah, 41. The son of Athni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah,

42. The son of Ethan, the son of Shima, the son of Simei,

43. The son of Jahath, the son of Gershom, the son of Levi.

44. And their brethren the sons of Merari were on the left hand: namely, Ethan the son of Cushi, the son of Abdi, the son of Malluch,

45. The son of Hashabiah, the son of Amaziah, the son of Hilkiah.

46. The son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Samer,

47. The son of Maheli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi.

48. And their brethren the Levites were given to do all manner of work in the tabernacle of the house of the LORD.

49. And Aaron and his sons were in charge to burn upon the altar of burnt offering, and upon the altar of incense, and to do all the business in the most holy place, and to make an atonement for Israel, as Moses the servant of GOD commanded.

50. And these are the sons of Aaron; Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son; 51. His son was Buki; his son was Uzzi; his son was Zerahiah;

52. His son was Meraioth; his son was Amariah; his son was Ahitob; 53. His son's name was Zadok; his son's name was Ahimaaz.

54. And this is their dwelling place, and their habitation within their borders, even the children of Aaron, of the family of the Kohathites: for the lot fell upon them.

55. And they gave them Hebron in the land of Judah, and the suburbs thereof round about.

56. And the field of the city, and the villages thereof, gave they unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

57. And they gave unto the children of Aaron the cities of refuge, Hebron, and Libnah, and their suburbs; Jather, and Esthemoa, and their suburbs,

58. Hilen, Debir,

59. Asan and Beth-shemes with their suburbs;

60. And of the tribe of Benjamin, Geba, and Alemeth, and Anathoth, with their suburbs: all the cities of their family were thirteen.

61. And the rest of the sons of Kohath of their family, of the half tribe of Manasseh, were given ten cities by lot.

62. And unto the sons of Gershon of their family, out of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the tribe of Manasseh, were thirteen cities in Bashan.

63. And unto the sons of Merari of their family were given by lot out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.

64. And the children of Israel also gave unto the Levites cities with their suburbs, 65. Namely, by lot, out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, and out of the tribe of the children of Benjamin, the cities which they had appointed by name.

66. But unto the families of the children of Kohath were cities of their border out of the tribe of Ephraim.

67. And they gave unto them, even to the family of the other sons of Kohath, the free cities, Shechem in mount Ephraim, and Gezer.

68. Yakmeam, Beth-horon,

69. ajalon and gath-rimon with their suburbs;

70. And of the half tribe of Manasseh, Aner and Balaam with their suburbs.

71. And to the children of Gershon they gave out of the family of the half tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan, and Ashtaroth with her suburbs.

72. Of the tribe of Issachar: Kedes, Dabrath,

73. Ramoth and Anem with their suburbs.

74. from the tribe of Asher: Masal, Abdon,

75. Hukok and Rehob with their suburbs.

76. of the tribe of Naphtali: Kedesh in Galilee, Hammon, and Kiriathaim with their suburbs.

77. And to the rest of the sons of Merari they gave out of the tribe of Zebulun, Rimmono and Tabor with their suburbs;

78. And on the other side Jordan toward Jericho, toward the sunrising at Jordan, of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer in the wilderness, Jahaz,

79. Kedemoth and Mepaath with their suburbs.

80. from the tribe of Gad: Ramoth in Gilead, Mahanaim,

81. Hesbon and Jaeser with their suburbs;

(1 Chronicles)

Chapter 8 (otherwise 7th)

Genealogical registers of the six remaining tribes of Jacob.

1. The children of Issachar were: Thola, Puah, Jasub and Simron, the four.

2. And the sons of Tola were: Uzzi, and Rephaiah, and Jeriel, and Jahemai, and Jebsam, and Samuel, heads of the house of their fathers of Tola, and mighty men of their seed, in number in the days of David twenty and two thousand and six hundred.

3. The children of Uzzi were Jezraiah. But the children of Jesrajas were: Michael, Obadiah, Joel, and Isaiah the five, and were all heads.

4. And with them in their generations, in the house of their fathers, were armed hosts to battle thirty and six thousand: for they had many wives and children.

5. And their brethren in all the families of Issachar, mighty men, were eighty and seven thousand, and were all numbered.

6. And the sons of Benjamin were: Bela, Becher, and Jediael, the three.

7. But the children of Bela were: Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Jerimoth, and In, the five, heads of the house of the fathers, mighty men. And were numbered twenty and two thousand and thirty and four.

8. The sons of Becher were: Shemira, Joash, Eliezer, Elioenai, Amri, Jerimoth, Abiah, Anathoth, and Alameth: all these were the children of Becher.

9. And were numbered in their families after the heads of the house of their fathers, mighty men, twenty thousand and two hundred.

10. And the sons of Jediael were Bilhan. And Bilhan's children were: Jens, Benjamin, Ehud, Knaena, Sethan, Tharsis, and Ahisahar.

11. All these were the sons of Jediael, heads of the fathers, mighty men, seventeen thousand two hundred, that went out to battle.

12. And Shupim and Hupim were the sons of Ir; and Hushim was the son of Aher.

13. And the sons of Naphtali were: Jahziel, Guni, Jezer and Sallum, children of Bilha.

14. And the sons of Manasseh were these: Esriel, whom Aramiah his concubine bare: and he begat Machir the father of Gilead.

15. And Machir gave wives unto Hupim and unto Supim: and his sister's name was Maechah.

And his other son's name was Zelaphehad; and Zelaphehad had daughters.

16. And Maechah the wife of Machir bare a son, and called his name Peresh: and his brother's name was Shares: and his sons were Ulam and Rakem.

17. And the son of Ulam was Bedan. These are the sons of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh.

18. And Molecheth his sister bare Ishud, and Abiezer, and Mahela.

19. And Shemida had these children, Ahjan, and Sichern, and Likhi, and Aniam.

20. The sons of Ephraim were these: Suthelah; whose son was Bered; whose son was Tahath; whose son was Eleadah; whose son was Tahath;

21. His son's name was Shabad; his son's name was Shuthelah; his son's name was Ezer and Elead. And the men of Gath, the inhabitants of the land, slew them, because they went down to take their cattle.

22. And Ephraim their father mourned a long time: and his brethren came to comfort him.

23. And he slept with his wife, and she conceived, and bare a son, and called his name Bria: because it was evil in his house.

24. And his daughter Seerah, which built the lower and the upper Bethhoron, and Uzzah Seerah.

25. His son was Rephah and Reseph; his son was Thelah; his son was Thahan; 26. His son was Laedan; his son was Ammihud; his son was Elishama; 27. His son was Nun; his son was Joshua.

28. And their possession and their habitation was Bethel, and their daughters; and toward the east Naeran, and toward the west Gezer, and their daughters; and Shechem, and her daughters, unto Azza, and her daughters.

29. And in the children of Manasseh, Bethshean and her daughters, Taenah and her daughters, Megiddo and her daughters, Dor and her daughters. In these dwelt the children of Joseph the son of Israel.

30. The children of Asher were these: Jemnah, Jezva, Jezwi, Bria, and Zerah their sister.

31. And the sons of Bria were: Heber and Malchiel, which is the father of Birzavith.

32. And Heber begat Japhlet, and Somer, and Hotham, and Sua their sister.
33. The children of Japhelet were: Passover, Bimehal, and Ashvath; these were the children of Japhelet.
34. And the sons of Somer were: Ahi, Rahga, Jehuba and Aram.
35. And the sons of his brother Helem were: Jophah, Jemnah, Seles, and Amal.
36. And the children of Zophah were: Suah, Harnepher, Sual, Beri, Jemra, 37. Bezer, Hod, Sama, Silsa, Jethran and Beera.
38. The children of Jether were: Jephunneh, Phispa, and Ara.
39. And the sons of Ullah were: Arah, Haniel and Riziah.
40. These were all the sons of Asher, heads of the house of their fathers, chosen men of valour, and heads of princes. And they were numbered in the host to the battle, according to their number, twenty and six thousand men.

(1 Chronicles)

Chapter 9 (otherwise 8th)

The house of Benjamin and Saul.

1. And Benjamin begat Bela his first son, and Asbal his second, and Ahrah his third, 2. Noha the fourth, Rapha the fifth.
3. And Bela had children; Addar, and Gera, and Abihud,
4. Abisua, Naeman, Ahoah,
5. Gera, Sephuphan and Huram.
6. These are the sons of Ehud, which were heads of the fathers of the inhabitants of Geba, and went away to Manahath:
7. Namely, Naaman, Ahijah, and Gera, he led them away; and he begat Uzzah and Ahihud.
8. And Saharaim bare witness in the land of Moab (when he had sent them away) of Husim and Baerah his wives.
9. And he testified of Hodes his wife, Jobab, Zibiah, Mesa, Malcham, 10: Jeuz, Zechiah, and Mirma. These are his children, heads of the fathers.
11. And from Husim he begat Abitob and Elpaal.
12. And the sons of Elpaal were: Eber, Miseam and Samed. And he built Ono, and Lod, and their daughters.
13. And Bria and Sama were heads of the fathers among the people of Aijalon; they drove out those of Gath.
14. But Ahjo, Sasak, Jeremoth,

15. Zebadiah, Arad, Ader,
16. Michael, Jespa, and Joha; which are the children of Bria.
17. Zebadiah, Meshullam, Hezeki, Heber,
18. Jesmerai, Jeslia, Jobab; these are the children of Elpaal.
19. Jakim, Sichri, Sabdi,
20. Elioenai, Zilthai, Eliel,
21. Adaiah, and Braiah, and Zimrath; these are the sons of Shimei.
22. Jespan, Eber, Eliel,
23. Abdon, Sichri, Hanan,
24. Hananiah, Elam, Anthothiah,
25. Jephdeiah and Pnuel; these are the sons of Shazak.
26. Samzerai, Sehariah, Athaliah;
27. Jaeresiah, and Elijah, and Zichri: they are the sons of Jeroham.
28. These are the heads of the fathers of their families, which dwelt at Jerusalem.
29. And in Gibeon dwelt the father of Gibeon; and his wife's name was Maechah.
30. And his first son was Abdon, Zur, Kish, Baal, Nadab,
31. Gedor, Ahjo and Secher.
32. And Mikloth begat Shimea; and they dwelt with them against their brethren at Jerusalem.
33. Ner begat Kish. Kish begat Saul. Saul begat Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab, and Esbaal.
34. And the son of Jonathan was Meribaal. Meribaal begat Micah.
35. And the sons of Micah were: Pithon, Melech, Thaerea and Ahaz.
36. And Ahaz begat Joaddah. And Joadda begat Alemeth, and Asmaveth, and Zimri. Simri begat Moza.
37. Moza begat Binea; his son's son was Rapha; his son's son was Eleasa; his son's son was Azel.
38. And Azel had six sons, whose names were Esrikam, and Bochrui, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan. They were all the sons of Azel.
39. And the sons of Ezek his brother were: Ulam his first son, Jeus the other, Eliphelet the third.
40. And the sons of Ulam were mighty men, and skilled with bows: and they had many sons, and sons of sons, an hundred and fifty. All these are of the children of Benjamin.

(1 Chronicles)

Chapter 10 (otherwise 9th)

Inhabitants of Jerusalem and Gibeon.

1. And all Israel were reckoned, and, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah, and are now carried away to Babylon for their iniquity, 2. Who dwelt before in their goods and cities, even Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, and the Nethinims.

3. And there dwelt at Jerusalem some of the children of Judah, and some of the children of Benjamin, and some of the children of Ephraim and Manasseh.

4. Namely, of the sons of Perez the son of Judah was Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Amri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani.

5. And of Shiloni, Asaiah the first son, and his other sons.

6. Of the children of Zerah: Jeguel and his brethren, six hundred and ninety.

7. Of the sons of Benjamin; Shallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Haznua;

8. And Jebneiah the son of Jeroham; and Elah the son of Uzzi the son of Michri; and Meshullam the son of Shephatiah the son of Reguel the son of Jebneiah.

9. And their brethren in their families, nine hundred and fifty and six. All these men were heads of the fathers in the house of their fathers.

10. And of the priests, Jedaiah, and Jehoiarib, and Jachin;

11. And Azariah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, a prince in the house of GOD;

12. And Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchiah; and Maesai the son of Adiel, the son of Jachzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer.

13. And their brethren, heads of the house of their fathers, a thousand seven hundred and threescore men of valour in the work of the service of the house of God.

14. And of the Levites, of the sons of Merari; Shemaiah the son of Hashub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah.

15. And Bakbakar the carpenter, and Galal, and Mathaniah the son of Micah, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph.
16. And Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun; and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, which dwelt in the villages of the Netophathites.
17. And the porters were: Shallum, Akub, Talmon, Ahiman with their brothers, and Shallum the chief.
18. For hitherto at the king's gate toward the going up had waited the children of Levi with camps.
19. And Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Abiassaph, the son of Korah, and his brethren of his father's house, the Korhites, in the business of the tabernacle, waited at the threshold of the tabernacle; and their fathers in the camp of the LORD waited for the entrance.
20. And Phinehas the son of Eleazar was ruler over them, because the LORD had been with him before.
21. And Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was keeper of the gate of the tabernacle of the congregation.
22. All these were chosen to be keepers of the threshold, two hundred and twelve, which were numbered in their villages. And David and Samuel the seer established them by their faith, 23. That they and their children should keep the house of the LORD, even the house of the tabernacle, to keep it.
24. And there were such porters set against the four winds; against the east, and against the west, and against the north, and against the south.
25. And their brethren were in their villages, to come in every seventh day, to be with them always.
26. For the Levites were trusted unto these four chief porters, and they were over the chests and treasures of the house of God.
27. And they tarried for the night round about the house of God: for it behoved them that they should rise up every morning.
28. And some of them were over the instruments of the ministry: for they numbered them out and in.
29. And some of them were appointed over the vessels, and over all the holy vessels, over fine flour, and over wine, and over oil, and over incense, and over burnt incense.
30. But the children of the priests made some of the incense.

31. And Mathithiah of the Levites, the first son of Shallum the Korhite, was trusted with the pans.

32. And of the Kohathites, their brethren, the shewbread was to be prepared, and they prepared it all the sabbath day.

33. These are the singers, the chief of the fathers of the Levites, set apart over the castes: for they were in the business day and night.

34. These are the heads of the fathers of the Levites in their families. These dwelt at Jerusalem.

35. And Jeiel the father of Gibeon dwelt at Gibeon; and his wife's name was Maechah, 36. And his first son Abdon, Zur, Kis, Baal, Ner, Nadab, 37. Gedor, Ahjo, Zechariah, Mikloth.

38. And Mikloth begat Simeam; and they also dwelt about their brethren at Jerusalem among their own.

39. And Ner bare witness unto Kish. And Kish begat Saul. And Saul begat Jonathan, and Malchishua, and Abinadab, and Esbaal.

40. And the son of Jonathan was Meribaal. And Meribaal begat Micah.

41. And the sons of Micah were: Pithon, Melech and Thaherea.

42. Ahaz begat Jaera. Jaera begat Alemeth, Asmaveth, and Simri. Simri begat Moza.

43. Moza begat Binea; his son's son was Raphaiah; his son's son was Eleasa; his son's son was Azel.

44. And Azel had six sons, whose names were: Azrikam, Bochrui, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, Hanan: these are the sons of Azel.

(1 Chronicles)

Chapter 11 (otherwise 10th)

Saul's downfall in battle against the Philistines.

1. And the Philistines fought against Israel: and they of Israel fled from before the Philistines: and the slain fell upon the mount.

2. But the Philistines went after Saul and his sons after them, and smote Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua, Saul's sons.

3. And the battle was sore against Saul; and the archers came upon him, and he was wounded of the archers.

4. And Saul said unto his armourbearer, Put forth thy sword, and thrust me therewith, lest these uncircumcised come and deal shamefully with me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid. So Saul took his sword and fell on it.

5. And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on the sword, and died.

6. So Saul died, and his three sons, and all his house at the same time.

7. And when the men of Israel that were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities, and fled: and the Philistines came and dwelt within.

8. And the next morning the Philistines came to strip the slain, and found Saul and his sons lying in mount Gilboa;

9. And they stripped him, and put on his head, and on his weapons, and sent him abroad into the land of the Philistines, and proclaimed it before their idols, and before the people; 10. And they put his weapons in the house of their god, and they pinned his skull to the house of Dagon.

11. And all they that were at Jabesh in Gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul,

12. And they arose, all the valiant men, and took the body of Saul and of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the oak of Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

13. So Saul died in his iniquity, which he had done against the LORD, in the word of the LORD, which he kept not, even that he asked the soothsayer

14. And asked not the LORD: therefore he slew him, and turned the kingdom to David the son of Jesse.

(1 Chronicles)

Chapter 12 (otherwise 11th)

Anointing of David as king. His dwelling and contending heroes.

1. And all Israel gathered themselves to David unto Hebron, and said, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh.

2. Even in the days of old, when Saul was king, thou leddest out and broughtest in Israel. Thus hath the LORD thy God spoken unto thee: Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be ruler over my people Israel.

3. And all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron. And David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD. And they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD by Samuel.

4. And David went, and all Israel, unto Jerusalem, which is Jebus: for the Jebusites dwelt in the land.

5. And the men of Jebus said unto David, Thou shalt not come in. And David took the castle of Zion, that is, David's city.

6. And David said, He that smiteth the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain. And Joab the son of Zeruiah was the first that smote them, and was captain over them.

7. And David dwelt in the castle: therefore it is called the city of David.

8. And he built the city round about, from Millo even round about. And Joab let the remnant live in the city.

9. And David continued and increased; and the LORD of hosts was with him.

10. These are the chief of the mighty men of David, which kept themselves honestly with him in his kingdom among all Israel, to make him king according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

11. And this is the number of the mighty men of David: Jashabeam the son of Hachmoni, the chiefest of thirty; he lifted up his spear, and smote three hundred at one time.

12. After him was Eleazar the son of Dodo the Ahohite: and he was of the three valiant men.

13. This was with David, when they spake a scorn, and the Philistines were gathered there to battle. And there was a piece of ground full of barley: and the people fled from before the Philistines.

14. And they stood in the midst of the piece, and delivered it, and smote the Philistines. And the LORD gave great salvation.

15. And the three of the thirty captains went down to the rock to David, unto the cave of Adullam. But the camp of the Philistines was in the bottom of Rephaim.

16. And David was in the castle, and the Philistine people were at Bethlehem at that time.

17. And David longed, and said, Who will give me drink of the water of the well of Bethlehem under the gate?

18. And the three of them went into the camp of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, which was under the gate, and bare it, and brought it unto David. And he would not drink it, but poured it out unto the LORD.

19. And he said, Let this thing be far from me, that I should do this thing, and drink the blood of these men in the course of their life: for they brought it with the course of their life.

Therefore he would not drink it. So the three heroes did.

20. And Abishai the brother of Joab was chief among three: and he took up his spear, and slew three hundred. And he was famous among three,

21. And he the third, more glorious than the two, and was chief of them: but he came not nigh unto the three.

22. Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of Ishail, of great works, of Kabzeel. He smote two lions of Moab; and went down, and smote a lion in the midst of the well in the snowy season.

23. He smote also an Egyptian man, which was five cubits high, and had a spear in his hand like a weaver's beam. But he went down to him with a stick, and took the spear out of his hand, and slew him with his own spear.

24. This did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and was famous among three mighty men; 25. And he was the most glorious of the thirty: but he came not nigh unto the three. But David made him a secret counsellor.

26. The contending heroes are these: Asahel the brother of Joab. Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem.

27. Samoth the Harorite. Helez the Pelonite.

28. Ira the son of Eke the Thekite. Abieser the Anthothite.

29. Sibechai the Hushathite. Ilai the Ahohite.

30. Maherai the Netophathite. Heled the son of Baenah the Netophathite.

31. Ithai the son of Ribai, of Gibeah of the children of Benjamin. Benaiah the Pirgathonite.

32. Hurai, of the streams of Gaash. Abiel, the Arbathite.

33. Asmaveth the Baherumite. Eliahba the Saalbonite.

34. The children of Hazem the Gisonite. Jonathan the son of Sag, the Hararite.

35. Ahiam the son of Zechar the Hararite. Eliphal the son of Urs.

36. Hopher the Macherathite. Ahijah the Pelonite.

37. Hezro the Carmelite. Naerai the son of Azbai.

38. Joel the brother of Nathan. Mibehar the son of Hagri.

39. Zelek the Ammonite. Naherai the Berothite, armorbearer of Joab the son of Zeruiah.

40. Ira the Jethrite. Gareb the Jethrite.
 41. Uriah the Hittite. Sabad the son of Ahelai.
 42. And Adina the son of Sisha the Reubenite, a captain of the Reubenites, and thirty were under him.
 43. Hanan the son of Maechah. Jehoshaphat the Mathonite.
 44. Uzziah the Astrathite. Sama and Jaiel, the sons of Hotham the Aroerite.
 45. Jediael the son of Zimri. Joha his brother the Thizite.
 46. Eliel the Mahevite. Jeribai and Josaviah the sons of Elnaam. Jethma the Moabite.
 47. Eliel, Obed, Jaesiel of Mezobaya.
- (1 Chronicles)

Chapter 13 (otherwise 12th)

David's succor to contentious men.

1. These also came to David to Ziklag, when he was yet shut up from Saul the son of Kish. And they also were among the mighty men that helped the battle.
2. And were skillful with bows in both hands, upon stones, and upon arrows, and upon bows. Of the brethren of Saul, which were of Benjamin:
3. The chief of them Ahiezer, and Joash, the sons of Samaa the Gibeathite; Jeziel and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth; Barachah and Jehu the Anthothite.
4. Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, mighty among thirty, and above thirty. Jeremiah, Jahesiel, Johanan, Jehozabad the Gederathite.
5. Eleusai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Samariah, Shaphatiah, the Harophite.
6. Elkanah, Isaiah, Azareel, Joeser, Jazabeam, the Korhites.
7. Joelah and Zabadijah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor.
8. And of the Gadites there came out to David to the fortress of the wilderness strong men of valour, and men of war, bearing shield and spear, and their faces as the lions, and swift as the roes of the mountains:
9. The first Ezer, the second Obadiah, the third Eliab,
- 10: the fourth Masmanna, the fifth Jeremiah,
11. the sixth Athai, the seventh Eliel,
12. The eighth Johanan, the ninth Elsabad,
13. The tenth Jeremiah, the eleventh Machbanai.

14. These were of the children of Gad, heads of the host; the least over an hundred, and the greatest over a thousand.

15. These are they which passed over Jordan in the first month, when it was full on both sides, and all the bottoms were even, both toward the east, and toward the west.

16. And there came also of the children of Benjamin and of Judah unto the castle of David.

17. And David went out unto them, and answered and said unto them, If ye come in peace to me, and to help me, my heart shall be with you: but if ye come in guile, and be against me, when there is no iniquity in me, the God of our fathers look upon it, and punish it.

18. And the spirit went unto Amasai the captain of thirty: Thine are we, David, and with thee we hold, O son of Jesse. Peace, peace, be unto thee. Peace be to your helpers, for your God helps you. And David took them, and set them for heads over the men of war.

19. And of Manasseh fell to David, when he came to battle with the Philistines against Saul, and helped them not. For the lords of the Philistines sent him away with counsel, saying: If he fall unto Saul his master, it shall cost us our necks.

20. And it came to pass, as he went to Ziklag, that there fell unto him of Manasseh Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jediael, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zilthai, heads of thousands in Manasseh.

21. And they helped David against the men of war: for they were all mighty men of valour, and were captains over the host.

22. And every day there came to David to help him, until there was a great host, as the host of God.

23. And these are the number of the heads of the armies that came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul unto him, according to the word of the LORD.

24. Of the children of Judah that bare shield and spear were six thousand and eight hundred armed for the army;

25. Of the children of Simeon, mighty men of valour for an army, seven thousand and an hundred;

26. Of the children of Levi, four thousand and six hundred;

27. And Jehoiada the prince of them of Aaron, with three thousand and seven hundred; 28. Zadok the lad, an honest man, with his father's house, twenty and two captains; 29. And of the sons of Benjamin, Saul's brethren, three thousand: for there were yet many of them in the house of Saul unto that time;

30. Of the children of Ephraim, twenty thousand and eight hundred, mighty men of valor, and mighty men of renown in the house of their fathers.

31. Of the half tribe of Manasseh, eighteen thousand, which were called by name, to come and make David king;

32. of the cattle of Issachar, which had understanding, and counselled whatsoever Israel should do at any time, two hundred captains: and all their brethren followed their word.

33. Of Zebulun, which went forth to battle, armed with all manner of weapons to battle, fifty thousand, to be set in order with one accord;

34. Of Naphtali, a thousand captains, and with them that bare shield and spear thirty and seven thousand;

35. And of Dan armed for battle twenty and eight thousand six hundred; 36. Of Asher, which went forth into the army prepared for battle, forty thousand; 37. From beyond Jordan, of the Reubenites, and of the Gadites, and of the half tribe of Manasseh, with all manner of weapons to battle, an hundred and twenty thousand.

38. All these men of war, to set the stuff in order, came to Hebron with all their heart to make David king over all Israel. And all the rest of Israel were of one heart to make David king.

39. And they were there with David three days, eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them.

40. And they that were nigh unto them, even unto Issachar, Zebulun, and Naphtali, brought bread to eat upon asses, and upon camels, and upon mules, and upon oxen, and upon flour, and upon figs, and upon raisins, and upon wine, and upon oil, and upon oxen, and upon sheep: for there was joy in Israel.

(1 Chronicles)

Chapter 14 (Otherwise 13th)

Obtaining and collecting the federal government's ark.

1. And David held a council with the captains over thousands and over hundreds, and with all the princes.

2. And he said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it please you, and if it be of the LORD our God, let us send us abroad unto the rest of our brethren throughout all the coasts of Israel, and with them the priests and the Levites that are in the suburbs of the cities, that they may be gathered unto us;

3. And let us bring again the ark of our God unto us: for in the days of Saul we asked not for it.

4. Then said all the congregation that it should be so done: for it pleased all the people.

5. So David gathered all Israel together, from Sihor of Egypt even unto Hemath, to take the ark of God from Kiriathjearim.

6. And David went up with all Israel to Kiriathjearim, which is in Judah, to bring up thence the ark of the LORD God, which sitteth upon the cherubims, where the name is called.

7. And they caused the ark of God to be carried in a new chariot, of the house of Abinadab. And Uzzah and his brother drove the chariot.

8. And David and all Israel played before God with all their might, with songs, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.

9. And when they were come into the place of Chidon, Uzzah put forth his hand to bear the ark: for the oxen went out by the way side.

10. And the wrath of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah, and smote him, because he stretched out his hand unto the ark, and died there before God.

11. And David was grieved that the LORD had made such a breach in Uzzah: and he called the name of the place Perez-uzah unto this day.

12. And David was afraid of God that day, and said, How shall I bring the ark of God unto me?

13. Therefore he brought not the ark of God unto him into the city of David, but directed it unto the house of Obededom the Gittite.

14. So the ark of God abode with Obededom in his house three months. And the LORD blessed the house of Obededom, and all that he had.

(1 Chronicles)

Chapter 15 (otherwise 14th)

David's wives and children. Victory against the Philistines.

1. And Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers unto David, and cedar wood, and masons, and carpenters, to build him an house.

2. And David perceived that the LORD had confirmed him king over Israel: for his kingdom rose up because of his people Israel.

3. And David took more wives at Jerusalem, and begat more sons and daughters.
4. And they that were born unto him in Jerusalem were called Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, Elpalet, Jebegar, Elishua Nogah, Nepheg Japhiah.
7. Elisama, Baeljada, Eliphalet.
8. And when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, they all went up to seek David. And when David heard it, he went out against them.
9. And the Philistines came and settled in the valley of Rephaim.
10. And David asked God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines, and wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto him, Go up; I have delivered them into thine hand.
11. And they went up to Baalprazim, and David smote them there. And David said, God hath divided mine enemies by mine hand, as the waters are divided. Therefore they called the name of the place Baalprazim.
12. And they left their gods there, and David burned them with fire.
13. But the Philistines set to work again, and lay low in the valley.
14. And David asked God again; and God said unto him, Thou shalt not go up after them, but turn away from them, that you come to them against the mulberry trees.
15. And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt hear the sound of the mulberry trees going up, that thou shalt go forth to battle: for God is gone forth before thee to smite the Philistine army.
16. And David did as God commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gazer.
17. And David's name went forth throughout all the earth, and the LORD put his fear upon all the nations.

(1 Chronicles)

Chapter 16 (otherwise 15th)

The Ark of the Covenant is brought to its place.

1. And he built houses for him in the city of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and spread a tabernacle over it.
2. Then said David, No man shall bear the ark of God, save the Levites: for the LORD hath chosen them to bear the ark of the LORD, and to minister unto him for ever.

3. Therefore David gathered all Israel together unto Jerusalem, that they might bring up the ark of the LORD into the place which he had prepared for it.

4. And David brought the children of Aaron and the Levites in multitude: 5. Of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and his brethren, an hundred and twenty; 6. Of the sons of Meran, Asaiah the chief, and his brethren, two hundred and twenty, 7. Of the sons of Gershon, Joel the chief, and his brethren, an hundred and thirty; 8. Of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, and his brethren, two hundred; 9. Of the children of Hebron, Eliel the chief, and his brethren, fourscore; 10. Of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twelve, 11. And David called Zadok, and Abiathar the priests, and the Levites, namely, Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, Amminadab, 12. And he said unto them: Ye are the chief of the fathers among the Levites: sanctify yourselves therefore, and your brethren, that ye bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel, whither I have prepared it; 13. For in time past, when ye were not there, the LORD our God made a breach among us, because we sought him not as we ought. 14. So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves, to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.

15. And the children of Levi bare the ark of God upon their shoulders with the staves thereof, as Moses commanded according to the word of the LORD.

16. And David spake unto the chief of the Levites, that they should make their brethren singers with strings, and with psalteries, and with harps, and with cymbals, that they should sing aloud with joy.

17. And the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel, and Assaph the son of Berechiah out of his brethren, and Ethan the son of Kushaiah out of the sons of Merari their brethren; 18. And with them their brethren of the other part; Zechariah, Ren, Jaeshiel, Shemiramoth, Jeiel, Uni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maeshiah, Mathithiah, Elipheleiah, Micneiah, Obededom, Jeiel, the porters.

19. For Heman, and Assaph, and Ethan, were singers, with cymbals of brass to sound brightly; 20. And Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maesiah, and Benaiah, to sing after with psalteries;

21. And Mathithiah, and Elipheleiah, and Mikneiah, and Obbededom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah, with harps of eight strings, to sing unto them;
22. And Chenaniah the chief of the Levites, the master of the singing, taught them to sing: for he had understanding.
23. And Berechiah and Elkanah were keepers of the ark.
24. And Shebaniah, and Jehoshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, blew with trumpets before the ark of God: and Obbededom and Jehiah were porters of the ark.
25. So David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the house of Obbededom with joy.
26. And when God had helped the Levites that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, they offered seven bullocks and seven rams.
27. And David was clothed in linen, and all the Levites that bare the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the songs, with the singers: David also was clothed in linen.
28. So all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, with trumpets, and with drums, and with cymbals, and with psalteries, and with harps.
29. And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD was come into the city of David, Michal Saul's daughter looked out at the window. And when she saw king David leaping and playing, she despised him in her heart.

(1 Chronicles)

Chapter 17 (otherwise 16th)

David's song of praise and order of worship.

1. And when they had brought in the ark of God, they set it in the tabernacle which their David had pitched, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God.
2. And when David had offered the burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD.
3. And he divided unto every man of Israel, both man and woman, a loaf of bread, and a piece of flesh, and a cup of wine.
4. And he set before the ark of the LORD certain of the Levites to be ministers, to praise, and to thank, and to extol the LORD God of Israel:

5. Assaph the first, Zechariah the second, Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mathithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-edom, and Jeiel, with psalteries and harps; and Assaph with cymbals; 6. And Benaiah and Jehaziel the priests with trumpets at all times before the ark of the covenant of God.

7. At that time David first commanded to give thanks unto the LORD by Assaph and his brethren:

8. Give thanks unto the LORD, preach his name, make known his doings among the nations.

9. Sing unto him, and play unto him, and sing unto him of all his wonders.

10. Glorify his holy name. Let the heart of them that seek the LORD rejoice.

11. Inquire of the LORD, and of his power; seek his face always.

12. Remember his wonders which he hath done, his miracles, and his word, 13. Ye the seed of Israel his servant, ye the children of Jacob his elect.

14. He is the LORD our God: he judgeth in all the earth.

15. Remember his covenant for ever, which he hath promised unto a thousand generations, 16. Which he made with Abraham, and of his oath with Isaac;

17. And established the same unto Jacob for a law, and unto Israel for an everlasting covenant; 18. And said, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance, 19. Because they were few and lowly, and strangers within.

20. And they went from nation to nation, and from one kingdom to another people.

21. He suffered no man to harm them, and punished kings for their sakes.

22. Touch not mine anointed, and do not harm my prophets.

23. Sing unto the LORD, all ye countries; proclaim his salvation daily.

24. Declare his glory among the heathen, and his wonders among the nations.

25. For the LORD is great, and almost praiseworthy, and glorious above all gods.

26. For all the gods of the heathen are idols: but the LORD hath made heaven.

27. It is glorious and splendid before him; it is mighty and merry in his place.

28. Bring unto the LORD, ye nations; bring unto the LORD glory and power.

29. Bring glory to the name of the LORD; bring gifts, and come before him, and worship the LORD in holy array.

30. Let all the earth fear him. He hath prepared the ground, that it should not be moved.

31. Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; and let it be said among the nations that the LORD reigneth.

32. Let the sea roar, and all that is therein; and let the field be glad, and all that is therein.

33. And let every tree of the forest shout for joy before the LORD: for he cometh to judge the earth.

34. Give thanks unto the LORD: for he is good, and his mercy endureth for ever.

35. And say, Help us, O God our Saviour, and gather us together, and deliver us from among the heathen, that we may give thanks unto thy holy name, and praise thee.

36. Blessed be the LORD God of Israel for ever and ever: and let all the people say, Amen; and praise the LORD.

37. So there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD he made Assaph and his brethren to minister before the ark every day according to their daily work; 38. And Obbedom and their brethren threescore and eight, and Obbedom the son of Jeduthun, and Hossa, for porters.

39. And Zadok the priest, and his brethren the priests, left he before the tabernacle of the LORD in the high place at Gibeon,

40. And they shall offer burnt offerings unto the LORD daily upon the altar of burnt offering east and west, as it is written in the law of the LORD, which he commanded Israel; 41. And with them Heman, and Jedithun, and the rest of the chosen men that were called by name, to give thanks unto the LORD, that his mercy endureth for ever; 42. And with them Heman and Jedithun, with drums and cymbals to sound, and with stringed instruments of GOD. And the children of Jedithun he made keepers of the gate.

43. So all the people went every man to his house: and David also returned to bless his house.

(1 Chronicles)

Chapter 18 (otherwise 17th)

David's temple building is stopped, the Messiah is promised.

1. And it came to pass, when David dwelt in his house, that he said unto Nathan the prophet, Behold, I dwell in a house of cedar, and the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under the carpets.

2. And Nathan said unto David, All that is in thine heart do: for GOD is with thee.

3. But the same night the word of God came unto Nathan, saying:

4. Go and tell David my servant, Thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not build me an house to dwell in.

5. For I have not dwelt in any house from the day that I brought out the children of Israel unto this day: but I have been in the tabernacle, and in the tabernacle.

6. When I walked throughout all Israel, I said also unto the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people, saying: Why build ye not me an house of cedars?

7. Say therefore therefore unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I have taken thee from the pasture behind the sheep, that thou shouldest be ruler over my people Israel; 8. And I have been with thee whithersoever thou wentest, and have cut off thine enemies from before thee, and have made thee a name, as the great men of the earth have names.

9. And I will set a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell there, and shall be moved no more: and the wicked men shall weaken them no more, as at the first.

10. And in the days when I commanded the judges over my people Israel; and I will humble all thine enemies: and I declare unto thee, that the LORD will build thee an house.

11. And it shall come to pass, when thy days be expired, that thou shalt go to thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed after thee, which shall be one of thy sons, and I will establish his kingdom.

12. He shall build me an house, and I will establish his throne for ever.

13. I will be his father, and he shall be my son. And I will not turn my mercy from him, as I turned it from him that was before thee,

14. But I will set him in my house and in my kingdom for ever: and his throne shall be established for ever.

15. And it came to pass, after all these words and vision, that Nathan spake unto David, 16. And king David came and stood before the LORD, and said, Who am I, O LORD GOD, and what is my house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

17. And this hath not yet pleased thee, O God: but thou hast spoken of the house of thy servant, and of things to come: and thou hast looked upon me as in the likeness of a man that is on high, O God the LORD.

18. What more shall David say unto thee, that thou hast made thy servant glorious? Thou knowest thy servant.

19. O LORD, for thy servant's sake, according to thine own heart hast thou done all these great things, to make known all glory.

20. O Lord, there is none like thee, neither is there any god but thee, of whom we have heard with our ears.

21. And where is there a nation upon the earth like thy people Israel, where a God is gone to redeem a people unto him, and to make him himself a name of great and terrible things, to cast out nations from before thy people, whom thou redeemedst out of Egypt?

22. And thou hast made thy people Israel thy people for ever: and thou, O LORD, art become their God.

23. Now therefore, O LORD, let the word which thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, be true for ever; and do as thou hast said.

24. And let thy name be true and great for ever, that it may be said, The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, is God in Israel. And let the house of thy servant David be established before thee.

25. For thou, O LORD, hast opened the ear of thy servant, to build him an house: therefore thy servant hath found to pray before thee.

26. Now, O LORD, thou art God, and hast spoken such good things unto thy servant.

27. Now therefore begin thou to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be established before thee for ever: for that which thou blessest, O LORD, is blessed for ever.

(1 Chronicles)

Chapter 19 (otherwise 18th)

David appoints officers after wars happily fought.

1. After this David smote the Philistines, and humbled them, and took Gath and her daughters out of the hand of the Philistines.
2. And he smote Moab also, so that Moab became servants unto David, and brought gifts.
3. And he smote Hadarezer king of Zobah in Hemath, when he went to set up his mark by the river Phrath.
4. And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand men of foot. And David lamed all the chariots, and kept an hundred chariots.
5. And the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadarezer king of Zobah. But David smote the same Syrians twenty and two thousand men.
6. And they sent people to Damascus in Syria; and the Syrians became servants unto David, and brought him gifts. For the LORD helped David whithersoever he went.
7. And David took the shields of gold that were in Hadarezer's servants, and brought them to Jerusalem.
8. David also took of the cities of Hadarezer, Tibhath, and Chun, a great deal of brass, whereof Solomon made the brazen sea, and pillars, and vessels of brass.
9. And when Togu king of Hemath heard that David had slain all the power of Hadarezer king of Zobah
10. And he sent Hadoram his son unto king David, and saluted him, and blessed him, because he had fought with Hadarezer, and smitten him. For Thogu had a quarrel with Hadarezer. And all the vessels of gold, and of silver, and of brass.
11. King David sanctified unto the LORD the silver and gold which he had taken from the heathen, even from the Edomites, and from the Moabites, and from the Ammonites, and from the Philistines, and from the Amalekites.
12. And Abishai the son of Zeruiah smote of the Edomites in the valley of salt eighteen thousand;
13. And put people in Edomaea, that all the Edomites were servants unto David. For the LORD helped David whithersoever he went.
14. So David reigned over all Israel, and administered judgment and justice unto all his people.

15. And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the void; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was chancellor.

16. Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Abimelech the son of Abiathar, were priests. Sausa was a scribe.

17. Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Krethi and Plethi. And the first sons of David were at the king's hand.

(1 Chronicles)

Chapter 20 (otherwise 19th)

David takes revenge on the taunting Ammonites.

1. And after these things died Nahash king of the children of Ammon, and his son reigned in his stead.

2. And David said, I will shew mercy unto Hanon the son of Naha: for his father hath shewed mercy unto me. And he sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. And the servants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon unto Hanon to comfort him, 3. And the princes of the children of Ammon said unto Hanon, Dost thou think that David will honour thy father in thy sight, because he hath sent comforters unto thee? Yea, his servants are come unto thee to search, and to return, and to search the land.

4. And Hanon took David's servants, and shod them, and cut off half their garments even to the loins, and sent them away.

5. And they went away, and told David by men. And he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly defiled. And the king said, Tarry ye at Jericho, till your beard be grown; and come again.

6. And when the children of Ammon saw that they stank before David, they sent, both Hanon and the children of Ammon, a thousand talents of silver, chariots, and horsemen, out of Mesopotamia, and out of Maechah, and out of Zobah.

7. And there were thirty and two thousand chariots, and king Maechah and his people: and they came and pitched before Medbah. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves also out of their cities, and came to battle.

8. And when David heard it, he sent Joab with all the host of the mighty men.

9. And the children of Ammon went out, and prepared themselves to battle before the gate of the city. And the kings that were come kept the battle in the field.

10. And when Joab saw that there was war against him before and behind, he chose out of all the young men of Israel, and armed himself against the Syrians.

11. And the rest of the people he put under the hand of Abishai his brother, to prepare themselves against the children of Ammon.

12. And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, come to my help: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, I will help thee.

13. Be of good cheer, and let us be of good cheer for our people, and for the cities of our God.

Let the LORD do what pleases him!

14. And Joab came near with the people that were with him to fight against the Syrians: and they fled before him.

15. And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians fled, they fled also from Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. And Joab came to Jerusalem.

16. And when the Syrians saw that they were smitten before Israel, they sent messengers, and brought out the Syrians that were beyond the river. And Shophach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them.

17. And it came to pass, when it was told David, that he gathered all Israel together, and passed over Jordan: and when he came to them, he armed himself against them. And David armed himself against the Syrians to battle, and they fought with him.

18. But the Syrians fled before Israel. And David slew of the Syrians seven thousand chariots, and forty thousand men of foot: and he slew Shophach the captain of the host.

19. And when the servants of Hadarezer saw that they were smitten before Israel, they made peace with David and with his servants. And the Syrians would not help the children of Ammon any more.

(1 Chronicles)

Chapter 21 (otherwise 20th)

David's war and victory against the Ammonites and Philistines.

1. And it came to pass, when the year was expired, at the time that kings go forth, that Joab led the host, and spoiled the land of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed at Jerusalem. And Joab smote Rabbah, and brake it in pieces.

2. And David took the crown of their king from off his head, and found thereon a talent of gold, and precious stones: and it was set upon David's head. And he brought out of the city a great deal of spoil.
3. And he brought out the people that were within, and divided them with saws, and with hooks of iron, and with wedges. So did David to all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and the people returned unto Jerusalem.
4. After this there was a battle in Gaser with the Philistines. Then Sibechai the Hushathite smote Sibai, which was of the children of the giants, and humbled him.
5. And there was yet a battle with the Philistines. And Elhanan the son of Jair smote Lahemi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, which had a spear like a weaver's beam.
6. And again there was a controversy in Gath. There was a great man who had six fingers and six toes, making twenty-four, and he was born of giants;
7. And he honoured Israel. But Jonathan the son of Simea, David's brother, smote him.
8. These were born of the giants of Gath, and fell by the hand of David and his servants.

(1 Chronicles)

Chapter 22 (otherwise 21st)

Three-day pestilence caused by counting the people.

1. And Satan stood against Israel, and admitted David to number Israel.
2. And David said unto Joab, and to the rulers of the people, Go, number Israel from Beersheba even unto Dan, and bring them unto me, that I may know how many they are.
3. And Joab said, The LORD do unto his people, as they are now, an hundred times as much: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? Why then doth my lord ask it? Why shall there be iniquity upon Israel?
4. And the king's word went out against Joab. And Joab went out, and walked through all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.
5. And he gave the number of the people that were numbered unto David. And there were of all Israel eleven hundred thousand men that drew sword, and Judah four hundred thousand, and seventy thousand men that drew sword.

6. And Levi and Benjamin he numbered not among them: for the king's word was abomination to Joab.

7. But these things displeased God: for he smote Israel.

8. And David said unto God, I have sinned greatly in doing this: now therefore take away the iniquity of thy servant, because I have done almost foolishly.

9. And the LORD spake unto Gad the Philistine of David, saying:

10. Go and speak unto David, and say, Thus saith the LORD, I set before thee three things; choose thee one that I do unto thee.

11. And when Gad was come to David, he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Choose thee 12. Either three years' torment, or three months' flight from thine adversaries, and from the sword of thine enemies, to take thee; or three days the sword of the LORD, and pestilence in the land, to destroy the angel of the LORD throughout all the coasts of Israel. Now therefore see what answer I shall give unto him that sent me.

13. And David said unto Gad: I am almost afraid; but I will fall into the hand of the LORD, for his mercy is very great; and I will not fall into the hands of men.

14. Then the LORD sent pestilence upon Israel, and seventy thousand men fell out of Israel.

15. And God sent the angel to Jerusalem to destroy them. And when the LORD saw the destruction, he repented him of the evil, and said unto the angel that destroyed, It is enough; stay thine hand. And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshingfloor of Arnan the Jebusite.

16. And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of the LORD standing between heaven and earth, and a naked sword stretched out in his hand over Jerusalem. And David and the ancients, covered with sackcloth, fell upon their faces.

17. And David said unto God, Am not I he that numbered the people? I am he that hath sinned, and done evil: but these sheep, what have they done? O LORD my God, let thy hand be against me, and against my father's house, and not against thy people to afflict them.

18. And the angel spake unto Gad, that he should tell David to go up, and to set up an altar unto the LORD in the threshingfloor of Arnan the Jebusite.

19. So David went up according to the word of Gad, which he spake in the name of the LORD.

20. And Arnan, when he turned, and saw the angel, and his four sons with him, hid themselves: for Arnan threshed wheat.

21. And it came to pass, when David went to Arnan, that Arnan saw and knew David, and went out of the threshingfloor, and worshipped David with his face to the ground.

22. And David said unto Arnan, Give me a place in the threshingfloor, that I may build an altar unto the LORD upon it: for full money shalt thou give it me, that the plague of the people may cease.

23. And Arnan said unto David, Take thee, and do, my lord the king, as it pleaseth thee: behold, I give the ox for a burnt offering, and the crockery for wood, and the wheat for a meat offering: all these I give.

24. And king David said unto Arnan, Not so, but for a full price will I buy it: for I will not take that which is thine before the LORD, neither will I have it for a free burnt offering.

25. So David gave Arnan for the room of gold by weight six hundred shekels.

26. And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. And when he called upon the LORD, he heard him by fire from heaven upon the altar of burnt offering.

27. And the LORD spake unto the angel, that he should put up his sword into his sheath.

28. At that time, when David saw that the LORD had heard him in the place of Arnan the Jebusite, he used to sacrifice there.

29. For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering, were at that time in Gibeon on high.

30. But David could not go before them to seek God, because he was afraid of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

Ch. 23, v. 1: And David said, Here shall be the house of the LORD God, and this the altar of the burnt offering of Israel.

(1 Chronicles)

Chapter 23 (otherwise 22nd)

Necessary preparation for the building of the temple.

2. And David commanded to gather together the strangers that were in the land of Israel, and to appoint masons to hew stones to build the house of God.
3. And David prepared much iron for nails for the doors of the gates, and that which was to be nailed, and so much brass as was not to be weighed;
4. Also cedar wood without number: for they of Zidon and Tyre brought much cedar wood unto David.
5. For David said, Solomon my son is a boy, and tender: but the house that shall be built for the LORD shall be great, and his name and his fame shall be exalted throughout all the earth: therefore will I provide for him. So David made much provision before his death.
6. And he called Solomon his son, and commanded him to build the house of the LORD God of Israel.
7. And said unto him, My son, I had it in mind to build an house unto the name of the LORD my God.
8. But the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Thou hast shed much blood, and hast made great wars: thou shalt not therefore build an house unto my name, because thou hast shed so much blood upon the earth before me.
9. Behold, the son that shall be born unto thee shall be a quiet man: for I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be Solomon: for I will give peace and quietness unto Israel all the days of his life.
10. He shall build an house for my name. He shall be my son, and I will be his father. And I will confirm his royal throne over Israel for ever.
11. Now therefore, my son, the LORD be with thee, and thou shalt be blessed to build an house unto the LORD thy God, as he hath spoken of thee.
12. The LORD also shall give thee wisdom and understanding, and shall command thee Israel, that thou keep the law of the LORD thy God.
13. But then shalt thou be blessed, if thou keep thyself to do the commandments and the statutes which the LORD Moses commanded Israel. Be of good courage, and be not afraid: fear not, neither be dismayed.
14. Behold, I have brought in my poverty unto the house of the LORD an hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver, and brass and iron without number; for they are too much for him. I have also sent wood and stones: thou mayest make more.

15. So hast thou many workmen, stonemasons, and carpenters, of stone and wood, and all manner of workmen, of all manner of work,

16. Of gold, and silver, and brass, and iron, without number. Arise thou, therefore, and set it right: the LORD will be with thee.

17. And David commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son.

18. Is not the LORD your God with you, and hath given you rest round about? For he hath delivered the inhabitants of the land into your hand, and the land is lodged before the LORD, and before his people.

19. Set your hearts therefore, and your souls, to seek the LORD your God. And arise, and build unto the LORD God a sanctuary, to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and the holy vessels of the LORD, into the house that is to be built unto the name of the LORD.

Ch. 24. v. 1. So David made Solomon his son king over Israel, when he was old and full of life.

(1 Chronicles)

Chapter 24 (otherwise 23rd)

The Levites number, order and office.

2. And David gathered together all the princes of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, 3. And they numbered the Levites from thirty years old and upward: and their number was from head to head of strong men thirty and eight thousand.

4. Of whom were appointed twenty and four thousand to do the work of the house of the LORD, and six thousand officers and judges.

5. And four thousand keepers of the gate, and four thousand singers of the praises of the LORD with stringed instruments, which I have made to sing praises.

6. And David made order among the children of Levi, namely, among Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari.

7. the Gersonites were: Laedan and Simeai.

8. The children of Laedan: the first Jehiel, Setham, and Joel, the three.

9. And the sons of Simeai were: Solomith, and Hazieli, and Haran, the three. These were the chief of the fathers of Laedan.

10. These also were the sons of Simeai; Jahath, and Sheina, and Jeus, and Biah. These four were also Simeai's children.

11. And Jahath was the first, and Sheina the second. But Jeus and Briah had not many children; therefore they were counted for a father's house.

12. And the sons of Kohath were: Amram, Jezehar, Hebron, and Uzziel, the four.

13. The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses. And Aaron was set apart to be sanctified in the most holy place, he and his sons for ever, to burn incense before the LORD, to minister, and to bless in the name of the LORD for ever.

14. And Moses the man of God's children were called of the tribe of the Levites.

15. And the sons of Moses were Gershom and Eliezer.

16. The sons of Gershom: the first was Zebuel.

17. The sons of Eliezer: the first was Rehabiah. And Eliezer had no other children. But the children of Rehabiah were many.

18. The children of Jezehar were: Solomith the first.

19. The sons of Hebron were: Jena the first, Amariah the second, Jehaziel the third, and Jakmeam the fourth.

20. The children of Uzziel were: Micah the first and Isaiah the other.

21. the children of Merari were: Maheli and Musi. The children of Maheli were: Eleazar and Kis.

22. And Eleazar died, and had no sons, but daughters: and the sons of Kish, their brethren, took them.

23. The children of Musi were: Maheli, Eder, and Jeremoth the three.

24. These are the sons of Levi, of the house of their fathers, and the chief of the fathers, numbered by name among the chief, which did the work of the service of the house of the LORD, from twenty years old and upward.

25. For David said, The LORD God of Israel hath given rest unto his people, and will dwell at Jerusalem for ever.

26. And among the Levites also were numbered the sons of Levi from twenty years old and upward, that they should not bear the tabernacle with all the vessels of their service, 27. but according to the last words of David,

28. That they should stand under the hand of the children of Aaron, to minister in the house of the LORD, in the court, and in the treasuries, and in the washing, and in all the sanctuary, and in all the work of the service of the house of GOD.

29. And for shewbread, and for fine flour, and for a meat offering, and for unleavened cakes, and for a pan, and for roasting, and for every weight and measure;

30. And to stand in the morning, to give thanks, and to praise the LORD; in the evening also; 31. And to offer all the burnt offerings unto the LORD upon the sabbaths, and upon the new moons, and upon the feasts, according to the number thereof, and according to the charge thereof, before the LORD,

32. That they may keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, and of the sanctuary, and of the sons of Aaron their brethren, to minister in the house of the LORD.

(1 Chronicles)

Chapter 25 (otherwise 24th)

Chiefs in the sanctuary and their servants.

1. But this was the order of the children of Aaron. The children of Aaron were: Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

2. But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children. And Eleazar and Ithamar became priests.

3. And David numbered them, Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their number and station.

4. And more of the sons of Eleazar were found to be mighty men of valour than of the sons of Ithamar. And he made them sixteen of the sons of Eleazar captains of their fathers' house, and eight of the sons of Ithamar captains of their fathers' house.

5. And he set them in order by lot, that both of the sons of Eleazar and of Ithamar should be captains in the sanctuary, and captains before God.

6. And Shemaiah the scribe, the son of Nethaneel, of the Levites, described them before the king, and before the princes, and before Zadok the priest, and before Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and before the chief fathers among the priests and Levites; namely, one father's house for Eleazar, and the other for Ithamar.

7. And the first lot fell upon Jehoiarib, and the other upon Jedaiah, 8. the third on Hamm, the fourth on Seorim,

9. The fifth to Malchiah, and the sixth to Mejamin,
 10. The seventh to Hakoz, the eighth to Abia,
 11. The ninth to Jesua, the tenth to Shechaniah;
 12. The eleventh to Eliasib, and the twelfth to Jakim,
 13. The thirteenth on Hupa, the fourteenth on Jesebeab,
 14. the fifteenth on Bilga, the sixteenth on Immer,
 15. the seventeenth on Hesir, the eighteenth on Hapizez,
 16. The nineteenth to Pethahiah, and the twentieth to Jeheskel,
 17. The twenty-first on Jachin, the twenty-second on Gamul,
 18. the twenty-third to Delaiah, the twenty-fourth to Maasia.
 19. This is their order according to their service, to go into the house of the LORD after their manner under Aaron their father, as the LORD God of Israel commanded them.
 20. And of the rest of the sons of Levi, of the sons of Amram, was Shubael. And of the sons of Zubael was Jehdea.
 21. The first of the sons of Rehabiah was Jeziah.
 22. But among the Jezeharites was Slomoth. Among the children of Slomoth was Jahath.
 23. The children of Hebron were: Jena the first, Amariah the second, Jahesiel the third, Jakmeam the fourth.
 24. The children of Uzziel were Micah. Among the children of Micah was Samir.
 25. The brother of Micah was Jeziah. Among the children of Isaiah was Zechariah.
 26. And the sons of Merari were: Maheli and Musi, whose son was Jaesiah.
 27. And the sons of Merari by Jaeshiah his son were: Soham, Sakur and Ibri.
 28. And Maheli had Eleazar; for he had no sons.
 29. from Kis. The children of Kish were: Jerahmeel.
 30. The children of Musi were: Maheli, Eder, and Jerimoth. These are the children of the Levites under their fathers' house.
 31. And they cast lots for them also, beside their brethren the sons of Aaron, before king David, and Zadok, and Ahimelech, and before the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites, even the least of the brethren, and the chief of the fathers.
- (1 Chronicles)

Chapter 26 (otherwise 25th)

Order of the holy singers.

1. And David and the captains of the host separated the prophets from among the sons of Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun, with harps, and psalteries, and cymbals: and they were numbered for the work according to their ministration.
2. Of the sons of Assaph: Zacur, Joseph, Nethaniah, Azarela, sons of Assaph, of Assaph, which prophesied with the king.
3. From Jedithun. The children of Jedithun were: Gedaliah, and Zori, and Jesaiah, and Hashabiah, and Mathithiah, the six of them under Jedithun their father, with harps prophesying to give thanks and praise unto the LORD.
4. From Heman. The children of Heman were: Bukiah, Mathaniah, Uzziel, Zebuel, Jerimoth, Hananiah, Eliatha, Gidalthi, Romamthi-eser, Jazbekasa, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahesioth.
5. These were all the children of Heman, the king's shaker in the words of GOD to lift up the horn; for GOD had given Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.
6. These were all of their fathers, Assaph, Jedithun, and Heman, to sing in the house of the LORD with cymbals, psalteries, and harps, after the service of the house of GOD with the king.
7. And the number of them, and of their brethren that were instructed in the song of the LORD, all of them masters, were two hundred fourscore and eight.
8. And they cast lots for their office at once, both for the least and for the greatest, for the teacher and for the pupil.
9. And the first lot fell upon Joseph from among Asaph. And the second lot fell upon Gedaliah, and upon his brethren, and upon his sons, which were twelve.
10. The third to Sakur, and his sons, and his brethren, which were twelve.
11. The fourth to Jezri, and his sons, and his brethren, which were twelve.
12. The fifth to Nethaniah, and to his sons, and to his brethren, which were twelve.
13. The sixth to Bukiah, and his sons, and his brethren, which were twelve.

14. The seventh to Jezreelah, and his sons and his brethren, which were twelve.
 15. And the eighth, Isaiah, and his sons, and his brethren, which were twelve.
 16. The ninth to Jonathan, and to his sons, and to his brethren, which were twelve.
 17. And the tenth to Shimei, and to his sons, and to his brethren, which were twelve.
 18. The eleventh to Azareel, and his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.
 19. The twelfth to Hashabiah, and to his sons, and to his brethren: they were twelve.
 20. And the thirteenth to Subael, and his sons, and his brethren, which were twelve.
 21. The fourteenth to Mathithiah, and to his sons, and to his brethren, which were twelve.
 22. The fifteenth to Jeremoth, and his sons, and his brethren, which were twelve.
 23. The sixteenth to Hananiah, and to his sons, and to his brethren, which were twelve.
 24. The seventeenth to Jazbekasa, and his sons, and his brethren, which were twelve.
 25. The eighteenth to Hanani, and his sons, and his brethren, which were twelve.
 26. The nineteenth to Mallothi, and his sons, and his brethren, which were twelve.
 27. And the twentieth to Eliatha, and to his sons, and to his brethren, which were twelve.
 28. The twenty and first to Hothir, and to his sons, and to his brethren, which were twelve.
 29. The twenty and second to Gidalthi, and his sons, and his brethren, which were twelve.
 30. The twenty and third to Mahesioth, and his sons, and his brethren, which were twelve.
 31. The four and twentieth of Romamthiezer, and his sons and his brethren, which were twelve.
- (1 Chronicles)

Chapter 27 (otherwise 26th)

Appointment of goalkeepers, treasurers and judges.

1. Of the order of the keepers of the gate. Among the Korhites was Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the children of Assaph.
2. And the sons of Meshelemiah were these; the firstborn Zechariah, the second Jediah, the third Zebadiah, the fourth Jathniel,
3. the fifth Elam, the sixth Johanan, the seventh Elioenai.
4. And the sons of Obededom were these; Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Zechariah the fourth, Nethaneel the fifth,
5. the sixth Ammiel, the seventh Issachar, the eighth Pegulthai; for GOD had blessed him.
6. And unto Shemaiah his son were sons also born, that reigned in the house of their fathers: for they were mighty men of valour.
7. Now the sons of Shemaiah; Athni, and Rephael, and Obed, and Elzabad, whose brethren were diligent men, Elihu, and Samachiah.
8. These were all of the sons of Obededom: they and their sons and their brethren, all men of valour, skilled in the work of the ministry, were threescore and two of Obededom.
9. And Meshelemiah had children, and brethren, industrious men, eighteen.
10. And Hosah of the sons of Merari had children: the chiefest Zimri (for the firstborn was not there; therefore his father made him chief),
11. The second Hilkiah, the third Tebaliah, the fourth Zechariah. All the sons and brethren of Hosah were thirteen.
12. This is the order of the porters among the chief of the mighty in the ministry, beside their brethren, to minister in the house of the LORD.
13. And the lot was cast, both to the small and to the great, under the house of their fathers, unto every gate.
14. And the lot toward the east fell upon Meshelemiah: but unto Zechariah his son, who was a wise counsellor, the lot was cast, and fell upon him toward the north;
15. And Obededom toward the south, and his sons, by the house of Esupim;
16. And Supim and Hossa toward the even, at the gate of the way of the burnt offerings, where the guard standeth by the way of the burnt offerings.

17. In the morning there were six Levites, and in the north of the day four, and in the south of the day four: and in Esupim two and two;
18. at Parbar but towards evening four at the road, and two at Parbar.
19. These are the ordinances of the porters among the children of the Korhites, and among the children of Merari.
20. And of the Levites, Ahijah was over the treasures of the house of God, and over the treasures that were sanctified.
21. Of the children of Laedan, the children of the Gershonites. Of Laedan were chief of the fathers, even the Jehielites.
22. The children of the Jehielites were: Setham and his brother Joel over the treasures of the house of the LORD.
23. Among the Amramites, Jezeharites, Hebronites, and Usielites
24. And Zebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was ruler over the treasures.
25. And Eliezer his brother had a son Rehabiah, whose son was Jeshaiiah, whose son was Joram, whose son was Zichri, whose son was Zelomith.
26. The same Selomith and his brethren were over all the treasures of the sanctified, which king David sanctified, and the chief fathers among the captains over thousands, and over hundreds, and the captains of the host.
27. From strife and spoil they had sanctified it, to repair the house of the LORD.
28. And all that Samuel the seer, and Saul the son of Kish, and Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah, had sanctified, all that was sanctified was under the hand of Selomith and his brethren.
29. And of the Jezeharites, Chenaniah and his sons were without to work over Israel, officers and judges.
30. And among the Hebronites was Hashabiah, and his brethren, diligent men, a thousand and seven hundred, over the ministry of Israel on this side Jordan, toward the even, for all the business of the LORD, and to minister unto the king.
31. Item, among the Hebronites was Jena, the chiefest of the Hebronites of his family among the fathers. And there were sought among them, and found in the fortieth year of the kingdom of David diligent men at Jaesher in Gilead,

32. And their brethren, diligent men, two thousand and seven hundred chief fathers. And David set them over the Reubenites, and over the Gadites, and over the half tribe of Manasseh, for all the dealings of GOD and of the king.

(1 Chronicles)

Chapter 28 (otherwise 27th)

David's field chiefs, princes, officers, and court councillors.

1. And the children of Israel according to their number were heads of the fathers, and more than a thousand, and more than an hundred, and officers that waited upon the king, according to their order, from time to time, every month one, throughout all the months of the year. Each order had twenty-four thousand.

2. Over the first order of the first month was Jashabeam the son of Abdiel: and in his order were twenty and four thousand.

3. And of the sons of Perez was chief over all the captains of the armies in the first month.

4. Over the order of the second month was Dodai the Ahohite, and Mikloth was ruler over his order: and in his order were twenty and four thousand.

5. The third captain of the host of the third month, the chief captain, was Benaiah the son of Jehoiada the priest: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

6. This is Benaiah the hero among thirty and above thirty: and his order was under Ammizabad his son.

7. The fourth in the fourth month was Asahel Joab's brother, and after him Zabadiab his son: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

8. The fifth in the fifth month was Shamhuth the Jezrahite: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

9. The sixth in the sixth month was Ira the son of Ike the Thekite: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

10. The seventh in the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

11. The eighth in the eighth month was Sibechai the Hushathite, of the Sarehites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

12. The ninth in the ninth month was Abiezer the Anthothite, of the sons of Jemini: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

13. The tenth in the tenth month was Maherai the Netophathite, of the Zerahites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

14. The eleventh in the eleventh month was Benaiah the Pirgathonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

15. The twelfth in the twelfth month was Heldai the Netophathite, of Athniel: and in his order were twenty and four thousand.

16. And over the tribes of Israel were these: Among the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri.

And of the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maechah.

17. Among the Levites was Hashabiah the son of Kemuel. Among the Aaronites was Zadok.

18. And under Judah was Elihu of the brethren of David. And under Issachar was Amri the son of Michael.

19. Under Zebulun was Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah. Under Naphtali was Jerimoth the son of Azriel.

20. And of the children of Ephraim was Hosea the son of Azaziah. And of the half tribe of Manasseh was Joel the son of Pedaiah.

21. And of the half tribe of Manasseh in Gilead was Iddo the son of Zechariah. Among Benjamin was Jaesiel the son of Abner.

22. Under Dan was Azareel the son of Jeroham. These are the princes of the tribes of Israel.

23. But David took not the number of them that were twenty years old and under: for the LORD had spoken to multiply Israel as the stars of heaven.

24. And Joab the son of Zeruiah began to number, and finished it not: for there was wrath upon Israel because of it: therefore the number was not written in the book of the chronicles of king David.

25. Over the king's treasure was Azmaveth the son of Adiel: and over the treasures of the land in the cities, in the villages, and in the castles, was Jonathan the son of Uzziah.

26. Over the husbandmen to build the land was Esri the son of Chelub.

27. And over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite. Over the cellars and treasures of wine was Zabdi the Ziphimite.

28. Over the oliveyards and the mulberry trees in the meadows was Baalhanan the Gaderite.

Over the oil treasure was Joash.

29. And over the herds of Saron was Sitrai the Saronite. But over the oxen in Gründen was Shaphat the son of Adlai.

30. Over the camels was Obil the Ishmaelite. Over the asses was Jehediah the Meronothite.

31. And over the sheep was Jasis the Hagarite. These were all rulers over the goods of king David.

32. And Jonathan David's cousin was the counselor, and the steward, and the chancellor. And Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's children.

33. Ahithophel also was the king's counselor. Husai the Arachite was the king's friend.

34. After Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, and Abiathar. And Joab was captain of the king's host.

(1 Chronicles)

Chapter 29 (otherwise 28th)

David's last kingdom day, hired for the building of the temple.

1. And David gathered together unto Jerusalem all the princes of Israel, even the princes of the tribes, and the princes of the orders that waited upon the king, the princes over thousands and over hundreds, the princes over the king's goods and the king's cattle, and his sons, with the stewards, and the men of war, and all the valiant men.

2. And David the king stood upon his feet, and said, Hear me, my brethren and my people. I purposed to build an house, where the ark of the covenant of the LORD should rest, and a footstool for the feet of our God; and I had sent to build it.

3. But God said unto me, Thou shalt not build an house unto my name: for thou art a man of war, and hast shed blood.

4. Now the LORD God of Israel hath chosen me out of all my father's house to be king over Israel for ever. For he hath chosen Judah to be a principality, and in the house of Judah my father's house, and among my father's children, he was pleased with me, to make me king over all Israel.

5. And of all my sons (for the LORD hath given me many sons) he hath chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.

6. And he said unto me: Solomon thy son shall build my house and my court: for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father;

7. And I will establish his kingdom for ever, when he shall endure to do according to my commandments and my statutes, as it is this day.

8. Now therefore before all Israel the congregation of the LORD, and in the ears of our God, keep and seek all the commandments of the LORD your God, that ye may possess the good land, and inherit it for your children after you for ever.

9. And thou, my son Solomon, know the God of thy father, and serve him with all thine heart and with all thy soul. For the LORD searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all thoughts. If thou seek him, thou shalt find him: but if thou forsake him, he will forsake thee for ever.

10. Take heed therefore, for the LORD hath chosen thee to build the house of the sanctuary: be thou confident, and make it.

11. And David gave Solomon his son a pattern of the hall, and of his house, and of the chambers, and of the halls, and of the chambers within, and of the house of the mercy seat; 12. For the pattern of all that was with him in his mind, even of the court of the house of the LORD, and of all the chambers round about, of the treasure of the house of GOD, and of the treasure of the sanctified,

13. The order of the priests, and of the Levites, and of all the service of the house of the LORD.

14. Gold by weight for all manner of vessels of every office, and all manner of silver ware by weight for all manner of vessels of every office.

15. And gold for candlesticks of gold, and for lamps of gold, for every candlestick, and for every lamp thereof, according to his weight: so also for silver candlesticks he gave the silver for the candlestick, and for the lamp thereof, according to the service of every candlestick.

16. And he gave gold for tables of shewbread, and to every table his weight, and silver for tables of silver,

17. And all gold for crosses, and for basons, and for caldrons, and for golden cups, every cup according to his weight, and for silver cups, every cup according to his weight, 18. And for the altar of incense the most precious gold, the weight thereof; also a pattern of the chariot of the cherubims of gold, to spread themselves out, and to cover the ark of the covenant of the LORD above.

19. All things were given me of the hand of the LORD, to instruct me in all the works of the pattern.

20. And David said unto Solomon his son, Be of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be dismayed. God the LORD my God shall be with thee, and shall not withdraw his hand from thee, nor forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work of the service of the house of the LORD.

21. Behold, the order of the priests and of the Levites, unto all the offices of the house of God, are with thee in all thy dealings, and are willing and wise unto all the matters, and the princes, and all the people, unto all thy doings.

(1 Chronicles)

Chapter 30 (otherwise 29th)

Tax for the building of the temple. Solomon's and Zadok's anointing. David's farewell.

1. And king David said unto all the congregation, God hath chosen Solomon, one of my sons, young and tender: but the work is great, because it is not the habitation of man, but of God the LORD.

2. And I have sent out of all my strength unto the house of God gold for gold, and silver for silver, brass for brass, iron for iron, wood for wood, onyx stones, and rubies set in stones, and stones of many colours, and all manner of precious stones, and marble stones in multitude.

3. Above that, for the pleasure of the house of my God, I have goods of my own, gold and silver, 4. Three thousand talents of gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of pure silver: this will I give to the holy house of GOD above all that I have sent to cover the walls of the houses, 5. That that which is gold may be made gold, and that that which is silver may be made silver, and for all manner of work by the hand of the craftsmen. And who then is willing to fill his hand to the Lord this day?

6. There were the princes of the fathers, the princes of the tribes of Israel, the princes over thousands and over hundreds, and the princes over the king's business willingly; 7. And they gave for the service of the house of God five thousand talents of gold, and ten thousand of silver, and ten thousand of silver, and eighteen thousand talents of brass, and an hundred thousand talents of iron.

8. And they that found stones gave them for the treasure of the house of the LORD into the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite.

9. And the people rejoiced that they were free: for they gave it freely unto the LORD with all their heart. And David the king also rejoiced greatly;

10. And he praised God, and said before all the congregation, Blessed art thou, O LORD God of Israel our father, for ever.

11. To thee be majesty, and power, and glory, and victory, and thanksgiving. For all things in heaven and on earth are thine. Thine is the kingdom, and thou art exalted to be supreme over all.

12. Thine is the riches and the honour before thee: thou hast dominion over all things: in thine hand is strength and power; in thine hand is it to make every man great and strong.

13. Now, O our God, we thank thee, and praise the name of thy glory.

14. For what am I? What am my people, that we should have power to give freely, as this is done? For from thee have all things come, and from thy hand have we given them thee.

15. For we are strangers and sojourners before thee, as were all our fathers. Our life upon earth is as a shadow, and is no stay.

16. O LORD our God, all this company, which we have sent to build thee a house for thy holy name, is come from thy hand, and is all thine.

17. I know, O my God, that thou searchest the heart, and sincerity is acceptable unto thee.

Therefore I have freely given all these things out of a sincere heart, and now I have seen with joy your people who are here, that they have freely given to you.

18. O LORD God of our fathers, of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, keep such a mind and thought in the hearts of thy people for ever, and send their hearts unto thee.

19. And give Solomon my son an upright heart, that he may keep thy commandments, and thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and do all these things, and build this tabernacle which I have sent.

20. And David said unto all the congregation, Praise the LORD your God. And all the congregation praised the LORD God of their fathers, and bowed themselves, and worshipped the LORD and the king.

21. And they offered sacrifices unto the LORD. And on the morrow they offered burnt offerings, a thousand bullocks, and a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings: and they offered the multitude among all Israel.

22. And they did eat and drink that day before the LORD with great joy. And the second time they made Solomon the son of David king, and anointed him prince unto the LORD, and Zadok priest.

23. So Solomon sat upon the throne of the LORD, a king in the stead of David his father, and was blessed: and all Israel obeyed him.

24. And all the princes and the mighty men, even all the sons of king David, joined themselves unto king Solomon.

25. And the LORD made Solomon greater and greater in the sight of all Israel, and gave him a praiseworthy kingdom, which none before him had had over Israel.

26. And David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel.

27. And the time that he reigned over Israel was forty years. He reigned in Hebron seven years, and in Jerusalem thirty and three years.

28. And he died in a good old age, full of life, and riches, and honour. And Solomon his son reigned in his stead.

29. Now the acts of king David, both the first and the last, behold, they are written among the acts of Samuel the seer, and among the acts of Nathan the prophet, and among the acts of Gad the seer,

30. With all his kingdom, power, and times, which passed under him, both over Israel, and over all the kingdoms of the countries.

Text of the unrevised Luther Bible 1545:

DeepL English Translation

[Processed by BackToLuther. German text published here.]

The second book of the Chronicle (2 Chronicles) ^

Chapter 1

Solomon's wisdom and wealth.

1. And Solomon the son of David was confirmed in his kingdom: and the LORD his God was with him, and made him greater and greater.

2. And Solomon spake unto all Israel, to the rulers of thousands and hundreds, to the judges, and to all the princes of Israel, to the chief fathers,

3. And they went, Solomon and all the congregation with him, unto the high place that was at Gibeon: for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness.

4. For David had brought up the ark of God from Kiriathjearim, whither he had prepared it: for he had pitched a tabernacle for it in Jerusalem.

5. And the brass altar which Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made was there before the tabernacle of the LORD: and Solomon and the congregation sought it.

6. And Solomon offered upon the brasen altar before the LORD, which was before the tabernacle of the congregation, a thousand burnt offerings.
 7. And that night God appeared unto Solomon, and said unto him, Pray, what shall I give thee?
 8. And Solomon said unto GOD, Thou hast shewed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made me king in his stead;
 9. Now therefore, O LORD God, let thy words be fulfilled in David my father: for thou hast made me king over a people that are as the dust of the earth.
 10. Now therefore give me wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people: for who can judge this thy great people?
 11. And God said unto Solomon, Because thou hast this in mind, and hast not asked for riches, nor for goods, nor for honour, nor for the souls of thine enemies, nor for long life, but hast asked for wisdom and knowledge, that thou mayest judge my people, wherefore I have made thee king,
 12. Then shall wisdom and knowledge be given thee, and I will give thee riches, and wealth, and honour; and there shall not be any like thee among the kings that were before thee, neither shall there be after thee.
 13. So Solomon came from the high place that was at Gibeon unto Jerusalem from the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Israel.
 14. And Solomon gathered him chariots and horsemen, and brought him a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen: and he left them in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.
 15. And the king made the silver and the gold of Jerusalem as much as the stones, and the cedars as the mulberry trees of the valley.
 16. And they brought Solomon horses out of Egypt, and all manner of merchandise. And the king's merchants bought the same merchandise.
 17. And they brought them out of Egypt, a chariot for six hundred pieces of silver, and a horse for an hundred and fifty. So they brought to all the kings of the Hittites, and to the kings of Syria.
- (2 Chronicles)

Chapter 2

Necessary preparation for the construction of the temple.

1. And Solomon purposed to build an house to the name of the LORD, and a house of his kingdom.
2. And he numbered seventy thousand men to the burden, and eighty thousand carpenters in the mount, and three thousand and six hundred officers over them.
3. And Solomon sent unto Hiram king of Tyre, saying, As thou didst unto David my father, and didst send him cedars, to build him an house to dwell in;
4. Behold, I will build an house unto the name of the LORD my God, and it shall be sanctified unto him, to burn incense before him, and to burn shewbread continually, and burnt offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the feasts of the LORD our God for Israel for ever.
5. And the house that I will build shall be great: for our God is greater than all gods.
6. But who can build him an house? For heaven and all the heavens cannot provide for him: who then shall I be that buildeth him an house? But that they should burn incense before him.
7. Send me therefore a wise man to work with gold, and silver, and brass, and iron, and scarlet, and scarlet, and yellow silk, and to dig with the wise men that are with me in Judah and Jerusalem, whom David my father sent.
8. And send me cedar, and fir, and ebony, from Lebanon: for I know that thy servants know how to hew wood in Lebanon. And, behold, my servants shall be with thy servants, 9. That they prepare me much wood: for the house which I shall build shall be great and excellent.
10. And, behold, I will give unto the carpenters, thy servants that hew the timber, twenty thousand measures of thrust wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.
11. Then Hiram king of Tyre spake by writing, and sent unto Solomon, Because the LORD loveth his people, he hath made thee king over them.
12. And Hiram said again, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which made heaven and earth, that he hath given unto David the king a wise son, and a prudent son, and a son of understanding, to build the house of the LORD, and the house of his kingdom.

13. Now therefore I send a wise man that hath understanding, Hiram-Abif, 14. Who is the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a tyrant: who knoweth how to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in stone, and in wood, and in scarlet, and in yellow silk, and in linen, and in scarlet, and in digging all manner of work, and in making all manner of work that shall be set before him, with thy wise men, and with the wise men of my lord king David thy father.

15. Now therefore send my lord wheat, and barley, and oil, and wine, unto his servants, as he hath spoken,

16. And we will hew the timber in Lebanon, as much as is needful; and we will bring it in rafts in the sea unto Japho: thence shalt thou bring it up to Jerusalem.

17. And Solomon numbered all the strangers that were in the land of Israel according to the number which David his father numbered: and there were found an hundred and fifty thousand, three thousand and six hundred.

18. And he made of them seventy thousand porters, and fourscore thousand hewers in the mount, and three thousand and six hundred overseers to keep the people in the service.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 3

Of the building of the temple.

1. And Solomon began to build the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, in mount Moriah, which was pointed out to David his father, which David had prepared for a place in the place of Arnan the Jebusite.

2. And he began to build in the second month of the second day, in the fourth year of his reign.

3. And Solomon laid the foundation to build the house of God: the length of the first was threescore cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

4. And the length of the hall before the breadth of the house was twenty cubits, and the height thereof an hundred and twenty cubits: and he overlaid it within with pure gold.

5. And the great house he sprinkled with fir wood, and overlaid it with the best gold, and made upon it palm trees and chains.
6. And he overlaid the house with precious stones for ornaments: and the gold was the gold of Parvaim.
7. And he overlaid the beams above, and the walls, and the doors, with gold, and carved cherubims upon the walls.
8. He made also the house of the most holy, the length of which was twenty cubits according to the breadth of the house, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and he overlaid it with the best gold, about six hundred talents.
9. And he gave also for nails fifty shekels of gold by weight; and overlaid the halls with gold.
10. He made also in the house of the holy of holies two cherubims after the art of the sculptors, and overlaid them with gold.
11. And the length of the wing of the cherubims was twenty cubits: one wing was five cubits, and touched the wall of the house; and the other wing was five cubits, and touched the wing of the other cherub.
12. And the wing of the other cherub was five cubits, and touched the wall of the house; and the other wing thereof was five cubits, and hung upon the wing of the other cherub, 13. And the wings of the cherubims were spread out twenty cubits: and they stood upon their feet, and their faces were turned toward the house.
14. He made also a curtain of yellow work, and scarlet, and scarlet, and linen; and made cherubims upon it.
15. And he made before the house two pillars thirty and five cubits long; and the top thereof five cubits.
16. And he made chains for the choir, and put them upon the top of the pillars; and he made an hundred pomegranates, and put them upon the chains.
17. And he set up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left: and he called the name of the pillar on the right hand Jachin, and the name of the pillar on the left Boaz.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 4

Of the things belonging to the temple.

1. He made also an altar of brass, twenty cubits long and broad, and ten cubits high.

2. And he made a sea of water ten cubits from the brim to the brim round about, and five cubits high; and a measure of thirty cubits compassed it round about.

3. And the images of oxen were round about him: and there were two bends of the sea round about, ten cubits broad, cast on with them.

4. And it was so upon the twelve oxen, that three were turned toward the north, and three toward the west, and three toward the south, and three toward the east, and the sea was upon them: and all the hindmost of them was within.

5. The thickness thereof was an handbreadth, and the brim thereof was as the brim of a cup, and as a rose sprung up: and it held three thousand baths.

6. And he made ten caldrons, and set five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them the things of the burnt offering, that they should pour them in; and the sea for the priests to wash in.

7. He made also ten candlesticks of gold, as they should be, and set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left.

8. And he made ten tables, and put them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left.

And he made an hundred basins of gold.

9. He made also a court for the priests, and great bars, and doors in the bars; and overlaid the doors with brass.

10. And set the sea on the right corner toward the east southward.

11. And Hiram made pots, and shovels, and basins. So Hiram finished the work he did for King Solomon in the house of God,

12. Namely, the two pillars with the bellies and knops on the top of both pillars, and both coiled hoops to cover both bellies of the knops on the top of the pillars, 13. And the four hundred pomegranates upon the two coiled hoops; two bows of pomegranates upon each hoop, to cover both the bellies of the knobs that were upon the top of the pillars.

14. And he made the chairs, and the cauldrons upon the chairs.

15. And a sea, and twelve oxen under it;

16. And the pots, and the shovels, and the censers, and all the vessels thereof, did Hiram-abif make unto king Solomon for the house of the LORD, of pure brass.

17. And in the coasts of Jordan the king cast them in thick earth, between Shukhoth and Zaredathah.

18. And Solomon made a great number of all these vessels, so that the weight of the brass was not to be searched out.

19. And Solomon made all the vessels of the house of God, the golden altar, and the table, and the shewbread thereon,

20. The candlesticks with their lamps of pure gold, to burn before the choir, as they ought; 21. And the flowers by the lamps, and the snows, were golden; all this was utter gold; 22. And the knives, and the basons, and the spoons, and the bowls, were all gold. And the door of the inner door of the holy of holies, and the door of the house of the temple, were of gold.

Ch. 5, v. 1: Thus was all the work accomplished, which Solomon did in the house of the LORD.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 5

Dedication of the temple started.

And Solomon brought in all that David his father had hallowed, silver, and gold, and all manner of vessels, and put them in the treasury of the house of God.

2. Then Solomon gathered all the elders of Israel, all the captains of the tribes, and the princes of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.

3. And all the men of Israel were gathered together unto the king at the feast, that is, in the seventh month.

4. And all the elders of Israel came. And the Levites lifted up the ark 5. And they brought them up, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, and brought up the priests the Levites with them.

6. But king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel that were gathered unto him before the ark, sacrificed sheep and oxen, so much that no man could count nor reckon.

7. So the priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD into their place, into the choir of the house, into the holy of holies, under the wings of the cherubims, 8. And the cherubims spread forth their wings over the place of the ark: and the cherubims covered the ark and the staves thereof from above. 9. And the staves were so long, that the knobs thereof were seen from the ark that was before the choir; but they were not seen without. And it was there unto this day.

10. And there was nothing in the ark, save the two tables which Moses put therein in Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.

11. And when the priests were gone out of the holy place (for all the priests that were present sanctified themselves, that even the ordinances were not kept),

12. And the Levites with all that were under Assaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun, and their children, and their brethren, clothed in linen, and singing with cymbals, and psalteries, and harps, stood toward the east of the altar: and with them an hundred and twenty priests blowing with trumpets.

13. And it was as if one sounded with a trumpet, and sang, as if one heard a voice, praising and thanking the LORD. And when the voice was lifted up with the trumpets, and with the cymbals, and with other instruments, and with the praises of the LORD, that he is good, and that his mercy endureth for ever, the house of the LORD was filled with a cloud, 14. That the priests could not stand to minister before the cloud: for the glory of the LORD filled the house of GOD.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 6

Dedication of the temple continued.

1. Then said Solomon, The LORD hath spoken to dwell in darkness.

2. For I have built thee an house for thy dwelling, and a tabernacle for thy everlasting habitation.

3. And the king turned his face, and blessed all the congregation of Israel: for all the congregation of Israel stood.

4. And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which spake by his mouth unto David my father, and filled it with his hand, saying:

5. Since the time that I brought my people up out of the land of Egypt, I have not chosen a city in all the tribes of Israel to build an house for my name, neither have I chosen a man to be ruler over my people Israel;

6. But Jerusalem have I chosen, that my name should be there; and David have I chosen, that he should be over my people Israel.

7. And it was in the mind of David my father to build an house unto the name of the LORD God of Israel,

8. And the LORD said unto David my father, Thou hast done well to think to build an house for my name.

9. Yet thou shalt not build the house: but thy son, which shall come out of thy loins, shall build the house for my name.

10. Now therefore the LORD hath confirmed his word which he spake: for I am risen up in the stead of David my father, and sit upon the throne of Israel, as the LORD spake, and have built an house unto the name of the LORD God of Israel,

11. And I have put therein the ark, wherein is the covenant of the LORD, which he made with the children of Israel.

12. And he stood before the altar of the LORD in the sight of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands.

13. For Solomon had made a pulpit of brass, and set it in the midst of the bars, five cubits long and broad, and three cubits high: and he stood upon it, and bowed himself on his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and stretched forth his hands toward heaven.

14. And said, O LORD God of Israel, there is no God like unto thee, in heaven, or in earth; who keepest covenant and mercy unto thy servants that walk before thee with all their heart.

15. Thou hast kept that which thou spakest unto thy servant David my father; with thy mouth hast thou spoken it, and with thine hand hast thou performed it, as it is this day.

16. Now therefore, O LORD God of Israel, keep unto thy servant David my father that which thou hast spoken unto him, saying, There shall not fail thee a man before me to sit on the throne of Israel: but if thy children keep their way, to walk in my law, as thou hast walked before me.

17. Now therefore, O LORD God of Israel, let thy word come to pass, which thou hast spoken unto thy servant David.

18. For thinkest thou that God dwelleth with men upon the earth? Behold, the heavens and all the heavens cannot provide for thee: how then shall the house which I have built?

19. But turn, O LORD my God, unto the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplications, that thou mayest hear the supplication and the prayer which thy servant maketh before thee, 20. That thine eyes may be open upon this house day and night, upon the place where thou hast spoken thy name to set it; that thou mayest hear the prayer which thy servant shall make in this place.

21. Hear therefore the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, which they shall make in this place: hear thou it from the place of thy dwelling from heaven, and when thou hearest it, be gracious.

22. If a man sin against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him, which he shall swear: and the oath shall be before thine altar in this house,

23. Then hear thou from heaven, and do justice unto thy servant, to recompense the wicked, and to give his way upon his head, and to justify the righteous, and to give him according to his righteousness.

24. When thy people Israel are smitten before their enemies, because they have sinned against thee, and are converted, and confess thy name, pray and make supplication before thee in this house,

25. Then hear thou from heaven, and be merciful to the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again into the land which thou gavest them and their fathers.

26. When the heaven is shut up, that it rain not, because they have sinned against thee, and pray in this place, confessing thy name, and turning from their sins, because thou hast humbled them,

27. Then hear thou in heaven, and be merciful to the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, to teach them the good way wherein they should walk, and to rain upon thy land, which thou hast given to thy people to possess.

28. If there be a famine in the land, or pestilence, or drought, or blight, or locusts, or caterpillars; or if his enemy besiege his gates in the land, or any plague or disease: 29. Then whosoever shall ask or make supplication among all men, and among all thy people Israel, if any man feel his affliction or his pain, and spread out his hands unto this house, 30. Then hear thou from heaven, from thy dwelling place, and be gracious, and give to every man according to all his ways, by which thou knowest his heart (for thou only knowest the heart of the children of men),

31. That they may fear thee, and walk in thy ways all the days that they live in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.

32. Though a stranger, which is not of thy people Israel, come from a far country for thy great name, and for thy mighty hand, and for thine outstretched arm, and pray unto this house, 33. Then hear thou from heaven, from thy dwelling place, and do according to all that he calleth unto thee, that all people of the earth may know thy name, and fear thee, as do thy people Israel, and know that this house which I have built is called by thy name.

34. When thy people go out to battle against their enemies by the way which thou shalt send them, and pray unto thee by the way of this city which thou hast chosen, and of the house which I have built for thy name,

35. Then hear thou their prayer and their supplication from heaven, and restore them to their right.

36. If they sin against thee, (for there is no man that sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them up before their enemies, that they may carry them away captives into a far country, or into a near country,

37. And they turn in their hearts in the land wherein they are captives within, and turn and cry unto thee in the land of their captivity, and say: We have sinned, and transgressed, and been ungodly,

38. And they shall turn unto thee with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, where they are carried captive, and shall pray toward the way of their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, and toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house which I have built for thy name,

39. Then hear thou their prayer and their supplication from heaven, from thy dwelling place, and restore them to their right, and have mercy on thy people which have sinned against thee.

40. Therefore, O my God, let your eyes be open and your ears attentive to the prayer in this place.

41. Therefore arise, O LORD God, to your rest, you and the ark of your power! Let your priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation, and your saints rejoice in the good!

42. Thou, O LORD GOD, turn not away the face of thine anointed; remember the mercy promised to thy servant David.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 7

Dedication of the temple completed.

1. And it came to pass, when Solomon had prayed, that fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and other sacrifices.

And the glory of the LORD filled the house,

2. That the priests could not enter into the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD filled the LORD'S house.

3. And all the children of Israel saw the fire come down, and the glory of the LORD upon the house, and fell on their knees with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and gave thanks unto the LORD, because he is good, and his mercy endureth for ever.

4. And the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.

5. For king Solomon offered twenty and two thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep: and they dedicated the house of God, both the king, and all the people.

6. And the priests stood in their guard, and the Levites with the instruments of the LORD, which David the king had made to thank the LORD for his mercy for ever, with the psalms of David by their hand: and the priests blew the trumpets against them, and all Israel stood.

7. And Solomon sanctified the middle court, which was before the house of the LORD: for there he had offered burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings. For the brasen altar which Solomon had made could not bear all the burnt offerings, and the meat offerings, and the fat.

8. And Solomon kept a feast at that time seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from Hemath even unto the river of Egypt.

9. And on the eighth day they held an assembly: for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast also seven days.

10. And on the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people into their tents rejoicing and in good cheer for all the good that the LORD had done for David, Solomon, and his people Israel.

11. So Solomon finished the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all that came into his heart to make blessed the house of the LORD, and his house.

12. And the LORD appeared unto Solomon by night, and said unto him, I have heard thy prayer, and have chosen this place for me to sacrifice in.

13. Behold, if I shut up the heavens, that there be no rain, or let the locusts devour the land, or let a pestilence come among my people,

14. That they may humble my people, which are called by my name, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; and I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

15. Let mine eyes therefore be open, and mine ears attentive unto prayer in this place.

16. I have therefore chosen and sanctified this house, that my name may be there for ever: mine eyes and mine heart shall be there for ever.

17. And if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, to do all that I command thee, and to keep my commandments and my statutes,

18. Then will I confirm the throne of thy kingdom, as I joined myself unto David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to rule over Israel.

19. But if ye will return, and forsake my statutes and my commandments, which I have set before you, and go and serve other gods, and worship them, ye shall be ashamed, 20. And I will root them up out of my land, which I have given them: and this house, which I have hallowed for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it a proverb, and a fable among all people.

21. And before this house, which is become the highest, all they that pass by shall be astonished, saying, Why hath the LORD thus gone with this land, and with this house?

22. And it shall be said, Because they have forsaken the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them up out of the land of Egypt, and have embraced other gods, and worshipped them, and served them; therefore hath he brought all this evil upon them.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 8

Solomon's city building, rule, sacrifice, and ships.

1. And after twenty years, in the which Solomon built the house of the LORD, and his house, 2. He also built the cities which Hiram gave to Solomon, and made the children of Israel to dwell therein.
3. And Solomon went to Hemath-zobah, and fortified it;
4. And he built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the cities of corn which he built in Hemath.
5. And he built Upper Bethhoron and Lower Bethhoron, which were strong cities, with walls, and doors, and bars,
6. And Baelath, and all the corn cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot cities, and all the horsemen, and all that Solomon desired to build, both at Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion.
7. All the rest of the people of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which were not of the children of Israel,
8. And their children which they left behind them in the land, whom the children of Israel had not destroyed, Solomon made to pay interest unto this day.
9. But of the children of Israel Solomon made not servants for his work, but they were men of war, and over his princes, and over his chariots, and over his horsemen.
10. And of the chief officers of king Solomon were two hundred and fifty, which ruled over the people.
11. And Solomon brought up Pharaoh's daughter out of the city of David into the house which he had built for her. For he said, My wife shall not dwell with me in the house of David king of Israel: for it is holy, because the ark of the LORD is come therein.
12. From that time Solomon offered burnt offerings unto the LORD upon the altar of the LORD, which he had built before the hall,
13. To offer every one of them upon his day, according to the commandment of Moses, upon the sabbaths, and upon the new moons, and upon the appointed times of the year, three times, even upon the feast of unleavened bread, and upon the feast of weeks, and upon the feast of tabernacles.
14. And he set the priests in their charge, according to the order of David his father; and the Levites in their charge, to praise and to minister before the priests, every one in his day; and the porters in their charge, every one in his gate. For so David the man of God commanded.

15. And there was no departure from the king's commandment concerning the priests and the Levites in all things, and in the treasures.

16. Thus was all Solomon's work prepared from the day that the house of the LORD was founded, until he had finished it, that the house of the LORD was fully prepared.

17. And Solomon went to Ezeongeber, and to Eloth by the sea side in the land of Edomaea.

18. And Hiram sent him ships by his servants that knew the sea, and they went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and fetched thence four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought it to king Solomon.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 9

Solomon gifted by the queen from Arabia, has a large income.

1. And when the queen of Arabia heard the report of Solomon, she came to Jerusalem with a very great witness, with camels laden with spices, and with gold, and with precious stones, to tempt Solomon with riddles. And when she came to Solomon, she spake unto him all things that she had purposed.

2. And the king told her all that she asked, and there was nothing hid from Solomon that he told her not.

3. And when the queen of Arabia saw the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, 4. The meat for his table, the tabernacle for his servants, the offices of his servants, and their garments, his vessels with their apparel, and his hall, when they went up to the house of the LORD, they could not abstain,

5. And she said unto the king: It is true what I have heard in my land of thy nature and of thy wisdom.

6. But I would not believe their words, till I came, and saw with mine own eyes. And, behold, I have not been told the half of thy great wisdom. There is more in thee than the rumour that I have heard.

7. Blessed are thy men, and blessed are these thy servants, which stand before thee continually, and hear thy wisdom.

8. Blessed be the LORD thy God, which loveth thee, that he hath set thee on his throne to be king over the LORD thy God. Because thy God loveth Israel, to establish him for ever, he hath made thee king over them, to do justice and righteousness.

9. And she gave unto the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and very much spices, and precious stones. There were no spices but these which the queen of Arabia gave to king Solomon.

10. And the servants of Hiram, and the servants of Solomon, which brought gold out of Ophir, they brought also ebony and precious stones.

11. And Solomon made of ebony stairs in the house of the LORD, and in the king's house, and harps, and psalteries for the singers. Such woods were never seen before in the land of Judah.

12. And king Solomon gave unto the queen of Sheba all that she desired and asked, without that she had brought unto the king. And she turned, and went into her land with her servants.

13. And the gold that was brought unto Solomon in one year was six hundred threescore and six talents,

14. Without what the merchants and the traders brought. And all the kings of the Arabians, and the lords of the countries, brought gold and silver unto Solomon.

15. Therefore king Solomon made two hundred shields of the best gold, so that there were six hundred pieces of gold upon one shield,

16. And three hundred tartars of the best gold, that three hundred pieces of gold came to one tartar.

17. And the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon. And the king made a great ivory chair, and overlaid it with pure gold.

18. And the throne had six steps, and a footstool of gold by the throne, and two rests on either side about the buttocks; and two lions stood by the rests,

19. And twelve lions stood there upon the six steps on either side. Such a thing is not made in all kingdoms.

20. And all the drinking vessels of king Solomon were of gold: and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were pure gold. For the silver was not counted in the days of Solomon.

21. For the king's ships sailed upon the sea with the servants of Hiram, and came once in three years, bringing gold, and silver, and ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

22. So king Solomon was greater than all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.

23. And all the kings of the earth desired the face of Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.

24. And they brought him every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, and armour, and spices, and horses, and mouths yearly.

25. And Solomon had four thousand chariot horses, and twelve thousand horsemen; and they put them in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

26. And he was lord over all kings from the sea even unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt.

27. And the king made Jerusalem as much silver as stones, and as much cedar, and as many mulberry trees in the valley.

28. And they brought him horses out of Egypt, and out of all countries.

29. And the rest of the acts of Solomon, both the first and the last, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecies of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Jeddi the Shower against Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

30. And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years.

31. And Solomon slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David his father. And Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 10

Separation of the kingdom and apostasy of the ten tribes, caused by Rehoboam.

1. And Rehoboam went to Shechem: for all Israel were come to Shechem to make him king.

2. And when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard it, which was in Egypt, whither he fled before king Solomon, he came again out of Egypt.

3. And they sent and called him. And Jeroboam came with all Israel, and spake unto Rehoboam, saying:

4. Thy father hath made our yoke too hard. Lighten therefore the hard service of thy father, and the heavy yoke which he hath laid upon us; and we will be servants unto thee.

5. And he said unto them: About three days come again unto me. And the people went.

6. And king Rehoboam consulted the elders that stood before Solomon his father, when he was alive, saying, How counsel ye that I should answer this people?

7. And they spake unto him, saying: If thou wilt be kind unto this people, and wilt deal kindly with them, and wilt speak good words unto them, they will be servants unto thee alway.

8. And he left the counsel of the elders, which they had given him, and consulted with the young men that were brought up with him, and that sat before him,

9. And said unto them: What counsel ye, that we should answer this people, which have spoken unto me, saying, Lighten the yoke which thy father hath put upon us?

10. And the young men that were brought up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou say unto the people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke too heavy; make thou our yoke lighter; and say unto them: My least finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11. If therefore my father hath put too heavy a yoke upon you, I will make more of your yoke.

My father chastised you with whips, but I with scorpions.

12. And it came to pass, when Jeroboam and all the people were come to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had said, Come again to me the third day,

13. And the king answered them sternly. And king Rehoboam left the council of the elders 14. And he spake unto them after the counsel of the young men, saying, If my father hath made your yoke too heavy, I will make it more so. My father chastised you with whips, but I with scorpions.

15. So the king hearkened not unto the people. For it was so wrought of God, that the LORD might confirm his word, which he spake by Ahijah of Shiloh unto Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16. And when all Israel saw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people answered the king, and said, What have we part in David, or inheritance in the son of Jesse? Every man of Israel to his tent. Now therefore see thou to thy house, O David. And all Israel went into their tents, 17. That Rehoboam reigned only over the children of Israel, which dwelt in the cities of Judah.

18. And king Rehoboam sent Hadoram the chamberlain, and the children of Israel stoned him to death. And king Rehoboam mounted up his chariot, and fled to Jerusalem.

19. So Israel fell away from the house of David unto this day.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 11

Rehoboam's readiness for war, cities, confirmation, wives and children.

1. And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered together the house of Judah and Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand young men that were valiant, to fight against Israel, to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam.

2. And the word of the LORD came unto Shemaiah the man of God, saying: 3. Tell Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and all Israel that is under Judah and Benjamin, saying:

4. Thus saith the LORD; Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren: return every man to his house: for this is done of me. And they hearkened unto the words of the LORD, and desisted from going up against Jeroboam.

5. And Rehoboam dwelt at Jerusalem, and strengthened the cities of Judah, 6. Namely: Bethlehem, Etam, Thekoa,

7. Beth-Zur, Socho, Adullam,

8. gath, maresa, siph,

9. Adoraim, Lachis, Aseka,

10. Zareah, and Ajalon, and Hebron, which were the strongest cities in Judah and Benjamin.

11. And he made them strong, and set princes therein, and store of meat, and oil, and wine.

12. And in all the cities he made shields and spears, and made them very strong. And Judah and Benjamin were under him.

13. And the priests and the Levites came unto him out of all Israel, and out of all the coasts thereof.

14. And they left their suburbs and their substance, and came to Judah to Jerusalem. For Jeroboam and his sons cast them off, that they should not minister unto the LORD.

15. And he ordained him priests unto the high places, and to the devils of the field, and to the calves which he made.

16. And after them came out of all the tribes of Israel that gave their hearts to inquire of the LORD God of Israel unto Jerusalem, to sacrifice unto the LORD God of their fathers.

17. And they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and confirmed Rehoboam the son of Solomon three years. For they walked in the way of David and Solomon three years.

18. And Rehoboam took Mahelath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David to wife, and Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse.

19. And she bare him these sons, Jeus, and Shemariah, and Saham.

20. After whom he took Maechah the daughter of Absalom; and she bare him Abijah, and Athai, and Ziza, and Selomith.

21. But Rehoboam loved Maechah the daughter of Absalom better than all his wives and concubines: for he had eighteen wives, and threescore concubines; and begat twenty and eight sons, and threescore daughters.

22. And Rehoboam made Abijah the son of Maechah chief and ruler among his brethren: for he purposed to make him king.

23. And he increased and brake forth before all his sons in the land of Judah and Benjamin in all the strong cities: and he fed them with multitude, and took many wives;

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 12

Rehabeam is getting the better of Sisak.

1. And when the kingdom of Rehoboam was confirmed and established, he forsook the law of the LORD, and all Israel with him.

2. And in the fifth year of king Rehoboam came up Sishak king of Egypt against Jerusalem, because they had sinned against the LORD.

3. With a thousand and two hundred chariots, and with threescore thousand horsemen: and the people were not to be numbered that came with him out of Egypt, and Libya, and Shushim, and the Moors;

4. And he took the strong cities that were in Judah, and came as far as Jerusalem.

5. And Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah that were gathered together to Jerusalem before Sishak, and said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Ye have forsaken me; therefore have I also forsaken you in the hand of Sishak.

6. Then the princes of Israel humbled themselves with the king, and said: The LORD is righteous.

7. And when the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came unto Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves: therefore will I not destroy them, but I will give them a little salvation, that my wrath be not poured out upon Jerusalem through Sishak.

8. But they shall be subject unto him, that they may know what it is to serve me, and to serve the kingdoms of the countries.

9. So Shishak king of Egypt went up to Jerusalem, and took the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and took them all away, and dipped the shields of gold which Solomon had made.

10. In whose stead king Rehoboam made shields of brass, and commanded them to be made for the captains of the guard, which kept the door of the king's house.

11. And as often as the king went into the house of the LORD, the porters came and bare them, and brought them again into the porters' chamber.

12. And because he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, that all things were not destroyed. For there was still some good in Judah.

13. So Rehoboam the king was confirmed in Jerusalem, and reigned. Forty and one years old was Rehoboam when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, in the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. His mother's name was Naema, an Ammonite woman.

14. And he dealt wickedly, and sent not his heart to seek the LORD.

15. And the acts of Rehoboam, both the first and the last, are written in the book of the acts of Shemaiah the prophet, and in the book of the acts of Iddo the watcher, and are written, and the acts of the wars of Rehoboam and Jeroboam, all the days of their life.

16. And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David. And Abijah his son reigned in his stead.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 13

Abias king in Judah, war and victory against Jeroboam king in Israel.

1. In the eighteenth year of Jeroboam the king, Abijah reigned in Judah.

2. And he reigned three years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Micaiah, the daughter of Uriel the Gibeahite. And there was a controversy between Abijah and Jeroboam.

3. And Abijah prepared himself to battle with four hundred thousand young men, strong men of war. And Jeroboam armed himself to battle with him, with eight hundred thousand strong men.

4. And Abijah went up into mount Zemaraim, which is in mount Ephraim, and said, Hear me, O Jeroboam, and all Israel.

5. Know ye not that the LORD God of Israel hath given the kingdom to David for ever, to him and to his sons a covenant of salt?

6. And Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, rose up, and turned away from his master.

7. And the people and the children of Belial came up against him, and strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon. For Rehoboam was young, and of a foolish heart, that he resisted them not.

8. Now think ye to set yourselves against the kingdom of the LORD among the sons of David, because ye are a great multitude; and ye have calves of gold, which Jeroboam made unto you for gods.

9. Have ye not cast out the priests of the LORD, the children of Aaron, and the Levites, and made you your own priests, as the nations of the earth? He that cometh to fill his hand with a young bullock and seven rams, the same shall be the priest of them that are no gods.

10. But with us is the LORD our God, whom we will not forsake; and the priests that minister unto the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, in their business, 11. And burn incense unto the LORD every morning, and every evening, and the good incense, and the bread prepared upon a clean table, and the candlestick of gold, and the lamps thereof, to be burned every evening. For we keep the charge of the LORD our God, but ye have forsaken him.

12. Behold, with us at the head is God, and his priests, and the trumpets to sound the trumpet against you. Ye children of Israel, fight not against the LORD God of your fathers: for ye shall not prosper.

13. But Jeroboam set an ambush round about, to come upon them from behind: and they were before Judah, and the ambush was behind them.

14. And when Judah turned, behold, there was war in the front, and in the rear. And they cried unto the LORD, and the priests sounded with trumpets.

15. And all the people of Judah killed. And when all the people of Judah made a noise, God afflicted Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

16. And the children of Israel fled from Judah, and God delivered them into their hand, 17. And Abijah and his people did great slaughter against them, and slew of Israel five hundred thousand young men.

18. So the children of Israel were humbled at that time: but the children of Judah were comforted, because they trusted in the LORD God of their fathers.

19. And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and gained him cities: Bethel with her daughters, Jezana with her daughters, and Ephron with her daughters,

20. And Jeroboam had no more strength, because Abijah was alive. And the LORD afflicted him, that he died.

21. And when Abijah was strengthened, he took fourteen wives, and begat twenty and two sons and sixteen daughters.

22. And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his doings, are they not written in the book of the history of Iddo the prophet?

Ch. 14:1. And Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his stead. In those days the land was quiet ten years.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 14

Assa abolishes idolatry and triumphs against the Moors.

2. And Assa did that which was right, and acceptable unto the LORD his God.

3. And he took away the strange altars, and the high places, and brake down the pillars, and cut down the groves;

4. And told Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to do according to the law and the commandment.

5. And he put away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the idols. For the kingdom was quiet before him.

6. And he built strong cities in Judah, because the land was quiet, and there was no war against him in those years: for the LORD gave him rest.

7. And he said unto Judah, Let us build these cities, and let us build walls round about, and towers, and doors, and bars, because the land is yet before us: for we have sought the LORD our God, and he hath given us rest round about. So they built, and prospered.

8. And Asa had a host bearing shields and spears: out of Judah three hundred thousand, and out of Benjamin, bearing shields and bows, two hundred and fourscore thousand: and all these were mighty men of valour.

9. And Serah the Moor came out against them with a host a thousand thousand strong, and three hundred chariots: and they came as far as Mareshah.

10. And Asa went out against him, and they made ready for battle in the valley of Zephathah by Mareshah.

11. And Assa cried unto the LORD his God, saying, O LORD, there is no difference with thee, whether there be help among many, or whether there be no strength. Help us, O LORD our God: for we trust in thee, and in thy name are we come against this multitude. O LORD our God, against thee no man is able.

12. And the LORD afflicted the Moors before Asa, and before Judah, that they fled.

13. And Asa and the people that were with him pursued after them unto Gerar. And the Moors fell, and none of them lived: but they were smitten before the LORD, and before his camp.

And they carried away much spoil.

14. And he smote all the cities that were round about Gerar: for the fear of the LORD was upon them. And they spoiled all the cities: for there was much spoil in them.

15. And they smote the tents of the cattle, and brought sheep in multitude, and camels: and they returned to Jerusalem.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 15

Assa continues in his church reformation.

1. And upon Azariah the son of Oded came the Spirit of GOD.
2. And he went out to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear me, O Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin. The LORD is with you, because ye are with him: and if ye seek him, he will be found of you: but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you also.
3. And there shall be many days in Israel, that there shall be no right God, neither priest to teach, neither law.
4. And if they turn in their affliction unto the LORD God of Israel, and shall seek him, he will be found.
5. In those days it shall not be well with him that goeth out, nor with him that cometh in. For there shall be great tumults upon all them that dwell upon the earth.
6. For nation shall smite nation, and city city: for God shall terrify them with all fear.
7. But be of good cheer, and do not cast off your hands: for the work of great price hath its reward.
8. And when Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he was confident, and put away the abominations out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had gotten in mount Ephraim, and renewed the altar of the LORD, which was before the hall of the LORD.
9. And gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the strangers that were with them out of Ephraim, and Manasseh, and Simeon. For the multitude fell upon him out of Israel, when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.
10. And they gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem the third month, in the fifteenth year of the kingdom of Asa,
11. And they sacrificed unto the LORD the same day of the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep.
12. And they entered into the covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul.
13. And whosoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel should die, both small and great, both man and woman.
14. And they sware unto the LORD with a loud voice, with sound, with trumpets and with trumpets.

15. And all Judah rejoiced at the oath: for they had sworn with all their heart, and they sought him with all their will, and he was found of them: and the LORD gave them rest round about.

16. And Asa the king deposed Maechah his mother from the office which she had set up in the grove of Miplezeth. And Asa cut off her Miplezeth, and destroyed it, and burned it in the brook Kidron.

17. But the high places of Israel were not removed: yet the heart of Asa was righteous all the days of his life.

18. And he brought into the house of God that which his father had hallowed, and that which he had hallowed, silver, and gold, and vessels.

19. And there was no controversy until the thirty and fifth year of the kingdom of Asa.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 16

Assa's triple fall from grace.

1. In the thirty and sixth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, to hinder Asa king of Judah to go out and to come in.

2. And Asa took silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the LORD, and out of the treasures of the king's house, and sent to Benhadad king of Syria, which dwelt at Damascus, and told him:

3. There is a covenant between me and thee, between my father and thy father: therefore have I sent thee silver and gold, that thou shouldest put away the covenant with Baasha king of Israel, that he should depart from me.

4. And Benhadad obeyed king Asa, and sent his princes against the cities of Israel; and they smote Eion, and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all the corn cities of Naphtali.

5. And when Baasha heard it, he left off building Ramah, and ceased from his work.

6. And king Asa took all Judah unto him, and they carried the stones and the timber from Ramah, that Baasha might build; and he built Geba and Mizpah therewith.

7. At that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said unto him, Because thou hast trusted in the king of Syria, and hast not trusted in the LORD thy God, therefore the power of the king of Syria is escaped out of thine hand.

8. Were not the Moors and Libyans a great multitude, with many chariots and horsemen? But the LORD delivered them into thine hand, because thou trustedst in him.
9. For the eyes of the LORD behold all the earth, to strengthen them that are in him with all their heart. Thou hast done foolishly: therefore shalt thou have war henceforth.
10. And Assa was wroth with the seer, and put him in prison: for he murmured with him against this thing. And Assa oppressed some of the people at that time.
11. And the acts of Assa, both the first and the last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.
12. And Assa was sick of his feet in the thirty and ninth year of his reign, and his sickness increased greatly: neither sought he the LORD in his sickness, but sought physicians.
13. So Assa slept with his fathers, and died in the forty and first year of his reign.
14. And they buried him in his sepulchre, which he had digged for him in the city of David. And they laid him in his bed, which was filled with good incense, and with all manner of spices made with the apothecary's skill, and made a very great burning.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 17

Jehoshaphat is blissful in his fear of God.

1. And Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead, and was mighty against Israel.
2. And he put men of war in all the strong cities of Judah, and appointed officers in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, which Assa his father had gained.
3. And the LORD was with Jehoshaphat: for he walked in the former ways of David his father, and sought not Baalim,
4. But the God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and not after the works of Israel.
5. Therefore the LORD confirmed the kingdom unto him, and all Judah gave gifts unto Jehoshaphat: and he had riches and honour abundantly.
6. And when his heart was bold in the ways of the LORD, he removed again the high places and the groves out of Judah.

7. In the third year of his kingdom he sent his princes Ben-hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethaneel, and Micaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah;
8. And with them the Levites, Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asael, and Shemiramoth, and Jonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobiah, and Tob-Adonijah; and with them the priests Elishama and Joram.
9. And they taught in Judah, having with them the book of the law of the LORD: and they went about all the cities of Judah, teaching the people.
10. And the fear of the LORD came upon all the kingdoms of the countries that were round about Judah, that they should not fight against Jehoshaphat.
11. And the Philistines brought gifts unto Jehoshaphat, a burden of silver. And the Arabians brought him seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred he goats.
12. So Jehoshaphat increased, and waxed greater and greater; and he built castles and corn cities in Judah.
13. And had much store in the cities of Judah, and men of valour, and mighty men in Jerusalem.
14. And this was the order of the house of their fathers, which were in Judah over the thousand princes: Adnah, a chief, and with him were three hundred thousand mighty men.
15. Next unto him was Johanan the chief; and with him were two hundred and fourscore thousand.
16. And next unto him was Amasiah the son of Zichri, the volunteer of the LORD: and with him were two hundred thousand mighty men.
17. Of the children of Benjamin was Eliada, a mighty man; and with him were two hundred thousand armed with bows and shields.
18. And next unto him was Jozabad; and with him were an hundred and fourscore thousand armed for the army.
19. These were all waiting for the king, without any thing that the king had yet laid up in the strong cities throughout all Judah.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 18

Jehoshaphat's march with Ahab against the Syrians.

1. And Jehoshaphat had great riches and honour, and befriended Ahab.

2. And he went down to Ahab to Samaria in two years. And Ahab slew for him, and for the people that were with him, many sheep and oxen. And he persuaded him to go up to Ramoth in Gilead.
3. And Ahab king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Go with me to Ramoth in Gilead. And he said unto him, I am as thou art, and my people as thy people: we will go with thee to battle.
4. And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Ask the word of the LORD this day.
5. And the king of Israel gathered the prophets four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall we go to Ramoth in Gilead to battle, or shall I leave it? And they said: Go up, and God will deliver them into the king's hand.
6. And Jehoshaphat said: Is there not yet a prophet of the LORD here, that we should inquire of him?
7. And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet a man to inquire of the LORD of him: but I am displeased with him, because he knoweth me no good, but all evil; even Micaiah the son of Jemla. And Jehoshaphat said, The king speaketh not so.
8. And the king of Israel called one of his chamberlains, and said, Bring quickly Micaiah the son of Jemla.
9. And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah sat every man in his seat clothed with garments: and they sat in the place before the door, at the gate of Samaria: and all the prophets prophesied before them.
10. And Zidekiah the son of Caenas made him horns of iron, and said, Thus saith the LORD, Herewith shalt thou push the Syrians, until thou destroy them.
11. And all the prophets also prophesied so, saying: Go up, and thou shalt prosper: the LORD shall deliver them into the hand of the king.
12. And the messenger that went to call Micaiah spake unto him, saying, Behold, the words of the prophets are good for the king with one accord: let thy word also be as one, and speak good.
13. And Micah said, As the LORD liveth, what my God shall say, that will I speak.

14. And when he was come to the king, the king said unto him, Micah, shall we go up to Ramoth in Gilead to battle, or shall I leave it? And he said, Yea, go up; ye shall prosper: it shall be given into your hand.

15. And the king said unto him, I charge thee again that thou tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD.

16. And he said, I saw all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep having no shepherd. And the LORD said, Have these no LORD? Let them return every one in peace.

17. And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, Said I not unto thee, He knoweth me no good, but evil?

18. And he said, Therefore hear the word of the LORD; I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left.

19. And the LORD said, Who shall persuade Ahab king of Israel to go up and fall at Ramoth in Gilead? And when this said so, and that said otherwise.

20. And a spirit came forth, and stood before the Lord, and said: I will persuade him. And the LORD said unto him, With what?

21. And he said: I will go forth, and be a false spirit in all his prophets' mouths. And he said, Thou shalt persuade him, and shalt perform it: go thou, and do so.

22. Now, behold, the LORD hath put a false spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil against thee.

23. And Zidekiah the son of Caenas came near, and smote Micaiah on the beacon, and said, By what way hath the Spirit of the LORD departed from me, that he speaketh by thee?

24. And Micah said, Behold, thou shalt see, when thou comest into the innermost chamber, that thou shalt hide thyself.

25. And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and let him dwell with Amon the governor, and with Joash the king's son,

26. And say, Thus saith the king, Put this man in prison, and feed him with bread and with water of affliction, until I come again in peace.

27. And Micah said, If thou return in peace, the LORD hath not spoken by me. And he said, Hear, all ye nations.

28. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went up to Ramoth in Gilead.

29. And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and come into battle: but thou hast thy garments on. And the king of Israel disguised himself, and they came to battle.

30. But the king of Syria had commanded his chief horsemen: Ye shall not fight against small nor against great, but against the king of Israel alone.

31. And when the chief horsemen saw Jehoshaphat, they thought it was the king of Israel, and went about to fight upon him. But Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him, and God turned them away from him.

32. For when the chief horsemen saw that he was not the king of Israel, they turned away from him.

33. And a man drew his bow about, and shot the king of Israel between the armour and the hengel. And he said unto his charioteer, Turn thine hand, and bring me out of the army: for I am sore.

34. And the battle increased in the day. And the king of Israel stood in his chariot against the Syrians until the even, and died when the sun was down.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 19

Jehoshaphat punished by Jehu, orders the church and the secular regiment.

1. And Jehoshaphat king of Judah returned in peace unto Jerusalem.

2. And Jehu the son of Hanani the Shiverer went out to meet him, and said unto king Jehoshaphat, Shall thou thus help the wicked, and love them that hate the LORD? And because of this the wrath of the LORD is upon thee.

3. But there is good in thee, because thou hast cast out the groves from the land, and hast set thy heart to seek God.

4. So Jehoshaphat tarried at Jerusalem: and he went out again among the people from Beersheba unto mount Ephraim, and brought them again unto the LORD God of their fathers.

5. And he appointed judges in the land in all the strong cities of Judah, in every city some, 6. And said unto the judges, Take heed what ye do: for ye hold judgment not unto men, but unto the LORD: and he is with you in judgment.

7. Therefore let the fear of the LORD be with you, and take heed, and do it: for with the LORD our God there is no unrighteousness, neither respect of persons, nor accepting of gifts.

8. Also Jehoshaphat appointed at Jerusalem of the Levites, and of the priests, and of the chief fathers of Israel, concerning the judgment of the LORD, and concerning the things, and made them to dwell at Jerusalem.

9. And commanded them, saying, Do ye thus in the fear of the LORD, faithfully, and with a right heart.

10. In all things that come unto you of your brethren which dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, between customs and judgments, ye shall instruct them, that they be not guilty in the sight of the LORD, and that wrath come upon you and upon your brethren. So do unto him, and ye shall not be guilty.

11. Behold, Amariah the priest is ruler over you in all the things of the LORD. So is Zabadiah the son of Ishmael, ruler in the house of Judah, in all the king's matters. So you have officers, the Levites, before you. Be of good courage, and do it: and the LORD will be with the good.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 20

Jehoshaphat's victory against the Ammonites and Moabites.

1. After these things came the children of Moab, the children of Ammon, and with them of the Amunim, to fight against Jehoshaphat.

2. And they came and told Jehoshaphat, saying, There cometh against thee a great multitude from beyond the sea, from Syria: and, behold, they are at Hazezon-thamar, that is, Engeddi.

3. And Jehoshaphat was afraid, and set his face to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast among all Judah.

4. And Judah came together to seek the LORD; and there came out of all the cities of Judah to seek the LORD.

5. And Jehoshaphat stood among the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem in the house of the LORD before the new court.

6. And said, O LORD God of our fathers, art thou not God in heaven, and ruler in all the kingdoms of the heathen? And in thy hand is strength and might; and there is none that can stand against thee.

7. Hast thou not, our God, driven out the inhabitants of this land from thy people Israel, and given it unto the seed of Abraham thy lover for ever?

8. That they dwelt therein, and built thee a sanctuary for thy name therein, saying: 9. If any calamity, or sword, or punishment, or pestilence, or dearth, come upon us, shall we stand before this house before thee, (for thy name is in this house,) and cry unto thee in our affliction, that thou wouldest hear and help?

10. Now therefore, behold, the children of Ammon, and Moab, and those of mount Seir, over whom thou didst not let the children of Israel pass, when they came forth out of the land of Egypt, but departed from them, and did not destroy them.

11. And, behold, they reward us, and come to cut us off from thine inheritance, which thou hast given us.

12. Our God, wilt thou not judge them? For there is no strength in us against this great multitude that cometh against us. We know not what we should do, but our eyes look unto thee.

13. And all Judah stood before the LORD with their children, and their wives, and their sons.

14. And upon Jehaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jehiel, the son of Mathaniah, the Levite, of the children of Assaph, came the Spirit of the LORD in the midst of the congregation;

15: And said, Take heed, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and king Jehoshaphat. Thus saith the LORD unto you: Ye shall not fear nor be dismayed before this great multitude: for ye fight not, but GOD.

16. In the morning ye shall go down unto them: and, behold, they go up to Ziz, and ye shall meet with them by the reeds in the brook before the wilderness of Jeruel.

17. For ye shall not contend in this matter. Only go and stand, and see the salvation of the LORD, which is with you, Judah and Jerusalem. Fear not, neither be dismayed: to morrow go out against them: the LORD is with you.

18. Then Jehoshaphat bowed himself with his face to the earth: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before the LORD, and worshipped the LORD.

19. And the Levites, of the children of the Kohathites, and of the children of the Korhites, rose up to praise the LORD God of Israel with a great shout toward heaven.

20. And they rose up early in the morning, and went out into the wilderness of Thekoa. And as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hearken unto me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem. Believe in the LORD your God, and ye shall be safe; and believe his prophets, and ye shall prosper.

21. And he instructed the people, and set the singers before the LORD, that they should praise in holy array, and sing before the scaffolded, and say: Give thanks unto the LORD: for his mercy endureth for ever.

22. And when they began to give thanks and to praise, the LORD sent the ambush that was come against Judah upon the children of Ammon, and upon Moab, and upon them of mount Seir, and smote them.

23. And the children of Ammon and Moab came against them of mount Seir, to utterly destroy them. And when they had consumed all the men of mount Seir, they helped one another, that they might destroy themselves also.

24. And when Judah was come to Mizpeh by the wilderness, they turned against the multitude: and, behold, there were dead bodies upon the ground, and none escaped.

25. And Jehoshaphat came with his people to divide their spoil, and found among them so much goods, and raiment, and precious things, and took them away, that they could not bear them: and they divided the spoil three days, because it was much.

26. And on the fourth day they came together unto the valley of praise: for there they praised the LORD. Therefore the name of the place is called the valley of praise unto this day.

27. So all the men of Judah and Jerusalem turned again, and Jehoshaphat in the head, that they might go up to Jerusalem with joy. For the LORD had given them joy in their enemies.

28. And they entered into Jerusalem with psalteries, and harps, and trumpets, unto the house of the LORD.

29. And the fear of God came upon all the kingdoms of the countries, when they heard that the LORD had fought against the enemies of Israel.

30. So the kingdom of Jehoshaphat was quieted, and God gave him rest round about.

31. And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah, and was thirty and five years old when he began to reign, and reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Asuba, a daughter of Zilhi.

32. And he walked in the way of his father Asa, and departed not from doing that which was right in the sight of the LORD;

33. without the high places were not removed: for the people had not yet sent their hearts unto the God of their fathers.

34. And the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, both the first and the last, behold, they are written in the acts of Jehu the son of Hanani, which he wrote in the book of the kings of Israel.

35. And afterward Jehoshaphat king of Judah joined himself to Ahaziah king of Israel, who was wicked in his doings.

36. And he joined himself unto him to make ships to go out to sea: and they made the ships at Ezeon-gaber.

37. And Eliezer the son of Dodava, of Mareshah, prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, Because thou hast joined thyself to Ahaziah, the LORD hath broken down thy works. And the ships were broken, and they could not go into the sea.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 21

Joram's fratricide, idolatry, punishment, and miserable death.

1. And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.

2. And he had brethren the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariah, Michael, and Shephatiah: all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Judah.

3. And their father gave them many gifts of silver, and gold, and jewels, with strong cities in Judah: but the kingdom he gave to Jehoram, because he was the firstborn.

4. And when Jehoram arose upon his father's kingdom, and was mighty in his power, he slew all his brethren with the sword, and certain of the princes of Israel.

5. Jehoram was thirty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

6. And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done; for Ahab's daughter was his wife: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

7. But the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he had spoken to give him a lamp, and to his children for ever.

8. In his days the Edomites fell away from Judah, and made a king over them.

9. For Jehoram had gone over with his captains, and all the chariots with him, and had risen up by night, and had smitten the Edomites round about him, and the captains of the chariots.

10. Therefore the Edomites fell away from Judah unto this day. At the same time Libnah also fell away from him. For he forsook the LORD God of his fathers.

11. He also made high places in the mountains of Judah, and made them that prostitute at Jerusalem, and deceived Judah.

12. And there came writing unto him of Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the way of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the way of Asa king of Judah,

13. But thou hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Judah and Jerusalem to whore after the whoredom of the house of Ahab, and hast slain thy brethren of thy father's house, which were better than thou,

14. Then shall the LORD smite thee with a great plague upon thy people, upon thy children, and upon thy wives, and upon all thy substance.

15. And thou shalt have much sickness in thy bowels, until thy bowels be filled with sickness from day to day.

16. So the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines and of the Arabians, which lie with the Moors;

17. And they went up into Judah, and rent them, and carried away all the substance of the king's house, and his sons, and his wives: and there remained no son unto him, save Jehoahaz his youngest son.

18. And after all this the LORD afflicted him in his bowels with such a disease as could not be healed.

19. And it came to pass from day to day, when the space of two years was expired, that his bowels departed from him with his sickness, and he died of evil diseases. And they made not a fire upon him, as they had done unto his fathers.

20. Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem, and walked that was not good. And they buried him in the city of David, but not among the kings' sepulchres.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 22

Ahaziah's downfall. Athaliah's murderous deed.

1. And they that were at Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his stead. For the men of war that came out of the Arabians with the host slew all the first: therefore Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned.

2. Ahaziah was forty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah daughter of Amri.

3. And he walked also in the ways of the house of Ahab: for his mother held him to be ungodly.

4. Therefore he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did the house of Ahab. For they were his counselors after his father's death, to destroy him.

5. And he walked after their counsel. And he went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to battle to Ramoth in Gilead against Hazael king of Syria. And the Syrians smote Joram, 6. And he returned to be healed in Jezreel: for he had wounds smitten him in Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And Azariah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, which was sick.

7. For it was an evil thing of God for Ahaziah to come to Jehoram, and to go out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.

8. And when Jehu had punished the house of Ahab, he found certain of the princes of Judah, and the sons of Ahaziah's brethren that ministered unto Ahaziah, and slew them.

9. And he sought Ahaziah, and took him, when he was hid in Samaria. And he was brought to Jehu, and he slew him, and they buried him. For they said: He is Jehoshaphat's son, who sought the LORD with all his heart. And there was none left of the house of Ahaziah to reign.

10. And when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal seed of the house of Judah.

11. And Jehosabeath the king's sister took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's children that were slain, and put him in a chamber with his nurse. So Jehosabeath the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest (for she was Ahaziah's sister), hid him from Athaliah, that he was not slain.

12. And he was hid with them in the house of God six years, because Athaliah was queen of the land.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 23

Jehoiada anoints Joash king. Athaliah is killed. Baal destroyed.

1. But in the seventh year Jehoiada took courage, and took the captains over an hundred, Azariah the son of Jeroham, Ishmael the son of Johanan, Azariah the son of Obed, Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, to be covenant with him.

2. And they went about Judah, and brought the Levites by multitude out of all the cities of Judah, and the chief fathers of Israel, to come to Jerusalem.

3. And all the congregation made a covenant in the house of God with the king. And he said unto them, Behold, the king's son shall be king, as the LORD hath spoken concerning the children of David.

4. Now therefore do ye this thing: your third part, which are of the sabbath, shall be among the priests and the Levites, which are porters at the door,

5. And the third part in the king's house, and the third part at the gate of the foundation: but all the people shall be in the court of the house of the LORD.

6. And that no man enter into the house of the LORD, save the priests and the Levites that minister therein: they shall enter in, because they are sanctuaries: and all the people shall wait upon the guard of the LORD.

7. And the Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his guard in his hand.

And whosoever entereth into the house, let him be put to death. And they shall be with the king when he goeth out and when he cometh in.

8. And the Levites and all Judah did as Jehoiada the priest commanded, and took every man his men that came in on the sabbath day with them that came out on the sabbath day. For Jehoiada the priest did not let the two companies come apart.

9. And Jehoiada the priest gave unto the princes about an hundred spears, and shields, and weapons of king David, which were in the house of GOD.

10. And all the people, every man with his weapons in his hand, stood before the right corner of the house unto the left corner, toward the altar, and toward the house westward, round about the king.

11. And they brought forth the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and the testimony, and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said: Happy birthday to the king!

12. And when Athaliah heard the cry of the people that ran and praised the king, she went unto the people that were in the house of the LORD.

13. And she looked, and, behold, the king stood in his place in the entry, and the princes and drummers about the king: and all the people of the land were glad, and blew the trumpets, and the singers with all manner of strings, sent to praise. Then she rent her clothes, and said, Riot, riot!

14. And Jehoiada the priest came out with the captains of hundreds that were over the host, and said unto them: Bring her out from the house beyond the court; and whosoever followeth her, let him be put to death with the sword. For the priest had commanded that they should not be slain in the house of the LORD.

15. And they laid hands on her; and when she was come to the entering in of the horse gate of the king's house, they slew her there.

16. And Jehoiada made a covenant between him, and all the people, and the king, that they should be the LORD'S people.

17. And all the people went into the house of Baal, and brake it down, and brake down his altars and his images, and slew Mathan the priest of Baal before the altars.

18. And Jehoiada appointed the offices of the house of the LORD among the priests and the Levites, whom David had ordained for the house of the LORD, to offer burnt offerings unto the LORD, as it is written in the law of Moses, with gladness and with songs, which David made up.

19. And he put porters in the gates of the house of the LORD, that nothing unclean should enter in by any means.

20. And he took the captains of hundreds, and the mighty men, and the lords of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought the king down from the house of the LORD, and brought him through the high gate of the king's house, and set the king upon the royal throne.

21. And all the people of the land were glad, and the city was quiet: but Athaliah was slain with the sword.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 24

Joas laudable deeds, idolatry; punishment and death.

1. Joash was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem.

His mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.

2. And Joash did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, all the days of Jehoiada the priest.

3. And Jehoiada gave him two wives; and he begat sons and daughters.

4. After this Joash undertook to renew the house of the LORD.

5. And he gathered the priests and the Levites together, and said unto them: Go out to all the cities of Judah, and gather money out of all Israel to repair the house of your God yearly; and make haste to do so. But the Levites made no haste.

6. And the king called Jehoiada the chief, and said unto him, Why hast thou not taken heed to the Levites, that they bring in of Judah and Jerusalem the tax which Moses the servant of the LORD set, which were gathered together of Israel unto the tabernacle of the congregation?

7. For the wicked Athaliah and her sons have broken up the house of God, and have given all that was sanctified for the house of the LORD unto Baalim.

8. Then the king commanded that an ark should be made, and that it should be set without in the to of the house of the LORD.

9. And he sent a proclamation in Judah and in Jerusalem, that the tax of Moses the servant of God, which was laid upon Israel in the wilderness, should be brought unto the LORD.

10. And all the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought it, and cast it into the ark, until it was full.

11. And it came to pass, when it was time for the ark to be brought in by the Levites, according to the king's commandment, when they saw that there was much money in it, that the king's scribe, and he that was commanded of the chief priest, came and emptied the ark, and carried it again to his place. And they did so every day, and brought the money in abundance.

12. And the king and Jehoiada gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of the LORD; and they hired stonemasons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD; and to the masters of iron and brass to repair the house of the LORD.

13. And the workmen laboured, that the improvement of the work might be increased by their hand: and they made the house of God wholly ready, and well furnished, and made it strong.

14. And when they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, and made vessels of it for the house of the LORD, vessels for the service, and for burnt offerings, spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada.

15. And Jehoiada waxed old, and was full of life, and died; and was an hundred and thirty years old when he died.

16. And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, and in God, and in his house.

17. And after the death of Jehoiada the princes of Judah came and worshipped the king: and the king obeyed them.

18. And they forsook the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served the groves and idols. And wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this trespass of theirs.

19. And he sent prophets unto them, that they should turn unto the LORD: and they testified unto them; but they gave no ear.

20. And the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest. And he stood over the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God. GOD: Why transgress ye the commandments of the LORD, that ye shall not prosper? For ye have forsaken the LORD, and he will forsake you again.

21. But they made a covenant against him, and stoned him according to the king's commandment in the court of the house of the LORD.

22. And king Jehoash remembered not the mercy that Jehoiada his father had done unto him, but slew his son. And when he was dead, he said, The LORD will see and seek it.

23. And it came to pass, when the year was expired, that the host of the Syrians went up, and came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people, and sent all their spoil unto the king of Damascus.

24. For the power of the Syrians was with few men, and the LORD delivered into their hand a very great power, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. And they punished Joash also.

25. And when they departed from him, they left him in great sickness. And his servants made a league against him for the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him upon his bed; and he died. And they buried him in the city of David, but not among the kings' tombs.

26. And they that made the covenant against him were these: Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonite, and Jozabad the son of Shimrith the Moabitess.

27. But his sons, and the company that was gathered under him, and the building of the house of God, behold, they are written in the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son was king in his stead.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 25

Government of Amaziah king of Judah.

1. Amaziah was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Joadan of Jerusalem.

2. And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, but not with all his heart.

3. And when his kingdom was confirmed, he slew his servants that smote the king his father.

4. But their children he slew not. For thus it is written in the law, in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers shall not die for the children, nor the children for the fathers; but every man shall die for his sin.

5. And Amaziah brought Judah in multitude, and numbered them according to the house of the fathers, according to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, throughout all Judah and Benjamin; and numbered them from twenty years old and upward, and found them three hundred thousand chosen, that might go forth into the army, to bear spear and shield.

6. And he took from Israel an hundred thousand mighty men of war for an hundred talents of silver.

7. And there came a man of God unto him, and said, King, let not the host of Israel come with thee: for the LORD is not with Israel, nor with all the children of Ephraim.

8. For if thou comest to show boldness in the battle, God will cause thee to fall before thine enemies. For with God is the power to help and to let fall.

9. And Amaziah said unto the man of God. What shall we do with the hundred talents which I have given to the soldiers of Israel? And the man of God said, The LORD hath more than this to give thee.

10. Then Amaziah separated the soldiers that were come to him out of Ephraim, and they went into their own place. And their anger was kindled against Judah, and they returned to their place with fierce wrath.

11. And he was confident, and brought forth his people, and went out into the valley of salt, and smote ten thousand of the children of Seir.

12. And the children of Judah took ten thousand of them alive, and brought them to the top of a rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, and brake them all in pieces.

13. And the soldiers, which Amaziah had sent again, that they should not go out to battle with his people, pitched in the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Bethhoron, and slew three thousand of them, and took much spoil.

14. And when Amaziah was come again from the battle of Edom, he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them for gods unto him; and worshipped before them, and burned incense unto them.

15. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent a prophet unto him, saying, Why seekest thou the gods of the people, which could not deliver their people out of thine hand?

16. And when he had spoken unto him, he said unto him, Hast thou been made the king's counsellor? Stop, why wilt thou be smitten? Then the prophet ceased, and said: I perceive that God hath consulted to destroy thee, that thou hast done this thing, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.

17. And Amaziah king of Judah took counsel, and sent to Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu king of Israel, saying, Come, and let us see one another.

18. And Joash king of Israel sent unto Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The briar of Lebanon sent unto the cedar of Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: but the wild beast of Lebanon ran upon the briar, and brake it in pieces.

19. Thou rememberest, Behold, I have smitten the Edomites: thine heart is lifted up, and thou seekest glory. Now tarry thou at home. Why wilt thou strive for evil, that thou shouldest fall, and Judah with thee?

20. But Amaziah hearkened not: for it came to pass of God that they were given into hand, because they had sought the gods of Edom.

21. And Joash king of Israel went up, and looked together, he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Bethshemesh, which is in Judah.

22. And Judah was smitten before Israel, and fled every man to his tent.

23. And Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash, Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, took Bethshemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim unto the corner gate four hundred cubits.

24. And all the gold, and the silver, and all the vessels that were in the house of God with Obbededom, and in the treasures of the king's house, and the children that were in bond, he took with him to Samaria.

25. And Amaziah the son of Jehoash king of Judah lived after the death of Jehoahaz the son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years.

26. And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, both the first and the last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

27. And from the time that Amaziah departed from the LORD, they made a league against him at Jerusalem: and he fled to Lachish. And they sent after him to Lachish, and slew him there.

28. And they brought him on horses, and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 26

Uzzah fumigates and becomes leprous.

1. And all the people of Judah took Uzziah, which was sixteen years old, and made him king in Amaziah his father's stead.

2. And he built Eloth, and brought it again to Judah, after that the king had fallen asleep with his fathers.

3. Uzziah was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jechaliah of Jerusalem.

4. And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, as Amaziah his father had done.

5. And he sought God as long as Zechariah lived, the teacher in the visions of God; and as long as he sought the LORD, God prospered him.

6. For he went out and fought against the Philistines, and brake down the walls of Gath, and the walls of Jabne, and the walls of Ashdod, and built cities about Ashdod, and among the Philistines.

7. For God helped him against the Philistines, against the Arabians, against those of Gur-baal, and against the Meunites.

8. And the Ammonites gave gifts unto Uzziah, and he was renowned until they came into Egypt: for he waxed stronger and stronger.

9. And Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the other corners, and fortified them.

10. He also built castles in the wilderness, and digged many wells; for he had much cattle, both in the meadows and in the plains; also husbandmen and husbandwomen in the mountains and in Carmel; for he delighted in husbandry.

11. And Uzziah had a force to battle, which went into the army, of soldiers counted in number, under the hand of Jeiel the scribe, and Maaseiah the officer, under the hand of Hananiah, of the king's captains.

12. And the number of the chief fathers among the mighty men of war was two thousand and six hundred.

13. And under their hand the host sent three hundred thousand, and seven thousand, and five hundred, to battle in force, to help the king against the enemy.

14. And Uzziah sent them for all the host shields, and spears, and helmets, and breastplates, and bows, and sling-stones.

15. And he made breastworks artificially in Jerusalem, to be on the towers and on the corners, to be shot with arrows and great stones. And the fame of him went abroad, and he was greatly helped, until he became mighty.

16. And when he had become mighty, he lifted up his heart to his destruction. For he trespassed against the LORD his God, and entered into the temple of the LORD, to burn incense upon the altar of incense.

17. And Azariah the priest went after him, and eighty priests of the LORD with him, men of integrity,

18. And they rebuked Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It is not for thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the LORD, but for the priests the sons of Aaron, which are sanctified to burn incense. Get thee out of the sanctuary, for thou hast transgressed: and it shall not be honour unto thee in the sight of GOD the LORD.

19. And Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand. And when he murmured with the priests, leprosy came out in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD before the altar of incense.

20. And Azariah the chief priest turned his head toward him, and all the priests; and, behold, he was leprous in his forehead: and they cast him out from thence. And he himself hasted to go out, because his plague was from the LORD.

21. So Uzziah the king was a leper unto his death, and dwelt in a leper house: for he was cast out of the house of the LORD. And Jotham his son stood before the king's house, and judged the people of the land.

22. And the rest of the acts of Uzziah, both the first and the last, are described by Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz.

23. And Uzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field by the burying of the kings: for they said: He is a leper. And Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 27

Jotham makes the Ammonites interestable.

1. Jotham was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerusa, a daughter of Zadok.
2. And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, as Uzziah his father had done, not going into the temple of the LORD, nor corrupting the people.
3. He built the high gate of the house of the LORD, and the wall of Ophel he built much.
4. And he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built castles and towers.
5. And he fought with the king of the children of Ammon, and was mighty over them: and the children of Ammon gave him the same year an hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. And the children of Ammon gave him the same in the second year, and in the third year.
6. So Jotham was mighty: for he judged his ways before the LORD his God.
7. And the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his strife, and all his ways, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.
8. Twenty and five years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.
9. And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David. And Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 28

Of Ahaz the king of Judah, and his ungodly nature.

1. Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and he did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD, as David his father did, 2. But walked in the ways of the kings of Israel. For this purpose he made cast images of Baalim.
3. And he burnt incense in the valley of the children of Hinnom, and burnt his sons with fire, according to the abomination of the heathen, whom the LORD had driven out from before the children of Israel;
4. And offered sacrifice and burnt incense in the high places, and in the hills, and under every green tree.

5. Therefore the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria, and they smote him, and carried away a great multitude of his own captives, and brought them to Damascus.

He was also given into the hand of the king of Israel, and he fought a great battle against him.

6. For Pekah the son of Remaliah smote in Judah an hundred and twenty thousand in one day, all of them upright men, because they forsook the LORD God of their fathers.

7. And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maeshiah the king's son, and Azrikam the prince of the house, and Elkanah the next after the king.

8. And the children of Israel carried away captive from among their brethren two hundred thousand women, sons and daughters: and they took a great spoil of them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

9. And there was there a prophet of the LORD, whose name was Oded, which went out to meet the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, because the LORD God of your fathers is wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand; but ye have slain them so horribly that it reacheth unto heaven.

10. Now therefore intend ye to subdue the children of Judah and Jerusalem unto you for bondmen and bondmaids. Is not this your fault against the LORD your God?

11. Now therefore hearken unto me, and bring again the captives which ye have carried away from among your brethren: for the wrath of the LORD is kindled against you.

12. And there arose some of the chief of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, and Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, against them that came out of the army,

13. And they said unto them: Ye shall not bring in the captives: for ye only remember iniquity before the LORD against us, that ye may make our sin and our iniquity more: for the iniquity is too much before, and the wrath is kindled against Israel.

14. And the soldiers left the captives and the spoil before the princes, and before all the congregation.

15. And the men which are now named arose, and took the captives, and all that were naked among them, and clothed them of the spoil, and put on shoes, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and led them upon asses all that were feeble, and brought them to Jericho, to the city of palm trees, to their brethren. And they returned to Samaria.

16. At that time king Ahaz sent unto the kings of Assyria to help him.

17. And the Edomites came again, and smote Judah, and carried away some of them.

18. And the Philistines pitched in the cities, in the floodplain, and in the south of Judah, and took Bethshemesh, and Ajalon, and Gederoth, and Shocho, with their daughters, and Timnah with her daughters, and Gimso with her daughters; and dwelt therein.

19. For the LORD humbled Judah because of Ahaz king of Judah, because he made Judah naked, and trespassed against the LORD.

20. And there came against him Tiglathpilneser king of Assyria, and besieged him; but he could not prevail against him.

21. For Ahaz divided the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and the house of the princes, which he gave to the king of Assyria: but it availed him not.

22. And in his distress king Ahaz made more of the trespass against the LORD.

23. And he sacrificed unto the gods of Damascus, which smote him, saying, The gods of the kings of Syria help them: therefore will I sacrifice unto them, that they may help me also: for they were a stumblingblock to him, and to all Israel.

24. And Ahaz brought the vessels of the house of God in multitude, and gathered the vessels into the house of God, and shut the doors of the house of the LORD, and made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem.

25. And in the cities of Judah to and fro he made high places to burn incense unto other gods, and provoked the LORD God of his fathers.

26. And the rest of his acts, and all his ways, both first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

27. And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of Jerusalem: for they brought him not among the sepulchres of the kings of Israel. And Jehizkiah his son reigned in his stead.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 29

Jehizkiah restores the right worship,

1. Jehizkiah was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah, a daughter of Zechariah.
2. And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, as did David his father.
3. He opened the doors of the house of the LORD in the first month of the first year of his kingdom, and fastened them.
4. And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and assembled them in the broad street toward the east.
5. And said unto them: Hearken unto me, ye Levites. Sanctify yourselves therefore, that ye sanctify the house of the LORD your God's fathers, and put away the filth from off the sanctuary.
6. For our fathers have transgressed, and done evil in the sight of the LORD our God, and have forsaken him. For they have turned away their faces from the tabernacle of the LORD, and have turned their backs;
7. And they shut the door of the hall, and put out the lamps, and burned no incense, nor offered burnt offerings in the sanctuary unto the God of Israel.
8. Therefore the wrath of the LORD is come upon Judah and Jerusalem, and hath given them to be scattered, and to be desolate, to be whistled at, as ye see with your eyes.
9. For, behold, for this cause our fathers fell by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives were carried away.
10. Now it is in my mind to make a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that his wrath and his fury may turn from us.
11. Now therefore, my sons, be not negligent: for the LORD hath chosen you to stand before him, and to be his ministers and incense burners.
12. And the Levites arose: Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the children of the Kohathites: and of the children of Meran, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehaleleel: and of the children of the Gershonites, Joab the son of Shimmah, and Eden the son of Joah;
13. And of the sons of Elizaphan, Zimri and Jeiel; and of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mathaniah;
14. And of the sons of Heman, Jehiel and Shimei: and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.

15. And they gathered their brethren together, and sanctified themselves, and went in according to the king's commandment by the word of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD.

16. And the priests went in within the house of the LORD to cleanse it, and put all the uncleanness that was found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD: and the Levites took it up, and carried it out into the brook Kidron.

17. And they began to sanctify themselves on the first day of the first month: and on the eighth day of the month they entered into the hall of the LORD, and sanctified the house of the LORD eight days, and finished it on the sixteenth day of the first month.

18. And they went in unto king Hezekiah, and said: We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, the altar of burnt offering, and all his vessels, the table of shewbread, and all his vessels.

19. And all the vessels which Ahaz the king, when he was king, cast away, when he sinned, we have prepared and sanctified; behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.

20. And king Hezekiah rose up early, and gathered the princes of the city together, and went up to the house of the LORD.

21. And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven kids of the goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah. And he spake unto the priests the sons of Aaron, that they should offer upon the altar of the LORD.

22. And they slew the oxen, and the priests took the blood, and sprinkled it upon the altar; and slew the rams, and sprinkled the blood upon the altar; and slew the lambs, and sprinkled the blood upon the altar.

23. And they brought the goats for a sin offering before the king and the congregation, and laid their hands upon them.

24. And the priests slew them, and purified their blood upon the altar, to make an atonement for all Israel. For the king had commanded to offer burnt offerings and sin offerings for all Israel.

25. And he set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, and with psalteries, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king's tempter, and of Nathan the prophet: for it was the commandment of the LORD by his prophets.

26. And the Levites sat with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

27. And Hezekiah commanded them to offer burnt offerings upon the altar. And it came to pass about the time that they began to offer the burnt offering, that the song of the LORD began, and the sound of the trumpets, and the sound of many strings of David king of Israel.

28. And all the congregation worshipped, and the singing of the singers, and the beating of the drums, continued all until the burnt offering was offered.

29. And when the burnt offering was made, the king bowed himself, and all that were with him, and worshipped.

30. And king Hezekiah and the princes commanded the Levites to praise the LORD with the song of David, and with the song of Assaph, the showman. And they praised with joy, and bowed themselves, and worshipped.

31. And Hezekiah answered and said, Now that ye have filled your hands unto the LORD, come near, and bring the sacrifices and the peace offerings unto the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought sacrifices and peace offerings, and every man a freewill offering of the heart.

32. And the number of the burnt offerings which the congregation offered was threescore and ten oxen, and an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering unto the LORD.

33. And they sanctified six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep.

34. But the priests were few, and could not skin all the burnt offerings: therefore they took their brethren the Levites, until the work was finished, and the priests sanctified themselves. For the Levites are more easily sanctified than the priests.

35. And the burnt offerings were many, with the fat of the peace offerings, and the drink offerings with the burnt offerings. So the service of the house of the LORD was finished.

36. And Hezekiah rejoiced with all the people, because they were ready with God: for it was done speedily.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 30

Proclamation and keeping of the Passover.'

1. And Hezekiah sent unto all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters unto Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD to Jerusalem, to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel.
2. And the king took counsel with the princes thereof, and with all the congregation that were at Jerusalem, to keep the passover in the second month.
3. For they could not keep it that day, because the priests were not sanctified enough, and the people were not yet come in multitude to Jerusalem.
4. And it pleased the king well, and all the congregation,
5. And they commanded to be proclaimed throughout all Israel, from Beersheba even unto Dan, to come and keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem: for it was not kept for a long time, as it is written.
6. And the runners went with the letters by the hand of the king and of his princes throughout all Israel and Judah out of the king's commandment, saying: Ye children of Israel, turn ye unto the LORD God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Israel, and he will turn unto the remnant that are left of you out of the hand of the kings of Assyria.
7. And be not ye like your fathers and your brethren, which trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, and he gave them up to desolation, as ye yourselves see.
8. Be not stiffnecked therefore, as your fathers were, but give your hand unto the LORD, and come unto his sanctuary, which he hath hallowed for ever, and serve the LORD your God: and the fury of his wrath shall be turned away from you.
9. For if ye turn unto the LORD, your brethren and your children shall have mercy upon them that hold them captive, that they may come again into this land. For the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn his face from you, if ye turn unto him.
10. And the runners went from city to city in the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, and as far as Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them.
11. And some of Asher, and Manasseh, and Zebulun, humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.

12. And the hand of God came upon Judah, to give them one heart to do according to the commandment of the king, and according to the commandment of the princes, from the word of the LORD.

13. And there came a great multitude to Jerusalem to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation.

14. And they arose, and took down the altars that were in Jerusalem, and put away all the incense, and cast it into the brook Kidron.

15. And they slew the passover on the fourteenth day of the second month. And the priests and the Levites confessed their shame, and sanctified themselves, and brought the burnt offerings unto the house of the LORD.

16. And they kept their charge according to the law of Moses the man of God. And the priests sprinkled the blood from the hand of the Levites.

17. For there were many of them in the congregation that had not sanctified themselves: therefore the Levites slew the passover for them that were not clean, that they might be sanctified unto the LORD.

18. And there were many of the people of Ephraim, and Manasseh, and Issachar, and Zebulun, which were not clean, but did eat the passover, as it is written. For Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The LORD, which is good, will be gracious.

19. To all who send their hearts to seek God, the Lord, the God of their fathers, and not for the sake of holy purity.

20. And the LORD hearkened unto Hezekiah, and healed the people.

21. So the children of Israel that were found at Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great joy. And the Levites and the priests praised the LORD all the days with strong singing of the LORD.

22. And Hezekiah spake heartily unto all the Levites, which had good understanding in the LORD. And they did eat the feast seven days, and offered peace offerings, and gave thanks unto the LORD God of their fathers.

23. And the whole congregation were counselled to keep seven days more: and they kept the seven days with joy.

24. For Hezekiah king of Judah gave a tribute for the congregation, a thousand bullocks, and seven thousand sheep. And the princes gave a tribute for the congregation, a thousand bullocks, and ten thousand sheep. So many priests sanctified themselves.

25. And all the congregation of Judah, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the congregation that were come out of Israel, and the strangers that were come out of the land of Israel, and that dwelt in Judah, rejoiced.

26. And there was great joy in Jerusalem. For not since the days of Solomon the son of David king of Israel had such things been in Jerusalem.

27. And the priests and the Levites arose, and blessed the people; and their voice was heard, and their prayer came in before his holy habitation which is in heaven.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 31

Abolition of idolatry, provision for the priests and Levites.

1. And when all these things were made ready, all the children of Israel that were found among the cities of Judah went out, and brake down the pillars, and cut down the groves, and brake down the high places and the altars out of all Judah, and Benjamin, and Ephraim, and Manasseh, until they had made them clean. And the children of Israel returned unto their possession unto their cities.

2. And Hezekiah set the priests and the Levites in their order, every man according to his service, both of the priests and the Levites, for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise, in the gates of the camp of the LORD.

3. And the king gave his portion of his substance for burnt offerings morning and evening, and for burnt offerings on the sabbath day, and for new moons, and for feasts, as it is written in the law of the LORD.

4. And he spake unto the people that dwelt at Jerusalem, that they should give part to the priests and to the Levites, that they might keep the law of the LORD more earnestly.

5. And when the word went forth, the children of Israel gave much firstfruits of corn, and wine, and oil, and honey, and all the produce of the field; and they brought in much tithes of all kinds.

6. And the children of Israel and Judah, which dwelt in the cities of Judah, brought also tithes of oxen and sheep, and tithes of that which was sanctified, which they had dedicated unto the LORD their God, and made heaps here and heaps there.

7. In the third moon they began to lay heaps, and in the seventh moon they straightened it.

8. And when Hezekiah went in with the princes, and saw the multitude, they praised the LORD, and his people Israel.

9. And Hezekiah asked the priests and the Levites for heaps.

10. And Azariah the priest, the chief of the house of Zadok, said unto him, Since the time that they began to bring the heaves into the house of the LORD, we have eaten, and been filled, and there is yet much left: for the LORD hath blessed his people, therefore this multitude is left.

11. Then the king commanded that boxes should be prepared in the house of the LORD. And they prepared them

12. And they put in the heave, and the tithes, and the holy things, faithfully. And over the same was prince Hananiah the Levite, and Shimei his brother the other,

13. And Jehiel, and Azaziah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Jesmachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, appointed by the hand of Hananiah, and by the hand of Shimei his brother, according to the commandment of king Hezekiah. But Azariah was prince in the house of God.

14. And Kore the son of Jemnah the Levite, the keeper of the gate toward the east, was over the freewill offerings of God, which were given to the LORD to heave, and over the most holy.

15. And under his hand were: Eden, and Minjamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, and Amariah, and Zechaniah, in the cities of the priests, on faith to give unto their brethren after their order, to the least as well as to the greatest;

16. And to them that were counted men of three years old and upward, of all that entered into the house of the LORD, every one in his day to their service in their charge, according to their order;

17. Even they that were counted for priests in the house of their fathers, and the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, in their guard after their order;

18. And they that were numbered among their children, and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, among all the congregation. For they sanctified the holy things faithfully.

19. And there were men named among the children. Aaron the priests, in the fields of the suburbs, in all the cities, to give part to all the men of the priests, and to all that were numbered with the Levites.

20. So Hezekiah did throughout all Judah, and did that which was good, and right, and true, in the sight of the LORD his God.

21. And in all that he began to do in the service of the house of God, according to the law and the commandment, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart; therefore he was fortunate.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 32

Hezekiah's miraculous protection against Sanherib.

1. After these tales, and after these faithfulness, came Sanherib king of Assyria, and went into Judah, and encamped before the strong cities, and purposed to take them.

2. And it came to pass, when Hezekiah saw that Sanherib was come, and that his face was set to fight against Jerusalem,

3. And he took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to cover the waters of the wells that were without the city: and they helped him.

4. And a great multitude gathered themselves together, and covered all the wells and running waters in the midst of the land, and said: That the kings of Assyria find not much water when they come.

5. And he was confident, and built all the walls that were broken down, and made towers upon them, and built another wall without, and fortified Millo in the city of David, and made many weapons and shields.

6. And he set the captains to battle among the people, and gathered them unto him into the broad street of the gate of the city, and spake heartily unto them, saying: 7. Be of good cheer, fear not, nor be dismayed before the king of Assyria, nor before all the multitude that are with him: for there is a greater with us than with him.

8. With him is an arm of flesh: but with us is the LORD our God, to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people trusted in the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

9. After these things Sanherib king of Assyria sent his servants to Jerusalem, (for he was before Lachish, and all his dominions with him,) to Hezekiah king of Judah, and to all Judah that was at Jerusalem, saying:

10. Thus saith Sanherib king of Assyria, Wherefore dwell ye in Jerusalem that are besieged?

11. And Hezekiah hath spoken unto you to give you to death, and to hunger, and to thirst, saying, The LORD our God will deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria.

12. Is not he Hezekiah, which put away his high places and his altars, and said unto Judah and Jerusalem, Before one altar shall ye worship, and burn incense thereon?

13. Know ye not what I and my fathers have done unto all the peoples of the countries? Have the gods of the nations of the countries delivered their countries out of my hand?

14. Who is there among all the gods of these nations, which my fathers destroyed, that should deliver his people out of mine hand, that your God should deliver you out of mine hand?

15. Let not Hezekiah therefore set you up, neither let him persuade you, nor believe him. For if no god of all nations and kingdoms hath delivered his people out of mine hand, nor out of the hand of my fathers; neither will your gods deliver you out of mine hand.

16. And his servants spake yet more against the LORD God, and against his servant Hezekiah.

17. And he wrote letters of scorn unto the LORD God of Israel, and spake of him, saying, As the gods of the heathen of the countries have not delivered their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand.

18. And they cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language unto the people that were at Jerusalem, which were upon the wall, to make them afraid, and to affright them, that they might gain the city;

19. And they spake against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the nations of the earth, which were the work of men's hands.

20. And Hezekiah the king, and Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, prayed against it, and cried unto heaven.

21. And the LORD sent an angel, which destroyed all the mighty men of the host, and the princes, and the rulers of the camp of the king of Assyria; and he returned with shame into his own land. And when he was entered into the house of his God, they that were of his own body slew him there with the sword.

22. So the LORD delivered Hezekiah and Jerusalem out of the hand of Sanherib king of Assyria, and out of the hand of all the rest, and kept them from all around, 23. And many brought gifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and jewels unto Hezekiah king of Judah. And afterward he was exalted in the sight of all the nations.

24. And at that time Hezekiah was sick unto death; and he besought the LORD. And he spake unto him, and gave him a miracle.

25. But Hezekiah forgave not as it was given him: for his heart was lifted up. Therefore wrath came upon him, and upon Judah, and upon Jerusalem.

26. But Hezekiah humbled himself, because his heart was lifted up, he and they of Jerusalem: therefore the wrath of the LORD came not upon them, because Hezekiah lived.

27. And Hezekiah had very great riches and honour, and made him treasures of silver, and gold, and precious stones, and spices, and shields, and all manner of precious vessels.

28. And granaries for the corn, and for the must, and for the oil, and stalls for all manner of cattle, and sheds for the sheep.

29. And they built him cities, and had flocks and herds in abundance: for God gave him very great goods.

30. He is the Hezekiah that covered the high spring of water in Gihon, and led it down from the west to the city of David: for Hezekiah was blessed in all his works.

31. And when the messages of the princes of Babylon were sent unto him, to inquire after the miracle that was done in the land, God left him to try him, that all things that were in his heart might be known.

32. And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his mercy, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

33. And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him over the graves of the children of David. And all Judah and they that were at Jerusalem did him honour in his death. And Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 33

Manasseh and Amon's government.

1. Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem;

2. And did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to the abominations of the heathen, which the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel.

3. And he turned again, and built the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down, and set up altars for Baalim, and made groves, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and ministered unto them.

4. He also built altars in the house of the LORD, whereof the LORD spake: In Jerusalem shall my name be for ever.

5. And built altars of all host in heaven in both courts of the house of the LORD.

6. And he caused his sons to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and chose days, and hearkened unto the cry of the birds, and wrought magic, and appointed soothsayers and diviners, and did much that was evil in the sight of the LORD to provoke him to anger.

7. And he set images and graven images, which he made, in the house of God, whereof the LORD spake to David, and to Solomon his son, saying, In this house which is at Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever; 8. And I will no more turn aside the foot of Israel from the land which I appointed for their fathers, if they will observe to do all that I have commanded them in all the statutes, and in all the commandments, and in all the judgments, by the hand of Moses.

9. And Manasseh deceived Judah and Jerusalem, so that they did more evil than the heathen, whom the LORD had destroyed from before the children of Israel.

10. And when the LORD spake unto Manasseh and to his people, they took no notice.

11. Therefore the LORD sent upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh captive with fetters, and bound him with chains, and brought him to Babylon.

12. And when he was in anguish, he besought the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers,

13. And he besought him, and besought him. And he heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem unto his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD was God.

14. And afterward he built the uttermost walls of the city of David from the westward to Gihon in the brook, and from the entering in of the fish gate, and round about to Ophel, and made them very high: and he put captains in the strong cities of Judah.

15. And he took away the strange gods, and the idols out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars which he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city.

16. And he set up the altar of the LORD, and offered thereon peace offerings and sacrifices of praise, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.

17. But the people sacrificed in the high places, though they sacrificed unto the LORD their God.

18. And the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayers unto his God, and the words of the men that talked with him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they are among the acts of the kings of Israel.

19. And his prayer, and his supplication, and all his sin and iniquity, and the place whereon he built the high places, and made groves and idols, before he was humbled, behold, they are written among the tales of the showers.

20. And Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his house. And Amon his son reigned in his stead.

21. Twenty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem.

22. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as Manasseh his father had done.

And Amon sacrificed unto all the idols which Manasseh his father had made, and served them.

23. But he humbled not himself before the LORD, as Manasseh his father humbled himself: for he Amon made much iniquity.

24. And his servants made a league against him, and slew him in his house.

25. And the people of the land smote all them that had made a covenant against Amon the king.

And the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 34

Josiah cleans and improves the temple.

1. Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty and one years in Jerusalem.
2. And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of David his father, and turned not aside to the right hand, nor to the left.
3. For in the eighth year of his reign, when he was yet a boy, he began to seek the God of David his father; and in the twelfth year he began to cleanse Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and from the groves, and from the idols, and from the graven images.
4. And he brake down before him the altars of Baalim, and the graven images that were upon them, and he brake down the groves, and the idols, and the graven images, and made them dust, and scattered them upon the graves of them that sacrificed unto them.
5. And he burnt the bones of the priests upon the altars, and purified Judah and Jerusalem, 6. And in the cities of Manasseh, and in Ephraim, and in Simeon, and as far as Naphtali, in their deserts round about.
7. And when he had broken down the altars and the groves, and broken in pieces the idols, and cut down all the images throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.
8. In the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purified the land and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Jehoah the son of Jehoahaz the chancellor, to repair the house of the LORD his God.
9. And they came to Hilkiah the high priest. And they gave them the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the threshold had gathered of Manasseh, and of Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin, and of them that dwelt at Jerusalem.
10. And they put it under the hands of the labourers that were employed in the house of the LORD. And they gave it to them that wrought in the house of the LORD, and where it was broken down, to repair the house.
11. And they sent away to the carpenters and builders to buy hewn stone and hewn timber for the beams of the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed.
12. And the men laboured faithfully in the work. And Jahath and Obadiah the Levite, of the children of Merari; Zechariah and Meshullam, of the children of the Kohathites, were appointed over them to do the work; and all the Levites that knew how to play the string.

13. And over the bearers of burdens, and the drivers of all manner of work in all offices, were of the Levites the scribes, and the officers, and the porters.

14. And when they had taken out the money that was laid up for the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found the book of the law of the LORD given by Moses.

15. And Hilkiah answered and said unto Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah gave the book unto Shaphan.

16. And Shaphan brought it unto the king, and told the king again, saying, All that is put into the hands of thy servants, they do.

17. And they poured out the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and gave it to them that were bidden, and to the workmen.

18. And Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath given me a book. And Shaphan read within before the king.

19. And when the king heard the words of the law, he rent his clothes.

20. And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying: 21. Go ye, enquire of the LORD for me, and for the remnant of Israel, and for Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is kindled against us, because our fathers kept not the word of the LORD, to do as it is written in this book.

22. Then Hilkiah went with the rest of the king's men unto Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Takehath, the son of Hasrah, the keeper of the garments, which dwelt in Jerusalem in the other part, and spake these things unto her.

23. And she said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Say unto the man that sent you unto me:

24. Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, all the curses that are written in the book that was read before the king of Judah, 25. Because they have forsaken me, and burned incense unto other gods, and provoked me to anger with all the works of their hands. And my wrath shall be kindled upon this place, and shall not be quenched.

26. And unto the king of Judah, which sent you to enquire of the LORD, ye shall say thus, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel concerning the words which thou hast heard: 27. Because thine heart was moved, and thou humbledst thyself before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and hast humbled thyself before me, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me, I also have heard thee, saith the LORD.

28. Behold, I will gather thee unto thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered into thy grave in peace; and thine eyes shall not see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof: and they told the king again.

29. And the king sent, and called for all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

30. And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, both small and great: and all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in the house of the LORD were read in their ears.

31. And the king stood in his place, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to do according to all the words of the covenant that were written in this book.

32. And all that were in Jerusalem, and in Benjamin, stood there. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

33. And Josiah put away all the abominations out of all the countries that were of the children of Israel, and caused all that were found in Israel to serve the LORD their God. As long as Josiah lived, they departed not from the LORD their fathers' God.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 35

Josiah keeps Passover, perishes in battle,

1. And Josiah kept the passover unto the LORD in Jerusalem, and slew the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.

2. And he put the priests in their charge, and strengthened them for their service in the house of the LORD.
3. And he spake unto the Levites, which taught all Israel, and were sanctified unto the LORD: Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel built. Ye shall not bear it upon your shoulders. Serve therefore the LORD your God, and his people Israel.
4. And, Set the house of your fathers in your order, as it was described by David king of Israel, and by Solomon his son.
5. And stand in the sanctuary after the order of the fathers' houses among your brethren, born of the people, even the order of the fathers' houses among the Levites.
6. And kill the passover, and sanctify yourselves, and send your brethren to do according to the word of the LORD by Moses.
7. And Josiah gave for an offering to the common man lambs and kids of the goats, all for the passover, for all that were present, thirty thousand in number, and three thousand oxen, and all of the king's substance.
8. And his princes gave freely for the people, and for the priests, and for the Levites (Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, the princes of the house of God among the priests), for the passover, two thousand and six hundred lambs and goats, and three hundred oxen.
9. And Hananiah, and Shemaiah, and Nethaneel, and his brethren, Hashabiah, and Jeiel, and Jozabad, the chief of the Levites, gave unto the Levites for the passover five thousand lambs and goats, and five hundred oxen.
10. So the service was appointed; and the priests sat in their place, and the Levites in their order, according to the king's commandment.
11. And they slew the passover; and the priests took of their hands, and sprinkled, and the Levites skinned them.
12. And they offered the burnt offerings thereof, that they might offer them among the parts of the fathers' houses in their common multitude unto the LORD, as it is written in the book of Moses. And so they did with the oxen.
13. And they cooked the passover by the fire, as it was meet. And that which was hallowed they cooked in pots, and in kettles, and in pans. And they made it in haste for the common multitude.

14. And afterward they prepared also for themselves, and for the priests. For the priests, the sons of Aaron, prepared the burnt offering and the fat until night. Therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron.

15. And they, the singers, the children of Asaph, sat in their place according to the commandment of David, and of Asaph, and of Heman, and of Jedithun, the king's porter, and the porters of all the gates: and they departed not from their service: for the Levites their brethren prepared for them,

16. So all the service of the LORD that day was ordained," that they kept the passover, and offered burnt offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah.

17. So the children of Israel that were present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days.

18. And there was no passover kept in Israel like unto this from the time of Samuel the prophet, neither had there been a king in Israel that kept such a passover as Josiah kept, and the Levites the priests, all Judah, and all that were present of Israel, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

19. In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept.

20. And it came to pass after this, when Josiah had made ready the house, that Necho king of Egypt went up to fight against Carchemish at Phrath. And Josiah went out to meet him.

21. But he sent messengers unto him, saying, What have I to do with thee, O king Judas? I come not now against thee, but I contend against a house, and God hath told me to haste. Hear of God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not.

22. But Josiah turned not his face from him, but stood to contend with him, and hearkened not to the words of Necho out of the mouth of God; and came to contend with him in the plain at Megiddo.

23. But they that shot the king Josiah. And the king said unto his servants: Lead me over, for I am very sore.

24. And his servants took him out of the chariot, and led him in his other chariot, and brought him to Jerusalem: and he died, and was buried among the sepulchres of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

25. And Jeremiah lamented Josiah; and all the singers and singers spake their lamentations over Josiah unto this day, and made it a custom in Israel. Behold, it is written among the lamentations.

26. But the more that is to be said of Josiah, and his mercy according to the scriptures in the law of the LORD.

27. And the acts thereof, both the first and the last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

(2 Chronicles)

Chapter 36

Of Josiah's successors and the Babylonian captivity.

1. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's stead at Jerusalem.

2. Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

3. For the king of Egypt deposed him at Jerusalem, and made an atonement for the land of an hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

4. And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. But Jehoahaz his brother Necho took, and brought him into Egypt.

5. Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and he did evil in the sight of the LORD his God.

6. And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against him, and bound him with chains, to bring him to Babylon.

7. Nebuchadnezzar also brought some vessels of the house of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon.

8. And the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and which were found in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. And Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

9. Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem, and did evil in the sight of the LORD.

10. And it came to pass, when the year was expired, that Nebuchadnezzar sent and took him to Babylon with the precious vessels that were in the house of the LORD, and made Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem;

11. Zedekiah was twenty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

12. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God, and humbled not himself before Jeremiah the prophet, which spake out of the mouth of the LORD.

13. And he turned away from Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, which had taken an oath of him by God, and was stiffnecked, and hardened his heart, that he turned not unto the LORD God of Israel.

14. And all the chief of the priests with the people sinned much after all the abominations of the heathen, and defiled the house of the LORD, which he had sanctified at Jerusalem.

15. And the LORD God of their fathers sent unto them early by his messengers. For he spared his people, and his tabernacle.

16. But they mocked at the messengers of God, and despised his words, and mocked at his prophets, until the fury of the LORD increased against his people, that there was no more healing.

17. For he brought upon them the king of the Chaldeans, and slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and spared neither young men nor virgins, neither old men nor grandfathers: he delivered them all into his hand.

18. And all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes, all these he carried away to Babylon.

19. And they burned the house of God, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem, and burned all her palaces with fire, and destroyed all her precious vessels.

20. And he carried away to Babylon them that remained of the sword, and they became his servants, and his sons' servants, until the kingdom of the Persians reigned, 21. That the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, until the land had enough of his sabbaths. For all the time of the destruction was the sabbath, until the seventy years were fulfilled.

22. And it came to pass in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, that the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, to cry out throughout all his kingdom, and by writing, saying: 23. Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The LORD God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the countries, and hath commanded me to build him an house at Jerusalem in Judah. Whosoever therefore among you is of his people, with him be the LORD his God, and go up.

Text of the unrevised Luther Bible 1545:

DeepL English Translation

[Processed by BackToLuther. German text published here.]

The Book of Ezra ^

Chapter 1

Cyrus, or Cyrus, releases the captive Jews.

1. In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he should cry out throughout all his kingdom, and in writing, saying:

2. Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The LORD God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he hath commanded me to build him an house at Jerusalem in Judah.

3. Whosoever therefore among you is of his people, let his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel. He is the God who is in Jerusalem.

4. And whosoever remaineth in any place where he is a stranger, the people of his place shall freely help him with silver, and gold, and goods, and cattle, unto the house of GOD at Jerusalem.

5. And the chief fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, all whose spirit God had stirred up, arose to go up and build the house of the LORD in Jerusalem.

6. And all they that were about them strengthened their hand with vessels of silver, and with vessels of gold, and with goods, and with cattle, and with jewels, without any free gift.

7. And king Cyrus brought forth the vessels of the house of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of Jerusalem, and put them in the house of his God.

8. And Cyrus king of Persia brought them out by Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them with Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah.

9. And this is the number of them: thirty basins of gold, and a thousand basins of silver, twenty and nine knives;

10. Thirty cups of gold, and other silver cups four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand, 11. And all the vessels, both of gold and silver, were five thousand and four hundred. All these did Sheshbazzar bring up with them that came up out of the prison of Babylon unto Jerusalem.

(Ezra)

Chapter 2

Number and register of the returning Jews and their contribution to the building of the temple.

1. These are the children of the countries which came up out of the captivity which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had brought to Babylon, and returned to Jerusalem, and to Judah, every man to his own city.

2. And came with Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and Nehemiah, and Seraiah, and Reeliah, and Mordecai, and Bilshan, and Mishpar, and Bigevai, and Rehum, and Baena. Now this is the number of the men of the people of Israel:

3. Of the children of Pareo, two thousand and two hundred and seventy; 4. The children of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy and two;

5. The children of Arah, seven hundred seventy and five;

6. Of the sons of Pahathmoab, of the sons of Jeshua, Joab, two thousand eight hundred and twelve;

7. Of the children of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four; 8. Of the children of Sathu, nine hundred forty and five;

9. The children of Sakai, seven hundred threescore and ten;

10. Of the children of Bani, six hundred forty and two;

11. Of the children of Bebai, six hundred twenty and three;

12. Of the children of Asgad, a thousand two hundred twenty and two;

13. Of the children of Adonikam, six hundred threescore and six; 14.

The children of Bigevai, two thousand and fifty and six;

15. The children of Adin, four hundred fifty and four;

16. Of the sons of Ater of Hezekiah, ninety and eight;

17. The children of Bezai, three hundred twenty and three;

18. The children of Jorah, an hundred and twelve.

19. Of the children of Hasum, two hundred twenty and three;

20. Of the children of Gibbar ninety and five;
21. Of the children of Beth-lehem, an hundred twenty and three;
22. of the men Netopha fifty-six;
23. Of the men of Anathoth, an hundred twenty and eight;
24. Of the children of Asmaveth forty-two;
25. Of the children of Kiriath-arim, Caphira, and Beeroth, seven hundred forty and three; 26. Of the children of Ramah and Gaba, six hundred twenty and one; 27. Of the men of Michmash, an hundred twenty and two;
28. Of the men of Bethel and Ai, two hundred twenty and three;
29. The children of Nebo fifty and two;
30. Of the men of Magbis an hundred and fifty-six;
31. Of the children of the other Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four;
32. Of the children of Harim, three hundred twenty; 33. Of the children of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred twenty and five; 34. The children of Jereho, three hundred forty and five;
35. Of the children of Senaa, three thousand six hundred thirty; 36. The priests: of the sons of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred threescore and three; 37. of the children Always a thousand and fifty-two;
38. Of the children of Pashur, a thousand two hundred forty and seven;
39. Of the children of Harim, a thousand and seventeen;
40. Of the Levites: of the children of Jeshua, and of Kadmiel, of the children of Hodaviah, seventy and four;
41. The singers: of the children of Assaph, an hundred twenty and eight; 42. Of the children of the keepers of the gate: the children of Shallum, the children of Ater, the children of Talmon, the children of Akub, the children of Hatita, and the children of Sobai, all an hundred thirty and nine;
43. Of the Nethinim: the children of Ziha, the children of Hasupha, the children of Tabaoth, 44. The children of Keros, the children of Sieha, the children of Padon, 45. The children of Lebana, the children of Hagaba, the children of Akub, 46. The children of Hagab, the children of Samlai, the children of Hanan, 47. The children of Giddel, the children of Gahar, the children of Reaiah, 48. The children of Rezin, the children of

Nekoda, the children of Gasam, 49. The children of Uzzah, the children of Paseah, the children of Besai.

50. The children of Asna, the children of Meunim, the children of Nephusim,.

51. The children of Bakbuk, the children of Hakupha, the children of Harhur, 52. The children of Bazeluth, the children of Mehida, the children of Harsa, 53. The children of Barkom, the children of Sissera, the children of Thamah, 54. The children of Neziah, the children of Hatipha;

55. The children of Solomon's servants: the children of Sotai, the children of Sophereth, the children of Pruda, 56. The children Jaela, the children Darkon, the children Giddel, 57. The children of Shephatiah, the children of Hattil, the children of Pochereth of Zebaim, the children of Ami.

58. All the Nethinims and the children of Solomon's servants were together three hundred and ninety and two.

59. And these also went up with them, Mithel, and Melah, and Thelharsa, and Cherub-Addon, and Immer: but they could not shew the house of their fathers, nor their seed, whether they were of Israel.

60. The children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda: six hundred fifty and two.

61. And of the sons of the priests; the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Hakozi, the sons of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called by the same name.

62. These sought their registers of birth, and found none: therefore they were loosed from the priesthood.

63. And Hathirsatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the holy of holies, until a priest stood with the light and right.

64. All the congregation, as one man, were forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore, 65. Except their menservants and their maidservants, which were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven. And had two hundred singers and singers,

66. Seven hundred thirty and six horses, two hundred forty and five mouths, 67. Four hundred thirty and five camels, and six thousand seven hundred and twenty asses.

68. And some of the chief fathers, when they came to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, became of their own accord the house of GOD, to set it in his place.

69. And they gave to the treasury according to their substance threescore and one thousand talents, and five thousand pounds of silver, and an hundred priests' garments.

70. And the priests, and the Levites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, sat down in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

(Ezra)

Chapter 3

From the altar of burnt offering. Feast of Tabernacles and Foundation of the Temple.

1. And when the seventh month was come, and the children of Israel were in their cities, the people came together as one man to Jerusalem.

2. And Jeshua the son of Jozadak arose, and his brethren the priests, and the son of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and built the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in the law of Moses the man of God.

3. And they set up the altar upon his throne, (for there was a terror among them of the people of the countries,) and offered burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD morning and evening.

4. And they kept the feast of tabernacles, as it is written, and offered burnt offerings every day by number, according to the manner, every day his offering,

5. Afterward also the daily burnt offerings, and the new moons, and all the feasts of the LORD which were hallowed, and all manner of freewill offerings, which they offered freely unto the LORD.

6. On the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings unto the LORD. But the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid.

7. And they gave money unto the masons, and to the carpenters, and meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar wood from Lebanon to the sea to Japho, according to the commandment of Cyrus king of Persia unto them.

8. And it came to pass in the second year of their going to the house of God to Jerusalem, in the second month, that Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the rest of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all that came out of the prison to Jerusalem, set the Levites twenty years old and upward to do the work of the house of the LORD.

9. And Jeshua stood with his sons and his brethren, and Kadmiel with his sons, and the children of Judah as a fine man, to do the work of the house of God, even the children of Henadad with their children, and their brethren the Levites.

10. And when the builders had laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, the priests clothed with trumpets, and the Levites the children of Asaph with cymbals, stood praising the LORD with the song of David king of Israel.

11. And they sang together with praise and thanksgiving unto the LORD, because he is good, and his mercy endureth for ever upon Israel. And all the people sang aloud with praise unto the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

12. But many of the priests and Levites and fathers of old, which had seen the former house, and now this house was founded before their eyes, they wept aloud. But many of them shouted with joy, so that the shout went up,

13. That the people might not know the sound of rejoicing before the cry of weeping among the people: for the people sounded with a loud voice, and the cry was heard afar off.

(Ezra)

Chapter 4

The enemies of the Jews have hindered the building of the temple.

1. And when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the prison were building the temple unto the LORD God of Israel,

2. And they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief fathers, and said unto them: We will build with you, for we seek your God, as ye do: and we have not sacrificed since the days of Assar Haddon king of Assyria, which brought us up.

3. But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief fathers of Israel, answered them: It is not fitting for us or you to build the house of our God, but we will build only to the LORD, the God of Israel, as Cyrus king of Persia commanded us.

4. And the people of the land restrained the hand of the people of Judah, and discouraged them from building.

5. And they hired counselors against them, and prevented their counsel, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, unto the kingdom of Darii king of Persia.

6. For when Ahasuerus was king, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote a charge against them of Judah and Jerusalem.

7. And in the days of Arthahsastha wrote Bislam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their council, unto Arthahsastha king of Persia. And the writing of the letter was written in Syriac, and was interpreted in Syriac.

8. And Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe wrote this letter against Jerusalem unto Arthazer the king:

9. We, Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and others of the council of Dinah, and of Apharsah, and of Tarpla, and of Persia, and of Arach, and of Babylon, and of Shushan, and of Deha, and of Elam

10. And the rest of the people, whom the great and renowned Asnaphar brought over, and set them in the cities of Samaria, and in other cities on this side the river, and in Canaan.

11. And this is the substance of the letter which they sent unto Arthahsaxerxes the king: Thy servants, the men that are on this side the river, and in Canaan.

12. Let it be known unto the king, that the Jews which are come up from thee unto us are come to Jerusalem, to the rebellious and wicked city, and build it, and make the walls thereof, and bring it up out of the ground.

13. Now therefore let it be known unto the king, that when this city is built, and the walls thereof rebuilt, they shall not give the treasury, nor the toll, nor the yearly tribute; and the taking thereof shall be a hurt to kings.

14. But now that we all are present, having destroyed the temple, we would no longer see the king's reproach: therefore let us send and let it be known unto the king, 15. Let it be searched in the book of the chronicles of thy fathers, and thou shalt find in the book of the same chronicles, and shalt know that this city is rebellious and hurtful unto kings and countries, and make others also to fall away of old time, wherefore the city is also destroyed.

16. Therefore let it be known unto the king, that wheresoever this city is built, and the walls thereof are made, thou shalt not retain any thing of it on this side the river.

17. Then the king sent an answer to Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their council that dwelt in Samaria, and to the rest that were beyond the river; peace and salutation.

18. the letter which ye have sent us is publicly read before me.

19. And I commanded that they should search. And it hath been found, that this city of old time hath rebelled against the kings, and there is rebellion and sedition therein.

20. And there were mighty kings in Jerusalem, which ruled over all that was beyond the river, and gave them the tribute, and the treasury, and the yearly interest.

21. Do therefore according to this commandment: Forbid these men that the city be not built, until I give the commandment.

22. Take heed therefore that ye be not negligent therein; lest harm come unto the king.

23. And it came to pass, when the letter of king Arthur was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their council, that they went up in haste to Jerusalem unto the Jews, and rebuked them with their arm and with violence.

24. And he ceased from the work of the house of God which was in Jerusalem, and continued until the second year of Darii king of Persia.

(Ezra)

Chapter 5

Continuation of the temple construction.

1. And Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel.

2. Then arose Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God at Jerusalem, and with them the prophets of God, which strengthened them.

3. At that time there came unto them Thathnai the governor on this side the river, and Stharbosnai, and their council, and said thus unto them: Who commanded you to build this house, and to make the walls thereof?

4. And we told them the names of the men that did this work.

5. But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, that they should not be rebuked, till the matter should come to Darius, and a writing should come again concerning it.

6. Now this is the substance of the letter of Thathnai the governor on this side the river, and of Sthar-bosnai, and of their council of Apharsah, which were on this side the river, unto king Darius.

7. And the words which they sent unto him were these; All peace to Dario the king.

8. Let it be known unto the king, that we are come into the land of Judah, unto the house of the great God, which they build with all manner of stones, and beams are laid in the walls thereof; and the work is done by their hand.

9. And we asked the elders, saying thus unto them, Who commanded you to build this house, and to make the walls thereof?

10. And we asked their names, that we might know them unto thee, and have described the names of the men that were their rulers.

11. And they gave us these words in answer, saying: We are servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house which was built many years ago, which a great king of Israel built, and set it up.

12. And when our fathers provoked God to anger from heaven, he delivered them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon the Chaldean, who brake down this house, and carried the people away to Babylon.

13. But in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon the same king commanded Cyrus to build this house of GOD.

14. For the vessels of gold and silver which were in the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple of Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, Cyrus the king took them out of the temple of Babylon, and gave them to Sheshbazzar by name, whom he made governor;

15. And said unto him, Take these vessels, and go, and bring them into the temple at Jerusalem, and build the house of God in his place.

16. And the same Sheshbazzar came, and laid the foundation of the house of God at Jerusalem.

Since that time they have been building, but it is not yet finished.

17. If it please the king therefore, let him search the king's treasury, which is at Babylon, whether it be the commandment of Cyrus the king to build the house of God at Jerusalem; and send unto us the king's opinion concerning it.

(Ezra)

Chapter 6

Completion and dedication of the temple.

1. Then Darius the king commanded that a search should be made in the king's treasury, which was at Babylon.

2. And there was found at Ahmetha in the castle that is in Media a book, and there was a story written therein:

3. In the first year of Cyrus the king commanded Cyrus to build the house of God in Jerusalem in the place of sacrifice, and to lay the foundation thereof threescore cubits high, and threescore cubits broad,

4. And three walls of all manner of stone, and one wall of wood: and the food shall be of the king's house.

5. And the vessels of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple of Jerusalem, and brought them to Babylon, shall be restored, and brought again into the temple of Jerusalem, into their place in the house of God.

6. Now therefore get thee far from them, thou, Thathnai, keeper of the land on the other side of the river, and Sthar-bosnai, and ye council of Apharsah, which are on the other side of the river.

7. Let them work in the house of God, that the governors of the Jews and their elders may build the house of God in his place.

8. Also it is commanded of me, what they shall do unto the elders of Judah to build the house of GOD; that they take of the king's goods out of the rents that are beyond the river, with diligence, and give them unto the people, and not hinder them.

9. And if they have need of calves, or of lambs, or of goats, for a burnt offering unto the LORD from heaven, or of wheat, or of salt, or of wine, or of oil, after the manner of the priests which are at Jerusalem, they shall give them their due daily; and it shall not be done unadvisedly,

10. That they may offer for a sweet savour unto God from heaven, and pray for the king's life, and for his children.

11. This commandment is done of me. And whosoever shall change these words, of his house shall a beam be taken, and set up, and he shall be hanged thereon: and his house shall be condemned for the deed.

12. And let the God that dwelleth in heaven destroy all the kings and people that stretch forth his hand to change and to destroy the house of God which is in Jerusalem. I, Darius, have commanded this to be done diligently.

13. This was diligently done by Thathnai the governor on the other side of the river, and by Sthar-bosnai with their counsel, to whom Darius the king had sent.

14. And the ancients of the Jews built, and it came to pass by the prophecy of Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, that they built, and set up according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the commandment of Cyrus, and Darii, and Arthashta, kings of Persia;

15. And they finished the house until the third day of the month Adar, which was the sixth year of the reign of king Darii.

16. And the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the prison, kept the dedication of the house of God with joy.

17. And they offered for the dedication of the house of God an hundred calves, and two hundred lambs, and four hundred kids of the goats, and twelve kids of the goats for a sin offering for all Israel, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.

18. And they set the priests in their charge, and the Levites in their charge, to minister unto God, which is in Israel, as it is written in the book of Moses.

19. And the children of the prison kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.

20. For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves, that they were all clean as one man: and they killed the passover for all the children of the prison, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves.

21. And the children of Israel, which were come again out of the prison, and all that were separated unto them from the uncleanness of the heathen of the land, to seek the LORD God of Israel, did eat

22. And they kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with gladness: for the LORD had made them glad, and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria unto them, that they might be strengthened in the work of the house of GOD, who is the God of Israel.

(Ezra)

Chapter 7

Ezra gets permission and promotion to order the service,

1. According to these acts in the kingdom of Arthahsashtas king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah, went up from Babylon, 2. The son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,

3. The son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth,

4. The son of Seraiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bubi,

5. The son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, the chief priest, 6. Who was a skillful scribe in the law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given. And the king gave him all that he required, according to the hand of the LORD his God upon him.

7. And there went up some of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and of the Levites, and of the singers, and of the porters, and of the Nethinims, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Arthashta the king.

8. And they came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which is the seventh year of the king.

9. For in the first day of the first month he was counselled to go up from Babylon; and in the first day of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of God upon him.

10. For Ezra sent his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to do and teach in Israel statutes and judgments.

11. And this is the substance of the letter which Arthaxerxes the king gave unto Ezra the priest the scribe, which was a teacher in the words of the LORD, and in his commandments concerning Israel:

12. Arthahsastha, king of kings, peace and salutation unto Ezra the priest and scribe in the law of GOD from heaven!

13. And it is commanded of me that all they that are of free will in my kingdom, of the people of Israel, and of the priests, and of the Levites, should go up to Jerusalem, that they should go with thee,

14. Sent by the king and the seven counsellors to visit Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of GOD, which is under thine hand,

15. And thou shalt take silver and gold, which the king and his counsellors shall freely give unto the God of Israel, whose tabernacle is at Jerusalem,

16. And all the silver and gold that thou canst find in all the country of Babylon, with that which the people and the priests freely give unto the house of GOD at Jerusalem.

17. Take all these, and buy diligently of the same money calves, and lambs, and he goats, and meat offering, and drink offerings, to offer upon the altar of the house of your God which is at Jerusalem.

18. And whatsoever it shall please thee and thy brethren to do with the rest of the money, do it according to the will of your God.

19. And the vessels which are given thee for the service of the house of thy God, deliver them up before God in Jerusalem.

20. And whatsoever more shall be needful for the house of thy God, which it shall befall thee to spend, let it be given out of the king's chamber.

21. I, king Arthahsastha, have commanded these things unto the treasurers on the other side of the river, that whatsoever Ezra shall require of you, the priest and scribe in the law of GOD from heaven, that ye do diligently,

22. To an hundred talents of silver, and to an hundred measures of wheat, and to an hundred baths of wine, and to an hundred baths of oil and salt without measure.

23. All things that pertain unto the law of God from heaven, to do them diligently unto the house of God from heaven, lest wrath come upon the king's kingdom, and upon his children.

24. And let it be known unto you, that ye have no power to lay interest, or toll, or yearly rent, upon any priest, or Levite, or singer, or porter, or Nethinim, or servant, in the house of this God.

25. And thou, Ezra, according to the wisdom of thy God, which is under thine hand, appoint judges and officers to judge all the people that are beyond the waters, all they that know the law of thy God; and they that know it not, teach them.

26. And whosoever shall not diligently do the law of thy God, and the law of the king, he shall have his sentence for the deed, whether it be to death, or to the eight, or to the penance of the estate, or to prison.

27. Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, which hath inspired the king to adorn the house of God which is at Jerusalem,

28. And he showed me mercy in the sight of the king, and in the sight of his counsellors, and in the sight of all the king's mighty men. And I was confident in the hand of the LORD my God upon me, and gathered the heads of Israel to go up with me.

(Ezra)

Chapter 8

Ezra's journey to Jerusalem is accomplished.

1. These are the heads of their fathers that were reckoned, which came up with me from Babylon in the days of the reign of Arthasheth king:

2. Of the sons of Phinehas, Gershom; of the sons of Ithamar, Daniel; of the sons of David, Hattus.

3. Of the sons of Shechaniah, the sons of Pareos: Zechariah, and with him fifty and one men; 4. Of the sons of Pahathmoab, Elioenai the son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred men; 5. Of the sons of Shechaniah, the son of Jehaziel, and with him three hundred men; 6. Of the sons of Adin-ebed, the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty sons of men.

7. Of the children of Elam; Jezaiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy men; 8. Of the sons of Shephatiah; Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him fourscore men; 9. Of the sons of Joab, Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen men; 10. Of the sons of Selomith, the son of Jehoshaphat, and with him an hundred and threescore men;

11. Of the sons of Bebai; Zechaniah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight men; 12. Of the sons of Asgad: Johanan the youngest son, and with him an hundred and ten men; 13. Of the last sons of Adonikam; and their names were Eliphelet, and Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and threescore men with them;

14. Of the sons of Bigevai; Uthai and Zabud, and with them seventy men.

15. And I gathered them unto the river that cometh to Aheva, and they abode there three days.

And when I had taken heed of the people, and of the priests, I found no Levites there.

16. And I sent Eliezer, and Ariel, and Shemaiah, and Elnathan, and Jarib, and Elnathan, and Nathan, and Zechariah, and Meshullam, the rulers, and Jehoiarib, and Elnathan, the teachers; 17. And I sent them out to Iddo the chief to Caspiah, to fetch us servants in the house of our God. And I commanded them to speak unto Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinims, at Caspiah.

18. And they brought us, according to the good hand of our God upon us, a wise man of the sons of Maheli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel, Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen;

19. And Hashabiah, and with him Isaiah of the children of Meran, with his brethren and their sons, twenty;

20. And of the Nethinims, whom David and the princes gave to minister unto the Levites, two hundred and twenty, all called by name.

21. And I proclaimed a fast there by the waters of Aheva, to humble ourselves before our God, to seek of him a right way for us, and for our children, and for all our substance.

22. For I was ashamed to require of the king an escort and horsemen, to help us against the enemy in the way. For we had said unto the king, The hand of our God is best upon all them that seek him, and his strength and wrath upon all them that forsake him.

23. So we fasted, and sought these things of our God: and he hearkened unto us.

24. And I separated twelve of the chief priests, Sherebiah and Hashabiah, and with them ten of their brethren.

25. And he weighed unto them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels for the offering of the house of our God, which the king, and his counsellors, and his princes, and all Israel that were present, had given for the offering.

26. And he weighed under their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and an hundred talents of silver vessels, and an hundred talents of gold,

27. Twenty gilded vessels of a thousand shekels, and two good vessels of brass, precious, pure as gold.

28. And he said unto them: Ye are holy unto the LORD; so are the vessels holy, and the silver and gold freely given unto the LORD your fathers' God.

29. Watch ye therefore, and keep it, until ye have weighed it before the chief priests, and the Levites, and the chief fathers of Israel, which are at Jerusalem, in the treasuries of the house of the LORD.

30. And the priests and the Levites took the silver that was weighed, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem unto the house of our God.

31. So we departed from the river Aheva on the twelfth day of the first month, to go to Jerusalem. And the hand of our God was upon us, and delivered us out of the hand of the enemies, and from them that kept upon us in the way.

32. And they came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days.

33. And on the fourth day the silver and the gold and the vessels were weighed into the house of our God by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest, and with him Eleazar the son of Phinehas, and with them Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Benui the Levite,

34. According to the number and weight of every one: and the weight was all described at that time.

35. And the children of the prison, which were come out of the prison, offered burnt offerings unto the LORD God of Israel; twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he goats for a sin offering, all for a burnt offering unto the LORD.

36. And they delivered the king's commandment unto the king's officers, and to the governors on this side the river. And they exalted the people and the house of God.

(Ezra)

Chapter 9

Ezra's prayer of confession and repentance.

1. When all these things were made ready, the princes came unto me, and said: The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, are not separated from the nations of the countries according to their abominations, even the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Ammonites, and the Moabites, and the Egyptians, and the Amorites; 2. For they have taken their daughters, and their sons, and have made the holy seed common with the nations of the countries. And the hand of the princes and rulers was the chiefest in this iniquity.

3. When I heard these things, I rent my clothes and my garment, and plucked off my hair and my beard, and sat by myself.

4. And all that feared the word of the LORD God of Israel were gathered unto me because of the great transgression: and I sat alone until the evening sacrifice.

5. And at the evening sacrifice I arose out of my affliction, and rent my clothes and my garment, and fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto the LORD my God, 6. And said, My God, I am ashamed, and I shrink from lifting up mine eyes unto thee, my God: for our iniquity is increased upon our head, and our sin is great unto heaven.

7. From the days of our fathers we have been in great trespass unto this day: and for our iniquity we and our kings and our priests are delivered into the hand of the kings of the countries, into the sword, and into prison, and into spoil, and into shame of countenance, as it is this day.

8. But now there hath been a little and sudden grace from the LORD our God, that there hath escaped from us a remnant, that he should give us a nail in his holy place, that our God should enlighten our eyes, and give us a little life, because we are servants.

9. For we are servants, and our God hath not forsaken us, though we were servants; and hath shewed mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us life, and to exalt the house of our God, and to set up the spoil thereof, and to give us a fence in Judah and Jerusalem.

10. Now what shall we say, our God, after this, that we have forsaken thy commandments?

11. Which thou commandedst by thy servants the prophets, saying, The land wherein ye come to inherit is an unclean land, through the uncleanness of the nations of countries in their abominations, that they have made it full of uncleanness here and there?

12. Ye shall not therefore give your daughters unto their sons, neither shall ye take their daughters from your sons, neither shall ye seek their peace nor their good for ever: that ye may be mighty, and eat the good of the land, and inherit it for your children for ever.

13. And after all that is come upon us for our wicked works, and for our great trespasses, thou, our God, hast spared our iniquity, and hast given us salvation, as it is written.

14. But we have turned back, and have forsaken thy commandments, and have made friends with the nations of these abominations. Wilt thou then be wroth with us, until it be ended, that there be no remnant, nor salvation?

15. O LORD God of Israel, thou art righteous: for we are left a salvation, as it is this day.

Behold, we are before thee in our trespasses: for this is no standing before thee.

(Ezra)

Chapter 10

The foreign wives are separated from the Israelites.

1. And it came to pass, as Ezra prayed, and wept confessedly, and lay before the house of God, that there gathered unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men, and women, and children: for the people wept greatly.

2. And Zechaniah the son of Jehiel, of the children of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, Well, we have transgressed against our God, in that we have taken strange wives of the people of the land. Now there is hope in Israel above this.

3. Let us therefore make a covenant with our God, that we may put away all women, and them that are born of them, according to the counsel of the LORD, and them that fear the commandments of our God, to do according to the law.

4. Arise therefore, for it is thy due: we will be with thee. Be of good cheer, and do it.

5. Then arose Ezra, and took an oath of the chief priests, and of the Levites, and of all Israel, that they should do according to this word. And they sware.

6. And Ezra arose before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Johanan the son of Eliasib. And when he was come thither, he did neither eat bread, nor drink water: for he mourned for the transgression of them that were taken captives.

7. And they sent a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children that were captives, that they should assemble themselves at Jerusalem.

8. And whosoever came not within three days after the counsel of the princes and elders, all his substance should be utterly destroyed, and he should be separated from the congregation of the captives.

9. And all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together to Jerusalem in three days, that is, in the twentieth day of the ninth month. And all the people sat in the street before the house of God, trembling for the cause, and for the rain.

10. And Ezra the priest arose, and said unto them: Ye have transgressed in taking strange wives, to add to the iniquity of Israel:

11. Confess ye therefore unto the LORD God of your fathers, and do his pleasure. And ye shall separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from strange wives.

12. And all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said unto us, so be it done.

13. But the people are many, and the weather is rainy, and they cannot stand without: neither is it the work of one day, or of two days: for we have done much of this transgression.

14. Let us appoint our rulers throughout the whole congregation, that all who have taken strange wives in our cities may come at appointed times, and the elders of every city and their judges with them, until the wrath of our God be turned from us for this cause.

15. And Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jehaziah the son of Tikvah were appointed over these things: and Meshullam and Habthai the Levites helped them.

16. And the children of the prison did so. And Ezra the priest, and the chief fathers of the house of their fathers, and all that were now called, separated them, and sat down on the first day of the tenth month to search out these things,

17. And they executed it upon all the men that had strange wives in the first day of the first month.

18. And they were found among the sons of the priests that had taken strange wives, even among the sons of Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren: Maesaiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah.

19. And they gave their hand to cast out the women, and to offer for their trespass offering one ram for their trespass.
20. Among the children of Immer, Hanani and Zebadiah.
21. Among the sons of Harim; Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel, and Uziah.
22. Among the sons of Pashur: Elioenai, Maeseiah, Ishmael, Nethaneel Jozabad, and Eleasa.
23. Among the Levites: Jehozabad, Shimei, and Delaiah (he is the climate), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.
24. among the singers: Eliasib. Among the goalkeepers: Sallum, Telem and Uri.
25. Of Israel among the children of Pareos: Ramah, Jesiah, Malchiah, Mejamin, Eleazar, Malchiah, and Benaiah.
26. Among the children of Elam: Mathan yea, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth, and Elijah.
27. Among the sons of Sathu; Elioenai, Eliasib, Mathaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad, and Aziza.
28. And of the sons of Bebai; Johanan, and Hananiah, and Zabai, and Athlai.
29. Among the children of Bani; Meshullam, Malluch, Adaiah, Jashub, Seal, and Jeramoth.
30. Among the children of Pahath-moab: Adnah, Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mathaniah, Bezaleel, Benuis, and Manasseh.
31. Among the children of Harim; Eliezer, Jesiah, Malchiah, Shemaiah, Simeon, 32nd Benjamin, Malluch and Semarya.
33. Of the sons of Hazum; Mathnai, Mathatha, Shabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei.
34. Among the children of Bani; Maedai, Amram, Huel,
35. Benaja, Bedja, Chelui,
36. Well, Meremoth, Eliasib,
37. Mathanja, Mathnai, Jaesan,
38. Bani, Benui, Simei,
39. Selemja, Nathan, Adaja,.
40. Machnadbai, Sasai, Sarai,
41. Asareel, Selemja, Samarja,
42. sallum, amariah and joseph.

43. Of the sons of Nebo; Jeiel, and Mathithiah, and Zabad, and Zebina, and Jaddai, and Joel, and Benaiah.

44. All these had taken strange wives; and there were some of these wives that had borne children.

Text of the unrevised Luther Bible 1545:

DeepL English Translation

[Processed by BackToLuther. German text published here.]

The Book of Nehemiah (Nehemiah) ^

Chapter 1

Nehemiah's prayer for the children of Israel.

1. These are the tales of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. It came to pass in the month of Chisleu, in the twentieth year, that I was with Shushan in the castle,

2. And Hanani, one of my brethren, came with certain men of Judah. And I asked them how the Jews were that were saved, and were left of the prison, and how Jerusalem was?

3. And they said unto me, The remnant of the prison are there in the land in great mischief and reproach: the walls of Jerusalem are broken down, and the gates thereof are burned with fire.

4. And when I heard these words, I sat and wept, and mourned two days, and fasted, and prayed before the LORD from heaven.

5. And said, O LORD God from heaven, a great and terrible God, which keepeth covenant and mercy to them that love him, and keep his commandments, 6. Let thine ears be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I now pray before thee day and night for the children of Israel thy servants, confessing the sins of the children of Israel, which we have done against thee: and I and my father's house have sinned also:

7, We are gone mad, because we have not kept the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses.

8. But remember the word which thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, If ye transgress, I will scatter you among the nations.

9. But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them, though ye be cast out unto the uttermost part of heaven, yet will I gather you from thence, and bring you into the place which I have chosen, that my name may dwell there.

10. For they are thy servants, and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power and mighty hand. hand.

11. O LORD, let thine ear be attentive unto the prayer of thy servant, and unto the prayer of thy servants, which desire to fear thy name: and let thy servant prosper this day, and give him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's servant.

(Nehemiah)

Chapter 2

Nehemiah obtains authority and letters to build Jerusalem.

1. In the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of the king Arthahsastha, when there was wine before him, I took up the wine, and gave it to the king: and I looked sadly before him.

2. And the king said unto me, Why lookest thou so evil? Art thou not sick? No, it is not that; but thou art in a bad spirit. And I was almost sore afraid.

3. And said unto the king: The king shall live for ever. Shall I not see evil? The city that is the house of the burying of my fathers lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire.

4. And the king said unto me, What demandest thou? Then I asked the God from heaven 5. And he said unto the king: Is it pleasing to the king and to thy servants before thee, that thou send me to Judah unto the city of the burying of my fathers, to build it?

6. And the king said unto me, and the queen that sat by him, How long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? And it pleased the king to send me. And I set him a time appointed.

7. And he said unto the king: If it please the king, let him give me letters unto the governors that are beyond the river, that they may convey me over, until I come into Judah, 8. And letters unto Assaph the king's lumberman, that he would give me wood for the beams of the gates of the palace, which are in the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house where I should go in. And the king gave me according to the good hand of my God upon me.

9. And when I was come to the governors beyond the river, I gave them the king's letters. And the king sent with me the captains and the horsemen.

10. And when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant of the Ammonites, heard it, it grieved them exceedingly that a man should come seeking good for the children of Israel.

11. And when I was come to Jerusalem, and had been there three days,
12. I rose up by night, and few men with me: for I told no man what my God had inspired me to do in Jerusalem: and there was no beast with me, except I rode.

13. And I went out by night unto the valley gate, before the dragon's fountain, and unto the dung gate: and I was grieved, because the walls of Jerusalem were broken down, and the gates were consumed with fire.

14. And I went over to the well gate, and to the king's pool; and there was not room for my beast to go under me.

15. And I went up the brook by night, and was sorry to see the walls so: and I turned again, and came home to the valley gate.

16. And the rulers knew not where I went, or what I did: for I had told nothing therefore unto the Jews, and to the priests, and to the counsellors, and to the rulers, and to the rest that wrought in the work.

17. And he said unto them: Ye see the evil wherein we are, that Jerusalem lieth desolate, and her gates are burned with fire: come, let us build the walls of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach.

18. And I told them the hand of my God, which was good upon me, and the words of the king, which he spake unto me. And they said, Let us therefore be up. And we built, and their hands were strengthened for good.

19. And when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the Ammonite servant, and Goshem the Arabian, heard it, they mocked us, and despised us, and said: What is this that ye do? Will ye again fall away from the king?

20. And I answered them, and said, The LORD from heaven will prosper us: for we his servants have risen up and builded; but ye have no part, nor right, nor remembrance in Jerusalem.

(Nehemiah)

Chapter 3

The construction of Jerusalem goes on.

1. And Eliasib the high priest arose with his brethren the priests, and built the sheep gate, and sanctified it, and put in the doors thereof, and sanctified it unto the tower of Mea, even unto the tower of Hananeel.
2. And the men of Jericho built by him; and Shakhur the son of Imri built by him.
3. But the fish gate the children of Senaah built; they covered it, and put in the doors thereof, locks and bars.
4. And next unto them repaired Meremoth the son of Uriah, the son of Hakoz. And next unto them repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah the son of Meshezabeel. And next unto them repaired Zadok the son of Baenah.
5. Next unto them built those of Thekoa, but their mighty ones brought not their necks to the service of their lords.
6. And the old gate repaired Jehoiada the son of Passover, and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah; and they covered it, and put in the doors thereof, and the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.
7. And next unto them Melatiah of Gibeon, and Jadon of Merono, men of Gibeon and of Mizpah, built at the seat of the governor on this side the river.
8. And next unto him repaired Uzziel the son of Harhaiah the goldsmith. And next unto him repaired Hananiah the son of the apothecaries: and they repaired Jerusalem unto the broad wall.
9. And next unto him repaired Rephaiah the son of Hur, the ruler of the half quarter of Jerusalem.
10. And next unto him repaired Jedaiah the son of Harumaph over against his house. And next unto him repaired Hattus the son of Hazabaniah.
11. And Malchiah the son of Harim, and Hassub the son of Pahathmoab, built two pieces, and the tower by the furnace.
12. And next unto him repaired Shallum the son of Haloheh, the ruler of the half quarter of Jerusalem, he and his daughters.
13. And Hanun and the men of Sanoah built the valley gate, and set up the doors thereof, and the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and a thousand cubits of the wall unto the dung gate.
14. And the dung gate repaired Malchiah the son of Rechab, the chief of the four of the husbandmen; and he built it, and put in the doors thereof, and the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

15. And Shallum the son of Chal-hoze, the ruler of the four parts of Mizpah, built the gate of the well, and covered it, and put in the doors thereof, and the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and the wall of the pool of Seloah by the king's garden, unto the steps that go down from the city of David.
16. And after him repaired Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, the ruler of the half quarter of Bethzur, unto the sepulchres of David, and unto the pool of Azuiah, and unto the house of the mighty.
17. And after him repaired the Levites, Rehum the son of Bani; and next unto him repaired Hashabiah the ruler of the half quarter of Keilah in his quarter.
18. After him repaired their brethren Bavai the son of Henadad, the chief of the half quarter of Keilah.
19. And next unto him Ezer the son of Jeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, built two pieces on the side toward the house of armour.
20. And after him in the mount repaired custom the son of Sabbath two pieces from the corner unto the door of Eliasib the high priest.
21. After him Meremoth the son of Uriah, the son of Hakoz, built two pieces from the door of Eliasib's house unto the end of Eliasib's house.
22. After him built the priests, the men of the regions.
23. After whom Benjamin built his house over against their house. And after him Azariah the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ananiah, built over against his house.
24. And after him repaired Benui the son of Henadad two pieces of the house of Azariah unto the corner, and unto the corner;
25. Palal the son of Uzai, over against the corner, and against the high tower that looketh out from the king's house, by the court of the prison. After him Pedaiah the son of Pareo.
26. And the Nethinims dwelt at Ophel unto the water gate eastward, where the tower looked out.
27. And after that the men of Thekoa built two pieces over against the great tower that standeth out, and unto the wall of Ophel.
28. And from the horse gate the priests built, every man against his own house.

29. After him repaired Zadok the son of Immer toward his house. And after him repaired Shemaiah the son of Shechaniah the porter against the morning.

30. After him repaired Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun the son of Zalaph, the sixth, two pieces. And after him repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah against his coffer.

31. And after him repaired Malchiah the goldsmith's son unto the house of the Nethinims and the merchants, toward the gate of the council, and unto the hall of the corner.

32. And between the hall at the corner of the shaft gate built the goldsmiths and the merchants.

(Nehemiah)

Chapter 4

Construction continues even under the obstacles.

1. And when Sanballat heard that we built the walls, he was wroth, and very wroth: and he mocked the Jews.

2. And said before his brethren and the mighty men of Samaria, What do the fainting Jews? Will they be left thus? Will they sacrifice? Will they complete it one day? Will they make alive the stones that are heaps of dust and burned?

3. And Tobiah the Ammonite said by him, Let them build. If foxes came up, they would break down their stone wall.

4. Hear, O our God, how despised we are! Bring their shame upon their heads, that thou mayest bring them into contempt in the land of their prison!

5. Cover not their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from before thee: for they have provoked the builders.

6. But we built the walls, and joined them together unto the half of the height. And the people gained a heart to work.

7. And when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were shut up, and that they had begun to make an atonement for the breaches, they were very wroth.

8. And they made a league of them all together, to come and fight against Jerusalem, and to err therein.

9. And we prayed unto our God, and set our guard against them day and night.

10. And Judah said, The strength of the beams is too weak, and the dust is too much; we cannot build upon the wall.

11. And our adversaries thought: They shall not know, nor see, till we come into the midst of them, and choke them, and hinder the work.

12. And the Jews that dwelt by them came and told us ten times, out of all the places where they dwelt about us,

13. And I set the people by their families, with their swords, and with their spears, and with their bows, in the lower places behind the wall, in the trenches.

14. And when I had looked, I arose, and said unto the counsellors, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Fear them not. Remember the great and terrible LORD, and fight for your brethren, and for your sons, and for your daughters, and for your wives, and for your houses.

15. And when our enemies heard that it was made known unto us, God destroyed their counsel.

And we returned every man to the wall, every man to his work.

16. And it came to pass again, that half of the young men did the work, and half of them held spears, and shields, and bows, and armour: and the princes stood behind all the house of Judah,

17. Who built the wall, and bare the burden of them that laid it upon them: with one hand they did the work, and with the other they held the weapons.

18. And every one that builded had his sword upon his own. Sword girded on his And he that blew with the trumpet was beside me.

19: And I said unto the rulers, and to the princes, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and wide, and we are scattered abroad upon the wall, far from one another.

20. Now in what place ye hear the trumpet sound, thither gather yourselves unto us. Our God will fight for us;

21. So let us work at the work. And her half held the spears from the rising of the dawn, until the stars came forth.

22. And I said in those days unto the people, Let every man and his child dwell in Jerusalem by night, that we may keep the watch by night, and the work by day.

23. But I, and my brethren, and my lads, and the men of the guard behind me, did not put off our garments; we left bathing every man.
(Nehemiah)

Chapter 5

Nehemiah dismisses the complaints of the people.

1. And there was a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brethren the Jews.
2. And there were some that said: Our sons and our daughters are many; let us take corn, and eat that we may live.
3. But some said: Let us move our fields, our vineyards, and our houses, and let us take grain in the harvest.
4. And some said: Let us lend money at interest unto the king upon our fields and upon our vineyards.
5. For the body of our brethren is as our body, and their children as our children: otherwise we would subject our sons and our daughters to service, and some of our daughters are already subject, and there is no wealth in our hands; neither would our fields and our vineyards be subject to another.
6. And when I heard their crying and their words, I was very wroth.
7. And my heart was in counsel with me, and I rebuked the counsellors and the rulers, and said unto them: Will ye practice usury one upon another? And I brought a great congregation against them.
8. And said unto them: We have bought our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the Gentiles, according to our ability: and will ye also sell your brethren, whom we have bought unto us? Then they held their peace, and found nothing to answer.
9. And I said, It is not good that ye do this. Shall ye not walk in the fear of God for the reproach of the heathen our enemies?
10. I also, and my brethren, and my young men, have given them money, and corn: but we have abated usury.
11. Restore therefore this day unto them their fields, and their vineyards, and their oliveyards, and their houses, and the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, and of the wine, and of the oil, which ye have multiplied of them.
12. And they said: We will give it again, and will require nothing of them, and will do as thou hast said. And I called unto the priests, and took an oath of them, that they should do so.
13. And I shook out my bosom, and said, So let God shake out every man from his house, and from his work, who hath not kept this word, that he may be shaken out, and be empty. And all the congregation said, Amen; and they praised the LORD. And the people did so.

14. And from the time that I was commanded to be a governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even unto the thirty and second year of Arthahsaxerxes the king, even twelve years, I nourished not myself nor my brethren with the food of the governors.

15. For the former governors that were before me had afflicted the people, and taken of them bread, and wine, and forty shekels of silver; and their young men had taken the people by force. But I did no such thing for the fear of God.

16. Neither did I work upon the wall, nor buy any field: and all my lads had to come there to the work in abundance.

17. And there were at my table an hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, which came unto me out of the heathen that are round about us.

18. And they made me one bullock that day, and six chosen. And sheep, and fowls, and all manner of wine for ten days in the midst thereof.

And I asked not yet the fare of the governors: for the service was heavy upon the people.

19. Remember me, O my God, for the best of all that I have done to this people.

(Nehemiah)

Chapter 6

Nehemiah, by his prudence, drives back the hindrances at work.

1. And it came to pass, when Saneballat, and Tobiah, and Gosem the Arabian, and other of our enemies, heard that I had built the wall, and that there was no more breach in it, though I had not at that time hanged the doors within the gates,

2. And sent Saneballat and Gosem unto me, saying, Come, and let us meet together in the villages, in the plains of Ono. But they thought to do me evil.

3. And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I have a great work to do, and cannot come down: let the work remain, when I shall put away my hand, and come down unto you.

4. And they sent unto me four times in this manner, and I answered them in this manner.

5. And Saneballat sent unto me his lad the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand.
6. In it was written: It is come before the Gentiles, and Gosem hath spoken it, that thou and the Jews intend to fall away, wherefore thou buildest the wall, and wilt be their king in these things;
7. And thou hast appointed thee prophets, which shall cry out of thee in Jerusalem, saying, He is the king of Judah. Now these things shall come before the king. Now therefore come, and let us reason together.
8. And I sent unto him, saying, These things which thou sayest have not come to pass; thou hast devised them out of thine own heart.
9. For they all sought to make us fearful, and thought: Let them put away their hands from business, that they work not. But I strengthened my hand the more.
10. And I came into the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabeel; and he shut himself up, and said, Let us come together in the house of GOD in the midst of the temple, and shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee, and will come by night to slay thee.
11. And I said, Shall such a man flee? Shall such a man as I be go into the temple, that he may live? I will not go in.
12. For I perceived that God had not sent him. For he prophesied against me, but Tobiah and Saneballat had given him money.
13. Therefore he took money, that I might be afraid, and do so, and sin, that they might cry evil, and blaspheme me.
14. Remember, O my God, Tobiah, and Saneballat, according to these his works; and also Noadiah the prophetess, and the rest of the prophets, which have sought to dissuade me.
15. And the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days.
16. And when all our enemies heard it, all the heathen that were round about us were afraid, and their courage failed them: for they perceived that this work was of GOD.
17. Also in those days were many of the princes of Judah, whose letters went to Tobiah, and from Tobiah to them.

18. For there were many in Judah that were sworn unto him: for he was the brother in law of Zechariah the son of Arah; and Johanan his son had the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah.

19. And they spake good of him before me, and uttered my words unto him. So Tobiah sent letters to dissuade me.

(Nehemiah)

Chapter 7

Guardians of the city. Number and gifts of the people.

1. And when we had built the wall, I set up the doors, and appointed the porters, and the singers, and the Levites.

2. And I commanded Hanani my brother, and Hananiah the palace governor of Jerusalem, (for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many others.)

3. And said unto them: They shall not open the gates of Jerusalem until the sun be hot: and when they work yet, they shall shut the doors, and lock them. And there were appointed watchmen of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every man for his watch, and for his house.

4. And the city was large and spacious, but the people were few therein, and the houses were not built.

5. And my God put it into my heart, that I should gather together the counsellors, and the rulers, and the people, to reckon them. And I found a register of their reckoning, 6. Who came up from the prison which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon carried away, and dwelt at Jerusalem, and in Judah, every man in his own city;

7. And were come with Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and Nehemiah, and Azariah, and Raamiah, and Nahemani, and Mordecai, and Bilsan, and Mispereth, and Bigevai, and Nehum, and Baena.

This is the number of the men of the people of Israel.

8. The children of Pareo were two thousand and two hundred and seventy; 9. The children of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy and two;

10. Of the children of Arah, six hundred fifty and two;

11. Of the sons of Pahathmoab, among the sons of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and eighteen;

12. Of the children of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four; 13: of the children of Sathu, eight hundred and forty-five;

14. Of the children of Sakai, seven hundred threescore and ten;

15. Of the children of Benui, six hundred forty and eight;

16. Of the children of Bebai, six hundred twenty and eight;
17. Of the children of Asgad, two thousand three hundred twenty and two; 18. Of the children of Adonikam, six hundred threescore and seven; 19. Of the children of Bigevai, two thousand and threescore and seven; 20. The children of Adin, six hundred fifty and five;
21. Of the sons of Ater of Hezekiah, ninety and eight;
22. Of the children of Hasum, three hundred twenty and eight;
23. The children of Bezai, three hundred twenty and four;
24. The children of Hariph, an hundred and twelve;
25. of the children of Gibeon ninety and five;
26. Of the men of Bethlehem and Netophah, an hundred threescore and eight; 27. Of the men of Anathoth, an hundred twenty and eight;
28. Of the men of Beth-asmaveth forty and two;
29. Of the men of Kiriathjearim, Caphira, and Beeroth, seven hundred forty and three; 30.. Of the men of Ramah and Gaba, six hundred twenty and one;
31. Of the men of Michmas, an hundred twenty and two; 32. Of the men of Bethel, and Ai, an hundred twenty and three;
33. Of the men of the other Nebo, fifty and two;
34. The children of the other Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four; 35. Of the children of Harim, three hundred and twenty;
36.. Of the children of Jereho, three hundred forty and five;
37. Of the children of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred twenty and one; 38. Of the children of Senaa, three thousand nine hundred thirty.
39. The priests: of the children of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred threescore and three;
40. of the children Always a thousand and fifty-two;
41. Of the children of Pashur, a thousand two hundred forty and seven;
42. Of the children of Harim, a thousand and seventeen.
43. The Levites: Of the children of Jeshua of Kadmiel, among the children of Hodua, seventy and four.
44. the singers: of the children of Assaph, an hundred and forty-eight.
45. The keepers of the gate were: The children of Shallum, the children of Ater, the children of Thalmon, the children of Akub, the children of Hatita, the children of Sobai, all of them an hundred thirty and eight.

46. The Nethinim: the children of Ziha, the children of Hasupha, the children of Tabaoth, 47. the children. Keros, the children Sia, the children Padon, 48. The children of Libana, the children of Hagaba, the children of Salmai, 49. The children of Hanan, the children of Giddel, the children of Gahar, 50. The children of Reaiah, the children of Rezin, the children of Nekoda, 51. The children of Gasam, the children of Uzzah, the children of Passeah, 52. The children of Besai, the children of Megunim, the children of Nephussim, 53. The children of Bakbuk, the children of Hakupha, the children of Harhur, 54. The children of Bazlith, the children of Mehida, the children of Harsa, 55. The children of Barkos, the children of Sissera, the children of Thamah, 56. The children of Neziah, the children of Hatipha.

57. The children of Solomon's servants were: The children of Sotai, the children of Sophereth, the children of Prida,

58. the children of Jaela, the children of Darkon, the children of Giddel, 59. The children of Shephatiah, the children of Hatil, the children of Pochereth of Zebaim, the children of Amon.

60. Of all the Nethinims and. The children of Solomon's servants were three hundred ninety and two.

61. And these also went up with them, Mithel, Melah, Thelharsa, Cherub-Addon, and Immer: but they could not shew the house of their fathers, nor their seed, whether they were of Israel: 62. And the children of Delaiah, and the children of Tobiah, and the children of Nekoda, were six hundred forty and two.

33. And of the priests were the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Hakoz, the sons of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called by her name.

64. These sought their register of birth: and when they found it not, they were loosed from the priesthood.

65. And Hathirsatha said unto them, They shall not eat of the most holy things, till a priest arise with light and judgment.

46. Of all the congregation as one man there were forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore;

67. Except their menservants and their maidservants, which were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and they had two hundred forty and five singers and singers' wives, 68. Seven hundred and thirty-six race, two hundred and forty-five mouths, 69. Four hundred thirty and five camels, six thousand seven hundred and twenty asses.

70. and some of the chief fathers gave for the work. Hathirsatha gave to the treasury a thousand shekels, fifty basins, five hundred and thirty priests' garments.

71. And some of the chief fathers gave to the treasury of the work twenty thousand talents, two thousand and two hundred pounds of silver.

72. And the other people gave twenty thousand shekels, and two thousand pounds of silver, and threescore and seven priests' garments.

73. And the priests, and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nethinims, and all Israel, sat down in their cities.

(Nehemiah)

Chapter 8

Nehemiah and Ezra direct the service.

1. And it came to pass, when the seventh moon was come, and the children of Israel were in their cities, that all the people gathered themselves together as one man unto the broad street before the water gate, and spake unto Ezra the scribe to fetch the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD commanded Israel.

2. And Ezra the priest brought the law before the congregation, both men and women, and all that heard it, on the first day of the seventh month,

3. And he read within in the broad street that is before the water gate, from light in the morning until noon, before man and woman, and whosoever might hear. And the ears of all the people were turned unto the book of the law.

4. And Ezra the scribe stood upon a high wooden throne, which they had made for preaching: and next unto him stood Mathithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah on his right hand; and on his left hand Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchiah, Hazum, Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

5. And Ezra opened the book before all the people: for he towered above all the people: and when he had opened it, all the people stood.

6. And Ezra praised the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, Amen, amen, with their hands upward: and they bowed themselves, and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

7. And Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, and Jamin, and Akub, and Zabthai, and Hodiah, and Maesiah, and Clita, and Azariah, and Jozabad, and Hanan, and Plaiah, and the Levites, made the people to observe the law: and the people stood in their place.

8. And they read in the book of the law of God plainly and understandingly, that they understood it when they read it.

9. And Nehemiah, which is Hathirsatha, and Ezra the priest, the scribe, and the Levites, which made the people watch, said unto all the people, This day is holy unto the LORD your God: therefore be not sad, and weep not. For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law.

10. Therefore said he unto them: Go ye, eat that which is fat, and drink that which is sweet; and send part also unto them that have nothing prepared for them: for this day is holy unto our Lord: wherefore be not dismayed, for the joy of the Lord is your strength.

11. And the Levites quieted all the people, and said, Be still, for the day is holy; be not troubled.

12. And all the people went to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth: for they had understood the words which were made known unto them.

13. And the next day the chief fathers of all the people, and the priests, and the Levites, gathered themselves together unto Ezra the scribe, to teach them the words of the law.

14. And they found it written in the law, that the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses that the children of Israel should dwell in tabernacles for the feast of the seventh month.

15. And they made a noise and proclaimed it in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go ye out into the mountains, and gather olive branches, and balsam branches, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written.

16. And the people went out, and took, and made them tabernacles, every man upon his own roof, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the broad street of the water gate, and in the broad street of the gate of Ephraim.

17. And all the congregation of them that came again out of prison made tabernacles, and dwelt therein. For the children of Israel had not done so since the days of Joshua the son of Nun unto this day: and there was very great joy.

18. And the book of the law of God was read every day from the first day even unto the last: and they kept the feast seven days, and on the eighth day they kept the congregation according to the manner.

(Nehemiah)

Chapter 9

The people's public penance.

1. On the four and twentieth day of this month came the children of Israel together, with fasting, and sackcloth, and earth upon them.

2. And they separated the seed of Israel from all the strange children, and went and confessed their sins, and the iniquity of their fathers.

3. And they arose in their place, and read in the book of the law of the LORD their God four times in the day: and they confessed, and worshipped the LORD their God four times in the day.

4. And the Levites arose on high, Jeshua, and Bani, and Kadmiel, and Shebaniah, and Buni, and Sherebiah, and Bani, and Chenani, and cried aloud unto the LORD their God.

5. And the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, and Bani, and Hashabenhiah, and Sherebiah, and Hodiah, and Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, Arise, praise the LORD your God for ever and ever; and praise the name of thy glory, which is exalted, with all blessing and praise.

6. O LORD, thou only art he: thou hast made heaven, and the heaven of heavens, and all their host, the earth, and all that is therein, the seas, and all that is therein; thou hast made all things alive, and the heavenly host worshippeth thee.

7. Thou art the LORD God, which didst choose Abram, and brought him up from Ur of Chaldea, and called him Abraham.

8. And found his heart faithful before thee, and made a covenant with him to give unto his seed the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgothites: and thou hast kept thy word, for thou art righteous.

9. And thou sawest the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their cry by the Red sea.

10. And thou didst signs and wonders unto Pharaoh, and unto all his servants, and unto all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they were proud against them, and hast made thee a name, as it is this day.

11. And thou hast rent the sea before them, and they went through dry in the midst of the sea, and cast their persecutors into the deep, as stones in mighty waters, 12. And led them in a pillar of cloud by day, and in a pillar of fire by night, to give them light in the way which they went.

13. And came down upon mount Sinai, and spake unto them from heaven, and gave a true statute, and a law, and good commandments, and statutes;

14. And made known unto them thy holy sabbath, and commanded them statutes, and judgments, and laws, by thy servant Moses;

15. And gave them bread from heaven when they hungered, and let water come out of the rock when they thirsted; and told them to go in and possess the land, whereon thou liftedst up thine hand to give them.

16. But our fathers became proud and stiff-necked, because they obeyed not thy commandments, 17. And refused to hear, neither remembered thy wonders which thou didst in them, but became stiff-necked, and lifted up their heads, and turned to their servitude in their impatience. But thou, my God, forgavest, and wast gracious, and merciful, and patient, and of great compassion, and forsakest them not.

18. And though they made a calf cast, and said: This is thy God, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and did great blasphemies,

19. Nor didst thou forsake them in the wilderness, according to thy great mercy; neither didst the pillar of cloud depart from them by day to lead them in the way, nor the pillar of fire by night to give them light in the way which they went.

20. And thou gavest them thy good spirit to instruct them; and thou turnedst not thy man from their mouth, and gavest them water when they thirsted.

21. Forty years didst thou feed them in the wilderness, that they lacked nothing. Their garments did not grow old, and their feet were not swollen.

22. And thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and dividedst them hither and thither, and they took the land of Sihon king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.

23. And multiplied their children as the stars of heaven, and brought them into the land which thou hadst spoken unto their fathers to go in and possess it.

24. And the children went in, and possessed the land. And thou humbledst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and deliveredst them into their hand, and their kings, and the people of the land, to do with them according to their will.

25. And they obtained strong cities, and a fat land, and took houses full of all manner of good things, and wells digged, and vineyards, and oliveyards, and trees to eat of, the multitude thereof: and they did eat, and were filled, and grew fat, and lived in lasciviousness, through thy great goodness.

26. But they became disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind them; and slew thy prophets, whom they testified that they should turn unto thee; and did great blasphemies.

27. Therefore thou gavest them into the hand of their enemies, which affrighted them. And in the time of their anguish they cried unto thee; and thou heardest them from heaven; and by thy great mercy gavest them saviours, which delivered them out of the hand of their enemies.

28. And when they were at rest, they turned to do evil in thy sight. And thou leftst them in the hand of their enemies, and they ruled over them. Then they returned, and cried unto thee: and thou heardest them from heaven, and deliveredst them many times according to thy great mercy.

29. And testified unto them, that they should return unto thy law. But they were proud, and obeyed not thy commandments; and sinned against thy statutes, (which a man doeth, and dwelleth therein;) and turned away their shoulders, and became stiffnecked, and obeyed not.

30. And thou hast kept them many years, and hast caused them to testify by thy spirit in thy prophets; but they have not heard. Therefore hast thou delivered them into the Thou gavest them into the hand of the nations of the countries.

31. But according to thy great mercy thou hast not made an end of them, nor forsaken them: for thou art a gracious and merciful God.

32. Now therefore, our God, thou great God, mighty and terrible, who keepest covenant and mercy, consider not all the trouble that hath befallen us, and our kings, princes, priests, prophets, fathers, and all thy people, from the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day.

33. Thou art righteous in all that thou hast brought upon us: for thou hast done right, but we have been wicked.

34. And our kings, and our princes, and our priests, and our fathers, have not done according to thy law, nor kept thy commandments, nor kept thy testimonies, which thou hast testified unto them.

35. And they have not served thee in their kingdom, and in thy great possessions which thou gavest them, and in the wide and fat land which thou hast set before them, and have not turned from their wickedness.

36. Behold, we are servants this day: and in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruits thereof, and the goods thereof, behold, we are servants within.

37. And his revenue is multiplied unto the kings which thou hast set over us for our sins: and they rule over our bodies and over our cattle according to their will, and we are in great distress.

38. And in all this we will make a firm covenant, and write, and cause our princes, and our Levites, and our priests, to seal it.

(Nehemiah)

Chapter 10

Sealing of the renewed covenant.

1. And the sealers were: Nehemiah Hathirsatha the son of Hachaliah, and Zidekiah, 2. Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah,

3. Pashur, Amariah, Malchia,

4. Hattus, Sebanja, Malluch,

5. Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,

6. Daniel, Ginthon, Baruch,

7. Mesullam, Abia, Mejamin,

8. Maaziah, Bilgai, and Shemaiah: these were the priests.

9. And the Levites were: Jeshua the son of Azaniah, Binui among the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel 10. and their brothers: Sechanja, Hodia, Klita, Plaja, Hanan,

11. Micah, Rehob, Hasabiah,

12. Zechur, Zerebiah, Zebaniah,

13. Hodia, Bani and Beninu.
14. The chief of the people were: Pareos, Pahath-Moab, Elam, Sathu,
Bani, 15. Buni, Asgad, Bebai,
16. Adonia, Bigvai, Adin,
17. Ater, Hezekiah, Asur,
18. Hodia, Hasum, Bezai,
19. Hariph, Anathoth, Neubai,
20. Magpias, Mesullam, Hesir,
21. Mesesabeel, Zadok, Jaddua,
22. Platja, Hanan, Anaja,
23. Hosea, Hananiah, Hasub,
24. Halothes, Pilha, Sobek,
25. Rehum, Hasabna, Maeseja,
26. Ahia, Hanan, Anan,
27. Malluch, Harim and Baena.
28. And the rest of the people, the priests, and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and the Nethinims, and all that were separated from the people of the land unto the law of God, with their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, all that could understand, 29. And their mighty men received it for their brethren. And they came and swore, and bound themselves by oath to walk in the law of God, which was given by Moses the servant of God, to keep and to do according to all the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, and the judgments of the LORD our sovereign, 30. And that we would not give our daughters unto the nations of the land, nor take their daughters from our sons;
31. Even if the people of the land bring merchandise and all manner of food to sell on the sabbath day, that we will not take it from them on the sabbath day and on the holy days; and that we will leave the seventh year free from all manner of burden.
32. And they laid a commandment upon us, that we should give the third part of a shekel yearly for the service of the house of our God,
33. For shewbread, and for a continual meat offering, and for a continual burnt offering, for the sabbath, and for the new moons, and for the solemn days, and for a sin offering, to make an atonement for Israel, and for all the business of the house of our God.

34. And we cast lots among the priests, and the Levites, and the people, for the offering of the wood to be brought unto the house of our God yearly, according to the houses of our fathers, for a time appointed, to burn upon the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the law, 35. And to bring yearly the firstfruits of our land, and the firstfruits of all the fruit of every tree, unto the house of the LORD.

36. And the firstlings of our sons, and of our cattle, as it is written in the law, and the firstlings of our oxen, and of our sheep; that we may bring all these unto the house of our God unto the priests that minister in the house of our God.

37. And we shall bring the firstfruits of our dough, and the firstfruits of our heave, and the fruit of every tree, and the wine, and the oil, unto the priests, into the treasuries of the house of our God; and the tithes of our land unto the Levites: and the Levites shall tithe in all the cities of our fields.

38. And the priest the son of Aaron shall have with the Levites also the tithes of the Levites, that the Levites may bring up the tithes of their tithes unto the house of our God into the treasury.

39. For the children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring up the heaves of the corn, and of the wine, and of the oil, into the treasuries. There are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests that minister, and the porters, and the singers, that we leave not the house of our God.

(Nehemiah)

Chapter 11

Register of new inhabitants in the city and in the field.

1. And the chief of the people dwelt at Jerusalem. And the rest of the people cast lots, that of the ten a part might go to Jerusalem to dwell in the holy city, and nine parts in the cities.

2. And the people blessed all the men that were willing to dwell at Jerusalem.

3. These are the chief of the country, which dwelt at Jerusalem. And in the cities of Judah dwelt every man in his possession that was in their cities, even Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, and the Nethinims, and the children of Solomon's servants.

4. And there dwelt at Jerusalem some of the children of Judah and Benjamin. Of the children of Judah; Athaiah the son of Uziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahelaleel, of the children of Perez;

5. And Maeshiah the son of Baruch, the son of Chal-hose, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Jehoiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shiloni.

6. All the sons of Perez that dwelt at Jerusalem were four hundred threescore and eight, honest men.

7. These are the sons of Benjamin; Shallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshai; 8. And after him Gabai, Sallai, nine hundred twenty and eight.

9. And Joel the son of Zichri was their ruler, and Judah the son of Hashnua over the other part of the city.

10. Of the priests dwelt Jedaiah the son of Jehoiarib, Jachin,

11. And Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, was ruler in the house of GOD.

12. And his brethren that worked in the house were eight hundred twenty and two. And Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Plaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchiah,

13. And his brethren, captains among the fathers, were two hundred and forty and two. And Amassai the son of Azareel the son of Ahusai, the son of Mesillemoth, the son of Immer, 14. And his brethren, mighty men, were an hundred and twenty and eight. And their chief was Zabdiel the son of Gedolim.

15. Of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hashub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni,

16. And Zabthai and Jozabad, of the chief of the Levites, in the outward business of the house of God,

17. And Mathaniah the son of Micah, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, which was the chief to give thanks unto prayer; and Bakbukiah the other of his brethren, and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.

18. Of all the Levites that were in the holy city, two hundred fourscore and four.

19. And the porters, Akub and Talmon, and their brethren that kept the gates, were an hundred and seventy and two.

20. And the rest of Israel, the priests and the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, every man in his inheritance.

21. And the Nethinims dwelt at Ophel: and Ziha and Gispa were of the Nethinims.

22. And the ruler over the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mathaniah, the son of Micah. Of the children of Asaph were singers for the business of the house of God.

23. For it was the king's commandment concerning them, that the singers should do faithfully every day his hire.

24. And Pethahiah the son of Mesabeel, of the sons of Zerah the son of Judah, was the king's commander in all the affairs of the people.

25. And of the children of Judah that were without in the villages of their land, some dwelt in Kiriath-arba, and in their daughters, and in Dibon, and in their daughters, and in Kabzeel, and in their villages.

26. and to Jesua, Molada, Beth-Palet,

27. hazar-sual, berseba and their daughters

28. And to Ziklag, and to Mochona, and to their daughters.

29. and to En-Rimmon, Zarega, Jeremuth,

30. Sanoah, and Adullam, and their villages, and Lachish, and their fields, and Azekah, and their daughters. And they encamped from Beersheba unto the valley of Hinnom.

31. And the children of Benjamin of Gaba dwelt at Michmash, and at Aiah, and at Bethel, and at their daughters.

32. and to Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah,

33. Hazor, Rama, Githaim,

34. Hadid, Ziboim, Neballat,

35. Lod, Ono and in the Zimmer Valley.

36. And certain of the Levites, which had part in Judah, dwelt among Benjamin.

(Nehemiah)

Chapter 12

Names of the priests and Levites. Dedication of the city. Order of the holy keepers.

1. These are the priests and the Levites that went up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua; Seraiah; Jeremiah, Ezra,
2. Amariah, Malluch, Hattus,
3. Sechanja, Rehum, Meremoth,
4. Iddo, Ginthoi, Abia,
5. Mejamin, Maadja, Bilga,
6. Shemaiah, Jehoiarib, Jedaiah,
7. Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, and Jedaiah. These were the chief among the priests and their brethren in the days of Jesus.
8. And the Levites were these: Jeshua, Benui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mathaniah, about the thanksgiving, he and his brethren.
9. Bakbukiah and Unni, her brethren, were on guard for her.
10. Jeshua begat Jehoiakim, Jehoiakim begat Eliasib, Eliasib begat Jehoiada.
11. Jehoiada begat Jonathan, Jonathan begat Jaddua.
12. And in the days of Jehoiakim these were chief fathers among the priests: namely, of Seraiah was Meraiah; of Jeremiah was Hananiah;
13. Of Ezra was Meshullam; of Amariah was Johanan;
14. Of Malluch was Jonathan; of Zebaniah was Joseph;
15. Of Harim was Adnah; of Meraioth was Helkai;
16. Of Iddo was Zechariah; of Ginthon was Meshullam.
17. Of Abijah was Zichri; of Mejamin-moyah was Piltai;
18. Of Bilgah was Shammua; of Shemaiah was Jonathan;
19. Of Jehoiarib was Mathnai; of Jedaiah was Uzzi;
20. From Sallai was Kallai; from Amok was Eber;
21. Of Hilkiah was Hashabiah; of Jedaiah was Nethaneel.
22. And in the days of Eliasib, and Jehoiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, the chief fathers among the Levites, and the priests, were described under the kingdom of Darii the Persian.
23. And the children of Levi, the chief fathers, were written in the book of the chronicles unto the days of Johanan the son of Eliasib.
24. And these were the chief of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, and their brethren beside them, to praise and to give thanks, as David the man of God commanded, one hat for another.

25. And Mathaniah, and Bakbukiah, and Obadiah, and Meshulam, and Talmon, and Akub, were keepers of the guard, at the thresholds of the gates.

26. These were in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and Ezra the priest the scribe.

27. And in the dedication of the walls of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, with singing, and cymbals, and psalteries, and harps.

28. And there were gathered together the children of the singers, and from the coasts of Jerusalem, and from the courts of Netophathi.

29. And of the house of Gilgal, and of the fields of Gibeah, and of Azmaveth: for the singers had built them courts round about Jerusalem.

30. And the priests and the Levites purified themselves, and cleansed the people, and the gates, and the wall.

31. And I set the princes of Judah upon the top of the wall, and appointed two great choirs of thanksgiving, which went up on the right hand upon the top of the wall toward the dung gate.

32. And unto them went Hoshaiiah, and half the princes of Judah.

33. and Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam,

34. Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah and Jeremiah

35. And some of the sons of the priests with trumpets; Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mathaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zechur, the son of Asaph, 36. And his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azareel, and Milalai, and Gilalai, and Maai, and Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with the stringed instruments of David the man of God: and Ezra the scribe before them,

37. And they went toward the well gate. And they walked beside them in the steps of the city of David, up the wall unto the house of David, unto the water gate eastward.

38. And the other choir of thanksgiving went over against them, and I after them, and half the people up the wall unto the tower of the furnace, unto the broad wall, 39. And they went up to the gate of Ephraim, and to the old gate, and to the fish gate, and to the tower of Hananeel, and to the tower of Mea, unto the sheep gate, and stood in the prison gate.

40. And the two thanksgivings were in the house of God, and I and half of the princes with me; 41. And the priests, namely, Eliakim, Maeshiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, Hananiah, with trumpets;

42. And Maeshiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Johanan, and Malchiah, and Elam, and Azar. And the singers sang aloud; and Jezrahiah was the ruler.

43; And they offered great sacrifices that day, and were glad: for God had made them great joy, that both wives and children rejoiced: and the joy of Jerusalem was heard afar off.

44. At that time were men appointed over the treasures, when the heaves, and the firstfruits, and the tithes, were in, to gather them out of the fields, and round about the cities, to distribute according to the law unto the priests and to the Levites: for Judah delighted in the priests and the Levites, that they should tarry

45. And they waited upon the guard of their God, and upon the guard of purification. And the singers and the porters kept the charge of David, and of Solomon his son.

46. For in the days of David and Assaph were established the chief singers, and singers of praise and thanksgiving unto GOD.

47. And all Israel gave portions unto the singers and unto the porters in the days of Zerubbabel and Nehemiah, every day his portion: and they gave sanctuaries unto the Levites, and the Levites gave sanctuaries unto the children of Aaron.

(Nehemiah)

Chapter 13

Nehemiah's zeal in improvement of police, church and domestic being.

1. And the book of Moses was read in that day in the ears of the people, and it was found written therein, that the Ammonites and the Moabites should no more come into the congregation of God,

2. Because they prevented not the children of Israel with bread and water, and set Balaam against them to curse them: but our God turned the curse into a blessing.

3. And when they heard this law, they separated all the strangers from Israel.

4. And before him Eliasib the priest had put Tobiah's offering in the treasury of the house of our God.
5. For he had made him a great coffer, and therein they had laid the meat offering, and the incense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, and the wine, and the oil, according to the commandment of the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the heaves of the priests.
6. But in all this I was not at Jerusalem. For in the thirty-second year of Arthahaztha king of Babylon I came to the king, and after some days I purchased of the king,
7. And I went to Jerusalem. And I perceived that it was not good which Eliasib had done to Tobiah, to make him a box in the court of the house of God.
8. And I was sore displeased, and cast out all the vessels of the house of Tobiah from before the box.
9. And I commanded that they should cleanse the caskets: and I brought again there the vessels of the house of God, the meat offering, and the incense.
10. And I heard that the Levites' portion was not given unto them, because the Levites and the singers fled every man to his field to work.
11. And I rebuked the princes, saying, Why do we forsake the house of God? But I gathered them together, and set them in their place.
12. And all Judah brought tithes of the corn, and of the wine, and of the oil, unto the treasury.
13. And I set over the treasures Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites Pedaiah, and under their hand Hanan the son of Zechur the son of Mathaniah: for they were counted faithful, and were commanded to distribute unto their brethren.
14. Remember me, O my God, and do not blot out my mercy, which I have done to my God's house and to his guard.
15. At that time I saw winepresses treading in Judah on the sabbath day, and bringing in sheaves, and asses laden with wine, and with grapes, and with figs, and with all manner of burden, to Jerusalem on the sabbath day. I saw them on the day they sold the food.
16. There dwelt also Tyrians within, which brought fishes and all manner of merchandise, and sold them on the sabbath day unto the children of Judah and Jerusalem.
17. Then I rebuked the princes of Judah, and said unto them: What wicked thing is this that ye do, and break the sabbath day?

18. Did not our fathers do so, and our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? And ye make more wrath upon Israel, because ye break the sabbath day.

19. And when the gates of Jerusalem were opened before the sabbath day, I commanded the doors to be shut, and commanded that they should not be opened until after the sabbath day.

And I appointed some of my servants to the gates, that no burden should be brought in on the sabbath day.

20. And the merchants and the sellers, with all manner of merchandise, stayed out of Jerusalem one night or two.

21. Then I testified unto them, and said unto them: Why tarry ye about the wall overnight? If ye do it again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth they came not on the sabbath day.

22. And I spake unto the Levites that were clean, that they should come and keep the gates, to hallow the sabbath day. O my God, remember me also, and spare me according to thy great mercy.

23. I saw also in those days Jews taking wives of Ashdod, and Ammon, and Moab.

24. And their children spake half of them asdodish, and could not speak Jewish, but after the manner of every people.

25. And I reproached them, and cursed them, and smote certain men, and roughed them up, and took an oath of them by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, neither shall ye take their daughters unto your sons, or unto yourselves.

26. Did not Solomon king of Israel sin in this? And yet in many nations there was no king like unto him, and he was dear unto his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless the foreign wives made him to sin.

27. Have ye not heard that ye do such great evil, to trespass against our God, and to take foreign wives?

28. And one of the sons of Jehoiada the son of Eliasib the high priest had made friends with Sanballat the Horonite: but I put him away from me.

29. Remember them, O my God, that are loosed from the priesthood, and from the covenant of the priesthood and of the Levites.

30. So I cleansed them from all foreigners, and set the guard of the priests and Levites, every man according to his business,

31. And to offer the wood at appointed times, and the firstfruits.

Remember me, my God, in the best!

Text of the unrevised Luther Bible 1545:

DeepL English Translation

[Processed by BackToLuther. German text published here.]

The Book of Esther ^

Chapter 1

Vasthi is cast out for despised meal by Ahasuerus.

1. In the days of Ahasuerus, which was king from India unto the Moors, over an hundred and twenty and seven countries,

2. And as he sat in his royal seat in Shushan the palace,

3. In the third year of his reign he made a feast with him unto all his princes and servants, even to the mighty men of Persia and Media, and to the governors and princes of his provinces, 4. That he might shew the marvellous riches of his kingdom, and the glorious majesty of his majesty, for many days, even an hundred and fourscore days.

5. And when the days were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were in Shushan the palace, both great and small, seven days in the court of the garden of the king's house.

6. There hung white, red, and yellow cloths, bound with linen and scarlet ropes in silver rings upon marble pillars. The benches were of gold and silver, made upon pavements of green, white, yellow, and black marbles.

7. And the drink was carried in vessels of gold, and other vessels, and other vessels, and royal wine in such quantity as the king was able.

8. And they appointed no man what he should drink: for the king had commanded all the rulers of his house that every man should do as he pleased.

9. And Vasthi the queen also made a feast for the women in the royal house of king Ahasuerus, 10. And on the seventh day, when the king was well pleased with wine, he called Mehuman, Bistha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Sethar, and Kharkas, the seven eunuchs that ministered before king Ahasuerus,

11. And they brought Vashti the queen before the king with the royal crown, to shew her beauty unto the people and to the princes: for she was fair.

12. But Vasthi the queen would not come after the king's word by his chamberlains. And the king was very wroth, and his wrath was kindled in him.

13. And the king spake unto the wise men that had knowledge of the customs of the land, (for the king's things must be done in the sight of all that have understanding of right and wrong; 14. And the next unto him were Charsena, and Sethar, and Admatha, and Tharsis, and Meres, and Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of the Persians and Medes, which saw the king's face, and sat on high in the kingdom),

15. What right should be done to Vasthi the queen, because she had not done according to the king's word by his chamberlains?

16. And Memucan said before the king and princes, Vashti the queen hath not wrought evil against the king only, but also against all the princes, and against all the people of all the provinces of king Ahasuerus.

17. For such a deed shall come forth from the queen unto all the women, that they shall despise their husbands in their sight, and shall say, Ahasuerus the king called Vashti the queen to come before him; but she would not.

18. Now therefore the princesses of Persia and Media shall say so also unto all the king's princes, when they hear such a deed of the queen; and there shall be enough contempt and wrath.

19. If it please the king, let a royal decree go forth from him, and let it be written according to the law of the Persians and Medes, which shall not be transgressed, that Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her kingdom to her neighbour that is better than she;

20. And that this letter of the king's, which is made, may go forth into all his kingdom (which is great), that all the women may keep their husbands in honour, both great and small.

21. And it pleased the king and the princes: and the king did according to the word of Memucan.

22. And letters were sent into all the king's provinces, into every land according to the writing thereof, and unto every people according to their language, that every man should be ruler in his house, and speak according to the language of his people.

(Ester)

Chapter 2

Esther is raised to royal honors.

1. After these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was abated, he remembered Vasthi, what she had done, and what was decreed concerning her.

2. Then said the king's lads that ministered unto him: Let young virgins be sought for the king; 3. And the king shall appoint showers throughout all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all manner of fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, into the women's chamber, under the hand of Hegai the king's chamberlain, who waiteth upon the women, and give them their jewels;

4. And whichever damsel pleaseth the king, let her be queen in Vashti's stead. And this pleased the king, and he did so.

5. Now there was a certain Jew in Shushan the palace, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, the son of Jemini,

6. Who was carried away with him from Jerusalem, when Jeichaniah king of Judah was carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon carried away.

7. And he was a guardian to Hadassah, which is Esther his cousin's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother. And she was a fair and fine damsel. And when her father and her mother were dead, Mordecai took her for a daughter.

8. And it came to pass, when the king's commandment and the king's law were heard, and many damsels were brought home to Shushan the palace, under the hand of Hegai, that Esther also was taken into the king's house, under the hand of Hegai the keeper of the damsels.

9. And the damsel pleased him, and she found mercy in his sight. And he hastened with her jewels, that he might give her her portion, and seven fair damsels of the king's house with her. He put her and her maids in the best place in the women's room.

10. And Esther told him not of her people, nor of her friendship: for Mordecai had commanded her that she should not tell.

11. And Mordecai walked every day before the court in the chamber of the women, to know whether it was well with Esther, and what might befall her.

12. And it came to pass, when the time was come for every damsel to come to king Ahasuerus, after she had been twelve months in adorning herself, (for her adorning must have been so much time, six months with balm and myrrh, and six months with good spices, that the damsels were adorned,)

13. Then went a damsel unto the king, and whomsoever she would, they gave her, that should go with her from the chamber of women unto the king's house.

14. And it came to pass, when one was come in at even, that she went out of him in the morning into the other chamber, under the hand of Saashgah the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the concubines. And she came not again to the king, except the king lusted, and called her by name.

15. And it came to pass, when the time was come for Esther the daughter of Abihail the cousin of Mordecai, whom he had taken for a daughter, to come to the king, that she desired nothing, save what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, spake. And Esther found grace in the sight of all them that looked on her.

16. And Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into the king's house in the tenth month, which is called Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

17. And the king loved Esther above all women, and she found grace and mercy in his sight.

above< all virgins. And he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen in Vashti's stead.

18. And the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants. Servants (which was a feast for Esther's sake) and let the countries rest, and gave out royal gifts.

19. And when virgins were gathered together the second time, Mordecai sat in the king's gate.

20. And Esther had not yet declared her friendship, nor her people, as Mordecai had commanded her. For Esther did according to the word of Mordecai, as though he were her guardian.

21. At the same time that Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, Bigthan and Theres, which kept the door, were wroth, and sought to lay their hands on king Ahasuerus.

22. And it was known unto Mordecai, and he spake it unto Esther the queen; and Esther spake it unto the king in Mordecai's name.

23. And when they searched for them, they found them. And they were both hanged upon trees, and were written in the book of the chronicles before the king.

(Ester)

Chapter 3

Haman's ambition and bloodlust.

1. According to these acts king Ahasuerus magnified Haman the son of Medatha the Agagite, and exalted him, and set over his throne all the princes that were with him.

2. And all the king's servants that were in the king's gate bowed the knee, and worshipped Haman: for the king had so commanded. But Mordecai bowed not his knees, nor worshipped.

3. And the king's servants that were in the king's gate said unto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou the king's commandment?

4. And when they had said these things unto him daily, and he obeyed them not, they told Haman, that they might see whether the doings of Mordecai would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew.

5. And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not his knees to him, nor worshipped him, he was filled with wrath.

6. And he despised to lay hands on Mordecai alone, because they had told him the people of Mordecai: but he sought to destroy the people of Mordecai, all the Jews that were in all the kingdom of Ahasuerus.

7. In the first month, which is the moon Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, was the lot cast before Haman from day to day, and from the month to the twelfth month, which is the moon Adar.

8. And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a people scattered, and divided among all nations, throughout all the coasts of thy kingdom; and their law is diverse from all nations, and they do not the king's statutes: and it is not meet for the king to suffer them to do so.

9. If it please the king, let him write that it be put to death: and I will weigh ten thousand talents of silver in the hand of the officers, and bring it into the king's chamber.

10. And the king took off his ring from off his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Medatha the Agagite, the enemy of the Jews.

11. And the king said unto Haman, Let the silver be given thee, and the people with thee, that thou mayest do therewith as it pleaseth thee.

12. Then the king's scribes were called on the thirteenth day of the first month: and it was written, as Haman commanded, unto the king's princes, and to the governors to and fro in the countries, and to the captains of every people in the countries to and fro, according to the writing of every people, and according to their language, in the name of king Ahasuerus, and sealed with the king's rings.

13. And the letters were sent by the runners into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to slay, and to kill all the Jews, both young and old, children and women, in one day, even in the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the moon Adar, and to spoil their substance.

14. So the content of the scripture was, that a commandment should be given in all countries, to open unto all nations, that they should be sent unto the same day.

15. And the runners went out in haste, according to the king's commandment. And there was a commandment posted in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman did eat and drink: but the city of Shushan went astray.

(Ester)

Chapter 4

Mourning and fasting of Mardachai and the Jews.

1. And when Mordecai heard all that was done, he rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth and ashes, and went out into the midst of the city. And he cried with a loud cry.

2. And he came unto the king's gate. For no man had to enter into the king's gate with sackcloth on.

3. And in every land, whither the king's word and commandment came, there was great mourning among the Jews; and many fasted, and wept, and mourned, and lay in sackcloth and ashes.

4. And Esther's damsels and her chamberlains came and told her. And the queen was sore afraid.

And she sent garments, that Mordecai might put them on, and put off the sackcloth from him: but he took them not.

5. Then Esther called Hathach of the king's chamberlains, which stood before her, and commanded him to Mordecai, that she might know what these things were, and why he did so.

6. Then Hathach went out to Mordecai unto the street of the city, which was before the king's gate.

7. And Mordecai told him all that he had met with, and the sum of the silver that Haman had spoken, to weigh it in the king's chamber for the Jews' sakes, to destroy them.

8. And he gave him the copy of the commandment that was written in Shushan to destroy her, to shew it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to command her to go in unto the king, and to make supplication unto him for her people.

9. And when Hathach was come in, and saw Esther the words of Mordecai, 10. And Esther spake unto Hathach, and commanded him to Mardachai: 11. All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, know that whosoever goeth in unto the king within the court, whether he be man or woman, and is not called, he shall surely die, except the king give him the golden sceptre, that he may live. But I have not been called to go in to the king for thirty days.

12. And the words of Esther were spoken unto Mordecai;

13. And Mordecai said unto Esther again, Remember not that thou savest thy life, because thou art in the king's house, before all the Jews;

14. For if thou shalt keep silence at this time, then shall help and salvation come unto the Jews out of another place, and thou shalt perish, thou and thy father's house. And who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for this time?

15. Esther called Mordecai to answer:

16. Go therefore, gather together all the Jews that are in Shushan, and fast for me, that ye eat not, nor drink, day nor night, three days: so will I and my damsels fast. So I will go in to the king against the commandment, and if I perish, I perish.

17. And Mordecai went and did all that Esther commanded him.
(Ester)

Chapter 5

Esther goes to the king. Haman asks Mordecai for his life.

1. And it came to pass on the third day, that Esther arrayed herself royally, and stood in the court of the king's house within the king's house. And the king sat in his royal seat in the king's house, toward the door of the house.

2. And when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, she found grace in his sight.

And the king stretched forth the golden scepter in his hand toward Esther. And Esther came near, and touched the point of the sceptre.

3. And the king said unto her, What is the matter with thee, Esther the queen? and what demandest thou? half the kingdom also shall be given thee.

4. And Esther said, If it please the king, let the king and Haman come this day to the feast which I have prepared.

5. And the king said, Make haste that Haman do what Esther hath said. And it came to pass, when the king and Haman were come to the banquet that Esther had prepared, 6. And the king said unto Esther, when he had drunk wine, What askest thou, Esther? It shall be given thee. And what askest thou? Even the half of the kingdom, it shall be done.

7. And Esther answered and said, My petition and my desire is this: 8. If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to give me my petition, and to do my desire, let the king and Haman come to the banquet which I will prepare for them; and I will do to morrow as the king hath said.

9. And Haman went out that day cheerful and of good cheer. And when he saw Mordecai in the king's gate, that he arose not, nor moved himself before him, he was filled with wrath against him. Mordecai.

10. But he abstained. And when he was come home, he sent and fetched his friends, and Seresh his wife.

11. And he told them the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all how the king had made him so great, and that he was exalted above the princes and servants of the king.

12. And Haman said, Esther the queen hath sent no man to come with the king to the feast which she hath prepared, save me: and to morrow I am summoned unto her with the king.

13. But in all this I have no sufficiency, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate.

14. And Seresh his wife and all his friends said unto him, Make a tree fifty cubits high, and tell the king to morrow to hang Mordecai thereon; and thou shalt come to supper with the king rejoicing. And it pleased Haman well, and he made a tree.

(Ester)

Chapter 6

Mardachai is raised to high honors.

1. That night the king could not sleep, and commanded the chronicles and the histories to be brought. Then they were read before the king,

2. And it came to pass, when it was written, as Mordecai had said, that the king's two chamberlains, Bigthan and Theres, which kept the threshold, had sought to lay hands on Ahasuerus the king.

3. And the king said, What honour and good have we done unto Mordecai? Then said the king's boys that ministered unto him: Nothing hath happened unto him.

4. And the king said, Who is in the court? (For Haman was gone into the court, without the king's house, to tell the king to hang Mordecai upon the tree which he had prepared for him).

5. And the king's sons said unto him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in.

6. And when Haman was come in, the king said unto him, What shall be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour? And Haman said in his heart, To whom else would the king delight to do honour, but to me?

7. And Haman said unto the king: The man the king was pleased to honor, 8. Bring the king's royal robes, which the king is accustomed to wear, and the horse on which the king rides, and put the royal crown upon his head.

9. And they shall give such a garment and such a horse into the hand of one of the king's princes, that he may put on the man whom the king delighteth to honour; and they shall bring him on the horse into the streets of the city, and shall call before him, saying, Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

10. And the king said unto Haman, Make haste, and take the garment and the horse, as thou hast said, and do so unto Mordecai the Jew, which sitteth at the king's gate; and let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken.

11. And Haman took the robe and the horse, and dressed Mordecai, and led him into the streets of the city, and cried before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

12. And Mordecai came again to the king's gate. And Haman hasted home, bearing sorrow with his head covered.

13. And he told his wife Zeresh, and his friends, all that he had met with. And his wise men and Zeresh his wife said unto him, If Mordecai be of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou art lifted up to fall, thou canst not do any thing by him, but thou shalt fall before him.

14. And while they yet talked with him, the king's chamberlains came, and bade Haman come to the supper which Esther had prepared.

(Ester)

Chapter 7

Haman is hanged from a tree.

1. And when the king was come with Haman to the banquet which Esther the queen had prepared,

2. And the king said unto Esther the next day, when he had drunk wine, What askest thou, O

Esther the queen, to be given thee? And what askest thou? Even half the kingdom, let it be done.

3. And Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found grace in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, give me my life for my petition, and my people for my desire.

4. For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, and to be slain, and to be slain: and if God would that we should be sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I would hold my peace, but the enemy would not hurt the king.

5. And king Ahasuerus spake, and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he? Or where is he that may take this thing into his mind to do so?

6. And Esther said, The enemy and adversary is this wicked Haman. And Haman was astonished before the king and the queen.

7. And the king arose from supper and wine in his wrath, and went into the garden of the house.

And Haman arose, and besought Esther the queen for his life: for he saw that the king's evil was already prepared for him.

8. And when the king was come again out of the garden of the house into the hall where they had eaten, Haman lay by the bench where Esther sat. And the king said, Will he strangle the queen in my house? And when the word came out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face.

9. And Harbonah the chamberlain, one before the king, said, Behold, there is a tree in the house of Haman fifty cubits high, which he had made for Mordecai, which spake good for the king.

And the king said, Let him hang upon it.

10. So they hanged Haman upon the tree which he had made Mordecai. And the king's anger was abated.

(Ester)

Chapter 8

The Jews have permission to take revenge on their enemies.

1. In that day king Ahasuerus gave to Esther the queen the house of Haman the enemy of the Jews. And Mordecai came before the king: for Esther told how he belonged unto her.

2. And the king took off his finger, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai.

And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.

3. And Esther spake again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and besought him that he would put away the wickedness of Haman the Agagite, and his devices which he had devised against the Jews.

4. And the king stretched out the golden sceptre unto Esther. And Esther arose, and stood before the king.

5. And he said, If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and if it please the king, and if I please him, then let it be written, that the letters of the plots of Haman the son of Medatha the Agagite be revoked, which he wrote to destroy the Jews throughout all the king's provinces.

6. For how can I see the evil that shall befall my people? And how can I see my people perish?

7. And king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen, and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, I have given the house of Haman unto Esther, and he is hanged upon a tree, because he laid his hand upon the Jews.

8. Now therefore write ye for the Jews, as ye please, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring. For the writing that was written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, no man hath had to revoke.

9. And the king's scribes were called at that time in the third month, which is the moon of Sivan, on the three and twentieth day; and it was written, as Mordecai commanded, unto the Jews, and to the princes, and to the governors, and to the captains of the provinces, from India even unto the Moors, even an hundred and twenty and seven provinces, to every province according to their writings, and to every people according to their language, and to the Jews according to their writing and their language.

10. And it was written in the name of king Ahasuerus, and sealed with the king's rings. And he sent the letters by messengers riding upon young mouths,

11. Wherein the king gave the Jews, where they were in the cities, to assemble themselves together, and to stand for their lives, and to destroy, and to slay, and to destroy all the power of the people and of the land, which they feared, with their children and their wives, and to spoil their substance,

12. On one day in all the lands of king Ahasuerus, even on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the moon Adar.

13. And the content of the scripture was, that a commandment should be given in all countries, to open unto all nations, that the Jews should be sent in that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

14. And the messengers that rode upon the mouths went out quickly and in haste according to the king's word: and the commandment was posted in Shushan the palace.

15. And Mordecai went out from the king in royal apparel, yellow and white, and with a great crown of gold, clothed in a linen and purple mantle: and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad.

16. But unto the Jews was light, and joy, and. Delight and honor come.

17. And in every land, and in every city, whither the king's word and commandment came, there was joy and gladness among the Jews, and gladness and good days; and many of the people of the land became Jews: for the fear of the Jews was upon them.

(Ester)

Chapter 9

The Jews, having practiced vengeance, make a joyful feast.

1. In the twelfth month, which is the moon Adar, in the thirteenth day, which the king's word and commandment had appointed to be done, in the very day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to overcome them, it came to pass that the Jews should overcome their enemies.

2. Then the Jews gathered themselves together in their cities, throughout all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, to lay hands on them that would do them evil. And no man could withstand them: for fear was come upon all nations.

3. And all the rulers of the provinces, and the princes, and the governors, and the king's officers, did exalt the Jews: for the fear of Mordecai was upon them.

4. For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and the rumour of him was heard in all the countries, how he increased and became great.

5. So the Jews smote upon all their enemies with the edge of the sword, and choked, and slew, and did according to their will upon them that were enemies unto them.

6. And in Shushan the Jews slew, and destroyed five hundred men.

7. And they slew Parsandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha,

8. Poratha, Adaliah, Aridatha,

9. parmastha, arisai, aridai, vajesatha,

10. The ten sons of Haman the son of Medatha, the enemy of the Jews: but they laid not their hands on his goods.

11. At that time came the number of them that were slain unto Shushan the castle before the king.

12. And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and killed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman: what will they do in the rest of the king's provinces? What will they do in the rest of the king's land? what will they give you? and what more will they ask you to do?

13. And Esther said, If it please the king, let him also the Jews of Shushan do to morrow according to this day's commandment, to hang the ten sons of Haman upon the tree.

14. And the king commanded thus. And the commandment was posted in Shushan, and the ten sons of Haman were hanged.

15. And the Jews gathered themselves together to Shushan on the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and slew in Shushan three hundred men: but they laid not their hands on their goods.

16. And the rest of the Jews that were in the king's provinces came together, and tarried for their lives, to give them rest from their enemies, and slew their enemies seventy and five thousand: but they laid not their hands on their goods.

17. And it came to pass on the thirteenth day of the month Adar, and they rested on the fourteenth day of that month, which was made a day of rest and gladness.

18. But the Jews that were at Shushan were gathered together, both on the thirteenth day and on the fourteenth day, and rested on the fifteenth day: and they made that day a day of rest and gladness.

19. Therefore the Jews that dwelt in the villages and in the towns made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of feasting and gladness, and sent gifts one to another.

20. And Mordecai described this history, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the countries of king Ahasuerus, both near and far,

21. And they took and kept the fourteenth and fifteenth day of the month Adar yearly, 22. After the days wherein the Jews were at rest from their enemies, and after the months wherein their sorrows were turned into joy, and their mourning into good days, that they should keep them for days of good living and gladness, and send gifts one to another, and communicate them to the poor.

23. And the Jews received it, which they began to do, and which Mordecai wrote unto them: 24. As Haman the son of Medatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, thought to destroy all the Jews, and cast lots to terrify and kill them;

25. And how Esther went to the king, and spake that by letters his wicked devices, which he thought against the Jews, should be turned upon his head; and how they hanged him and his sons upon the tree.

26. Wherefore they called these days Purim by the name of the lot, according to all the words of this epistle, and what they themselves had seen, and what had come unto them.

27. And the Jews set it up, and took it upon themselves, and upon their seed, and upon all that joined themselves unto them, that they would not pass over to keep these two days yearly, as they were described and appointed,

28. That these days should not be forgotten, but kept among their children, among all generations, in all countries, and in all cities. These are the days of Purim, which shall not be forgotten among the Jews, neither shall their remembrance perish among their seed.

29. And Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all their might to confirm this other letter of Purim.

30. And sent letters unto all the Jews in the hundred and twenty and seven countries of the kingdom of Ahasuerus with kind and faithful words:

31. And they confirmed these days of Purim in their appointed time, as Mordecai the Jew had confirmed them, and Esther the queen; as they had confirmed upon their souls, and upon their seed, the story of their fasting and their crying.

32. And Esther commanded to confirm the history of these Purim, and to write it in a book.

(Ester)

Chapter 10

Mordecai is praised

1. And king Ahasuerus laid interest upon the land, and upon the isles of the sea.

2. But all the works of his power and might, and the great glory of Mordecai, which the king gave him, behold, it is written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia.

3. For Mordecai the Jew was the other after king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and pleasant among the multitude of his brethren, seeking good for his people, and speaking the best for all his seed.

Text of the unrevised Luther Bible 1545

DeepL English Translation

[Processed by BackToLuther. German text published here.]

The Book of Job (Job) ^

Chapter 1

Job's obnoxiousness and patience.

1. There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job. He was righteous and wicked, fearing God and shunning evil.

2. And begat seven sons and three daughters.

3. And of his cattle were seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she asses, and a great many servants: and he was more glorious than all they that dwelt eastward.

4. And his sons went and made merry every man in his house in his day, and sent and invited their three sisters to eat and drink with them.

5. And it came to pass, when the day was expired, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all. For Job said, "My sons have sinned and blessed God in their hearts. So Job did all the days.

6. And it came to pass in a day, when the children of God came and stood before the LORD, that Satan also came among them.

7. And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? And Satan answered the LORD, and said: I have compassed the country round about.

8. And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou not taken heed unto my servant Job? for there is none like him in the land, wicked and righteous, fearing God, and avoiding evil.

9. And Satan answered the LORD, and said, Thinkest thou that Job feareth God for nought?

10. Hast thou preserved him, and his house, and all that he hath round about? Thou hast blessed the work of his hands; And his substance is spread abroad in the land.

11. But put forth thine hand, and touch all that he hath: what matter, he will bless thee to thy face?

12. And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thine hand; without him alone lay not thine hand. Then Satan departed from the LORD.

13. And it came to pass on the day that his sons and his daughters did eat and drink wine in their brother's house, the firstborn,

14. And there came a messenger to Job, saying, The oxen plowed, and the asses walked beside them in the pasture;

15. And they of Arabia came in, and took them, and smote the lads with the edge of the sword: and I alone escaped to tell thee.

16. While he yet spake, another came and said, The fire of God came down from heaven, and burned up sheep and lambs, and consumed them: and I alone escaped to tell thee.

17. While he yet spake, there came one, and said, The Chaldeans made three points, and attacked the camels, and took them, and smote the lads with the edge of the sword: and I alone escaped to tell thee.

18. While he yet spake, one came and said, Thy sons and thy daughters did eat and drink in the house of their brother the firstborn;

19. And, behold, a great wind came from the wilderness, and brake upon the four corners of the house, and cast it upon the young men, and they died: and I alone escaped to tell thee.

20. And Job arose, and rent his clothes, and ruffled his head, and fell to the ground, and worshipped.

21. And said: I came naked from my mother's womb; naked shall I return. The LORD gave, the LORD hath taken away: blessed be the name of the LORD.

22. In all this Job sinned not, neither did he do anything foolish against God.

(Job)

Chapter 2

Job afflicted in the body, is despised and visited.

1. And it came to pass in the day that the children of God came and stood before the LORD, that Satan also came among them, and stood before the LORD.

2. Then said the LORD unto Satan, Whence comest thou? And Satan answered the LORD, and said: I have compassed the country round about.

3. And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou not taken heed unto my servant Job? For there is none like him in the land, wicked and righteous, fearing God, avoiding evil, and holding fast his godliness: but thou hast moved me to destroy him without a cause.

4. Satan answered the LORD, and said, Skin for skin; and all that a man hath he leaveth for his life.

5. But put forth thine hand, and touch his bones and his flesh: what matter, he will bless thee to thy face?

6. And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand: but spare his life.

7. Then Satan went out from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with evil swarms from the sole of his foot even to the top of his head.

8. And he took a potsherd, and scraped himself, and sat in the ashes.

9. And his wife said unto him, Dost thou yet hold fast thy devotion? Yes, bless God and die!

10. And he said unto her, Thou speakest as foolish women speak. Have we received good from God, and should we not also receive evil? In all this Job sinned not with his lips.

11. And when the three friends of Job heard all the evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place, Eliphaz of Theman, and Bildad of Shuah, and Zophar of Naamah. They were united in coming to lament and comfort him.

12. And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, they knew him not, and lifted up their voice, and wept; and every man rent his clothes, and sprinkled earth upon their heads toward heaven.

13. And they sat with him upon the earth seven days and seven nights, and spake nothing to him: for they saw that the sorrow was very great.
(Job)

Chapter 3

Lamentations and impatience.

1. After this Job opened his mouth, and cursed his day.

2. And Job said:

3. Let the day be lost wherein I was born, and the night when it was said, A man is conceived.

4. that same day must be dark, and GOD from above must not inquire of it; no brightness must shine upon it.

5. Darkness and gloom shall overtake him, and thick clouds shall be upon him, and the vapour by day shall make him hideous.

6. Let the night take a darkness, and not rejoice among the days of the year, nor come into the number of the moons.

7. Behold, the night shall be lonely, and there shall be no rejoicing therein.

8. They curse the cursers of the day, and they that are ready to raise up Leviathan.

9. Her stars must be dark in her twilight; she hopeth for the light, and cometh not, nor seeth the eyebrows of the dawn,

10. That she hath not shut the door of my womb, nor hid evil from mine eyes.

11. Why did I not die from my mother's womb? Why did I not perish when I came out of the womb?

12. Why have they set me in the lap? Why am I suckled with breasts?

13. I would lie down and be still, and sleep, and be at rest.

14. With the kings and counsellors of the earth, which build the wilderness; 15. Or with the princes that have gold, and their houses are full of silver;

16. or like an untimely birth hidden and nothing would be, like the young children who have never seen the light.

17. There shall the wicked cease from their raging: there shall they rest that have laboured much.
18. For the captives are at peace with one another, and hear not the voice of the oppressor.
19. There are both small and great, servant and he that is set free of his master.
20. Why is light given to the weary, and life to the afflicted heart?
21. Who wait for death, and come not, and dig it out of secret,
22. Who almost rejoice, and are glad to get the grave:)
23. And to the man whose way is hid, and God covereth it from him?
24. For when I shall eat, I groan, and my weeping cometh forth like water.
25. For that which I feared is come upon me, and that which I cared for is come upon me.
26. Was I not blissful? Was I not fine quiet? Was I not well at rest? And comes such unrest!

(Job)

Chapter 4

Eliphaz begins to chastise Job.

1. Then Eliphaz of Theman answered and said:
2. Thou mayest not like it, if any man try to speak unto thee: but who can refrain?
3. Behold, thou hast instructed many, and hast strengthened hands; 4. Thy speech hath lifted up the fallen, and thou hast strengthened the trembling knees.
5. But when it cometh upon thee, thou shalt be weak: and when it cometh upon thee, thou shalt be afraid.
6. is this your (God's) fear, comfort, hope, and godliness?
7. Thinkest thou, where hath the innocent perished, or where hath the righteous ever been destroyed?
8. As I have seen them plow toil, and sow mischief, and they also reap it, 9. That they should perish by the breath of God, and be consumed by the spirit of his wrath.
10. The roaring of the lions, and the voice of the great lions, and the teeth of the young lions, are broken.
11. The lion is consumed, that he rob no more: and the young of the lioness are scattered.

12. And there came unto me a secret word, and mine ear received a word of it.
13. When I have beheld visions in the night, when sleep falleth upon men, 14. Then fear and trembling came upon me, and all my bones were troubled.
15. And when the Spirit passed over before me, the hair of my head stood on end in my flesh.
16. And there stood a vision before mine eyes, and I knew not the form thereof: it was still, and I heard a voice:
17. How can a man be more righteous than God, or a man more pure than he who made him?
18. Behold, there is none without blame among his servants, and he findeth folly in his messengers.
19. How many more of them that dwell in the houses of clay, and that are founded upon the earth, shall be eaten of the worms?
20. From the morning until the evening they are cut off, and before they know it they are gone; 21. And the remnant of them perish, and die also unawares.

(Job)

Chapter 5

Eliphaz continues in his punishment.

1. Name me one; what matter if thou find one? And look around thee for any saint.
2. But wrath slayeth a foolish man, and zeal slayeth a foolish man.
3. I saw a fool rooted up, and I suddenly cursed his house.
4. His children shall be far from salvation, and shall be broken in the gate, because there shall be no saviour.
5. His harvest shall the hungry eat, and the armed shall take him, and his goods shall the thirsty drink.
6. For trouble cometh not out of the earth, neither doth mischief grow out of the field, 7. but man is born to misfortune, as the birds hover to soar.
8. But I will now speak of God and act from Him, 9. Who doeth great things that cannot be searched out, and wonders that cannot be numbered; 10. Who giveth rain upon the land, and causeth water to come upon the streets.
11. He that exalteth the lowly, and lifteth up the afflicted.

12. He bringeth to nought the devices of the crafty, that their hand may not execute them.

13. He fäheth the wise in their craftiness, and overthroweth the counsel of the perverse, 14. That they may walk in darkness by day, and grope in the south as in the night; 15. And delivereth the poor from the sword, and from their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty;

16. And the hope of the poor is, that wickedness shall shut her mouth.

17. Behold, blessed is the man whom God punisheth: therefore refuse not the chastening of the Almighty.

18. For he woundeth and bindeth up; he breaketh in pieces, and his hand healeth.

19. Out of six tribulations shall he deliver thee; and in the seventh no evil shall touch thee.

20. He shall deliver thee from death in tribulation, and from the hand of the sword in war.

21. He shall hide thee from the scourge of the tongue, that thou fear not destruction when it cometh.

22. In destruction and hunger thou shalt laugh, and shalt not be afraid of the wild beasts of the land,

23. But thy covenant shall be with the stones of the field, and the wild beasts of the earth shall keep peace with thee;

24. And thou shalt know that thy tabernacle is at peace; and thou shalt keep thy dwelling, and shalt not sin;

25. And thou shalt know that thy seed shall be multiplied, and thy seed as the grass of the earth; 26. And thou shalt come to the grave in old age, as sheaves are brought in in their season.

27. Behold, we have searched it out, and it is so; obey it, and mark it. (Job)

Chapter 6

Responsibility against Eliphaz.

1. Job answered and said:

2. If my sorrow were weighed, and my affliction put into a balance together, 3. It would be heavier than the sand of the sea: therefore all that I say is vain.

4. For the arrows of the Almighty are in me, the fury of the Almighty drinketh out of my spirit, and the terrors of God are upon me.

5. The deer crieth not when he hath grass; the ox bleateth not when he hath his meat.
6. can you also eat that is unsalted? Or who likes to taste the white around the yolk?
7. That which my soul hateth to touch is the meat of my sorrows.
8. O that my request might be granted, and that God might give me that which I hope for!
9. That God would begin, and smite me, and let his hand go, and break me in pieces!
10. Then would I have consoled myself, and prayed in my sickness that he would not spare me. I have not denied the words of the Holy One.
11. What is my strength, that I may persevere? and what is my end, that my soul should be patient?
12. If my strength be not of stone, my flesh is not of brass.
13. for I have nowhere to turn, and my fortune is gone.
14. He that refuseth mercy to his neighbour putteth away the fear of the Almighty.
15. My brethren pass away contemptuously before me, as a brook, as the rivers of waters pass by.
16. But they that are afraid of the frost, upon them shall the snow fall.
17. In time, when the heat shall oppress them, they shall faint; and when it is hot, they shall perish from their place.
18. Their way goeth out by the way side; they tread upon the rough places, and perish.
19. They look to the ways of Thema; to the paths of Reicharabia they wait.
20. But they shall be ashamed when it is most sure, and shall be ashamed when they come to it.
21. For ye are now come unto me: and seeing sorrow, ye fear.
22. Did I also say, Bring ye hither, and of your substance give me?
23. And delivereth me out of the hand of the enemy, and delivereth me out of the hand of tyrants?
24. Teach me, and I will hold my peace: and that which I know not, instruct me.
25. Why do ye reprove right speech? Who is there among you who can punish them?

26. Ye devise words to punish, and ye pause words to make me despondent.

27. Ye fall upon a poor orphan, and dig pits for your neighbour.

28. But because ye have lifted up, look upon me, whether I will stand before you in lies.

29. Answer what is right; my answer will still remain right.

30. What matter if my tongue be false, and my mouth speak evil?

(Job)

Chapter 7

Job's lament over the misery of man.

1. Must not man always be at strife upon the earth, and his days be as the days of a hired servant?

2. As a servant longs for a shadow, and a hired servant for his work to be done, 3. So I have labored in vain for whole moons, and miserable nights have been many to me.

4. And when I lay down, I said, When shall I rise? And after that I reckoned when it was evening: for I was altogether an abomination to every man, until it was dark.

5. My flesh is worm-eaten and boil-eaten round about: my skin is shrivelled up, and is become ruinous.

6. My days have flown away lighter than a weaver's bobbin, and have passed away, that there hath been no stopping.

7. Remember that my life is a wind, and mine eyes come not again to see the good.

8. and no living eye shall see me any more. Thine eyes look upon me; At this I perish.

9. A cloud passeth away, and fadeth away: so he that goeth down to hell cometh not up again.

10. And he cometh not again into his house, and his place knoweth him no more.

11. Therefore also I will not withhold my mouth; I will speak of the anguish of my heart, and I will testify of the affliction of my soul.

12. Am I then a sea, or a whale, that thou hast kept me thus?

13. When I have thought, my bed shall comfort me, my couch shall make me light; 14. when I speak to myself, thou terrifieth me with dreams, and makest me afraid, 15. My soul desireth to be hanged, and my bones to die.

16. I desire no more to live. Cease from me, for my days have been in vain.
17. What is a man, that thou esteemest him great, and art troubled with him?
18. Thou visitest him daily, and tryest him every hour.
19. Why dost thou not depart from me, and dost not cease from me, till I have swallowed up my spittle?
20. If I have sinned, what shall I do unto thee, O thou keeper of men? Why makest thou me to stumble upon thee, and art a burden unto myself?
21. And why forgivest thou not my iniquity, and takest not away my sin? For now will I lie down in the earth; and when they seek me to morrow, I shall not be there.

(Job)

Chapter 8

Job is accused of hypocrisy by Bildad.

1. Then answered Bildad of Suah, and said:
2. How long wilt thou speak these things, and let the speech of thy mouth be so proud?
3. Thinkest thou that God doth judge unjustly, or that the Almighty doth pervert justice?
4. If thy sons have sinned before him, he hath cast them off for their iniquity.
5. But if thou turn in time unto God, and beseech the Almighty,
6. And if thou be pure and upright, he will awake unto thee, and will set up the tabernacle again for thy righteousness' sake;
7. And what at first thou hadst little, hereafter thou shalt almost increase.
8. For inquire of the former generations, and take upon thee to inquire of their fathers.
9. (For we are of old, and know nothing; our life is a shadow upon the earth.) 10. They shall teach thee, and tell thee, and bring forth their speech out of their heart.
11. Can the reed grow up where it is not wet, or grass grow without water?
12. Or else, if it be yet in the flower, before it be cut down, it withereth before they make hay.

13. So it is with all those who forget God, and the hope of the hypocrites will be lost.
14. For his confidence is gone, and his hope is a cobweb.
15. He shall rely upon his house, and yet shall not stand: he shall keep it, and yet shall not stand.
16. It is fruitful before the sun: and the branches of his garden grow up.
17. His seed is thick by the springs, and his house is built upon the stones.
18. But if he swallow him up out of his place, he shall stand against him, as if he knew him not.
19. Behold, this is the joy of his being; and others shall grow out of the dust.
20. Therefore, behold, God does not reject the righteous, nor does He uphold the hand of the wicked,
21. Until thy mouth be full of laughter, and thy lips of rejoicing.
22. But they that hate thee shall be put to shame, and the tabernacle of the wicked shall not stand.

(Job)

Chapter 9

Job's defense against Bildad.

1. Job answered and said:
2. Yea, I know almost well that therefore a man may not stand justified against God.
3. If he desire to dispute with him, he cannot answer him one to a thousand.
4. He is wise and mighty: who hath ever succeeded that hath set himself against him?
5. He removeth mountains before they know it, whom he turneth back in his wrath.
6. He causeth a land to depart out of her place, and her pillars to shake.
7. He saith unto the sun, let it not rise, and seal up the stars.
8. He spreadeth out the heavens alone, and walketh upon the waves of the sea.
9. He maketh the chariot in the heavens, and Orion, and the mother hen, and the stars toward the south.
10. He doeth great things which cannot be searched out, and wonders of which there is no number.

11. Behold, he passeth over before me before I know it, and is changed before I know it.
12. Behold, if he go quickly, who shall repeat him? Who shall say unto him, What doest thou?
13. He is GOD, his wrath no man can quench; under him the proud lords must bow down.
14. How then shall I answer him, and find words against him?
15. Though I be right, yet cannot I answer him, but I must plead my right.
16. Though I call upon him, and he heareth me, yet will I not believe that he heareth my voice.
17. For he hath overtaken me with violence, and hath given me many wounds without cause.
18. He restoreth not my spirit, but maketh me full of sorrow.
19. If I desire power, he is too mighty: if I desire judgment, who will be my witness?
20. If I say that I am righteous, he condemneth me: if I am righteous, he maketh me unrighteous.
21. If then I be godly, my soul shall not take it. I desire no more life.
22. This is the one thing that I have said: He killeth both the upright and the wicked.
23. When he beginneth to scourge, he soon presseth on unto death, and maketh a mockery of the imputation of the innocent.
24. And the land shall be given into the hand of the wicked, to oppress their judges. Is it not so?
- How shall it be otherwise?
25. My days have been swifter than a runner; they have fled, and have seen no good thing.
26. They are passed away as the strong ships, as an eagle fleeth for meat.
27. When I remember, I will forget my lamentation, and leave off my strife, and be refreshed, 28. Then I will fear all my pains, because I know that thou wilt not let me be innocent.
29. Am I then ungodly, why do I suffer such vain plagues?
30. when I immediately wash with snow water and cleaned my hands with the well,

31. But thou shalt drench me in dung, and my garments shall be put to shame.

32. For he is not like unto me, to whom I would answer that we should come into judgment together.

33. There is no arbitrator among us, neither shall he put his hand between us both.

34. He taketh away his rod from me, and leaveth his terror from me,

35. That I may speak, and not be afraid of him: otherwise I can do nothing that is for me.

(Job)

Chapter 10

Job complains about his misery.

1. My soul perverteth my life: I will let my lamentation go with me, and speak of the affliction of my soul.

2. And say to God, Do not condemn me; let me know why you dispute with me.

3. Dost thou delight thyself to do violence, and to cast me off whom thine hands have made, and to make the wicked to glory?

4. Hast thou then eyes of flesh, or seest thou as a man seeth?

5. Or is thy time as the time of a man, or thy years as the years of a man, 6. That thou inquireest after my iniquity, and seekest my sin?

7. If thou knowest how I am not ungodly; if there be none to deliver out of thine hand.

8. Thy hands have wrought me, and made all that I am round about; and even sunk me!

9. Remember that thou hast made me of glue, and wilt make me again of the earth.

10. Hast thou not milked me like milk, and curdled me like cheese?

11; Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh, with legs and veins hast thou joined me together.

12. Life and mercy hast thou done unto me; and thy reverence keepeth my breath.

13. And though thou hide these things in thine heart, yet I know that thou rememberest them.

14. If I sin, thou knowest it quickly, and wilt not suffer my iniquity to go unpunished.

15. If I be wicked, woe is me: if I be righteous, yet shall I not lift up my head, as I am full of shame, and see my affliction.

16. And like a roaring lion thou huntest me, and dealest abominably with me again.

17. Thou hast renewed thy witnesses against me, and hast made much of thine anger against me: one by one thou hast afflicted me with heaps.

18. Why hast thou brought me forth from my mother's womb? Oh that I had perished, and that no eye had seen me!

19. Thus would I, when they were never, be brought from the womb to the grave.

20. Will not then my short life come to an end, and let me be refreshed a little?

21. Before I go, and come not again, even into the land of darkness and gloom, 22. Into the land that is as thick as darkness, and there is no order, because it seemeth as darkness?

(Job)

Chapter 11.

Job is accused of hypocrisy by Zophar.

1. Then Zophar of Naema answered and said:

2. If a man speak long, must he not also hear? Must a washer always be right?

3. Shall men be silent unto thy great babblings, that thou mock thee, and that no man put thee to shame?

4. Thou sayest, My speech is pure, and I am loud in thine eyes.

5. Oh that God would speak unto thee, and open his lips unto thee!

6. And shewed the secret wisdom. For he would have more to do for thee, that thou mightest know that he remembereth not all thy sins.

7. Thinkest thou that thou knowest as much as God knoweth, and wilt do all things as perfectly as the Almighty?

8. He is higher than heaven; what wilt thou do? lower than hell; what canst thou know?

9. longer than the earth and wider than the sea.

10. If he turn them back, or make them sure, or cast them into a heap, who shall prevent him?

11. For he knoweth the loose men, he seeth iniquity, and should not know it?

12. A useless man is puffed up: and a man that is born is as a young game.
13. If thou hadst set thy heart, and spread out thy hands unto him; 14. If thou hadst put away from thee the iniquity that is in thine hand, that there should be no iniquity in thy tabernacle,
15. Then wouldst thou lift up thy countenance without reproach, and be steadfast, and fear not.
16. Then shalt thou forget the trouble, and remember it as little as the waters that pass by.
17. And the days of thy life shall rise as the noonday, and the darkness shall become the light of the morning.
18. And thou shalt be comforted in that there is hope; thou shalt enter into the grave with peace.
19. And would lie down, and no man would startle thee; and many would plead before thee.
20. But the eyes of the wicked shall fail, and shall not escape: for their hope shall fail from their soul.

(Job)

Chapter 12

Job to answer against Zophar and the rest of his friends.

1. Then Job answered and said:
2. Ye are the people; wisdom shall die with you!
3. I have as good a heart as ye, and am not less than ye: and who is he that knoweth not these things?
4. He that is laughed at by his neighbour shall call upon God, and he shall hear him. The righteous and the pious must be laughed at.
5. And is a despised light in the sight of the proud, and they are offended at it.
6. The dens of the spoilers are full, and rage against God, though God hath delivered it into their hand.
7. Ask the cattle, and they shall teach thee; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee.
8. Or speak unto the earth, and it shall teach thee; and the fishes of the sea shall tell thee.
9. Who knoweth not all these things, that the hand of the LORD hath made them?

10. That in his hand is the soul of all that liveth, and the spirit of all flesh of every one?
11. Doth not the ear try the speech, and the mouth taste the meat?
12. Yea, with the grandfathers is wisdom and understanding with the aged.
13. With him is wisdom, and might, and counsel, and understanding.
14. Behold, if it be broken, no building shall avail: if it be worn out, no man can open it.
15. Behold, when he maketh the waters to fail, all things fail: and when he maketh them to fail, the land is turned back.
16. He is strong, and he bringeth it to pass. His is he that erreth, and he that deceiveth.
17. He leadeth the prudent as a spoil, and maketh the judges foolish.
18. He looseth the constraint of kings, and girdeth up their loins with a girdle.
19. He leadeth the priests as a spoil, and forbadeth the feasts.
20. He turneth away the lips of the upright, and taketh away the customs of the aged.
21. He poureth contempt upon the princes, and looseth the league of the mighty.
22. He openeth the dark places, and bringeth forth the darkness into the light.
23. He maketh some a great nation, and destroyeth them. He spreadeth out a people, and driveth them away.
24. He taketh away the courage of the rulers of the people of the land, and maketh them to err by a way that is not by a way,
25. That they should grope in darkness without light; and make them to err as the drunken.

(Job)

Chapter 13

Job continues in his responsibility.

1. Behold, mine eye hath seen all these things, mine ear hath heard them, and I have understood them.
2. What ye know, that know I also, and am not less than ye.
3. But I would gladly speak against the Almighty, and I would gladly be right with God.
4. For ye interpret it falsely, and are all useless physicians.

5. If God willed that ye should be sworn, ye would be wise.
6. Hear ye my sentence, and mark the thing of which I speak.
7. Will ye defend GOD with unrighteousness, and use guile for him?
8. Will ye look upon his person? Do you want to represent God?
9. And shall it be well with you, when he shall judge you? Do ye think that ye shall deceive him, as a man is deceived?
10. He will punish you where ye look upon a person secretly.
11. Will he not terrify you when he shall stand forth, and his fear shall fall upon you?
12. Your memory shall be likened unto ashes, and your back shall be as a heap of glue.
13. Keep silence from me, that I may speak: I shall not want.
14. Why should I bite my flesh with my teeth, and put my soul into my hands?
15. Behold, he shall slay me, and I cannot wait: but I will punish my ways before him.
16. He shall be my salvation: for there shall no hypocrite come before him.
17. Hear my speech and my interpretation in your ears.
18. Behold, I have already pronounced judgment; I know that I shall be just.
19. Who is he that will be right with me? But now I must be silent and perish.
20. Only do not two things to me, and I will not hide myself from thee:
21. Let thy hand be far from me, and let not thy terror terrify me.
22. Call unto me, and I will answer thee: or I will speak, answer thou me.
23. How much is my iniquity and my sin? Let me know my transgression and sin!
24. Why hidest thou thy face, and holdest me for thine enemy?
25. Wilt thou be so earnest against a flying leaf, and pursue a scrawny stalk?
26. For thou writest me in affliction, and wilt destroy me for the sins of my youth.
27. Thou hast put my foot in staves, and hast watched all my paths, and hast seen the footsteps of my feet,

28. I am wasting away like a rotten carcass, and like a garment that is eaten by moths.

(Job)

Chapter 14

Of the nothingness of human life.

Man born of woman liveth a short time, and is full of unrest,

2. Arise as a flower, and fall down; flit as a shadow, and abide not.

3. And thou openest thine eyes upon such a thing, that thou bringest me before thee into judgment.

4. who will find a pure one among them, since none is pure?

5. He hath his appointed time, the number of his months is with thee: thou hast finely appointed, he shall not pass over.

6. Depart from him, that he may have rest, till his time come, whose he waiteth for as a hired servant.

7. A tree hath hope, when it is cut down, that it will change again, and its shoots will not cease.

8. Whether his root be dead in the earth, and his stem die in the dust,

9. yet it is green again from the smell of the water, and grows therefore as if it were planted.

10. But where is a man when he is dead and perished and gone?

11. As the waters go out of the lake, and as a river run dry, and dry up,

12. So is a man when he lieth down, and shall not rise, neither shall he awake while the heavens remain, nor be awakened from his sleep.

13. Oh that thou wouldest hide me in hell, and harden me, till thy wrath be turned away, and set a purpose for me, that thou shouldest remember me!

14: Thinkest thou that a dead man shall live again? I wait daily, while I strive, till my change come,

15. That thou wouldest call unto me, and I would answer thee, and not fail in the work of thine hands.

16. For thou hast already numbered my steps; but thou wilt not be mindful of my sin.

17. Thou hast sealed up my transgression in a bundle, and gathered my iniquity together.

18. But a mountain falleth, and perisheth, and a rock is moved out of his place.

19. Water washeth away stones, and the drops flow away the earth: but the hope of man is lost.

20. For thou hast overthrown him, that he should come to pass; thou hast changed his nature, and let him go.

21. If his children be honourable, he knoweth it not: or if they be little, he knoweth it not.

22. Because he hath the flesh upon him, he must have pain; and because his soul is yet with him, he must ask for sorrow.

(Job)

Chapter 15

Eliphaz wants to make a hypocrite out of Job.

1. Then Eliphaz of Theman answered and said:

2. Shall a wise man speak such puffed-up words, and distend his belly with loose talk?

3. Thou hast punished with words that are not good, and thy speech is not profitable.

4. you have abandoned fear and speak too contemptuously before God.

5. For thy iniquity hath taught thy mouth, and thou hast chosen a wicked tongue.

6. Thy mouth shall condemn thee, and not I: thy lips shall answer thee. Seventh, art thou the first man born? Art thou conceived before all hills?

8. Hast thou heard God's secret counsel? and is wisdom itself less than thou?

9. What knowest thou that we know not? What do you understand that is not with us?; 10. There are gray men and old men among us, which have lived longer than thy fathers.

11. Shall God's consolations be so small before thee? But you still have a secret piece with you.

Twelve: What dost thou intend in thy heart? What do you see so proudly?

13. Why dost thou set thy heart against God, to let such words proceed out of thy mouth?

14. What is a man, that he should be clean, and that he should be righteous that is born of woman?

15. Behold, there is none blameless among his saints, neither are the heavens clean before him.

16. How much more a man that is abominable and vile, that drinketh iniquity like water?

17. I will show thee, hear me; and I will tell thee what I have seen, 18. Which the wise men have spoken, and have not hid from their fathers,

19. To whom only the land is given, that no stranger should pass through it.

20. The wicked trembleth all the days of his life: and the number of his years is hid from the tyrant.

21. That which he heareth terrifieth him; and though it be peace, he feareth that the destroyer cometh;

22. Believeth not that he may escape calamity, and always doth take up the sword.

23. He goeth to and fro for bread, and thinketh always that the time of his calamity is at hand.

24. Fear and distress terrify him, and smite him as a king with an army.

25. For he hath stretched forth his hand against God, and hath rebelled against the Almighty.

26. He runneth headlong against him, and fighteth stiffnecked against him.

27. He boasteth himself like a fat belly, and maketh himself fat and fatty.

28. But he shall dwell in desolate cities, where there are no heads, but lie in heaps.

29. He shall not abide rich, neither shall his goods endure, neither shall his fortunes spread abroad.

30. Accident shall not depart from him. The flame shall wither his branches, and by the breath of her mouth shall eat him away.

31. He shall not stand, for he is deceived in his vain conceit, and vain shall be his reward.

32. He shall come to an end when it is rough with him, and his branch shall not green.

33. He shall be cut off as an untimely cluster from the vine, and as an olive tree casteth her blossom.

34. For the assembly of the hypocrite shall be solitary, and the fire shall devour the tabernacles that take gifts.

35. She conceiveth with mischief, and bringeth forth trouble; and her belly bringeth forth evil.

(Job)

Chapter 16

Job testifies to his innocence.

1. Job answered and said:

2. I have often heard these things. You are all sorrowful comforters.

3. will the loose words have no end? Or what makes you so bold, so to speak?

4. I could speak as you do. Would to God that your soul were in my place! I would also sit with words upon you, and so shake my head over you.

5. I would strengthen you with my mouth, and comfort you with my lips.

6. But if I speak, my grief spareth not me: if I tarry, it shall not depart from me.

7. But now he hath wearied me, and hath destroyed all that I am.

8. He hath made me frown, and hath testified against me: and mine adversary hath rebelled against me, and answered against me.

9. His wrath is sore, and he that is angry with me gnasheth his teeth at me: mine adversary gleameth upon me with his eyes.

10. They have opened their mouths against me, and have smitten me shamefully on my cheeks; they have burned their courage together against me.

11. God hath delivered me up to the wicked, and delivered me into the hands of the wicked.

12. I was rich, but he hath brought me to nought; he hath taken me by the neck, and crushed me, and set me up for his purpose:

13. He hath compassed me about with his protectors; he hath cleft my kidneys, and not spared them; he hath poured out my gall upon the earth;

14. He hath made me one wound upon another; he hath run upon me like a mighty man.

15. I have sewed sackcloth about my skin, and have laid my horn in the dust.

16. My face is swollen with weeping, and my eyelids are darkened, 17. Though there be no iniquity in mine hand, and my prayer be pure.

18. O earth, cover not my blood, and let not my cry find room.
19. Behold also, my witness is in heaven; and he that knoweth me is on high.
20. My friends are my mockers: but mine eye doth water unto GOD.
21. If a man could be right with God as a man's child with his friend!
22. But the appointed years are come, and I go away by the way which I shall not return.

(Job)

Chapter 17

Job goes on to recount his misery and innocence.

1. My breath is weak, and my days are cut short; the grave is come.
2. No man is deceived of me, neither doth mine eye abide in grief because of it.
3. Whether thou wilt have a surety for me, who will pledge for me?
4. Thou hast hid the understanding of their hearts: therefore shalt thou not exalt them.
5. He shall praise the spoil of his friends, but the eyes of his children shall fail.
6. He hath made me a proverb among men, and must be a wonder among them.
7. My form is darkened with grief, and all my limbs are as a shadow.
8. The righteous shall see evil of it, and the innocent shall sit down against the hypocrites.
9. The righteous shall keep his way, and he of clean hands shall be strong.
10. Come now, all of you, and come; for I will not find a wise man among you.
11. My days are passed away, my attempts are cut off, which have possessed my heart, 12. And have made the night day, and the day night.
13. Though I tarry long, yet is hell my house, and in darkness is my bed made.
14. the decay I call my father, and the worms my mother and my sister.
15. What shall I wait for? and who shall respect my hope?
16. Down into hell shall it go, and shall lie with me in the dust.

(Job)

Chapter 18

Bildad mingles Job with the wicked.

1. Then answered Bildad of Suah, and said:

2. When will you put an end to this speech? Mark you, after this we will talk.

3. Why are we esteemed as cattle, and are so unclean in your sight?

4. Wilt thou burst with wickedness? Thinkest thou that for thy sake the earth shall be forsaken, and the rock removed from her place?

5. Also the light of the wicked shall be put out, and the spark of his fire shall not shine.

6. The light shall be darkened in his tabernacle, and his candle shall be put out upon him.

7. The approaches of his substance shall be narrow, and his stroke shall cut him down.

8. For his feet are bound in snares, and he walketh in the net.

9. The rope shall hold his heels, and the foolish shall catch him.

10. His snare is laid in the earth, and his trap upon his walk.

11. Around and around shall he be terrified with sudden fear, that he shall not know whither to go out.

12. Hunger shall be his possession, and calamity shall be prepared for him, and shall cleave unto him.

13. The strength of his skin shall be consumed, and his strength shall the prince of death devour.

14. His hope shall be plucked out of his tabernacle, and they shall drive him to the king of terrors.

15. Nothing shall be left in his tabernacle: brimstone shall be sprinkled upon his tabernacle.

16. From beneath shall his roots wither, and from above shall his harvest be cut off.

17. His memory shall perish in the land, and shall have no name in the street.

18. he shall be cast out from the light into darkness, and shall be cast out from the face of the earth.

19. He shall have no children, neither shall he have any nephews among his people: there shall none remain unto him in his goods.

20. They that come after him shall be astonished at his day: and they that are before him shall fear.

21. This is the dwelling place of the unrighteous, and this is the place of him that esteemeth not God.

(Job)

Chapter 19

Job speaks of his misery and his comfort from the resurrection.

1. Job answered and said:

2. Why do ye trouble my soul, and torment me with words?

3. Ye have now heard me ten times, and are not ashamed that ye compass me about thus.

4. If I am wrong, I am wrong.

5. But ye truly exalt yourselves against me, and reproach me to my shame.

6. Behold, God hath wronged me once, and hath compassed me about with his snare.

7. Behold, though I cry for iniquity, yet am I not heard; I cry, and there is no justice.

8. He hath hedged up my way, that I should not pass over: he hath put darkness in my path.

9. He hath stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown from off my head.

10. He hath broken me over and over, and let me go, and plucked up my hope like a tree.

11. His wrath is kindled against me, and he esteemeth me his enemy.

12. His men of war came together, and paved their way over me, and encamped round about my tabernacle.

13. He hath put my brethren far from me, and my kinsmen are strangers unto me.

14. My neighbours have withdrawn themselves, and my friends have forgotten me.

15. My household and my handmaidens think me a stranger: I am become unknown in their sight.

16. I called unto my servant, and he answered me not: I besought him with my own mouth.

17. My wife is a stranger when I call unto her: I beseech the children of my womb.

18. Even the young children give no heed unto me: if I sit down against them, they give me evil words.

19. All my faithful have abhorred me: and they whom I have loved have turned against me.
20. My bones cleave to my skin and my flesh, and my teeth cannot be covered with my skin.
21. Have mercy upon me, have mercy upon me, ye my friends: for the hand of GOD hath touched me.
22. Why persecutest thou me as well as God, and canst not be satisfied with my flesh?
23. Oh that my words were written! Oh that they were written in a book!
24. would be hewn with an iron stylus upon lead, and into a rock for everlasting remembrance!
25. But I know that my Redeemer liveth; and he shall raise me up from the earth afterward; 26. And afterward I will be surrounded with this skin of mine, and I will see God in my flesh.
27. I will see him, and mine eyes shall behold him, and no stranger. My kidneys are consumed in my bosom.
28. For ye say, How shall we pursue him, and find a cause unto him?
29. Fear the sword: for the sword is the wrath of iniquity, that ye may know judgment.

(Job)

Chapter 20

Zophar's speech of the ungodly's fickle fortune.

1. Then Zophar of Naema answered and said:
2. To this I must answer, and cannot wait.
3. And I will gladly hear who shall reprove and rebuke me: for the spirit of my understanding shall answer for me.
4. Knowest thou not that it hath been so ever since men were upon the earth?
5. That the glory of the wicked endureth not long, and the joy of the hypocrite endureth for a moment?
6. Though his height reach unto heaven, and his head touch the clouds,
7. But at the last he shall perish as dung, and they before whom he is seen shall say, Where is he?
8. As a dream passeth away, so shall it not be found; and as a vision vanisheth away in the night.

9. Whose eye hath seen him shall see him no more, neither shall his place behold him any more.
10. His children shall go begging, and his hand shall give him toil for wages.
11. His legs shall well pay for his secret sin, and shall lie down with him in the earth.
12. Though wickedness be pleasant in his mouth, yet shall it be wanting in his tongue.
13. It shall be stopped, and it shall not be permitted unto him; and it shall be denied him in his throat.
14. His inward food in his body shall be turned into the gall of vipers.
15. The goods which he hath swallowed he shall spue out: and God shall cast them out of his belly.
16. He shall suck the gall of vipers, and the serpent's tongue shall kill him.
17. He shall not see the rivers, nor the brooks of water flowing with honey and butter.
18. He shall labour, and not profit; and his goods shall be changed, and he shall not enjoy them.
19. For he hath oppressed and forsaken the poor; he hath taken unto himself houses which he built not.
20. For his belly could not be filled, neither shall he escape by his precious substance.
21. His meat shall not remain: therefore his good life shall not endure.
22. Though he have abundance and plenty, yet shall he be afraid; all manner of trouble shall come upon him.
23. And his belly shall be full, and he shall send the fury of his wrath upon him; and he shall rain upon him his strife.
24. He shall flee from the armour of iron, and the bow of brass shall drive him out.
25. A mere sword shall go out by him, and the lightning of the sword, which shall be bitter unto him, shall pass over him with terror.
26. There is no darkness to cover him. A fire shall consume him that is not puffed up: and he that is left in his tabernacle shall be in a bad way.
27. Heaven shall open his iniquity, and the earth shall sit down against him.

28. The corn of his house shall be carried away, scattered in the day of his wrath.

29. This is the reward of an ungodly man with God, and the inheritance of his speech with God.

(Job)

Chapter 21

Job refutes Zophar's talk of the happiness and punishment of the wicked.

1. Job answered and said:

2. Hearken ye unto my speech, and be advised.

3. Trust me to speak also, and afterward mock me.

4. Do I then deal with a man, that my courage should not be unwilling in this?

5. Turn ye hither unto me: ye shall see sore, and shall put your hand to your mouth.

6. When I remember it, I am afraid, and trembling cometh upon my flesh.

7. Why then do the wicked live, and grow old, and increase in goods?

8. Their seed is safe round about them, and their offspring are with them.

9. Their house is at peace from fear, and God's rod is not upon them.

10. They feed his oxen, and do not wrong him: his heifer calves, and is not barren.

11. Her young children go forth as a flock, and her children lick.

12. They shout with timbrels and harps, and are glad with pipes.

13. They wax old in good days, and are scarce a moment afraid of hell;

14. Who say unto God, Be thou removed from us; we will depart from thy ways.

15. Who is the Almighty, that we should serve him? or what are we improved, if we call upon him?

16. But, behold, their goods are not in their hands: therefore let the mind of the wicked be far from me.

17. How shall the light of the wicked be put out, and their calamity come upon them! He shall deal out heartache in his wrath.

18. They shall be as stubble before the wind, and as chaff which the whirlwind leadeth away.

19. God hath reserved this calamity for his children. When he shall repay him, it shall be remembered.

20. His eyes shall see his destruction, and he shall drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

21. For who shall have pleasure in his house after him? And the number of his moons shall hardly remain half.

22. Who will teach GOD, who also judges the high ones?

23. this one dies fresh and healthy in all riches and full sufficiency; 24. His milking vessel is full of milk, and his bones are fattened with marrow; 25. But he dieth with a sorrowful soul, and never did eat with joy; 26. and lie alike in the earth, and worms cover them.

27. Behold, I know your thoughts well, and your wicked devices against me.

28. For ye say, Where is the house of the prince? and where is the tabernacle where the wicked dwell?

29. But ye speak of it as the common rabble, and know not what that being is.

30. For the wicked shall be kept unto the day of destruction, and shall abide in the day of wrath.

31. Who shall say what he deserveth, when he looketh upon it outwardly? Who shall recompense him for what he doeth?

32. But he is carried away to the grave, and abideth with the multitude.

33. The mud of the brook pleased him well, and all men are drawn after him: and of them that were before him there is no number.

34. How in vain do ye comfort me, and your answer is found unjust.

(Job)

Chapter 22

Eliphaz, however, once again casts doubt on Job's piety.

1. Then Eliphaz of Theman answered and said:
2. what may GOD of a strong man, and what profit is he to a wise man?
3. Thinkest thou that it pleaseeth the Almighty that thou shouldest be so godly? Or what doth it profit him, though thou regard thy ways without change?
4. Thinkest thou that he will be afraid to punish thee, and will stand in judgment with thee?
5. Yea, thy wickedness is too great, and there is no end to thine iniquity.

6. Thou hast taken a pledge from thy brother without a cause; thou hast stripped the naked of their garments;

7. thou hast not watered the weary with water, and hast denied thy bread to the hungry; 8. Thou hast wrought violence in the land, and hast sat magnificently in it; 9. the widows thou hast let go empty, and the arms of the fatherless thou hast broken.

10. Wherefore thou art compassed about with cords, and fear hath suddenly terrified thee.

11. Shouldest thou not see the darkness, and the flood of waters not cover thee?

12. Behold, God is high in the heavens, and behold the stars on high.

13.. And thou sayest, What doth God know? Shall He be able to judge that which is in darkness?

14. The clouds are his covering, and he seeth not, and walketh in the company of the heavens.

15. Wilt thou respect the course of the world, wherein the unrighteous have walked?

16. Which were passed away before the time, and the waters washed away the bottom thereof, 17. Who said to GOD: Remove thyself from us, what shall the Almighty be able to do unto them?

18. If he fill her house with goods? But let the counsel of the wicked be far from me!

19. The righteous shall see, and rejoice; and the innocent shall mock at them.

20. What matter, their essence shall vanish, and their rest shall consume the fire!

21. Now therefore make thy peace with him, and be at peace: from it much good shall come unto thee.

22. Hear the law from his mouth, and lay hold on his words in thine heart.

23. If thou turn unto the Almighty, thou shalt be built, and shalt do iniquity far from thy tabernacle,

24. Then shalt thou give gold for the earth, and streams of gold for the rocks; 25. And the Almighty shall be thy gold, and silver shall be heaped unto thee.

26. Then you will delight in the Almighty and lift up your face to GOD.

27. So shalt thou entreat him, and he shall hear thee: and thou shalt pay thy vows.

28. What thou shalt undertake, he shall make thee prosper: and the light shall shine in thy path.

29. For he that humbleth himself exalteth them: and he that putteth down his eyes shall recover.

30. And the innocent shall be saved: but he shall be saved because of the cleanness of his hands.

(Job)

Chapter 23

Job appeals to God's judgment seat for the sake of his good conscience.

1. Job answered and said:

2. My speech is yet grieved; my power is weak above my groaning.

3. Oh that I knew how to find him, and how to come to his throne!

4. and the law before him should submit, and take a mouthful of punishment 5. and learn the speech which he would answer me, and hear what he would say to me!

6. Will he deal with me with great power? Let him not stand thus against me, 7. But lay it before me straightway, and I shall win my right.

8. But if I go straight before me, he is not there: if I go back, I feel him not.

9. If he be on the left hand, I will not take him: if he be hid on the right hand, I will not see him.

10. But he knoweth my way. Try me, and I shall be found as gold.

11. For I set my foot in his way, and keep his path, and turn not aside.

12. And tread not from the commandment of his lips; and keep the speech of his mouth more than I owe.

13. He is agreed, who will answer him? And he does it as he wills.

14. And though he recompense me that which I have earned, yet is his more behind.

15. Therefore I am afraid of him; and when I perceive, I am afraid of him.

16. God hath made my heart foolish, and the Almighty hath affrighted me.

17. For the darkness maketh no end of me, and the darkness will not be hid from me.

(Job)

Chapter 24

Of God's hidden yet righteous government, concerning the misery of the pious and the happiness of the wicked.

1. Why should not the times be hid from the Almighty? And they that know him see not his days.
2. They drive back the borders; they rob the flocks, and feed them.
3. They take away the asses of the fatherless, and take the oxen of the widows for a prey.
4. the poor must give way to them, and the needy in the land must cower.
5. Behold, the wild beasts of the wilderness go forth early to the prey, as they tend, to prepare food for the young.
6. They reap in the field all that it yieldeth, and gather the vineyard which they have wrongfully.
7. They leave them that are naked, and leave them no covering in the frost, from whom they have taken away their garments,
8. That they must cleave unto the rocks, when a downpour is poured upon them from the mountains; for otherwise they have no comfort.
9. They pluck the child from the breasts, and make him an orphan, and make the people poor with pledges.
10. They let the naked go without clothes, and they take the sheaves from the hungry.
11. They force them to make oil in their own mill, and to tread their own winepress, and yet make them suffer thirst.
12. They make the people of the city groan, and the souls of the slain cry out; and GOD overthrow them not.
13. Therefore have they turned aside from the light, and know not his way, and return not again unto his highway.
14. When the day dawneth, the murderer riseth up, and slayeth the poor and needy: and by night he is as a thief.
15. The eye of the adulterer looketh on the darkness, and saith, Eye seeth me not; and covereth his face.
16. In darkness he breaketh in upon the houses. By day they hide themselves together, and shun the light.
17. For when the morning cometh, it is unto them as darkness: for he knoweth the terror of darkness.

18. He saileth lightly, as upon the waters: his substance is few in the land, and he treadeth not his vineyard.

19. Hell taketh away them that sin, as the heat and the drought consume the snow water.

20. The merciful shall be forgotten; his desire shall become wormwood; he shall be remembered no more; he shall be broken as a rotten tree.

21. He hath offended the lone that beareth not, and hath not done good to the widow.

22. And the mighty are drawn under him with his power. If he stand, he shall not be sure of his life.

23. He maketh him sure himself, that he may rely thereon: but his eyes are upon their doings.

24. They are exalted for a little season, and shall be destroyed, and subdued, and utterly cut off; and as the first blossom of the ears of corn they shall be cut off.

25. Is it not so? Well then, who will give me the lie, and prove that my speech is nothing?

(Job)

Chapter 25

Before God, all men are sinners.

1. Then answered Bildad of Suah, and said:

2. Is not dominion and fear with him that maketh peace among his high ones?

3. Who shall number his men of war? And over whom will not his light go?

4. And how shall a man be righteous in the sight of God? And how shall a woman's child be pure?

5. Behold, the moon shineth not yet, neither are the stars yet pure in his sight; 6. how much less a man, the maggot, and a man-child, the worm?

(Job)

Chapter 26

Job praises God's majesty much more gloriously than Bildad.

1. Job answered and said:

Secondly, whom wilt thou help? To him that hath no strength? Helpest thou him that hath no strength in arms?

3. To whom givest thou counsel? To him that hath no wisdom? and showest thou a mighty man how he shall do it?
4. For whom speakest thou, and for whom goest forth thy breath?
5. The giants were afraid among the waters, and they that dwelt by them.
6. Hell is laid open before him, and destruction hath no covering.
7. He spreadeth out the midnight nowhere, and hangeth the earth upon nothing.
8. He gathereth the waters into his clouds, and the clouds are not rent under them.
9. he holds his chair and spreads his clouds before it.
10. He hath set a mark round about the waters, until the light pass away with the darkness.
11. The pillars of heaven tremble and are terrified at his rebuke.
12. Before his strength the sea is suddenly impetuous, and before his understanding the height of the sea is lifted up.
13. The heavens are made fair by his wind, and his hand prepareth the straight serpent.
14. Behold, this is the way of his doings: but of it we have heard a small word. But who shall understand the thunder of his power?

(Job)

Chapter 27

Job, to save his innocence, holds the pious and hypocrite against each other.

1. And Job continued, and began his sayings, and said:
2. As God liveth, who hath not let my right go, and the Almighty, who hath afflicted my soul,
3. As long as my breath is in me, and the snorting of GOD is in my nostrils:
4. My lips shall speak no unrighteousness, and my tongue shall speak no deceit.
5. Far be it from me to justify you: until my end come, I will not depart from my godliness.
6. Of my righteousness which I have I will not depart: my conscience doth not bite me for all my life.
7. But mine enemy shall be found ungodly, and he that rebels against me unrighteous.
8. For what is the hope of the hypocrite, that he should be so stingy, and yet God should take away his soul?

9. do you think that GOD will hear his cry when fear comes upon him?
10. How can he delight in the Almighty, and call upon God?
11. I will teach you of the hand of GOD: and that which is with the Almighty I will not hide.
12. Behold, ye all think yourselves wise. Why then do ye pretend to such useless things?
13. This is the reward of a godless man with GOD, and the inheritance of tyrants, which they will take from the Almighty:
14. If he have many children, they shall be of the sword: and his seed shall not be full of bread.
15. His remnant shall be buried in death, and his widows shall not weep.
16. When he gathereth together money like earth, and gathereth together garments like glue, 17. He shall well prepare it: but the righteous shall put it on, and the innocent shall give out the money.
18. He buildeth his house like a spider, and maketh a shower like a keeper.
19. The rich man, when he lieth down, shall not carry it away: he shall open his eyes, and there shall be nothing.
20. Terrors shall overtake him as the waters: in the night the tempest shall take him away.
21. The east wind shall carry him away, and he shall go adrift: and the violence shall drive him out of his place.
22. He shall bring these things upon him, and shall not spare him: all things shall pass out of his hand.
23. They shall clap their hands over him, and hiss over him, because he hath been.

(Job)

Chapter 28

Praise of wisdom to GOD and man.

1. Silver hath its courses, and gold hath its place, where it is melted.
2. Iron is brought out of the earth, and ore is smelted out of stones.
3. There shall ever be an end of darkness, and someone shall at last find the slate hid deep.
4. And such a brook cometh up, that they that dwell therein lose their way thither: and it falleth again, and passeth away from among the people.

5. Fire also is brought up out of the ground beneath, when there is food growing up above.
6. Sapphires are found in many places, and nuggets of earth where there is gold.
7. no bird hath seen the path, no vulture's eye hath seen it.
8. The proud children have not trodden upon it, neither have any lions trodden upon it.
9. And they lay hands on the rocks, and dig up the mountains.
10. Streams are plucked out of the rocks; and all that is good is seen of the eye.
11. Forbid the river of water, and bring to light that which is hid therein.
12. But where shall wisdom be found, and where is the place of understanding?
13. No man knoweth where it is, neither is it found in the land of the living.
14. The bottomless pit saith, She is not in me: and the sea saith, She is not with me.
15. Gold cannot be given for them, neither can silver be weighed to pay for them.
16. It is not like unto her ophiric gold, or precious onyx and sapphire.
17. Gold and jewels shall not be like her, neither shall gold change for her.
18. Ramoth and Gabi are not esteemed. Wisdom is to be weighed higher than pearls.
19. Topazius from Mohrenland is not equally esteemed to her, and the purest gold is not equally esteemed to her.
- 20: Whence then is wisdom, and where is the place of understanding?
21. It is hid from the eyes of all the living, even from the birds of the air.
- Twenty-two: Damnation and death speak: We have heard with our ears their rumor.
23. God knoweth the way thereof, and knoweth the place thereof.
24. For he seeth the ends of the earth, and beholdeth all things under heaven.
25. And he made the wind his weight, and set the waters their measure, 26. For he made the rain a goal, and the lightning and the thunder a way, 27. Then saw he them, and told them, and prepared them, and invented them; 28. And said unto the man, Behold, the fear of the LORD, that is wisdom; and to shun evil, that is understanding.

(Job)

Chapter 29

Job recounts his previous bliss.

1. And Job lifted up his proverbs again, and said:
2. That I might be as in the former moons, in the days when God kept me,
3. When his lamp shined upon my head, and I walked by his light in darkness;
4. As I was in the days of my youth, when God's secret was over my tabernacle;
5. While the Almighty was yet with me, and my children about me;
6. When I washed my steps in butter, and the rocks poured me rivers of oil;
7. And I went out unto the gate of the city, and made ready my seat in the street;
8. When the young men saw me, and hid themselves, and the old men were ashamed before me;
9. When the princes ceased to speak, and laid their hand upon their mouth;
10. When the voice of the princes was hid, and their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.
11. For every ear that heard me blessed me, and every eye that saw me glorified me.
12. For I delivered the poor that cried, and the fatherless that had no helper.
13. The blessing of him that should destroy came upon me; and I rejoiced the heart of the widow.
14. Righteousness was my garment, which I put on like a skirt; and my right was my princely hat.
15. I was the eye of the blind, and the feet of the lame.
16. I was a father of the poor: and what things I knew not, them I searched out.
17. I brake the molars of the wicked, and plucked the spoil out of his teeth.
- 18, I thought: I will die in my nest, and make my days much as the sand.
19. My seed came up by the waters; and the dew remained upon my harvest.
20. My glory was always renewed in me; and my bow was improved in my hand.
21. They hearkened unto me, and held their peace, and waited for my counsel.

22. After my words no man spake any more; and my speech dripped upon them.

23. They waited for me as for the rain, and opened their mouths as after the evening rain.

24. When I laughed at them, they became not bold upon it, and the light of my countenance made me no less.

25. When I came to their business, I sat on high, and dwelt as a king among the soldiers, comforting them that were in pain.

(Job)

Chapter 30

Job complains about his misery and his temptation.

1. But now laugh at mine that are younger than I, whose fathers I would have despised, to put among my sheep,

2. which fortunes I thought were nothing, which could not come to old age, 3. Who from hunger and grief fled lonely into the wilderness, and were lately corrupted and made miserable,

4. Who plucked up nettles round about the bushes, and juniper root was their meat; 5. And when they plucked them out, they rejoiced over them as a thief.

6. By the cruel brooks they dwelt, in the holes of the earth, and in the clefts of the stones.

7. Among the bushes they called, and among the thistles they gathered,

8. The children of loose and despised people, who were the least in the land.

9. Now am I become their strings, and must be their tale.

10. They have abhorred me, and have put themselves far from me, and have not spared to spit before my face.

11. They have unloosed my rope, and made me of none strength, and have cut off mine own.

12. On the right hand, when I was green, they set me again, and thrust out my foot; and made a way over me to destroy me.

13. They have broken my staves: it was so easy for them to hurt me, that they needed no help to do it.

14. They are come in, as to the wide breach, and are fallen down without order.

15. Terror hath turned itself against me, and hath pursued as the wind my glory, and as a running cloud my blessed estate.

16. But now my soul poureth out upon me, and the wretched time hath taken hold upon me.

17. In the night my bones are pierced in every place, and they that hunt me lie not down.

18. By the multitude of strength I am clothed differently and differently; and I am girded therewith as with the hole of my skirt.

19. I have been trodden in dung, and counted as dust and ashes.

20. If I cry unto thee, thou answerest me not: if I come forth, thou regardest me not.

21. Thou art turned unto me into a cruel man, and showest thy grief upon me with the strength of thine hand.

22. Thou liftest me up, and makest me to run on the wind, and makest me to melt.

23. For I know that thou wilt deliver me to death: there is the appointed house of all the living.

24. But he shall not stretch forth his hand into the charnel house, neither shall they cry out because of his destruction.

25. For I wept in the hard time, and my soul mourned for the poor.

26. I waited for good, and evil cometh: I hoped for light, and darkness cometh.

27. My bowels boil, and cease not: the wretched time hath overtaken me.

28. I walk in black, and yet no sun burneth me: I stand up in the congregation, and cry.

29. I am a brother of serpents and a companion of ostriches.

30. My skin is blackened above me, and my bones are withered from the heat.

31. My harp is become a lamentation, and my pipe a weeping.

(Job)

Chapter 31

Job's blameless change.

1. I have made a covenant with mine eyes, that I should not regard a virgin.

2. But what reward doth God give me from above? and what inheritance doth the Almighty give me from on high?

3. Ought not the unjust to have such misfortune, and a transgressor to be so cast down?

4. Seeth he not my ways, and numbereth all my courses?
5. Have I walked in vanity? or hath my foot hastened to deceit?
6. Weigh me in the right balance, and God shall know my piety.
7. My walk is gone out of the way, and my heart followeth mine eyes; and there is something in my hands,
8. Then shall I sow, and another shall eat it, and my seed shall be rooted up.
9. My heart hath been provoked to wife, and I have lain in wait at my neighbour's door, 10. Let my wife be defiled by another, and let others put her to sleep.
11. For this is a vice and an iniquity unto the judges.
12. For that would be a fire that would consume to destruction, and root out all my income.
13. I have despised the right of my servant, or of my handmaid, when they had a matter against me,
14. What would I do when GOD arose, and what would I answer when He visited?
15. Did not he also make him that made me in the womb, and prepare him in the body likewise?
16. Have I denied the desire of the needy, and made the eyes of widows to languish?
17. Have I eaten mine own morsel, and not the fatherless also eaten thereof?
18. For I, from my youth, have kept myself as a father: and from my mother's womb I have been glad to comfort.
19. Have I seen a man perish because he had no raiment, and the poor man go without a covering?
20. Have not his sides blessed me, when he was warmed with the skins of my lambs?
21. I have laid my hand upon the fatherless, because I saw myself in the gate having power to help,
22. Then let my shoulder fall from the armpit, and my arm break from the tube.
23. For I fear GOD as an accident upon me, and could not bear his burden.
24. Have I put the gold for my confidence, and said unto the nugget of gold, My consolation?

25. Was I glad that I had great goods, and that my hand had gotten all things?
26. Have I looked upon the light when it shineth brightly, and upon the moon when it goeth full?
27. Hath my heart been secretly persuaded, that my hand may kiss my mouth?
28. Which also is an iniquity for the judges: for thereby would I have denied GOD from above.
29. Have I rejoiced when mine enemy was in evil, and exalted myself that evil had befallen him?
30. For I would not let my mouth sin, that he should desire a curse upon his soul.
31. Have not the men of my tabernacle said, O would God that we were not satisfied with his flesh!
32. the guest did not have to stay outside, but I opened my door to the wayfarer.
33. Have I covered my wickedness like a man, to hide my iniquity in secret?
34. Did I let myself be afraid of the great multitude, and was I put off by the contempt of friendships? I remained silent and did not go out the door.
35. Who shall give me an interrogator, that my desire may be heard of the Almighty, that someone may write a book of my cause?
36. Then would I take it upon mine armpits, and bind it about me like a crown.
37. I would declare the number of my courses, and like a prince would I offer them.
38. My land shall cry out against me, and shall weep her furrows together; 39. I have eaten its fruit without payment, and have made the life of the husbandmen sour, 40. So I grow thistles for wheat and thorns for barley. The words of Job have an end.

(Job)

Chapter 32

Elihu is angry at the silence of Job's friends.

1. Then the three men ceased answering Job, because he thought himself righteous.

2. And Elihu the son of Baracheel, of Bus, of the family of Ram, was wroth with Job, because he thought his soul more righteous than God.

3. And he was wroth with his three friends, because they found no answer, and yet condemned Job.

4. For Elihu had tarried until they had spoken unto Job, because they were older than he.

5. Therefore when he saw that there was no answer in the mouth of the three men, he was wroth.

6. And Elihu the son of Baracheel, of Bus, answered and said: I am young, but ye are old: therefore have I been afraid and dreaded to shew mine art upon you.

7. I said, Let the years speak, and let the multitude of age shew wisdom.

8. But the spirit is in the people, and the breath of the Almighty makes them understand.

9: The great are not the wisest, and the old do not understand the law.

10. Therefore will I also speak; hearken unto me. I will also let my art be seen.

11. Behold, I have kept watch over your words; I have kept watch over your understanding, until ye have done right speaking,

12. And I have taken heed unto you: but, behold, there is none among you to reprove Job, or to answer his speech.

13. Ye may say, We have met with wisdom, that God hath cast him out, and none else.

14. This speech doth not do for me: I will not answer him thus after your speech.

15. Alas! they are despondent, they can no more answer, they can no more speak.

16. Because I have tarried, and they could not speak (for they stand still, and answer no more), 17. yet I will answer my part, and will prove my art;

18. For I am so full of words, that the breath of my belly is troubled.

19. Behold, my belly is like the must that is stopped up, which breaketh the new casks.

20. I must speak, that I may draw breath; I must open my lips, and answer.

21. I will not look upon any man's person, neither will I glory in any man.

22. For I know not where I would, if my Maker would take me over a little one.

(Job)

Chapter 33

Elihu defends God's justice.

11. Hear now, O Job, my speech, and mark all my words.

2. Behold, I open my mouth, and my tongue speaketh in my mouth.

3. My heart shall speak right, and my lips shall speak the pure mind.

4. the Spirit of God has made me, and the breath of the Almighty has given me life.

5. If thou canst, answer me: send thee against me, and stand!

6. Behold, I am God's as well as thine, and of glue also am I made.

7. But thou shalt not be afraid of me, neither shall my hand be heavy unto thee.

8. Thou hast spoken in mine ears; I have heard the voice of thy speech:

9. I am pure, without iniquity, innocent, having no sin.

10. Behold, he hath found a thing against me; therefore he reckoneth me to be his enemy.

11. He hath put my foot in a stick, and hath kept all my ways.

12. Behold, from this very thing I conclude against thee, that thou art not right: for God is more than man.

13. Why wilt thou quarrel with him, that he will not give thee an account of all his doings?

14. For when God decideth a thing, he considereth it not afterward.

15. in the dream of the face at night, when sleep falls upon the people, when they sleep upon the bed,

16. Then he openeth the ear of the people, and startleth them, and chasteneth them, 17. That he may turn a man from his purpose, and guard him from pride.

18. And spare his soul from destruction, and his life from falling by the sword.

19. He punisheth him with pains upon his bed, and all his bones severely; 20. And he hath made his life to be disgusted with food, and his soul to have no desire to eat.

21. His flesh is wasted, that he may not see; and his legs are bruised, that they may not be looked upon with pleasure,
22. That his soul should come near to destruction, and his life to the dead.
23. And if an angel speak unto him, one of a thousand, to shew unto a man what he ought to do, 24. Then shall he have mercy upon him, saying, He shall be delivered, that he go not down to destruction: for I have found a propitiation.
25. His flesh green again as in youth, and let him be young again.
26. He shall beseech God, and He shall show him mercy, and shall make his face to be seen with joy, and shall recompense man according to his righteousness.
27. He shall confess before men, saying, I would have sinned, and perverted the law, but it availeth me nothing.
28. He hath redeemed my soul, that it should not go to destruction, but that my life should see the light.
29. Behold, God does all these things two or three times to each one,
30. That he may bring his soul round from destruction, and enlighten him with the light of the living.
31. Take heed, O Job, and hearken unto me, and be silent that I speak.
32. But if thou hast any thing to say, answer me; tell me if thou be right, and I will hear it gladly.
33. But if thou hast nothing, hear me, and hold thy peace, and I will teach thee wisdom.

(Job)

Chapter 34

Elihu chides Job's speeches and goes on to defend God's righteousness.

1. And Elihu answered and said:
2. Hear, ye wise men, my words; and, ye men of understanding, hearken unto me.
3. For the ear trieth speech, and the mouth tasteth meat.
4. Let us choose us a judgment, that we may know among ourselves what is good.
5. For Job hath said, I am righteous, and GOD denieth me my right.
6. I lie, if I be right; and I am pained with mine arrows, if I have done nothing wrong.
7. Who is such a one as Job, that drinketh mockery like water?

8. And walk in the way with evildoers, and walk with ungodly men?
9. For he hath said, Though a man be pious, yet is he not counted worthy with God.
10. Therefore hear me, ye wise men; Far be it from God to be wicked, and the Almighty to be unjust,
11. But he rewardeth a man according to his due, and afflicteth every man according to his deeds.
12. Without doubt, God condemns no one with injustice, and the Almighty does not bend justice.
13. Who hath ordained that which is in the earth, and who hath set the whole face of the earth?
14. And if he be subdued, he shall gather unto himself all spirit and breath.
15. all flesh would perish together, and man would return to ashes.
16. If then thou hast understanding, hear this, and hearken unto the voice of my saying.
17. Shall any man therefore force justice, that he may hate it? And because thou art proud, shouldest thou therefore condemn the righteous?
18. Shall any man say unto the king, Thou rascal, and unto the princes? Ye wicked!
19. Who regardeth not the persons of princes, neither knoweth he that is glorious more than he that is poor: for they are all the work of his hands.
20. Suddenly the people must die, and be afraid at midnight, and perish; the mighty are taken away powerless.
21. For his eyes behold every man's way, and he seeth all their courses.
22. There is no darkness nor obscurity, that evildoers should hide themselves there.
23. For it shall not be lawful for any man to reprove God.
24. He killeth many of the proud that cannot be numbered, and setteth others in their stead, 25. Because he knoweth their works, and turneth them back by night, that they may be destroyed.
26. He casteth the wicked over a heap, because they love to see it, 27. Because they departed from him, and missed none of his ways, 28. That the cry of the poor should come before him, and he should hear the cry of the afflicted.

29. If he give peace, who shall condemn? and if he hide his face, who shall behold him among the people and nations?
30. And let a hypocrite reign over them, to press the people.
31. I must speak for God, and I cannot refrain.
32. If I have not done right, teach me better: if I have done wrong, I will do it no more.
33. They wait for an answer from thee, because thou hast rejected all things: and thou hast begun them, and not I. If thou knowest any thing, tell me.
34. Wise men will I let tell me, and a wise man will hearken unto me.
35. But Job spake with foolishness, and his words are not wise.
36. My father, let Job be tried unto the end, that he may turn to wicked men.
37. He has blasphemed his sin in addition; therefore let him be smitten between us, and after that let him talk much against Allah.

(Job)

Chapter 35

Elihu's distant talk of God's justice.

1. And Elihu answered and said:
2. Seest thou that it is right for thee to say, I am righteous above God?
3. For thou sayest, Who is worth anything with thee? What profit is it, if I make myself without sin?
4. I will answer thee a word, and thy friends with thee.
5. Look toward heaven, and behold, and behold the clouds, that they are too high for thee.
6. If thou sin, what canst thou do unto him? And if thine iniquity be much, what canst thou do to him?
7. And if thou be righteous, what canst thou give him, or what will he take from thy hands?
8. A man as thou art may thy wickedness do, and a man's child thy righteousness.
9. Let them cry out when much violence is done unto them, and cry over the arm of the great, 10. who do not ask, where is God, my Creator, who makes the singing in the night, 11. Who maketh us more learned than the cattle of the earth, and wiser than the fowls of the air?

12. But they also shall cry out against the pride of the wicked, and he shall not hear them.
13. For God will not hear the vain, and the Almighty will not look upon it.
14. For this thou sayest, Thou shalt not see him. But there is a judgment before him: wait thou only for him,
15. If his wrath be not soon visited, and if it be not accepted that there be so many vices.
16. Wherefore Job hath opened his mouth in vain, and pretendeth to be a proud man with a foolish mind.

(Job)

Chapter 36

More distant proof of the justice, omnipotence and wisdom of God.

1. Elihu continued to speak, saying:
2. Wait yet a little, and I will shew thee: for I have yet a thing to say for God's sake.
3. I will take my understanding far, and prove my maker to be right.
4. My words shall not be false without a doubt; my understanding shall be without change before thee.
5. Behold, GOD rejecteth not the mighty: for he also is mighty in strength of heart.
6. He preserveth not the wicked, but helpeth the needy to do right.
7. He turneth not his eyes from the righteous: and he sitteth kings upon the throne for ever, that they may be exalted.
8. And where prisoners lie in staves, and bound with cords miserably, 9. Then shall he declare unto them what they have done, and their iniquity, that they have used violence.
10. And open unto them the ear of correction, and tell them to turn from that which is unjust.
11. If they obey and serve him, they shall grow old in good days, and live with pleasure.
- 12: If they obey not, they shall fall on the sword, and perish before they know it.
13. The hypocrites, when wrath is upon them, cry not out when they lie captive; 14. Then shall her soul die with anguish, and her life among the harlots.

15. But he shall deliver the wretched out of his affliction, and shall open the ear of the poor in tribulation.

16. He shall pluck thee out of the wide mouth of fear, which hath no bottom: and thy table shall have rest, full of all good.

17. But thou makest good the cause of the wicked, that their cause and right may be established.

18. See thou be not moved with anger to afflict any man, or that great gifts have not bowed thee down.

19. Thinkest thou that he will esteem thy power, or gold, or any strength, or fortune?

20. Thou shalt not covet the night to come upon the people in their place.

21. Beware, and turn not thou to iniquity, as thou didst begin in misery.

22. Behold, God is too high in His power; where is a teacher like Him?

23. Who shall punish his way against him, and who shall say unto him, Thou doest wrong?

Chap.

24. Remember that thou knowest not his work, as men sing.

25. For all men see it, men behold it afar off.

26. Behold, God is great and unknown; the number of His years no man can inquire.

27. He maketh the waters small drops, and gathereth his clouds together for rain, 28. That the clouds flow and drip greatly upon men.

29. When he purposeth to spread out the clouds, as his high tent, 30.

Behold, he spreadeth out his lightning upon them, and covereth all the ends of the sea.

31. For thereby he terrifieth the people, and yet giveth meat abundantly.

32. He covereth the lightning as with his hands, and yet calleth it to come again.

33. To which his companion, that is, the thunder's fury in the clouds, bears witness.

(Job)

Chapter 37

God's majesty is known from the book of nature.

1. my heart is amazed and trembles.

2. Hear ye, O beloved, how his thunder rageth, and what talk proceedeth out of his mouth.
3. He seeth under the heavens, and his lightning shineth upon the ends of the earth.
4. After this the thunder roareth, and thundereth with his great sound; and when his thunder is heard, it cannot be stopped.
5. God thundereth dreadfully with his thunder, and doeth great things, and is not known.
6. He saith unto the snow, and it is soon upon the earth; and unto the downpour, and the downpour is with power.
7. All men hath he in his hand as shut up, that men may learn what he can do.
8. The wild beast entereth into the cave, and abideth in his place.
9. from noon comes weather and from midnight cold.
10. From the breath of God cometh frost, and great waters, when He causeth to thaw.
11. The thick clouds part, that it may be light; and through the mist his light breaketh.
12. He turneth the clouds whithersoever he will, that they may do according to all that he hath given them upon the face of the earth,
13. Whether it be over a generation, or over a nation, if he be found merciful.
14. Take heed therefore, Job; stand, and hear the wonders of God.
15. Knowest thou when God bringeth these things upon them, and when he sendeth forth the light of his clouds?
16. Knowest thou how the clouds scatter? What wonders the perfect know.
17. That thy garments may be warm, when the land is still from the noonday wind?
18. Yea, thou wilt spread out with him the clouds that stand firm as a molten mirror.
19. Show us what we ought to say unto him: for we shall not reach thither for darkness.
20. Who shall tell him that I speak? If any man speak, he shall be swallowed up.
21. Now they see not the light that shineth in the clouds: but when the wind bloweth, it is clear.

22. From midnight comes gold to praise before the terrible GOtt.

23. But they may not understand the Almighty, who is so great in power; for he will not give account of his right and good cause.

24. Therefore men must fear him; and he feareth none, how wise they are.

(Job)

Chapter 38

God himself praises his omnipotence and wisdom.

1. And the LORD answered Job out of a weather, and said:

2. Who is he that lacketh wisdom, and speaketh ignorantly?

3. Gird up thy loins like a man: I will ask thee, teach me. Where wast thou when I founded the earth? Tell me, art thou so wise?

5. Knowest thou who hath set the measure for her, or who hath drawn a rule over her?

6. Or whereon stand her feet sunk? Or who hath laid her a corner-stone?

7. When the morning stars praised me together, and all the children of God rejoiced?

8. Who hath shut up the sea with his doors, when it came out as of a mother's womb, 9. When I clothed it with clouds, and wrapped it in darkness, as in swaddling clothes, 10. And when I had broken his course with my dam, and set a bar and a door upon him 11. And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, and no further; hither shall thy proud waves be laid up?

12. Thou hast commanded the morning in thy time, and hast shewed the dawn her place, 13. To take the corners of the earth, and to shake out the wicked?

14. The seal shall change like glue, and they shall stand as a garment.

15. And the light of the wicked shall be taken away: and the arm of the proud shall be broken.

16. Art thou come into the bottom of the sea, and hast walked in the footsteps of the deep?

17. Have the gates of death ever been opened unto thee? Or hast thou seen the gates of darkness?

18. Hast thou heard how broad the earth is? Art thou acquainted with all these things?

19. Which is the way where light dwelleth, and which is the place of darkness?
20. That thou mayest take down his border, and know the way to his house?
21. Didst thou know that thou shouldest be born in that day, and how many days thou shouldest have?
22. Hast thou been where the snow cometh from, or hast thou seen where the hail cometh from?
23. Which I have kept until the time of trouble, and until the day of strife and war?
24. By what way is the light divided, and the east wind ariseth upon the earth?
25. Who hath given his course to the downpour, and the way to the thunder and lightning, 26. That it may rain upon the land where there is none, in the wilderness where there is no man, 27. To fill the waste places and the wilderness, and to make the grass grow?
28. Who is the father of the rain? Who has begotten the drops of dew?
29. Whose body did the ice come out of? And who hath begotten the frost under heaven?
30. That the waters may be hid as under stones, and the deep confess above?
31. Canst thou bind together the bands of the seven stars, or dissolve the band of Orion?
32. Canst thou bring forth the morning star in his season, or lead the chariot in the heavens above his children?
33. Thou knowest how to rule the heavens? Or can you master it on earth?
34. Can you bring "your" thunder high in the cloud? Or will the multitude of the water cover thee?
35. Canst thou send forth the lightnings, that they may go and speak? Here we are?
36. Who giveth wisdom in secret? Who gives understanding thoughts?
37. Who is so wise as to tell the clouds? Who can plug the water hoses in the sky, 38. When the dust is sprinkled, that it runs in heaps, and the dumplings stick together?

(Job)

Chapter 39

God's inscrutable wisdom shines forth in the animals. Job confesses his mistake, 39. Canst thou give the lioness her prey to hunt, and feed the young lions?

40. That they may lie down in their place, and rest in the cave where they lie in wait?

41. Who prepares food for the raven when its young call to God and fly astray when they have no food?

Ch. 39. v. 1. Knowest thou the time when the chamois give birth upon the rocks? Or hast thou perceived when the deer conceive?

2. Hast thou told their moons, when they shall be full? Or knowest thou the time when they shall give birth?

3. They bow down when they give birth, and tear themselves, and let forth their young.

4. Their young ones wax fat, and multiply in the corn; and go out, and come not again unto them.

5. Who hath let the game go so free? Who has dissolved the bonds of the game?

6. To whom have I given the field for a house, and the wilderness for a dwelling?

7. It mocketh at the tumult of the city; it heareth not the throbbing of the driver.

8. He looketh toward the mountains for his pasture, and seeketh out the green places.

9. Thinkest thou that the unicorn shall serve thee, and abide at thy crib?

10. Canst thou bind thy yoke upon him, to make the furrows, that he may break behind thee in causes?

11. Wilt thou trust in it, that it is strong, and wilt it work for thee?

12. Wilt thou trust him to bring thy seed again, and to gather it into thy barn?

13. The feathers of the peacock are more beautiful than the wings and feathers of the stork, 14. Who letteth his eggs upon the earth, and letteth them hatch upon the hot earth.

15. He forgetteth that they may be trodden down, and that a wild beast may break them.

16. He is as hard against his young men as if they were not his, heedeth not that he laboureth in vain.
17. For God hath taken away wisdom from him, and hath not given him understanding.
18. At the time that he goeth up, he riseth up, and laugheth at both horse and man.
19. Canst thou give strength unto the horse, or adorn his neck with his cry?
20. canst thou frighten it as the locusts? That is the price of his nose, which is terrible.
21. It stampeth upon the ground, and is joyful with strength, and shouteth out against the armoured men.
22. It mocketh fear, and is not afraid, neither flinteth from the sword,
23. Though the quiver sound, and both the spear and the lance shine.
24. It trembled, and raged, and beat the earth, and hearkened not to the sound of the trumpets.
25. When the trumpet is almost sounded, it saith: Hoi! and smells the strife from afar, the shouting of princes and whooping.
26. Doth the hawk flee through thy mind, and spread his wings toward the south?
27. Doth the eagle, at thy command, fly so high as to make his nest on high?
28. He dwelleth in rocks, and abideth on the cliffs in rocks, and in strong places.
29. From thence he looketh after the meat, and his eyes look afar off.
30. His young ones drink blood; and where there is carrion, there he is.
31. And the LORD answered Job, and said:
32. If any one will dispute with the Almighty, shall he not teach him? And he that reproacheth God, shall he not answer for it?
33. And Job answered the LORD, and said:
34. Behold, I have been too light-hearted; what shall I answer? I will put my hand upon my mouth.
35. I have spoken once, therefore I will answer no more; hereafter I will do it no more.

(Job)

Chapter 40

Mirror of divine omnipotence on the Behemoth.

1. And the LORD answered Job out of a weather, and said:
2. Gird up thy loins like a man; I will ask thee, teach me.
3. Shall thou destroy my judgment, and condemn me, that thou mayest be just?
4. hast thou an arm like God, and canst thunder with like voice as he doth?
5. Adorn thyself with splendor, and exalt thyself; array thyself in praise and glory.
6. Cast out the wrath of thine anger; look upon the proud where they are; and humble them.
7. Yea, look upon the haughty where they are, and bend them, and make the wicked thin where they are.
8. Bury them together in the earth, and sink their splendor into hiding,
9. Then will I also confess unto thee, that thy right hand may help thee.
10. Behold, the behemoth which I have made beside thee eateth hay like an ox.
11. Behold, his strength is in his loins, and his ability in the navel of his belly.
12. his cock stretches like a cedar, the veins of his pubic stare like a branch.
13. His bones are as solid brass, his bones are as bars of iron.
14. He is the beginning of the ways of God: he that made him attacketh him with his sword.
15. The mountains bear him herbs, and all the wild beasts play there.
16. he likes to lie in the shade, hidden in the cane and in the mud.
17. The bush covereth him with his shadow, and the brook willows cover him.
18. Behold, he swalloweth up the river in himself, and regardeth it not: he thinketh that he will pour out Jordan with his mouth.
19. They sow him yet with his own eyes, and by snares they pierce his nose.

(Job)

Chapter 41

Description of Leviathan's greatness, power and strength.

20. Canst thou draw the leviathan with the urine, and catch his tongue with a rope?

21. can you put a fishing rod up his nose and pierce his bakken with a spike?
 22. Thinkest thou that he will make thee much supplication, or pretend to thee?
 23. Thinkest thou that he will make a covenant with thee, that thou shalt have him for a servant for ever?
 24. Canst thou play with him as with a bird, or bind him to thy strumpets?
 25. Thinkest thou that the companies will cut him up, that he may be divided among the merchants?
 26. Canst thou fill the net with his skin, and the fish traps with his head?
 27. When thou layest thine hand upon him, remember that there is a battle which thou wilt not perform.
 28. Behold, his hope shall fail him; and when he seeth it, he shall be swallowed up.
- Ch. 41. v. 1. there is none so bold as may provoke him; who then is he that can stand before me?
2. Who hath done any thing unto me before, that I should requite him? Mine is that which is under the heavens.
 3. Now therefore I must say how great, how mighty, and how well made he is.
 4. who can uncover his dress? And who can dare to grab him between the teeth?
 5. Who can open the jaws of his face? Terrible stand his teeth about.
 6. his proud scales are like solid shields, firm and tight within each other.
 7. One toucheth another, that there be not a breeze between them.
 8. They cleave one to another, and cleave together, that they be not divided.
 9. His sneezing shineth as the light; his eyes are as the eyelids of the dawn.
 10. Out of his mouth go torches, and fiery sparks shoot out.
 11. Out of his nostrils goeth smoke, as of hot pots and kettles.
 12. His breath is as light, and out of his mouth go forth flames.
 13. He hath a strong neck; and his delight is in spoiling.
 14. The members of his flesh cleave one to another, and cleave hard unto him, that he should not fall to pieces.

15. His heart is as hard as a stone, and as firm as a piece of the lowest millstone.
16. When he ariseth, the mighty are dismayed: and when he breaketh away, there is no mercy.
17. If a man will come to him with a sword, he will not move: or with a spear, or with a bullet, or with a breastplate.
18. He esteemeth iron as straw, and brass as rotten wood.
19. No arrow shall drive him out: the sling stones are as stubble.
20. He esteemeth the hammer as stubble; he mocketh the quivering spear.
21. Sharp stones are under him, and he passeth over the sharp rocks as over dung.
22. He maketh the deep sea to boil like a pot, and stirreth it together, as one maketh an ointment.
23. after him the way shineth, he maketh the deep all gray.
24. There is none like him in the earth: he is made to be without fear.
25. He despiseth all that is high; he is a king over all the proud.

(Job)

Chapter 42

Job is made blissful again by God upon right repentance.

1. And Job answered the LORD, and said:
2. I know that thou art able to do all things, and no thought is hid from thee.
3. He is a rash man, which thinketh to hide his counsel. Therefore I confess that I have spoken unadvisedly, which is too high for me, and understand not.
4. Hear me then, let me speak; I will ask thee, teach me.
5. I have heard thee with mine ears; mine eye also now beholdeth thee.
6. I will repent and do penance in dust and ashes.
7. And when the LORD had spoken these words unto Job, he said unto Eliphaz of Theman, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken rightly of me, as my servant Job hath spoken.
8. Take therefore seven bullocks and seven rams, and go unto my servant Job, and offer burnt offerings for you, and let my servant Job pray for you. For I will look upon him, and not let you see how ye have done folly: for ye have not spoken rightly of me, as my servant Job hath spoken.

9. Then Eliphaz of Theman, and Bildad of Shuah, and Zophar of Naamah, went and did as the LORD had said unto them. And the LORD looked upon Job.

10. And the LORD turned the prison of Job, when he prayed for his friends. And the LORD gave unto Job two times as much as he had.

11. And all his brethren came unto him, and all his sisters, and all that knew him before, and did eat with him in his house, and bowed themselves to him, and comforted him for all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him. And every man gave him a goodly penny, and a golden headband.

12. And the LORD blessed Job more abundantly afterward than before: and he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand asses.

13. And he had seven sons and three daughters.

14. And the name of the first was Jemima, and the name of the second Kezia, and the name of the third Keren-hapuch.

15. And there were not found such fair damsels in all the earth as the daughters of Job. And their father gave them an inheritance among their brethren.

16. And Job lived after this an hundred and forty years, and saw children and children's children unto the fourth generation.

17. And Job died old and full of life.

Text of the unrevised Luther Bible 1545:

DeepL English Translation

[Processed by BackToLuther. German text published here.]

The Psalter (Psalms) ^

The 1st Psalm

Doctrine of the blessedness of the pious and the punishment of the wicked.

1. Blessed is he that walketh not in the counsel of the wicked, nor treadeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of scoffers,

2. But hath delight in the law of the LORD, and speaketh of his law day and night.

3. He is like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; and his leaf fadeth not away; and whatsoever he doeth prospereth.

4. But such are not the wicked, but are as the chaff which the wind scattereth.

5. Therefore the wicked abide not in judgment, neither sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6. For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked perisheth.

The 2nd Psalm (^)

Prophecy of Christ, the eternal king, his kingdom and its enemies 1.

Why do the heathen rage, and the people speak so vainly?

2. The kings of the land rebelled, and the lords took counsel together against the LORD and his anointed:

3. Let us break their bands, and cast away their cords from us.

4. But he that dwelleth in heaven laugheth at them, and the LORD mocketh at them.

5. He shall speak unto them in his wrath, and with his fury shall he make them afraid.

6. But I have set my king upon my holy mountain Zion.

7. I will preach of such a manner, that the LORD hath said unto me: Thou art my son: this day have I begotten thee.

8. Cry unto me, and I will give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the end of the world for thy possession.

9. Thou shalt smite them with an iron sceptre; as pots shalt thou break them.

10. Be ye therefore wise, O ye kings; and be ye chastened, ye judges of the earth.

11. Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

12. Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish in the way: for his wrath shall soon be kindled.

But good to all who trust in him!

The 3rd Psalm (^)

Prayer and comfort of David against his persecutors.

1. A psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

2. O Lord, how many are mine enemies, and how many are set against me!

3. Many say of my soul: It has no help from God. Sela.
4. But thou, O LORD, art a shield unto me; and thou hast set me in honour, and lifted up my head.
5. I call upon the LORD with my voice, and he heareth me from his holy mountain. Sela.
6. I lie, and sleep, and awake: for the LORD keepeth me.
7. I am not afraid of many hundreds of thousands, which are laid up against me round about.
8. Arise, O LORD, and help me, O my God: for thou hast smitten all mine enemies in the jaws, and hast broken the teeth of the wicked.
9. With the LORD shall be found help, and thy blessing upon thy people. Sela.

The 4th Psalm (^)

Comforting prayer against the vanity of the world's children.

1. a psalm of David, to be sung on strings.
2. Hear me when I cry, O God of my righteousness, who comfortest me in anguish; be gracious unto me, and hear my prayer.
3. Dear sirs, how long shall my honour be profaned? How you love the vain so well, and the lies so well! Sela.
4. Know ye that the LORD leadeth his saints in a strange way. The LORD heareth when I call upon him.
5. Be ye angry, sin not. Speak with your heart in your camp, and wait. Sela.
6. Sacrifice righteousness, and hope in the LORD.
7. Many say, How shall this man shew us what is good? But, O Lord, lift up the light of thy countenance upon us.
8. Thou hast made my heart glad, though they have much wine and corn.
9. I lie down and sleep in peace: for thou alone, O LORD, helpest me to dwell safely.

The 5th Psalm (^)

Prayer for the church against false teachers.

1. A psalm of David, to be sung for an inheritance.
2. Hear my words, O LORD; mark my speech.
3. Hear my cry, O king, and my God: for I will pray before thee.

4. O Lord, early wilt thou hear my voice; early will I send unto thee, and take heed.
5. For thou art not a god to whom wickedness pleaseth: he that is wicked abideth not before thee.
6. The glorifiers stand not before thine eyes: thou art hostile to all evildoers.
7. Thou destroyest liars: the LORD hath abhorred of the bloodthirsty and false.
8. And I will enter into thy house upon thy great goodness, and will worship against thy holy temple in thy fear.
9. O LORD, guide me in thy righteousness for mine enemies' sake; direct thy way before me.
10. For in their mouth there is no certainty; their inwardness is heartache; their mouth is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they make a pretence.
11. Blame them, O God, that they should fall from their nobleness. Cast them out for their great transgression; for they are rebellious against Thee.
12. Let all them that trust in thee rejoice: let them glory for ever: for thou shielded them: let them that love thy name be glad in thee.
13. For thou, O LORD, blessest the righteous: thou crownest them with grace as with a shield.

The 6th Psalm (^)

Prayer of repentance for health of body and soul.

1. a psalm of David, to be sung on eight strings.
2. O LORD, punish me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thy wrath.
3. Lord, have mercy upon me, for I am faint: heal me, O Lord, for my bones are troubled, 4. And my soul is greatly troubled. O Lord, how long!
5. Turn thee, O LORD, and save my soul: help me for thy goodness' sake.
6. For in death thou art not remembered: who shall thank thee in hell?
7. I am so weary with sighing, I wash my bed all night long, and with my tears I wet my bed.
8. My frame is fallen with grief, and is waxed old: for I am troubled in all places.

9. Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity: for the LORD hath heard my crying, 10. The LORD heareth my supplications; the LORD receiveth my prayer.

11. All mine enemies shall be put to shame, and be sore afraid, and turn back, and be put to shame suddenly.

The 7th Psalm (^)

Prayer for the salvation of the righteous cause.

1. The innocency of David, whereof he sang unto the LORD because of the words of the Moor the Jeminite.

2. In thee, O LORD, do I trust, O my God. Help me from all my persecutors and save me, 3. That they take not my soul like lions, and rend it, because there is no saviour.

4. O LORD my God, I have done these things, and there is iniquity in my hands; 5. I have done evil to them that lived peaceably with me, or have harmed them that were enemies unto me without a cause,

6. Then my enemy pursues my soul, and seizes it, and tramples my life to the ground, and lays my honor in the dust. Sela.

7. arise, O LORD, in thy wrath, rise up above the fury of mine enemies, and restore me to the office which thou hast commanded me,

8. That the people may be gathered unto thee again: and for their sakes come up again.

9. The LORD is judge of men. Judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness and godliness.

10. Put an end to the wickedness of the wicked, and promote the righteous: for thou, righteous God, testest hearts and kidneys.

11. My shield is with God, which helpeth the upright in heart.

12. God is a righteous judge, and a God that travaileth daily.

13. If any man will not be converted, he hath sharpened his sword, he hath bent his bow, he hath aimed it,

14. And hath laid upon it deadly shot: he hath made his arrows to perish.

15. Behold, he hath evil in his heart, he is with child in mischief; but he shall bring forth a defect.

16. He digged a pit, and carried it out, and fell into the pit which he made.

17. His calamity shall come upon his head, and his iniquity shall fall upon his crown.

18. I give thanks unto the LORD for his righteousness' sake, and will praise the name of the LORD Most High.

The 8th Psalm (^)

Of Christ's kingdom, suffering and glory.

1. A psalm of David, to be sung on the githith.

2. O Lord our sovereign, how glorious is thy name in all the earth, when they give thee thanks in heaven!

3. Thou hast put power into the mouth of the young children and sucklings for thine enemies' sake, to destroy the enemy and the revenger.

4. For I will see the heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars which thou preparest.

5. What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the child of man, that thou art mindful of him?

6. you will let him be forsaken by God for a little while. But with honors and adornment you will crown him.

7. Thou wilt make him lord over the work of thy hands: thou hast put all things under his feet: 8. Sheep and bullocks at all, and wild beasts also,

9. The fowls of the air, and the fishes of the sea, and the things that go in the sea.

10. O LORD our sovereign, how glorious is thy name in all lands!

The 9th Psalm (^)

Song of thanksgiving for obtained victory against the enemies.

1. a psalm of David of fair youth, to be sung.

2. I thank the LORD with all my heart, and tell all thy wonders.

3. I am glad and rejoice in thee, and praise thy name, O most high, 4. That thou hast driven mine enemies after thee: they are fallen and perished before thee.

5. For thou hast executed my judgment and my cause: thou sittest upon the throne a righteous judge.

6. Thou reproachest the heathen, and destroyest the wicked: thou destroyest their name for ever and ever.

7. The swords of the enemy are ended; thou hast turned back the cities; their memory is perished with them.

8. But the LORD abideth for ever: he hath prepared his throne for judgment.
9. And he shall judge the earth righteously, and shall govern the people righteously.
10. And the LORD is the poor man's refuge, a refuge in trouble.
11. Therefore they that know thy name put their hope in thee: for they that seek thee, O LORD, trust not in thee.
12. Praise the LORD that dwelleth in Zion; declare his doings among the people.
13. For he remembereth and enquireth after their blood: he forgetteth not the cry of the poor.
14. O Lord, have mercy upon me: behold my affliction among mine enemies, thou that liftest me up out of the gates of death,
15. That I may tell all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion, that I may rejoice in thy salvation.
16. The heathen are sunk in the pit which they have made: their foot is caught in the net which they have made.
17. Thus it is known that the LORD worketh righteousness. The wicked is entangled in the work of his hands by the word. Sela.
18. Oh that the wicked should be turned into hell, all the heathen that forget God!
19. For he will not altogether forget the poor, neither will the hope of the needy be lost for ever.
20. Arise, O Lord, lest men prevail: let all the heathen be judged before thee.
21. Give them, O LORD, a Master, that the heathen may know that they are men. Sela.

The 10th Psalm (^)

Prayer against the enemies of the church.

1. O Lord, why art thou so far off, and hidest thyself in the time of trouble?
2. Because the wicked doeth wickedness, the wretched suffereth. They cling to each other and devise evil deeds.
3. For the wicked boasteth himself of his boldness, and the covetous blesseth himself, and blasphemeth the LORD.

4. The wicked is so proud and angry that he asks no man; in all his wickedness he thinks God is nothing.
5. He continueth in his doings for ever: thy judgments are far from him: he dealeth fiercely with all his enemies.
6. He saith in his heart, I shall never be laid low; there shall be no need for me for ever.
7. His mouth is full of cursing, of falsehood, and of deceit; his tongue worketh toil and trouble.
8. He sitteth and lieth in wait in the courts; he slayeth the innocent in secret; his eyes keep upon the poor.
9. He lieth in wait in secret, as a lion in the den: he lieth in wait to catch the wretch, and catcheth him in his net.
10. He breaketh and presseth down, and thrusteth to the ground the poor man with violence.
11. He saith in his heart, God hath forgotten; he hath hid his face, he shall never see it.
12. Arise, O LORD God, lift up thy hand; forget not the afflicted.
13. Why should the wicked blaspheme God, and say in his heart: You do not ask for it?
14. Thou seest, for thou beholdest the affliction and misery; it is in thy hands. The poor command thee: thou art the helper of the fatherless.
15. Break the arm of the wicked, and seek evil; and his wickedness shall never be found.
16. The LORD is king for ever and ever: the heathen must perish out of his land.
17. Thou hearest the desire of the afflicted, O LORD: their heart is sure that thine ear is attentive unto it,
18. That thou mayest do right to the fatherless and to the poor, that man should no more be inconvenienced in the earth.

The 11th Psalm (^)

Comfort against the enemy consists in right trust in God.

1. A psalm of David, to be sung. I trust in the LORD. How say ye then unto my soul, that it shall fly as a bird upon your mountains?
2. For, behold, the wicked draw the bow, and put their arrows in the string, to shoot the pious in secret.
3. For they pluck up the ground: what shall the righteous man do?

4. The LORD is in his holy temple, the LORD'S throne is in heaven: his eyes do behold, his eyelids do try the children of men.
5. The LORD trieth the righteous: his soul hateth the wicked, and them that love to transgress.
6. He shall rain upon the wicked lightning, and fire, and brimstone, and shall give them a weather for a reward.
7. The LORD is righteous, and loveth righteousness: therefore their faces look unto that which is right.

The 12th Psalm (^)

Prayer for the preservation of the little heap through God's Word.

1. a psalm of David, to be sung on eight strings.
2. Help, O Lord, the saints are diminished, and the faithful are few among the children of men.
3. One speaketh evil with another, and pretendeth, and teacheth out of a divided heart.
4. Let the LORD cut off all hypocrisy, and the tongue that speaketh proudly,
5. Who say, Let our tongue have the preeminence, and let us speak: who is our Lord?
6. Because the miserable are cast down, and the poor groan, I will arise, saith the LORD; and I will make a help to teach with confidence.
7. The word of the LORD is pure, as silver refined in an earthen vessel, proved seven times.
8. Thou, O LORD, wilt preserve them, and keep us from this generation for ever.
9. For it is filled with ungodly men everywhere, where such loose men rule among men.

The 13th Psalm (^)

Prayer in sadness and anguish of heart.

1. a psalm of David, to be sung.
2. O Lord, how long wilt thou forget me? How long wilt thou hide thy face from me?
3. How long shall I be troubled in my soul, and afraid in my heart daily? How long shall my enemy rise up against me?
4. Look upon me, O LORD my God, and hear me. Enlighten mine eyes, that I fall not asleep in death,
5. Lest mine enemy boast that he hath become mighty over me, and mine adversaries rejoice not that I am cast down.

6. But I hope that thou wilt be gracious: my heart rejoiceth that thou wilt help so gladly. I will sing unto the LORD, That he hath done so well for me.

The 14th Psalm (^)

Doctrine of the ruin of the human race and its help.

1. A psalm of David, to be sung. The foolish say in their heart, There is no God. They are good for nothing, and are an abomination with their nature. There is none that doeth good.

2. The LORD looketh from heaven on the children of men, to see if any man be wise, and asketh after God.

3. But they are all gone astray, and are all unfit: there is none that doeth good, not one.

4. Will not any of the transgressors know it, which devour my people, that they feed, but call not upon the LORD?

5. There they fear: but God is with the generation of the righteous.

6. Ye desecrate the poor man's counsel: but God is his confidence.

7. Oh that help would come upon Israel out of Zion, and that the LORD would deliver his captive people! Then Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

The 15th Psalm (^)

The doings of the faithful.

1. A psalm of David. O LORD, who shall dwell in thy tabernacle? Who shall dwell in thy holy mountain?

2. He that walketh without change, and doeth right, and speaketh the truth from the heart; 3. He that slandereth not with his tongue, neither doeth evil to his neighbour, nor reproacheth his neighbour;

4. He that esteemeth not the wicked, but honoureth the godly: he that sweareth unto his neighbour, and keepeth it;

5. He that giveth not his money usurpingly, and taketh not gifts above the innocent: he that doeth these things shall abide.

The 16th Psalm

Prophecy of Christ's passion and resurrection.

1. A golden jewel of David. Keep me, O God: for I trust in thee.

2. I said unto the LORD, Thou art the LORD; I must suffer for thy sake.

3. For the saints that are on the earth, and for the glorious ones: in them have I all my pleasure.

4. But they that go after another shall have great sorrow of heart. I will not sacrifice their libation with the blood, nor take their name in my mouth.
5. But the LORD is my goods and my portion: thou shalt receive my inheritance.
6. The lot is fallen unto me for a goodly thing: a goodly inheritance is become unto me.
7. I praise the LORD, which hath counseled me: my kidneys also chasten me at night.
8. I have the LORD always before me: for he is at my right hand, and I shall dwell.
9. Therefore my heart rejoiceth, and my glory is glad: my flesh also shall lie down in safety.
10. For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, nor suffer thy saint to perish.
11. Thou hast made known unto me the way of life: before thee is fullness of joy, and gladness at thy right hand for ever.

The 17th Psalm (^)

Prayer for sound doctrine and holy living.

1. A prayer of David. Hear, O Lord, righteousness; hearken unto my cry; hear my prayer, which cometh not out of a false mouth.
2. speak thou in my cause, and look thou to the law!
3. Thou hast searched my heart, and visited it by night; thou hast purged me, and found nothing.
I have purposed that my mouth should not transgress.
4. I keep myself in the word of thy lips from the works of man in the way of the murderer.
5. Keep my walk upon thy footsteps, that my treads slide not.
6. I cry unto thee, that thou, O God, mayest hear me: incline thine ear unto me, hear my speech.
7. Shew thy marvellous kindness, thou Saviour of them that trust in thee, against them that set themselves against thy right hand.
8. Keep me as the apple of thine eye in thine eye; shelter me under the shadow of thy wings.
9. from the wicked that trouble me, from mine enemies that stand round about after my soul.
10. Their fat ones hold together; they speak proudly with their mouth.

11. Whithersoever we go, they compass us about: their eyes do they direct, that they may bring us down to the earth,
12. As a lion that desireth a prey, as a young lion that sitteth in the den.
13. Arise, O LORD, overcome him, and humble him: deliver my soul from the wicked with thy sword,
14. Of the people of thy hand, O LORD, of the people of this world, which have their portion in their life, whom thou fillest with thy treasure, which children have the abundance of, and leave the rest unto their young.
15. But I will behold thy face in righteousness; I will be satisfied when I awake in thy image.

The 18th Psalm (^)

Song of thanksgiving for God's blessings.

1. A psalm to sing unto David the servant of the LORD, who spake the words of this song unto the LORD in the days when the LORD delivered him out of the hand of his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul,
2. And said, I love thee, O Lord, my strength,
3. O LORD, my rock, my fortress, my deliverer, my God, my stronghold, in whom I trust, the shield and horn of my salvation, and my refuge!
4. I will praise the LORD, and call upon him, and I shall be delivered from mine enemies.
5. For the bands of death compassed me about, and the rivers of Belial terrified me; 6. The bands of hell compassed me about, and the cords of death overwhelmed me.
7. When I am afraid, I call upon the LORD, and cry unto my God; and he heareth my voice from his temple, and my cry cometh before him in his ears.
8. The earth quaked and was moved, and the foundations of the mountains were moved and shook, because he was wroth.
9. Steam went up from his nostrils, and fire consumed from his mouth, and there was lightning therefrom.
10. He bowed the heavens, and descended, and darkness was under his feet.
11. And he rode upon the cherub, and flew along; he floated upon the wings of the wind.
12. His tent was dark round about him, and black thick clouds, wherein he was hid.

13. From the brightness before him the clouds parted with hail and lightning.

14. And the LORD thundered in heaven, and the most High let out his thunder with hail and lightning.

15. He shot forth his beams, and scattered them: he caused great lightning, and terrified them.

16. And there was a shower of water, and the ground was uncovered, O LORD, from thy rebuke, from the breath of thy nostrils, and from the snorting of thy nostrils.

17. He sent forth from on high, and took me, and drew me up out of great waters.

18. He delivered me from my strong enemies, from my haters that were too mighty for me, 19. Which prevailed against me in the day of my calamity: and the LORD was my confidence.

20. And he brought me forth into the room, and plucked me out: for he had a desire toward me.

21. The LORD hath dealt well with me according to my righteousness: he hath rewarded me according to the cleanness of my hands.

22. For I keep the ways of the LORD, and am not ungodly against my God.

23. For all his judgments I have before mine eyes, and his commandments I will not cast away, 24. But I am without change before him, and keep myself from sins.

25. Therefore the LORD rewardeth me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his sight.

26. With the saints thou art holy, and with the pious thou art pious.

27. And with the pure thou art pure, and with the perverse thou art perverse.

28. For thou helpest the wretched people, and bringest low the high eyes.

29. For thou shinest my light: the LORD my God maketh light my darkness.

30. For with thee I can smite warriors, and leap over the walls with my God.

31. God's ways are without change; the words of the LORD are purified. He is a shield to all who trust in Him.

32. For where is there a God without the LORD? or a refuge without our God?

33. God equips me with strength and makes my ways without change.

34. He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and setteth me on my high place.

35. He hath taught my hand to fight, and my arm to draw a bow of brass.

36. And thou givest me the shield of thy salvation, and thy right hand strengtheneth me; and when thou humblest me, thou makest me great.

37. Thou makest room to walk under me, that my ankles slip not.

38. I will pursue after mine enemies, and seize them, and will not return until I have slain them.

39. I will break them in pieces, and they shall not withstand me; they must fall under my feet.

40. Thou canst arm me with strength to battle; thou canst cast under me them that set themselves against me:

41. Thou givest me mine enemies to flee, that I may destroy mine haters.

42. They cry, but there is no helper; to the LORD, but he answereth them not.

43. I will beat them as the dust before the wind; I will clear them away as the dung of the street.

44. Thou savest me from the contentious people, and makest me a chief among the heathen: a people that I knew not serve me.

45. It obeyeth me with obedient ears: yea, the strange children have sinned against me.

46. the foreign children languish and wriggle in their bonds:

47. The LORD liveth, and blessed be my stronghold; and let the God of my salvation be exalted, 48. The God that giveth me vengeance, and compelleth the nations under me, 49. Who delivereth me from mine enemies, and exalteth me from them that set themselves against me. Thou savest me from the wicked.

50. Therefore will I give thee thanks, O LORD, among the heathen, and sing praise unto thy name,

51. Who hath shewed great salvation unto his king, and his anointed, David, and his seed for ever.

The 19th Psalm (^)

Doctrine of Christ, his word, and right repentance.

1. a psalm of David, to be sung.
2. The heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament proclaimeth the work of his hands.
3. One day telleth another, and one night telleth another.
4. there is no speech nor language, since one does not hear their voice.
5. Their cord goeth forth into all the earth, and their speech unto the end of the world: he hath made a tabernacle for the sun in them.
6. And the same goeth forth as a bridegroom out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a hero to run the way.
7. It ariseth at one end of heaven, and returneth unto the same end; and nothing is hid from the heat thereof.
8. The law of the LORD is without change, and restoreth the soul. The testimony of the LORD is sure, and maketh wise the foolish.
9. The commands of the LORD are right and gladden the heart. The commandments of the LORD are loud and enlighten the eyes.
10. The fear of the LORD is pure, and abideth for ever. The judgments of the LORD are true, all righteous.
11. They are more precious than gold, and much fine gold; they are sweeter than honey and honeycomb.
12. Also thy servant shall be remembered by them: and he that keepeth them hath great reward.
13. Who can tell how often he faileth? Forgive me the hidden faults!
14. Keep also thy servant from the proud, that they rule not over me: then shall I be without change, and blameless in great iniquity.
15. Let the words of my mouth and the conversation of my heart be acceptable unto thee, O LORD, my refuge and my redeemer.

The 20th Psalm (^)

Prayer of the subjects for their authorities.

1. a psalm of David, to be sung.
2. The LORD hear thee in thy trouble: the name of the God of Jacob save thee.
3. Send thee help from the sanctuary, and strengthen thee out of Zion.
4. He shall remember all thy meat offering, and thy burnt offering shall be fat. Sela.

5. He shall give thee that which thine heart desireth, and shall fulfil all thy purposes.
6. We boast that thou wilt help us; and in the name of our God we lift up our banners. The LORD grant thee all thy petition!
7. Now I perceive that the LORD helpeth his anointed, and heareth him in his holy heaven: his right hand helpeth mightily.
8. They rely upon chariots and horses: but we remember the name of the LORD our God.
9. They are cast down and fallen: but we stand upright.
10. Help, O Lord! May the King hear us when we call!

The 21st Psalm (^)

Christ's victory against the enemy.

1. a psalm of David, to be sung.
2. O LORD, the king rejoiceth in thy strength; and how glad is he in thy help!
3. Thou givest him his heart's desire, and refuseest not what his mouth asketh. Sela.
4. For thou hast showered good blessings upon him; thou hast set a crown of gold upon his head.
5. He asketh thee for life, and thou givest him long life for ever and ever.
6. He hath great honour in thy help: thou layest up praise and ornament upon him.
7. For thou hast set him for a blessing for ever: thou hast made him to rejoice in thy countenance.
8. For the king hopeth in the LORD, and shall stand fast by the goodness of the most High.
9. Thine hand shall find all thine enemies: thy right hand shall find them that hate thee.
10. Thou shalt make them as a furnace of fire, when thou shalt look therein: the LORD shall devour them in his wrath. Fire shall devour them.
11. Their fruit shalt thou destroy from off the face of the earth, and their seed from among the children of men.
12. For they thought to do thee evil, and made designs which they could not perform.

13. For thou shalt make her a shoulder; with thy sinew thou shalt aim at her face.

14. Arise, O Lord, in thy strength, and let us sing and praise thy might.

The 22nd Psalm (^)

Prophecy of Christ's suffering and glory.

1. A psalm of David, to be sung by the hind that is hunted early.

2. O my God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? I cry, but my help is far off.

3. O my God, I call in the day, and thou answerest not; neither am I silent in the night.

4. But thou art holy, who dwellest under the praise of Israel.

5. Our fathers hoped in thee, and when they hoped, thou helpedst them out.

6. They cried unto thee, and were delivered: they hoped in thee, and were not put to shame.

7. But I am a worm, and no man; a scorn of men, and contempt of the people.

8. All they that see me mock me, and open their mouths, and shake their heads.

9. Let him complain unto the LORD, and he shall save him, and deliver him, if he have a desire toward him.

